Russian Leaders To Meet With Tito

Huston Gets Post As Psychiatry Head

Dr. Paul E. Huston, professor of psychiatry, will become head of the department of psychiatry in the SUI college of medicine July 1, it was announced Friday.

The Iowa state board of education approved Dr. Huston's appointment Friday at its meeting in Council Bluffs.

Dr. Huston's appointment will enable Dr. Wilbur R. Miller, now director of the SUI Psychopathic hospital and head of the department of psychiatry, to devote full time to his hospital, administrative work, teaching and treatment.

Dr. Paul E. Huston
Appointed Psychiatry Head

At SUI Since 1940

A member of the SUI medical staff since 1940, Dr. Huston is now assistant director of the Psychopathic hospital.

Dr. Miller explained Friday that his staff has desired the change in administrative organization for some time. "We have wanted an organizational arrangement in which greater individual attention could be given to these two areas," he said.

Dr. Norman E. Nelson, dean of the college of medicine, commented that the new arrangement "will relieve Dr. Miller of the double role he has shouldered for many years."

National Committee

This spring Dr. Huston completed five years as a member of the committee on psychiatric training in the National Institute of Mental Health. He was consultant in the evaluation of the training program of the institute and the U.S. public health service.

Dr. Huston received a Ph.D. degree in psychology from Harvard university in 1937 and his

Says Russia Cutting U.S. Bomber Lead

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon sounded a warning Friday that Russia is cutting in this country's lead in the production of jet powered atomic hydrogen bombers.

The appraisal was contained in a cryptic statement issued by the defense department with White House approval. It was based on an analysis of air force intelligence reports made after the Soviets recently flew groups of inter-continental type bombers over Moscow.

Defense officials were officially silent about the reason for putting out such an intelligence report at this time. But it was known that some Pentagon quarters have become nettled by criticisms of both the defense program and the information which has been made available about it by the present administration.

A Pentagon spokesman said two flights of heavy bombers, believed to be the equivalent of the B52 heavy jet plane which is now in production for the U.S. air force, passed over Moscow prior to May day. He said there were eight of the huge planes in one flight and 10 in the other.

It was only last year that the Soviets displayed what was believed to be the prototype of these bombers, and this led U.S. intelligence to expect that some time would be required to get them into production.

The first U.S. B52 flew in October, 1952, but it was only recently that the air force announced the first Strategic Air Command to get them would have the new giants later this year.

Sheriff's Wife Gets Prisoners' Bouquet

NEWTON (AP) — The prisoners in the Jasper county jail hope Mrs. Ed Scoville, wife of the sheriff, will return soon. They miss her cooking.

As proof that they think of her not only at meal time five prisoners asked Scoville to take enough money out of their belongings to buy a dozen red roses.

The roses were presented to Mrs. Scoville Friday at Iowa Lutheran hospital in Des Moines where she is a patient.

State Board OK's 4 SUI Staff Changes

Prof. Gladys Scott Friday was approved as chairman of the SUI department of physical education for women by the Iowa state board of education.

The board also confirmed three other SUI staff appointments as it completed a two-day meeting at Council Bluffs.

They were:

Reuben S. Macy, X-ray technician at University hospitals since 1928, as chief technician in the department of radiology of the college of medicine.

Dr. Wilbur Miller as director of the SUI Psychopathic hospital.

Dr. Paul E. Huston as head of the department of psychiatry in the SUI college of medicine.

Miss Scott will replace Prof. Elizabeth Halsey as head of the department. Miss Halsey plans to retire in August. Miss Scott has been a member of the SUI staff since 1934.

Miss Halsey has been head of the women's physical education department since she came to SUI in 1924. In this time, the department enrollment has grown from a few students to more than 100 per year.

She received her B.A. from the University of Chicago in 1911, his master's degree from Wellesley college in 1923, and her doctorate from Michigan in 1939.

Miss Halsey is a past president of both the Central and National Associations of Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

Reds Take Over As French Troops Leave Haiphong

DO SON PENINSULA, Below Haiphong, North Indochina (AP) — Ten thousand picked soldiers of Ho Chi-Minh from four elite divisions which crushed the French at Dien Bien Phu occupied Haiphong Friday night and placed it under martial law.

Air and telegraphic communication with the free world was cut off. A spreading police hunt among north Indochina's 13 million residents for anyone suspected of "collaboration" with Ho's enemies was extended into the port of Haiphong.

In the last hours of the French withdrawal, their commander, Gen. Rene Cogny, landed by helicopter on the Quay Pasquier where troops were boarding transports and thanked them for their "hard and courageous fight."

He told them they had not lost the war against communism — that this was done in diplomatic maneuvering that ended in the Geneva peace settlement, calling for surrender of all north Indochina down to the 17th parallel to the Vietminh.

By Monday morning, the Vietminh will take over four little islands in the bay and the Do Son peninsula, writing the end to the last vestige of French control in north Indochina.

Before the last of the French expeditionary corps had left, an order was broadcast for the people to engage in self-denunciation — and to denounce others who had helped in the fight against Ho.

Peiping radio announced that Vietminh troops reached the wharf area and "Haiphong was completely liberated" at 4 p.m. Friday.

Attention Finkbine

Residents of Finkbine Park are asked by the military department to keep their children away from the area behind Finkbine Park today. The ROTC department will be firing blank ammunition in this area.

GREATER COVERAGE

SALEM, Ore. (AP) — The Northwest Sunbathing association — a nudist group — will have an exhibit at the Oregon state fair again this year. The state fair board approved but said they've got to leave more to the imagination. Last year nudist literature and colored slides attracted much attention and brought protests from churches.

Kremlin Boss Khrushchev Greeted in Poland

KREMLIN BIG SHOTS attending the celebration in Poland of the 10th anniversary of signing of the "Treaty of Friendship and Mutual Aid" between that nation and the USSR are shown greeted in Warsaw. From left Konstantin Rokossovsky, marshal of the Soviet Union and also marshal of Poland; Soviet Marshal L. Koniev; Nikita S. Khrushchev, Kremlin boss as secretary of the central committee of the Communist party in the Soviet; Boleslaw Bierut, secretary of the central committee of the Polish united workers party.

Reds, West Split on Arms Control Point

WASHINGTON (AP) — A dozen disarmament documents released Friday night showed Russia and the Allies as far apart as ever on the question of controls to make sure nobody cheats.

The hitherto secret documents showed fundamental agreement on many counts by all five member nations of the United Nations disarmament commission which has been meeting at London since Feb. 25.

But they also showed a wide gap on the issue of ironclad guarantees.

West Wants Agency

The West wants a control agency in being, with wide powers to go anywhere and check up on anything, before the first gun is scrapped under any disarmament program.

Russia continues vague about the powers of a control agency. Indeed, the Soviets argue that nations distrust each other so much they would not stand for unlimited inspections, so controls are "mere formalities" and raise false hopes of security.

The split was wide open on this key point — one so vital that American officials said agreement could be reached on every other issue and the talks could founder on that point alone.

Reds Conceded

But the documents, when compared with a Soviet disarmament plan being ballyhooed by the Kremlin, show at least four major concessions by the Russians.

It was because of the ballyhoo that the documents were released. Under terms of a United Nations resolution of last Nov. 4, five nations have been meeting in secret disarmament talks at London. That is, they have been considered secret by the United States, Britain, France and Canada. But Russia broke silence three times — the latest being last Tuesday when it broadcast its 5,000-word disarmament plan to the world minutes after proposing it at London.

The 12 documents released Friday night came as a sort of Western reply to the Soviets' attitude toward the secrecy pledge.

These were the latest developments in the 6-month-old controversy between the Peon administration and the Church.

The measure on education now goes to President Peron for expected signature.

The controversy started when Peron accused some members of clergy attempting to set up an opposition political party and undermine his regime. The Church denied the charge. Thirty-three priests have been arrested since then on various charges.

Taylor To Get Top Army Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower named Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, 54, Friday as army chief of staff to succeed Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, who has decided to retire after bucking at the President's idea of a smaller atomic-age army.

Mr. Eisenhower's new choice is now commander in the far east.

Ridgway notified the army he intends to retire from active duty on June 30 — a month and a half before his term is up as army chief of staff. He reached the 60-year age limit for general officers last March 31, but was allowed to continue on his two-year term under a provision which permits the retention of a certain number of retirement-age generals. This had Mr. Eisenhower's approval.

To Retire June 30

However, last Monday Ridgway informed the army's adjutant general that he desired to be retired June 30, when he will have completed 38 years' service.

Ridgway, in recent appearances before congressional committees considering the military manpower budget, has said he complies with the decisions of his superiors. But in speeches and discussions elsewhere, he has said that the dispersal requirements of an atomic battlefield will call for more, not fewer soldiers.

Leinitzer Succeeds Taylor

Taylor is commander in chief of U.S. and allied forces in the Far East. Eisenhower selected Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer to succeed him in that post.

Reports, which have persisted without denial from the general, are that Ridgway will become a corporation executive after his military retirement.

Peron's Regime Hits Church Again

BUENOS AIRES, Argentine (AP) — Congress struck two blows Friday at the Roman Catholic church. The house completed legislative action on a bill abolishing Catholic religious education in the public schools. The senate approved a bill canceling tax exemption for religious bodies.

These were the latest developments in the 6-month-old controversy between the Peon administration and the Church.

The measure on education now goes to President Peron for expected signature.

The controversy started when Peron accused some members of clergy attempting to set up an opposition political party and undermine his regime. The Church denied the charge. Thirty-three priests have been arrested since then on various charges.

U.S. Newsman Killed in Riot

SINGAPORE (AP) — A score of new strikes hit Singapore Friday in the wake of rioting — officially described as conforming closely to a Communist pattern — that cost the lives of American correspondent Gene Symonds and two Chinese.

All the British colony's bus transport and a large section of its industry was paralyzed, though the violence that flared Thursday slackened off. The British moved thousands of steel-helmeted Gurkha and Malayan troops into emergency positions.

In Washington, a spokesman said the U.S. state department is "greatly grieved and shocked" at reports of the death of Symonds, United Press manager for Southeast Asia. A decision on whether a protest will be made, he said, will have to await further details.

Mrs. Pownall Gets Journalism Award

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Mrs. Dorothy Ashby Pownall Iowa City, was one of five Iowa winners in the annual writers' contest sponsored by the National Federation of Press Women.

Miss Pownall received third place for the woman's department of the Iowa City Press Citizen. Her husband, Fred Pownall, is publisher of The Daily Iowan.

Miss Patty Johnson, women's editor of the Waterloo Daily Courier received four first place awards. Another first place award went to Miss Mary Ellen Kelly of Marcus for a biographical article in the Woman's Home Companion.

Belgrade Meeting Set For This Month

MOSCOW (Saturday) (AP) — The Soviet government announced today Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev and Premier Nikolai Bulganin are going to call on Yugoslav President-Marshal Tito in Belgrade this month.

The meeting would be before the expected "summit" conference of Bulganin, President Eisenhower, Prime Minister Eden and Premier Faure.

Tito's independent Communist nation has been estranged from the Kremlin since his historic break with the Soviet-directed cominform in 1948.

The U.S. state department in Washington said it had no comment to make on the development. It was learned, however, that the Yugoslav government had advised the United States Friday of the impending meeting and said it reflected no change in Yugoslavia's policy of good and cordial relations with the West.

The announcement said Khrushchev and Bulganin would go to Belgrade with other Soviet officials at the end of May.

New Attitude

In recent months, however, there has been a new attitude, with both sides seeking to "normalize" relations. Tito had never ceased to insist that he would stick up for his independence.

The announcement listed First Deputy Premier Anastase Mikoyan, the Soviet Union's veteran expert on foreign trade, and the deputy foreign trade minister, Pavel Kumiynin, as members of the Soviet delegation. Though Mikoyan recently was relieved as minister of trade and made a deputy premier, his inclusion indicated trade would be one of the main subjects discussed.

The other two members of the delegation are Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Gromyko, and Dimitri Shapiliev, who is chairman of the Foreign Affairs commission of the supreme Soviet's chamber of nationalities, or house of parliament. Shapiliev also is editor of Pravda, the Communist party newspaper.

Received U. S. Aid

Since the 1948 break with the Communist cominform, Yugoslavia has received many millions of dollars of economic and military aid from the United States, and has joined in a mutual military assistance pact with Turkey and Greece, two members of the North Atlantic defense treaty. Tito also patched up his quarrel with Italy, another NATO member, over Trieste territory.

Through all this, however, Tito insisted upon a role of strict independence — of the West as well as of Moscow.

There has been no indication of willingness on his part to come to Moscow to discuss the differences that have separated him from the Kremlin. So the agreement of the Soviet leaders to journey to Belgrade looked something like the mountain going to Mohammed.

Among numerous questions raised was what advantage Russia hoped to gain from the Belgrade talks for use in a Big Four parley at the summit.

5,000 'Flee' Mock Attack

FORREST CITY, Ark. (AP) — An eerie stillness, a feeling of emptiness settled over this little town in the east Arkansas flatlands Friday after about 5,000 children, fleeing from a mock air attack on Memphis, flooded in for refuge.

Martial law reigned for four hours while Forrest City went through the motions of feeding and sheltering a hungry and frightened horde.

The purpose of Operation Able was a mass evacuation in reverse. For the first time a drill was designed to find out what happens to evacuees after they flee from a metropolis.

National Guard troops, armed with rifles, stalked through the downtown area. All traffic was cleared from the streets. State police stopped all highway traffic in and out of Forrest City. Jet bombers and fighters roared low overhead.

Radiation crews worked feverishly to determine the extent of possible fallout from the imaginary bomb dropped on Memphis, 43 miles to the east.

Core Tests To Start Monday

Tests designed to measure the liberal educations of SUI students will begin Monday, Dean Dewey B. Stuit of the college of liberal arts said Friday.

All students enrolled in liberal arts core courses or substitutes for core courses are required to take tests in appropriate areas.

Tests in five liberal arts areas will be administered during the next three weeks. They will be in the fields of the social science, physical and biological sciences, literature and history.

Course instructors will announce the dates of the tests, Stuit said.

The tests are designed to determine the value of the core courses and their substitutes. They are financed by a Ford Foundation grant.

By RUSSELL TOKHEIM
Members of Westminster fellowship, religious organization for Presbyterian students on the SUI campus, are the "parents" of a five-year-old Korean girl.
The group recently adopted the child and sends $10 each month to the orphanage where she lives. This amount is nearly enough for all the expenses of keeping a Korean orphan for a month.
This is but one project of Westminster fellowship which has its home in First Presbyterian church at 26 E. Market st. The Rev. Dr. P. Hewison Pollock, pastor of the church, is director of Westminster foundation and the Rev. Jerome Leska is associate director and university pastor.

Direct Program
These men direct the program of activities for Presbyterian students. The group's facilities are located in a three-year-old addition to the church and they share the use of the church basement.

The Rev. Mr. Leska said that the purpose of the Westminster fellowship is to help students relate the gospel to life and conduct, to help students grow in understanding of Christian faith, to help students mature in faith and intellectual knowledge at the same time, and to provide a church home with Christian fellowship away from home.
Activities
Activities of the group during this year included being host to Student Day of Prayer and serving desserts to students from other groups which participated in the service. Students from Westminster have led Danforth chapel services twice this semester, the weeks of Jan. 24-28 and April 12-15.

In November a group of 12 students and the Rev. Mr. Leska made a two day study-trip to Chicago where they made a tour of Chicago's skid row, visited Lawndale church, in a "transient" area of the city, and visited Mc-Cormick seminary.

At Easter members participated in "One Great Hour of Sharing" with an offering, sacrificial meal and self-denial program. Part of the money raised this way was set aside for support of the Korean orphan.
Retreats
Westminster fellowship sponsors annual spring and fall retreats for its officers and other members of the fellowship. The 1955 spring retreat is being held today in Kepler state park at Palsades on the Cedar river. At this retreat, which began Friday evening, the program for the next academic year is being planned. This semester 848 SUI students listed the Presbyterian church as their preference.
The regular meetings of the Westminster foundation include Westminster fellowship which meets each Sunday evening at 5 for its program. A student cost supper is served by a student committee at 6 p.m. Fellowship singing and informal recreation round out Sunday evening activities.
Medic Bible
Every Wednesday at 5 p.m. the Rev. Mr. Pollock leads a unique Bible class, the Medic Bible class, at the Medical Laboratories building. Westminster choir, composed almost entirely of students, sings at both Sunday morning services of First Presbyterian church. The ladies of the church serve lunch to the choir between the two morning services.
A "Workshop on Marriage" was held at Westminster foundation recently. Topics of the series were: "Dating," "Engagement and Marriage" and "Christian Family Life."
During the year two deputations teams were sent out by the Westminster foundation. One went to Springfield where they presented the morning worship and gave a program at the meeting of the youth group at that church. The other group went to Muscatine where they presented a program on missions at a night school of the Presbyterian church there.
March 11, "Copper Capers," the annual Westminster penny carnival was held. Merchandise donated by local merchants was auctioned and the proceeds went to World Student Christian federation.

New Disciples Student Center Proposed

A new building housing the Disciples student center and other functions of the First Christian church was proposed this week by William T. Peary of Indianapolis, Ind., executive secretary of the board of church extension of the Disciples of Christ.
Peary made a preliminary survey of the First Christian church property at 217 Iowa ave., and gave his recommendations to a committee on future planning at the church.
Peary also reported that his survey of the financial potential of the church membership indicated such a building project could be started within the next few years.
He said substantial assistance could be expected from the 300 churches of the Iowa Society of Christian Churches because of the student work done by the local church.
He said that the extension board could help with architecture and financial procedure.
The local planning committee will meet May 25 to consider the report. Elwin Shain is chairman of the committee.
Committee members who were present to hear the recommendations this week were Mrs. Eldon Miller, Mrs. Frank Roberts, Leroy Spencer, Dean Jones, Prof. Allan Vestal and the Rev. A. C. Hoffrichter.
Other committee members are Harold H. Hill, Dr. Chester I. Miller, C. W. Wilel, Gilbert Frits and Mrs. Helen Gay.

Raise Debt Limit

The group adopted an amendment raising to $500,000 the debt limit which diocesan trustees of funds and donations may incur. It is through this fund that mission churches may borrow from local banks for repairs, purchase of land and building with its property remaining in the name of the trustees. A Sioux City delegate said, "To me and to many others, $150,000 as a debt limit for the trustees is ridiculous."
Instead of "the conservative banker attitude," he urged that the limit be extended to permit extension of the Episcopal church everywhere needed.

Billy Graham Would Preach To the Reds

LONDON (AP) — American evangelist Billy Graham said this week he should like to preach behind the Iron Curtain but that arrangements would have to be "suitable."
His reply came to a news conference question whether he would accept an invitation which Hungarian churchmen were considering for revival meetings behind the Iron Curtain.
Meanwhile, Graham was worried over Wembley stadium's 100,000 empty seats.
Tonight he starts a seven-day religious revival in the vast amphitheater, where the Olympic games were contested in 1948. He said he is not at all sure enough Londoners will care to hear him and his message to warrant use of such a big place.

Takes Two To Take a Fly Ball

CATCHER BOB WILSON, left, and first baseman J. W. Porter of the Detroit Tigers work together to take in a foul pop off the bat of Yankee outfielder Hank Bauer, in the first inning of the game at Yankee stadium Friday. Wilson had his glove on the ball first and was credited with the put out. The Yankees won, 5-2.

Yankees Win, 5-2, On Mantle's Homers

NEW YORK (AP) — Mickey Mantle showed his prowess as a switch hitter Friday by cracking out three home runs, two from the left side of the plate and the third from the right, as he led the New York Yankees to a 5-2 victory over the Detroit Tigers.

This was the first time in his five-year major league career that the Yankee centerfielder had ever hit three home runs in one game, and the first time he had ever homered from both sides of the plate in a single game.

Mantle drove in all the Yankee runs in Friday's game. He became the 108th player in the major league to hit three homers in one game. He now has hit 10 homers this season.

Whitey Ford, the Yankee left-hander, subdued the Tigers until the seventh when Ray Boone hit his fifth homer of the year with J. W. Porter on base for the only Tiger runs. Ford allowed only three hits.

He was responsible for all the Yankee runs. He hit his eighth home run of the season in the first, scoring Andy Carey who had bunted.

In the third his single to center scored Hank Bauer, who had also beaten out a bunt. Mantle lofted his second homer of the game in the fifth with the bases empty. Both of these were off the Tiger starter and loser, Steve Gromek, a righthander.

Then in the eighth, with Bob Miller, a lefthander, in the box, Mantle lashed his third homer.

Hint New Contract To Reward Jones For No-Hit Game

CHICAGO (AP) — Friday the 13th found Sad Sam Jones just about the most carefree man in baseball.

The city was still agog over the stirring no-hitter pitched by the Chicago Cubs' rookie star Thursday in beating the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4-0.

And with the glory, came promise of extra gold for the glittering performance by the 29-year-old Jones. A bonus for individual feats is banned by baseball law, but the Cubs said the first no-hitter in 38 National league seasons here "will be recognized properly."

A new contract was hinted although personnel director Wid Matthews said at the moment he didn't know what the Cubs could or would do relative to tearing up Sam's present pact.

Although recovered from an ailing arm which caused the Cleveland Indians to plant him in Indianapolis, Jones had to dicker considerably for a Cub contract believed around $7,500 yearly.

Bonuses were voted out after Brooklyn paid Carl Erskine $500 for his no-hitter against the Cubs in 1952.

Jones, who has a two-hitter to his credit this season, now must be regarded the ace of the Cub staff, replacing big Bob Rush who has held that distinction for several years. Jones has a 4-3 record compared with 1-2 for Rush.

Handshake by Giles
The fame so suddenly thrust on perhaps the quietest man on the Cub squad included a clubhouse handshake by National league President Warren Giles, who appeared at Wrigley field about the fourth inning after a flight from Cincinnati.

"I never hope to see another finish like that one," said Giles, referring to Jones' striking out the Pittsburgh side after walking the bases full in the tense and dramatic ninth inning.

Jones' wife, Mary, who begged Sam to give up baseball three years ago because of his bursitis-stricken pitching arm, Friday was en route to visit the man who is the toast of Chicago. She was bringing their two children, Sam Jr., 3, and Michael, 19 months.

Bock's Hit Wins For Hawks

A three-run double by catcher Don Bock in the seventh inning led Iowa to a 4-2 victory over Indiana here Friday.

The four run rally started when third baseman Ken Kurtz reached first on an error. Ralph Walters, who hit for Ken Meek, singled to center. Sharm Scheuerman bunted the ball. The catcher made the play on Kurtz coming into third but he was safe.

Then Bock hit his base clearing double over the leftfielder's head.

Scores 4th Run
Bock moved to third on an error on the throw in from the outfield and scored Iowa's fourth run when Indiana pitcher Albin Hayes dropped the ball while delivering a pitch to rightfielder Babe Hawthorne.

Iowa used three Indiana errors and two hits to score its four runs in the seventh.

Hayes, who pitched five hit ball, had a three-hitter going till the seventh.

Winner Bill Schoof allowed the Hoosiers nine hits. He was helped by four Iowa double plays in the first six innings.

Indiana scored its first run on three singles in the second. First baseman Jay Applegate, the Hoosiers' leading hitter at .371, singled to center.

Centerfielder Art Herring also singled. They were advanced on a sacrifice by shortstop Chick Mead. Second baseman Sam Reed then singled between short and third to score Applegate. Iowa retired the side with a double play.

In the fourth, Indiana scored its second run. Applegate walked, stole second and went to third on a fly to the outfield. Mead singled to center to score Applegate.

The Hoosiers threatened in almost every inning, but their rallies were cut short by Iowa's four double plays.

After two Indiana pinch-hitters were retired in the ninth, Bock split his thumb on a pitch in the dirt. He was replaced by Jerry Leber.

Lead-off man Neal Skeeters was safe on an error by second baseman Ron Capps. Schoof then walked Duffy Franklin, who had replaced Jerry Lind in leftfield.

Hawthorne made a running catch on Dick Jones' fly to short right to end the game.

The Hawkeyes are scheduled to close their Big Ten home season today with a double header against third place Ohio State. The first game will start at 1:30 p.m. Ohio State defeated Minnesota, 4-3, Friday.

Coach Otto Vogel has indicated that Ron Schaefer and left hander Bill Dugan will probably start for Iowa.

In the seventh he doubled to the left field fence to drive in three runs. Schoof went all the way for Iowa picking up his second conference victory. Iowa will face Ohio State in a double header here today.

May's Homer Gives 4-3 Victory To Giants

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Willie Mays' 10th-inning homer gave the New York Giants their fourth straight victory Friday, a 4-3 triumph over St. Louis in a game in which the Cardinals had two men thrown out at the plate, one under weird circumstances.

Mays' clout came off Harvey Haddix, ace St. Louis southpaw who now has suffered five defeats against only one victory.

Haddix, striking out 10, yielded just two of the Giants' nine hits after the third inning.

Over the last eight innings lefty John (Windy) McCall, replacing Don Liddle, was so puzzling that St. Louis collected only two hits, one of which was a third-inning triple by Red Schoendienst. That hit created a tie that continued until the 10th.

The Cardinals strangely missed a scoring chance in the first inning after Liddle had loaded the bases with two walks and a single by Stan Musial.

With one out Schoendienst lifted a fly to right field in front of Monte Irvin, who caught the ball on one hop for an apparent run-scoring single. However, Solly Hemus had retreated to third to tag up and was forced at the plate on Irvin's strong, accurate throw to catcher Ray Katt.

In the second inning after Haddix's single and two walks loaded the bases Musial delivered a two-out double that scored two runs, but Bill Virdon was out trying to tally from first base, Mays to Alvin Dark to Katt.

After spending more than an hour in a closed session with General Manager Joe Cronin, the 36-year old lefthand slugger posed amiably for photographers and held an informal news conference.

By mid afternoon, Ted was banging drives into the seats at the site of many of his historic baseball feats.

Hour Workout
Williams, who arrived by early morning plane from Miami, got right to work throwing the ball and batting once his signature was affixed and the news-men dispatched. He worked out for about an hour.

"I really don't know how long it took me on previous occasions to come back," Williams said, referring to his other comebacks — Marine service hitches and his broken collar bone last spring.

"We figure they might not want me around after this year," Williams replied.

Believe Salary Same
As usual the salary figure was not mentioned, but on a pro rata basis, it is believed Williams will receive in the vicinity of $70,000 of the $85,000 he would have been paid for a full season.

"My aim is to get into shape as fast as I can," he continued. "I think the things that will take the longest to round into shape will be my arms and legs."

"I'm not particularly overweight. I weigh about 210 — probably 10 pounds over my playing weight last year."

Dodgers Blast Braves, 6-2, for 23d Victory

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Brooklyn Dodgers got back into their groove of slam-bang baseball Friday and walloped the Milwaukee Braves 6-2.

Junior Gilliam and Roy Campanella hit homers which brought in three runs.

Billy Loes was the winner, hurling a seven-hitter for his fourth season victory against one loss.

The high-riding Dodgers picked up their 23d win and squared their two-game set with the Braves.

Gilliam hit his homer as leadoff-man in the fifth. Milwaukee starter Bob Buhl, who had given Brooklyn two runs in the preceding frame, went to the showers with the blow. Campanella slammed his four-bagger after reliever Humberto Robinson walked Duke Snider in the fifth.

Milwaukee catcher Del Crandall, who broke a string of 21 hitless trips with a 12th inning homer to beat Brooklyn Thursday night, homered again in his first trip Friday to give the Braves a brief, 1-0, lead.

Johnny Logan, on with a walk, scored Milwaukee's second run in the eighth, coming in from third while the Dodgers were making a twin killing on Hank Aaron's grounder.

243 Enter Big Ten Relays At Evanston

Special to The Daily Iowan
EVANSTON, Ill. — A field of 243 athletes will assemble at Northwestern's Dyche stadium today for the second annual Big Ten Relays. The event, which was inaugurated at Illinois last year, includes six relays, five individual races and five field events.

The program includes two unusual events, the 100 yard weight men's dash and the one and one half mile runs. The former is open to men who are competing in the shot put and discus. Joe Savoldi, Michigan State sophomore, place winner in the conference indoor shot put and high hurdles, is favored to win the event.

A crack field is entered in the 120 yard high hurdles headed by Willard Thomson of Illinois, conference indoor champion; Savoldi, Michigan State; Abe Woodson, Illinois; Les Stevens and Jack Matthews, Iowa; Ken Toye, Northwestern, and Milt Campbell, Indiana.

Northwestern's Jim Golliday, who turned in a .09.5 performance in winning the 100 yard dash in last week's triangular meet with Minnesota and Purdue, will be a heavy favorite to capture his specialty. Jet Jim also won the Drake Relays' century dash in his first outdoor competition since returning from military service.

Relay races on the 16-event program are the 440, 880, two mile, one mile, distance medley and sprint medley. Illinois, which won the 440, one mile and sprint medley last year, will defend only its sprint medley title this year.

Michigan, conference indoor champion, has entered teams in all six relays and figures as a strong contender in each. Key Wolverine runners include Pete Gray, indoor 1,000 yards and 880 champion; John Moule, one mile champion, and Ron Wallingford, two mile champion.

Michigan State, runner up in the conference indoor championships, has also entered teams in all six relays. The Spartan strength is centered in the half mile and sprint medley relays both of which include Kevan Gosper, conference 600 yard champion, and Ed Brabham, runner up in the conference 300 yard dash.

Indiana's crack one mile relay team of Mike Cusick, Jim Ely, Don Ward, and Len Robinson, winner of the conference indoor title, will be favored to repeat, although the Hoosiers will receive strong competition from Michigan and Michigan State.

Ralph Fessenden, conference 300 yard indoor champion, is the only returning member of Illinois' sprint medley championship team of last year. The Illinois quartet in this event is rounded out by Jim Neal, Woodson and Henry Cryer. Fessenden and Cryer will be joined by Dick Dintelmann and Earl Jonsson in the distance medley relay.

Minnesota, winner of the 440 yard relay at the Drake Relays, is strongly favored in that event. The Gopher entries are Harry Nash, Burrie Carmichael, Bill Garner and Jack Dryer.

Geology Building Was Dislodged by New Structures—

'Rolled' 100 Yards to Present Site in 1905

The geology building stands seemingly immovable on its hillside, like a great natural rock formation from which the earth has eroded away.

But fifty years ago the three-story red brick building, which stands on the northwest corner of Capitol and Jefferson streets, stood on the site of Macbride hall, nearly a hundred yards away.

Few on campus can remember the engineering feat by which the ponderous structure was moved in its entirety to its present location.

Teeters Recalls Move
Prof.-Emeritus Wilber J. Teeters of the SUI college of pharmacy, one who remembers the operation, said that the move took from two to three weeks. The building measures 86 by 115 feet and weighs 6,000 tons. But so smoothly was the moving job accomplished that summer session classes were held in the building "enroute."

Twenty-six carloads of boards were used to make a platform across which the structure was pushed by 30 jacks. The record speed of the imperceptibly moving structure was 17 feet in a day.

No Power Machines
The operation could be compared with building a pyramid, since the sole force used was manpower. No machines other than manually operated jacks were used.

June 15, 1905, the building was gently raised on 800 jacks and 700 rollers were placed under it. Each roller was the size of a fustic post.

To pass the old dental building the geology building had to be pivoted 45 degrees.

Classes Remained Inside
Without visible damage, the building was lowered to its new foundations across the street, its classes still studying inside.

The structure, built in 1884 at a cost of $50,600, was the fifth building on campus. At present it is second to Old Capitol in age. Originally called the Natural Science building, it held the geology, botany and zoology departments.

Move Cost $18,000
In 1905, when plans were made for Macbride, Schaeffer, and University halls and the physics building, it was decided that the science building must be torn down or moved. There was not enough money to build a new science building so it was decided to pick it up and move it.

The moving operation cost $18,000.

At present the building contains a collection of minerals and rocks, one of meteorites, topographic and geologic maps and a geology library.

THE 6,000-TON GEOLOGY BUILDING, pushed into the street in 1905 by Macbride, Schaeffer and University halls, was jacked up and rolled 100 yards to its present site. On good weeks it rolled at the rate of 17 feet a day. Classes, undisturbed, rolled along with it. The operation was completed during the summer session at a cost of $18,000.

3 Students Win Honors For International Work

Narain Rijhwani, G. Indore, India, and Sang-Un Lim, G. Seoul, Korea, Friday night were named co-winners of the Sudhindra Bose award.

The award is given annually to the SUI foreign student contributing the most to international understanding during the past year.

Sue Donelson, A2, Reinbeck, was the recipient of the Carl E. Seashore award, a similar honor for American students. The awards were presented at the SUI International club's spring banquet in the Iowa Memorial Union.

Hancher Honor to U-Club
The University club received the second Virgil M. Hancher International award, given to the person or organization which has done most to further international relations. The club organized and administered an orientation program for 70 new foreign students who came to SUI last September.

Miss Donelson is chairman of the University Women's association foreign student committee.

Phi Beta Kappa To Initiate 38

The SUI chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary scholastic fraternity, will initiate 38 Monday at 5 p.m. in Old Capitol.

Initiates will attend a dinner at the Iowa Memorial Union following the ceremony. Prof. George Mosse of the SUI history department will speak on "Educating Freshmen."

Prospective members of Phi Beta Kappa must be candidates for, or have already received a B.A. degree in the college of liberal arts, and must have maintained at least a 3.2 (B plus) scholastic average.

Ellis To Face Charge Of Drunken Driving
Quintin R. Ellis, 34, 415 Bowery st., was charged with drunken driving Friday by highway patrolmen in Iowa City police court.

Ellis waived to the Johnson county grand jury when arraigned. He was freed under $500 bond.

Ellis was arrested Thursday night after his car collided with one driven by Melvin Krall, 47, Riverside, seven miles south of Iowa City on highway 218.

California Alumni See Films of SUI

The SUI alumni association of Southern California heard, by means of a color sound film, an address by SUI President Virgil M. Hancher at its spring meeting held at the Hollywood Plaza hotel. The film explained the liberal arts program now in effect at SUI.

The group, said William Rutledge III '32, also viewed football films of last season and a color film of the campus. Rutledge, who majored in journalism, said he was particularly impressed with the Communications Center.

Association president Donald P. Chechov reported on a scholarship fund being built up to finance one student at SUI, and told of plans to entertain Mr. Hancher at the Iowa-UCLA game in California Oct. 21.

Wolfson Says 3 Seats Assured

CHICAGO (AP) — Louis Wolfson probably will have two friends to sit down with him at the directors meeting of Montgomery Ward & Co. today. One will be a woman—the first woman director in Ward's 83-year history.

This won't be enough to give the 43-year-old Florida financier control of the big mail order and retail merchandising firm. It will leave him in a minority position—three members out of a nine-man board of directors.

Wolfson Friday claimed he had won three seats on the board, including one for himself. Figures released by election inspectors on the number of valid voters cast at the April 22 stockholders meeting appeared to support Wolfson's claim.

Proxy Tally
The figures were released at a reconvened session of the stockholders meeting. The Ward management proxy committee obtained proxies for 4,033,481 shares of stock. The Wolfson proxy committee obtained proxies for 1,793,398 shares.

Wolfson's three choices for the board are himself, Alexander Rittmaster III, 38, a New York financial consultant, and Bernice FitzGibbon, a New York advertising and promotion consultant.

These three would oust three nominees on the original Ward management slate. One, Edmund A. Krider, 42, Ward's president, has resigned. Krider has withdrawn his name as a candidate for director.

Others Not Named
Ward's management would not say which other of its candidates would be dropped.

Financial circles speculated the management would drop George Eastwood, 75, retired head of Armour & Co., who now lives in Alabama, and C. H. Shaver, 56, chairman of United States Gypsum Co.

Avery, 81, retired as Ward's chairman Monday. He will continue as a director, however.
