Partly cloudy today and cool, with continued cloudy weather Thursday. Temperatures should range in the low 50's this morning, rising to 65 to 75 later in the day.

New Coeds in Midst of Rushing

Hancher To Greet Freshmen

A week of pre-college tests, physical examinations and social events will get under way at SUI when President Virgil M. Hancher welcomes the new freshmen to the SUI campus at 8 a.m. Thursday.

Known as orientation week, the period is planned to help the new student get adjusted to campus life before classes start Sept. 23. To achieve this aim, some 320 upperclassmen have donated their time and knowledge of the university to provide the new students with a warm welcome and guidance around the campus.

The first new student social event will be "First Nighter," a program of dancing, entertainment and the introduction of student leaders. First Nighter will be held in the Iowa Memorial Union Thursday from 8 to 10 p.m.

The new students will be busy during the earlier part of Thursday with health and written examinations, which will continue during the remainder of orientation week. Friday night has been designed "Play Night," at which time the students are encouraged to use all recreation facilities available at the SUI fieldhouse.

New women students will have an opportunity to try out Saturday afternoon for the Scottish Highlanders, the all-girl drum and bagpipe band. Saturday night a dance is scheduled at the Iowa Memorial Union.

During the closing days of orientation and registration, the students will visit the home of President and Mrs. Hancher as well as the homes of some 80 faculty members.

Orientation closes and classes begin with the traditional induction ceremony conducted by President Hancher Thursday morning, Sept. 23.

Armed Bandit Pulls Stick-Up In Oskaloosa

OSKALOOSA (P) — An armed bandit held up a Thriftway supermarket on busy highway 92 here Tuesday night and fled with between $500 and $1,000.

The bandit entered the store shortly before closing at 8:20 p.m. and approached the only cashier.

The woman cashier said the man put a quarter and his purchases on the counter.

"That's not enough money," she said.

"Maybe this is," the woman said the man told her, drawing a gun.

She said he ordered her to hand over the money in her cash register.

Police said the man, believed with an accomplice, drove off in a Chevrolet, bearing Indiana license plates. The cashier described the bandit as about 5 feet 7 with dark eyes and hair and wearing a brown leather jacket and khaki pants.

TOO MUCH CATSUP

CHICAGO (P) — A judge fined a restaurant patron, Kenneth Carpenter, $25 Tuesday for putting too much catsup on a hamburger. He called it "an outrage."

Shelby County Lake Approved

DES MOINES (P) — A proposal to build a 600-acre lake in Shelby county was approved Tuesday by District Judge Russell Jordan, ruling against 10 landowners who sued to block the plan.

The proposed lake — Prairie Rose — would be about 10 miles southeast of Harlan.

Bruce Stiles, state conservation commission director, testified before Judge Jordan that 280 acres already has been purchased by the state for the project.

In their suit, the 10 landowners contended that the conservation commission has no authority to condemn private property for such a project, that the legislature never specifically appropriated the $378,000 estimated cost of the lake, and that if legislation indirectly gave the legislature budget and financial control committee authority to release the money for such a project, it was an illegal designation of funds.

Judge Jordan ruled that the legislature did make the money available, subject to the "approval of the interim committee."

Wiley Wants New UN Voting System After Staff Study

WASHINGTON (P) — Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis.) raised new protests Tuesday against Russia having three votes in the United Nations, and recommended study of proposals for a new system of U. N. voting.

One of these proposals is to base voting strength on the population of member nations and the size of the contributions they make to the U. N.

Wiley is chairman of the senate foreign relations committee. He made his comments in connection with the release of a committee staff study on U. N. representation and voting.

Yalta Agreement
Under the Yalta agreement, Wiley said, Soviet Russia "obtained the admission of Byelorussia and the Ukraine as full members of the United Nations."

Byelorussia and the Ukraine are constituent states of the Soviet Union, "somewhat like Texas and New York are constituent states of our federal republic," Wiley said.

He said the present system "not only gave the Soviet Union three times the voting power she deserves; what is even worse it tripled her speaking power in the general assembly."

Wiley Staff Study
Wiley said he ordered his committee staff to study the voting record of the 60-nation assembly.

The staff study showed that, under the requirement for a two-thirds majority on "important matters" before the assembly, states containing only 2.3 per cent of the total U. N. population could block action if they stood together.

These minority actions never have taken place, but Wiley said the possibility should be studied, especially with admissions pending for 19 nations including Germany, Japan and Italy.

Grandmother Threw a Knife

That's Boy's Excuse After Making Trip To England and Back as Stowaway

NEW YORK (P) — An 11-year-old boy got back Tuesday from a 15-cent trip to England and promptly encountered stormier seas on television.

Eugene Hart, a dark haired 72-pounder, boarded the liner United States unnoticed in New York 11 days ago and made the round trip at no cost except for the subway fare from his Brooklyn home to Manhattan.

He still jingled 2 of the 17 cents he started out with.

Eugene was escorted before TV cameras of the NBC "Today" show and was asked by reporter Tom Naud why he had gone away.

"Grandmother threw a knife at me," the boy remarked casually. The statement later proved exaggerated.

Nobody was more startled than the boy's mother, Mrs. Hildegard Hart, who was standing beside him. Viewers saw her grab his arm and give him a shaking.

The mother, daughter of Mrs. Charles Deckert of Brooklyn, later told newsmen the knife was "only a little rubber one" and that if the grandmother threw it, it was done playfully.

Mrs. Hart said her mother was

Italians Support Eden 7-Nation Defense Pact

ROME (P) — British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden won Italian support Tuesday for a seven-nation defensive alliance — patterned on the Brussels pact of 1948 — to replace the European Defense Community.

Today he flies to Paris to woo French support — the key to success or failure.

General agreement already has been reported from West Germany, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg, other partners in the EDC treaty which was killed Aug. 30 by the French national assembly.

'The Eden Plan'
"The Eden Plan" — as Italians have dubbed it — calls for less than the supranational organization and single-uniformed European army which U.S. diplomacy plugged for so long.

The purpose still would be to beef up the free world's defenses in Europe with West German manpower. Prime Minister Winston Churchill's government hopes that British membership in the alliance will erase French fears that resurgent Germany might become the dominant continental power.

Eden's task today is to sell that viewpoint to French Premier Pierre Mendes-France. On Thursday, the North Atlantic council will hear his report in closed session at Paris.

1948 Alliance Inspiration
The inspiration for "the Eden plan" is the Brussels alliance of 1948. Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg, at that time wanted a "collective defense" system against any new aggression. They agreed to go automatically to the aid of any alliance member who was attacked.

From this Brussels agreement grew the 14-nation North Atlantic Treaty Organization. It had a new security goal: mutual protection against aggression by Soviet Russia.

Washington had hoped the next step would be the EDC, under which troops could be recruited in West Germany. The French assembly ruined that hope.

New Eden Proposal
Eden now proposes that an alliance based on a sharply revised form of the Brussels agreement substitutes for EDC.

The Germans and Italians, war-time enemies of the Allies, would be joined with the British, French, Belgians, Dutch and Luxembourgers under this plan.

The new agreement would call for long-term military, political, economic and social cooperation. To win universal agreement there might have to be a modification of the provision for automatic response if any member was attacked.

Senators Dismiss McCarthy Charge Of Staff Unfairness

WASHINGTON (P) — Senators weighing censure charges against Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis.) late Tuesday unanimously turned down McCarthy's challenge of the fairness of the investigating committee's legal staff.

The special committee said it had "absolute confidence" in the fairness of its aides.

McCarthy and his lawyer said that chief counsel E. Wallace Chadwick and his assistants, Guy G. DeFuria among them, had acted as prosecutors in the hearings and hence should not help write the report on the committee's eventual findings.

Challenges Rejected
Chairman Arthur Watkins (R-Utah) read a statement rejecting the challenge against Chadwick and DeFuria. He said there is an additional objection too — that "if the motion were granted it would, in effect, probably delay for several weeks the final report to the Senate" because of the difficulty of finding unprejudiced men willing to serve, and the time it would take newcomers to familiarize themselves with the testimony.

McCarthy's lawyer, Edward Bennett Williams, told a reporter he was "disappointed" with the ruling.

There was no comment from McCarthy.

Watkins Statement
Watkins, in the statement, said "members of the committee will make all of the decisions and that they do not need to rely on counsel in the making of those decisions."

Watkins said the committee will meet again tomorrow morning and probably will be in session all day. He was asked if the committee's report would be made public before it is submitted to the senate on its return.

"That I can't answer," Watkins said. "I don't know whether we would have any right to make it public."

Watkins told reporters at midday there is "a possibility" the committee will complete its report before Oct. 1.

Dulles To Deliver Far East Report On Radio, TV

WASHINGTON (P) — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles went over critical European problems with the French ambassador Tuesday and also set to work on a report to the American people on peace efforts in the Far East.

He will deliver his Far East report tonight.

On his second day back in Washington after helping draft the southeast Asia defense pact at Manila, Dulles met for 55 minutes with French Ambassador Henri Bonnet.

Afterward, the ambassador told newsmen they had what he called a "tour d'horizon — an exchange of views on many, many questions."

Bonnet said he sought the conference because he leaves tonight for consultations at Paris with Premier Pierre Mendes-France.

A few minutes after Bonnet's visit, the state department announced Dulles would make a 15-minute radio-television talk on the Manila pact tonight.

Arrangements included a live telecast by DuMont at 6:45 p.m., CST, retelecast by CBS at 9:30 p.m., radio rebroadcast by ABC, Mutual and NBC at 8:15 p.m., and by CBS sometime after that.

Bonnet told questioning reporters he talked with Dulles "about problems created by the French parliament's rejection of EDC" — the European Defense Community which would have included Germans in a six-nation army.

QUEEN TO VISIT U.S.

LONDON (P) — The transatlantic liner she launched in 1938 will carry Queen Mother Elizabeth to America this fall for her visit to New York, Washington and Ottawa, Canada.

New Defense Spending Cut Announced

WASHINGTON (P) — The Eisenhower administration Tuesday night announced a sharp new cut in defense spending, but said spending hikes elsewhere and sharply falling revenues might net the government $4.7 billion in the red during the current fiscal year.

The new deficit forecast for the fiscal year ending next June 30 was an increase of $1.8 billion over the red ink predicted by President Eisenhower in his budget message to congress last January.

And, reversing the downward deficit trend of the administration's first year in office, it was $1.7 billion higher than last year's $3 billion excess of spending over income.

Summer Budget Released
The revised estimate of how much the government may go in debt this year was disclosed in the annual summer budget review, made public late Tuesday by the budget bureau.

It said the new defense spending level would support the most "powerful and efficient" fighting force the nation ever had in time of peace.

In all budget making, the budget bureau said, "the needs of the national defense continue to be the primary consideration."

An 'Interim' Figure
Secretary of the Treasury George M. Humphrey told a news conference on the revised budget that the new deficit forecast was an "interim" figure only, that "we shall work every day, every week and every month" to better before the fiscal year ends next June 30.

He emphasized that the deficit last June 30, at the end of fiscal 1954, was $300 million less than forecast in the previous summer revision.

The new budget clipped three billion from outlays of $44.9 billion scheduled for major national security outlays in Eisenhower's January budget for fiscal 1955, making the new defense spending goal for the year $41.9 billion.

That was $4.3 billion under defense expenditures of $46.2 billion last year.

The new budget added $1.4 billion over Eisenhower's January estimate to their government spending for the current fiscal year.

Thus, the over-all spending estimate for the year was cut $1.6 billion under the forecast made to congress in January.

The new total spending goal for the fiscal year was $64 billion. That was $3.6 billion less than last year.

POOL VOTED DOWN

COUNCIL BLUFFS (P) — By approximately 4-1, Council Bluffs voters Tuesday turned down a $125,000 bond issue calling for construction of a municipal swimming pool. The vote was 818 for the issue and 3,324 against. The city now is served by a privately-owned swimming pool.

ASSISTANT RESIGNS

WASHINGTON (P) — Lorne Kennedy, 47, administrative assistant to Sen. Eva Bowring (R-Neb.) and three of her senate predecessors, resigned Tuesday to take a position with the defense department.

President Dedicates Laboratories

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER, squinting in the bright sunshine, is shown as he spoke at the dedication of two new laboratories at the National Bureau of Standards plant. He dedicated the laboratories to "the welfare of humanity."

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Rep. Morris Cotton went into the lead Tuesday night in the first returns for the Republican nomination for a two-year senate term in New Hampshire, one of nine states choosing candidates Tuesday.

His two opponents were not far behind. In 110 of 297 precincts Cotton, a four-termer in the U.S. house, had 6,966, Sen. Robert W. Upton, interim appointee, 5,543, and attorney Wesley Powell 4,295.

The three seek to serve out the remaining two years of the term of the late Sen. Charles W. Tobey.

Democratic Returns
In the same number of precincts on the Democratic side, state Rep. Stanley J. Betley led Mayor Laurence M. Pickett of Keene 4,153 to 2,631 for the two-year senate term.

Other early returns:
Massachusetts — Former Rep. Foster Furcolo, state convention choice, took a comfortable lead for the Democratic nomination for senator, 133 precincts giving him 5,000 to 1,638 for John I. FitzGerald, and 1,765 for Joseph L. Murphy.

Furcolo, now state treasurer, was his party's state convention choice.

Murphy Leads
State Rep. Robert F. Murphy had a better than two to one lead for the Democratic nominations for governor, with 47,177 to 23,152 for Francis E. Kelly, Boston lawyer.

U.S. Sen. Saltston and Gov. Herter were unopposed for GOP renomination.

Vermont — Lt. Gov. Joseph B. Johnson rolled up a better than 2-1 margin for the GOP nomination for governor as fabulations neared the half-way mark.

John A. Carroll, 53-year-old former congressman who served as a part-time advisor to President Truman, swept into a commanding lead Tuesday night for the Democratic nomination for United States senator from Colorado.

245 Precincts Reported
On the basis of returns from 245 of the state's 1,687 precincts, Carroll was leading Mayor Quigg Newton of Denver, a non-partisan until he became a Democrat last year, 12,989 to 8,535.

A veteran Republican secretary of state who is a critic of Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis.) and who also has been repudiated by his own party organization took an early lead Tuesday night in his bid for renomination.

Fred R. Zimmerman, 74, a former one-term governor and secretary of state for 10 years, led Joyce M. Larkin, Milwaukee, 48, a former weekly publisher in returns from 124 of the state's 3,288 total precincts reporting in Tuesday's primary. Zimmerman had 3,036 votes, Larkin 2,375.

Odds With GOP
Zimmerman long has been at odds with the GOP organization mainly because of his criticism of McCarthy and the party gave endorsement to Miss Larkin for nomination.

Sen. McCarthy, however, has not been an issue in this primary. He is not up for election this year and has taken no part in the campaigns.

Miss Larkin was endorsed by the state Republican party organization.

No Opposition
Gov. Walter S. Kohler had no opposition for the Republican nomination for governor but a close race was being staged in the Democratic primary for the chief executive's nomination between William Proxmire and James E. Doyle, both of Madison. Proxmire unsuccessfully opposed Kohler in 1952.

Returns from 76 precincts gave Proxmire 729 and Doyle 586.

The primary balloting came on the heels of a Maine general election which saw that state pick a Democratic governor for the first time in 20 years, although all Republican congress members were re-elected.

Edmund S. Muskie, 40, Democratic national committeeman, ousted GOP Gov. Burton M. Cross.

Buggy Firm Retains Name, Confusion
COLUMBUS, Ohio (P) — If your buggy needs repairs, please do not write to The Columbus Buggy Parts Co. It won't be able to help you.

Although the name was retained, the firm went out of the buggy parts business years ago. It now handles auto parts.

But, says Fred A. Wirthman, operator of the business, he still receives dozens of orders every year for parts for the old-time horse-drawn conveyance.

A Condensation of Late Developments

Interim Group Knows Nothing of Investigation

CEDAR FALLS (P) — State Sen. Jay C. Colburn, chairman of the legislative interim committee which met here Tuesday, said he knew of no plans for the committee to investigate the discharge of Dr. Boyd Guest an Iowa State Teachers college English teacher. Colburn said committee members have received mail from several persons who contend the discharge was unjustified. He commented the discharge is "really the board of education's problem."

Nationalists Repel 'Frogmen' Raid by Reds

TAIPEI, Formosa (Wednesday) (P) — The Nationalists Tuesday repulsed a light "frogmen" raid on its island fortress of Quemoy and once more pounded Red fortifications by sea and air. While the pace in the "vest pocket" war along the Red China coast 110 miles from Formosa slackened somewhat on its 12th day, an army spokesman said it was possible this was only temporary. A defense ministry communique said Nationalist warplanes once more bombed Amoy, seven miles from Quemoy. Warships blasted Ching-yu island near Amoy.

Reds Reportedly Spying on U.S. Military

TEHRAN, Iran (P) — A Red spy ring that infiltrated Iran's armed forces has given Russia detailed information on "every tank, gun, and uniform" Iran has been receiving from the United States, an authoritative source said Tuesday.

SUI Entrance Exams Yield Student Placement Details

Although incoming SUI liberal arts and nursing freshmen may suspect that written examinations, which they are required to take on entry, were conducted to bedevil them, Prof. Robert L. Ebel, director of the SUI Examination service, assures them that they exist solely for the purpose of aiding them in their college work.

Ebel outlined three main reasons for exams:

1. To exempt many incoming freshmen from mathematics skills requirements, and a few from communications skills requirements.

2. To furnish data on the basis of which students can be placed in appropriate sections of skill courses according to their specific abilities or deficiencies.

3. To inform student advisers of the student's general level of ability and specific strengths and weaknesses.

During the 8 a.m. orientation this morning room assignments will be made to the freshmen students. At 11 a.m. they will meet in the respective rooms where they will receive testing appointments. All tests will be given in rooms assigned at the 11 a.m. meeting. Testing begins at 1:30 p.m. today.

Desmond L. Cook of the Examination service will be on hand at the orientation meeting to answer questions about the testing.

The tests, which include English placement, reading comprehension, mathematics skills, vocabulary, expository speech, persuasive theme, contemporary affairs and physical education (for women), vary in length from 20 minutes to 2 hours, Ebel said. The average is about 1 1/4 hours, he added.

Most Multiple-Choice
All of the exams are the objective multiple-choice type except the expository speech and persuasive theme tests, Ebel explained.

Themes are to be about 500 words in length on a subject of current adult interest selected from a group of options. Speeches are to be about four minutes long on a similar subject.

Test scores, which will be obtained on Examination service machines for objective tests, will CHEROKEE (AP)—Elmer Hoepfner, 24, of Cherokee, must serve a 10-year sentence in the Anamosa reformatory for forgery, instead of remaining on parole.

District Judge O. S. Thomas revoked the parole Monday because authorities said they picked up Hoepfner last week on a drunken driving charge. Hoepfner was sentenced to the term for forgery last April.

be ready for student advisers by registration time. Students will get their scores in about two weeks, Ebel said.

Given by Grad Students
Tests will be administered and proctored mostly by graduate students, with a few undergrads of the testing rooms, and 30 proctors to distribute and collect tests and assist students.

Questions during the test periods are to be discouraged, Ebel said, since it is desired to keep the tests equally fair for all.

SUI's Examination service began in 1943, Ebel said. He has been in the program since 1945, when he came to SUI as a graduate student in education. Ebel had previously received a B. S. at Iowa State Teachers college, Cedar Falls, in 1932 and an M. A. in education at SUI in 1936. In 1947 he received a Ph. D. in education at SUI.

8 On Exam Staff
There are eight persons on the staff of Examination service, including Ebel. Three persons work in the test duplicating department and three in test scoring.

Tests are developed through cooperation between the Examination service and university faculty members, particularly the communications and math skills instructors.

A great deal of research work in relating the results of the tests to later performance and academic success of the participating students is engaged in by the Examination service in cooperation with the registrar's office.

Desire Most Important Factor In Forming Good Study Habits

By DRAKE MABRY

Ham Jefferson, a beginning SUI student, is sitting at his desk studying for his classes the next day.

After finishing the chapter assigned for reading he stops and asks himself, "What did I just finish reading?" To his horror he discovers that he doesn't remember.

Even though our Ham Jefferson is a fictional character, the above scene is duplicated many times during the first few weeks of school for many beginning students.

Professor Writes Study Book
Actually, such revelations are necessary, according to Prof. C. A. Gerken, head of the SUI counseling office and author of a booklet titled "Study Your Way Through School."

Enough "How to Study" books have been written to stretch from Old Capitol to the fieldhouse, but Gerken warns that before any book will teach you how to study, a person must have the want, interest, desire, the motivation, to study and learn.

"Call it what you want," Gerken said, "but by golly a student just has to feel the urge to learn before anybody can tell him how to study, and really help him."

Assuming that you have the desire, academic ability, and intellectual maturity and curiosity, there are certain items, tricks of the trade, that will benefit a student greatly during his academic career.

8 Points to Studying
Skimming lightly through Gerken's book, we find the following points might be of some help to new, and maybe the old, students:

1. Think about the fields in which you are most interested, and use these thoughts as a guide in planning your classes. If you are not sure where your interests and abilities lie, then maybe some vocation and educational counseling will help.

2. In addition to a long range goal, set up intermediate goals. These may include a term paper due next month, a section in a text book, or that final grade.

3. Set up a study plan, but don't make it too rigid. Allow plenty of time for relaxation. Gerken recommends setting aside 24 hours a week for studying, which leaves approximately 68 hours a week for other extracurricular activities. Go to dances. Have a hobby. Mix with people. ENJOY YOURSELF.

4. Concentrating comes easy if you have the desire. But what happens when you have something — at the moment — that you may not really want to concentrate on?

A few "tricks of the trade" are helpful here. Step right in to your assignment with little or no preliminaries. Do all your studying at one desk or table, as far away from distractions as possible. Use indirect or semi-indirect light. Avoid the old "goose-neck" lamps.

Have all the necessary study materials on your desk. Work under pressure, but don't forget accuracy. Leap into the assignment with a self-questioning attitude. Don't wait for an "inspiration." It won't come.

5. Adopt a study method. Gerken recommends this technique: Read the assignment rapidly, hitting all the headlines and summaries. Then reread the assignment for content. Ask questions, the answer to which will require that you know what you read.

Tips On Theme Writing
6. Before writing a theme or a paper, think about what you want to say, be an "idea man." Make an outline before starting to write. When writing, use good, everyday English that is neither slang nor too "highfalutin'."

Use a good many action words that create a picture for the reader. Take it easy on the adjectives, you're not writing for Time magazine. Keep sentences and paragraphs short — not more than 15-20 words to the sentence or six to ten lines to a paragraph.

Use as many illustrations, direct quotations, and real-life happenings as you can. They keep the readers attention while entertaining them at the same time.

Good Notes Important
7. Take good, meaningful notes of classroom work. Within 24 hours after the class, review and organize your notes. "This is one of the most important things to remember," Gerken said. "A high percentage of your learning occurs during this process."

8. Don't plan to cram for exams. If reviewing before the test, go to sleep immediately after studying. You'll remember more if you follow this rule.

So it is. You don't have to be a "Ham Jefferson." It will take time. It will take work. But you'll be way ahead of the game with a little effort directed toward this business of studying.

Interpreting the News

By J. M. ROBERTS JR.
Associated Press News Analyst

The new British plan for a European defense arrangement including West Germany contains many of the features of the dead European Defense Community but omits the two chief ones, supra-national control and a unified army.

In a way, international control would be maintained through the North Atlantic Treaty Organization on arms allotments and the size of armies, but gone is the great feature of a European political community governing both a European army and the already-functioning though wobbly European Coal and Steel Community.

This supra-national feature was one thing that made Britain feel she could not associate herself more closely with EDC, and that made France finally kill it.

France Must Choose
If France accepts the new proposal — for inclusion of Germany and Italy in the Brussels pact — she will in effect have decided that she prefers a Germany rearmed under certain limitations to loss of sovereign control over her own army.

The Eden plan is in the early stages of discussion. It promises to set up a logistical merger as against a merger of men. The various European armies would use the same weapons and pursue a common training and supply program, with Italy and Germany coming under NATO command as the others already do.

Germany May Join
The chief feature of the arrangement from the French standpoint is that Germany would be brought into an organization in which Britain is tightly involved. The Brussels pact provides that each member shall go automatically to the aid of any attacked partner. Formed in 1948 before the German rearmament question became so pressing, the pact also has clauses providing for cultural and economic cooperation which have never meant anything.

1930 SUI Grad Becomes Acting Missouri U. Head

An SUI graduate Friday became Acting President of the University of Missouri.

Dr. Elmer Ellis, who received his doctor of philosophy from SUI in 1930, took over as the seventeenth man to head the university of Columbia, Mo.

In the capacity of acting president he will serve until June 30 of next year. He retains the titles of dean of the college of arts and science and professor of history.

Took Over in 116th Year
As he took over the office to administer the affairs of the institution during its 116th year, Ellis called attention to the high reputation the university has achieved, pointed out that increasing enrollment is taxing the institution's facilities and staff, and made an appeal for the full cooperation of the students, faculty, alumni, and other citizens of the state.

Ellis succeeds Frederick A. Middlebush, who resigned as of June 30, 1954, but agreed to remain in office until Sept. 10 and thereby completed twenty years of service as head of the institution.

Acting President Ellis was born in McHenry county, North Dakota, on July 27, 1901. He holds A. B. and A. M. degrees from the University of North Dakota. Elected to Phi Beta Kappa while an undergraduate, he was called back in 1946 to receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws.

Served as Acting Dean
He has served as acting dean of the graduate school, and was released from the military government in 1945 to become the first vice-president of the university in charge of extra-curricular educational activities.

He had entered army service in 1943, and was officially discharged as a major in Sept., 1945, while on assignment with the military intelligence division.

Ellis is author and editor of several works including "Henry Moore Teller, Defender of the West" and "Mr. Dooley's America." A life of Finley Peter Dunne, both of which he wrote in 1939-40 under a Guggenheim Fellowship.

Convict Admits He Killed Penn State Coed 14 Years Ago

McALESTER, Okla. (AP) — A life-term convict confessed Tuesday he murdered a Pennsylvania coed 14 years ago to hide his criminal career of campus dope peddler.

Deputy Sheriff Abner Dear said he obtained the confession from Jack Ray, 34, after six months of painstaking detective work.

Ray's confession said he beat to death Rachel Taylor, 17, after she innocently came into possession of a letter linking Ray with a dope ring and illicit love at Penn State college, now Pennsylvania State University.

Miss Taylor's body, nearly nude and mutilated, was found near the Penn State campus March 28, 1940. Who killed her and why has been one of the eastern state's major crime mysteries of the last decade.

Ray is serving a life term at McAlester State Penitentiary for an Oklahoma killing committed six months before Miss Taylor was slain. He said in his 600-word confession he killed the coed because she threatened to take the incriminating letter to the college dean.

Police Recapture Killers as Victim Of Jailbreak Dies

CARTHAGE, Miss. (AP) — Two desperate escaped killers were recaptured Tuesday by police acting on orders to take them dead or alive.

Gerald Gallego, ring leader of a jail break from the Hinds county jail in Jackson Friday, was captured at 4:01 p.m. after he had told his companion, Minor Sorber, that he intended to capture and hold a family hostage as the hunt closed in.

Sorber was captured two and a half hours before Gallego was taken, after a helicopter spotted him lying beneath a tree in a wooded area near a highway.

Minutes after the two desperadoes were captured, jailer J. C. Landrum, clubbed by Gallego during the escape, died in a Jackson hospital.

Sorber, barefoot and unshaven, said he and Gallego had separated about 30 minutes before Sorber was captured.

U.S. Court Upsets Ruling by NLRB Against City Firm

The United States eighth district court of appeals in St. Louis has reversed a national labor relations board ruling which charged Protein Blenders, Inc., of Iowa City with unfair labor practices.

The charges arose from a poll the company conducted among its employees concerning their attitude toward union organization.

The board had overruled a trial examiner of the agency who conducted a hearing on the matter here in November, 1952, and found no unfair practices.

The appellate court agreed with the original examiner. The firm, headed by President C. Urban Kelly, carried the protest of the ruling to the appeals court after its employees voted 38-0 to support the protest.

City's Retail Sales Increase $1 Million

Iowa City's retail sales have increased more than a million dollars in one year's time according to figures recently released by the Iowa State tax commission.

Fraternities Get 250 Pledges As Formal 'Rushing' Closes

More than 250 new men students accepted invitations to pledge membership in SUI social fraternities as formal "rushing" ended Tuesday for the 19 groups.

Pledging of the new members took place Tuesday evening. Approximately 377 women students are taking part in rushing activities conducted by 13 sorority chapters on the Iowa campus.

The new sorority members will be pledged Thursday evening. Periods of informal rushing will be conducted later this year for those who might wish to pledge the social organizations after school is under way.

City-SUI Committee Discusses Bringing in New Industries
The city-SUI committee discussed possibilities for attracting industries to the city and suggestions for compulsory automobile inspection at its meeting Monday afternoon.
The chamber of commerce industrial development committee has made several contacts in attempting to attract the "right type" of industry to Iowa City, Robert G. Stevenson said.
The right type of industry was described as not too big, without a dirty plant, one which would hire skilled employees and utilize local management, and one which might hire students part-time and attract university graduates.
Glenn R. Eves introduced the automobile inspection suggestion, emphasizing that it should include student cars.
The suggested inspection would be compulsory and financed by charging the car owners a small fee. The committee held the matter for consideration until its next meeting, Oct. 4.
Dean Allin Dakin of the University administration mentioned the need of the university for more outside housing facilities, especially for women and married students.
A question as to whether the university plans to include sleeping rooms for guests in the projected Memorial Union additions was unanswered. Athletic Director Paul Brechler pointed out that Iowa is virtually the only Big Ten school which lacks such accommodations.
Vice Chairman Stevenson, a chamber member, presided over the meeting in the absence of Chairman Provost Harvey H. Davis. The unofficial group was organized to further city-SUI cooperation.

The funeral entourage of Iowa City residents will stop here on its way from 9 a.m. services at Ft. Madison. Burial will be in the Reinbeck cemetery.
Dr. L. L. Dunnington, pastor of the First Methodist church will officiate.
Henry county sheriff R. K. Van Tuyl said Tuesday that a coroner's inquest will be called later this week.
County authorities and the state highway patrol were continuing investigation into the three-car crash which took the lives of the McBroomes and two other persons. Van Tuyl said he was uncertain whether criminal charges would be filed.

Marion Named Chisox Boss; Richards Moves To Baltimore

CHICAGO (AP)—Paul Richards quit as manager of the Chicago White Sox Tuesday to become general manager of the Baltimore Orioles and was immediately succeeded in the Sox job by Coach Marty Marion for the remainder of this season and 1955.

Marion, former manager of the St. Louis Cardinals and Browns, will direct the Sox against the Philadelphia A's Tuesday night.

Richards, who kept the three-place Sox in the American league's first division in his four Chicago seasons, said he had come to terms with the Orioles "to run the whole thing."

Richards is expected to sign a three-year Baltimore contract which also would make him field manager of the Orioles, although he said this "is something to be worked out."

Marion, 37, was first base coach for the Sox this year after his release as manager of the Browns when the club switched to Baltimore from St. Louis.

His Cards Finished 3d Marion directed the Cardinals in 1951 to third place in the National league after a brilliant career with the club as shortstop. He led the Browns from mid-season of 1952 through 1953.

Marion was offered his choice of a straight salary or a contract pegged on attendance for 1955, Sox General Manager Frank Lane announced. Lane said that Marion requested only a one-year contract. He is expected to sign soon.

Richards, who came to the White Sox in 1951, was working on a two-year contract expiring at the end of this season. His 1951 Sox finished fourth. In 1952 and 1953 the Sox wound up third.

Sees Good Opportunities Richards said it wasn't a question of money which prompted him to take the Baltimore job. He said he turned down the offer of another two-year Sox contract only because of "the opportunities a position of general manager offers."

At Baltimore, Oriole President Clarence W. Miles admitted Richards had a three-year contract empowering him with complete charge of player operations on and off the field.

Miles said Richards would decide if Jimmy Dykes would remain as Oriole field manager and whether General Manager Art Ehlers would be kept in the Baltimore organization.

Comiskey Present Richards' departure and the naming of Marion as his successor came at a news conference also attended by Lane and Sox Vice-President Chuck Comiskey.

Comiskey said the matter of money never entered the discussions surrounding Richards' decision to move to Baltimore.

"Actually, the maneuvering of the past few days was to give Richards time to negotiate more fully on the terms of his Baltimore job," said Comiskey.

Yanks Tromp Tigers, 11-0, On Homers

DETROIT (AP)—The still proud New York Yankees, refusing to quit, crushed the Detroit Tigers 11-0 Tuesday as Ed Robinson and Bob Cerv knocked in all the runs with a display of old-time Yankee power.

But the Yankee hopes, all but extinguished, were further dimmed when the league-leading Cleveland Indians defeated Washington 4-2 in a night game to reduce their magic number to two.

Robinson knocked in six runs with a single, double and home run while Cerv accounted for five with a pair of home runs.

It seemed as though the Yankees were still in the thick of the pennant battle instead of eight full games behind the Indians. They rolled up 16 hits off four Tiger pitchers and clipped off three crisp double plays to back up Tom Morgan's shutout pitching.

Yogi Berra and Gil McDougald each chipped in with three hits as the New Yorkers won their 96th game of the season—good but not good enough.

Al Aber started for the Tigers but was batted out in the fourth inning when the Yankees flurried for five straight hits and four runs.

Michigan Club Chosen For '54 PGA Meet

CHICAGO (AP)—The 37th National PGA Championship officially was awarded Tuesday to the Meadowbrook Country club in Northville, Mich., for July 20-26 next year.

MARTY MARION, left, named manager of the Chicago White Sox, Tuesday, gets best from Paul Richards, who becomes general manager of the Baltimore Orioles. Picture was made at informal luncheon to announce change in managers. Marion has been a coach with the White Sox this season and formerly managed the St. Louis Browns and Cardinals.

Giants Keep 3 1/2 Game Lead With 2-1 Win Over Braves

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Giants maintained their 3 1/2 game lead in the National league Tuesday night by defeating the Milwaukee Braves 2-1. They scored the winning run in the eighth inning on three hits and two walks, after Whitey Lockman tied the game with a home run in the seventh inning.

The Giant victory all but spelled finish to any hopes the Braves might have been entertaining of winning the pennant. The defeat dropped them 5 1/2 games off the pace.

Sal Maglie and young Gene Conley of the Braves hooked up in a tense battle for five innings. Each got out of several jams.

But in the sixth, the Braves scored once when Eddie Mathews beat out a slow roller to third base to open the inning, advanced to third on a single by Andy Pafko and tallied when Bobby Thomson's pop fly near the right field foul line dropped for a single.

The run looked big at the time, for Conley had allowed just four hits up to that point.

Hoyt Wilhelm, the eventual winner, took over the eighth for the Giants and set the Braves down without a hit.

In the bottom half of the inning, the Giants tallied what proved to be the winning run, although it came in confusing fashion.

Don Mueller led off with a single. Dusty Rhodes walked and both runners advanced on a wild pitch. Willie Mays then was passed intentionally to fill the bases with none out.

Chet Nichols replaced Conley. He tossed just one pitch to Bobby Hoffman, who pinch hit for Henry Thompson. Hofmann belted it for a single. Mueller scored but Rhodes was nipped at the plate.

Indians Tip Nats, 4-2; 2 More Wins Clinch Pennant

CLEVELAND (AP)—Cleveland sprinted to within two victories of the American league pennant Tuesday night as the Indians piled up all their runs in the first inning to beat the Washington Nationals, 4-2. Mike Garcia, yielding five hits, hurled his 18th victory.

With nine games left to play this season, the Tribe stayed 8 1/2 games ahead of the New York Yankees, who won 11-0 Tuesday in Detroit.

It was Cleveland's 105th victory of the season, against 40 losses, improving on a Tribe record of 89 wins set in 1920.

Hal Newhouser relieved Garcia in the eighth after the Big Bear walked two men. Ray Narleski went to the Cleveland mound in the ninth. Neither reliever gave up any hits.

Dodgers Win, 4-0, As Podres Hurls 3-Hitter at Reds

BROOKLYN (AP)—Johnny Podres tossed a three-hitter at Cincinnati Tuesday night as the Brooklyn Dodgers stayed hot on the heels of the New York Giants by defeating the Redlegs 4-0.

The Dodgers, in winning their sixth straight game, went to work in the first inning for two runs off Art Fowler, the Redleg starter, and chased another pair across the plate in the fourth on a single by Sandy Amoros and Carl Furillo's 17th homer.

Podres was the master all the way, as he went the route. The Dodgers got nine hits off Fowler, and Jim Pearce, who came into pitch the sixth and seventh innings. Pearce gave up three hits, but no runs, and Karl Drews hurled the eighth, putting the side down in order.

Swedburg Rejoins Hawkeye Squad; Freeman Limping

Rodger Swedburg was back in his old position in the Iowa line Tuesday as the Hawkeyes went through a series of drills and polished up their pass defense, but end Jim Freeman took his place on the sidelines.

Freeman saw some action Tuesday but spent most of the time walking up and down the sidelines. He is bothered some from an operation he underwent this summer to remove a piece of steel imbedded in his leg. It is suspected that all of the metal was not removed as it is now infected slightly.

After spending the morning session and most of the afternoon on fundamentals, the squad divided up into four teams with the first team scrimmaging in the stadium and the second team working out on the practice field. The first team scrimmage consisted mostly of pass defense while the second team worked both ground and aerial plays.

Fullback Binkey Broeder, with an injured back, tackle Bill Reichow, with a broken collar bone, and quarterback Dan Jones, with an injured leg, again watched practice from the sidelines.

Iowa Picked 11th In Nation, Notre Dame 1st in Poll

NEW YORK (AP)—Declining to be swayed by the hackneyed advice to "always stick with a champion," the participants in the annual Associated Press pre-season football poll have voted Notre Dame the No. 1 college team for 1954, and dropped Maryland, the 1953 king, to third place.

The Fighting Irish, almost perennial favorites, edged out Oklahoma for the top rating, 1,449 points to 1,431, although the Oklahomaans received 74 of the first place votes cast by the 171 sportswriters and sportscasters in the nationwide poll while Notre Dame was named No. 1 on 52 ballots.

Maryland, voted tops by 13 critics, received 910 points on the basis of 10 points for first place, 9 for second, 8 for third, etc., with Texas in the fourth spot with 834.

Others in the top 10 are Illinois, 811; Michigan State, 618; Georgia Tech, 558; UCLA 548; Wisconsin, 383, and Mississippi, 368.

The second 10 teams in order, with first place votes in parentheses and total points are Iowa (1) 355, California 241, Army 196, Alabama 155, Duke (2) 110, Rice 91, USC 89, Oregon 39, Texas Tech 34 and Ohio State (1) 32.

Timely Homers Beat Phils, 5-2

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Back-to-back homers by Red Schoendienst and Rip Repulski in the eighth inning broke open a tie ball game Tuesday night as the St. Louis Cardinals whipped the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-2. Schoendienst, which followed a walk to Ray Jablonski, was his fifth and Repulski's was his 18th.

Rossie Scores 1st Round KO Over Hoffman in Detroit Bout

Special to The Daily Iowan
DETROIT — Iowa boxer Bob Rossie knocked out Bob Hoffman of Detroit in 2:17 of the first round of a scheduled six round co-feature match at Detroit's Motor City arena Tuesday night. Fans immediately demanded a match between Rossie and Michigan welterweight champion, Alex Gronik.

Only about four good punches were thrown in the match, all of them by Rossie. The Iowa boxer downed Hoffman once for an eight count with a left hook followed by a right cross. Hoffman was glassy-eyed when he got up but the referee, Herman Spinelli, let the fight go on.

Rossie followed that knock-down with a right to the head which sent Hoffman sprawling half-way across the ring. Spinelli then counted Hoffman out, although he was on one knee at the 10 count.

Rossie is considered one of the classiest fighters seen in the Detroit area in a long time, and following the knock-out, fans began chanting, "Is Gronik next, is Gronik next?"

The fight was televised in Michigan and Ontario.

2nd Big NEW Hit!
"HALF-WAY TO HELL"
CAST OF THOUSANDS!

By JACK HAND
NEW YORK (AP)—Rocky Marciano whipped Ezzard Charles before and he's 5-1 to do it again Wednesday night at Yankee stadium in the fourth defense of his prized world heavyweight title.

The continuation of their rousing June 17 battle is scheduled for 8:30 p.m. (CST) with no home television. There will be a closed circuit theater-TV showing in 70 theatres in 50 cities. A radio network (CBS) will carry the bout coast to coast.

Although Charles lasted the 15-round route in their first meeting, it is the consensus of boxing writers and most of the fight mob that he will be knocked out this time. Only one writer of 39 polled picked Charles to win back the title he lost to Jersey Joe Walcott in 1951.

Favors Marciano
The pick here is the 30-year-old Marciano by a knockout in about eight rounds and maybe quicker if Charles, 33, comes out swinging.

Jim Norris, president of the International Boxing club, still talked about a crowd of 46,000 and $525,000, just a bit under the $543,000 gross for the first fight.

Charles, making an unprecedented third bid to become the first ex-heavy champ to win back the title, thrilled the fans three months ago with his game conduct under heavy fire. Although Rocky raised egg-sized lumps on his face in an all-out bid for a knockout in the 15th, the Cincinnati refused to go down.

Led After 8
He sliced a gash over Rocky's left eye in the fourth round but wasn't able to follow up his advantage, although he led on all score cards at the end of eight rounds.

Marciano gets 40 per cent of Wednesday night's take and Charles 20 per cent. The theater-TV deal is expected to bring in about $125,000 and radio rights will produce $35,000. If Charles should win, there is a rematch agreement in 90 days.

Both fighters arrived in town from their training camps Tuesday, Marciano flying down from Grossinger, N. Y., and hiding away at the home of a friend, Charles rode in from Monticello, N. Y., to a downtown hotel.

The fighters will weigh in Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. (CST) at Madison Square Garden. Charles expects to weigh about 190 or almost five pounds more than he did in June while Marciano will be about the same at 188.
