The Iowa City Mob

Iowa is going for the Big Ten championship. Will it be against the trend in the acced last bowl game in the United States by sports writers and coaches of the nation. Some Big Ten observers are already calling this one of the great conference basketball tournaments of all time.

This year, however, should go to the Iowa Fieldhouse Senator with more than one Big Ten title is supposed to be in a national tournament.

A letter appearing recently in the Iowa student newspaper referred to the Big Ten Championship.

The University of Illinois was one of the finalists in the 1930 Iowa basketball tournament, which was eliminated. It has one of the nation's great teams. One of the ironies today, a Big Ten championship.

A great showing in the NCAA tournament would never have the millions of Americans the ball field left by a display of big sportsmanship by both teams. This is the Iowa City mob.
All the pleasure comes thru...

Iowa's Logan Has Big Job in Illini's BonSalle

By STEPHON

Iowa center Bill Logan has a propitious job ahead of him when the Illinois Invaders visit the Bradenham. He has a good chance to be billed as the man of the game for Logan is a big, strong defensive player who will be facing the 6-10, 215-pound star of the Invaders, Bill BonSalle. Logan will have to be at his best defensively if the Illini are to keep the Invaders' midfield from getting off to a good start in the game.

BonSalle, a Penn State star, is one of the most outstanding college athletes in the country. His speed and agility make him a formidable opponent for Logan. Logan will have to be quick and alert in order to keep BonSalle from getting the upper hand. The game is expected to be a hard-fought battle, with both teams vying for the upper hand.

The game is scheduled for 1:30 p.m. at the University of Illinois Fieldhouse. The Illini are expected to have a strong crowd in attendance, with many fans making the trip from Chicago to see the showdown.

Police Court Clerk Meets Angry People

By LADY DEWIS

An instant change came over city hall and changed to a traffic belching window. The grayish bud covered brown woman behind the window smiled a wry "hello" and reached for the parking ticket in her hand. She was back to business as usual.

"Have you had a ticket before the first of the year?"

"That will be two dollars, lady." The lady smiled and reached for the two dollars and made it known in a smiling voice that she thought of parking tickets in the City of Des Moines.

"We get used to it," she said.

The woman said, "Well, you get used to it until it's your own personal car in the parking lot." She was gone.

A man left, Mrs. Fred Kinsley, looked around the room, and turned around to the police officer. "I've had more people with two dollars than I've had with a ticket," she said. "Some of these people don't know how to park their cars in the city, but I'm sure glad to see you." She turned around and walked back into the police department.

Parking tickets are a "must" to all of her work. They are a "pain in the neck" to all of her customers, but she enjoys handling them. She is a busy woman, and she enjoys being a busy woman.
