Winchell 'Doesn't Know' Who Gave Him Letter

'Fairly Sure' Not McCarthy; 'Wouldn't Say If He Knew'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Walter Winchell testified Tuesday he does not know who gave him a purported copy of the secret "FBI letter" in the McCarthy-army dispute but: "I am pretty sure that it was not Sen. McCarthy."

The columnist and broadcaster also swore it was not — to the best of his recollection — any member of the Republican Wisconsin senator's staff who handed him the hotly controversial document, though he declared he wouldn't name the person who gave it to him even if he did know.

Winchell appeared under subpoena as the third and last witness called by the special senate committee investigating censure charges against McCarthy, who is scheduled to begin presenting his defense today.

Flanders Notes 'Violation'
Only a few hours earlier Sen. Ralph Flanders, (R-Vt.), originator of the censure charges, said a "clear violation" of the espionage law appears to have been involved in the transmittal of the secret document to Winchell.

He said the "letter" amounted to a forgery and that McCarthy appeared to have broken the law by concealing the identity of the forger.

Flanders said in a memo made public by the committee that McCarthy either gave Winchell the document himself or knew who did. In either case, Flanders said, McCarthy's action "would seem to constitute a serious violation of the law."

McCarthy: 'No Comment'
McCarthy declined to comment on Flanders' statement.

The "letter" in question was produced by McCarthy last May during the hearings in his row with army officials. It concerned a hunt for spies at Ft. Monmouth, N. J., and Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell ruled it would be against the nation's interest to make it public.

Winchell wrote in his syndicated column at the time that he had a copy of the "letter."

Winchell Further Involved
Winchell figured also in another development Tuesday, although it didn't come into the open during the hearing. Sources close to McCarthy indicated the senator may question the impartiality of Sen. Ervin, (D-N.C.), a member of the six-man committee, on the basis of information Winchell broadcast Sunday night.

McCarthy declined comment on the report. Ervin told newsmen he knew of no basis for challenging his impartiality.

Winchell said Ervin was quoted in the Winston-Salem, N. C., Sentinel and Journal on Aug. 1 as saying:

"I am a lawyer and as a lawyer I know you cannot convict a man on hearsay evidence. Personally I have formed an unfavorable opinion of the junior senator from Wisconsin (McCarthy) since going to Washington."

Winchell Testifies
Winchell testified under oath that somebody handed him a folded copy of the "letter" as he stood talking with some other newsmen outside the hearing room during a brief recess of the McCarthy-Army inquiry. He said he "didn't take a very good look" at the person who gave him the letter and could only say it was a white man, probably in civilian clothes.

The "letter" was investigated at great length in the McCarthy-army hearings. FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover sent word to the investigators he never wrote the letter, even though his name was typed as a signature at the end of it. But he said the information it contained was taken, mostly word for word, from a 15-page FBI memo to army intelligence.

Flanders Charges Cited
The current hearings stem from a total of 46 overlapping allegations made by Flanders, Sen. J. N. Fulbright, (D-Ark.) and Sen. Wayne Morse, (Ind.-Ore.), against McCarthy.

Some of them involve the senator's alleged possession of secret FBI material and his invitation to government employes to give him other such material if they have reason to suspect subversive or other illegal activity.

ACCIDENT VICTIM TREATED
Mrs. Florence May Merchant, 62, Fresno, Calif., whose car struck a telephone pole in the 1600 block on Muscatine avenue about noon Sunday, was being treated Tuesday at Mercy hospital for cuts and bruises. Mrs. Merchant, driving alone, told police she was driving west from Michigan.

8 Nations To Sign SEATO Pact at Manila Meeting Today

MANILA (Wednesday) (AP) — The formal signing of an eight-nation pact against aggression in Southeast Asia — particularly in Indochina — was scheduled for today as the Manila conference drew to a close.

Three days of secret meetings reportedly produced a treaty acceptable to all except for the wording of two articles. These deal with armed retaliation in case of attack and a guarantee of the principle of self government for the peoples of Asia.

The formal signing was set for 4 p.m. (2 a.m. today CST).

8 Nations To Sign
Foreign ministers and secretaries or their representatives will sign for Britain, Australia, New Zealand, France, Thailand, Pakistan, The Philippines, and the United States.

The pact calls for military assistance if necessary to the Indochina states of Laos, Cambodia and South Viet Nam.

It serves as a warning to Red China that the U.S. now has a legal right to start shooting if those states are attacked.

Dulles Deletes 'Communist'
U.S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles made a major concession when he agreed to delete from the treaty the word "Communist" to make the pact effective against aggression of all kinds in Southeast Asia.

Dulles said Communist aggression was considered an attack on the U.S. but it must be understood that family squabbles among non-Communist nations were a different matter.

He stood firm, however, against making the Pacific pact — which still has no formal name — on the order of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

'Attack 1, Attack All'
The Philippines and Thailand insisted the pact should say — as does NATO — that any attack against one signatory nation would be considered an attack against all.

The Pacific draft provides that countries must satisfy requirements of their constitutions before going to war.

It was understood the article was being phrased so as to be acceptable to all. Lord Reading of Britain had added to the section a provision that aid would be sent to any nation only on request.

Exclude Formosa, Japan, Korea
The area of the treaty is reported to embrace all Southeast Asia, the Southwest Pacific and territories of Asian parties to the treaty. It leaves out Chinese Nationalist Formosa, Japan and South Korea.

The treaty will establish a council which can meet to carry out provisions of the pact. The site of the council and its make-up will be decided after the formal signing.

Hurricane Edna Rips Through Bahama Islands
MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Hurricane Edna, packing 115-mile an hour winds, thundered through the Bahama islands Tuesday night toward the alerted Florida mainland. The fifth tropical storm of the season was about 390 miles east-southeast of Miami at 4 p.m. CST. It was moving west-northwest at 12 miles an hour. Grady Norton, chief storm forecaster here, said hurricane warnings could be expected in Florida during the night or early today after the storm's future path had been pinpointed.

Electrical Storms Strike New England
BOSTON (AP) — A series of violent electrical storms which killed at least two persons and injured several others swept sections of hurricane-stricken New England Tuesday. The storms caused thousands of dollars property damage and knocked out power lines in some communities only recently recovered from last Tuesday's hurricane. Lightning hit several greater Boston homes and forced evacuation of 200 children starting their first day of the fall term at a Lynn school after a bolt hit the chimney.

Dutch Say Crashed Airliner Contains Diamonds
SHANNON AIRPORT, Ireland (AP) — A KLM spokesman said Tuesday night a quantity of diamonds and "much other valuable cargo" were still aboard the Dutch airline's Super-Constellation which crashed into the River Shannon Sunday, causing 28 deaths. The plane was en route from Amsterdam, a diamond marketing center, to the United States when it plunged into the river shortly after takeoff. The cargo cannot be released until the plane is salvaged, the airline spokesman said.

Bud Fisher, 69, Dies; Created 'Mutt and Jeff'

NEW YORK (AP) — Cartoonist Bud Fisher, a comic strip pioneer whose "Mutt and Jeff" became just like members of the family to millions of Americans, died Tuesday of cancer. He was 69.

Fisher, ailing for a year or more, became critically ill about three weeks ago at his Park avenue home. He was moved to Roosevelt hospital and died there.

He had no close relatives. Fisher's famous cartoon — now nearly half a century old — won him fame and earned him millions.

Fisher, born Harry Conwah Fisher in Chicago, started the strip in 1907 for the San Francisco Chronicle.

In 1913, Fisher accepted the Bell Syndicate's proposal of a $1,000 weekly guarantee plus a percentage of sales.

Bell syndicated the cartoon and Fisher's earnings from it alone reached as high as $4,500 a week.

He was married twice, the first ending in divorce and the second in legal separation.

Mutt and Jeff, now published in more than 200 papers, will live on, their destinies directed by Fisher's assistant, Al Smith.

Pachuco Member, Friend, Intimidate Iowa Housewife

DES MOINES (AP) — Two men, one with the so-called "mark of Pachuco" on his hand, manhandled and arrested a Des Moines housewife Tuesday, trying to force information from her about Elmer Langstraat, 20, now in prison.

The woman is Mrs. Helen Langstraat, the wife of Elmer's brother Ernest.

Elmer Langstraat wears the "Pachuco" mark between his thumb and forefinger and has described it as a tattoo mark to identify him with a Des Moines gang of marijuana or sleeping pill users.

Mrs. Langstraat reported to the Polk County sheriff that two men came to her home about 12:30 p.m. Tuesday and demanded to know where her brother-in-law is.

When she refused to tell them, she said the older man about 40 grabbed her, tearing her dress and threatening her with the words, "You will tell."

At the same time, she said the younger man about 19 produced a knife and wielded it in her face. She said she then noticed the "Pachuco" tattoo on his right hand.

Young Langstraat is in the state penitentiary at Fort Madison, serving a 10-year term for breaking and entering.

Won't Be Candidate For Public Office This Fall: Dewey

NEW YORK (AP) — Republican Gov. Thomas E. Dewey said Tuesday night he will not under any circumstances be a candidate "for any public office this fall."

"After the most thorough and even painful consideration," he said in a statewide telecast, "I have concluded that the time has come for me to return to private life. I shall not under any circumstances be a candidate for any public office this fall."

In announcing his decision to quit the governorship he held for 12 years, the 52-year-old Dewey gave no hint as to whom he favored as his successor.

Choice for Convention
He said in reply to a question in a news conference afterward he would leave the choice to the Republican State Convention in Syracuse Sept. 22-23. Then, to a question as to whether he thought U. S. Sen. Irving M. Ives would make a good governor, he replied: "Excellent."

Ives has been frequently mentioned as a possible successor to Dewey.

However, Ives had commented only a few hours before Dewey's speech:

"I am not a candidate."

Question Arises
That appeared to leave up in the air — temporarily, at least — the question of whom the Republicans will get behind to meet a Democratic challenge to regain control of the state capital.

Dewey promised, however, to take an active part in the campaign to elect his successor.

Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. and Averell Harriman, former mutual aid chief, have been mentioned most frequently for the Democratic nomination to be decided at a convention starting Sept. 21 in New York City.

Mayor A Possibility
Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York also is regarded in some circles as a Democratic possibility, although he has said repeatedly he is not a candidate.

Dewey was active in 1952 in nominating Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower for the presidency. It was not yet clear how much influence Dewey would continue to wield in Republican circles now that he is stepping down from a powerful elective office.

He did not indicate the activity he would undertake in private life, but there have been many unofficial reports he could have a choice of high paying jobs in his field as a lawyer.

Dewey is entitled now to a pension of $9,000 a year. If he had been re-elected his salary would have been doubled from $25,000 a year to $50,000 and he would have become eligible for a pension of $24,000 a year.

RED KURDS WORRY TURKEY
DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — Mounting communist activity by Kurdish tribesmen in north Syria, near the Turkish border, is causing concern in Turkish circles, Syrian newspapers said Tuesday.

Nationalists Attack Reds Near Quemoy

TAIPEH, Formosa (Wednesday) (AP) — The Nationalists struck savagely by air and sea Tuesday for the second straight day at a menacing Red buildup near their island fortress of Quemoy.

The defense ministry announced the planes damaged more than 100 military junks, a gunboat and five motorized vessels. This is the sort of fleet which would be used in any invasion of Quemoy, which lies 120 miles across Formosa straight from Formosa.

The ministry also claimed that when the planes and warships had done their work, anti-aircraft fire ceased on Amoy, seven miles from Quemoy, Amoy and in two fortresses at Amoy and on nearby Tatung island.

Peiping radio in a broadcast for home consumption said 42 Nationalist planes and five warships took part in the attack. It claimed one plane was shot down and 19 damaged. It said 18 persons were killed by the raiders.

The broadcast, heard in Tokyo, said the warships and artillery of Quemoy opened up on Amoy and Communist shore guns returned the fire.

The Nationalists in this vest pocket war were stepping up their offensive-defensive operations to protect Quemoy, with its 30,000 troops and 40,000 civilian inhabitants. There has been action ever since last Friday, when the Reds hit Quemoy with a record shelling.

Monday night the artillerymen on Quemoy and Red gunners on Amoy exchanged fire.

170 New Arrests Reported as Iran Weeds Out Reds

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — A dragnet sifting alleged Red spies from Iran's armed forces brought 170 more arrests Tuesday in a new sweep through the army, air force and federal police.

Brig. Gen. Teimour Pakhtiar, Tehran's military governor, told newsmen the new haul, made possible by cracking spy codes, raised the total held in a two-week purge to about 400.

Pakhtiar said courts-martial already were being organized, with executions certain for those found guilty of participating in a Red espionage network that has been passing key military information into Baku, important Soviet Caspian sea port and oil center only 100 miles north of the Iranian border.

Military intelligence sources charge the Red network also has been plotting a coup to overthrow the pro-Western government of Premier Fazollah Zahedi and has funneled detailed information about Iran's armed forces into Russia.

WARD SALES DOWN
CHICAGO (AP) — Montgomery Ward & Co. Tuesday reported August sales totaled $77,590,551, down 13.1 per cent from $89,267,943 in August 1953. Sales for the seven months ended Aug. 31 totaled $511,494,516, down 14.3 per cent from $596,811,896 in the like 1953 months.

Union To Open Picture Reproduction Library
The Iowa Memorial Union will make the Union picture reproduction rental library available to faculty offices and housing units at 8 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 9. Pictures will be issued on a "first come, first serve" basis from the office of the director, Prof. Earl E. Harper.

NEWSPAPER COLUMNIST WALTER WINCHELL sits in a Washington hearing room Tuesday shortly before taking the witness stand before senators looking into censure charges against Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis.). Winchell testified that he does not know who gave him the purported "FBI letter" in the McCarthy-army dispute.

Counter-Attack to U.S. Protest In UN Expected from Russia

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The Soviet Union is expected to make a strong diplomatic counter-attack in the security council to meet the United States' call for UN action in the shooting down of an American bomber by Russian planes.

Such a course was predicted Tuesday night by western diplomats as the security council delegates prepared for a meeting to consider the case.

Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., chief U.S. delegate to the UN, Monday night asked the council to consider "the situation arising from the unprovoked attack on a U.S. navy plane by aircraft of the Soviet Union over international waters on Sept. 4."

Bomber on Patrol
The U.S. navy reported the American patrol bomber was well off Russian territory when two Russian jet fighters shot it down. Nine of the 10 crew members were rescued.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky had no comment on the American action in the security council but was expected to come out fighting when the council meets.

Some western diplomats speculated Vishinsky would raise in the council the incident off Hainan island in July when U.S. carrier-based planes shot down two Chinese Communist planes which attacked them as they searched for survivors of a British airliner.

No Action Taken
The Chinese Reds demanded UN action then but nothing was done about it.

The U.S. has brought several plane incidents before the UN but this is the first time such an incident has been put before the security council. An incident involving American and Hungarian planes in 1951 was debated without result in the UN assembly, then in session in Paris.

Survivors Tell of Being Shot Down by Reds

THE IOWA MEMORIAL UNION will make the Union picture reproduction rental library available to faculty offices and housing units at 8 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 9. Pictures will be issued on a "first come, first serve" basis from the office of the director, Prof. Earl E. Harper.

THE NINE SURVIVORS of a U.S. navy patrol plane which was shot down Sept. 4 by two Russian-made fighters over the Sea of Japan near Siberia tell reporters of their experience during a press conference at Atsugi, Japan. The state department has protested the incident in which 1 of the 10 crew members was apparently lost.

Labor Day Deaths Fewest Since 1948

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Traffic deaths during the long Labor day weekend touched a six-year low point for the holiday.

The showing was termed "encouraging" but the total still was regarded as "tragically high."

The final tabulation Tuesday showed there were 364 traffic deaths, 92 drownings and 83 deaths from other accidental causes. The total was 539.

The number of lives lost in traffic was the smallest for any Labor day period since 1948, when 293 were killed.

Traffic deaths also fell under the 390 predicted by the National Safety Council.

Deaths—traffic, drowning and miscellaneous in that order—were as follows for midwest states:

Illinois 20 6 4, Indiana 16 1 1, Iowa 4 3 0, Michigan 20 7 5, Minnesota 8 1 2, Missouri 14 4 5, Nebraska 5 0 2, North Dakota 5 0 3, South Dakota 6 0 1, Wisconsin 12 6 0.

Orientation Group To Greet 1,500 New SUI Students

Approximately 8,000 students are expected to attend SUI this fall, with about 1,500 of that number becoming members of the university family for the first time.

Each year a volunteer group of upperclassmen — the Orientation committee — sees to it that the new students get a warm welcome and are made to feel at home on the campus.

This year the men's and women's Orientation committees selected a group of 320 student leaders and assistants to make the new student's adjustment to university life as pleasant as possible.

Assigned to Groups
Groups of approximately 15 to 20 new students are assigned to each of the 80 groups whose leaders and assistants show the newcomers around the campus. During the summer months the student leaders contact the prospective students through letters or pamphlets concerning life at SUI.

Orientation week will begin officially Sept. 15 with an "open house" on campus for parents of the new students. President Virgil M. Hancher will talk with the parents and discuss the university and its facilities. The following night will bring a "First Nighter" program — an evening of dancing, entertainment and the introduction of campus leaders to new students.

Entrance tests and health examinations begin the same day and continue through the following Wednesday, Sept. 22. During the week there will be a balanced program of recreation, entertainment and student testing.

Highlights of Week
Highlights of the week include a "sports night" at the SUI field house, where the students will be encouraged to use all of the SUI gymnasium facilities as well as the swimming pool, and will hear talks by basketball coach "Bucky" O'Connor and football coach Forest Evashevski.

Tours of the campus will be conducted for the newcomers, with members of Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, serving as guides. The last stop of the tour will be at the university's 800,252-volume library. Here staff members will guide the students through the library and cokes will be served in the library lounge.

Some 80 faculty members will open the doors of their homes during the evening of Sept. 20 for informal gatherings with groups of new students.

Hancher's Open Doors
The final two evenings of the program are planned to allow the students to visit in small groups with President and Mrs. Hancher in their home.

Orientation week will close and classes will begin the morning of Sept. 23, when the traditional Induction ceremony will be conducted by President Hancher on the west approach of Old Capitol.

$50 Taken in Bowling Alley Burglary Saturday
A burglary at the Coral Lanes bowling alley in Coralville Saturday night resulted in a $50 loss to proprietor Vern L. Culbertson, who told Deputy Sheriff Donald L. Wilson nothing else had been taken.

The break-in was discovered about 9 a.m. Sunday, when next door residents saw that the rear door was off its hinges and notified the county sheriff's office.

Medical Conference To Be Held at SUI September 10, 11

A postgraduate conference on trauma and fractures will be conducted Friday and Saturday at SUI's college of medicine.

Sponsored jointly by the departments of surgery and orthopedic surgery, the conference is expected to attract more than 50 physicians from all parts of the state.

Dr. R. T. Tidrick, professor and head of surgery at SUI, said professional ambulance drivers and highway patrolmen are invited to attend Friday afternoon (Sept. 10) sessions of the meeting. These sessions will deal with the emergency care of traffic accident victims at the site of the accidents and en route to hospitals or other places of treatment.

College of medicine faculty members who are scheduled to participate in the conference meetings are Drs. Tidrick, Carlol B. Larson, Robert W. Newman, S. C. Cullen, Genevieve Stearns, S. E. Ziffren, George E. Perret, R. C. Hickey, W. K. Hamilton, Paul M. Seebom, E. S. Brintnall, R. E. Taber, S. H. Walker, F. D. Staab and J. A. Buckwalter.

The first part of Friday afternoon's meeting will be devoted to a symposium on "Logistics of Highway Accidents."

The latter part of the Friday afternoon meeting will be devoted to a session on "Transportation and Emergency Care of the Injured."

Highway Death Rate Shows Decline in Iowa

DES MOINES (AP)—Iowa traffic safety workers from the state level on down are heartened at the sharp reductions of deaths on the highways in the last three months.

Traffic fatalities have been fewer than could be anticipated on the basis of past records for holiday weekends this year. There were four highway deaths in the state during Labor day weekend, far short of the anticipated 10.

On July 8 department records showed there had been 41 more deaths than on the corresponding date last year. This was reduced slowly but steadily, until at the end of August the average this year was only 11.

In each of the last three months, traffic deaths have been fewer than for the same months last year. The reduction in June was 6, in July 15, and in August 13.

In each of the first five months of this year, the tolls were all the way from three to 22 more than for the corresponding months last year.

July, August and October usually have been the worst months, although December of last year was a bad one too.

Department records showed that 1953, along with 1941, was the second worst year since the department began keeping records in 1937. The 1953 and 1941 totals were 601 each. The record was set at 609 in 1951.

On Campus with Max Shulman

(Author of "Barefoot Boy With Check," etc.)

I WAS AWARDED A RIBBON AND PROMPTLY PUT IT IN MY TYPEWRITER

First of all—how come? How do I come to be writing a column for Philip Morris in your campus newspaper?

I'll tell you how come: It all began on a summer night. The air was warm, the sky was full of stars, and I sat in a cane-bottomed chair on my verandah, peaceful and serene, smoking a cigarette, humming the largo from Death and Transfiguration, and warming my dog.

Into this idyllic scene came a stranger—a tall, clean limbed stranger, crinkly-eyed and crooked-grinned, loose and lank. "How do you do," he said. "My name is Loose Lank and I am with the Philip Morris people."

"Enchanted," I said. "Take off your homburg and sit down." I clapped my hands. "Charles!" I called. "Another chair for Mr. Lank."

Obediently my dog trotted away and returned directly with a fan-back chair of Malayan rattan. He is the smartest dog in our block.

"I'm sorry I don't have a Morris chair," I said to Mr. Lank. "That would be rather more appropriate—you being with Philip Morris and all."

Well, sir, we had many a laugh and cheer over my little witticism. When we had finished laughing and cheering, we wiped our eyes and Mr. Lank pulled out a fresh package of Philip Morris. He yanked the tape and the pack sprang open with a fetching little snap.

"Did you hear that fetching little snap?" asked Mr. Lank. "Yes," I said, for I did.

"Cigarette?" he said. "Thank you," I said.

We puffed contentedly for three or four hours. Then Mr. Lank said, "I suppose you're wondering why I'm here."

"Well," I replied, my old eyes twinkling, "I'll wager you didn't come to read my meter."

You can imagine how we howled at that one! "That's a doozy!" cried Mr. Lank, giggling wildly. "I must remember to tell it to Alice, when I get home."

"Your wife?" I said. "My father," he said.

"Oh," I said. "Well," he said, "let's get down to business... How would you like to write a campus column for Philip Morris?"

"For money?" I said. "Yes," he said.

"My hand, sir," I said and clasped his. Warmly he returned the pressure, and soft smiles played on our lips, and our eyes were bright with the hint of tears, and we were silent, not trusting ourselves to speak.

"Cigarette?" he said at length. I nodded.

We lit up and puffed contentedly for eight or ten hours. "I understand you've made quite a study of college students," said Mr. Lank.

"Yes," I said, blushing modestly. "I have been collecting them for years. I have over four thousand students in my basement right now."

"In mint condition?" he said incredulously. "Students don't come in mint condition," I explained. "They go to great expense to acquire the 'beat-up look.'"

"How interesting," he said. "Tell me something more about them—their feeding habits, for example."

"They are omnivores of prodigious appetite," I said. "It is wise not to leave food about when they are present. Their favorite food is a dish called the Varsity Gasser—one scoop raspberry ice, one scoop raw hamburger, leech nuts and maple syrup."

"Fascinating," said Mr. Lank. "And what are students interested in chiefly?"

"Each other," I replied. "Boy students are interested in girl students, and girl students are interested in boy students."

Interpreting the News

By J. M. ROBERTS JR.
Associated Press News Analyst

There is something sour about the spectacle of the United States always protesting these plane shootings while the Reds always accuse her of being at fault.

Instead of merely sending notes and making demands for indemnities, the state department has now decided to take the latest case before the United Nations security council, which handles matters which are considered a threat to peace.

But whether this will lend any increased dignity to the situation is doubtful. In the first place, nobody is going to consider the incident an immediate threat to peace, even though it be the sort of thing which increases friction and tension between nations which already are enemies.

Has Upper Hand

In the second place Russia, with her security council veto, has the upper hand against any action on this or other such incidents, and there is a question about who will get the greatest propaganda value.

Certainly there are enough Asiatics who resent the presence of American armed forces there to give the Russians a broad field to cultivate when they point out how far the American plane was from home, and how near it was to the mainland of Russia. Or if they ask what the U.S. would do if a Russian military plane was sighted within 50 or 100 miles of a big American naval base.

Nothing Gained

This is not to condone the meaning or the effect of the brutality which Russia displays at all times in these situations. But nothing is to be gained by losing an objective approach to their consideration.

It's been going on for four years.

Four clashes have occurred in the Far East in about a year.

The American case in the latest incident has been sadly weakened by the early errors which said the American plane had not done any shooting, when it had, and that it was where it wasn't.

Russia and the U.S. are in a tough battle. Blows are given and received. In such cases, much dignity can be lost by the receiver if he protests too much, or if his protests are not presented in exactly the right way.

Local Firm Gets SUI Athletic Job

A bid of $46,800 by the Barker Construction Co., Iowa City, was the low bid for the construction of a new athletic field and running track at SUI, according to George L. Horner, superintendent of planning and construction at SUI. Bids were opened Tuesday afternoon.

To be located northwest of Iowa stadium, the new field and track will be financed wholly from university athletic receipts, Horner explains.

Only other bid submitted for the project was for $79,899 by the Maddox Construction Co., Rankin, Ill.

This Railroad...

ROCK ISLAND, though directly serving 14 mid-continent states, is as much a local business as your corner drug store or your favorite food market.

IN EVERY side you see evidence of the essential part this railroad plays in the life of your community and its importance to your well being.

COMMITTED to the task of providing efficient transportation, it brings you food, clothing, wearing apparel, building materials—everything to make life more livable.

KEEPING busy serving others has compensated us in many ways. Not the least of these are the friends we have made—there are thousands of them.

IT IS frequently said that a business is the lengthened shadow of one man. This is hardly true of the Rock Island. It is the lengthened shadow of many men.

SOME were engineers, some surveyors, others were car builders, track layers, or what have you. Most of them were conscientious, service-minded persons.

LIVE AND LET LIVE was their motto. They believed, just as their successors do, that free enterprise is an American heritage—something to keep and to cherish.

AND they believed, too, that really good service depends not only on an experienced, willing personnel, but also on modern equipment and up-to-date rolling stock.

EVER, may we add, has the Rock Island been in the position it is today for providing a freight hauling service that satisfies the most finicky.

DIRECT your shipments, therefore, over Rock Island rails whenever you can... and know what it means to have a shipping service a bit better than you'd expect!

Directly serving Arkansas, Colorado, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Mexico, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas

3-Week-Old Baby Dies After Accident Which Injured 14

Julie Christine Cross, 3-week-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cross, 7 Rowland court, died Monday about 7 p.m. in University hospitals as a result of head and chest injuries received Sunday in a two-car auto accident northeast of Iowa City about 5 p.m.

Thirteen others were hospitalized following the collision between a pick-up truck driven by Diane Petzel, 17, 815 W. Park road, and an automobile driven by Cross.

Miss Petzel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Petzel, was charged Tuesday in Iowa City police court with failing to yield one-half the travelled part of the roadway.

Five other members of the Cross family injured in the accident were listed by University hospital authorities Tuesday in the following conditions:

Cross Family Hospitalized
Cross, 39, chest injuries, face lacerations, good condition;

Mrs. E. Jeannette Cross, 38, his wife, multiple bruises, superficial cuts on the forehead, good condition.

Katherine, 3, their daughter, fractured jaw, fair condition;

Sally, 7, and Patricia, 6, their daughters, released Monday, suffered contusions.

Others remaining hospitalized as a result of the accident were reported in the following conditions:

Judy Gegenheimer, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Gegenheimer, 629 N. Linn st., multiple lacerations, fractured jaw, fair condition;

Beverly J. Purvis, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Purvis, 425 Clark st., ruptured spleen, multiple trunk fractures, improved but still serious;

Jo Ann Waller, Fair
JoAnn Waller, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund H. Waller, 629 N. Linn st., severe facial lacerations, leg cut, fair condition;

Joan Dicker, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris M. Dicker, 436 Grant st., compound leg fracture, dislocated ankle, fair condition;

Karen Scheetz, 16, daughter of Mrs. Mildred Knoke, 308 Court street place compound leg fracture, fair condition;

Sandra Gerard, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gerard, 636 S. Governor st., released Sunday, after being treated for contusions;

Diane Petzel, chin laceration and knee puncture, reported in good condition at Mercy hospital;

Margo Stoewer, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Stoewer.

wer, 302 Seventh ave., released Sunday from Mercy hospital after being X-rayed to determine any injuries.

Cross Traveling West
Highway patrolman J. A. Bertram said the Cross auto was traveling west and the pick-up truck east on a rough country road when the accident occurred, some three miles east of the city on a road leading off highway 231.

Julie Cross apparently was in her mother's arms and was thrown against the dashboard when the vehicles collided, Bertram said.

He estimated the speed of the Cross car at 30 to 35 miles per hour and 35 to 40 miles per hour for the pick-up truck.

Miss Petzel ran nearly a mile to get help following the accident, despite severe injuries to her leg.

The death of Julie Cross was the seventh traffic fatality in Johnson county this year.

Dr. William D. Paul, professor of internal medicine at SUI's college of medicine, will become president of the American Congress of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation Thursday.

Induction of the SUI physician to the top post of the organization will take place at a ceremony in Washington, D. C., where the congress is holding a week-long national meeting.

During the past year, Paul has held the title of president-elect of the organization. He succeeds Dr. Benjamin Snow of New York City.

The papers were developed by Dr. Carrol Larson, professor and head of orthopedics; Dr. Michael Bonfiglio, assistant professor of pediatrics; Dr. C. E. Radcliffe, assistant professor of dermatology; Dr. Joseph P. Stojkovic, resident in medicine; Terry B. Jones, physiotherapist; and Paul.

The program also includes a "Physical Therapy in Dermatology" exhibit by Drs. Radcliffe and Paul.

Newport, Solon Dispute Settled By Compromise

The dispute between Newport township and the Solon community school district was settled by a compromise judgment issued by District Judge Harold D. Evans Tuesday afternoon without trial. According to terms of the settlement the disputed areas of Newport township will remain outside the new Solon school district.

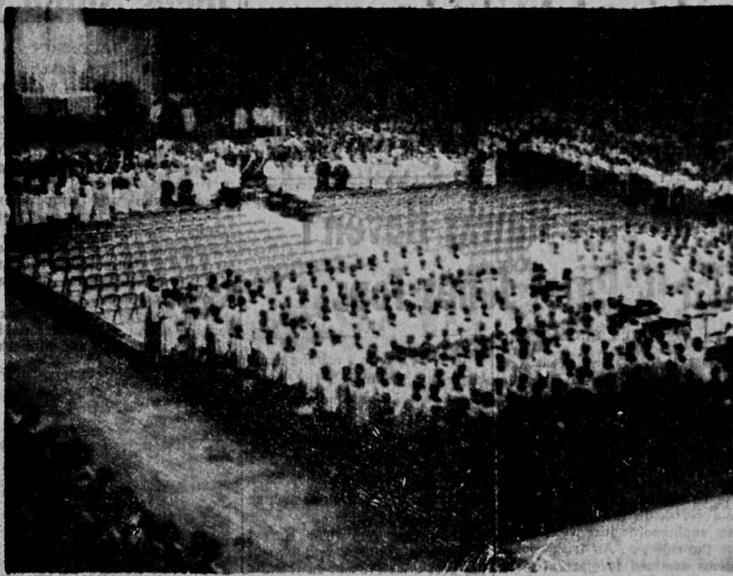

However, Newport township pupils now attending Solon schools will continue to attend them. The Newport township school board has agreed to pay half the transportation and tuition costs for these students, although not required to by law. About 15 pupils will be affected by this part of the ruling, attorneys for the Newport school board estimated.

The agreement will be effective for three years. If a new petition to include Newport areas in the Solon district is undertaken within the next two years, the tuition and transportation provision will be void.

SUI Hospitals Admit 12 New Polio Patients

Retail Sales Gains Up In 10 Iowa Counties

Ten Iowa counties showed retail sales gains of more than 10 per cent for the first quarter of 1954 as compared with the same period of 1953.

The state's total retail sales and use tax collections increased 2.3 per cent for the period, a newly published study of SUI's bureau of business and economic research reports.

The high counties tend to be predominantly rural counties with most of them in the northwest part of the state. The 10 counties showing the highest percentage gains in the early 1953 and early 1954 comparisons are Lyon, 19.8; Sioux, 17.2; Wineshiek, 15.3; Crawford, 14.5; O'Brien, 14.0; Osceola, 13.9; Plymouth, 12.8; Shelby, 11.4; Chickasaw, 11.2; Adair, 10.1.

Counties Showing Decline
Counties showing the largest percentage declines for the first quarter of this year as compared with the first quarter of last year tend to be located in the state's southeastern corner. Des Moines county's sales and use tax collections fell 11.0 per cent; Jefferson, 9.1 per cent; Wapello, 8.6; Muscatine, 8.1; Scott, 8.0; Lee, 7.3, and Appanoose, 5.0.

Audubon Goes Up
The SUI study's tabulations also show that Audubon county, after three straight declines from 1949 through 1952, went up substantially—4.6 per cent—from 1952 to 1953.

Copies of "Selected Trends in Iowa Retail Sales and Use Tax Collections" may be purchased for one dollar each from the bureau of business and economic research, State University of Iowa, Iowa City.

HELD ON CHECK CHARGE
Leonard B. Prizler, Iowa City, has been bound over to the grand jury on a charge of uttering a false check after waiving preliminary hearing in the court of Justice of the Peace J. Newman Toomey. Prizler is being held in the Johnson county jail in lieu of a $1000 bond.

Yanks, Dodgers Appear To Be Out of Race

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP)—Five months ago when baseball experts were making their annual pre-season pennant picks, not a single writer prophesied a Cleveland-Milwaukee World Series. Yet that possibility now looms large as the campaign enters its final three weeks.

The Indians have a stranglehold on the American league flag and only a miracle can loosen their hold. New York's defending champion Yankees, who have hung on so tenaciously since the All-Star break, finally found the pace too killing and dropped further back over the weekend. Four and a half games out with only 17 games remaining appears too great a handicap even for Casey Stengel's five-time world champions.

The Braves? Charlie Grimm's super-chargers trail the league leading New York Giants by four games but they are the hottest club in the National league right now. Winners of nine straight, the Braves are in second place, one game in front of the bewildered and apparently beaten Brooklyn Dodgers.

'1 Down, 1 To Go'
"One down and one to go," has become the battle-cry of the pennant hungry Braves as they barged into the east for a 12-game trip that includes two at Ebbets field in Brooklyn and three big ones at the Polo Grounds in New York. By the time the Braves return home, the race may be decided.

Milwaukee and New York each has 19 games to play while Brooklyn, 6 games behind the Giants on the losing side, has 17 left. The Braves must play 12 of their games on foreign fields but they boast the best road record in the league with 42 victories against 23 defeats. In addition, they own a 12-8 edge over the Dodgers and a 10-9 edge over the Giants in series play.

Giants' Pitchers Collapse
The Giants have a pitching headache at the moment. Manager Leo Durocher is running out of pitchers. Monday he was forced to start John McCall, a seldom used relief hurler, against the Phils. Five others followed him on the mound. The Giants haven't had a pitcher go the distance in their last 10 games.

Brooklyn appears all but hopelessly out of it. If the Giants win only 12 of their remaining 19 games, the Dodgers must win all 17 to overtake them. Even Manager Walter Alton realizes his Brooks face an all but hopeless task. The Dodgers' immediate problem is to regain second place.

The Yankees blew three chances over the weekend, losing to Washington Saturday and Sunday and to Boston Labor day. Monday they looked tired and worn. Cleveland's furious pace appeared to have affected the veteran Yankees.

The Indians, who drop an infrequent game here and there, have shown no signs of letting up on their torrid 700 pace. They need only 2 victories to reach the 100 mark with 16 left to play. Only a complete collapse can prevent them from dethroning the Yankees.

EVASHEVSKI TO SPEAK
Forest Evashevski, Iowa's head football coach, will speak today at a joint meeting of Iowa City's Kiwanis, Lions, Optimists and Rotary clubs at noon in the Mayflower Inn.

Record Low Attendance As Nats Spill A's, 5-4

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Washington Senators overcame a four-run Philadelphia lead Tuesday to edge the Athletics, 5-4, as Frank Shea won his second game of the season. Ed Fitzgerald's eighth inning single drove in the winning run before one of Washington's smallest baseball crowds ever—460.

The game between the American league's 6th and 7th place clubs was played in 95-degree weather.

3 County Youths Injured in Accident

Three Johnson county teenage boys remained in Mercy hospital Tuesday following an auto accident Sunday about 1:45 p.m., when the car in which they were riding shot off a gravel road into an embankment four miles south of Oxford.

Ronald Alfred Johnson, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Johnson, Oxford, suffering a fractured ankle and fractured facial bones, and Richard Ball, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ball, Tiffin, suffering a fractured skull and fractured right foot, were reported in serious condition Tuesday, but improved.

Lawrence Kuebrich, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kuebrich, Tiffin, who was driving the car, suffered a fractured jaw and multiple face lacerations. He was listed Monday in good condition by hospital authorities.

Highway Patrolman Richard Reddick and J. A. Bertram said the youths were returning from a wedding dance when the accident occurred. The car was a total loss.

Firestone Workers Return to Work As Strike Ends

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. workers, who had been on strike since Aug. 12, returned to their jobs Tuesday, and a company spokesman said production would be back to near normal by late today.

End of the CIO United Rubber Workers' walkout did not mean a return to work in one of the eight cities with Firestone plants—Fall River, Mass., because of hurricane damage there.

Three or four weeks may be needed to get the Fall River plant ready for return of 1,800 workers, the Firestone spokesman said.

Ratification of the new Firestone-URW contract, providing 8 1/2-cent average hourly pay increases, was completed Monday.

An estimated 22,000 Firestone workers are affected. The new contract raises the average straight time hourly earnings of tire and tube plant production workers to $2.19 1/2.

In addition to Akron and Fall River, Firestone has plants in Memphis, Los Angeles, Des Moines, Pottstown, Pa., and New Castle and Noblesville, Ind.

Liska Says Hawks Haven't Got It, Rates Jones Tops

By JERRY LISKA

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Log of a football "skywriter," one in a group of 13 scribes whose plane glided into all Big Ten camps and Notre Dame: Notre Dame: A tipoff the Irish may have tough going — five of the leading nine candidates for the entire backfield are sophomores . . . In the Frank Leahy era, sophomores just went along for the ride . . . An Irish rookie seems destined to start at right half, either Dean Studer or Sherrill Sipes . . . Soph Jim Morse is No. 2 behind veteran Joe Heap

Dame last season . . . The same team isn't there . . . Cal Jones at guard will be a phenomenal player and the first team should be extremely dangerous . . . However, depth is lacking and Forest Evashevski plans to have the Hawks pass twice as much as last season.

Wisconsin: Alan (The Horse) Ameche at fullback and two of the best quarterbacks in the Big Ten, Jim Miller and Jim Haluska, make the Badgers a robust contender . . . "There won't be too many others will grind better than we will," says Coach Ivy Williamson.

Purdue: This could be the season Stu Holcomb predicted for his Boilermakers last season when he stamped them a threat only to get an eighth-place finish . . . The Boilermakers have starters back at every position, good pass receivers and an excellent sophomore passing quarterback, Len Dawson, behind seasoned Froncie Gutman . . .

Minnesota: Rival coaches suspect that new Coach Murray Warmath from Mississippi State may have a tough Gopher crew if he finds a quarterback to handle his split T system . . . Paul Giel is gone, but Warmath has cranked up a faster Minnesota attack . . .

Indiana: It's all up to Olympic deathlon star Milt Campbell . . . The sophomore Hoosier, who runs, jumps and vaults better than any football player since Jim Thorpe, is expected to be a brilliant right halfback . . . Campbell, iron-man Florian Helinski handling Indiana's split T quarterbacking, and three letterman fullbacks, may perk the Hoosier attack considerably . . .

Northwestern: The Wildcats finished last without a conference victory last season . . . This year, Bob Voigts must find a quarterback to replace sharpshooting Dick Thomas . . . Even with a brilliant back in Bob Lauter, it looks like tough sledding again for the wildcats.

Jones, Smith Spark Hawkeye Scrimmage

By ARLO JACOBSON

Assistant Sports Editor The Iowa Hawkeyes, with the Michigan State game Sept. 25 creeping up on them, ran through their second scrimmage in as many days Tuesday with left halfback Earl Smith grabbing praise from sideline observers. Smith, who was temporarily inserted at the wingback slot Monday for Elden Matheson, snatched many passes from the air Tuesday that only the fleetest of backs or ends could get. His running was tip-top, too.

Second-week injuries began popping up on the practice field Tuesday as Captain and fullback

George (Pinkey) Broeder was hampered by a pulled back muscle. He got in some practice on punts after touchdown conversions but other than that, saw limited duty.

Vincent Back

Right half Eddie Vincent was back in the lineup Tuesday after spending Monday in the hospital with a heavy chest cold and a temperature of 102 degrees. However, he was slowed a bit by the cold.

Cleo Murphy, a sophomore fullback candidate, was temporarily sidelined with a severe charley horse but is expected back in the lineup within a few days.

The morning drill saw the Hawks sharpening up on their passes with quarterbacks Jerry Reichow, Kenny Ploen and Don Dobrino flipping to the ends and halfbacks. However, the general consensus on the sidelines was that the receivers have a lot of work to do before the first game.

Jones Shines

Cal Jones, evidently just hearing about his all-American selection by the Saturday Evening Post and wanting to live up to it, time and again literally tore the opposing line to shreds with his ferocious blocking and tackling.

One department Iowa shouldn't have to worry about this season is PAT conversions. End Jim Freeman, fullback Rog Wiegmann and Broeder each got a try at PAT's in the morning drill and put on a display of amazing accuracy with the toe. Freeman hit six of six, Wiegmann five of six and Broeder four of five.

The first team as it lined up Tuesday went like this: ends Frank Gilliam and Freeman, tackles Bill Reichow and Roger Swedberg, guards John Hall and Jones, center Bud Lawson, quarterback Jerry Reichow, halfbacks Smith and Vincent and fullback Broeder.

The No. 2 backfield has Ploen, Matheson, Bob Stearnes and Wiegmann in it.

Cyclones Weigh In, Average 190

AMES (AP) — Iowa State's football Cyclones weighed in Tuesday with an average for the entire team of 187 to 190 pounds.

Coach Vince DiFrancesca said he thought his first string line would average between 191 and 199. His backfield will average around 179 pounds.

Pop Warner Dies

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP) — Glenn Scooby (Pop) Warner of football coaching fame died Tuesday. He was 83.

Ill for months with throat cancer, Warner became unconscious 12 hours before his death.

At his hospital bedside were his wife, the former Tibb Lorraine Smith; a niece, Mrs. Jane Warner Scofield of Seattle, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Winkelman of Palo Alto. Winkelman, a longtime friend, was assistant coach when Warner coached his famed Stanford university teams.

Requested No Flowers Warner recently requested that any contributions be sent to the Damon Runyan cancer fund, rather than spent for flowers, upon his death.

Funeral plans were not announced immediately. Warner was graduated in 1894 from Cornell university with a bachelor of law degree.

But he also played guard and was captain of the 1893 Cornell football team, and served as unpaid coach when he was 22.

He gave up law practice after only a few months and turned to football. His gridiron strategy gained him fame as he turned out winning combinations at several colleges.

Coached Jim Thorpe He coached at Carlisle Indian school and his pupils included the great Jim Thorpe, and Charles (Chief) Bender of baseball pitching fame.

The University of Pittsburgh hired Warner away from Carlisle after the 1914 campaign. He subsequently coached at several schools and his football career ended in 1940, after 47 years, when he was advisory coach at San Jose State college.

Warner's fabulous football coaching career spanned parts of two centuries — from the Gay '90's to the strife-borne years leading into World War II. Shaggy-haired, gruff-spoken, he became known as a master of gridiron legerdemain. He combined hocus-pocus when necessary with powerhouse, knock-down football that at times was well-nigh unstoppable.

Glenn S. (Pop) Warner Coached Jim Thorpe

Originated Wingback While he never claimed to have originated the type of play for which he became famous, there is no doubt but what Warner improved and made use of wingback formations such as no other coach before or after him.

From this single wing, which he built into a formidable attacking weapon, he evolved the even more complicated double wing. His spinners and reverses, which included such masterpieces as the highly complex triple handling of the ball, provided eye-popping spectacles 30 years and more ago.

Going from Carlisle to Pittsburgh Warner made such a brilliant success that Stanford signed him in 1922, two years before the end of his Pittsburgh contract.

Hit Stride at Stanford When he moved to the California in 1924, its football fortunes were at the ebb. In his very first season, he led Stanford to a tie for the Pacific Coast conference title, and his teams ranked at or near the top throughout the nine years he was there.

Called east to become coach at the richly endowed Temple university, Philadelphia, Warner served for six years, but was increasingly troubled by an old hip ailment suffered during his playing career.

He retired to the more temperate climate of California, where he had maintained his Palo Alto home all the time he was at Temple. But Pop loved football too much to sit idle for long. He spent two seasons, 1939-1940, as advisory coach of San Jose State college. These seasons, his 46th and 47th as a coach, were the last before he retired for good. They were good years, too. San Jose lost only one game in the two years.

Irvin's Double in 11th Lets Giants Tip Phils

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Monte Irvin hit a two-run double in the 11th inning Tuesday night as the New York Giants whipped the Philadelphia Phillies 3-1 and hiked their National league lead over the idle Milwaukee Braves to 4½ games.

The game was a tightly-knit battle all the way with loser Curt Simmons pitching his heart out, allowing only six scattered hits as he lost his 14th of the season against 12 wins.
