Tells Of Red Atrocities

Ukrainian Reveals Slaughter of 700

CHICAGO (AP)—A house subcommittee investigating Communist aggression methods in the Baltic and other Iron Curtain areas Monday was told by a Chicago chemist that the Reds had massacred 700 Ukrainians in 1941 at the small town of Uman.

Dr. Paul Turia, 45, of suburban Elmwood Park, told the group headed by Rep. Fred E. Busbey (R-Ill.) that each of the 700 underground suspects, including men, women and children, was shot behind the ear in a coal hole behind the small Uman prison as advancing German troops pressed the Reds.

Red Margin Drops Slightly In Elections

BERLIN (AP)—Communist candidates for parliament in Soviet-occupied East Germany won 99.3 per cent of the votes in Sunday's single-ticket election, the Red government said Monday.

This was a drop from the 99.6 per cent claimed by the Reds four years ago.

The heaviest Red setback in popular vote was in Soviet-occupied lower Austria, where they dropped 11.5 per cent from last year.

The over-all drop was reflected in the failure of the communists to gain a single seat in American-occupied Salzburg and French-occupied Vorarlberg. In Vienna, they lost one of their six minority seats.

2 Reds Win in Jordan
Communist-supported candidates won their first two parliamentary seats in Saturday's riotous election in Arab Jordan.

Their showing was attributed primarily to anti-western feeling among Arab refugees from Palestine who blame the Western Powers for their expulsion from Palestine when the State of Israel was established.

In the Soviet zone, the East German government radio said 11,889,817 of the 12,086,987 eligible voted, a turnout of 98.4 per cent.

No Indication of No's
There was no explanation of how the minute number of dissenting voters voiced their opposition. There was not even a place to mark "yes" or "no."

The new parliament will meet within 30 days to approve a new government. There is no doubt it will continue the present Red-dominated regime of Premier Otto Grotewohl.

In Austria, the pro-Western coalition of conservatives and socialists appeared secure for three more years.

British Waterfront Walkout Spreads, Busmen To Return

LONDON (AP)—Britain's Communist-backed waterfront strikes spread Monday to Liverpool and Birkenhead, but leaders of London's bus strikers called for a return to work Wednesday.

The busmen's delegates recommended a return to work so negotiations could be started with the London transport management on wage increases and changes in working conditions. The men want a minimum of $28 a week, about $4 more than they are making now.

The 20,587 striking drivers and conductors, who have tied up more than half of London's 7,600 buses, may or may not accept the delegates' recommendation.

With the London dock area paralyzed, strike organizers struggling to tie up all shipping around the United Kingdom riveted their attention on Liverpool, Britain's second port.

Since January, the National Association of Stevedores and Dockers has banned compulsory overtime. The union leaders say working overtime should be a voluntary proposition.

75 Polio Cases Reported Oct. 2-9

DES MOINES (AP)—Seventy-five Iowa polio cases were reported to the State Health department last week, department officials said Monday.

Health officials said they did not believe the report indicated an actual upswing in polio over the previous week. Polio cases reported so far this year reached 1,238 with Monday's report, compared with 531 at the same time last year and 3,237 in 1952, a record year.

"The Reds meant to send all those people to Siberia," Turia said, "but the advancing Germans didn't give them time."

Turia said he found the body of his brother, Peter, at the bottom of a pile of corpses. A Chicago clerk, who used the alias John Kalenas, to protect his wife and child who still live in the Ukraine, said he was a prison warden when the Reds occupied that land. He said they promptly released Communist prisoners and gave them important government posts.

The investigators were told by a Lithuanian, Jonas Talas, 44, a former district attorney in his native land, that "The Soviets provoked many incidents at the Lithuanian border as a buildup for their 1940 occupation."

Members of the subcommittee who sat with Busbey were Reps. Ray J. Madded (D-Ind.), Michael A. Feighan (D-Ohio) and Thaddeus M. Machrowicz (D-Mich.). The group will go to Milwaukee after another session in Chicago today.

First Juror In Sheppard Trial Picked

CLEVELAND (AP)—The first degree murder trial of Dr. Samuel Sheppard got under way Monday with the selection of the first juror. The trial judge refused a defense plea to delay the case.

The first two jury prospects admitted their minds were made up on the case — although they didn't say which way. Both were dismissed automatically.

The third prospect, Howard L. Barrish, a dark, serious man of 28 with an 11th-grade education, withstood an exhaustive examination by the state and finally was accepted. Then the trial recessed overnight. Attorneys estimated it may take a week to select a jury.

The defense was denied further delay in the case and at the same time a separate plea for a change of venue — taking the trial to another county — was held in abeyance.

Sheppard, a handsome, athletic osteopath, is accused of bludgeoning his wife, Marilyn, to death after a romance with a pretty young medical technician, Susan Hayes. He has never backtracked in his plea of innocent.

As for a fair and impartial trial, Judge Blythin said the best test of that will come during the actual jury selection. Unless it becomes apparent that a fair jury is impossible here, he held in abeyance the motion to transfer the trial outside of Cleveland.

Milford School Wants Negro Ban

MILFORD, Del. (AP)—A spokesman for the Milford Board of Education said Monday the board would seek to stop issuance of an injunction to permit 10 Negro pupils to return to the all-white high school.

The spokesman, declining use of his name, said the board would ask Delaware Vice Chancellor William O. Marvel today to hold back on the injunction until an appeal can be taken to the Delaware Supreme Court on his ruling that the pupils have the right to attend the school.

The board ousted the pupils earlier this month because of a boycott by white pupils.

Churchill Revamps Cabinet

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Sir Winston Churchill overhauled Britain's Conservative government early Monday, bringing seven new members to his cabinet and changing 17 other ministerial posts.

The shuffle appeared to hinge on the Prime Minister's desire to bring fresh, young blood into key posts and allow for the retirement of friends who wanted to step down.

Most political observers read in the shakeup Churchill's intention to remain in office, and keep Anthony Eden as foreign secretary.

The key change named Harold MacMillan, 60, publisher and friend of President Eisenhower, as minister of defense, replacing Viscount Alexander, 62, wartime field marshal and non-party man, who had expressed a desire to return to private life.

MacMillan has been considered likely successor to Eden in the event the heir apparent to the aged Churchill steps into the premiership. But as the London Times commented:

"It is unthinkable that Sir Winston Churchill would have moved him to such a key post as the minister of defense if within a short time he were going to be moved out again."

Observers feel that Churchill will continue indefinitely to head the government in quest of what he has described as "this last great prize I seek to win"—lasting peace between the Soviet Union and the free world.

Other new cabinet members are: Minister of housing and local government — Duncan Sandys, 46, Churchill's son-in-law.

Minister of education — Sir David Eccles, 50, formerly minister of works.

Lord chancellor — Sir David Maxwell Fyfe, 53.

Minister of food and agriculture — Derick Heathcoat-Armory, 54.

Home secretary and minister of state for Welsh affairs — Gwilym Lloyd-George, 59.

Minister of pensions and national insurance Osbert Peake, 57. He already held the post, but the shakeup gives him cabinet rank.

Four of the ministers who were replaced had expressed desire to retire to private life. They were:

Alexander, who quit the defense post; Lord Simonds, 72, lord chancellor; Sir Lionel Heald, 57, attorney general; Miss Florence Horsbrough, 63, minister of education.

Hurricane Hazel Death Toll Mounts

TORONTO (AP)—Rescue workers Monday lifted more bodies from the silt and debris of Ontario's disastrous hurricane, bringing the casualties to 57 known dead and 39 missing.

Hurricane Hazel, which churned up out of the Caribbean last week and cut across the North American continent from the Carolinas to Hudson Bay, took a known death toll of 155 in Canada and the United States. U.S. fatalities were 98.

The final toll was expected to be much higher, as more bodies were recovered and reports arrived from isolated areas.

28 Found Safe
In the aftermath of the storm, worst in Toronto's history, 28 Canadians whose fate had been unknown since the torrential downpour and high winds struck Friday night were found to be safe.

Troops and civilians probed muffled cellars and the wreckage of flattened homes for more victims. The arrival of fair, cool weather favored the search, but recovery of the bodies continued to be a slow and heartbreaking undertaking.

Many relatives waited grim-faced to identify their dead at an emergency morgue set up in a fire station in Toronto's western suburbs, where the flooded Humber river wrecked the worst havoc.

While the lower Humber area was hardest hit, the damage extended as far north as the Holland marsh, a rich market garden area 35 miles north of Toronto. There the waters of Lake Simcoe, under pressure by wind and rain, smashed a dike and drove 1,100 families from their homes. Most of the refugees were Dutch immigrants.

$100 Million Damages
Total storm damage has been estimated as high as $100 million. A government inspector said Monday $3 million worth of crops in the area will be utterly destroyed if flood water is not drained off within 10 days.

Toronto's transportation lifelines were still functioning Monday despite numerous delays and detours. Stores and warehouses reported they have sufficient supplies. Railways said they expect slowdowns in freight movements until washed-out bridges are repaired. The Canadian National railways said bridge crews and section hands were working around the clock to repair 150 washouts. All mainline passenger trains were getting through.

Stringfellow Out As Utah Candidate

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—The Utah Republican Central Committee Monday night accepted the resignation of Rep. Douglas R. Stringfellow as candidate for re-election.

The 128-member committee was called to emergency session because of the 32-year-old war veteran paraplegic's confession Saturday that his tales of behind-the-German-lines operations in World War II were a hoax.

Committeemen from the 1st congressional district nominated Dr. Henry Aldous Fixon, George Staples and B. H. Stringham as Stringfellow's successor on the party ticket. Selection of one of the three was then referred to the full committee.

Dixon is president of Utah State Agricultural College at Logan; Staples is a radio announcer and high school teacher from Richfield, and Stringham is a state senator from Verna.

Stringfellow himself entered the meeting with his wife and eldest son shortly after his resignation was accepted, and the more than 100 committeemen gave him a standing ovation.

Southern Girl's Plea: Officer, Find My Dad

CHICAGO (AP)—This letter, addressed to "Police Headquarters, Lost and Found Department, Chicago," was received Monday:

"Dear officer: I am writing you about my daddy. He is somewhere in Chicago and I wonder if you all could locate him. I have never seen him to know him. Could you broadcast for me? His name is Lee Perkins. He is about six feet tall, slim build. He is from Vicksburg, Miss. If you find him my name is Mary Ann Perkins. I am 12 years old. I thank you all very much, lost and found department."

The Missing Persons bureau said it would try to find Mary's father. The girl gave her address as 2938 Delmar, St. Louis.

BURGLARY BROADCAST

DETROIT, Mich. (AP)—Fred Kingon, 53, a hardware dealer his his own burglar alarm system — a loud speaker hooked up from his store to his home. And it works. Kingon heard noises coming over the speaker and called police. They investigated and found two men chipping a hole through the rear wall of the store. Officers fired five shots at the pair, but only captured one in a chase.

Chicago's Flood Wets Tons of Mail

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago post office posted this box score Monday on last week's flood:

Parcel post — 3,000 pieces ruined.

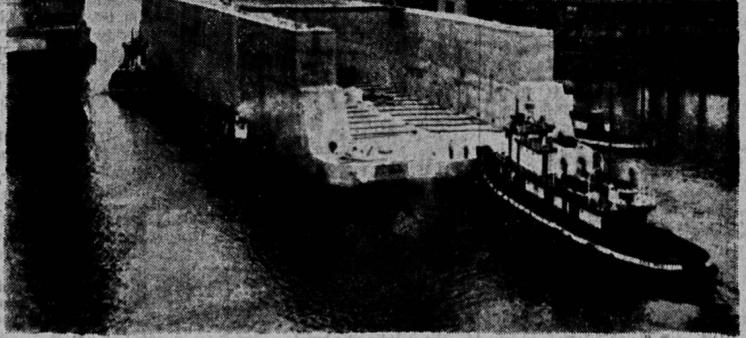

First class mail — 28 pouches soaked, now being dried, some to be saved.

Magazines, books, newspapers — three gondola carloads destroyed.

Postmaster Carl A. Schroeder said all mail with addresses still legible after the soaking would be delivered but the post office would not assume responsibility on any non-insured mail.

The mail was stored in the flooded basement of Union Station.

Largest U.S. Dry Dock on Way to Navy

THE LARGEST FLOATING DRY DOCK ever built in the U.S. is inched by tugs through drawbridges at Seattle, Wash. The $4,157,000 oceanic dock, made of enough concrete to cover an acre of ground with a five inch thick layer, will be turned over to the navy after being outfitted with crew's quarters and gun emplacements.

Community Chest Reaches 40 Per Cent of Goal

Approximately 40 per cent of the 1954 Iowa City Community Chest quota had been reached as the drive went into its second week Monday.

A total of $14,000 had been contributed. The campaign goal is $33,379. Divisional quotas are $1,938; professional; $1,001; special gifts; $14,752; business; $9,346; SUI; $2,338; public services; $4,006; residential. The professional and special gifts groups have already surpassed their quotas.

The money collected will be divided among eight groups. The Boy Scouts will receive $8,700; Girl Scouts, $8,550; Visiting Nurse association, $8,500; Salvation Army, $1,600; United Defense fund, $1,400; Iowa Children's Home, $1,000; Children's Milk fund, $500; and the Traveler's Aid, $29.

"STATESMEN" MEET

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP)—Many tourists visit this city, famed as the home of Thomas Jefferson and often visited by the United States' chief justice. Two of them introduced themselves at a motor court. They were Thomas Jefferson and John Marshall.

Gone, But Not Forgotten

A legendary political figure, known as "Boss Crump" to thousands of freshman political science students, died Saturday.

Edward Hull Crump, political boss of Memphis, Tenn. for more than 20 years, will no longer be able to make — or break — Tennessee governors, senators, and representatives.

For 20 years, neither Crump nor his candidates lost an election. Yet Crump never made a political speech.

Although Crump politics were strictly one-man shows, he gave Memphis a good, clean city government. No major graft was uncovered in Memphis the last 20 years.

He had the power to swing any close state election in his favor because he controlled Memphis and Shelby county (population, 520,000).

Gordon Browning was elected governor of Tennessee after Crump gave him a Shelby county majority of 59,874 to 875 votes. Two years later he turned around and beat Browning by a majority of 59,602 to 9,214 votes.

Crump had his enemies because of his rough-shod political methods, but even those enemies admitted that his city-county governments were efficient.

Crump lost much of his power when he was overwhelmed in the 1945 elections. But he still controlled Memphis.

We have a feeling that the good citizens of Memphis will miss the white hair and towering frame of Crump. He gave them good government when it was mighty hard to get.

Memphis can be thankful that a man with a sense of public responsibility guided its destiny during the last 20 years.

Church To Discuss Stand on Segregation

ROCKFORD, Ill. (AP) — Segregation as a church issue will be among problems to be dealt with when leaders of the Christian Congregational churches from 17 midwest churches begin a three-day meeting in Rockford today.

The principal sessions will be the 27th annual meetings of the group's mission and social action councils. About 1,000 ministers and lay church members will attend the conclave in the Second Congregational church.

Truman B. Douglas of New York, vice-president of the board of home missions, said he plans to propose a "Congregational Christian manifesto" on segregation to establish an official stand against segregation by the church leadership.

In a pre-convention session Monday were the midwestern state presidents of the Congregational women's fellowships. Lillian S. Gregory of Chicago, national associate secretary of women's work in the church, led discussion on the woman's role in church activities.

Interpreting the News

By J. M. ROBERTS JR.
Associated Press News Analyst

Beginning today with Franco-German negotiations will give her parity with Germany in production of the chief sinecure of war, and therefore an equal voice in the Coal and Steel Community.

The West German government does not feel it can cede German territory, no matter how important the broader objectives, both for political reasons and because it cannot establish a precedent of cession while demanding return of the Oder-Neisse territories taken by Russia and awarded to Poland after the war.

Of the many problems facing the diplomats, two were outstanding. Controls Problems Cited. At the head of the list, as it is first on the agenda of the talks, is the Saar. Then comes an anticipated move by France to impose controls on German arms over and above those already agreed upon in principle at the London conference.

The Saar matter, however, was supposed to be handled by Germany and France outside the more general discussions. France has always insisted that it must be settled to her satisfaction before she can enter into any formal alignment with Germany for the defense of Europe.

They had practically agreed to "Europeanization" of the Saar under the supranational council which would have governed the European Coal and Steel Community had the latter been ratified. The plan died with EDC.

The Saar's coal economy is tied closely to that of France, and particularly to the iron mines of Lorraine. France takes most of the area's products.

The two economies were formally integrated after the war, although the Saar is German-speaking and once voted, after World War I, to be attached to Germany.

French Won't Agree. The French will agree to no arrangement which interferes with this economic integration.

Future Atom Factories To Be Clean, Soundless

By CENTRAL PRESS

CHICAGO — A peek at the plans of the Armour Research Foundation of Illinois Institute of Technology as submitted to the Atomic Energy commission gives a preview of what it will be like a few years hence to work in one of the private industrial atomic factories that soon may be springing up everywhere.

These factories of the future will look more like spic and span laboratories than industrial plants. In this respect they will be similar to the spotless electric generating and pumping stations that are the pride of some utilities and industries today.

A big difference, however, will be the lack of sound, because the atom does its herculean work in deathly silence. Men in white dust coats will move quietly among many dials with colored control needles bobbling ceaselessly.

Shielded Rooms. They will turn a knob here, or make a brief note there, always being careful not to go from behind the shielded control rooms unless everything is in order. These men and women — and there will be thousands of them within a few short years — will have their workaday beings on the rim of quiet atomic craters.

Of course, if the function of the nuclear reactor is to generate heat, then giant turbines and dynamos will be hooked up to it and noise will enter the scene. Among the designers of the first nuclear reactor to be built for purely industrial research, the estimates run as early as 1963 when atomic power will be lighting your home.

Armour's atomic factory will be the first reactor not devoted to AEC work, except for a 10,000-watt reactor at North Carolina State college. It is designed for 50,000 watts, and will be housed in its own building in the middle of the block between 34th and 35th streets, and Dearborn and State streets adjacent to the Illinois Tech campus.

Atomic Factory. The reactor room will be a gas-tight steel tank, approximately 60 feet in diameter and 25 feet high. There will be 2,500 square feet of working areas to accommodate experimental setups. The reactor itself will possess a maximum of ports and a large thermal column for use in irradiation and other uses.

Numerous industries here are chipping in to meet the $500,000 cost, the average share being about $20,000. Each will get a return equal to the sum of its contribution in its own line.

The factory will produce short-lived radioisotopes which are impractical to procure from distant government labs such as Oak Ridge, Tenn.

Many Uses. Other uses include neutron activation, a new and powerful means for making the most sensitive chemical analyses now known and useful in testing the wearing qualities of products; neutron diffraction for use in structural analysis that surpasses standard X-ray methods; radiation-induced effects in plastics, glasses, organic systems, and metallic alloys; and investigation of the effects of radiation on biological and chemical products.

Steps to launch the new plant are a key to what will be required under the new government.

Included are North American Aviation, Inc.; American Machine and Foundry company; Bendix Aviation corporation; General Electric; Babcock and Wilcox company; Foster Wheeler corporation; Walter Kidde Nuclear Laboratories, Inc.; Nuclear Development association; Vitro Corporation of America, and Kaiser engineers.

All you have to do is show the AEC that atomic "raw materials" to be used is not immediately needed by the AEC; that there is adequate financial backing for building and operating the reactor; that it is designed and operated by "responsible and technically competent people"; that the reactor will serve a useful purpose, and will be safe.

Then you will not only get the go-ahead from the AEC, but also an allotment of fissionable material from the only source available—the AEC.

Job Increase Seen in Iowa

DES MOINES (AP) — Employment in Iowa is continuing to edge upward in a trend which the State Employment service predicted Saturday would continue for at least two or three months.

George W. Moore, service director, said there were 632,950 workers on the job in September. This represents an increase of about 4,000 compared with August. The figures are for non-agricultural employment.

The September total was down about 2 per cent from the figure for the same month last year. But, Moore emphasized, the decline on a month by month basis this year compared in September over previous months.

"We don't want to give the impression that we are going great guns," Moore commented. "But an increase month to month is better than a decrease. If employment continued to go down we'd have something to worry about."

About a year ago the number of employed started declining. That trend continued through February. But generally since that time there has been a slight to moderate increase each month over the previous one.

The 632,950 employed in September compares with 616,600 last February. February was the low point for the year thus far. But in March the total was 618,000 and in April the figure went up to 625,000 to start the upward trend.

Night Club Theme Keys Acacia Dance

The Acacia social fraternity house sported a nightclub atmosphere Friday evening as members entertained their guests in "The Grand Island Casino."

Dancing in the Green Room furnished the evening's most popular pastime for the night club guests.

Featured in the floor show were vocalist Maria Hatges, A2, Mason City and Athena Papadakes, A1, Britt with her pantomime impersonations. Bill Hollander, A1, Sheldon, served up his 7-up specials at the Acacia bar. Chaperone was Mrs. Margaret Tracy, Acacia housemother. Nate Ottens, G, was in charge of party arrangements.

Speech Group Plans Annual Coffee Mixer

The speech pathology and audiology department will hold its annual coffee mixer today from 3 to 5 p.m. at Wesley house, 120 N. Dubuque st.

Mrs. Natalie Feldt, instructor in communications skills, is general arrangements chairman. Pouring will be Miss Altha Brown, of the Hospital School for Severely Handicapped Children, and Mrs. Delta Salzey, superintendent of social service for the state department of child welfare.

Ross To Discuss Municipal Problems At Meeting Tonight

Prof. Russell M. Ross of the political science department has accepted an invitation to speak to the residents of Ridgeway Park tonight on the subject of "Municipal Incorporation — Its Problems and Its Advantages."

Ridgeway Park is at the present time an unincorporated area with more than 2,500 residents, situated five miles north of Davenport in Scott county. The residential area has been built up within the last two years under a Federal Housing administration housing development. The residents will consider the advisability of incorporation at the mass meeting tonight.

Writes Articles

Ross teaches courses in municipal government and administration and has written articles on municipal problems for several magazines including the American City, The Iowa League of Municipalities, the Municipal Yearbook, Public Management and the National Municipal Review. During the last three years Ross has been a member of the University Heights city council.

Internship Director

Ross also is director of the internship program offered by the political science department and the Institute of Public Affairs. Under the program graduate students may receive in-serve training and experience in municipal, county and state departments and offices.

Mackinac Bridge Idea Dates Back to 1884

ST. IGNACE, Mich. (AP) — They are building a 100 million dollar bridge across the Straits of Mackinac. The idea is certainly not new as evidenced by a newspaper advertisement hanging in the Michigan state highway ferries office at St. Ignace, Mich.

In the center of the advertisement for an old general store is an engraving of a proposed five-mile-long suspension bridge across the Straits of Mackinac. The date — 1884.

Courageous Hawks Refused To Give Up

Don't sell the Hawkeyes short. They played their hearts out in their 20-14 loss at Columbus Saturday. They played to win. It wasn't a case of Ohio wanting to win more than the Hawks. Iowa wanted to win.

'Played Better Than They Knew How'

In fact, as Coach Forest Evashevski commented on a weekly television program Monday night, "The boys played better than they knew how."

The two valiant second-half goalward marches fell short—one by 11 yards and one by seven—but the Ohio State Buckeyes knew they had won a big one.

The courageous Hawkeyes just refused to fold in the second half. They almost snatched it out of the fire. And only two Buckeyes—sophomores Jim Parker and Hubert Bobo—stood in the way of an Iowa tie and possible victory.

EARL SMITH TAKES OFF on one of his long touchdown jaunts Saturday against Ohio State at Columbus. This one was good for 75 yards. Running interference for him is John Hall (75). Moving in for the tackle, which he missed, is Bobby Watkins (45) of the Buckeyes.

The biggest advance was by Army, which ranked No. 18 last week, but went to No. 9 by shocking Duke, 28-14. This

Hawks Fall From Top 20 In Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Following their 20-14 loss to Ohio State Saturday, Iowa's Hawkeyes fell from 13th place out of the top 20 teams in Monday's Associated Press football poll.

Oklahoma, Wisconsin, UCLA and Ohio State, the big four of the AP nationwide football poll last week, remained on top of the college football pinnacle in that order again, but four other teams tumbled from the top 10.

Arkansas, Minnesota, Army and West Virginia moved into the first 10 this week, replacing Purdue, Duke, Penn State and Navy in the weekly ratings. Penn State, tripped up by West Virginia, 19-14, and Navy, handed its first defeat by Pittsburgh, 21-19, skidded clear out of the top 20 teams. A week ago they were tied for ninth place.

115 1st Place Votes

A total of 212 votes were cast by sports writers and sportscasters, and Oklahoma—which blasted Kansas, 66-0—received 115 first place ballots. On the basis of 10 points for first, nine for second, etc., Oklahoma rolled up 1,891 points.

Wisconsin, with a 20-6 conquest of Purdue, got 42 first place votes, double the number received a week ago. This defeat knocked Purdue from the No. 5 spot last week to No. 13. Wisconsin got heavy support in second and third place votes and wound up with 1,732 points.

Badgers, Bucks Even For Big Ten Contest

COLUMBUS, Ohio (P)—The odds-fellows are having a tough time picking a favorite for Saturday's Wisconsin-Ohio State grid game.

Only one thing is certain about the contest, which shapes up as one of the year's dandiest duels. The certainty is that at least 83,400 fans will fill the big Buckeye horseshoe for the torrid tussle.

The three has scored five touchdowns in four starts.

Ohio is out front in the Big Ten race with three straight conquests, having knocked the "S" Indiana, Illinois and Iowa out of the running. Wisconsin is tied in the second slot at two victories with Minnesota and Michigan, and the latter pair clear up their differences Saturday at Ann Arbor. They change opponents for the season's finale, with Michigan at Ohio, and Minnesota at Wisconsin.

UCLA, the Pacific Coast pace-maker, received 23 first place votes after overwhelming Stanford, 72-0, and ranks No. 3 with 1,590 points. Ohio State, which polished off Iowa, 20-14, got eight first place votes and 1,387 points.

dropped Duke from sixth place a week ago to No. 19. West Virginia rounds out the top 10, moving up from No. 14 last week.

The leading teams with first place votes and season records in parentheses (points based on 10 for first place, 9 for second, etc.)

Both the Badgers and Bucks are unbeaten. Both are in the top five nationally. Both are in the Big Ten. Both want to go to the Rose Bowl.

Even Statistically

And the statistics for four-game winning streaks show they are just that even on the field, too. Wisconsin has rolled over Marquette, Michigan State, Rice and Purdue, while Ohio has turned back Indiana, California, Illinois and Iowa.

After the first four, however, the poll was hardly recognizable, although both Mississippi and Notre Dame moved up a couple of notches.

Ole Miss, which clobbered Tulane, 34-7, advanced from seventh to No. 5, and Notre Dame went from No. 8 to No. 6 after edging Michigan State, 20-19.

Arkansas, No. 12 last week, zoomed to the No. 7 spot after rocking Texas, 20-7, to take over the lead in the Southwest conference.

Halfbacks vs. Ameche

Ohio has outscored four opponents 107 to 34, Wisconsin 91 to 27.

The Bucks will rely on two fleetfooted halfbacks, Bobby Watkins and red-haired "Hopsalong" Cassidy. The big gun for Wisconsin will be fullback Alan (The Horse) Ameche. Each of Eat food with a reputation from coast to coast.

The two touchdown gallops by Earl Smith one for 67 yards and the other for 75, weren't the only bright spots for the Hawkeyes Saturday.

They proved they could come back, maybe not enough, but enough to give one of the best teams in the country a terrific scare. That scare came twice in the last quarter as Iowa pounded on the Buckeyes' door but couldn't get in.

Evashevski Pleased with Hawks' Play

Evashevski was pleased with the play of the Hawks Saturday. He was satisfied with the defense which did a better job than any other Buckeye opponent at containing the tremendous speed and power of Coach Woody Hayes' team. The Buckeyes made 212 yards rushing but on 60 plays, 18 more than Iowa for an average of only 3.5.

Iowa ran its offense for 153 yards on the ground on 42 plays for a 3.6 average. And Iowa also hit six passes for 79 yards. Statistics for the first four games show that Iowa has outscored opponents, 89-50. The team has made 1,061 yards, 815 rushing and 246 passing. Average per rushing play is 4.4 yards.

Have Completed 21 of 49 Aerials

The Hawkeyes have completed 21 of 49 forward passes, with five interceptions. The team has returned kicks 480 yards and has 199 yards on intercepted passes, two for touchdowns.

Opponents are credited with 977 yards, 732 on the ground and 245 by air. They have completed only 13 of 48 passes and Hawkeyes have grabbed 7 interceptions. The rushing average per play is 3.5.

Other team figures include: 58-58 on first downs, 14 fumbles and ball lost 8, to 13 and 8; and 179 yards on penalties to 88. Halfback Earl Smith continues to lead yard-makers, with 188 yards for an average of 6 per carry. Likewise, he tops scorers with 36 points, punt returners, 7 for 22.2 average; and kickoff returners, 5 for 19.

Reichow Connected for 13 of 31

Jerry Reichow quarterback has connected on 13 of 31 passes for 157 yards and 419. Leading receiver is Frank Gilliam, left end, who has caught 7 for 100 yards.

Other statistics: Eddie Vincent, 133 yards for 4.7 on rushing for second place; and Reichow 124 yards for 3.3; George Broeder, 34.5 average on 11 punts; and Bob Stearnes and Reichow, each with two pass interceptions.

Meanwhile, Evashevski went easy on his squad Monday even though they lost virtually all chance of gaining the Big Ten championship and a trip to the Rose Bowl Saturday.

Starting 11 Takes It Easy

The starting 11 showed up in sweat clothes for the session and spent most of the afternoon on a non-contact defensive drill against a team of fourth-stringers and freshmen.

The second string, wearing uniforms, traded off with the starters while the third and fourth teams went through a rough scrimmage.

The freshman-fourth string squad, running Indiana plays, stayed almost entirely on the ground, even though assistant coach

Swedberg Takes Post in Practice

Rodger Swedberg, who reinjured the knee he hurt against Michigan took part in the light workout.

Don Dobrino, still slowed up with a bruised right hip, saw very little action in the practice.

Earl Smith, the Big Ten's leading scorer, missed the practice, but Evashevski explained that he missed a train in Gary, Ind., last night where he had stopped to visit relatives.

Evy added that Smith was expected back in Iowa City Monday night.

Head Runs with 2d Team

Jim Head, who traded off with Binkey Broeder at the starting fullback slot last week, ran exclusively with the second team Monday.

Following the defense drill the squad ended the practice with a short signal drill.

The squad will be in good shape for the Indiana game, possibly better than at the same time a week ago, Trainer Doyle Allsup said Monday.

The chief question mark now is Swedberg. He was under observation in the hospital last Monday and had his leg in traction for two days.

Has Jammed Cartilage in Knee

He was back at practice last Wednesday and started the Buckeye game. He has a jammed cartilage in his knee.

Reserve center Don Suchy, who was helped off the field at Columbus when he sprained an ankle, was walking with only a light limp Monday, but with tape, heat and time should be able to practice this week and ready to go Saturday.

Hoosiers Loom In Iowa's Path

With each warily regarding the other as a pretty good chance for a Big Ten victory, Indiana and Iowa square off against each other next Saturday at Bloomington.

The get-together will be the fifth time out this fall for both Coach Forest Evashevski's Hawkeyes and Coach Bernie Crimmins' Hoosiers. Each outfit may well be wary of the other figuring from their lists of opponents already this year.

In the opener Indiana was rolled by Ohio State, 28-0, while Evy's boys were side-stepping Michigan State, 14-10. Then as the Hawks out-classed Montana, 48-6, and mopped up against Michigan at Ann Arbor, 14-13, Crimmins' crew rolled College of Pacific, 34-6, and lost to Michigan State, 21-14. Indiana played out of the loop Saturday, losing 20-14 to Missouri, when Iowa matched wits with Ohio State and lost also 20-14.

No Yardstick

Some football soothsayers may use the Spartans as a yardstick to measure the Hawk-Hoosier prowess, but that doesn't ever figure in the Big Ten. Both elevens have 1954 losses as incentives to get fired up for this one. While Indiana has the home crowd advantage and the vengeance motive leftover from last year's 19-13 Hawk win, the Iowans may possess the superior football know-how necessary to do the job.

The Hoosiers unimpressive two-win, seven-loss overall in '53 helped Iowa move ahead in the two schools' 25-game series. Since the two teams first met in 1912, the Hawks have won 11, lost 10 and tied four.

Campbell Versatile

The big gun out of Bloomington way seems to be track star Milt Campbell, a versatile boy with both deception and power.

The air lanes may well be filled by the Hoosiers, too, if their fray against Ohio is any indication of their passing potential. Coach Crimmins' outfit took to the air 30 times at Columbus, and although only 11 found receivers, the Hoosiers seem likely to try proving their coaches believe that Indiana's wingmen can take advantage of Florian Helinski's fine throwing.

FULLBACK BOBBY WATKINS (45) plows through the Iowa line for the first Buckeye score Saturday. Watkins is about to meet head-on with tackle Roger Swedberg (74) while end Frank Gilliam (87) watches.

Smith's Ball-Toting Scares Cretzmeier

Iowa track coach Francis Cretzmeier, who cringes every time Hawkeye star halfback Earl Smith plunges into the line, will have some consolation next Saturday against Indiana.

Cretz views each game with the apprehension of what might happen to Smith, the Big Ten broad jump champion and one of the best in Hawkeye history. This week, however, Cretz isn't going to be the only coach worrying about his future track hopes. He'll have Indiana's Gordon Fisher on his side.

Fisher is the Hoosier track coach, who, in the College of Pacific-Indiana affair, watched letterman hurdler Jimmy Stone score the first touchdown on a 37-yard pass play, squirmed when veteran shot an indisposed performer John Roberson took a 45-yard pass for the second, and twatched when the third was scored on a 77-yard punt return by Mill Campbell, one of the nation's top track stars.

Possibility Of TV For Iowa-Minnesota Game

A's, Minus Connie Mack, Begin New Era as Syndicate

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Athletics, starting a new era under syndicate-control after 54 years of rule by the Connie Mack family, played a waiting game Monday night, with little to do but accept congratulations.

The old owners asked the American league for approval of the new owners, and until the league acts, there's nothing for both sides to do but sit back—and iron out a thousand and one details.

Among the felicitations were telephone calls from Arnold Johnson, the Chicago businessman, who sought to buy the franchise and transfer it to Kansas City.

'Best Wishes But Puzzled'
"I've talked with Roy and Earl Mack and extended my best wishes," Johnson said. He expected to leave at 5 p.m. for Chicago. "But," he continued, "I'm still puzzled about the whole thing."

His state of mind was understandable. Until late Sunday, the 47-year-old Chicagoan appeared a shoo-in to be the next owner of the club. He had offered close to $3,375,000 to take over the franchise, its debts and assets and to move it to Kansas City.

Then in four days a syndicate was formed and it accomplished something that had not been done in four months; it bought 91-year-old Connie Mack's 302 shares for $604,000.

Earl Mack, retiring general manager and executive vice-president, was paid $450,000 for his 163 shares. Roy Mack was paid $200,000 and reinvested $250,000 in the new organization. He also received a one-year contract as an executive with the club at $25,000 a year.

League Approval Asked
Roy said Monday he had sent a telegram to American league President Will Harridge, asking for league approval of the new owners.

In Chicago, Harridge said: "The American league will have no statement until final papers have been drawn for the purchase of the Philadelphia Athletics' stock."

K.C. Ball Rooters To Remain Loyal
KANSAS CITY (AP) — Enthusiasm of fans in Kansas City for baseball, whether it is minor or major league caliber, will probably remain unchanged by the decision to keep the Athletics in Philadelphia.

That was the opinion expressed Monday by Ernie Mehl, sports editor of the Kansas City Star, and L. P. Cookingham, city manager.

Football fans who have found they can't buy tickets to the Iowa-Minnesota and Iowa-Notre Dame games may be able to see them on home television sets or on "piped-in" TV in the Iowa field house.

Dr. Paul Blommers, chairman of the board in control of athletics, said Monday that talks between university officials and representatives of the Balaban corporation, national entertainment firm, have progressed to the point where "we're now considering televising the Notre Dame game on a closed circuit to Iowa theaters."

He also said that there's a possibility, too, that the Iowa-Minnesota game at Minneapolis, Nov. 13 may be televised in the Iowa field house on a closed circuit basis. He also indicated that closed circuit telecasts of the game may be made available to Iowa and some Minnesota theaters.

Much 'Red Tape'

Blommers emphasized that there are many problems to be solved yet, much "red tape" to go through before anything definite can be said. Such things like OK's by the Big Ten, National Collegiate Athletic association, the visiting team and the television company still have to be obtained. Iowa and Minnesota theaters have to give their OK's, too.

Originally, university officials thought only of televising the Irish game on a closed circuit basis in the field house. "But," Blommers said, "that would necessitate Iowa fans who live in Sioux City, Mason City, etc., to drive to Iowa City just to see the game on television. So we decided to try and work out something with the television company and Iowa theaters." There's also a possibility of piping the game to South Bend for the Notre Dame fans who couldn't get tickets.

Gophers To Decide

As for bringing TV to the field house for the Iowa-Gopher tilt, Blommers said "we'll have to wait and see what Minnesota says."

If the Big Ten, NCAA, Minnesota, Notre Dame and Iowa OK the plans and if the TV company can get its equipment set up in time, possibly 100,000 more fans would be able to see both the Minnesota and Notre Dame games.

Student Scalps Ticket, Fined

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — A University of Wisconsin student said in superior court Monday it was a "widespread" practice of Wisconsin football players to sell tickets they get free for grid

ISC Works Lightly For Missouri Game

AMES (AP) — The Iowa State football squad was let off with a light workout Monday, and members of the coaching staff said plans call for continued fairly light work in preparing for the Missouri game there Saturday.

Archie Steele of the Cyclone staff scouted Missouri last Saturday, said Head Coach Vince DiFrancesca. "According to his reports they have size, a good line and two good quarterbacks — Eaton and Scardino."

"Besides these two men they have two very good fullbacks — Bauman and Schoonmaker."

The indications were that the Cyclones would be well prepared physically for Missouri.

There was only one serious casualty. End Barney Allemen suffered a gash on the knee in last Saturday's Colorado game and the cut required 12 stitches to close it. It was indefinite whether he could play against Missouri.

Halfback Gary Lutz was expected to be in shape for next Saturday, after missing the Colorado game because of a shoulder injury.

The student, Robert Halloran, New Bedford, Mass., charged with ticket scalping, told Acting Superior Judge Donald Katz that he sold a ticket to the Wisconsin-Purdue game Friday night for $12 for his roommate, David Howard, Mandovi, sophomore end on the Badger squad.

Halloran told the judge that the practice of players selling tickets was widespread and he did not figure he was doing anything wrong.

"I think there is a sufficient amount of this going on among football players and around the state," Katz said in imposing a $10 fine, "and in your case, I think there were mitigating circumstances."

Guy Sundt, University of Wisconsin athletic director, said that university football players get from two to six tickets each for games but that the department was unaware of what they do with them.

"We assume they are for relatives and friends," Sundt said. He added that sophomore members of the team get two complimentary tickets, juniors four and seniors six.

Halloran said that he sold the ticket for Howard and did not profit from the proceeds of the sale himself. Howard was with Halloran in court but did not testify.

Halloran was one of four men arrested in ticket scalping charges by Madison police. The other three were not involved with player tickets.

Gophers To Play On Same Card With Hawk Cagers

CHICAGO (AP) — Iowa and Minnesota will play Loyola and De Paul, respectively, to open the Chicago stadium basketball doubleheader program Dec. 4.

Iowa was already scheduled to play Loyola the same night, in a single game, and the second game was added to feature four top teams.

Announcement of the stadium's opening card was made Monday by Arthur Morse, manager of athletics at De Paul. De Paul is sponsoring the stadium basketball series for the 17th season.

Sports Views

By Gene Ingle—Daily Iowan Sports Editor

At least Iowa came away from Columbus with one victory: a win in the tall corn contest staged before the game. Iowa Secretary of State Melvin D. Synhorst took a stalk of corn measuring 26 feet, nine inches to the football game Saturday.

The best Ohio's Secretary of State Ted Brown had to offer was a stalk 14½ feet high, presented to him by Fred Collier, a fellow Ohioan. The best Brown could grow in his back yard was just a little over 13 feet high.

The 120-piece Ohio State band performed before the game, during halftime along with Iowa's Scottish Highlanders, and after the game. Decked in blue and white uniforms similar to those the Iowa band wears, the Buckeye musicians went through formations of IOWA, CAR, DOG, HOT DOG, POP BOTTLE, GIRL, CAMERA, AIRPLANE, REFEREE, OHIO MONOGRAM.

The band also played scurrie on the gridiron before the game. But the most stirring moment of the whole rainy afternoon was the band's closing number at halftime. "Carmen Ohio," OSU's alma mater, was played. The crowd was more reverent than during the playing of the Star Spangled Banner at the start of the game.

The newly-formed Iowa card section could take a few lessons from the OSU card section. It went through many varieties of formations Saturday, including superbly executed displays of Herky the Hawk and OSU.

Capt. Binkey Broeder's secret pep talk Saturday morning reminded me of 1952 when it leaked out that Capt. Bill Fenton had fired his teammates up in a similar pep talk before the game.

Of course all of us know that that pep talk was successful for the Hawkeyes went on to upset the Buckeyes, 8-0, in a loss that kept Ohio State from going to the Rose Bowl that year.

There seemed to be much resentment among Ohio fans after the game of Iowa "stealing" the three Steubenville lads, Frank Gilliam, Cal Jones and Eddie Vincent. Evidently not satisfied with the 20-14 score, one Ohio State fan remarked after the game "We wudda murdered 'em if it hadn't been for those three Ohio players (Jones, Gilliam, Vincent)."

All three, in my estimation, played a great game. The Ohio fan may have been right. That's not saying the rest of the team didn't put it off. It did. But those three—the three prep stars from the southern Ohio town—were standouts. Jones, playing a defense new to him (Evashevski had him playing head on with the opposing center), diagnosed many plays perfectly and the Ohio linemen also knew they had faced a tough lineman when the game was over.

Vincent was shaken up early in the second half when he made a jarring tackle of Buckeye Bobby Watkins. However, he came back in the game to play just as brilliantly as before.

OSU Coach Woody Hayes praised the third member of the Steubenville trio, Frank Gilliam, after the game, saying "He is a tricky end. He about drove us crazy with his fakes."

One of the most disheartening sights of the game came after the final whistle had sounded. Ohio State players had rushed off the bench, helmets flying into the air, to hoist Hayes to their shoulders and carry him to the dressing room. Evashevski, as is customary with the losing coach, walked toward Hayes to shake hands. He had to fight his way through the Ohio State players and fans to do it.

It was a proud but disappointed Evashevski who then walked by himself to the Iowa dressing room as the fans were filing out of the mammoth double-deck stadium. His team was beaten and he knew it. But he also knew that he had one of the most valiant teams in the country. A team that had come so close and was yet so far away.

Peoria Caterpillars Detained on Trip

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — The Peoria Caterpillars, U. S. representatives in the second world basketball championship, have been delayed in arrival here by plane trouble, it was announced Monday.

Their plane developed trouble en route from Lima, Peru, and was sidetracked to LaPez, Bolivia. Another plane left Rio Monday to pick up the Americans, as well as the Peruvian team on the same plane.

The tournament opens Saturday, and Peoria has been made the favorite this time. Other nations considered to have the best chance of pulling an upset are Brazil, Canada and Uruguay. Yugoslavia, Chile, China, France, Israel, Paraguay, and The Philippines also are entered.

LEGACY

Terry Brennan, new Notre Dame football coach, is the son of a Notre Dame griddler. His father was the center on the 1909 team.

Johnstone, Iowa Athletic Official, Is Recovering

HARLAN (AP) — William R. Johnstone, 53, Council Bluffs, one of Iowa's best known athletic officials was reported in satisfactory condition in a Harlan hospital Monday after being injured in a car upset.

Shelby County Sheriff Orrell Gearheart said Johnstone's car left Highway 64 a mile south of Harlan about 9 p.m. Saturday, and rolled over four or five times, pinning Johnstone face down underneath the overturned car. He lay undiscovered until 7 o'clock the following morning, the sheriff said.

Johnstone suffered several broken ribs, a puncture wound in the back and lacerations and shock.

Johnstone, currently employed by the Iowa Liquor Control Commission, is a former mayor of Boone, Iowa.

Brechler To Speak At Grid Banquets

Iowa Athletic Director "Dr. Paul Brechler will be the featured speaker at two annual football banquets in the heart of the West Virginia high school football country Oct. 19 and '20.

Brechler's "Are Athletics Headed for Disaster?" talk will be presented to high school alumni and friends in both Wheeling and St. Clairsville. Both towns have the banquets in honor of the high school coaches of their respective areas.

"I understand," Brechler said, "that there are 50 high schools that play football within a 25-mile area of Wheeling."

In years past the featured speakers have included such notables as K. L. (Tug) Wilson Western conference commissioner; Arch Ward, sports editor of the Chicago Tribune, and Edward (Moose) Krause, athletic director at Notre Dame.

Homecoming Parade, Dolphin Show Planned

A trace of frost and autumn leaves are sure signs on the SUI campus that the colorful Homecoming weekend, scheduled for Nov. 5-6, is drawing near.

The 43-year-old tradition at SUI includes informal alumni reunions, a parade of floats, bands and campus organizations, plus the Dolphin water show and selection of a Dolphin Queen and capped by a gridiron struggle between the Hawkeyes and the Purdue Boilermakers.

There will be plenty of music in the pre-football game parade as the Homecoming committee plans to have 15 bands in the line of march. "The response from bands wishing to participate in the event has been exceptionally good" says Leonard Breka, office manager of the SUI business office and chairman of band entries.

Homecoming badges will go on sale Nov. 1. "We sold 13,000 badges last year," said Wendle Kerr, SUI station pharmacist and chairman of the badge committee, "and this year we placed an order for 15,000 badges." Kerr points out that, in the past, "many alumni have mailed in orders for batches of the badges. We're glad to accommodate all such mail orders." The badges will sell for 25 cents each.

The 1954 Homecoming corn monument, designed by John Becic, 23, Windsor, Ontario, Canada, will be erected Nov. 3. The monument will be burned if Iowa defeats Purdue in the football game, following tradition. The monument is a 30-foot tall, black and gold replica of the hawk. On the wings will be written "Iowa 1954" and "Homecoming." Large black letters will

Ancient Celebration Observed by Jews

Jews all over the world are celebrating the Feast of the Tabernacles, Succoth, Prof. Frederick P. Bargeburr of the school of religion and director of Hillel foundation, said this week.

The Feast of the Tabernacles, or Feast of Booths, is the third of the ancient Hebrew festivals. It began on the eve of Oct. 11 and will continue through Oct. 20. An additional feast called Simchat Torah will be celebrated Oct. 21.

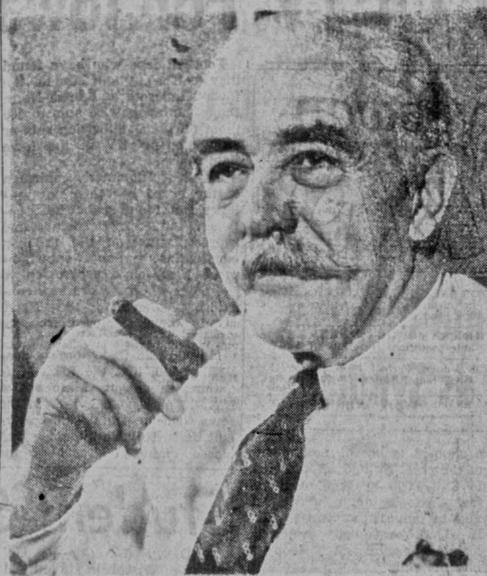

Simchat Torah, translated rejoicing in the law, marks the end of the yearly cycle of the reading of the Pentateuch and signifies the immediate beginning of another cycle. The Pentateuch is the first five books of the Bible.

The feast is a joyous occasion to Jews all over the world, Prof. Bargeburr said. The Torah scrolls are carried in varying processions around the synagogues with the singing of Psalms.

The Feast of the Booths marks the celebration following the harvesting of the crops and the spiritual and physical preparation for the life in the rainy season. The rain on which all vegetation is expected at this time of the year, and solemn prayers are recited at this time.

Varieties of leaves and fruit are displayed and green booths are erected in the Jewish gar-
