Lewis, Miners Refuse to Honor WSB Ruling

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The nation's 327,000 striking coal miners were told Tuesday by John L. Lewis to stick it out until they get the full $1.90 a day pay boost he negotiated with the coal industry. About 85 per cent of Lewis' 375,000 United Mine Workers are refusing to work because the wage stabilization board lopped 40 cents from the pay increase. The walk-out began Monday, the first working day since the WSB's action. Their work stoppage already has idled 7,500 railroaders.

In a harshly worded letter, Lewis told Harry M. Moses, chief industry negotiator, that: "We have a contract. We expect your compliance with its provisions."

Lewis Hits NAM
"Miners will work when you honor its provisions. If you do not like the contemptible action of the National Association of Manufacturers' labor baiters and the little Harvard professor and his quavering trio, appeal and ask for review and reversal. You are the sole petitioner and plaintiff," Lewis' letter said.

The reference to Harvard professor was taken to mean Archibald Cox, WSB chairman and Harvard law professor.

Only Monday, Moses urged Lewis to order a work return. Moses is president of the Bituminous Coal Operators' association. He told Lewis it was not the operators' fault they could not meet their contract terms.

Termed 'Attempted Theft'
Lewis' reply said: "Naturally miners resent such attempted theft. Miners are people, Mr. Moses. They have children. Children need milk. The 40 cents would buy milk each day. You of all men should know that the mineworkers will fight to protect the milk supply of their families."

Lewis' sentiments were echoed in the coal fields.

Iowa City Residents To Meet Nixon Train

Mrs. Elmer De Gowin, 1203 Friendly ave., will represent Johnson county Republicans aboard Senator Richard Nixon's campaign train in Cedar Rapids today.

Nixon, Republican vice-presidential candidate, is expected to spend about 20 minutes there. He is scheduled to speak at noon. His speech will be given from the rear platform of the train which will be stopped near the downtown depot.

SUI Young Republicans also will send representatives to meet Nixon, his wife, Pat, and Iowa Governor William S. Beardsley, who will ride the campaign train through Iowa.

From Cedar Rapids the train will go to Waterloo, Ft. Dodge, and Sioux City. It will arrive in Cedar Rapids from Ottumwa.

LEA LAWHORN, A1, GARNER, is one of the five finalists chosen Tuesday evening to reign at the 1952 Dolphin show, Oct. 23, 24 and 25. The girls were selected from 10 finalists selected earlier in the week by members of the men's swimming club. The queen will be presented Thursday evening, Oct. 23, at the first performance of the show. (More pictures on pages 3 and 6).

5 SUI Coeds to Reign At Dolphin Production

Five women students were selected Tuesday evening to reign at the 1952 Dolphin show, annual water production, to be presented during SUI's Homecoming, Oct. 23, 24 and 25.

The five finalists are Dorothy Maher, A1, Iowa City; Becky Knudsen, A2, Clinton; Ann Kensing, A3, Tama; Janet Henderson, A1, Sioux City and Lea Lawhorn, A1, Garner.

Members of the men's swimming club selected the five finalists from ten girls chosen earlier in the week.

The queen to be named from among the five finalists, will be presented Thursday evening, Oct. 23, at the first performance of the show.

Three national swimming champions will be featured in the aquatic event. They include Beulah Gundling, a specialist in underwater grace and twins Marilyn and Karlyn Adams, both A4, Des Moines, who will be making their fourth appearance in a Dolphin show.

A trampoline demonstration, trapeze and flying ring acts, and a teeter-board act will be included in the show.

U.S. Rebuffs Reds In Debate Attempt

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States and the Western majority Tuesday rebuffed two attempts by Russia to have Red China and North Korea take part in UN general assembly debate on germ warfare charges against the U.S.

Disregarding repeated cries by Soviet delegate Andral A. Gromyko that the U.S. was taking a "cowardly" attitude, the assembly voted 46 to 5 against a Russian proposal to dispatch invitations immediately to the Communist non-members of the U.N.

A Condensation of Late Developments

SEOUL (Wednesday) (AP)—More than 1,000 Chinese Reds made their third attack in 12 hours on Sniper Ridge at daybreak today but were beaten off by South Koreans after 10 minutes of hand-to-hand fighting. At 6:45 Tuesday night, a force of Reds variously estimated at from 900 to 1,500 charged up the slippery, muddy slopes on the central Korean front and were repulsed after a hand-to-hand struggle. Last midnight, about 300 Reds renewed the attack in rain and fog. They got close enough for a half hour of hand-to-hand fighting before pulling back.

TAIPEH, FORMOSA (AP)—Chiang Kai-Shek Tuesday endorsed a manifesto from the Kuomintang—Nationalist China's ruling political party—urging the West to "give us the tools and we will finish the job" of reconquering Red China. The veteran Nationalist leader in an unprecedented general news conference made clear the manifesto represented his government's views and called for a common front of the East and West against communism.

NAIROBI, KENYA (AP)—Mass arrests Tuesday launched a British drive to crush the Mau Mau, a fanatic, secret native society campaigning with torch and spear to drive White men from this East African colony.

MANILA (AP)—The most violent typhoon of the season struck in full fury against the southern coast of the Philippines' main island of Luzon Wednesday. Floods poured over highways and through small towns in southern Luzon. Wind wrecked communications systems and blacked out several towns. The storm, with 110-mile-an-hour center winds, was expected to pass within 30 miles of Manila today.

Students To Get Additional Seats At Football Games, After Protest

(Editor's Note: The following Student Council statement was issued after Student Council representatives met with athletic department officials Tuesday morning.)

Representatives of the Student Council have conferred with the Director and Business Manager of Athletics to register disapproval of the student seating arrangements at the Wisconsin game. The athletic department admitted it had mistakenly sold to the public more than 1,800 seats in the student section of the West stands.

The Student Council deprecates this mistake.

As a result of this meeting Mr. Brechler has given assurances to the council that 1,100 additional seats will be provided for students in Section K in the east stands for the remaining games and that this year's mistake will not recur in the future. Assurances also were given that the athletic department will consult with the Student Council on seating policy for future football and basketball games.

The Student Council wishes to express its appreciation to the athletic department for the cooperation it has shown in the solution of this situation.

Lovett Says Pentagon Vetoed Rotation Rule

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Lovett said Tuesday the Pentagon has overruled an order by the Far East command extending the period troops must serve in the line in Korea before becoming eligible for rotation back home.

Lovett told a news conference that the countermanning order was sent Oct. 7 by Secretary of the Army Pace. He said it instructed Gen. Mark Clark to reinstate 36 points as the number required for rotation eligibility. The Far East command on Sept. 17 raised the eligibility total to 38 points.

Lovett explained that the rotation points system is determined monthly by the theater commander and that the basic factor is the number of replacements on hand or on the way.

The secretary said the Far East command thought it necessary to extend the period of duty before rotation because there had been a temporary falling off of the number of replacements available for service in Korea.

40,000 Expected to Invade City on Eve of Homecoming

Old Capitol will surrender her spotlights this evening when the floodlights atop the Physics building and University hall shine on the 39th annual Homecoming corn monument.

Engineering students erected the monument Tuesday afternoon on the west side of Old Capitol, officially opening SUI's 1952 Homecoming festivities. The monument was carried in two sections from the mechanical laboratory, where it was constructed, to the erection site.

The 1952 corn monument, a rocket-shaped ear of corn, is 35 feet high, 48 feet long and weighs approximately two tons.

This is considerably larger than the 1951 monument, which was limited in size because it was a part of the Homecoming parade.

Guards Scared As— Students Mob Ike's Car

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — A screaming, yelling but friendly crowd of Harvard students almost mobbed Dwight D. Eisenhower Tuesday as he drove through Harvard Square, giving security men the first fright of the campaign.

The guards couldn't fight back the crowd. Students climbed on the Eisenhower car, they stripped off chromium trimmings and clung to the automobile like leeches.

Police and guards fought to pry them loose, but another would take the place of each one removed. They shook hands with Eisenhower, patted him, grabbed him, and almost overwhelmed him.

It was the noisiest, loudest, and roughest greeting the general has received.

Meanwhile Eisenhower blasted "godless communism" Tuesday as a terrible danger that must be repulsed and emphasized that his ideas on the Soviets were "not of the Yalta or Potsdam kind."

He gave this backhand slap to the Democratic administration record in addressing a huge crowd on the Common in Boston.

Eisenhower said his reasons for opposing communism were not theoretical.

Noted Drama Critic To Speak at Union

John Mason Brown, drama critic, author and associate editor of the Saturday Review, will present the second SUI lecture Monday evening in the Iowa Memorial Union.

"Seeing Things" is the topic chosen by Brown, who holds the record for the largest number of lectures in Manhattan's Town hall, 52 appearances.

Free tickets will be available to students, faculty and staff at the Iowa Memorial Union desk Thursday. Tickets remaining on Monday will be available to the general public, according to Earl E. Harper, director of the Union.

Parade to Feature 40 Floats, 6 Bands

Friday night's Homecoming parade is expected to attract nearly 40,000 persons, Fred Doderer, chairman of the parade committee, said Tuesday.

More than 40 floats will strive for the grand prize and six lesser prizes in the hour-long parade.

At least a half-dozen bands from nearby towns are expected to parade, as well as the SUI band, Scottish Highlanders, City High band, Larry Barrett's Combo and the Iowa City Moose drum and bugle corps.

Floats will be entered by dormitories, professional and social fraternities and the SUI employees.

They will be judged by the Homecoming parade committee made up of representatives of the faculty, students, staff, alumni and townspeople.

Prizes awarded will be based on beauty, humor and originality. The grand prize, a large trophy, will be awarded to the organization with the float with the largest number of points after judging on all three factors.

The other prizes will go to two different classes of floats. Three will be awarded the floats that best combine beauty and originality and three will go to the float best combining humor and originality.

Trophy, Loving Cups
A trophy will also be awarded as second prize, while the remaining prizes will be loving cups.

This year, as in previous years, many of the floats are financed by local civic, church and merchant organizations. These groups provide money for materials, while the student organization builds the float.

No more than $50 may be spent on any one float.

The parade will start at 7 p.m. near East hall on Iowa ave., then move down Iowa to Dubuque and down Dubuque to College st. Then it will turn onto Clinton, pass the reviewing stand of the Homecoming committee and move north past Currier hall.

REDS HIT DESTROYER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The navy announced Tuesday that seven men were killed and one wounded Oct. 14 when Communist shore fire hit the destroyer Lewis off the east coast of Korea.

Student Council Group Meets With Brechler

A special section will be reserved for student seating on the east side of the SUI football stadium as a result of a protest meeting by a student council committee with Paul Brechler, director of athletics, Tuesday morning.

The students met with Brechler to discuss the sale of 1,800 seats to the public in the traditional student section on the west side of the stadium.

The group pointed out that the "unprecedented sale of those seats" resulted in approximately 300 to 400 students being forced to stand during Saturday's game with Wisconsin.

Not a 'Stable Thing'
Brechler told the council group that the reservation of a special student section is not a "stable thing." It depends upon anticipated fall enrollment, he said.

Enrollment is estimated in the sales get underway in mid-July. He said the number of students estimated to enroll this fall was approximately 6,200, a figure considerably under the 1951 fall enrollment. The number of seats in the student section was reduced accordingly, and the public was given an opportunity to purchase the excess seats in this section, Brechler declared.

Instead, 1952 enrollment is approximately the same as 1951, he said.

Mistake in Selling
Brechler revealed that the seats originally to be sold were those at the north end on the west side of the stadium, working toward the center of the student section. Because of a mistake, they were sold from the middle of the student section out toward the end of the stands.

Brechler declined to reveal how the mistake originated.

He assured the Student Council group that the student section at the stadium would not be moved any farther north, although seats already sold to the public will continue to be occupied by the public for the remainder of the year.

He said "K" section on the east side of the stadium now will be reserved for students. Brechler said this will mean approximately 1,100 additional seats.

Assured Correction
He assured the group that the seating problem would be corrected by next fall when the 1953 football season opens.

The situation also was discussed in relation to basketball games. The council group said the public has filled up the student section at times and has caused many students to be turned away at the gate.

Brechler told the group that a more efficient and strict method of ushering would be tried in order to eliminate the problem.

It was proposed that in the future a committee from the Student Council meet with the athletic department late in the spring, to help determine the number of reserved student seats for the coming fall.

Would Strengthen Relationship
Brechler agreed that this would help strengthen relations between the athletic department and the student body.

Student council members present at the meeting were: Peter Van Metre, L4, Waterloo president; George Feiwel, L4, Chicago; Joe Wasnell, G, Des Moines; Dale Razez, C4, Haslan, and Richard Gleichman, P2, Rockford, Ill.

Francis Graham, business manager of athletics, also attended.

WSUI to Cover Homecoming Event

WSUI will give full radio coverage to the SUI Homecoming parade at 7:00 p.m. Friday, station officials announced Tuesday.

The broadcast will originate from the reviewing stand on the corner of Clinton and Iowa sts. Description of the entire parade will be given.

Survey Shows 4 Pivot States Give Ike Edge

(Editor's Note: This is the first of a series of five stories on the political outlook as newspaper editors and political writers see it, as of now, in all 48 states.)

NEW YORK (AP) — Four of the five pivotal middle Atlantic states — Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland and Delaware — now are regarded by editors and political writers as edging a bit more toward the GOP than they were six weeks ago.

In the fifth — New York, with 45 electoral votes — the consensus of newsmen participating in an Associated Press survey is that the race has tightened since Labor day.

Their combined opinion is that Democratic presidential nominee Adlai E. Stevenson has closed some of the gap but that Republican Dwight D. Eisenhower still has a fairly comfortable margin.

5 States Have 105 Votes
Bunched together in the five states are 105 electoral votes and a rich political prize — two-fifths of the 266 votes required to clinch the presidential election Nov. 4.

The combined view of newsmen taking part in this second survey — the first was made some six weeks ago — is that all those 105 votes still would line up for Gen. Eisenhower if the election were held today.

New York, Pennsylvania and New Jersey are considered fairly sure to vote Republican, as they see it. Maryland and Delaware are listed nearer the doubtful column but bending toward the GOP.

Caution Note Sounded

Yet many of those participating in the survey sounded this note of caution: Heavy registrations of new voters could upset calculations for any or all the states. There just isn't any sure way of gauging where the new votes will land.

The professional politicians differ, too, on what a heavy registration and record vote might signify. Democrats contend a big vote always favors them; Republicans argue that large registrations in time mean people want a change and are getting ready to turn out and vote for one.

In a tight race, the new votes might be a major or even a conclusive factor in determining whether a state backs Eisenhower or Stevenson.

Earlier Results Verified

Insofar as newsmen manning the rods and transits for the mid-October survey consider all the middle Atlantic states likely to go solidly Republican, results are just what they were in earlier soundings around Labor day.

In New York, however, the combined estimate of editors is that Eisenhower would win by some 277,000 votes if the election were held today, whereas the first survey estimated the margin at perhaps 360,000.

The shift is attributed in large measure to a reappraisal of the showing the Progressive party candidate, Vincent Hallinan, may make. In New York city, Hallinan now is expected to collect a larger city vote. But newsmen believe his vote upstate will be negligible.

Elsewhere in the middle Atlantic area, editors say Eisenhower generally has picked up a little political power in the weeks since the first survey.

Interlude

"A campus poll, eh—will I be quoted?"

Voters of 37 States to Cast Ballots on Labor, Tax Proposals

Labor, tax and other proposals to the number of more than 200 will be submitted to voters of 37 states at the Nov. 4 election, reports commerce clearing house, authoritative law reporting organization.

These include restriction of organized labor activities in Nevada and Arizona, prohibitions against diversion of road users' tax money in Alabama, Arizona and Georgia, tax limitation in Oregon, tax reduction in Colorado, repeal of anti-Chinese laws in California, and reduction of voting age to 18 in Oklahoma and South Dakota.

More than half the measures are submitted to the voters of four states. These are: Georgia 46, Louisiana 32, California 23, Oregon 18. Eleven states have no proposals before their electorates, among them the New England states and New York.

Picket Restriction Proposed
The Arizona labor proposal, according to the CCH survey, would restrict picketing to disputes over wages and working conditions. Unions would be held responsible for acts of their agents, and be liable for damages of from $100 to $1,000 each.

Nevada's measure, put on the ballot by initiative petition, seeks to protect the right to work without union membership. It would prohibit denial of employment to non-union workers, prohibit agreements to exclude such persons, and prohibit strikes or picketing to induce violation of the proposed act.

Also, it would brand as illegal any attempt to compel a person to join a union or leave his employment against his will, and would prohibit conspiracies to cause discharge of any person because of non-membership in a labor organization.

Tax Proposals Included
Many of the important proposals deal directly with taxes, the CCH report states.

Among plans for new taxes are Colorado's 5 per cent severance tax on oil, proceeds to be earmarked for schools; Oregon's 1 1/2 cents on each 10 cigarettes sold; and a proposal in Arkansas to authorize a 1 per cent city property tax to promote new industries.

Tax increases up for approval, as listed in the CCH survey, are North Carolina's raise from 15 to 20 cents as the limit of total state and county taxes which may be levied on each $100 property valuation for general fund purposes; Oklahoma's boost in the sales tax rate from 2 to 3 per cent, and Montana's gas tax raise of one cent.

Tax increases which will result from approval of bond issues are possible in two states. Oklahoma proposes a $125 million issue for a soldiers' bonus to be paid from a severance tax on natural resources, taxes on 3.2 per cent beer and tobacco, and a surtax on incomes. In New Jersey, a proposal for a $285 million issue for the new Garden State Parkway carries a provision for a levy on real and personal property in years when funds assigned from motor fuel taxes are inadequate to finance the bonds.

Prohibits Increased Revenue
The tax limitation measure in Oregon proposes prohibition of an increase in revenue raised by any taxing unit to more than 6 per cent above the amount raised in any one of the 3 preceding years. Another proposal calls for prohibiting a state property tax greater than 6 mills multiplied by the total equalized assessed valuation for that year. The two plans exempt the amount needed to pay bonded indebtedness or interest thereon.

A third proposal authorizes a legislative committee to exercise budgetary control over executive and administrative operation of the state.

One tax reduction proposition will be voted on, and that is in Colorado, where the personal property exemption for heads of families would be increased from $200 to $400 and a six-year exemption granted from 1956 through 1961 to property used in processing gasoline, oil and by-products from coal or oil shale.

Anti-Red Measures
Californians will vote on two anti-Red measures. One would prohibit holding of public office or employment by any person advocating the overthrow of the government by force and would deny tax exemption to any person or organization advocating such action. The second would require each public officer and employee to take an oath that he neither advocates nor is a member of such anti-government organizations. Employees at lower levels and those exempt by law would not be required to take such an oath.

Georgia seeks to extend federal social security to all state employees; Washington, to put a floor of $75 a month under social security grants; and California, to increase its $75 maximum payments by cost-of-living increases since March, 1950, within limits.

Two other steps are taken in the California proposal to bolster its old age assistance program. One calls for state payment of health services for old age recipients and the second would entitle recipients to medical and hospital care from home county.

A variety of other plans will require voters' approval. Among these reported by commerce clearing house are removal of double liability on stockholders of state banks in Illinois; clearing checks at par on state banks in North Dakota; and two proposals hitting daylight savings.

Oregon and Washington approach this latter problem differently but can reach the same end. Oregon asks state-wide abolition of a change from standard time, while Washington seeks to prevent cities from adopting daylight time.

4 Syndicate Members Plead Innocent to Tax Gyp Charge

NEW YORK (AP) — Four members of a syndicate—including a one-time U.S. attorney based at Newark—were charged Monday with a million dollar tax gyp in their scarce sugar and corn syrup.

Two of the men were linked in separate crime committee testimony with racketeer Frank Costello, now imprisoned.

The four pleaded innocent and were held in bond of $5,000 each for a hearing Dec. 15. The names and the maximum penalties if they are convicted are:

William Giglio, 37 general manager of Heparin, Inc., of Jersey City, N.J., 40 years and $80,000 in fines.

Louis J. Roth, 51, a New York accountant previously indicted on a charge of making false statements to the Reconstruction Finance corporation, 50 years and $100,000.

Howard M. Lawn, 41, of Long Branch, N.J., former assistant U.S. attorney in charge of the criminal division in Newark, N.J., 15 years and $30,000.

Frank S. Livorisi, 49, an ex-convict who served time for dope peddling, has a record of 20 arrests and faces 20 years and a $40,000 fine.

lion worth of business during the sugar-scarce period right after the war.

The government claimed that the accused men made "tremendous" profits on which they owe more than a million dollars in taxes and penalties.

Under the new setup a regional commissioner will supervise activities in Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa and Nebraska. Theodore H. Feig, a career employee in Minnesota, was installed as regional commissioner.

Registration Of Reds Presents Legal Problems

By J.M. ROBERTS JR.
Associated Press News Analyst

The subversive activities control board has gone through lengthy hearings and written a three million-word record to establish what most everybody knew all the time, that the Communist party in the United States is an agency of the Soviet government in Moscow.

The decision, written by a two-member panel, is expected to be accepted soon by the whole board.

Action will be taken to require the party to register, bare its membership roles and report on its financing. The case will then be ready for a long court fight over its constitutionality.

Differed McCarran Act
The McCarran Act under which this action is being taken is not the one which has been under attack during the campaign.

It is merely another "handle" by which the United States seeks to hamper an obviously subversive group, but one which occupies a strangely delicate position within the framework of American law and tradition.

There are perfectly sincere Americans who fear the activity of American Communists less than repressive measures which civil impinge on fundamental civil rights.

History Recalled
They sometimes remind us that America's founding revolutionaries gladly accepted aid from a foreign country, France. But they seem to forget the difference, that the American revolutionaries were working to control a country for themselves, not for any foreign power, and that they assiduously avoided the many strings by which France sought to use the situation for the enhancement of her own position on the American continent.

It is this matter of motive which various new American laws have sought to cover without at the same time setting up precedents which could some day handicap loyal and aroused American citizens in a dispute with a perverted government of their own.

Warns of Tyranny
A law aimed at certain revolutionary activities must therefore be carefully permissive of other activities, else it becomes an invitation to tyranny.

In this respect, the singling out of American Communists for treatment on a different basis from a hundred and one other groups of dissenters presents extreme legal difficulties.

It was first necessary to establish them as singularly different, and that's what the board has been attempting to do. But the battle is just beginning.

Counsel for Daughter Of U.S. General Says Client Mental Patient

TOKYO (AP) — Military counsel for the daughter of a famed World War II general said Tuesday she had been under psychiatric treatment for years prior to the knife killing of her husband, an army colonel.

Lt. Col. Howard S. Levie, appointed by the U. S. army as defense counsel, said Mrs. Aubrey D. Smith, 40, started taking mental treatment while her husband was overseas in World War II.

Smith, 45, chief of the plans and operations division, logistics section, Far East command, was stabbed at midnight Oct. 3 and died six hours later.

Levie said that Mrs. Smith, daughter of Gen. Walter Krueger, of San Antonio, Tex., World War II's sixth army commander in the Pacific, still was unable to tell what happened in her Tokyo home.

"She only remembers disjointed things like a telephone ringing," Levie said.

Mrs. Smith is in a Tokyo hospital under observation, he said.

Army authorities are awaiting a report from the hospital officials before deciding on the next step in the case. The hospital officials are awaiting arrival of Mrs. Smith's medical records from the United States.

Snyder Outlines New Goals of Tax Bureau

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Secretary of the Treasury Snyder Monday listed maintenance of unquestioned integrity and maximum operating efficiency and economy as goals of the current reorganization of the Internal Revenue Bureau.

He spoke at installation ceremonies for new regional and state officers of the bureau. He said that in the reorganization for this area, career men are replacing all but one political appointee. This he said will bring "better service to the American citizens."

Under the new setup a regional commissioner will supervise activities in Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa and Nebraska. Theodore H. Feig, a career employee in Minnesota, was installed as regional commissioner.

State Directors under Feig are James S. Lamb, Fargo, N. D., William C. Welsh, Aberdeen, S. D., Delbert V. Gordon, Omaha; Frank

Army Denies Charge Soldiers in Korea Carry Old Weapons

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two former intelligence officers asserted Monday that the GI in Korea carries an antiquated collection of arms and that this results in needless death. The army replied that the American soldiers "carries a more modern collection of arms than any other foot soldier in the world."

Garet Underhill, formerly of the army's G-2 section, and Ronald Schiller, who was a naval intelligence officer in World War II, said foot soldiers in Korea carry antiquated arms although the army has in existence or on the drawing boards a variety of new weapons.

They called the alleged obsolescence of weapons "an unparalleled national disgrace."

The army's reply was a statement by Maj. Gen. Ward H. Morris, deputy chief of staff for research and development.

As for the charge that needless deaths have resulted in Korea, he said:

"Conjectures regarding the loss of unaccounted lives due to obsolescence and failure is extremely destructive criticism unless the authors show that any more reliable weapons exist and can be now produced."

Morris said an article by Underhill and Schiller in "Look" magazine contained numerous inaccuracies and much "personal innuendo" which was not supported by fact.

TO THE EDITOR: If my memory serves me correctly coach Evashevski stated last year that "to have a good football team there must be support from the student body." To have this support at the stadium there must be unity and how can you have this unity if the students are put into two different sections and split up by reserved seats. I felt sort of pushed out of the way and there were many others who felt the same way.

To me it looks like the University is looking for that so called "extra buck." Since when does the University sell so many tickets that the students have to sit in aisles. When it comes to the point where the buck is more important than the students it's time to forget the game. After all, where would the University, and its football team be if it weren't for the students?

Experimental Plays at SUI Help Training

For many years the SUI dramatic arts department has placed emphasis upon the experimental production of new plays. Wide recognition has come to the University theater's policy of producing original manuscripts.

The work has the approval of playwrights, producers, and critics. Among them are Martin Flavin, Paul Green, Lynn Riggs, Dan Toheroh, Owen Davis, Arthur Hopkins, Barret H. Clark, and John Mason Brown — all noted personalities in the American theater.

This work is organized as a graduate seminar in the dramatic arts department. It is a part of the work of the school of fine arts and the dramatic college.

Apprenticeship Period
It is organized in the interest of playwrights who are in what might be termed "an apprenticeship period" of their development. It permits them to revise and rewrite imperfect manuscripts under the conditions of a producing theater and to test their plays before an audience.

New plays which utilize materials from the life of the west are given preference when plays are chosen for production.

Advanced students only are admitted to the Playwrights' series seminar. Playwrights must submit one or more original plays. A few playwrights whose plays are ready for the experimental work involved in the process of actual production will be accepted.

Coordinates Phases
A first course in the Experimental theater coordinates the work of production with that of the playwright. A limited number of advanced undergraduates and students who are interested in directing, acting, and designing are admitted.

This group devises and carries out experimental projects and the production of original three-act plays.

The program is under the supervision of Prof. E. C. Mable, head of the SUI dramatic arts department, who is assisted by Prof. H. C. Grain and Lowell Matson, directors; Arthur C. Lamb, reader, and Harold Marston, technician.

6 Plays Scheduled
Six experimental plays will be produced during the season. The tentative opening dates for these plays are Oct. 27, Nov. 21, Feb. 13, Feb. 27, April 14, and May 22. The plays will be shown for two performances.

The first play selected for the series is, as Professor Mable described it, a "zany farce" entitled "Where There's Smoke." The play is an original work written by Sherwood Collins, G, Dwight, Kan.

8 in Cast
The cast for the production includes Sonya Goering, A3, Walcott; Robert Paulus, G, Iowa City; Gary Kloppenberg, A2, Atlantic; Joyce Stevens, Iowa City; Rosemary Wayland, A1, Tipton; Susan Wood, A3, Milwaukee, Wis.; James

Students Rehearse for 'Where There's Smoke'

"I'M GOING TO A FIRE!" exclaims Rosemary Wayland, A1, Tipton (left) to Sonya Goering, A3, Walcott, in this scene from the rehearsal of "Where There's Smoke," an original play written by Sherwood Collins, G, Dwight, Kan. The play is a comedy concerning the escapades of an old-fashioned volunteer fire brigade. It will be presented Oct. 27 and 28 as the first of six experimental plays sponsored by the SUI dramatic arts department.

Rukes, Iowa City, and Charles Brandon, A4, St. Louis, Mo.

The experimental series will not be shown to the general public as they are considered "class productions." An audience will be asked by invitation.

Any individuals who wish to be invited to the series must join a "First Nighter's" organization, an organization which will entitle them to a season ticket for the series.

The regulations regarding membership in the "First Nighter's" are the following: within the week following each presentation which the member attends, he must write a statement of at least 150 words for the student-playwright indicating what he liked and disliked about the play.

Local Red Cross Group Selects New Officers

Officers for the Johnson county chapter of the American Red Cross were elected Monday.

These officers will serve during the coming year on the board of directors: chairman, Otis Walker; vice chairman, Walter Schmidt; secretary, Mrs. R. A. Fenton; treasurer, Prof. Elmer W. Hills; secretary, Mrs. William Spear.

The rotating board members serve a term of three years. Those elected for three years are Prof. J. L. Davies, Mrs. R. A. Fenton, Loren L. Hickerson, Mrs. P. C. Jeans, Prof. J. W. Howe, Attorney William M. Tucker and James R. Swaner.

7 Have 2 More Years
Those who have two years left to serve on the board are M. L. Huit, Mrs. Eleanor Jessup, Mrs. C. W. Keyser, Attorney William L. Meardon, Mrs. Robert Ray, Mrs. M. E. Taylor and Attorney Emil Trott.

With one year left to serve on the board are Frances Camp, Mrs. B. V. Crawford, Prof. Walter L. Daykin, Mrs. Thomas Farrell, Ed Kadera, Attorney A. O. Kelley and Mrs. Edwin B. Kurtz.

Those elected to the general committees for 1953 fund raising, to be appointed later: publicity, Mrs. Ralph Shriner; radio publicity for KXIC, Gene Clausen; for WSUI, Richard Setterberg; finance, Attorney A. O. Kelley.

The Johnson county chapter of the American Red Cross made its fund raising goal for the year 1951-52 with $19,844.

The Red Cross offices are located at 15 1/2 S. Dubuque st.

Council Group to Sponsor Rooms for Visiting Parents

The student council social committee is sponsoring a program to make rooms available to visiting parents during football game weekends beginning with the Homecoming game.

Most of the rooms available are double rooms and range in price from $2 to $5.

Students wishing rooms should call the student council office in Old Dental building (x2350) on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons.

The council will provide the address, phone number, type of room, price and nights available. Students are responsible for making their own reservations.

The program was started last year by Jim Mergen, A3, Fennimore, Wis., who made a door-to-door campaign to secure rooms. Telephone inquiries were made this year.

Iowa City residents who have rooms available and would like to rent them on weekends may make arrangements by calling the student council office.

The social committee members who are working on the program are Marj Livengood, A4, Des Moines and Virgil Hancher, Jr., co-chairmen; Barbara Hoffman, N3, Monticello; Violet Gordanier, N4, Postville; Lue Cramblit, L4, Ottumwa and Bill Skaife, L1, Dubuque.

Prediction time again—and it looks like a rough week end is in store.

- Ohio State over Iowa by 12
Purdue over Illinois by 3
Indiana over Northwestern by 7

The rumor room is strictly incorrect in saying that Dusty Rice will be shifted to end this week.

Pete Spanjers re-injured his leg against Wisconsin and isn't working out at all this week.

Wisconsin's Harland Carl, who missed much of last week's game against Iowa because of a slight concussion suffered in the first half, still leads Big Ten scorers with 36 points in four games.

Iowa's statistics for the first four games show a total of 1,035 yards as compared with the foe's 1,683.

The Iowa defense has been pierced for 1,081 yards on the ground, a 4.2 average, and 602 by air, with 40 completions in 73 attempts.

Among Iowa's individual statistics one of the best is the figure for pass catching of Dan McBride, who has grabbed 17 for 206 yards.

Burt Britzmann, quarterback, has completed 26 of 59 passes for 325 yards and a 400 percentage mark and Binkey Broeder has a 41-yard average on 22 punts.

Asked if the question of signing the involved players was the reason he was resigning, O'Brien declared:

"All I can say is that no matter what course is followed, I am leaving."

Rivera denied the charges. A Cook county grand jury on Oct. 14 refused to indict the outfielder.

Statistics Support Spartan Rank

NEW YORK (AP)—Cold figures proved Tuesday what Michigan State's opponents have been saying all along:

The Spartans have the hottest attacking team in the country. Coach Biggie Munn's three-platoon system of backs ripped for 447 yards rushing and passing in their 48-7 romp over Syracuse last Saturday, making their season's average per game 460.8 yards. The effort was sub par for Michigan State, which had an average of 465.3 a week ago.

Average 6.51 per Play The major college statistics, released Tuesday by the NCAA Service Bureau, also shattered the impression that Michigan State is good for a first down every time they lined up to run a play.

Michigan State is seventh in rushing average with 272.3 and seventh in passing with 188.5. No other team is in the top ten in both departments.

California, like Michigan State unbeaten and untied, is the nation's powerhouse in rushing with a figure of 342.8 yards per game, while Fordham, which has yet to win a game, heads the passing parade with an average of 293 yards per game in two contests.

Remarkable Average Fordham's average is remarkable in that only two other schools are over 200 yards per game—Illinois with 211.8 and Ohio State with 201.

Oklahoma, which ranks sixth in total offense with 416.4, is first in the important matter of converting yards into points with an average of 40.3 per game.

Virginia, however, is even better at making points rather than merely running up impressive yardage totals.

The owners will hold their meeting here. They will consider the question of whether to permit as players several former college stars who have been involved in the scandals.

American Cage League President Planning to Resign

NEW YORK (AP)—John J. O'Brien, president of the American Professional Basketball league since 1928, said Tuesday night he would resign as of Thursday evening if the club owners decide not to permit players involved in the college game point fixes to play.

"I am opposed to permitting them to play," said O'Brien. "For all these years, our league has been free of any taint. I don't want to see things changed now. However, it is the owners' problem to solve."

Asked if the question of signing the involved players was the reason he was resigning, O'Brien declared:

"All I can say is that no matter what course is followed, I am leaving."

Rivera denied the charges. A Cook county grand jury on Oct. 14 refused to indict the outfielder.

There was no indication that the commissioner's office would act at all in the case.

NEW YORK (AP)—Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick said Tuesday his office has taken no action in the case of Jim Rivera.

Rivera denied the charges. A Cook county grand jury on Oct. 14 refused to indict the outfielder.

Big Leagues Announce Opening Day Pairings

CINCINNATI (AP)—The National League's schedule committee Tuesday announced 1953 opening day pairings and said next year's All-Star game would be held July 14 in Braves Field at Boston.

The last time the All-Star game was played in Braves Field was in 1936 when the National League scored their first victory, 4 to 3.

In keeping with tradition that Cincinnati always opens the season at home, the Reds will meet Pittsburgh here on April 13, a day ahead of the other senior league openers.

The April 14 games will have Boston at Brooklyn, New York at Philadelphia, St. Louis at Pittsburgh and Cincinnati at Chicago.

In Chicago it was announced that the 1953 American League baseball season will open Monday, April 13, with the traditional solo inaugural at Washington, and close Sunday, Sept. 27.

President Will Harridge Tuesday disclosed the junior circuit's opening slate.

After the New York Yankees and Senators bow in at Washington April 13, the league's full opening round follows the next day with Detroit at St. Louis, Chicago at Cleveland, Philadelphia at New York and Washington at Boston.

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Manager Leo Durocher of the New York Giants Tuesday night said he may quit baseball after the 1953 season and enter the production end of the movies.

"I am interested in such a project," said Durocher. "There is nothing definite about it, but I have had some proposals along this line and I am very seriously considering such a step."

NEW YORK (AP)—The Southwest conference is under 1951 in home football attendance but will draw more than 1,000,000 for the fourth straight year if the present rate is maintained.

Sarazen Calls Golf Meet Plan 'Commercial'

NEW YORK (AP)—Horton Smith, president of the Professional Golfers association said Tuesday he personally is in favor of changing the format of the PGA tournament but the proposal drew a sharp blast from the veteran Gene Sarazen.

"It's surrender to commercialism," said Sarazen, stocky squire from Germantown, N.Y., who has won most of the major championships in the United States and Great Britain.

Under a plan presented by the Birmingham, Mich., country club, site of the 1953 tournament, Monday, there would be 72 holes of qualifying with match play reduced to 16 players.

Four days of medal play, covering 72 holes, would determine 15 qualifiers who would go into the match play field with the defending champion. The survivors would complete in four rounds of match play covering three days.

Under the present procedure, 36 holes of qualifying reduces the field to 64 players who then launch "sudden death" eliminations. Since the first four rounds are for only 18 holes, many of the "big name" golfers have met early defeat, setting up a nondescript final.

"I personally am in favor of a change," Smith said during a visit. "But I have no word in the matter. It will be left entirely up to the membership."

The matter will be discussed at the PGA convention in Chicago Nov. 10.

"This looks like a move to sacrifice the new and up-and-coming young player for the perpetuation of the old guard," Sarazen commented. "What difference does it make if some of the big names got beat. It's a boost for the newcomer and a boost for the game. But the idea, of course, is to protect gate receipts."

TEAM NEEDS MARKSMEN The varsity and ROTC rifle teams at SUI are still open for membership according to 1st Lt. John H. Warner, director of marksmanship for the army Reserve Officers Training Corps unit. Applications may be made at a meeting of the two teams tonight at 7 p.m. in the armory. All students are eligible for the varsity team, but only members of the ROTC are eligible for the other team.

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP)—Purdue university's football squad went through an extended scrimmage Tuesday, trying to gear up for a running attack that was stymied by its own fumbles last Saturday.

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Wisconsin's Badgers resumed heavy practice Tuesday against UCLA formations.

The Jayvees used a Bruin-style single wing attack against the varsity defense, while the Badger freshman put up a six-man line to test the varsity attack.

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—Northwestern put in a long, high-spirited scrimmage Tuesday and appeared to be well set to meet Indiana in the Wildcats' Homecoming engagement Saturday.

Back Chuck Hren, Jerry Weber and Bob Lauter drew praise for their hard running. Poor tackling was the only sour note of the rugged drill.

Coach Forest Evashevski indicated Tuesday that third stringer Jim Hatch would start at offensive left halfback against Ohio State Saturday.

1,935 New Voters Have Registered, Topping 1948 Peak

A total of 1,935 new voters had registered at City hall Tuesday, the city clerk's office announced, which passed the Iowa City 1948 record of 1,700 new registrations.

Saturday will be the final day to register in Iowa City for the 1952 election Nov. 4. The clerk's office in the City hall, where registration is handled, will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. through Friday, and from 8 a.m. until noon Saturday.

Bloomington, Ind., which has been challenged by Iowa City to a contest to see which city can get out the largest vote election day, is going all out to beat Iowa City, Voters Unlimited said Tuesday.

The University of Indiana is located at Bloomington, a city of 28,163 population compared to Iowa City's 27,212, by the 1950 census.

Radio Observance Of UN Scheduled

A morning chapel program has been arranged for broadcast over WSUI in observance of United Nations week, Mr. Willard Lampe, director of the university's school of religion announced Tuesday.

The program will be broadcast from 8 to 8:15 a.m., daily throughout the week.

Prof. Paul Olson, of the department of economics, will cite some of the economic problems facing the UN in his talk today.

The reconstruction of Korea will be discussed Thursday by David Kim, research assistant in the department of Oriental studies.

Friday's program will concern problem solving, with UNESCO, a UN agency, the main topic of discussion. Prof. Arthur Moehlman, of the department of education, will be the speaker.

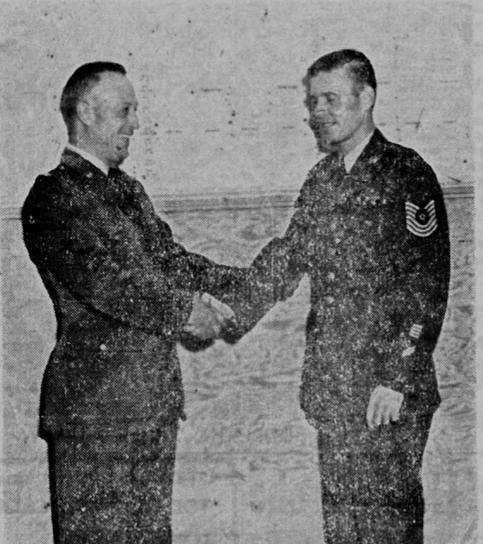

The final broadcast Saturday will deal with personalized problems, under the heading of "Am I My Brother's Keeper?" Prof. Hew Roberts, of the department of education and chairman of the series, will be the final speaker.

16 Businessmen to Assist In Community Chest Drive

Sixteen local businessmen will serve as captains in the business division of the annual Iowa City Community Chest drive, Clark Houghton, business division chairman, announced Tuesday.

The men chosen are: Emil Trott, Bob Alderman, John Graham, Randy Barnett, Bill Welt, Earl Murphy, Elbert Beaver, Bob Gibbs, Harry Dunlap, Joe Schaaf, George Dane, John Craig, Tom O'Brien, Owen Morgan and Dick Igenfritz. David Todd will serve as assistant division chairman.

The business division, consisting of the proprietors and employees of all business firms in the community, is the largest division of the annual drive.

This division is expected to account for nearly half of the 1953 total Community Chest goal of $35,240.

"We hope most business firms will continue to encourage their employees to make their Commu-

$15,500 Asked By Local Woman For Car Injuries

Mrs. Charles Mills, 904 S. Dodge st., Monday asked a judgment of $15,500 for damages suffered as the result of an automobile collision Oct. 1, 1951.

Named as defendants in the action are John O. Fisher, Betty Fisher, Rex Hansman and Monte R. Grant.

In her petition, Mrs. Mills stated that cars driven by Monte Grant and Betty Fisher collided at the intersection of Dodge and Page streets. The cars then struck her as she was walking with her grandchild on the sidewalk on the east side of Dodge st.

Mrs. Mills stated that she was knocked down, suffered cuts, bruises, scratches, back and leg injuries. She claims her right leg and knee are stiff because of the accident.

She asks $7,500 for permanent injury, $7,500 for pain and suffering and $500 for medical, hospital and other expenses.

ity Chest pledges where they work," Houghton said.

Many businessmen consider this good business policy, he added, and encourage all of their employees to support the Community Chest drive 100 per cent.

"As in past campaigns, our goal is four hours' pay from each employee," Houghton said. "If every-one regards that amount as his fair share toward the Red Feather services, we will meet our goal."

WSUI to Feature 3 UN Programs

WSUI will feature three special radio programs Friday, Oct. 24, United Nations day.

Basil Rathbone will star in "Statement of Account" at 11:30 a.m., produced by the UN radio committee.

"Children's Letter to the United Nations," in the form of a cantata, will be the second feature at 11:45 a.m. The cantata is based on a letter written to the UN by a kindergarten class in New York city. It will be sung by a chorus of New York high school students.

WSUI's studios will produce the third of the series, "Hope of the World," at 3:45 p.m. written by Larry Riggs, A4, Chicago.

Dwight G. Rider, Fort Dodge, is president of the board. Secretary of the board and a member of the finance committee is David A. Dancer, Des Moines. Carl Gernetzky, Des Moines, is the other finance committee member.

Other board members are Mrs. Willard Archie, Shenandoah; Harry Hagaman, Waverly; V. B. Hamilton, Hampton; Mrs. George L. Kyseth, Clarion; Robert P. Munger, Sioux City; Richard Plock, Burlington; W. S. Rupe, Ames and Roy E. Stevens, Ottumwa.

The group meets once a month at one of the schools in its system.

U.S. Foreign Aid Reaches 32 Billion

WASHINGTON (P)—The United States has loaned or given over a tenth of its national revenue in the past seven years as foreign aid to friends and former friends.

This was disclosed Tuesday in a roundup of foreign aid by the department of commerce monthly publication "Current Business." It said net foreign aid from mid-1945 to mid-1952 amounted to $35 billion.

That was 11.3 per cent of the United States' $308 billion federal revenue in the seven years, and 10.6 per cent of national expenditures—$329 billion billion—in that time.

Nearly a third of the total aid was in the form of loans, which recipients agreed to repay.

He was born in the Azore Islands and first settled in Boston when he came to this country on a whaling boat.

$500,000 Fire Destroys 2 Council Bluffs Sites

COUNCIL BLUFFS (P)—Firemen continued to pump water late Tuesday on the rubble left by a half-million dollar fire — third worst in Council Bluffs history.

The fire, made particularly spectacular by the explosion of a 5,000-gallon gasoline storage tank, destroyed a garage and furniture warehouse Tuesday forenoon. Flames rose 150 feet in the air when the gasoline tank blew up.

Fireman Tuesday afternoon began pulling down the brick walls of the 3-story furniture warehouse owned by the Continental Keller Furniture company. The building and contents were valued at about $350,000. The garage building, owned by Carl Huber and used by Blue Star Foods, Inc., was valued at about $75,000. Blue Star officials said their loss presumably would include three truck tractors, and two refrigerator vans in the garage at the time. They placed no figure on them, but it appeared certain the total would pass a half million dollars.

Two firemen were slightly injured in the blaze. Capt. Darrell McTiggin and Fireman Walter Williams received minor burns when they and three other firemen were thrown back into the street by the gas tank explosion. They were treated and returned to duty but later were taken to a hospital for treatment and sent home.

Although Fire Chief Waldo Merrill said Tuesday's fire was the worst from the firemen's point of view because of the explosion, two earlier fires caused greater damage.

In 1925 the Grand hotel and several adjoining buildings burned with a loss totaling $1,250,000. The following year the Mona Motor Oil company factory and warehouse burned, with a loss of $700,000.

Adlai Begins 4,221-mile Tour In Midwest, Eastern States

EN ROUTE WITH SEVENSON (AP)—Gov. Adlai Stevenson, starting a 4,221-mile whistle stop tour, said Tuesday he hopes Illinois does as well by him in his bid for the presidency as it did when he ran for governor.

Addressing a cheering train-side audience at Decatur, Ill., the Democratic presidential nominee said he believed his campaign for the White House is "going very well."

The Illinois governor began a two-week, 12-state swing through the Midwest and the East.

Stevenson said his GOP opponent for the presidency, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, made some noteworthy remarks when he campaigned in Decatur recently.

They were noteworthy, the governor said, "not for what he said but for what he didn't say."

Ike Mum on Prosperity
The general, Stevenson commented, said not a word about America's prosperity.

"You don't look down-trodden to me," Stevenson added. "You look like very happy and prosperous Americans to me."

Times are good, the governor declared "despite bitter opposition of the Republicans" to administration programs.

"If we did not have such productive farms," the governor declared, "the struggle against Communist aggression would be much more difficult."

The survival of liberty in the world depends mainly upon America, the Democratic nominee declared.

Buffalo Speech Wednesday
Stevenson campaigns Wednesday in South Bend and Elkhart, Ind., then moves into Ohio for an address at Toledo and a rear-platform talk at Sandusky. Then he crosses into New York State for a major speech in Buffalo Wednesday night.

This campaign swing—starting in Illinois and winding up there with an election eve speech in Chicago Nov. 3—will carry him into states which are rich electoral vote prizes.

There is New York for example, with its big block of 45, Ohio with 25, Pennsylvania 32, Massachusetts 16 — and his home state of Illinois with 27.

He also will campaign in Rhode Island, Connecticut, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and West Virginia on this last swing.

BARLEY TO SPEAK
WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice-president Alben W. Barkley will make his first Democratic campaign appearance on television Thursday from Jersey City, N.J. He will speak in behalf of Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson.

Soldier Hitch-Hikes 1,300 Miles

LITTLE ROCK, Ia. (AP)—Despite an ankle in a cast, Pfc. Everly Kruse hitch-hiked the 1,300 miles from Ft. Benning, Ga., to this Lyons county village in 46 hours.

Kruse, a paratrooper was granted a 30-day leave after he suffered a broken ankle in a practice parachute jump earlier this month. Kruse said he got to Chicago in two rides, to Cedar Rapids, Ia., in another, and to Spencer in a fourth. He spent five hours in Spencer resting and then speedily made the last lap home.

Cash Prizes Totaling $1,250 Offered in Uhlmann Contest

Awards totaling $1,250 are being offered for prize-winning theses on grain marketing in the 1953 Uhlmann Awards student contest.

The contest is open to both undergraduate and graduate students. First prize in each classification will bring a cash award of $300. Second place prizes of $150, third place prizes of $75 and four honorable mention prizes of $25 will be awarded in both the graduate and the undergraduate competition.

Manuscripts submitted should deal with some aspect of grain marketing. The papers will be judged on originality of thought and evidence of independent research and study.

The contest is sponsored by Richard F. Uhlmann, president of the Uhlmann Grain Co. and former president of the Chicago Board of Trade.

Uhlmann inaugurated the contest in 1949 as a memorial to his late father, who was prominent in domestic and export grain trade for 40 years.

The contest is intended to develop a better insight into and a broader understanding of the fundamentals and functions of commodity exchanges such as the Chicago Board of Trade.

Manuscripts should be sent to the Public Relations Department, Chicago Board of Trade, 666 Board of Trade Building, 141 West Jackson Blvd., Chicago 4, Ill., before June 1.

Full details governing the contest may be obtained by writing the Chicago Board of Trade at the above address.

Ulcers

Doctor Talks on Illness In Children

CHICAGO (AP)—Children's doctors were advised Tuesday that stomach ulcer may be much more common in youngsters than previously thought.

Dr. Bertram R. Girdany of Pittsburgh also offered the view that a major cause of children's ulcers is or near the stomach may be just being "tense," fearful or otherwise emotionally disturbed—the same as with adults.

He reported that while "peptic" ulcers, those in or near the stomach, have ordinarily been considered "rare" among children, he found at least suggestive evidence of such ulcers in more than 50 youngsters in a single year at Pittsburgh's Children's hospital.

The doctor told the 21st annual meeting of the American Academy of Pediatrics that all the children showed many of the usual symptoms of "peptic" ulcer patients.

Investigators Hit Liquor Probe

WASHINGTON (AP)—House investigators criticized the Justice department Tuesday for abandoning an anti-trust probe of the liquor industry. They said they found "an inference" that political contributions played a part in the decision.

From 1948 to 1951, individuals connected with big liquor companies contributed between $155,550 and $165,550 to the Democratic and Republican parties, a house judiciary subcommittee reported.

It estimated that between $112,450 and $120,450 went to the Democrats and between $43,100 and $45,100 went to the Republicans.

While there is an inference that donations had some connection with the "tapering off" of the anti-trust investigation in 1949, the committee said, "The evidence is not conclusive."

John Mason Brown To Speak Monday

John Mason Brown, drama critic, author and lecturer, will speak on "Seeing Things," at 8 p.m. Monday in the Union main lounge.

Brown also is widely known as the author of 15 books and a column in "The Saturday Review," of which he is an associate editor. His books, "Seeing Things," "Seeing More Things," and "Still Seeing Things" are compilations of his columns.

A recent Brown best-seller was "Morning Faces," perceptive stories of his two young sons. Brown also is noted for his books on theatrical history, such as "The Modern Theatre in Revolt."

During World War II, Brown wrote eye-witness accounts of such historic happenings as the invasion of Sicily in "To All Hands," the Normandy landings in "Many a Watchful Night" and the Nuremberg trials in the "Saturday Review."

Free tickets will be available for students, faculty and staff at the Iowa Memorial Union desk, beginning today. Any remaining tickets on Monday will be available to the general public.

Homecoming Pins Go on Sale Today

Norman Cousins Discusses World Government

Editor Cousins Outlines Threat Of Communism

"If one more nation turns to communism, the Communists will control a majority of the world's people," Norman Cousins, president of the United World Federalists and editor of the Saturday Review of Literature, said here Wednesday.

Before an audience of about 400 people in MacBride auditorium, Cousins said that Russia's aim is to separate the democratic peoples from the majority of the world's people.

India, the focal point of Asia, could give the Communists 400 million people and a platform to speak in the name of the majority, he added.

Revolution Threat in Asia

The elimination of Russia and all Communists would not relieve the threat of some type of revolution in Asia. The Asiatics will continue to look to communism until they can be convinced that the United Nations will recognize their desire of the fundamental right to live in peace and freedom from Western domination, he said.

Commenting on the United States foreign policy, Cousins said that the U. S. is using the policy of keeping strong and sooner or later Russia will come to terms. World peace is possible.

Nations build more powerful and terrible weapons in order to make wars so horrible and so costly that they dare not fight them. A weapon has not been invented that has not been used already, he said. Man has exhausted his margin of error. Humans no longer can control what they have created.

World Rule Is Answer

Through a United World government, peace would be possible, Cousins said, by the control of these terrible weapons and the aggression of nations. Individual nations could be restricted by law from producing weapons and from becoming aggressive.

Cousins was introduced by Rev. Alfred Henriksen, president of the Iowa City chapter of the United World Federalists and pastor of the Unitarian church in Iowa City.

'X' Sells 3,550; Sales Reach Peak

Magazine X circulation manager Candy Kane, A4, Des Moines, reported that 3,550 copies of the Homecoming edition were sold Wednesday. This is more than were sold during any entire sales period last year. The greatest Magazine X sales last year were 3,800 copies.

Miss Kane said the magazine would be sold today by students and at newsstands. This issue's circulation goal is 4,000.

'Davey Jones Locker' Is 1952 Water Show

The 1952 Dolphin Queen will be presented at the first performance of "Davey Jones Locker," this year's version of the Dolphin water show, tonight at 8 in the fieldhouse pool.

The queen and her four attendants were selected from among ten finalists Tuesday evening by the Dolphins, men's swimming club.

The five finalists are Dorothy Maher, A1, Iowa City; Becky Knudsen, A2, Clinton; Ann Kensing, A3, Tama; Janet Henderson, A1, Sioux City and Lea Lawhorn, A1, Garner.

Olympic Star Featured

Beulah Gundling, Cedar Rapids, a performer at the 1952 Olympic games at Helsinki, Finland, will blend modern dance and underwater grace with Oriental music in her production number.

Marilyn and Karilyn Adams, A4, Des Moines, will be making their fourth appearance in a Dolphin show with a water ballet duet.

An unusual feature in the 1952 show will be a series of interpretive dances by Gerry Mason, A2, Milwaukee, Wis. The dances will include a tap, soft shoe and jazz version of "Anchors Aweigh."

Repeat Trapeze Act

A trampoline demonstration, trapeze and flying ring acts, and a teeter-board act will be included in the show.

Synchronized swimming drills will be presented by the SUI swimming team.

Frank Ladue, G, Sioux City, wrote the script for the show and Ben Goo, A4, Honolulu, Hawaii, painted the scenery.

Tickets for the show are on sale at the fieldhouse and at Whetstone's drug store.

Polio Shots Encouraging —

Gamma Globulin Helps Prevent Paralysis

CLEVELAND (AP) — Some children have been saved from polio paralysis by shots of medicine made from human blood, scientists announced Wednesday.

"It is the first means of protecting man against paralytic polio," Dr. William McD. Hammon, University of Pittsburgh epidemiologist, reported to the American Public Health association.

The shots were gamma globulin — G.G. for short — containing antibodies against all three types of polio virus. The protection is temporary, lasting five weeks or better.

G. G. is not a vaccine, not the full, final answer to polio.

Corn Monument Rocket Takes Shape

SUI ENGINEERING STUDENTS ERECTED the 39th annual corn monument on the campus west of Old Capitol Wednesday afternoon. A rocket-shaped ear of corn mounted on a rocket launching platform, the monument has been under construction by the engineering students for the past two weeks. It cost more than $200 to build and weighs nearly two tons. By tradition the monument is burned the evening of the Homecoming game if we win. If Iowa loses, workmen from the physical plant will dismantle it and carry it away.

State Employee Retirement Plan to Be Viewed

Iowa's legislative retirement committee, headed by state Sen. Herman B. Lord, will meet in MacBride hall Tuesday at 7:30 p.m., the SUI retirement committee announced Wednesday.

The purpose is to discuss a retirement program for state employees.

To better inform SUI staff members on what will probably be discussed at the Tuesday meeting, campus meetings for staff members will be held at 7:30 tonight and at 11 a.m. Monday in MacBride hall.

Meetings in the hospital area will be at 10 a.m. Friday and at 2 p.m. Monday.

All staff members are invited to attend any of these meetings.

Dr. Jeans Dies While on Tour in Panama

PANAMA, Panama (AP) — Dr. Philip Charles Jeans, 69, professor of pediatrics at SUI, and leading authority in his field, died Wednesday night at the Hotel El Panama less than two hours after his arrival here by plane.

He came to Panama for a two-day visit during which he was to deliver several lectures and visit local hospitals.

He was here on a tour sponsored by the World Health organization. Jeans had just retired early this summer as head of the department of pediatrics at University hospitals — a position which he had held since he joined the SUI staff in 1924.

Held Part Time Job

At that time, however, he accepted a part time association with SUI to continue his work in teaching and research.

Jeans is author of several articles and two textbooks, among them "A Nurse's Textbook of Pediatrics" and "Infant Nutrition."

He has been associated with the council on foods and nutrition of the American Medical association since 1930, and was chairman of this council.

On National Council

Jeans was also vice chairman of the food and nutrition board of the national research council, a member of the scientific advisory committee of the nutrition foundation and a consultant for the U.S. public health service.

He was born and raised in Hillsboro, Ohio. Later he attended the University of Kansas, majoring in chemistry. After graduation, he studied medicine at Johns Hopkins university.

Dodge Flak, Searchlights During Attack

SEOUL (AP) — Ten B-29 Superforts Wednesday night flew within 25 miles of the Reds' big jet fighter base at Antung, Manchuria, and bombed a North Korean lead and zinc processing plant.

The bombers flew through heavy anti-aircraft fire and the glare of searchlights in pressing home the attack. Returning pilots said Communist fighters made passes at the B-29s but did not fire their guns. The bombed plant was at Okung.

In all, 14 B-29s dropped 150 tons of bombs on three North Korea targets.

Break Off Onslaughts

On the battlefield, Chinese Communist troops, their ranks shattered by an estimated 1,245 killed Wednesday, broke off their onslaughts on Sniper Ridge which once carried them to the crest.

"We chopped up the better part of two battalions," said the South Korean officer who directed the stout defense of the strategic height on the central front.

After the last Chinese had pulled out to the north, South Korean soldiers counted 645 Communist corpses on the hill. Their officers estimated 600 other Chinese were killed in the battle that raged over the ridge from dusk Tuesday to Wednesday afternoon.

Reds Use 2,000 Men

The Communists committed an estimated 2,000 men to one more furious attempt to take Sniper Ridge and its commanding pinnacle, Pinpoint Hill, captured by the South Koreans in last week's limited Allied offensive.

While Allied losses were not estimated, the defense department in Washington reported the highest weekly U. S. casualty toll since last July. Total reported for the week ended Oct. 17 was 986, including 133 killed. This brought U. S. casualties in the Korean war to 122,117.

There was little fighting elsewhere on the 155-mile front. Triangle Hill, near Sniper Ridge, was quiet. U. S. seventh division troops reported only that 10 Chinese who had been hiding in a cave in the hill had surrendered.

Challenge Set By Young Demos

Dave Koch, A4, Ames, president of the SUI Young Democrats, Tuesday night challenged the SUI Young Republicans to a post-election victory dance to be held Nov. 7.

Fred Felton, G, DeKalb, Ill., Young Democrat publicity chairman, said that Koch's proposal would deal only with the outcome of the presidential race. The losing party would bear the expense of the dance.

Today Is Last' Chance To Get Unsold Books

Today is the last day to pick up unclaimed money and books from the student book exchange at the Student Council office in Old Dental building. All unclaimed books and money will become the property of the Student Council, Bill Isenberger, A2, Sioux City, chairman of the exchange, announced Wednesday.

Austrian Government Collapses

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — Austria's coalition government, for seven years regarded as one of the most stable in Europe, collapsed Wednesday night in a dispute over the budget.

The People's party, Conservative Catholic, and the left-of-center Socialists, both represented in the government, were unable to agree on a budget for 1953 that had to be presented to Parliament before midnight.

The crisis developed suddenly Tuesday when finance minister Reinhard Kamitz of the People's party refused to accept Socialist demands for the budgeting of 400 million schillings ($15,384,000) for social welfare and housing projects.

Kamitz said this demand, if granted, would throw the budget further out of balance. His budget called for total expenditures of 79,950,000,000 schillings ($767,300,000).

Through all the ups and downs of post-war occupation, the People's party and Socialists have clung together to give Austria a solid government that defeated the efforts of both Communists and new Nazis.

Failure to present a budget to parliament at the deadline made resignation of the cabinet compulsory under the constitution.

Lieutenant Awarded Silver Star

FIRST LT. ROBERT E. COOPER (right) receives the Silver Star award for gallantry in action from Col. Walter E. Sewell, head of the SUI military science department. Lieutenant Cooper, assistant professor of the department, was presented the medal in a ceremony Wednesday morning in the field house armory for his heroic actions near Yeon, Korea, on Oct. 18, 1951.

World News Briefs

A Condensation of Late Developments

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — UN Secretary General Trygve Lie Wednesday fired one American UN employe who refused to answer questions of the McCarran committee, suspended another and put 10 on special leave pending further investigation. Lie announced he fired Stanley Graze of the technical assistance administration for refusing to tell a congressional committee hearing whether he is "presently engaged in espionage activities against the United States."

ISTANBUL, TURKEY (AP) — Eighteen or more persons were killed and 40 injured in an earthquake which shook the Adana region in southern Turkey Wednesday. First reports said extensive damage was done to buildings in the city of 150,000 and that the death toll might prove much higher. Full information was lacking due to a breakdown in communications.

CAIRO, EGYPT (AP) — The government of Egypt's army premier, Maj. Gen. Mohammed Naguib, stepped up his anti-graft campaign Thursday by firing scores of top public servants and dissolving the municipal councils in Cairo and Alexandria.

SAIGON, INDO-CHINA (AP) — French authorities said Wednesday night the death toll from a typhoon and tidal wave which struck Phan Thiet, 100 miles east of Saigon, and along the south China Sea coast may reach 500. Thirty were known dead. At least 2,000 straw hats were destroyed Monday night in the town of 20,000 population. The typhoon lasted six hours. The tidal wave was 90 feet high, witnesses said.

LONDON (AP) — Pravda, the official Communist party newspaper in Moscow, said Wednesday the Mau Mau violence in Kenya, British colony in East Africa, is caused by "the merciless exploitation of the people by the 'imperialists.'" Moscow radio carried the comment.

Capacity Crowd Hears Robert Shaw Chorale

THE ROBERT SHAW CHORALE and string ensemble performed Wednesday night in the Iowa Memorial Union main lounge to a capacity audience. Included on the concert's program were Schubert's "Mass in G Major," Bloch's "Sacred Service," Brahms' "Songs for Chorus," Debussy's "Trois Chansons," and "Die Fledermaus." The final number included the appearance of five soloists who enacted the leading roles from the opera. (Story on page 6.)

Top Nominees Present Views In News Forum

NEW YORK (AP) — The two presidential candidates, Dwight D. Eisenhower and Adlai E. Stevenson, Tuesday night addressed separate messages to the Herald Tribune's Annual Forum.

Stevenson, the Democratic candidate, spoke from Chicago in a nation-wide television and radio address prepared for the Forum here.

Eisenhower, the Republican nominee, appeared before the Forum to urge "a new economic alliance of free nations" to confound the Kremlin's prediction of economic doom for the free world.

New Look Suggested "I think we should take a new look at this economic world of ours," said the general in his prepared speech. "I think that, in concert with our closest allies, a long-term, consistent program should be produced, directing all of our economic power toward reviving free world economies and trade as a whole, instead of restricting our concern to emergency relief and isolated, piece-meal actions."

Stevenson dwelt on America's bid for world peace and said it must never succumb "to the economic reactionaries and to the hate and hysteria mongers."

Asks 'Good Example' America, he added, must set a good example to the other nations of the world in the struggle for peace.

"The image we reflect to the world," Stevenson asserted, "can only be our own image. We want that image to be an image of sanity, serenity and moral as well as economic and military strength, of freedom and justice and confidence."

He proposed that this nation "use our economic strength wisely and carefully to help other nations grow in well-being and thus to strengthen their free institutions."

Russian Efforts Cited Eisenhower spoke of Soviet Russia's efforts to disrupt the free world's economy. He said Moscow's aims forbid us to contemplate keeping Japan and Western Germany "on a permanent subsistence level through annual handouts which serve only to prolong the agony without curing the disease."

Eisenhower continued: "If we cannot display more international economic imagination and greater leadership, the inevitable result will be the gradual absorption of those key areas into the Soviet orbit."

Larson Lauds Iowa Law Enforcement CEDAR RAPIDS (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert L. Larson Tuesday praised Iowa's law enforcement record and said that it isn't being matched in Illinois.

Larson spoke before the Republican Women's league. He lashed out at Adlai Stevenson, governor of Illinois and Democratic presidential nominee.

"There has been considerable claim that Governor Stevenson cleaned up law enforcement in Illinois," Larson said. He added that on last July 1, when Iowa did not have a single federal slot machine or gambling stamp outstanding, Illinois had $231,000 worth of tax stamps.

"The fact is Governor Stevenson has not cleaned up gambling, liquor law violations or any other rackets in Illinois," Larson said.

HONG KONG (CP)—Disturbed by the growing rightist sentiment in the Chinese Communist army and in the Chinese Communist party, Moscow has insisted that the army be reorganized strictly on Soviet pattern similar to the native army in North Korea and other satellite countries in Europe, according to a reliable Peiping report received here.

The source said rightist thinking has gripped the second and third field armies, respectively, under Gens. Liu Po-chen and Chen I, as opposed to pro-Soviet influence in the first and fourth field armies commanded respectively by Gens. Pang Teh-huai and Lin Piao.

The Communist party also is divided into the rightist bloc headed by Chairman Mao Tse-tung and the pro-Soviet group led by Labor Minister Li Li-san, Vice Chairman Liu Shao-chi and Gen. Lin Piao.

Rightists Favor Action The rightist faction is in favor of reducing the last Kuomintang stronghold in Taiwan, whereas the pro-Soviet clique has accepted Moscow's orders to prosecute the war in Korea.

As theorean war has turned out to be a white elephant and a stalemate and as the fourth field army suffered about 600,000 casualties in Korea, rightist consciousness is crystallizing into the belief that following blindly the decrees of the Kremlin is disastrous.

Interlude

"I suppose it's too much to hope for, but it would be nice if they diverted some of that energy toward studies!"

Senator, Lawyer Discuss War, Crime At Banker's Meeting

DES MOINES (AP) — An attorney discussed war and a United States senator discussed crime here Tuesday at the third session of the four-day convention of the Iowa Bankers association.

Sen. Charles W. Toby (R-N. H.), charged the administration with "dishonesty and intrigue and called for a revival of spiritual forces" among public officials.

The other speaker was Robert G. Storey, Dallas, Tex., president of the American Bar association, who recently completed a world tour which took him to the front lines in Korea.

Toby attacked President Truman's activities in the current presidential campaign.

"I keenly regret the low type of campaign being conducted and the low type of political utterances by both candidates and by the President himself," Toby said.

"He is debasing the presidency by stepping out of his role as president to campaign with vitriolic utterances, and I condemn for it."

But most of his address concerned the senate crime investigating committee, of which Toby was a member.

Toby called it a "painful experience" when the committee became almost helpless as the "witnesses from the underworld" refused to answer questions.

Storey, the attorney, delivered a bitter attack on American policy in Korea.

Insisting that the Korean war is being "master-minded by the Kremlin," Storey said the handling of the situation should not "be left to the politicians."

He called for a "non-partisan, overall foreign policy that would deal with the common threat through the hot and cold wars."

"No two classes are in a better position to promote such a definite plan than the bankers and lawyers," he said.

Russians to Curtail Santa

BERLIN (AP) — The Russia zone booted Santa Claus in the pants Tuesday.

The Communist government announced that any Christmas packages which come in from the West will be seized if they contain more than a minimum of luxury goods.

The limit fixed in the government's legal bulletin was a half pound of coffee, cocoa or chocolate, and an ounce and a half of tobacco.

West Germans annually ship thousands of Christmas parcels to relatives and friends in the East. Soviet zone authorities have seized many of them in the past, on some pretext or another.

Fight Develops On Ratification Of Defense Pact

By J. M. ROBERTS JR. Associated Press News Analyst

The French are fighting a "Battle of Germany."

The expected conflict over ratification of the treaty establishing a European Defense Community has developed the unexpected position of two important French ex-premiers, Herriot and Daladier.

Premier Pinay himself is being accused in some quarters of being willing to go down the drain for the project sponsored by Defense Minister Pleven and Foreign Minister Schuman.

"Sellout" Charged Opponents charge that France is selling out some of her strategic vis-a-vis Germany, and still favor German military revival both under EDC, from which Herriot thinks Germany might be able to withdraw once she is strong enough, and under the Bonn agreements for restored German autonomy. The two treaties are interlocking.

Under the surface, however, observers detect a French desire to draw Britain more tightly into the European defense setup rather than actually to defeat the formation of the united army envisaged under EDC.

Britain Responds Favorably And, strangely enough, there is a favorable though still limited response from Britain, which has long contended that her Commonwealth within the British Commonwealth prevent her from handing any control over her actions to organizations involving Europe alone.

The Manchester Guardian thinks it possible that Britain can make some policy deviation to meet this situation. With Britain directly committed, France would feel that their traditional fear of being maintained against Germany, and thus France would be protected against Russia and Germany at the same time.

French Not Satisfied This indicates that the French are not satisfied with guarantees offered by Britain and the United States at the time the Bonn agreements were initiated.

In the meantime, a new element of instability has been injected into the French governmental situation. Schuman is demanding that Pinay really get behind the ratification measure and is using the threat of resignation to bolster his hand.

Schuman is not supported, in party, the Popular Republic Movement, could shatter the government by withdrawing.

Auto Industry Sees Work Suspension WASHINGTON (AP) — Major auto producers have notified the government they may have to suspend production in February unless bigger steel allotments are provided for early 1953.

This was disclosed Tuesday as the National Production Authority announced first-quarter 1953 steel allocations for most consumer goods, providing only 33 percent of the pre-Korean supplies.

There may be "some shortages in some models" of refrigerators, washers and other household goods, NPA Administrator R. A. McDonald told a news conference, but no serious scarcities of any goods.

A Good Example

The satisfactory solution to the problem of student seating at athletic events is an excellent example of what can be accomplished through student-faculty cooperation at SUU.

Following last Saturday's game with Wisconsin when approximately 350 students were forced to stand because of a shortage of seats, members of the Student Council arranged a Tuesday meeting with Athletic Director Paul Brechler for the purpose of "ironing out" the situation.

The seat shortage came about when fall enrollment at SUU rose far above the expectations of the athletic department. The department had estimated about 6,200 students instead of the present 7,200.

The estimate had been made in mid-July when ticket sales began, Brechler explained.

As a result of Tuesday's meeting the students were given an additional 1,100 seats for Saturday's Homecoming game with Ohio State.

In addition, the two groups tentatively agreed on a plan designed to insure against the repetition of another similar situation. Under the proposal a committee from the student council will meet with the athletic department late in the spring and help determine the number of reserved student seats for the following fall.

But more important the meeting helped strengthen relations between the student body and the staff. The Iowan commends both the athletic department and the Student Council for the line of action which they followed in developing a satisfactory solution to a ticklish problem.

Noted Designer Presents Display At Younkers

The originator of pedal pushers, Miss De De Johnson, appeared in Younkers, Wednesday with a trunk display of dresses, suits, coats and separates.

Miss Johnson won the Fashion Award in Los Angeles in 1942 for the pedal pusher design, just six months after she had been in business. She designed the idea for women's sporting apparel because she lived in the country and liked bicycling.

Miss Johnson became interested in designing when her mother worked as a costume designer for MGM. Now she does all her own sketching and fabric selection in addition to supervising all of the sewing. The designs are turned over to cutters and sewers. She must constantly supervise the manufacturing as she thinks they may need a tuck here, a pocket there, or some added little touch. "An excess of material adds to a dress design," Miss Johnson stated. She is also responsible for the huge rolled up or down cuff that so many coats feature today.

Unusual fabrics are popular with Miss Johnson. She once selected a fabric from the bottom of a manufacturer's sample list and perfected it into a lovely Egyptian cotton creation of a pink coat and dress.

Miss Johnson is very conscious of the consumers' desires and feels that there is an ever increasing trend toward casuals, of which her exhibit was mostly comprised.

She is not drastic with a fashion trend. When she changes the lines of a costume she believes in more than just changing a square collar to a pointed one, changing the shoulder line or maybe a full sleeve length. "If designers have been using a full skirt for a season, I like to maybe introduce a more straight line in the skirt," she stated. She continued to say that she doesn't become radical in wardrobe lines, but is not afraid to introduce new ideas as De De Johnson is an established label-line.

She has been well known for her overuse of monograms. She

De De Johnson Appears Here

HERE IN PERSON, MISS DE DE JOHNSON, original fashion designer from California, models one of her own creations. Miss Johnson appeared Wednesday at Younkers to present her mid-season collection of dresses, suits, coats, and separates. Iowa City was one of her stops on a tour of 20 cities throughout the U.S. She will be appearing in Des Moines Friday and Saturday.

She expressed her pleasure in being able to come to Iowa City and was delighted with the number of people that came to see her display. She also expressed the hope that SUI would win its Homecoming this Saturday. The De De Johnson trunk wardrobe will appear in Des Moines this Friday and Saturday.

Mary Newell Serves Red Cross

Mary Newell, former resident of Iowa City, has reported to Chateauroux, France, for her third overseas assignment with the American Red Cross.

Miss Newell was in Europe with the organization from 1944 to 1946, and also served as a Red Cross hospital worker in Japan from 1948 until 1950.

A resident of Iowa City for a number of years, Miss Newell served as a librarian for SUI from 1925 until 1941, and later as manager of the Gordon Bookshop.

Her Red Cross experience includes two years as a case worker for the Johnson county chapter.

At Chateauroux, Miss Newell will act as counselor for servicemen, confronted with personal or family problems, offer speed communications in the case of emergencies, and make financial assistance available to those who need it.

At the present time, 90 Red Cross offices are in operation in England, France, Germany, Austria, Italy, French Morocco, and Libya, offering these services to all members of the armed forces.

NO VALUE CHANGE

LONDON (AP)—Britain's Chancellor of the Exchequer R. A. Butler announced Tuesday there will be no change in the 25 pounds ($70) tourist allowance for Britons traveling outside the sterling area next year. The announcement dashed the hopes of hotel owners in many parts of Europe who had looked for more spending by British tourists in 1953.

Homecoming Open House Saturday at Women's Gym

On Homecoming morning from 10:00 to 12:00 the new wing of the Women's Gymnasium will be open to the public for inspection. Coffee will be served in the social-class room by staff and students and guided tours around the new wing are planned.

The traditional hockey game between alumnae and students will be played at 9:00, followed by the annual alumnae meeting at 10:30, in the department library.

Buried Light Bulb Burns 10 Years

YAKIMA, Wash. (AP)—A 25-watt light bulb was found burning after burial for 10 years under 18 inches of earth at the site of a plane crash.

It was once part of a marker system. Airport manager Burgess Carratt said the bulb, encased in a glass protector, apparently was covered during wartime improvements. It was uncovered during improvement work.

Typhoon Kills 37 in Pacific; History's Worst

MANILA (AP) — A typhoon described as the worst in the long history of the central Philippines killed at least 37 persons Wednesday, smashed towns and cities and left millions in property damage.

So devastating was the storm that the Philippines Red Cross announced it was mobilizing all its resources for the relief of stricken areas.

The death toll was expected to mount as fresh reports filtered in from central islands blacked out by the 100-mile winds which flattened communication lines and wiped out crops.

Manila Spared
Manila was spared the big blow. The typhoon curled out into the South China Sea 95 miles southwest of the Philippines capital.

All the first casualties reported came from the battered southeast tip of Luzon, the main island.

At Sorsogon, 230 miles southeast of Manila, the military commander reported 21 bodies had been recovered in that area.

"Most Destructive"
He said the typhoon was "the most destructive" ever to hit there. He described the loss in human lives, crops and property as "tremendous."

Almost the same report came from the major of Legaspi, a large port 20 miles northeast of Sorsogon, who said nothing like this typhoon ever had hit the city before.

"Sixteen dead, 90 per cent of the private homes destroyed, crops washed out and communication paralyzed," he messaged Manila.

The Red Cross was sending supplies into the typhoon area.

British Remove Flag, Crest from Embassy After Iranian Break

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—The British hauled down the Union Jack and removed the coat of arms from their embassy's gate Wednesday, a signal that Iran had broken diplomatic relations with Britain.

A small crowd of Iranians cheered as the lion and unicorn disappeared. To them it meant victory in a multi-million dollar fight with a powerful overseas adversary.

Premier Mohammed Mossadegh's government blamed Britain for the rupture, the climax of 19 months of quarrelling over the oil riches developed by the British-owned Anglo-Iranian oil company in this desert country.

It charged that the British government "prevented an agreement by unlawfully supporting the former company" and that British officials created "difficulties aimed at disturbing this country's order and security."

But it concluded that Iran would be "very glad" to renew relations if a favorable atmosphere and good understanding is created.

Mossadegh announced last Thursday he was ordering the break because Britain refused to pay $137,200,000 in disputed oil royalties.

3,000 Walk Out As Strike Idles 2 Packing Plants

By The Associated Press
Two Iowa meat packing plants affiliated with Armour and Co. were idled Wednesday as a result of strikes called by local unions of the CIO United Packinghouse Workers of America.

The strikes, affecting nearly 3,000 employees, went into effect at Armour's Sioux City plant and at the Jacob Decker and Sons plant at Mason City, an Armour-affiliate.

In both instances the walkouts were reported to stem from new contract negotiations for all Armour plants, which have been underway in Chicago since last August.

At Sioux City the employees walked of their jobs when a strike was called by Chairman Lloyd Sands of Armour Local 34.

A spokesman for the Decker company said the walkout there was staged with "no warning and no explanation."

Large Crowd Hears Truman Rap Ike

A LARGE CROWD GREETED PRESIDENT TRUMAN as he began his fourth "whistle-stop" tour on behalf of the candidacy of Gov. Adlai Stevenson in Jersey City, N.J. He continued his attacks on General Eisenhower and Wednesday night in a nation-wide radio and TV address charged that Ike's campaign tactics could lead to "disaster for us and victory for communism."

Ike's Campaign Could Bring Disaster to U.S., Truman Says

PITTSBURGH (AP)—President Truman charged Dwight D. Eisenhower Wednesday night with waging a false, hypocritical and circus ballyhoo campaign that could lead to "disaster for us and victory for communism."

Truman declared the general is willing to make politics out of the Korean casualty lists. And he said: "I cannot trust a man who has played this kind of game with the grave issues of our national security."

Makes TV Address
Truman's newest onslaught against Eisenhower was in a radio and television address after a day of barnstorming through Pennsylvania on behalf of Gov. Adlai Stevenson.

The President was heckled repeatedly by teenagers at one stop, Northumberland, Pa., where he said Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio would be the real President if Eisenhower gets into the White House.

But all day long he kept hammering away in speeches throughout the hard coal region that a Republican election victory would result in "slavery" for the working man and a new depression, with up to 28 million unemployed.

Warns Against Depression
He charged Eisenhower has shown himself to be so subject to political pressures that putting him in the White House "could plunge us into another depression—or, even worse, might get us into a third world war."

Then at Pittsburgh, Truman said Eisenhower, in criticizing the Korean and other foreign policies of the present administration, is turning against the very collective security measures which the general himself had a part in shaping.

Again challenging Eisenhower to make public any way he knows to end the Korean war quickly, Truman said:

Condemns Campaign Tactics
These campaign tactics have one tendency—to weaken our resolution, to endanger the common determination of the people in the struggle for peace.

In a time of great international peril like this, such tactics are a threat to our national security.

"In a lesser man, they might not be so serious. But from the lips of one who has been regarded as a symbol of patriotism and international co-operation, these statements can do terrible harm. They can lead our country onto the path of half-measures and half-heartedness that means disaster for us and victory for communism."

Peace Work Endangered
The Republican candidate, with these campaign tactics, was endangering all the work he had done for peace. As president of the United States I could not tolerate this."

And the President said he had two further reasons for wading into the political torrent—(1) to tell all the people about Stevenson, a man who "speaks in the accents of greatness," and (2) to prevent the country's being "bamboozled into switching to reactionary policies that brought us to disaster once and will bring us to disaster again."

Truman's second day of angling for Pennsylvania's 32 electoral votes brought him some boos at Northumberland, a railroad junction in normally Republican territory, northwest of Harrisburg.

Speaks to 15,000
At his first stop of the day, Scranton, acting police Chief Richard Benyon estimated the crowd at 15,000.

Later, at Wilkes-Barr, Police Chief J. Russell Taylor estimated 12,000 persons heard the President.

A Bloomsburg, Pa. audience, estimated at 5,000 persons by Police Chief William B. Edgar, heard Truman charge that Eisenhower "can't resist pressure from 'Old Guard' Republicans and so is a 'big risk' for a people determined to avoid both depression and war."

Communists Force 2 Fliers to Make False Confessions

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force association said Wednesday the Communists have tortured two U. S. air force fliers into making false confessions that they took part in germ warfare.

The fliers are Lt. John S. Quinn, 30, Altadena, Calif., and Lt. Kenneth L. Enoch, 27, Youngstown, Ohio. They have been prisoners of the Communists since their B-26 bomber failed to return from a night mission in North Korea last Jan. 13.

An article in Air Force magazine published by the association—an organization of air force members and veterans—said Quinn and Enoch are "innocent victims of one of history's most infamous hoaxes."

Its author, air force Col. John J. Driscoll, said information he gathered in Hong Kong, India, China, India and elsewhere in the Far East pointed to the use by the Communists of the same type of "brain-washing" as was employed against Cardinal Mindszenty, American businessman Robert Vogel and many others to obtain dramatic "confessions."

"The basis of this mental torture is incredibly prolonged questioning... combined with lack of sleep, threats to friends or relatives, drugs and in many cases, hypnosis, to create a state of fatigue and apprehension that borders on, and often produces, a complete mental collapse," Driscoll said.

UN Votes Immediate Debate On Korea Despite Red Bloc

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The powerful UN political committee Wednesday night approved top billing for an immediate debate on Korea. The vote was 51 in favor, a bloc of five Soviet satellites opposing, and four countries abstaining.

The committee also voted to give the number two spot on its work list to the Tunisia case and the third place to the dispute over Morocco.

A strong Soviet bloc drive to put ahead of all other business an omnibus Polish resolution on Korea and other subjects was beaten down overwhelmingly, 44 to 5.

The United States, Britain and France put up a solid front for immediate debate on Korea, although it is known among the delegations that Britain and France would prefer to withhold any definite decisions on Korea until after the U. S. presidential elections. Secretary of State Dean Acheson is ready to lay before the committee Thursday a detailed report on the entire armistice negotiations at Panmunjom.

Last Census Shows Iowa City Population 20,450 in 1950

The census bureau has released figures showing there were 6,683 dwelling units in Iowa City at the time of the national census in April, 1950.

A total of 20,450 persons occupied the 6,684 units. This averaged out 2.7 persons per unit.

Fifty and nine tenths per cent of the homes were occupied by the owners, 36.3 per cent of the homes were mortgaged and the average value of the homes was $10,572, the report disclosed. The median figure for rent was $45.

The report states that 18 per cent of the dwellings, including trailers and barracks, were built in 1940 or later.

The report for Iowa shows that urban housing in Iowa is better in quality than the rural. Of the homes in Iowa City, 77.2 per cent had hot running water, private toilet and bath, 83.6 per cent had central heating, and 88.3 per cent had refrigerators.

The farm units had 57 per cent of the owners as occupants.

Nation-Wide Coal Strike Impending After Board Slashes Pay Increase

WASHINGTON (AP) — Labor members of the wage stabilization board charged Wednesday that the board "spent more time finding ways to deny than to approve" the $1.90 wage increase negotiated by John L. Lewis.

MINERS STAND IDLE AT UMW union hall in Harmarville, Pa., after receiving news that the wage stabilization board cut their newly won raise of $1.9 a day to $1.50 a day. Wednesday, labor members of the WSB charged that the board spent more time finding ways to deny than to approve the proposed wage increase.

Public and industry members of the WSB trimmed that $1.90 by 40 cents, leading to an immediate nationwide soft coal strike, the effects of which are already spreading to other industries. The public and industry members said the full $1.90 would violate government controls designed to curb inflation.

Labor Disputes Decision
The labor members of the tripartite board severely criticized their associates and said the majority decision in effect precipitated the strike. They said: "It is not this board's job to create disputes."

Issuing their dissenting opinion in the controversial case, the six labor members said the record of past WSB action clearly made approval of the full amount possible. The main burden of their argument was that miners today do not get three "fringe" benefits in effect in many other industries. These are paid vacations, paid holidays, and higher shift differentials.

Lucas Criticizes Lewis
Strong criticism of Lewis' refusal to accept the wage board decision came meanwhile from Rep. Lucas (D.-Tex.), member of the house labor committee. Lucas issued a statement declaring that Lewis "for years accepted all the privileges accorded him under the law and refused to bear a portion of the responsibility."

Lewis' remarks about the wage board decision are "the irresponsible ravings of a disgruntled windbag," Lucas said. "His demagogic statement about taking milk away from miners' children typifies the kind of self-interest thinking which must be curbed," Lucas said.

"He says nothing about the babies all over the country who will be cold for lack of fuel this winter."

Strike Affects Railroad
All but a scattering of Lewis' 375,000 soft coal miners stayed home for the ninth straight day. Government production figures indicate a loss of 10 million tons of soft coal for every week that the United Mineworkers are idle. Effects of the strike were reaching into some other industries, notably railroads.

Neither the industry nor Lewis made any public moves in the wage dispute Wednesday.

Democrats Falsifying GOP Farm Program, Nixon Tells Iowans
SIOUX CITY (AP) — Sen. Richard M. Nixon, Republican vice-presidential nominee, declared Wednesday night the Democrats are using "a form of political blackmail" in farm program activities.

The California senator was referring in a speech prepared for delivery here to "some of these political production and marketing administration officials, acting under orders from Washington."

In prefacing his remarks about "political blackmail," Nixon said two "flagrant examples" of "a desperate last minute effort to falsify and misrepresent the farm program of Dwight Eisenhower" have come to his attention in the past 48 hours.

Ike Rips 'Inflationary Policy' As Adlai Charges GOP Hoax

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson Wednesday night accused Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower of trying to perpetuate "a cruel hoax" by holding out hope "for swift release of those enslaved behind the Iron Curtain."

Stevenson, the Democratic presidential nominee, said the general — his GOP opponent for the White House — made a "reckless proposal" to free Soviet-dominated peoples in Eastern Europe.

This was an allusion to Eisenhower's Aug. 25 statement in New York that the United States "can never rest — and we must so inform all the world, including the Kremlin — until the enslaved nations of the world have in the fullness of freedom the right to choose their own path."

Military Action Hinted
Eisenhower's statement was interpreted in some quarters abroad as a pledge of military action. He has denied any such intent.

Democrats accused Eisenhower of proposing a war of liberation. He said later that what he had in mind should be accomplished by peaceful means.

Shortly before arriving in Buffalo, Stevenson's campaign manager, Wilson Wyatt, said the governor's speech in Cleveland, O., Thursday night, would be one of the most important of the campaign. It will deal with what Wyatt called Republican "smear tactics."

Travels Through Midwest
Stevenson came to Buffalo after a day of whistle-stop campaigning through northern Indiana and Ohio where he drew enthusiastic crowds that police estimated totaled about 35,000 persons.

The governor made speeches along the way at South Bend and Elkhart in Indiana and Toledo, Sandusky and Elyria in Ohio.

It was his second day out on a 4,221-mile tour of 12 states in the Midwest and east.

In Toledo, Stevenson solemnly told his audience jammed in Courthouse Square that America faced a long and tough fight against "a great and powerful international conspiracy" of Communists.

Columbia Group Pledges Support to Eisenhower
NEW YORK (AP) — A group of 715 Columbia university faculty and staff members came out Wednesday in support of Dwight D. Eisenhower, the Republican candidate for President.

Previously 30 faculty members had gone on record for Eisenhower and 300 others had publicly backed his Democratic opponent, Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson.

SUI-Indiana Debate Set for Tuesday

SUI will be host to Indiana university's debate team Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the house chamber of Old Capitol, Prof. Orville Hitchcock, speech instructor, announced Wednesday.

Split-teams will debate the question, Resolved: That the Republican Ticket for the Presidency Should Be Elected Nov. 4.

David Stanley, L4, Iowa City, and Milton Brown, A3, Council Bluffs, will be the SUI debaters.

Stanley will present the Republican point of view and will team up with the Republican representative from Indiana.

Brown and his Indiana teammate will speak for the Democratic side.

The public is invited.

Faculty Members Attend Conference On Mental Health

Three SUI faculty members attended a meeting of the State Mental Health institute in Des Moines Tuesday.

They were Dr. Ralph H. Ojemann, of the child welfare research station; Dr. Wilbur R. Miller, director of the psychopathic hospital; and Prof. Richard M. Seaman, of the school of social work.

"First Lessons," a film based on research in child behavior conducted by Dr. Ojemann, was shown at the meeting. The film was made by the Mental Health Film board, which is affiliated with the Mental Health institute.

Dr. Ojemann's research is being aided by grants from the state and federal government and the Bevin Foundation of Cleveland, a private organization which sponsors projects in mental hygiene.

COSTELLO QUESTIONED
NEW YORK (AP) — The justice department Wednesday asked that racketeer Frank Costello's citizenship be taken from him as a prelude to his deportation. The petition, filed in Federal Court here, was based mainly on Costello's admitted rum-running activities in the 1920's.

HIS 'Cheapened Money'
"What they have done is to cheapen our money and history shows that this is always done by administrations that care more for the next election than for the next generation."

Speech Follows Tour

His speech here followed a three-day New England whistle-stop tour in which he slashed back at President Truman's charge that a Republican victory would lead to an economic crash.

He told cheering crowds in Hartford, Conn., Springfield and Pittsfield, Mass., Wednesday that prospects for both prosperity and peace would be better under a Republican administration.

"The inflation we suffer is not an accident," Eisenhower declared at Troy. "It is a policy."

And, he added in one of his stiffest attacks yet on the Democratic leaders:

Shaw Chorale Big Hit

By JIM GOLTZ
A spell, woven by the artistry of 29 performers, was cast over a capacity audience in the Iowa Union main lounge Wednesday night, assembled to hear the Robert Shaw Chorale.

From the moment the vocal group stepped onto the stage, the men formally dressed in "white tie and tails" and the women dressed alike in black gowns, until thundering applause announced the close of the final number, the blending of the artists' voices held the audience's close attention.

Conducted by Shaw, the singers opened with a hymn-like German chant of thanksgiving and adoration.

Mingle Melodies
The vocal sections showed an ability to mingle contrasting melodies or to join each other and swell to a theme of ceremony and grandeur.

The second selection, Schubert's "Mass in G Major," introduced a soprano soloist whose clear and vibrant tones expressed the subtle and delicate tone of the music. Divided into part, the "Credo" section of the Mass was witheld and fraile.

The staccato "Credo" was followed by a resounding and triumphant "Sanctus," the selection closing with a moving "Agnus Dei."

9-Piece Ensemble
Bloch's "Sacred Service" opened with the 9-piece string ensemble playing a lonely, mournful theme. Progressing to a mood describing the strength and fury of God's power, the theme once more returned to one of faith. In-

Top State Officials Will Gather Here For 41st Homecoming

Gov. William S. Beardsley, Congressmen Thomas E. Martin and Henry O. Talle, and an estimated 137 state officials and members of the Iowa state legislature will be in Iowa City Saturday to help thousands of SUI students and alumni celebrate their 41st annual Homecoming.

Some of the visitors will arrive on the campus in time to attend the Friday night parade, pep rally and Iowa Memorial Union open house. All will be guests at a Saturday luncheon and will attend the Iowa-Ohio State game together.

All incumbent Iowa officials, both state and federal, of both political parties, are traditionally invited to Homecoming in recognition of their official capacities, Dean Bruce E. Mahan, committee member in charge of Homecoming invitations, said Wednesday.

Iowa Convention Of School Boards Elects President

Melvin Baker, J.D. '33, was elected president of the Iowa Association of School boards at its annual convention in Des Moines on Friday, Oct. 17.

A graduate of the SUI college of law and a practicing attorney in Humbolt, Baker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Baker of What Cheer and a brother of Iowa Baker, president of the Mahaska County Board of Education.

At the Des Moines session, proposed school legislation was discussed, but no final action was taken.

All incumbent Iowa officials, both state and federal, of both political parties, are traditionally invited to Homecoming in recognition of their official capacities, Dean Bruce E. Mahan, committee member in charge of Homecoming invitations, said Wednesday.
