Atoms-For-Peace Clearing House Developing Rapidly

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and several of its allies are putting the finishing touches to a plan creating an international "atoms-for-peace" clearing house.

An announcement of how the program will work and what nations will participate will be made within the next few weeks, it was learned Wednesday.

Contemplated is an agency, set up under the United Nations, to handle questions and answers about peaceful uses of atomic energy—in medicine, agriculture, industrial power and the like.

This agency would control no stockpile of fissionable material or power reactors. But it could draw them from the "have" nations to fill orders from the "have not" nations.

Ike's Idea

The idea grew out of President Eisenhower's plan for pooling atomic materials and know-how for peaceful purposes. Planning for it went ahead several weeks ago after it became apparent that Russia had rejected Eisenhower's invitation to participate.

The President has vowed several times that he will not give up the share-the-atom plan he espoused first in his speech last Dec. 8 to the UN General Assembly.

Without Russia—whose participation is not yet entirely discounted—the program would take a considerably different shape. For example:

1. It would not provide a pool of materials, personnel and data. Instead, it would be the hub of information channels flowing back and forth among member nations.

'No Disarmament'

2. There would be no disarmament feature. Eisenhower's plan was viewed principally as an inspirational move to get countries thinking about peaceful atomic uses rather than about stockpiling nuclear weapons. But it also would have diverted to the peaceful-use-pool some materials which otherwise would go into construction of weapons. Without Russia as a member, this part of the plan would be abandoned.

3. There would be no spectacular effort to strip the atom of its "military casing and adapt it to the art of peace," as Eisenhower put it in his pool speech. Instead, quietly and modestly, the member nations would seek to lay an international foundation of technical knowledge and skills on which the atomic future could be built.

Precisely who the participating countries are has been kept secret. Presumably they would include such other atomic neophytes as France, Netherlands, Norway, Brazil and Argentina.

SUI Hospitals Admit 4 More Polio Patients

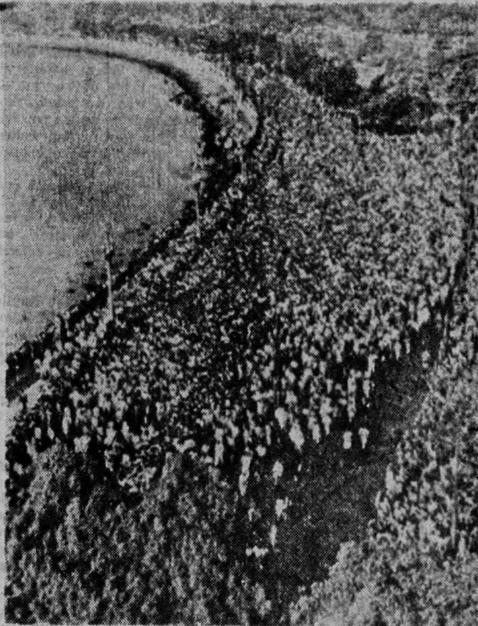

Four new polio admissions Tuesday at University hospitals have brought the number of cases now hospitalized to 40 patients. Two patients were discharged Tuesday.

To date this year there have been 115 polio admissions as compared with 75 admissions at this time last year and 205 in 1952. There have been three polio deaths in 1954 at University hospitals. Last year at this time there had been four deaths.

Throngs Follow Vargas' Body

(AP Wirephoto)

HERE'S A VIEW OF Rio de Janeiro's Avenue Beltra Mar Wednesday as thousands of mourning Brazilians follow behind the casket of suicide President Getulio Vargas as it is taken to the airport from where Vargas' body was flown to his home town in southern Brazil for burial in an unbleached grave. Widespread rioting followed immediately after nearly half a million saw the plane take off.

General Says Military 'Handcuffed' in Korea

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—The Korean war was lost because U.S. military leaders were handcuffed by state department and political interference, Lt. Gen. George E. Stratemeyer said Wednesday.

Stratemeyer, retired commanding general of the Far East air forces, made his statement during open testimony before the senate internal security subcommittee, headed by Sen. Pat McCarran (D-Nev.).

"We were required to lose the war," he said. "I wasn't permitted to do a job and certainly Gen. Douglas MacArthur was handcuffed. Never before in American history was a military commander placed in the position of not being allowed to win."

Stratemeyer, 63, living at nearby Winter Park since he had a heart attack three years ago, was the last air force officer to testify before the committee which came here because of his conduct.

Other testimony has been along similar lines to Stratemeyer's.

Police Investigate Recent Assaults On Local Citizens

Iowa City Police Chief Oliver A. White said Wednesday afternoon that an investigation was being made into a number of recent attacks on local citizens.

White said that he could not say when the investigation would be completed, or reveal any details except that it is being conducted by Detective Harland Sprinkle.

The latest victim of teen-age "mugging" in Iowa City was Walter Smith, 17, 2014 1st. Smith told police that he was beaten by three fellows from whom he accepted a ride in an automobile about midnight Tuesday. He could not identify his assailants, but said that after driving him a short distance they asked him for some money, and attacked him when he was unable to produce any. They told him "anyone who goes with us pays," Smith said.

Smith was treated for bruises at University hospitals and released early Wednesday morning.

He told police that he would notify them if he spotted any of his assailants.

The beating took place, according to Smith's account, on South Linn street or Sand road.

White said that a recent attack on another person was also being investigated, but he would not identify the person by name. The victim was a cripple, White confirmed, and is believed to have been a woman.

Half Million Brazilians Mass To Bid Farewell To Vargas

Nehru Says Asian Treaty Won't Help

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru declared Wednesday the U.S.-proposed Southeast Asia treaty organization would "do more harm in the present than any good it might hope to do in the future." Instead, he offered his own "collective peace" formula used in agreements with Red China.

Nehru made the first formal announcement of India's refusal to join in the SEATO talks next month in the Philippines in a 25-minute foreign policy review to parliament.

"We have expressed our inability to participate in this meeting because it seems to us it is likely to reverse the trend of conciliation released by the Indochina settlement," he declared.

India, Burma, Indonesia and Ceylon have turned down invitations to attend. Nehru summed up India's reasoning this way:

"Collective security, according to our belief, can only come by resolving world tensions and developing a pattern of collective peace. Anything that adds to these tensions takes us away from peace."

As an example of his peace formula, Nehru cited his June nonaggression pact with Communist Chinese Premier Chou En-lai.

FORCED TO TAKE a 90-day "leave of absence" because of a threatened military revolt, President Getulio Dornelles Vargas, 71, of Brazil, a good friend of the United States, ended his life with a revolver shot through the heart in Catete palace in Rio de Janeiro Tuesday. Wednesday his body was taken to his home town of Sao Borja for burial. One of three notes he left said, "I'm sorry that I was not able to do for the humble what I wanted."

U.S. Consents To Let Allies Export More Goods To Communist Europe

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States Wednesday enlarged the list of goods which other nations of the free world may ship to Russia and its European satellites without risking the loss of U. S. aid.

The net result, effective Wednesday, is a reduction of 8 items in the list of 297 which have been embargoed, Director Harold E. Stassen of the Foreign Operations administration said.

Items dropped were not fully listed. However, examples cited by Stassen showed the following have been taken from the embargo list, but still left subject to surveillance as to quantity:

Items Listed

Flat cars, tank cars, rails, crude petroleum, diesel oil, locomotives with the exception of turbine types, tractors except special heavy types, nonmilitary tires, platinum, cadmium, calcium, sodium, strontium, vanadium, asbestos and mica.

The relaxation applies only to shipments destined for Russia and its European bloc. There was no easing on embargoes of goods for shipment to Communist China, North Korea or the Communist area of North Viet Nam.

There remained the possibility of transshipments of decontrolled items from the Soviet bloc in Europe to its red partners in Asia.

U.S. Exports Not Included
"That is something we will have to watch closely," an FOA spokesman said.

The announcement had nothing to do with U. S. exports, which are under the control of the commerce department. FOA said commerce would have an announcement of its own shortly.

Stassen said of the FOA's action: "I am convinced that this revision, which has been made with the concurrence of the Departments of State, Treasury, Defense and Commerce, and approved by the President, will result in a net advantage to the free world of expanded peaceful trade and more effective control of the war potential items. It is a move in the best interests of the United States."

Acted Under Battle Act

Stassen acted under the Mutual Defense Assistance Control act of 1951, called the Battle act after its author Rep. Laurie C. Battle (D-Ala.).

The Battle act has two categories of goods—category A which includes armaments or atomic energy materials, and category B remaining items which might be useful to make war.

If a country receiving U. S. aid permits shipment of category A items to the Russian bloc, the U. S. aid must under law be stopped. If category B items are shipped, the President may permit the aid to continue if he should find that it is not detrimental to the United States.

Stassen's announcement said no munitions or atomic energy items are being removed from the embargo list, only those in category B.

Explaining why category B revisions were made, Stassen said it was a "necessary part of the job of putting the free world's security trade controls on a more durable and more effective basis for the long haul."

Red Party Claims It Will Defy New Law

NEW YORK (AP)—Communist sources said Wednesday night the party will openly defy the new law that outlaws it.

Its candidates for public office will continue to campaign.

Its newspaper, the Daily Worker, will continue to publish.

Its leaders will fulfill public speaking engagements.

The spokesman, a ranking official of the party, declined to be identified by name.

In a separate six page statement, three top members of the party blasted the new law as "the most extreme step ever taken against political and democratic liberties in the history of our country."

1 Man Killed, 43 Wounded In Rio Riots

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP)—More than a million Brazilians massed at Rio de Janeiro's downtown airport Wednesday to say a last goodbye to Getulio Vargas. Rioting flared as a plane carried the President's body to a burial place in his beloved ranch country of southern Brazil.

Police and troops moved swiftly to quell the violence in which 1 person was killed and 43 wounded. This brought casualties in two days of demonstrations since Vargas took his life Tuesday to four dead and several score wounded throughout Brazil.

Some of the demonstrations were aimed at American installations.

The clash in which the fatality occurred and 40 were hurt took place when a crowd fought with troops before the air ministry. The demonstrators apparently were showing resentment over demands by the military which led to Vargas' quitting the presidency and putting a bullet through his heart.

Windows Smashed

Other demonstrators smashed windows of the Standard Oil Co. building, while crowds gathered before the U. S. Embassy, already under heavy guard.

But police and the military apparently were re-establishing full control. Cavalry units swept the streets by forming solid lines and then moving forward.

In Porto Alegre, 670 miles southwest of Rio de Janeiro, where military control was maintained after Tuesday's attacks on American firms, the situation was reported calm. Armored cars patrolled the streets.

The funeral procession for the 71-year-old Vargas, who had governed Brazil for all but five years since 1930, passed through long lines of his weeping supporters between Catete palace, Brazil's White house, and Santos Dumont airport.

Honors Omitted

The family had requested that official honors usually accorded dead Presidents be omitted, but the people were not to be restrained. The crowds accompanying the body jammed the streets in central Rio de Janeiro and halted traffic.

At the airport, as a plane took off with the body for Vargas' native Sao Borja, a crowd estimated at 500,000 waved white handkerchiefs in a last sad farewell. Private burial services were to be held at Sao Borja.

After bidding farewell to Vargas, Brazilians turned their attention to their new President, Joao Cafe Filho. Cafe was elected vice-president on the same ticket with Vargas in 1950.

Cafe began reorganizing the crisis-torn government which Vargas left him. He moved into Catete palace a half hour after the President's body was taken away and immediately called a Cabinet meeting.

Severe Rainstorm Floods City Streets

A severe thunderstorm and heavy rain hit Iowa City about 8:30 p.m. Wednesday night, causing several flooded streets and car failures, but as of midnight no major damage or accidents had been reported.

Police reported that there had been no accidents caused by the rain and the Iowa-Illinois Gas and Electric Co. night emergency staff said that only minor damage had been caused to power lines. They said that a few transformers and line fuses had gone out and that there had been a dip in the lights.

Approximately three inches of rain fell, according to an unofficial measurement.

At 10:25 p.m., the Des Moines weather bureau issued a severe weather bulletin, the Associated Press reported.

The bulletin indicated that thunderstorms which developed in the north central part of the state had spread over the entire northern portion. The storms were increasing in intensity and were expected to cover the whole state by morning.

Investigators Want To Be Finished by Nov. 2

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Arthur V. Watkins (R-Utah) said Wednesday a special senate committee assigned to investigate censure charges against Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) will do its "level best" to finish before the congressional elections Nov. 2.

Watkins, the committee chairman, told newsmen one reason he had "some hopes" of finishing the job before the elections is that much of the evidence relating to the charges already is matter of record. He remarked at another point that both McCarthy and his lawyer, Edward Bennett Williams, have shown themselves so far to be fully cooperative.

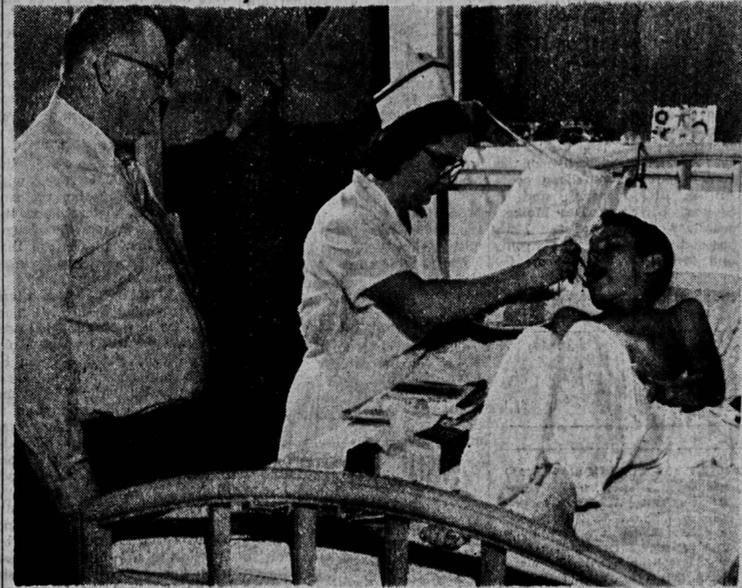

U.S. To Go All Out in Defense of Formosa

TOKYO (Thursday) (AP)—An authoritative U.S. military source said Wednesday that all available American forces would help the U.S. 7th fleet defend Formosa against a Chinese Red invasion. "The Communists would be very unwise to launch an operation against Formosa," the source said. "I am sure they would fail and I am sure they know they would fail. If they tried it, they would be in for a terrible beating." With strong air detachments in the Philippines, Guam, Okinawa, Japan and South Korea, the United States would be in position to quickly throw a massive weight of air power against an invasion armada.

Guatemala Passes Anti-Communist Law

GUATEMALA (AP)—Persons engaging in Communist activities in Guatemala were made subject to penalties ranging from a year in prison to death under the terms of a decree-law issued Wednesday by the government junta. The law outlaws communism "in all its forms." The regime headed by Lt. Col. Carlos Castillo Armas came to power two months ago after overthrowing the Communist-supported government of President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman.

The Anti-Communist Law—

President Eisenhower took the next to the last step in outlawing the Communist party in the United States when he signed the anti-red bill passed by Congress.

The next and last step is up to the Supreme Court. A test case is almost certain to come up soon. If the court decides the law is constitutional, the decision will probably be based upon the clear and present danger interpretation.

The Communist party by what it stands for could easily be termed a clear and present danger. Those opposing the law will contend that it is an abridgement of their freedom as prescribed in the Constitution of the United States.

The question of what to do about the Communist party seems a relatively new problem for this country.

The question, however, is not as new to this country as many would believe. A former president, following a world war and a bomb-throwing incident involving Communists, said:

"Every government always has enemies. Our government at this moment is no exception. We have more just now than is usual, and if they are in the pay of the revolutionary authority in Russia, as I believe, to be the case, the danger is somewhat greater than in normal times simply because these enemies today are better financed than usual.

"Even so, I do not regard the menace as genuinely serious. . . . It is right to punish overt acts, but the only way to deal with beliefs is to meet them, to expose their fallacy, to present the facts which prove them wrong. This is the American way."

Who was the president who made this statement? Harry Truman? No, the author was Calvin Coolidge, then governor of Massachusetts. The war which had just come to a close was World War I.

Now the danger is unmistakably greater, and some means of control is necessary.

No one would disagree that it is right to punish overt acts. Most would go along with bending somewhat on "The American Way," but the problem is how to legislate against beliefs.

Beliefs will remain in a man's mind, even though he can not voice them.

If we send a man to prison for being a Communist, will we change his beliefs faster than we would if we present him with the facts that prove him wrong?

It is very doubtful that we could sell anyone on America by sending him to prison for his beliefs. L.A.

Expansion of Water Facilities For City, Suburbs Announced

Major expansion of water facilities for Iowa City, Coralville and University Heights was announced Wednesday by the Iowa Water Service Co. of Iowa City.

An improvement program, estimated to cost $132,500, is already underway. This part of the program will be completed within a year.

Another phase of the program will be completed over a longer period. Estimated cost of this phase is $40,000.

Included in the program are a two-inch main from River street to Burlington street on the west side, a second six-inch main to be laid between Iowa City and Coralville.

Also to be included are new electric pumping equipment at the water plant, the installation of two new rapid sand filters at the water plant, and improvement of the purification equipment.

With completion of the first phase of the project the water plant will have a capacity of four and one-half million gallons of water per day.

According to estimates of the population growth of these communities this expansion will take care of their water needs through 1965 at least.

The project will be financed through the sale of first mortgage bonds.

Bob Smith Named Director of Music At University High

Bob Smith, Kansas State college graduate, has been named director of instrumental music at University high school. He received a master of science degree in music education from Kansas State college in 1949 and will study for a Ph. D. degree at SUI.

The new University high school teacher has been news and commercial announcer at radio station KMAN, Manhattan, Kans. He took his undergraduate work at the University of Wisconsin, Lawrence Conservatory in Appleton, Wis., and St. Norbert college, De Pere, Wis., receiving a bachelor of arts degree from St. Norbert in 1940.

Man Charged $5 For Dunking Wife

DES MOINES (AP) — Carroll Dixon, 28, paid a $5 fine for dunking his wife in ice water.

The wife, Gloria, 26, testified Tuesday it started at a dance when "he slapped me—then I scratched him."

When they got home, she said, "He turned on the water, threw in some ice and gave me a bath."

Mrs. Dixon charged her husband with assault and battery.

Municipal Judge Howard W. Brooks said, "It is worth $5 for any husband to give his wife a bath in ice water" and assessed the fine.

State GOP Leaders To Attend Party Day

Iowa Republican party leaders, including state chairman Don Pierson, Humboldt, and state finance chairman George Nagle, Iowa City, will participate in "Republican Party Day" Sept. 1 at the Midwest college teachers workshop in practical politics at SUI.

Fred Schwengel, Davenport, Republican candidate for congress from the first Iowa district, will speak at the evening session of Republican day. Prof. Robert F. Ray, director of the university's institute of public affairs, announced Wednesday.

Democratic Party day at the workshop for teachers in political science in colleges and universities in Iowa, Minnesota, Illinois and Wisconsin will be on Sept. 2, Ray said.

To Discuss Programs

"What types of programs and projects can be developed by party leaders and teachers to give students a meaningful academic experience as well as an opportunity to be of real service to the political party of their choice?" is the subject that will be discussed during the morning session of Republican day.

Republican leaders who will lead this discussion include Robert Waggoner, executive director of the state central committee, Des Moines; Mrs. Mabel Tracey, former vice chairman of the state central committee, Manchester; Wendell Pendleton, representative in the Iowa legislature, Storm Lake, and William M. Tucker, assistant county attorney and candidate for Johnson county attorney, Iowa City.

Nagle and James Schramm, former state finance chairman, Burlington, will lead a discussion on "How To Get Enough Money and Get It From the Right Sources."

"How To Get Votes"

"How To Get Enough Workers and How To Get Enough Votes To Win" will be discussed by John Begg, college chairman of the Young Republican National federation, Stanford, Cal.; Pierson; Ben Glaer, chairman of the Henry county Republican committee, Mt. Pleasant, and E. Stewart Ulrich of Des Moines, secretary-manager of the Iowa association of insurance agents and former executive secretary of the Black Hawk county Republican committee.

At the dinner meeting on Republican day, Schwengel will speak on "The Need for College-Trained Citizens in Politics."

According to Ray, the purpose of the five-day workshop is to bring together college teachers and political leaders to discuss the ways in which students can be encouraged and prepared to participate in the political party of their choice after they leave school.

The workshop is sponsored by the Citizenship Clearing House, affiliated with the law center of New York university, under a grant of funds from the Maurice and Laura Falk foundation of Pittsburgh.

Barbers To Cut Hair for Crippled Children's Benefit

The Iowa State Association of Journeymen barbers will cut hair for the benefit of crippled children for one day in September.

The association announced that during a recent meeting held in Des Moines it was decided that barbering proceeds on a specified day would be donated to aid the Iowa society for crippled children.

The date will be announced the day before the event. Representatives from 11 of the 20 state locals met with the association executive committee and approved the project without a dissenting vote.

Iowa City barbers were represented at the meeting by Merle Fowler, 1611 E. Court.

Participation in the project is voluntary, the association announced.

Plans are now being made by the Iowa City barbers who will take part in the project.

12 SUI Students Get Carr Awards

Twelve students at SUI have been awarded Carr scholarships for the 1954-55 academic year, Miss Helen Reich, chairman of the University scholarship committee, said Wednesday.

Carr scholarships provide basic fees for undergraduate students in the college of liberal arts, commerce, engineering, nursing and pharmacy. Established in 1900 by an endowment gift from the late A. Whitney Carr, of Jordan, N. Y., the scholarships require above-average academic achievement and evidence of need.

New 200-Man Police Force To Protect U.S. Lawmakers

By RAYMOND WILCOVE
Central Press Writer
WASHINGTON — They're changing the guard at the U.S. capitol and it marks the end of an era.

It took a mass assassination attempt to bring about the change, but the day of the old policeman who didn't know how to shoot and the young cop who worked his way through college by joining the force will soon be no more.

When the next congress convenes in January, it will be guarded against terrorist murder plots, crackpots, lunatics, and other dangers by an entirely new capitol police.

The "patronage police," or, as some dubbed them, "the Capitol Comedy Kops," will become extinct under legislation which apparently is assured of passage this session.

It's hard for a member of congress to give up his patronage, but it's harder still for him to give up his life, perhaps.

Pledged in Vain
For years, advocates of an efficient, non-political police force have pleaded their cause in vain. After four Puerto Rican terrorists shot up the house of representatives March 1, wounding five congressmen, there was no need to talk further.

The new police force will be reconstructed under Capt. William Broderick, head of the U.S. capitol police. Broderick has been described by a congressional official with 50 years' experience as "the first real cop we've had around here in my time."

Broderick, from Scranton, Pa., is a veteran of 19 years with the highly-efficient Pennsylvania state police. He served as capitol police chief from 1947 to 1949 during the last GOP administration on the hill, made way for a Democratic successor during the next four years, then returned to his old post in January, 1953, with Republicans.

Will Have 200 Cops

The new force will consist of 200 police, appointed without regard to political qualifications. Members will be trained by the FBI and the Washington, D. C., police department. They will stay on regardless of change in party power.

Stories are legion about the old capitol police. One relates to an appointee of former Sen. Miles Poindexter of Washington state. His task was to raise the flag each day over the senate roof. One day he ran it up the pole upside down.

Remembered the policeman who righted the flag: "So help me, boys, he didn't know the difference."

Another was a Confederate veteran from Georgia, reputed to be 80 years old. He was assigned to guard the senate office building rotunda during the early morning hours. A lay preacher, he passed the long hours singing hymns in such a loud voice that his fellow police complained he kept them awake.

Protege Proved Trial

Then there was the protege of ex-Sen. James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois, a product of the Chicago stockyards. He proved to be a trial and a tribulation to his sponsor.

Whenever he met the senator walking through the capitol, he would clap him on the back, pump his hand, and demand, "Lemme have 10 bucks, Hammie."

The senator quite often would be heard to demur. "I regret that I am temporarily out of funds," he once remarked, which brought this crack from the "policeman": "Want me to have to take it away from you, Hammie?" Invariably the senator parted with a $10 bill.

After leaving the police force, Lewis' protege was implicated in a $1 million mail robbery in Chicago.

Stranahan Ousts Patton, Palmer Advances in Amateur Tourney

DETROIT (AP) — Gambling luck and the holes ran out Wednesday for Billy Joe Patton, the loquacious North Carolina lumberman, and an almost-forgotten Frank Stranahan emerged as the strong man of the 54th U.S.

Amateur golf championship. Patton, thrilling the galleries to the last wild swing, lost a morning third round match to Don Doe, 33-year-old Canadian tobacco clerk, as a double round of eliminations cut the once-bulky field to 16 at swank Country club of Detroit.

The gallery loved it and subordinated to secondary importance the day's other developments which saw Stranahan lead a crazy quilt collection of top flight tournament amateurs and little known hometown hopefuls into another double-barreled killoff Thursday which will leave only four survivors.

Iowa City police Wednesday were holding without charge four Euclid, Ohio, teen-agers who drove away from a Coralville service station Tuesday without paying for a tankfull of gasoline.

Doe Beats Patton

Patton, who gave the top pros a jolt of fear in the Masters and National Open tournaments earlier this year, succumbed to Doe two up, sinking a 45-foot pressure putt to stay alive at the 17th after the chubby Canadian had sent a wedge shot flying home from 40 yards out.

Stranahan Wins

Stranahan, winner of seven national crowns in Britain, Canada and Mexico but a frustrated loser in every bid for the U.S. championship, defeated an old rival, Harvie Ward Jr., of San Francisco in the big morning battle, 1 up and then swept past Tom Sheehan, 38-year-old Bir-

Palmer Advances

Palmer, who finished one stroke back of Stranahan in the "World" Amateur competition later at Tam, continued to play superlative golf, defeating Dick Whiting of Royal Oak, Mich., 2 and 1, and Walter Andzel, steel worker from Hamburg, N.Y., 5 and 3.

Campbell Rallies

Campbell rallied both matches to defeat Pat Schwab of Dayton, Ohio, and Frank Stevenson of Savannah, Ga., both 1 up. Cherry won over Claude Wright of Englewood, Colo., 1 up, and Earl Larson of Minneapolis, 4 and 3.

Iowa City Firm Gets Med Center Contract

A bid of $20,214, submitted by the Boyd and Rummelhart co. of Iowa City, was the lower of two bids opened this week for the construction of cold water service in the SUI medical research center to be built between the SUI medical laboratories and general hospital.

George L. Horner, SUI Superintendent of Planning and Construction Explained that the Awarding of the Contract Must Await the Approval of the State Board of Education and the Legislature's Budget and Financial Control Committee.

The higher of the two bids was for $31,700. It was submitted by Carstens Brothers of Ackley.

Church Leaders Blast Communism

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — The World Council of Churches Wednesday came to grips with a report denouncing communism as a corruption of history and declaring democracy falls short of its ideals.

Johannes Lilje of Hanover, Germany, presented the joint findings, with recommendations for adoption, with additions, of an advance 51-page report.

Devoted to the assembly's main theme, "Christ — the Hope of the World," — the report deals mainly with the basis on which Christians should struggle for righteousness — both in this world and toward a "kingdom" to come.

Action by delegates on the key document is still to come.

The report aims its sharpest blows at communism, condemning it as a "totalitarian dictatorship" which destroys freedom and denies "God and divine sovereignty."

It stresses that despite the failures — or evils — or various wordly systems, the fight for justice on this earth is not meaningless, and that "hope is anchored in a kingdom that both has come and is coming."

But it also states that democracy, although closely related to the "Christian faith," is prone to assume it has achieved its highest aims when actually harsh injustices are "not absent from democracies."

Only man-centered self-righteousness can believe that they are," the report says.

Moore Blasts Phillie Players For Disobeying Training Rules

TERRY MOORE, (LEFT), manager of the Philadelphia Phillies, shakes hands with his team captain, Granny Hamner, and star second baseman before the Phillies' game with the Braves Wednesday night. Moore said earlier Wednesday that he would take disciplinary action against Hamner for the player's remarks that the front office is "treating the players like high school kids." Moore accused the team of a full-scale rebellion.

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Manager Terry Moore and his Philadelphia Phillies' second baseman, Granny Hamner, shook hands late Wednesday afternoon after a conference and Moore said there would be no disciplinary action taken against the veteran infielder.

Earlier Wednesday Moore accused his players of a full-scale rebellion and said Hamner would be disciplined for his remarks that the club is "treating the players like high school kids."

Moore, who replaced the veteran Steve O'Neill just after the All-Star game last month, blasted his players for completely disregarding training rules. He said he was shocked by their off-field activities.

The 44-year-old Moore, who announced Monday he would direct the Phillies again in 1955, is being backed 100 per cent by General Manager Roy Hamey and owner Bob Carpenter.

Moore countered with his disciplinary announcement and added: "All I ask is for them to live like big leaguers and they're not doing that. Maybe Mr. Carpenter was right about having detectives on them. From what I've seen, it wouldn't do any harm."

"I told them that the next time a man is caught coming in late he'll be fined $100. And if he's caught a second time it will be $300. I also told them that no notification of the fines would be given. The money will be taken from their checks."

Rossie, Gillespie Fight to Draw At La Crosse, Wis.

(Special to The Daily Iowan) LA CROSSE, Wis.—Iowa City boxer Bob Rossie fought to a draw here Wednesday night in a six round co-windup bout with John Gillespie, Benton Harbor, Mich.

For the second time in two fights Rossie was bothered by the effects of a low punch. Gillespie landed a low blow in the fourth round and it apparently hampered the tall, broad-shouldered Iowan.

In his last fight with Chuck Price, Detroit, which Rossie won unanimously, he was fouled in the second round and the bout was halted for five minutes to give him time to recover.

Gillespie got off to a good start in the first round, but Rossie swarmed all over him in the second. After scoring consistently with a solid left jab, the Michigan boxer was rocked in the fifth round when Rossie landed several solid rights.

With the edge on infighting, Gillespie kept inside during the final round. The Michigan fighter, weighed in at 146 lbs., to Rossie's 141.

Rossie had complained of a gold before the fight and after the fight said his timing was off.

His professional record now stands at 26 wins, 5 losses and three draws. Rossie is a graduate student at SUU.

In the other co-windup here, Mickey Zielke, La Crosse, won a unanimous decision over Willie Dillon, Benton Harbor, Mich.

Milwaukee Edges Philadelphia, 4-3

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves parlayed five hits and a pair of Philadelphia errors into a 4-3 victory over the Phillies Wednesday night, trimming their lag behind the rained out New York Giants to seven games.

Curt Simmons fired a five-hitter for the Phillies, but two of them combined with a walk and an error produced two runs in the second inning and a third plus an intentional pass, a sacrifice fly and the second error added up to two more in the fourth. The loss was the south-paw's 12th against 11 wins.

The Phillies racked starter Lew Burdette for 10 hits, but had only two runs to show for them before chasing him in the eighth. Reliever Dave Jolly gave up one hit and the final run.

Naragon's Triple In 10th Lets Tribe Tip Athletics, 4-3

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Catcher Hal Naragon tripled with two out in the 10th Wednesday night to drive home the winning run as the league-leading Cleveland Indians scrambled to a 4-3 win over the surprising Philadelphia Athletics.

The win kept the Indians' American league lead at 4½ games over the New York Yankees.

Naragon's drive to right centerfield brought home Billy

Glynn who opened the inning with a walk. The drive brought righthander Bob Lemon his 19th win against five defeats.

But for a while it looked like the Indians were in for another rough night. The Indians led only one other time in the first inning when Al Smith led off with his 10th home run of the year.

From there until the eighth, tobacco-chewing Sonny Dixon stymied the Indians while the A's forged to a 3-1 lead. But the Indians tied it in the eighth, after blowing an opportunity in the fourth.

It Took 2 Shots

BILLY JOE PATTON of Morgantown, N. C., makes the sand fly as he blasts from a fairway trap on the seventh hole Wednesday in the National Amateur Golf tournament. The ball jumped but it took two shots to clear the trap. Patton lost 2 up to Don Doe, Granby, P. Q., Canada on the 18th hole. (See story on page 3).

Cardinals Maul Pirates, 13-0

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals moved into fourth place and Stan Musial took the National league batting lead Wednesday night as the Redbirds backed rookie hurler Gordon Jones with a 16-hit attack in a 13-0 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Musial's three hits, coupled with Duke Snider's six hitless trips for Brooklyn at Cincinnati, gave the six-time St. Louis batting king a .347 average to 346 for the Brooklyn slugger.

Hurling St. Louis a percentage point ahead of Philadelphia, Jones scattered five singles, walked only one man and struck out seven.

5-Run 5th Gives Detroit 5-3 Win

BOSTON (AP)—The Boston Red Sox rallied for all their runs in the fifth inning as they defeated Detroit 5-3 Wednesday behind the nine hit pitching of Willard Nixon and Frank Sullivan.

Boston put together five of its seven hits in the big inning. Sullivan, who came on in the eighth to spell Nixon, tiring in the heat, nipped a Tiger bid in the ninth after Hoot Evers had singled and stolen second but Sullivan got pinch hitter Frank Bolling to pop up for the third out.

Noren Safe on Steal

IRV NOREN, NEW YORK YANKEE left fielder, is safe at second base on a steal in the sixth inning of a game with the Baltimore Orioles in Yankee Stadium Wednesday. Oriole second baseman Bob Young is too late with the tag after getting the throw from catcher Ray Murray. Umpire is Frank Umont. The Yankees won, 5-1.

Lopal's 3-Hitter, 3 Homers Let Yanks Down Orioles, 5-1

NEW YORK (AP)—Eddie Lopal's three-hit pitching and homers by Yogi Berra, Hank Bauer and Irv Noren earned the New York Yankees a 5-1 victory over last place Baltimore Wednesday. It was the 14th consecutive loss for the Orioles.

The Yanks' triumph kept them within 4½ games of the league-leading Cleveland Indians who trimmed the A's in Philadelphia Wednesday night, 4-3.

The three homers accounted for four runs and Bauer sent home the fifth run in the seventh inning with a single that scored Willie Miranda from second.
