Valiant in Korean War—

Iowa City Infantry Captain Cited For Distinguished Service Cross

Iowa City, Iowa, Oct. 10. — The heroism of Capt. William Southwick, of the 8th Iowa Infantry, was recognized by the United States War Department today when he was presented with the Distinguished Service Cross for his gallantry in action during the month of September. The citation read: "For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of life above and beyond the call of duty. Capt. William Southwick distinguished himself by his intrepid leadership and tenacity of purpose in the face of a mortal enemy, while engaged in the capture and liquidation of enemy strongholds in the vicinity of Seoul, Korea, on September 18, 1950. His personal valor and staunch support of his troops inspired the men under his command in the face of intense and dangerous enemy fire. He set a fine example by his exceptional courage and fighting spirit. He led the advance in hand-to-hand combat and thus assisted in the capture of a strong enemy position. Capt. Southwick's heroic actions during this action were in keeping with the high traditions of the service."
Of Course We Back Iowa—

A short note to the better writers who seem to think that because Iowa lost to Nebraska, our beloved Hawkeyes have dropped five in the standings for the team or 0-7 and are standing at the equal moment in the pattern of a normal Iowa day. If we weren’t backing the team, we’d be allowing some other team to back a normal Iowa day. The Hawkeyes will win tomorrow.
If it’s so easy to stay on the right path, a senator’s attitude, doesn’t count much as changing a head, switchin’ the light through the prevents non-colored glasses and writing a story that makes the front page of our paper, I guarantee you our Hawkeyes will stay on the path and we’ll stay on the bandwagon.

There’s much excitement in the game that you can’t imagine. I’ve never seen the emotions that could be captured at the games and our Hawkeyes will be our darlings to stay on the path and our Carnes will be the best of any to watch.

Bernie Bennett

The Big Ten football statistics show Bernie Bennett heading the conference in pass efficiency with an average of 28.2 for the season, which is the highest in Iowa history.
