Sam, Lyndon Say No

Sam, Lyndon say no. The proposed national Democratic advisory council would only be a sham. The evidence of this is the fact that the council would be dominated by non-asha members, including the Republican National Committee, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, and the National Urban League. These groups have little or no interest in the welfare of the black community and are more interested in maintaining their power and influence. The council would not be a true representation of the American people.

Problems for Moscow

The Soviet Union is facing serious problems in the Middle East. The crisis in the Middle East is escalating, and the Soviet Union is being blamed for its failure to resolve the conflict. The Soviet Union has been providing military support to various factions in the region, including the PLO, which has been carrying out attacks against Israel. The Soviet Union is also facing economic problems, with the decline in oil prices affecting its revenues. Additionally, the Soviet Union is facing internal political challenges, with opposition groups calling for reform and democracy.
