House Group Cuts 39 Per Cent From Ike's Emergency Budget

WASHINGTON (AP) — The house appropriations committee Friday dealt President Eisenhower the hardest fiscal slap of his administration as it chopped 39 per cent from a $1,900,000,000 emergency budget.

The GOP-dominated committee recommended that the house provide only $1,194,188,079 of the $1,959,958,267 the President had requested for supplemental financing of miscellaneous federal activities.

The $765,770,188 reduction was the biggest, percentage-wise in recent years and the house was expected to sustain most of it when it considers the committee's action next week.

Slash Construction Funds
Committee Chairman John Taber (R-N.Y.), commented, "We didn't cut anything that shouldn't have been cut."

The committee's deepest slashes were in funds sought for ship construction, military public works, hospital construction and civil defense.

Military public works construction, for which the President had requested $1,100,000,000 in new cash, was trimmed to $571,600,000. However, the cash cut was partly offset by the committee's approval of the use of unobligated balances from previously appropriated money.

Wants Uniform Costs

The committee called for re-examination of military construction programs to make costs more uniform and to avoid expensive frills. It noted wide variance in projected costs of similar construction by the different branches of the armed forces.

The air force bore the brunt of the cuts in construction funds. It wanted $945,997,000 in new money and was given $484,808,025,000. The biggest cut was in $73,517,000 of the $140,000,000 it requested. The army got the entire $505,000 it sought; it had planned to use available funds for most of its construction program this year.

Cut Stockpiling Funds

The Civil Defense administration, which wanted $85,750,000 in new funds, was given $44,025,000. The biggest cut was in funds to stockpile emergency supplies and equipment. The agency asked for $60,000,000 for this purpose and was given $25,000,000, all of it to be used for medical supplies and equipment.

The entire $35,000,000 requested by the President for grants to states for hospital construction under a recently-expanded program was disallowed. The money would have been used to build specialized facilities for treatment of diseases. The committee said present plans for the program were "very vague."

Ike Signs Re-Enlistment Bonus Increase Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower Friday signed a bill increasing re-enlistment bonuses for men in the armed services.

The President said in a statement that the purpose of the bill "is to offer an added inducement for more people to make the service their career, thereby increasing the efficiency of our armed service."

Local Man Missing; Abandoned Car Found

A three-hour search through brush and farmland two miles west of Coralville in the area where an abandoned car was found Friday morning failed to turn up any clues to the whereabouts of a local retired World War I pensioner missing since Monday.

Deputy Sheriff Donald L. Wilson led the searching party for Carl E. Miles, 67, 928 Riverside drive, after attorney William F. Morrison found the car Miles had borrowed Monday from neighbor Hiram Oscar Decker, 7 Cherry Lane. Morrison reported finding the car to the police.

Decker had notified police Tuesday that Miles had not returned with the car and the state highway patrol was alerted. Morrison found the car on a siding about 10 feet from a foot bridge in the area where the search began Friday morning.

Wilson led the searching party. Fred Paintin, Coralville marshal, and Decker took part in the search. The search covered approximately a mile radius from where the car was parked.

Wilson said the search would continue in a few days. He emphasized that there was no definite evidence Miles was dead.

Paintin said Miles suffered from heart trouble and poor eyesight.

Miles was described as 5 feet 11 inches tall, 140 pounds, with gray hair and a slight frame. Paintin said he saw the car Miles was driving Monday morning in Coralville.

The missing man has no relatives in Iowa City.

Teenagers Climax Vocal Music Camp With Song Concert

The 78 participants in the SUU all state vocal music camp not only sang exceptionally well; they also sang with noticeable enthusiasm.

As a climax to two full weeks of rehearsals and classes, high school students from 36 Iowa towns presented a concert of vocal music Friday night in the main lounge of the Iowa Memorial Union. The concert was part of the 16th annual Fine Arts Festival at SUU.

And if any doubt was maintained that Iowa high school students were ignoring the benefits and entertainment afforded by vocal music training, these doubts were dispelled at the concert.

The students themselves were enthusiastic about singing and about the training offered them at the music camp.

Students Praise Camp
Julie Von Muenster, a 15-year-old high school junior from Clarence, said, "The camp is something that can't be expressed in words. It is a lot of fun, we learn a lot, and we have so much fun singing."

"This festival is great," remarked Tom Lutz, 16, a Muscatine high school junior. "I'm coming back next year."

The choir was conducted by Henry Veld, director of choirs at Augustana college, Rock Island, Ill.

Easy To Understand

"We don't have any trouble knowing what Mr. Veld wants," remarked Dave Wagner, 17, a senior at City high school in Iowa City. "He makes you want to sing," another added.

The girls, dressed in dark skirts and white blouses, relaxed in the River room of the Union as the boys' choir sang upstairs. The first thing many of the girls did was to take off their high-heeled shoes and give a tremendous sigh of relief. "Boy it's good to get those shoes off," one singer said.

The concert consisted mainly of religious songs, with a scattering of lighter numbers.

Students Work Hard

Concerning the concert, Veld said, "These kids sure worked hard for this thing. Practiced four hours a day. Learned 15 songs in 13 days. That's going some."

Veld commented that the youngsters were very easy to work with. "In fact the heat gave me more trouble than the kids. I can't stand hot weather."

A party at Currier hall followed the concert. Music camp queen Sandra Knight and her four attendants were honored at the party.

Dr. Earl E. Harper, director of the school of fine arts, one of the sponsors of the music camp, summed up the camp adequately when he said, "These high school kids have given us some of the finest musical events of the entire Fine Arts Festival."

ISC To Publish Book For Hoover's Birthday

DES MOINES (AP) — The Iowa State College Press is publishing a special book in connection with the Iowa observance of former president Herbert Hoover's birthday at West Branch Aug. 10, it was announced here Friday.

The edition includes 53 cartoons drawn around Hoover by Jay N. "Ding" Darling from the time of Hoover's days as food administrator in World War I to the close of his term as president.

House-Senate Group OK's Revenue Cut

WASHINGTON (AP) — A house-senate conference committee agreed Friday to give many parents a tax deduction of up to $600 a year for the expense of caring for their children while they work.

The committee accepted a more liberal senate version, cutting revenue an estimated $130 million a year. The house had approved a much more restricted plan for a $40 million tax cut.

The adopted plan would give tax relief to an estimated 2,100,000 families. The house version would have affected only 300,000.

Rewriting Tax Laws

The committee is ironing out hundreds of differences between house and senate versions of President Eisenhower's tax revision program, rewriting almost every tax law on the books.

The bill, running almost 1,000 pages, is expected to reduce federal revenues next year by about $1½ billion. Both the house and senate still must approve the final version worked out by the conference committee.

The approved plan for working parents would permit a $600 child care deduction on income tax returns for married couples with an income of $4,500 a year or less.

Deductions Depend on Income
The amount of the deduction would be reduced by the amount of annual income above $4,500. Thus a couple with $4,800 income without regard to their income would get a $300 deduction. No deduction would be allowed for couples with income of $5,100 or more.

Single heads of households — widowed, divorced or separated persons, or unwed mothers — could get the full $600 deduction.

The deduction would cover only actual expenses of caring for children under 12, while the parents worked.

Senate Committee OK's $3 Billion Foreign Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — A $3.1 billion foreign aid bill was sent to the senate floor Friday after the senate foreign relations committee declared allied reverses in Indochina must spur the free world to greater efforts for collective defense.

The committee filed a report declaring that the billions in foreign aid spent so far have "paid off" in stronger bulwarks against communism.

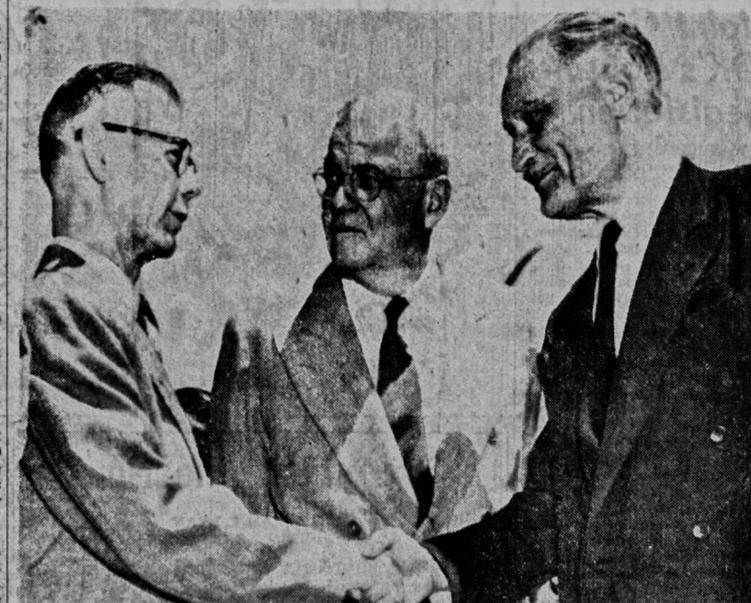

Lone dissenter on the 15-man committee was Sen. William Langer (R-N.D.) who described the aid program as "a fraud upon the credulity of the American people" and a "gigantic swindle."

He said the program allies the United States with colonial oppressors, such as the British, and loses friends for America in undeveloped areas of the world.

After the committee filed its report the senate armed services committee, which also considered the measure, unanimously agreed to send it to the senate.

The foreign relations committee, before approving the program, cut $348 million off the sum asked by President Eisenhower. The voted for $3,338,000,000.

Geneva Pressure Increases As French Deadline Nears

FRENCH AMBASSADOR HENRI BONNET, right, bids Undersecretary of State Walter Bedell Smith farewell at National airport Friday in Washington just before Smith took off from Geneva, Switzerland, in an air force plane. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles joins in the farewell. Smith will throw American support behind French efforts to get acceptable peace terms from the Communists to end the war in Indochina.

Negotiators Deadlocked On Indochina

GENEVA (AP) — East-West negotiators met for three hours Friday in hard bargaining for an Indochina armistice but made no progress.

French Premier Pierre Mendes-France, Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov and British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden conferred in private in the show-down stage in an effort to reach an agreement on a division of Viet Nam.

The delegates were working against a Tuesday deadline when, Mendes-France has declared, he will resign if he has not achieved a cease-fire.

Documents Shown Molotov
Documents putting down in black and white French proposals, which were reported to divide Viet Nam at the 18th parallel between the French-supported Vietnamese and the Red-supported Vietminh, were shown to Molotov.

But the Communists were reported holding out for the 14th parallel.

The French-drawn partition line would give the Vietminh three-fifths of Viet Nam, including the rich Red river delta.

French Want Port

The French were reported contending for continued control of the delta port of Haiphong, if not Hanoi as well.

The Communist line would push the French out of virtually all but the province of Cochinchina, around Saigon, in the south.

The West will be bolstered today by the arrival of U.S. Undersecretary of State Walter Bedell Smith from Washington. He was en route to the conference Friday night.

Argued Fruitlessly

Mendes-France argued fruitlessly for four hours Thursday night with a stubborn Molotov. French sources said neither budged from their respective positions.

As a result of Molotov's stonewall opposition the hopes for a ceasefire before Tuesday's deadline took a nosedive.

French Smash Reds In Tank-Led Attack Northeast of Hanoi

HANOI, Indochina (AP) — French Union mobile infantry units, spearheaded by tanks, drove Vietminh troops from entrenchments west and northeast of Hanoi Friday, in the biggest offensive in weeks against Communist-led forces in the Red river delta.

Ten thousand French and Vietnamese troops, backed by artillery and American-supplied warplanes, smashed Vietminh positions near Luc Nam, 35 miles northeast of Hanoi, and Son Tay, 25 miles west of Hanoi. A French briefing officer said the fighting raged on, with both sides suffering appreciable losses.

French Close Pincer

French forces closed a pincer on rebels dug in along a river bank six miles west of Luc Nam. Supporting infantry units from nearby Phu Lang Thuong, 15 miles to the west, rolled across country to join a Luc Nam force which opened a battle Thursday.

Vietminh pressure has been building up against French outposts in the area around Luc Nam and Phu Lang Thuong for the past 10 days.

The offensive west of Hanoi ran into a hail of exploding mortar shells from Vietminh trenches and foxholes dotting an inverted triangular area five miles southeast of Son Tay.

Last POW's Exchanged

Meanwhile, the last of 200 French and Vietminh prisoners of war were exchanged today at Vietri, 40 miles northwest of Hanoi.

The French POWs, helicoptered back to Hanoi after their release, had all been captured when the Vietminh crushed Dien Bien Phu May 7. They told of a harrowing march to prison camps near Yen Bai, 75 miles northwest of Hanoi, during which many died along the road,

Hoover To Visit Here, Will Dedicate School

National political leaders, state dignitaries, and network television crews will converge on West Branch Aug. 10 for Herbert Hoover's 80th birthday celebration in the town of his birth.

After the West Branch activities, ex-President Hoover will arrive in Iowa City for the 6 p.m. (DST) dedication ceremonies of the new Herbert Hoover elementary school on Court avenue, west of First avenue. The celebrities and reporters are expected to follow Hoover to Iowa City in a police-escorted motor cavalcade. William B. Anderson, chairman of the West Branch observance committee, said Friday.

A personal representative of President Eisenhower will be named soon, Anderson said. He refused to guess who it may be, doctor of laws degree.

"The NBC television network will definitely carry Herbert Hoover's talk," Anderson said Friday. He indicated that other radio and television crews and Look and Collier's magazines will also cover the West Branch events.

Hoover's 80th birthday celebration will start with the morning dedication of the West Branch Herbert Hoover school. Hoover then will visit his birthplace cottage in Hoover park.

This event may be carried on the Dave Garraway television show, Anderson said.

A parade and dedication of a boy scout shelter will precede Hoover's afternoon talk. Dr. James H. Hilton, Iowa State college president, will present to Hoover the book, "As Ding Saw Hoover," a collection of Hoover cartoons by Jay "Ding" Darling, former Des Moines Register cartoonist.

A band concert by the Iowa City high school band under the direction of Howard Robinson will precede the Iowa City dedication, Mrs. James Jordan, member of the board of education dedication committee, said.

Hoover will tour the new school before the 20-minute program.

Rockford Girl Chosen Queen of Music Camp

World News Briefs

A Condensation of Late Developments

Hickenlooper Denounces World Court Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Republican senators Friday denounced in the senate a World Court ruling involving 11 Americans dismissed from UN jobs. Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) said he considered the court's ruling "fantastic." Sen. William E. Jenner (R-Ind.) criticized the court's findings as legal support given to a "fifth column in the United Nations." On Tuesday in The Hague, Netherlands, the World Court ruled the UN general assembly has no right to review compensation awards made to the Americans dismissed from UN jobs after U.S. inquiries into alleged subversive activities.

10 Killed in Munitions Plant Explosion

CHESTERTOWN, Md. (AP) — A sprawling fireworks and munitions plant on the west edge of Chestertown suddenly erupted in 30 minutes of mushrooming explosions Friday and at least 10 were killed. Between 50 and 60 were hurt, but only 7 were hospitalized and none of them was in critical condition. They had broken bones, cuts and burns. Most of the victims were elderly women who worked on assembly lines putting together firecrackers, detonators, and training shells.

Doctor Advises 'Moderation' During Hot Summer Weather

"Moderation" can be a life-saving motto during heat waves such as those rolling across the nation this summer, an SUI physician said Friday.

Prof. Franklin H. Top, head of hygiene and preventive medicine at SUI, pointed to the country's rising heat-death toll and warned that ruthless sun rays can cut down the healthiest and strongest type of individual.

"When possible, a person should slow down to a moderate pace during these periods when the heat is intense," the physician said. "Excessive activity can cost days of recuperation if not a person's life."

Wear Hat Outdoors
Top also cautioned against the practice of working or playing out of doors without a hat when the temperatures are extremely high.

"The golfer or tennis player who exposes his bare head to the blistering sun is asking for trouble—regardless of how often he has done so before without ill effect," the doctor said.

"And it is dangerous, too," he added, "to expose large areas of the body to the sun." The medical educator cited farmers as "people who show they have proper respect for the sun's rays."

Clothe, Eat Lightly
"Most farmers clothe themselves lightly but adequately when they leave for the fields," Dr. Top said. "These men know the importance of wearing hats and shirts."

The physician said the best way to get safely through the extremely hot weather is to eat lightly, add a little extra salt to foods, consume plenty of liquids, get as much rest as the weather permits and avoid those activities which require a great amount of exertion.

"Those persons who think these rules are not important," the doctor added, "need only talk to someone who has suffered a heat stroke."

Joint Group OK's Housing Legislation

WASHINGTON (AP)—A split senate-house conference committee Friday approved new housing legislation generally following administration wishes but rejected President Eisenhower's public housing program.

The measure, among other things would tighten government loan insurance provision with the intention of taking "windfall" profits out of apartment construction.

And it would reduce down payment requirements on homes bought with FHA-insured mortgages.

Sen. Irving Ives (R-N.Y.), Sen. John Sparkman (D-Ala.) and all three house Democrats on the conference committee refused to sign the compromise legislation, principally because the majority failed to approve Eisenhower's public housing program.

The other nine conferees, headed by Sen. Homer Capehart (R-Ind.) and Rep. Jesse Wolcott (R-Mich.), chairman of the senate and house banking committees, signed the report.

In last-minute actions the conference committee adopted a one-year public housing program up to a maximum 35,000 units restricted to families actually displaced by a federal slum clearance or redevelopment program.

Eisenhower had asked a four-year public housing program of 35,000 units a year.

But the conferees went along with the main points of an Eisenhower proposal to recharter the Federal National Mortgage association with private capital gradually taking over all equity in this secondary mortgage market.

Contractor Blasts Senate FHA Probe

WASHINGTON (AP)—An apartment house builder quizzed about the "windfall" profits blasted back at senate probers Friday with a statement that it is "unfair" to criticize those who responded to urgent appeals for housing.

"Naturally we operated in the hope of a profit," said Bertram Bonner, Richmond, Va., "but I find it a source of disappointment that our acts are criticized instead of praised."

Bonner built seven government-backed apartment projects and made money on all but two of them.

His statement was presented to the senate banking committee which is investigating multi-million dollar profits made by some builders who were able to get government-insured loans far in excess of construction costs.

Interpreting the News

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press Foreign Staff

Washington's sudden flurry of activity over prospective granting of sovereignty to West Germany seems to indicate that the capital has little faith in the staying powers of the present French government.

Administration leaders apparently have taken to heart a hard-learned lesson which has emerged from the Geneva conference; that Moscow's European and Asian strategy are enmeshed in a single, global cold war strategy. Time after time Moscow has made it clear the Kremlin considers the lessening of tensions in Europe and Asia a single world problem.

Word now comes from Washington that the administration may have to recall the senate into special session after its scheduled July 31 adjournment, so that change in the Bonn treaty with Chancellor Adenauer's West German government may be ratified.

Time Growing Short

That is, there is a good chance that France will not ratify the European Defense Community treaty, and time is growing short. A frightening global picture is emerging.

In the old days of European imperialism, the Kaiser guaranteed the western security of his cousin, the Czar, while the Russians adventured about in the Far East. Today the guarantee for Moscow is a chain of bitter satellites, including East Germany, with military strength facing disunity. The West's voice would be firmer in Asia today if a determined collective defense in Europe was a reality.

But France remains fearful of an armed Germany and Communist propaganda makes the most of it.

France Has Choice

France has a choice to make. She can attempt to live with an armed Germany within a framework which will discourage a recurrence of German military ambitions, or she can stand aside and watch Germany being armed in an arrangement wholly beyond French influence.

If Premier Pierre Mendes-France fails to get an "honorable" cease-fire in Indochina by Tuesday, he is pledged to resign as head of the 20th French government since the war's end. Possibly he will get his cease-fire, but he is far from out of the woods then, because Communist peace terms in Indochina are likely to be harsh.

Ratification Is Key

But one way or the other, Indochina must be out of the way

before the French assembly will turn its attention to EDC ratification—and the national assembly is headed for adjournment Aug. 15.

The Kremlin has a large stake in staving off EDC. Ratification by France is the key to its effective operation. Washington seems fully aware of all the possibilities. The plan to give West Germany sovereignty and bring German troops into an EDC army without France is born of desperation over France's dragging feet.

Western nations are becoming impatient, knowing that the more the delay, the more Soviet influence and power are enhanced in Europe.

2 Coralville Firms Ransacked Thursday

A Coralville gas station and a salvage firm were broken into Thursday night and about $10 was taken.

The break-ins at the Masbruch service station and the Coralville Salvage Co. were investigated by Deputy Sheriff Donald L. Wilson.

Ten dollars in cash was missing from the cash register at the service station and was apparently the largest property loss.

The salvage company was missing less than 50 cents in cash according to Joseph W. Glasgow, partner in the firm.

The break-ins were discovered at 7 a. m. Melvin Masbruch Jr., son of the service station proprietor, found a window broken at the station. Bills and papers were scattered over the floor and the cash register opened.

Allen Wolfe, the other partner of the salvage firm, found that the office had been ransacked.

A typewriter and an adding machine had been toppled to the floor and drawers dumped as the files were apparently systematically searched.

The gas station closed at 10:30 p. m. Thursday and the salvage premises were checked at 9 a. m. by Glasgow.

The sealed bids will be publicly opened and read at 1:30 p. m. in Old Capitol the same day.

The work will include planting of trees, shrubbery and grass.

Congressman Tells Of $500 Bribe Offer To Influence Vote

WASHINGTON (AP)—Reports that a $500 bribe was offered to a member of congress to influence his vote on a postal workers' pay rate bill were under investigation Friday night by the FBI.

Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell said the matter was brought to the justice department's attention by Rep. Joel T. Broyles (R-Va.), a member of the house post office committee and a wealthy real estate contractor of suburban Arlington, Va.

Neither Brownell nor Broyles would say who was involved in the alleged bribe offer, a $500 campaign contribution, nor when it was made.

The heads of two AFL unions which have been active in efforts to obtain a pay raise for postal workers called the bribe report "preposterous" and "impossible to believe."

Broyles is seeking reelection this year. He said he was strongly opposed to methods used in an effort to force a house vote on a bill by Rep. Robert Corbett (R-Pa.) which would give the postal workers a general increase of 7 per cent.

The fancy turn-out contest involves a single Shetland pony

Flanders Will Give Up 'Oust Joe' Drive

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Ralph Flanders (R-Vt.) announced Friday night he will abandon his attempt to oust Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy from his committee chairmanships and seek instead to have the Wisconsin Republican formally censured for conduct which "tends to bring the senate into disrepute."

Meanwhile McCarthy yielded to pressure from the senate's Republican leadership and canceled plans to open an investigation of alleged Communist infiltration of defense plants in Boston today.

Flanders issued a statement saying he would introduce his censure motion in the senate next Tuesday and that it will "permit a clearcut vote on McCarthyism."

The resolution condemns McCarthy's conduct as chairman of the senate permanent subcommittee on investigations as "unbecoming a member of the United States senate" and "contrary to senatorial traditions."

A test on the ouster resolution had been scheduled for Tuesday, when the 73-year-old Vermont senator planned to get it disinterred from the senate rules committee, where it has reposed since June 15. The senate Republican policy committee has turned thumbs down on this move, however.

Soviets Disclose Occupation of 2 Arctic Ice Floes

The Soviet Union announced Saturday a new move in the contest with the United States for supremacy in the arctic—the occupation of two floating ice islands north and northwest of Alaska.

The official Soviet news agency Tass said "scientific stations" had been established on the two drifting floes last spring. It gave positions that at present at least one was on the Western Hemisphere side of the pole.

The position given for one floe indicated it was about 500 miles northwest of Pt. Barrow, Alaska, and about 650 miles south of the North Pole.

The announcement followed the disclosure last May 22 by the United States air force that it had withdrawn its nine men on T3, an ice floe known as Fletcher's Island, after about two years of drifting across the arctic for weather observation purposes.

The air force said the floating island's worth as a weather observation point had been lost by its drifting so close to the permanent station.

Although the Soviet Union once laid claim to all arctic areas north of Russian territory to the North Pole, the United States has never recognized the claim.

The two-year odyssey of T3, however, focused American attention on the possibility that ice islands—relatively strong and stable fresh water floes—could be used for observation camps and airplane landing fields on the arctic, published data indicating that Russia too has made an extensive study of several of these ice islands and mapped the routes of their drift.

Frohwein To Re-Submit Airport Remodeling Plan

George Frohwein, Iowa City airport commissioner, said Friday that he would re-submit to the city council his proposal for $10,000 to remodel the airport administration building if the airport commission gives its approval.

He said he would meet with the commission sometime early next week to discuss the plans. The city council Thursday rejected his proposals to air condition and equip the building at an estimated cost of $10,000.

Frohwein stated that original building plans called for air conditioning and equipment, but rising costs made it necessary to cut these out to complete the building with the appropriate finances.

Preps Attend SUI Drama Workshop

To Present Plays For Parents Sunday

Parents and other relatives of theatre students in the summer workshop in speech and dramatic art for high school students will be their first audience at SUI.

Thursday and Friday the workshop will close with a varied playbill of four one-act plays. Other parents and the general public will attend the performance.

Two casts of players will each present the first act of Moss Hart's "Light Up the Sky" Sunday at 3 p.m. in the workshop theatre behind Currier hall. Charles Rehwaldt, Muscatine, will play the male lead of Sidney Black in each cast, while Janet Adamson, Cedar Falls, and Dixie Davenport, Anamosa, will take turns portraying the feminine lead role of Irene Livingston.

Dutch Professor To Lecture Here About Education

Prof. M. J. Langeveld, head of the department of education at the University of Utrecht, The Netherlands, will give two addresses at SUI next week.

Wednesday at 2 p.m., the educator will speak on "National Characteristics of European Educational Systems" in room 103, Electrical Engineering building. At 11 a.m., Thursday, he will speak on "Emotional Difficulties in Learning," in room E104, East hall.

Langeveld, who is on a two-week speaking tour in the United States, is known throughout Europe for his work in the field of education.

After World War II he was a consultant to the UNESCO seminar of education for international understanding.

While serving on UNESCO staff he met Dean E. T. Peterson, of the SUI department of education, who was a member of the American delegation to the conference.

All students are invited to attend both of the lectures.

Bomber Damaged By Target Cable

BOSTON (AP)—A big B29 air force bomber made a safe landing at Logan airport here Friday after being damaged by a target tow rope, apparently dropped accidentally from another bomber while on a military training mission over Cape Cod.

The B29, from Griffis air force base, Rome, N. Y., touched off a furore when it radioed the Boston airport tower for emergency landing clearance.

The message reached some airport attaches in a garbled form and it was thought at first that the plane had collided with a jet plane which later crashed into the sea.

Jap Religious Leader To Talk Here Thursday

Toyohiko Kagawa, Japanese religious leader, social reformer and author, will speak Thursday evening at 8 p.m. in the Iowa Memorial Union.

Described as an eloquent advocate for a larger role for religion in contemporary life, Kagawa is stopping off at SUI on his way to serve as a consultant at the second international assembly of the World Council of Churches in Evanston, Ill., next month.

Planning Conference To Study Problems Of School Building

More than 100 Iowa schoolmen, board of education members, architects and contractors will convene at SUI July 26-27.

Charles D. Gibson of Los Angeles, president of the National Council on Schoolhouse Construction, will speak on "The Why, What and How of Good School Lighting." Gibson is the author of "American Standard Practice for School Lighting," a manual widely used by school builders and administrators.

S. J. Knezevich, SUI specialist in financing school buildings, will speak on "The School Plan in Historical Perspective."

Melvin G. Davis, former school leader at Grinnell, Indianola and Ames and now director of student personnel at Huntington college in Indiana, will discuss "Contributions of Teachers and Other School Personnel to the School Building Planning Process."

A five-man discussion of school building problems will be conducted by T. R. Lovejoy, Des Moines contractor; Melvin L. Baker, Humboldt board of education president; Ben C. Berg, Newton superintendent of schools; O. H. Thorson, Waterloo architect, and J. H. McBurney, Webster City superintendent of schools.

Chaplain To Conduct Vespers at Old Capitol

The Rev. Allen Lewis, chaplain of University hospitals, will speak on "Christian Faith and Our Health" at 7 p.m. at a Sunday vespers service on the north lawn of Old Capitol. Devotional services will be conducted by members of the Congregational church.

The last in this series of Sunday vespers services will be held July 25. The Rev. Jackson Burns of St. Paul's Methodist church in Cedar Rapids will be guest speaker.

Giants Lose To Cards; Yanks Tip Nats For 11th Straight

Jablonski's Single Wins for Cardinals

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Ray Jablonski's single in the ninth inning drove in Wally Moon from second base Friday night to break up a tie game and lift the St. Louis Cardinals to a 5-4 victory over the National League leading New York Giants.

Jablonski's two-out hit to left field came off ace Giant reliever Marv Grissom who took over in the eighth inning.

The Giants had scored three runs in their eighth to tie the game on a walk, a single by Davey Williams, a run-scoring single by Ray Katt and an outfield error by Stan Musial. The third run came home after another error and an infield hit by Bobby Hofman.

Record May Fall Today At Arlington

CHICAGO (AP) — Blurring speed that may wipe out Arlington park's mile record will keynote today's Arlington classic, richest event for 3-year-olds ever run.

The overnight field of 13 is headed by Hasty House Farm's Preakness winner, Hasty Road, and King Ranch's Belmont victor, High Gun. But at least six other speedsters are conceded a chance to flit the mile under 1:34. The mile record of 1:34 2-6 was set by Equipose in 1932.

If all 13 start, the gross value will be a record $181,300, topping the previous high of $154,300 for the 1953 classic, won by Native Dancer. The winner's share will be $104,475, with $30,000 going to second, $15,000 to third and $10,000 to fourth. The classic's all-time high winning jackpot of $105,375 went to the Mark-Ye-Well in 1952.

The weatherman forecasts a chance of showers but probably not before post time. The 26th running will be televised nationally.

CBS from 4:30 p.m. (DST) to 5. There will be no radio broadcast.

Hasty Road, equally top weighted with High Gun with 123 up, is the overnight favorite at 2-1. The powerful colt has, in addition to the Preakness, firsts in the Warren Wright Memorial and Derby Trial and thrilling seconds in the Kentucky Derby and Preakness Prep. Johnny Adams, 39-year-old veteran, will be aboard Hasty Road.

High Gun, in addition to his big Belmont victory, has won the Peter Pan and Dwyer stakes in his last three starts and had third in the Wood Memorial, Withers and Jersey stakes. He will be ridden by Eric Guerin.

High Gun is 4-1, Duc de Fer at 6-1 and Hasseyampa at 8-1.

Also in the field are Allied, Sea O Erin, Helioscope, Artisma, Erard King, Super Devil, Tuosix, Revolt and Jet Action.

Milwaukee Socks Brooklyn Pitchers For 9-Hit, 6-1 Win

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Milwaukee Braves racked three Brooklyn pitchers for nine hits and a 6-1 triumph Friday night in their third straight verdict over the slipping Dodgers behind Gene Conley's five-hit, nine-strikeout hurling.

A crowd of 41,778, second largest in County stadium history, watched Conley give away a first-inning run on a hit batsman with the bases full, then throttle the Dodgers with three hits the rest of the way. Only one Brooklyn base runner reached second after the opening inning.

Brooklyn manager Walt Alston was thumbed out in the fifth inning for a too-vigorous protest of a call at the plate by umpire Dusty Boggess, who had called Danny O'Connell safe on a close play following Joe Adcock's foul fly. It was the first time Alston had been ejected in his brief major league career.

The 6 foot 8 inch rookie right-hander gave up his only walk in the first inning. Singles by Pee Wee Reese and Duke Snider with one out preceded the pass to Gil Hodges.

Conley then hit Jackie Robinson on the left elbow, forcing in the run, but Sandy Amoros bounced meekly back to the mound for a force at the plate and Carl Furillo bounced out. The injury sidelined Robinson for Billy Cox in the next inning.

WHITNEY MARTIN'S Sports Trail

NEW YORK (AP) — It seems they can scratch one hurricane after another forecast of stormy weather for Rocky Marciano.

This hurricane, known to his relatives as Tommy Jackson, was supposed to be heading toward a match with the heavyweight champion, and if Rocky happened to have his TV set tuned to Jackson's fight with Nino Valdes Wednesday night he must have been at least mildly amused at what he saw.

He saw a pathetically inept young man making wild, school-boy gestures with his fists until, in the second round, the bout was stopped when he was knocked down for the third time in the round.

The bout supposedly was to determine who would meet Marciano in the near future, and it did. It undoubtedly will be Ezzard Charles, if Ezzard can forget the tremendous clobbering he took in his last meeting with the champion.

It might be suggested that Valdes should not be counted out of the picture because, after all, he won in two rounds.

But somehow he didn't look too impressive. He was calm enough, except when he got Jackson in trouble and started swinging wildly to finish him off. His jab was fairly effective, and his roundhouse right, carried authority when it landed. But he seemed slow, although his tremendous bulk may have made him appear slower than he really was.

Jackson, only 22, has been the victim of a preposterous buildup. He beat some "name" fighters, but when he met Jimmy Slade the suspicions of his keener critics were verified. A clever man could beat him.

Now it develops that it does not take a particularly clever man to beat him. Valdes is an adequate boxer, but he is not renowned particularly for his cleverness.

Boston's Sullivan Blanks Tigers, 3-0

BOSTON (AP) — Rookie Frank Sullivan of the Boston Red Sox held Detroit to three singles Friday as the 6-7 Californian beat the Tigers, 3-0, for his second straight shutout. He allowed only one runner to reach second base.

Sullivan, the 24-year-old right-hander who whitewashed Philadelphia 18-0 Sunday, got into his worst jam with two out in the ninth.

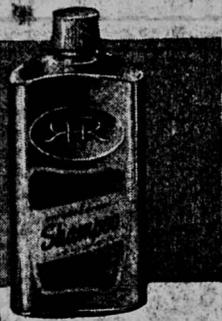

In the fourth the Red Sox got two unearned runs when Reno Bertoia muffed Ted Lepcio's high windblown two-out fly to short center. Ted Williams and Harry Agganis scored on the error.

The only earned tally off Garver came in the sixth.

Noren's Homer Brings 3-2 Win

NEW YORK (AP) — Irv Noren's home run with two out in the ninth gave the New York Yankees their 11th straight victory, a 3-2 decision over Baltimore Friday, keeping the world champs within 1/2 game of Cleveland.

The Yanks' winning streak is the longest in the majors this season. Baltimore got to Whitey Ford for two runs in the first and the Yanks bounced back with two off Joe Coleman in their half of the inning.

Ford and Coleman then battled off numerous threats until Noren broke it up. Four Yankee double plays made Ford's job easier.

White Sox Defeat Washington, 4-2; Consuegra Winner

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Chicago White Sox jammed four of their seven hits off Dean Stone into the eighth inning to score three runs and defeat Washington 4-2 Friday night. Sandy Consuegra, who replaced Virgil Trucks in the seventh inning, posted his 11th victory.

The Senators grabbed a 1-0 lead against Trucks in the sixth inning when Johnny Pesky walked and scored on Mickey Vernon's triple.

Held to two hits in the first six innings, the White Sox tied the score in the seventh when Jim Rivera tripled and scored when Stone balked.

Chico Carrasquel's double and singles by Minnie Minoso, Ron Jackson and Matt Batts gave Chicago a 4-1 lead in the eighth before Roy Sievers slammed his 14th homer off Consuegra in the ninth inning.

Tribe Pounds Athletics For 18-Hit, 9-3 Win

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Cleveland Indians pounded out 18 hits, nine of them for extra bases, to whip the hapless, helpless Philadelphia Athletics 9-3 Friday night and hold their half-game margin over the second-place New York Yankees.

Cleveland needed the win to stay in front of the Yanks, who beat Baltimore 3-2 in a day game. Almost every player in the Indians lineup got into the hitting act. Dave Philley, a former Philadelphia outfielder, had a homer, his 11th of the year, and a pair of singles.

Cleveland picked up a run in the second, and two in the fourth. Three more in the fifth wrapped it up.

Mike Garcia went the first seven innings for Cleveland and got his 12th win. He's lost five.

Baker's Triple Tips Pirates, 3-2

CHICAGO (AP) — Gene Baker's one out triple in the ninth inning scored Bob Talbot with the winning run as the Chicago Cubs edged Pittsburgh 3-2 Friday. The victory was pitcher Bob Rush's sixth of the season.

The Pirates gave starter Jake Thies a 1-0 lead in the fourth, but Chicago moved ahead with two runs in the seventh.

Baker touched off this spurt with a double and scored on Dee Fondy's single. Fondy stole second and scored on Randy Jackson's double.

Pittsburgh tied it 2-2 in the eighth.

What's This? Bruins' Wives To Play Game

DES MOINES (AP) — The wives of Manager Les Peden's Bruins of the Western league, who think they know something about baseball, have challenged their menfolk to a three-inning game and the challenge has been accepted.

It will be played at Pioneer Memorial stadium here next Wednesday night before the regular Des Moines-Pueblo contest.

It all came about as the result of a friendly feud between Peden and his wife, Onice, who has been second-guessing him at home. Les took all he could then offered Onice the job of managing the team. The challenge followed.

"Les asked for trouble and he's going to get it," said Mrs. Peden who will play shortstop. "We've picked our lineup and we'll work out every afternoon."

Zimmerman, Andrews Gain In Dallas Golf

DALLAS (AP) — Stout Gene Andrews, the California dead-shot, and Jack Zimmerman, the silent, methodical man from Dayton, Ohio, moved into the finals of the National Public Links tournament Friday with smashing victories achieved through brilliant golf.

Andrews, the genial insurance salesman from Pacific Palisades, Calif., stalked through the 108-degree heat with sub-par shooting, doing a 3-under-par 68 on the morning 18 holes and one under par on the 14 played in the afternoon to overwhelm John Evans, the baker man from St. Louis, 6 and 4.

Zimmerman, 26-year-old mechanical engineer, felled a tournament favorite in the semifinals as he clubbed giant Bill Scarborough, the Jacksonville, Fla., naval petty officer, out with a birdie barrage, 5 and 4. The Dayton hotshot went even par as he built a 3-up lead through the first 18 and then held on without trouble in the second.

It was the second hottest day of this tournament which started with 110 degrees and which during the week has sent four players to the sidelines.
