To Mr. Loveless

The following editorial is written for Mr. Horace Loveless, in hopes that, if he reads it, he will take a long, hard look at his ideas concerning Iowa income and the spending of state funds.

Mr. Loveless, it is true, has long been active in local and state politics, and he has a record of success in his battles for lower taxes. However, his view of the benefits of good Federal government is fine for contemplation of the state. The influence of Federal funds is great in the state, and it is sad to see a leader in state politics unable to see this.

It is not necessarily true that the leaders of the Democratic party are able to see the benefits of Federal funds. It is true that they have been in power longer, but this does not necessarily mean that they are the better minds.

It is true that the Republican leaders have been on the wrong track, with the only economically sound suggestion being price supports. The high price during and immediately following the war is a rationalization for this.

The solution is not to be found in the price of commodities. It is to be found in the income of the people. It is to be found in the ability of the people to spend money. It is to be found in the ability of the people to buy goods and services.

Mantle Gets 46th; Braves Win

MILWAUKEE — Joe Adcock connected again, pummeling a home run off the left field wall in the third inning as he drove in three runs and sparked the Milwaukee Braves to a 4-1 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies Tuesday night.

Adcock had gone 1-for-10 in previous games while helping his team to a 1-4 record. He cracked the ball over the 350-foot wall 357 feet from home. The ball was estimated at 104 miles an hour, tying the former major league record for exit velocity.

The home run, Adcock’s third of the season, gave the National League champion Braves a 2-0 advantage. This was the only hit for the Phillies, who have lost their last two games.

Bums 11, Cubs 4

CHICAGO — Cubbie fans were treated to a batting exhibition in the form of two of baseball’s most feared sluggers. But the Philadelphia Bums were the ones who came out on top.

Charlie Cochrane, center of the Bums’ offensive punch, delivered two key hits to drive in two runs, and freshman infielder Bill Dickey knocked in three with his first hit to guide his team to an 11-4 win over the Chicago Cubs in the opening game of the National League Western Division.

The victory was the second of the season for the Bums, who improved their record to 3-1. The Cubs fell to 2-2.

Dickey, 18, from New York, a tall, slender boy, cut the deficit in the third inning to 2-1 with a two-run single. He also singled in the fifth and the seventh, finishing with four hits, a record for a Chicago debut.

Cochrane’s single in the seventh inning gave the Bums a 10-4 lead. He finished with four hits.

Reds 4, Giants 3

CINCINNATI — The light was on for the Cincinnati Reds last night as they scored four runs in the bottom of the eighth inning to beat the New York Giants, 4-3.

The Reds, who had trailed all the way, rallied for the victory in the eighth inning. They scored three runs with only one hit, the single by Bob Grim, who drove in the winning runs. The Giants scored three in the seventh inning on four hits.

Tribe Stays Eight Behind Yanks, 3-2

Cleveland 3, Baltimore 2

CLEVELAND — The Cleveland Indians stayed eight games behind the New York Yankees in the American League standings after beating the Baltimore Orioles, 3-2.

Rizzuto Rejects Cards’ Offer

NEW YORK — Yogi Berra, the New York Yankees’ manager, rejected a $100,000 offer from the Philadelphia Eagles to sign him as a pitcher.

Berra, who has been with the Yankees since 1944, expressed his desire to remain with the team. He said he would rather continue playing baseball than接受 the offer from the Eagles.

Rizzuto, who has hit .280 or better in each of his 13 seasons, said he would continue to play baseball and would not accept the offer from the Eagles.
