

The Daily Iowan

Serving The State University of Iowa and the People of Iowa City

Established in 1868 — Five Cents a Copy

Member of Associated Press — AP Leased Wire and Photo Service

Iowa City, Ia., Friday, May 3, 1957

Sen. Joseph McCarthy Is Dead

Liver Ailment Ends Short, Stormy Life

WASHINGTON (AP) — Death wrote an end Thursday night to the storm-filled career of Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, one of the Twentieth Century's most controversial political figures.

The Wisconsin Republican died at 6:02 p.m. (EDT) at the Naval Medical Center at nearby Bethesda, Md., of an inflammation which broke down the functioning of his liver. He was 47.

In this capital, which saw him rise to national attention with his Red-hunting campaigns and then fade into relative obscurity, friend and foe alike expressed shock at his passing. Old feuds were forgotten for the moment as leaders spoke of their sorrow.

Within a half-hour after McCarthy died the flag over the Senate was dropped to half staff.

McCarthy was a key figure in the investigations of communism and alleged communism which aroused high feelings in the early 1950's, but his career faded after the Senate voted condemnation of some of his conduct in 1954.

McCarthy's death came five days after he was hospitalized for a liver inflammation, acute hepatitis. He is survived by his widow and former Senate aide, Jean Kerr McCarthy, and the infant daughter they adopted early this year.

McCarthy had been ill for varying periods over the past few years, suffering from sinus trouble, bursts and a knee injury which he attributed to a steel fragment lodging in the knee during his World War II service as a Marine officer in the South Pacific.

Mrs. McCarthy was at the senator's bedside when he died.

McCarthy's death cuts the Republican membership in the Senate to 46, compared with the Democrats' 49. Wisconsin's Republican Gov. Vernon W. Thompson is prohibited by state law from naming a successor to McCarthy but can call a special election to choose another senator.

McCarthy — whose activities gave a new word, "McCarthyism," to the English language — died in the same naval hospital where he had been a patient on past occasions, notably during his Senate "trial." That proceeding culminated in a vote that he had: 1. obstructed "the constitutional processes of the Senate," and 2. breached "senatorial ethics."

Politically — and perhaps personally — this verdict was a well nigh fatal blow to the sardonic, witty, sometimes sentimental and often stormily denunciatory McCarthy.

The onetime farm boy from Appleton, Wis., had gone a long way. Joe McCarthy — he liked to be called "Joe" — was acclaimed by many as the nation's foremost hunter of Communists. He was assailed by others as a cynical, ruthless destroyer of reputations.

Often mentioned in his heyday as a possible presidential candidate, McCarthy locked horns with two presidents, Democratic Harry S. Truman sought to brush him aside as, in Truman's words, "a pathological case." Republican Dwight D. Eisenhower supported McCarthy for re-election in 1952, though without visible enthusiasm, and later treated him with an icy disdain which undoubtedly was a factor in the senator's political eclipse.

There was a time in the early 1950s when McCarthy dominated nearly every political discussion, whipping passions higher than any other American.

His career came to a climax in the televised Senate hearings into the row between McCarthy and high Pentagon officials.

Millions were glued to TV sets for this airing of McCarthy's charge that his opponents were "coddling" Communists and the counter-charge that McCarthy's office was trying to "blackmail" the Pentagon into kid-glove handling of a wealthy young McCarthy aide, Pvt. David Schine.

McCarthy's rise to prominence was as swift as his fall. He had been a judge back in Wisconsin, quit that post to become a Marine, and resigned from the Marines to run for senator. In the Senate he was little known until he made a speech at Wheeling, W. Va., Feb. 9, 1950, asserting he held in his hand the names of card-carrying Communists in the State Department.

But his influence dwindled to a point where his voice was seldom heard, and less often heeded. Only this year, for example, the Senate overwhelmingly approved the nomination of William J. Brennan to the U.S. Supreme Court over McCarthy's protest that the nominee had criticized congressional investigations. Only one "no" was heard when the vote was taken. It was the lonely voice of Joseph Raymond McCarthy.

His Friends Shocked by Death News

WASHINGTON (AP) — The President and Mrs. Eisenhower extended "profound sympathy" to the widow of Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) Thursday night on the death of her husband.

Mr. Eisenhower issued a statement which said, in part:

"Mrs. Eisenhower joins me in extending our profound sympathy to Mrs. McCarthy in the grievous personal loss she has sustained."

Harry S. Truman, in New York City for a lecture, said: "Too bad. I'm very sorry to hear the news of the senator's death."

News of McCarthy's death shocked his colleagues on Capitol Hill. Sen. Karl Mundt (R-S.D.), who presided over the stormy McCarthy-Army hearings three years ago, said he had no idea that McCarthy's illness was "terminal in any way."

Other comment: G. David Schine, the ex-Army private who played a key role in the Army-McCarthy hearings of 1954:

"It's a tragic loss to his family, his friends, the United States Senate and his country. He will be remembered for his great contributions to the fight against the Communist conspiracy in the United States."

Sen. John McClellan (D-Ark.), who once led a walkout of Democratic members of the Senate Investigations subcommittee in protest against McCarthy's handling of the committee's affairs as chairman: "I found him to be a man of strong convictions and on occasions when I have disagreed with him I am happy to say there were never any personalities involved. He will be missed from the Senate and the American scene."

Sen. William Jenner (R-Ind.), one of McCarthy's closest friends in the Senate: "America has lost a fighting patriot, a courageous man who was willing to pay the price for his convictions and for his country."

Maj. Gen. Ralph W. Zwicker, long a target of McCarthy, will have "absolutely no comment whatsoever" on the Wisconsin lawmaker's death, said a spokesman for the general.

Iowa Senate Overrides 3 Vetoed Bills

DES MOINES (AP) — A smoothly operating Republican majority in the Senate Thursday overrode the vetoes of three bills Gov. Herschel Loveless has rejected during the current session.

Two of the measures, which the House had voted some weeks ago to pass over the governor's veto, would exempt farmers from paying sales tax on motor vehicle fuel used in crop production, and give municipal bus systems tax relief during the next two years.

The third measure, which would allow garnishment of personal income for payment of debts, was vetoed by the governor only Thursday. Earlier in the afternoon the House had passed the measure 76-26 over the governor's veto.

Sen. John Walker (R-Williams), arguing for the gasoline sales tax exemption bill, said the measure represented "simple equity" for farmers and added that it would help grant a little relief to agriculture which he termed a "sick industry in Iowa."

Sen. Tom Dailey (D-Burlington), said the bill would cost the state about $1,300,000 a year in sales tax receipts and this would amount to only about 50 cents per farm per month.

"This body today is taking another step in darkening the picture for industrial development in Iowa. If we hand a million dollars from the treasury to this one special class, the industrialists, knows that he is the one who is going to get reamed."

Tom Slattery Named Editor of Daily Iowan

Tom Slattery, A4, Chicago, is newly appointed editor of The Daily Iowan for the next term of one year starting May 16.

Slattery is a staff writer and copy reader for the Iowan. He was a Master Sergeant in the Army and served as a paratrooper and public information NCO in Korea.

He succeeds Eleanor Benz, A4, Iowa City, as editor. He was selected by the Board of Trustees of Student Publications after a three and one half hour meeting.

Slattery will choose his staff within one week and will submit their names to the Board for approval. The new staff will take over the Iowan May 16.

The new editor is a member of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity, and Kappa Tau Alpha, journalism honorary.

Prof. Leslie G. Moeller, director of the School of Journalism and chairman of the Board, announced that an open meeting will be held May 9 when editorial supervisory and advisory policy on The Daily Iowan will be discussed.

The Trustees decided to hold the open meeting at their regular meeting Thursday. Time did not permit them to finish all business regarding student publications.

Persons interested in making statements at the meeting are asked to notify the Board in writing, Room 205, Communications Center, before 5 p.m., May 8.

Tom Slattery
Ex-Army Master Sergeant

Mortar Board Gives Honor To 2 Students

Dorothy Schwengel, A4, Davenport, and Austin Sandrock, C4, Ft. Madison, have been named "Representative Daughter" and "Representative Son" for 1957 at SUI.

Chosen by the SUI chapter of Mortar Board, sponsors of the traditional Mother's Day Week End on the campus, the two will be presented at the SUI Mother's Day Luncheon Saturday in Iowa Memorial Union, along with the "SUI Mother of 1957," Mrs. Florence B. Young of Rapid City, S.D.

Miss Schwengel is past president of the SUI chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma social sorority, a 4-year member of the Scottish-Highlanders, secretary of Panhellenic Council, cabinet secretary of YWCA, Student Council secretary, and treasurer of the Young Republican organization on the campus.

She was recently named "Outstanding Sorority Woman on the campus for 1957." She is the daughter of U.S. Representative and Mrs. Fred Schwengel of Davenport. Miss Schwengel is majoring in the public relations sequence in journalism.

Sandrock, president of Sigma Chi social fraternity, recently received the North Central Province Balfour Award, the highest honor for Sigma Chi undergraduates. The award recognized Sandrock as the outstanding member of Sigma Chi in the central states area.

Sandrock is also a member of Young Republicans, Hawk-I Pep Club, and Omicron Delta Kappa, men's senior leadership honorary. He was sales manager of the 1956 Hawkeye and business manager of the 1957 Hawkeye. He served as co-chairman of Homecoming badge sales in 1956 and was a freshman orientation group leader.

SCHWENDEL SANDROCK

The Weather

A Little Cooler

Coad Speaks; Group Plans Demo Club

By TOM POWELL
Daily Iowan Staff Writer

Plans were made here Thursday night to organize a formal Democratic Men's club in Johnson County. The planning meeting followed an informal talk to a group of 30 men by Iowa Democratic Congressman Merwin Coad.

The Rev. Robert R. Sanks, temporary chairman of the informal group of Democrats, and John O'Connor, central committee chairman, were named to select an organization committee and set a date for a future meeting.

Earlier in a short talk, Congressman Coad stressed the need for a cohesive Democratic party. He stated that both national parties are split.

"The Republican party is split between Old Guard and Modern Republicans while the Democratic party is split between Northern and Southern Democrats," he said.

Coad added that the Democratic party does not have the internal split that the Republicans have.

"The Republicans argue in each state while the Democrats have a split between northern and southern states," he explained.

The Congressman said Republicans are now "embracing" what Democrats have preached the last 25 years. He singled out several members of President Eisenhower's cabinet and said they were not "up-to-date" Republicans.

Looking to Congressional and presidential elections of 1958 and 1960 Coad said the Democrats have a good chance to exert themselves as a national party if there are no splits.

"Organization is of utmost importance," he emphasized. "It is organizations that get things done."

Coad also touched on the plight of the farmer in today's economy.

"We need a strong economy for the rural people," he said "Until we do, these people will remain economic slaves."

The freshman Congressman said Republicans were "playing" for the urban vote — playing to the consumer.

"Because of this attitude the farmers are suffering," he said. Back on the topic of early cohesion, Coad said picking good candidates was a major factor in the success or failure of the Democratic party.

Bullet Grazes Costello In Assassination Plot

NEW YORK (AP) — Gambler Frank Costello suffered a grazing bullet wound of the scalp Thursday night in what police called "an apparent attempt at assassination."

The shooting occurred in the lobby of Costello's apartment house at 115 Central Park West, a plush Manhattan area, police said.

Costello was treated at Roosevelt Hospital, and was scheduled for quick discharge.

Grand Jury Indicts Beck On 2 Counts

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — Dave Beck, the onetime laundry driver who built a personal fortune in his rise to the presidency of one of the nation's biggest labor unions, was charged here Thursday with income tax evasion.

A Federal grand jury returned a 2-count indictment against the Teamsters' Union chief after it was reconvened quietly to hear the case.

The first count charges him with failure to report $38,828 of 1950 income on which additional taxes of $6,420 should have been paid.

The second count accuses Beck of assisting in preparation of a false tax return for the Teamsters' Joint Council No. 28 Building Association in Seattle, in the same year.

Judge George H. Boldt ordered a bench warrant issued immediately for the 63-year-old union leader's arrest. He set bond at $5,000.

In Washington, D.C., where Beck is scheduled for another appearance before the Special Senate Rackets Committee, a spokesman quoted him as saying that because he has not been notified officially of the grand jury action "and on advice of counsel, I cannot comment on the matter at this time."

The maximum possible penalty under each count of the indictment is five years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

The first count of the indictment charged the joint return of Beck and his wife listed $46,398 income for 1950 when it should have been $135,226, with a tax payment of $15,226, instead of $71,960.

The indictment came only an hour after announcement in Beck's home city of Seattle of the appointment of two special prosecutors to direct a King County grand jury probe into handling of Teamsters' Union funds by Beck and Frank Brewster.

Move Notice To Negroes Withdrawn

A request that two SUI Negro students move from their rented room because of complaints of neighbors was withdrawn Thursday by real estate salesman and landlord Glenn M. Meeks.

Nathaniel G. Williams, G, Nashville, Tenn., and Phillip T. Saunders, LI, Mason City, received notice this week from Meeks that they would have to move by the end of the semester.

Meeks said that he'd received two telephone calls protesting Negroes in the neighborhood. The students live at 20 W. Harrison.

"The heat was on me today from the neighborhood," Meeks said Thursday. "They protested the fact that the boys were going to have to move."

A story in Wednesday's Daily Iowan reported that 15 neighbors protested the planned ousting of the Negroes.

"It is certainly alright with me if the boys stay," Meeks said. "I thought that there was bad feeling in the area. When I found out that only a few felt that way I told them (the students) they could stay."

Williams is on leave as head of the music department at Houston-Tillotson College, Austin, Texas. He is studying for the Ph.D. in music.

Saunders graduated from Cornell College, Mt. Vernon in 1954. He is a freshman in the SUI Law College.

McLeod Wins OK From Committee

WASHINGTON (AP) — Scott McLeod, controversial State Department Security chief, won a major round Thursday in his fight to become ambassador to Ireland.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee approved his nomination 9-6 and predictions were heard that the Senate would follow suit.

But it took some fast footwork by Republican Leader William Knowland (Calif.), to defeat a Democratic-inspired move to postpone committee action on McLeod's nomination for a week. Democratic foes had hoped by such a move to gain time to kill the nomination.

McLeod, onetime aide to Republican Sen. Styles Bridges (N.H.), in the past has been denounced by some Democrats as a "hatchet man" who allegedly wrecked State Department morale in his four years as security boss.

Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy
Dead at 47

Special Wisconsin Election Needed To Fill Senate Post

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — A special election probably will be called in Wisconsin this fall to fill the unexpired term of Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis.), who died Thursday night at Bethesda Naval Hospital near Washington.

The state's laws do not permit the governor to name a successor but they do give him power to order a special election if a vacancy occurs in the office of U.S. senator.

Gov. Vernon Thomson, a Republican, has not said whether he would call such an election but indications are that he will do so. If he does not, the office will be vacant until November 1958 when McCarthy would have been up for re-election had he lived to win the Republican nomination again.

Gov. Thomson, reached at New Holstein where he was making a speech, declined "in deference to the senator's family" to discuss the possibility of a special election or say when one might be called.

If the special election is called, it will be preceded by a primary that is likely to find several candidates of the Democratic and Republican parties seeking the nominations.

The list of candidates, particularly in the Republican column could be quite long in the event the Republican party organization at its annual convention June 7-9 at La Crosse decides not to endorse a candidate.

Heading the list of possible Republican candidates is Walter J. Kohler, 53, three times governor of Wisconsin who announced previous to McCarthy's illness that he was considering the race. If the Republican party endorses a candidate he appears most likely to get it.

Another possible Republican candidate is Glenn R. Davis, 42, of Waukesha, a former representative and unsuccessful candidate for the GOP nomination last year against Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis.).

Two Republican congressmen also are considered as possible timber for the Senate. They are Rep. Melvin R. Laird, 34, of Marshfield and Rep. John W. Byrnes, 43, of Green Bay. Laird has been in Congress since 1953 and Byrnes since 1945.

Another possible Republican candidate is Lt. Gov. Warren P. Knowles, 48, of New Richmond, who has been particularly active in party campaign work. Whether he would run for the nomination against Kohler, however, is hard to say because they are close personal friends.

It is unlikely that Gov. Thomson will enter the race. He long aspired to the gubernatorial post before he won the election last year and is not expected to leave it now.

Leonard F. Schmitt, a Merrill attorney, also might be interested in making the race for the GOP nomination. He ran against McCarthy, in 1952 when six men were in the field and finished second.

The two Democrats being talked about as the most likely candidates are State Sens. Gaylord Nelson, 40, of Madison and Henry W. Maier, 39, of Milwaukee.

Neighbors Mourn Joe's Passing

WASHINGTON (AP) — To the residents along the first block of Third St. NE, the death of Sen. McCarthy was the loss of a friendly neighbor.

The man who lived in the white brick row house with green shutters was "a regular Joe" — "an awfully friendly guy."

George W. E. Ennis, who lives two houses from the McCarthy home, described the senator as "just as fine a fellow as you'd ever want to know."

"Joe liked to cook, and when his wife was away he specialized in cooking chicken. He'd have it piled up everywhere," Ennis said. "He'd come out on the front porch and holler over 'Don't cook anything for supper, I'm sending something over — and we'd know it was going to be chicken.'"

WITH ADOPTED DAUGHTER, Tierney Elizabeth, and his wife, the late Sen. Joseph McCarthy, Wisconsin Republican, posed proudly for Washington newsmen Jan. 13 after they had adopted the baby.

The Daily Iowan

The Daily Iowan is written and edited by students and is governed by a board of five student trustees elected by the student body and four faculty trustees appointed by the president of the university. The Iowan's editorial policy, therefore, is not an expression of SUI administration policy or opinion in any particular.

Tolerance Prevails

An unfortunate situation that arose when two SUI Negro students were asked to leave their rented room because of what was thought to be segregation was quickly corrected Thursday by landlord and real estate salesman Glen M. Meeks.

Nate Williams, G. Nashville, Tenn., and Phil Saunders, LI, Mason City, were notified recently by Meeks that they would have to move, after Meeks received two telephone calls from persons in the area near 20 W. Harrison — Williams, and Saunders' room. The callers complained about Negroes in the neighborhood.

"The action is nothing personal on my part," Meeks explained, "I've got to stay in business here and something like this can hurt me."

Meeks quick reversal of his position does service to the community.

After reading The Daily Iowan's story on the problem in Wednesday's paper reporting that 15 nearby neighbors signed a petition protesting the ousting of the students, Meeks rescinded his request.

"Since the majority of the neighbors had indicated that they wish to allow the colored students to remain, I am informing them that my notice to move is being withdrawn," Meeks said Thursday.

Iowa City could have been given a bad name, but Meeks bowed to public opinion when he found that the pressure against the Negroes was brought by only two — and 15 favored them.

Meeks is in business. He probably has to act according to interests that can "make" or break him.

It is gratifying to know that there are so few people who would favor this deplorable move towards segregation in the University community, and many more who will not stand still for the pressure of bigots.

Meeks is to be lauded for acting to help keep the community a place where an atmosphere of tolerance, learning and of democratic principles prevails.

Budget Hysteria

It is a pity that the fiercely publicized—and almost completely politically-inspired budget cut hub-bub that sweeps Congress so dramatically commands the national scene to such an extent.

The public does not realize that it is mostly noise about nothing and that many budget reductions lately have to be at least partially restored.

The Associated Press reports that the last ten sessions of Congress have cut $29 billion from budgets, but Congress then had to appropriate $75 billion in supplemental and deficiency measures.

The major part of that $75 billion represents miscalculation, changes in price levels (in effect, Congressmen are purchasing about 15 months in the future) and unforeseen expenditures such as disaster relief.

Still, there is the strong possibility that a sizeable portion of the $25 billion in budget cuts was restored later.

Perhaps most distressing about the situation is that no one has bothered too much to explain to the public that the great bulk of the budget, as much as 75 per cent of it, is earmarked for military expenditures, including payment for wars, past, present, and future.

Furthermore, about 90 per cent or more of the budget is determined by law, and amendment or repeal of these laws would be necessary before "savings" can be effected.

Amending some laws would mean reducing or eliminating some of the 75-odd functions now performed for the public by the Government. It is to be doubted whether a single one of these functions could be eliminated without a violent reaction by groups affected.

Professor R. G. Whitesel, SUI Political Science Department, said the administration has done a good job of eliminating "fat" from the budget and that probably no substantial savings could be effected without curtailing some portion of the Government's legally defined and presently required activities.

Prof. Whitesel also pointed out that Congressmen working on budget committees must first decide what portion of the item under consideration is determined by law — usually 95 per cent of the item cost or more — and then decide whether the little beyond legal requirements can safely be touched. He pointed out that even if every Government employee were discharged, the budget would only be reduced by about 5 per cent.

There is no place for dramatic and dangerous hide-the-pear budget reduction nonsense. Let's have reductions where possible, but let cuts be carefully considered and properly handled.

The incredibly complex job of determining the budget can only be made more so by hysterical, thoughtless, and unnecessary budget reduction pressures.

FRIDAY, MAY 3, 1957

MEMBER AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

Published daily except Sunday and Monday and legal holidays by Student Publications, Inc., Communications Center, Iowa City, Iowa. Entered as second class matter at the post office at Iowa City, under the act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

Subscription rates — by carrier in Iowa City, 25 cents weekly or $10 per year in advance; six months, $5.50, three months, $3.00. By mail in Iowa, $8 per year; six months, $4.50, three months, $2.50; all other mail subscriptions, $10 per year; six months, $5.50; three months, $3.00.

DAILY IOWAN ADVERTISING STAFF Advertising Mgr., Mel Adams, Asst. Advertising Mgr., Ernie Larcia, Classified Mgr., Jim Hubbard, Circulation Manager, Paul Beyer, Asst. Circ. Mgr., Michael Daley

1957-58 DAILY IOWAN SUPERVISORS FROM SCHOOL OF JOURNALISM, FACULTY Publisher, Lester G. Benz, Editor, Arthur M. Sanderson, Advertising, E. John Kottman, Circulation, Wilbur Peterson

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS The Associated Press is entitled exclusively to the use for republication of all the local news printed in this newspaper as well as all AP news dispatches.

Arab Unity

Recent Crisis Passed, U.S. Officials Say

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER Associated Press Newswriter

WASHINGTON — U.S. officials believe that Saudi Arabia and Jordan will join Egypt and Syria soon in creating a new show of Arab unity despite their recent political conflict over Jordan's fate.

This prospect was advanced in Washington as one reason why the United States has not directly blamed Egyptian President Nasser for his role in the Jordanian crisis.

United States policy and propaganda apparently are designed to take into account the desires and purposes of King Saud of Saudi Arabia and King Hussein of Jordan.

American officials say they do not believe real unity can be restored among the four but if Saud and Hussein want to play Arab politics that way the United States evidently will not interfere.

Furthermore, officials do not want to get this country's policy in a position where the two Arab rulers would cut the ground from under it.

That would happen if the kings showed outward friendship for Nasser and Syrian President Shukri al Kuwattly when Washington was blaming the Arab presidents for much of the trouble.

Officials also feel that any outright United States attack on Nasser tends to strengthen his internal position in Egypt. With the control of the Suez Canal now completely in his hands, Nasser is in position to make trouble for the West if he wants to.

So far the United States has put the blame for the crisis in Jordan on "international communism" under the control of the Soviet Union.

Its aim in doing this seems to be to say to the Arabs that Russia was responsible for an effort to reduce Jordan to virtual satellite status while the United States by supporting Hussein was in part responsible, along with King Saud, in helping that country preserve its independence.

What the Administration has not tried to explain is the manner in which international communism operated in trying to impose on Jordan a government oriented toward the Soviet Union.

For the conviction here is that with political pressure, money and propaganda Egypt and Syria were the active agents in stirring up the unrest in Jordan and supporting those political and military leaders who wanted to align that country with the pro-Soviet element in the Middle East.

In Arab thinking, one of the constant pressures in the Middle East is the hostility between the Arab states and Israel. King Saud is described as anxious to preserve at least the facade of Arab unity for this reason.

What Do They Mean . . . 'Creeping Inflation'?

Distributed by King Features Syndicate

Too Many H-Bombs

AEC Member Asks for More Small A-Weapons

By HUD STODDARD

A complete reappraisal of U.S. nuclear weapons policies was urged Wednesday by Thomas E. Murray, member of the Atomic Energy Commission. In an article in the current issue of Life magazine, Murray criticizes the present program as devoting too much emphasis to multi-megaton H-bombs and not enough to smaller A-weapons.

He calls for a program of "rational nuclear armament," which he defined as "a structure of policies that will result in a stockpile that exhibits a properly adjusted balance between large and small nuclear weapons, all of them manufactured with an eye to determined military usefulness, as these are calculated in the light of Communist military intentions."

The onetime executive in banking, transit, public utilities and manufacturing before his appointment to the AEC in 1950 by President Truman, says that to avoid a "war of survival" the United States has hitherto laid heavy emphasis on the production of megaton bombs and on the perfection of the means of their delivery.

He argues that this heavy emphasis on megaton bombs has itself created a second danger, namely, the possibility of piecemeal defeat at the hands of international Communism. Since megaton bombs are designed only for desperate uses, the danger is that in a moment of "minor" outrage, such as with Hungary, our only recourse will be "to minor indignation."

"Whatever the value of the big umbrella, we urgently need to have that decent, nicely calculated measure of nuclear force, valid in use, in order to deter or to halt the "minor" aggressions of an enemy who will in the ultimate instance yield to no other persuasion than force," Murray says.

Murray says that rigid security regulations have meant that there is little public information on the status of our small nuclear weapons supply. These regulations, he says, have had the unhappy result of "rendering our nuclear armament program unmanageable by informed and responsible public opinion." Moreover, he says, they have had "a curiously anomalous" reach into government circles.

"For instance, some months ago the vice-president of the United States, the Secretary of State and the Secretary of the Treasury, all of whom are members of the National Security Council were prevented, on the basis that they had no "need to know," from receiving certain factual information about the present and future composition of our nuclear stockpile," Murray says.

Commissioner Murray quotes from testimony in a public session of the Senate Armed Forces Committee on Feb. 5, by Frank H. Higgins, Assistant Secretary of the Army and Lieut. Gen. Carter B. Magruder, Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, to the effect that the small atomic weapons program is "largely a development program still" and that it will be "three to five years" before the Army has enough tactical weapons to reduce the use of conventional ammunition in war by as much as 25 per cent.

"The immediate need is to move the small-weapons out of the development phase into the phase of large-scale production," Murray says.

"This will be somewhat costly. The major requirement would be an increase in the supply of fissionable materials. This in turn would require an expansion of our present industrial facilities. However, the size of the investment in plants would depend upon the extent to which the output of our existing plants is directed away from unnecessary large weapons into the needed small-weapons program."

The former financier and electrical engineer says that four factors have diverted us from the path of "rational nuclear armament."

First, the achievement of a "technological open end" — the realization that there are no necessary practical limits to the megaton-size of H-bombs; Second, the H-bomb was the military planner's dream of the irresistible strategic weapon; it was also the ideal weapon with which to justify the doctrine of strategic air attack and thus to furnish warrant for the dominance of the air arm;

Third, the impact of world events such as the Korea conflict, created a popular revulsion against the very idea of limited war. Abstract strength was wanted that would match the "supreme" threat of world domination. The H-bomb gave this abstract strength a very concrete definition; Fourth, given a limited amount of weapons-making material, the factor of "efficiency" entered policy thinking. Small weapons are proportionately more costly, in terms of both material and dollars, than multi-megaton H-bombs, thus helping to weight the scales of policy heavily in favor of the big, cheap bomb.

"The presently prevailing policy of emphasis on megaton weapons may have saved us from sudden destruction — so far. But if we are to avoid the risk of slow defeat, we now need a new policy of emphasis on small nuclear weapons," Murray says.

Letter to the Editor

Landlord 'Victim of Circumstances'

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following letter was received by The Daily Iowan early Thursday morning. The landlord of 20 W. Harrison, Glenn Meeks, in the meantime withdrew his request that the two Negro students leave his home at the end of the current semester. We nevertheless believed that the letter by student Adams would be of interest to our readers.

TO THE EDITOR:

In reference to the petition objecting to the proposed eviction of the Negro students, Philip Saunders and Nat Williams, of 20 W. Harrison:

Five occupants of 20 W. Harrison signed the petition; three refused, saying they "didn't want to get involved."

The following day, two of the five signers requested that their names be removed. The old idea that a college student wants nothing more than to start a revolution for human rights doesn't quite hold up in many cases. Not a few students, it seems, would consider Herbert Hoover a dangerous radical.

considerable hesitancy, as if afraid. Others were eager to sign.

One sweet, middle-aged lady was outraged by the landlord's action. To me, it was rather pathetic watching some of the people refuse to sign while, at the same time, trying to give the impression of not refusing.

Some, even one or two who signed, seemed somewhat angry with Glenn Meeks, the landlord, for having caused a situation, by having "allowed them to move in in the first place," which has now confronted them with a moral problem.

Most of those who refused to sign said they didn't "mind" Negroes living at 20 W. Harrison, but they just didn't want "to get involved," saying they wouldn't be willing to sign a petition "one way or the other."

One lady said that she didn't mind a "couple" of Negroes living across from her, but she wouldn't want "to see a whole bunch move in." She assured the two boys with the petition, "neither would you."

One or two acted like scared rabbits. Only one man was honest enough to flatly refuse and — he didn't have to put in words — to make it clear that he didn't want Negroes in the neighborhood; happy man! he, for one, is bothered by no sense of guilt.

When informed by this writer of the petition, Meeks said that, while he personally didn't mind their living at 20 W. Harrison, the presence of the Negroes caused the value of his property to depreciate. Meeks also said that he had "lived with my neighbors," and that just the night before two of those neighbors, of Harrison St., had told him by telephone that they didn't want Negroes living in the neighborhood.

What Meeks seems not to realize — perhaps he doesn't wish to realize — is that more than half of his neighbors "strenuously object" to his action, and that most of the others have no objection — at least, so they claim — to Negroes living at 20 W. Harrison.

I know very little about real estate; however, I do know that property values are of considerably less importance than human values — despite the claims of our Business Man's society.

Meeks, as the eternal "victim of circumstances," doesn't compare very well with the Hungarian "victims of circumstances."

Dock Wilson Adams, G 20 W. Harrison

(Readers are invited to express opinions in letters to the Editor. All letters must include handwritten signatures and addresses — typewritten signatures are not acceptable. Letters become the property of The Daily Iowan. The Daily Iowan reserves the right to shorten, select representative letters when many on the same subject are received, or withhold letters. Contributors are limited to not more than two letters in any 30-day period. Opinions expressed do not necessarily represent those of The Daily Iowan.)

'Cut That Budget!'

Senators, However, Save Items That Affect Their Own District

By GEORGE DIXON King Features Syndicate

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Every United States Senator and Representative has sentenced himself to kitchen police. Each one of them sits spraddle-legged all day long parsing the Budget. Distinguished lawmakers, who wouldn't pare their own cuticle, slave happily from morn to night parsing the substance from somebody else's apples.

There isn't one of them that doesn't want something cut, and the farther from home the better. But, conversely, there isn't one who isn't against some proposed cut for his district.

Every man has at least one charity-begins-at-home item he wants to salvage — and Sen. George W. Malone, of Nevada, one of the leading cut-throat Eisenhower-budget Republicans is no exception.

Senator Malone is a mining engineer. He loves mines, mining, and minerals. You would have thought he'd had his diploma amputated when the House cut off an item of $9 million for the production of tungsten in Nevada.

He had planned to fly home to Reno for a few days, but when he heard about the unprincipled action of the lower house of Congress he arose on the Senate Floor and demanded unlimited time. This he was granted automatically because, under rules which some hope to change, the only way you can stop a Senator from talking is to smother him in his toga.

The golden-tungstened orator took an heroic posture and decried: "The Senator from Nevada (a quaint reference to himself) had a reservation on a 5:30 plane home, but has cancelled it. He is ready to stay here until the snow is about 9 feet deep on Pennsylvania Avenue."

No sooner had he conjured up this blizzard picture than an unidentified colleague slipped from the chamber and raced to the small room containing the news ticker.

He tore off a blank hunk of copy paper from the machine and squatted at a typewriter. Employing all the symbols and abbreviations used by the ticker service, he made his effort look genuine, he typed out the following "Bulletin Flash:"

"Washington — A freak snow-storm struck the nation's Capital today, with drifts 10 feet high on Pennsylvania Avenue."

The unidentified sealawag handed the fake bulletin to the Democratic Senator from Nevada, Alan Bible. Bible strode into the Chamber and slapped it dramatically on Malone's desk.

The latter read it, goggled, and came apart at the seams. From there on he kept breaking into laughter. But he finally managed to get un-tungstened in time to catch his plane without being forced to mow down Pennsylvania Avenue behind a snow plow.

The same senatorial news ticker compounded an offense the other day. In a speech on irrigation, Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel, of California, forensicated:

"The water must not be turned off." The ticker, however, accidentally dropped out the "not."

A few minutes later it sought to redeem itself. It sent a correction restoring the "not," but stated that what Senator Kuchel was trying to give California was more "irritation."

Rep. H. R. Gross, of Iowa, is the Capitol's most vocal economy man. His thrift is known as "Gross economy."

His secretary, Robert Case, is a leading light of the Bull Elephants' Club, composed of right-hand men to Republican Congressmen. The other night the club had a soiree, and Case won the door prize — the use for a week of a liveried limousine.

Iowa Legislature To End Session This Afternoon

DES MOINES (AP) — The House began Thursday afternoon a push toward possible final adjournment on an official basis this afternoon.

However, even though the bill-passing may be completed by this afternoon it would be necessary to take another couple of days to complete clerical work on the last bills acted upon.

Because of that the final gavel fall probably could not come before early next week.

The House passed a resolution calling for official final adjournment at 4 p.m. today and sent it to the Senate.

The Senate previously had set the time and date as 5 p.m. April 23rd — the traditional 100th day for closing time of the Legislature.

General Notices

General Notices must be received at The Daily Iowan office, Room 201, Communications Center, by 8 a.m. for publication the following morning. They must be typed or legibly written and signed; they will not be accepted by telephone. The Daily Iowan reserves the right to edit all General Notices.

WSUI RECITAL HALL — Terry Rust, piano, J. H. Anderson, violin, Alan Aulabough, piano, will be featured in the WSUI Recital Hall Program, sponsored by the SUI Department of Music, at 11:30 p.m. Saturday in Studio "E."

RED CROSS INSTRUCTOR'S COURSE — The Red Cross Instructor's Course in Life Saving and Water Safety will be offered to all qualified men holding Senior Life Saving Certificates. The first meeting will be held at 4 p.m. Monday at the Field House Pool.

MUSIC RECITALS — The SUI Department of Music of the SUI Department of Fine Arts will present Arthur Lambert in a piano recital at 7:30 p.m. Sunday in the North Music Hall.

WALKER SCHOLARSHIP GRANT — Students preparing for the ministry who are residents of Iowa may now apply for financial assistance from the Walker Scholarship Grant. Eligible to apply are those students who are now attending seminary or who plan to enter during the next academic year. Application blanks may be obtained by writing to the director of the SUI School of Religion.

BABY-SITTING — The University Cooperative Baby Sitting League will be handled by Mrs. David McCall, 202 West Park Road, from April 23 to May 7. If a sitter or information about joining the group is desired, call Mrs. McCall at 7137 after 3 p.m.

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATIONS — Undergraduate students interested in obtaining information about scholarships for the 1957-58 school year are advised to check with the Office of Student Affairs. Requests for scholarships from students now in school must be made before June 1, 1957.

PLAY-NITE — The facilities of the Fieldhouse will be available for mixed recreational activities each Tuesday and Friday night from 7:30 to 9:30, provided no home varsity contest is scheduled. Members of the faculty, staff, and student body and their spouses are invited to attend and take part in the activities in which they are in-

(Notices of university-wide interest will be published in the General Notices column. Notices of campus club meetings will be published in the SUI Items column each day in another section of The Daily Iowan.)

Washington Trip For SUI Students

Larry Popofsky, A3, Oskaloosa, and Timothy Sullivan, A3, Cedar Rapids, are scheduled to arrive in Washington, D.C., Sunday, May 5, to spend a week studying national politics.

The "Week in Washington" program is sponsored by Representative Fred Schwengel (R-Ia.) and Merwin Coad (D-Ia.) in cooperation with the Iowa Citizenship Clearing House. Popofsky and Sullivan are two of the 28 Iowa college students to spend the week in Schwengel's home.

While in Washington, the students will visit Congressional sessions, meet Congressmen and other political leaders, and go on sight-seeing tours to such places as the National Archives.

Popofsky, Democrat, won the Hancher Public Speaking Contest this year giving a speech "Dilemma of Democracy." He is a pre-law student majoring in history.

Sullivan, Republican, is majoring in labor and management.

SPECIAL SESSION

It is beginning to appear that if Iowa's Legislature ever passes re-apportionment legislation it will have to be done at a special session. — CHARLES CITY PRESS

WSUI Schedule

FRIDAY, MAY 3
8:00 Morning Chapel
8:15 News
8:30 Rise of American Realism
9:15 The Bookshelf
9:45 Morning Concert
10:00 News
10:15 Kitchen Concert
11:15 Deline Europe
11:30 This is Turkey
11:45 Join the Navy
12:00 Rhythm Rumbles
12:30 News
12:45 Over the Back Fence
1:00 Musical Chats
2:00 Music in Black and White
2:30 Introduction to Music
3:20 The Bands Music
3:30 Baseball
5:30 News
5:45 Sportsline
6:00 Dinner Hour
6:55 News
7:00 Dead Sea Scrolls
7:30 Broadway Tonight
8:00 Concert PM
8:00 American Idiom
8:30 Let There Be Light
9:45 News and Sports
10:00 SIGN OFF

Seals To

JUST ADD WATER is the the usual water show by the same ingredients for a taste tempti Des Moines; Rosemary Hamme and Virginia Elting, A2, Des

Ten Housing Weekend

By KATHY GAST Daily Iowan Staff Writer

Six fraternities, three sororities and one housing unit are planning formal for this weekend's final spring social events on second semester.

Alpha, in conjunction with Gamma have chosen "Spring for the theme of their formal" to be held from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the Mayflower Hotel. The Dick Blessing Quartet will play music for the event.

Chaperones for the dance are Mrs. Stephen Armes and Mrs. Philip E. Conner. An ancient castle will provide setting for "Medieval Moods, The Theta Xi chapter house on Friday evening. Dancing to music of the Gary Behm Sextet will be from 9 p.m. to 12 a.m.

Guests include Mrs. Fred W. Bower, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Bower, and Dr. and Mrs. William B. Bower.

The Kappa Alpha Theta chapter will be the scene of "Bachelorette" on Friday night from 9 p.m. to midnight with Leo Cortin providing the music in a sea-nasphere. Before the dance, a group will eat at the Little Rascals.

Honored guests for the event will be Mrs. Herbert Schmidt, Mrs. Bower, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Bower, and Dr. and Mrs. William B. Bower.

"Serenade of the South" will be the Alpha Epsilon Pi fraternity has chosen for formal. The dinner will be held from 6:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. at Curt Yocum's of the music.

The public is invited to the dance which will be held at the home at 9 p.m.

Guests include Dr. and Mrs. Bower, Dr. and Mrs. G. Goodstein, Mrs. Metzgar, Mrs. and Mrs. Rose DeWitt.

A picnic will be held at 6:30 p.m. in City Park. A soiree is scheduled between 7:30 and 9:30 p.m.

1:30 p.m. — Baseball — Purdue vs. Iowa (two games).
8 p.m. — Seals Show — Fieldhouse.

Saturday, May 4
12 noon — Mother's Day Luncheon — Main Lounge, Iowa Memorial Union.
1:30 p.m. — Baseball — Purdue vs. Iowa (two games).
8 p.m. — Seals Show — Fieldhouse.

Sunday, May 5
3 to 4:30 p.m. — Mother's Day Tea — President's Home.
5 p.m. — University Sing — Iowa Memorial Union.

Monday, May 6
8 p.m. — Humanities Society — Professor Perry Miller, Harvard University — "Romance and Novel in America, 1820-1860" — Senate Chamber, Old Capitol.
8 p.m. — Philadelphia Symphony Woodwind Quintet — Macbride Auditorium.

Wednesday, May 8
7:30 p.m. — European Holiday — Germany, Austria and Switzerland — Macbride Auditorium.
8 p.m. — SUI Symphony Band Concert — Main Lounge, Iowa Memorial Union.

Thursday, May 9
8 p.m. — University Play — "The Man Who Came to Dinner" — University Theatre.
Friday, May 10
Supreme Court Day — 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. — Senate Chamber, Old Capitol — 1 to 5 p.m. — House Chamber, Old Capitol.
3:30 p.m. — Baseball, Minnesota vs. Iowa.
8 p.m. — University Play — "The Man Who Came to Dinner" — University Theatre.
8 p.m. — Art Guild Film Series — "Tales of Hoffman" — Shambaugh Auditorium.

8 p.m. — University Play — "The Man Who Came to Dinner" — University Theatre.

8 p.m. — Art Guild Film Series — "Tales of Hoffman" — Shambaugh Auditorium.

(Notices of university-wide interest will be published in the General Notices column. Notices of campus club meetings will be published in the SUI Items column each day in another section of The Daily Iowan.)

Seals To Present Annual Water Show Tonight

JUST ADD WATER is the theory Seals members have been living by lately. They will present their annual water show by the same title at 8 p.m. today and Saturday in the Fieldhouse. Preparing the ingredients for a taste tempting show are from left: Marty Hoffer, A1, Des Moines; Kay Grother, A1, Des Moines; Rosemary Hamm, A4, Boone; Nan Weyer, A1, Fort Dodge; Shirley Larsen, A2, Atlantic; and Virginia Elting, A2, Des Moines.

Salt, flour and sugar are all basic ingredients in cooking, but members of Seal, the SU1 Women's synchronized swimming club, say water is all that is needed.

Seals will give their interpretation of various American foods when they present their annual water show, "Just Add Water," at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday nights in the Fieldhouse pool.

Tickets for the show may be obtained at Whetstone's Drug Store or the Fieldhouse for 75 cents.

Following the theme of a cookbook, "Chef's March" will open the show, Shirley Larsen, A2, Atlantic and Mary Jo Dennis, A2, Marshalltown, will be swimming to the fast moving Sousa march, "Nobles of the Mystic Shrine." The women will don green suits, with white aprons and white chef's hats.

"Sleepy Lagoon" will set the mood for "Midnight Snack" presented by members of the Penguins Swimming Club, Ellen Park, N3, Ottawa, Ill., and Kay Accola, N2, Des Moines.

With a touch of spice and sauce, Judy O'Donnell, A2, Waterloo, will be featured in a solo number "Shrimp Cocktail." Wearing a pink suit, black hat and gloves, she will swim to the music of "Blue Violins."

A fast moving spicy number "Devised Eggs" will follow. Equipped with horns, tails and spears, Ann Cooper, A1, Cedar Rapids, and Marcia McGovern, A1, Clinton, will perform to the tune, "Pop Goes the Weasel."

A quartet will present the next number entitled "Mulligan's Stew." Portraying tramps with hobo sticks Miss Accola, Miss O'Donnell, Marilyn Eastridge, A2, Waco, Texas, and Jean Neimeier, A2, Sioux City, will combine talents with the song, "That's Why the Lady is a Tramp."

Miss Cooper, nationally known diving star, will combine clown diving with several difficult dives in the number entitled "Flapjacks."

Precision formations will be featured in the next number "Tossed Salad," featuring Virginia Elting, A2, Des Moines. Wearing a black suit decorated with vegetable figures, she will swim to the song "Pam Pam."

Miss Neimeier and Sally Files, A4, Cedar Rapids, will take the audience on a trip across the Pacific ocean to China. An original Chinese song will provide the music for the number entitled "Chop Suey." The swimmers will add to the Chinese atmosphere with their black braids, yellow waist bands and chop sticks.

A meal isn't complete without a desert. "Cherry Pie a la mode" will be performed by Miss Eastridge and Ann Austin, A2, Marshalltown.

Corley Hamill, A2, Des Moines, director of the show and her assistant Carolyn Herman, A2, Boone, will team up for a "Salt and Pepper" duet. The women, who will be performing the most difficult stunts in the show, will swim to the song "Barcarole."

The entire cast will close the show in candle light by forming a birthday cake in the middle of the pool.

Mortar Board Plans Mother's Weekend

Mothers of SU1 students will start arriving today for the annual Mother's Day Weekend, sponsored by Mortar Board, senior women's honorary.

The organization, which is celebrating its thirtieth anniversary on the SU1 campus, has planned a variety of festivities to entertain and honor the weekend guests.

One of the highlights of the activities is the traditional "tapping" ceremony on the west approach of Old Capitol at 2 p.m. Saturday. At that time, the identity of new Mortar Board members will be revealed with the present members circulating through the audience in caps and gowns to place their caps on the coeds of the junior class chosen for the honor of membership.

Saturday activities will start at 9:30 a.m. with "Canoe Capers" on the Iowa River. Women's and men's races, coed races and novelty races have been planned. Sponsored by the Women's Recreation Association, the course for the races will be from University High School to the Union footbridge.

A Home Economics Coffee Hour and Open House is scheduled at 10:30 a.m. Saturday. A tour of the Department is planned.

A luncheon honoring SU1 Mothers and daughters will be held Saturday noon in the Iowa Memorial Union.

For evening entertainment, the annual Seals show, "Just Add Water" will be given at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday nights in the Fieldhouse pool.

University Sing, the final event of the weekend, will be held at 5 p.m. Sunday in the main lounge of the Union. The song fest is dedicated to all SU1 mothers.

Ten Housing Units Plan Weekend Social Events

By KATHY GAST
Daily Iowan Staff Writer

Six fraternities, three sororities and one housing unit are planning social events for the weekend as the final spring social events for the second semester.

Kappa Alpha Theta, in conjunction with Phi Kappa Phi, has chosen "Spring Festival" for the theme of their formal to be held from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Saturday at the Mayflower Hotel. The Dick Blessing Quartet will furnish music for the event.

Chaperones for the dance are Dr. and Mrs. Stephen Armes and Dr. and Mrs. Philip E. Connell.

An ancient castle will provide the setting for "Medieval Moods," at the Theta Xi chapter house on Saturday evening. Dancing to the music of the Gary Behm Sextet will be from 9 p.m. to 12 a.m.

Guests include Mrs. Fred Gietman, Prof. and Mrs. M. L. Betterman, and Mrs. E. L. Feedern, housemother.

The Kappa Alpha Theta chapter house will be the scene of "Beach Party" between 9 p.m. and 12 a.m. tonight with Leo Cortimiglia providing the music in a seashore atmosphere. Before the dance the group will eat at the Little Ranch.

Honored guests for the evening will be Mrs. Herbert Schmidt, Mrs. Bower, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Bower, and Dr. and Mrs. William El-

550 To Attend Orientation Coffee

Orientation workers and faculty members will have an opportunity to get acquainted between 4 and 5 p.m. Monday at an orientation coffee hour to be held in the main lounge of the Iowa Memorial Union.

Attending the tea will be 100 leaders, 250 assistants and 200 faculty hosts and hostesses who will open their homes to entertain the incoming students during fall orientation.

According to Sue Fischrupp, A2, Hinsdale, Ill., chairman, the spring tea will give the group leaders a chance to meet the faculty and plan the evenings to be held in their homes. Roland Boehm, A3, Overland, Mo., is men's chairman for the coffee hour.

Four training schools, under the direction of Corley Hamill, A2, Des Moines, have also been held to familiarize the groups with the program and to orient them to their duties.

Sandy Schwengel, A3, Muscatine, and Don Sherk, A3, Ida Grove, are general chairmen of the 1957 orientation program.

Bogart Re-elected Dolphin President

John Bogart

The Dolphin National Honorary Swimming Fraternity has recently elected John Bogart, D3, Bartlesville, Okla., president.

This is the third time Bogart has been elected to the office, having served as president for the last two years. It marks the first time in history of the fraternity that a man has been elected president three times in succession.

Other officers include: Sam Baillie, A4, St. Petersburg, Fla., vice-president; Jack McBride, A2, Rock Rapids, secretary; Lincoln Hurring, A3, Dunedin, New Zealand, treasurer; and Bob Pratt, E3, Fargo, N. D., sergeant-at-arms.

SU1 Items

ALPHA KAPPA GAMMA — The professional dental hygiene sorority recently elected the following officers: Jo Ann Walden, D2, Waterloo, president; Dorothy Smith, D2, Des Moines, vice-president; Barbara Compton, D2, Bagley, recording secretary; Martha Stephens, D2, West Chester, corresponding secretary and Joann Larsen, D1, Humboldt, treasurer.

ZOOLOGY SEMINAR — The Zoology Seminar will meet at 4:20 p.m. today in Room 204, Zoology Building. Dr. G. F. Lata, assistant Professor of Biochemistry will speak on "Some Relationships of Steroid Hormones and Lipogenesis."

PHYSICS CLUB — A meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in room 311 of the Physics Building. The topic of discussion will be "Subatomic Particles."

Del Monte Spring Garden Sale!

DEL MONTE FRUIT COCKTAIL	No. 303 Cans	19c
DEL MONTE CATSUP	14-Oz. Bottle	19c
DEL MONTE CORN Whole Kernel or Cream Style	2 No. 303 Cans	25c
DEL MONTE PEACHES Slices or Halves	2 No. 2 1/2 Cans	59c
DEL MONTE Tomato Juice 46-Oz. Cans	4 Cans	99c
DEL MONTE BARTLETT Pear Halves	2 No. 303 cans	49c

WRA Canoe Capers Planned Saturday

Canoe Capers, the annual canoe races, sponsored by the Women's Recreation Association, will be held Saturday at 9:30 a.m.

The event will take place at the Union Bridge. Chairman for this year's races are Sunny Swanson, C3, East Moline, Ill., and Jackie Dethmers, A4, Garner.

Four different types of races are planned for this year. They include a women's race, a men's race, and coed relay race, and a coed novelty race.

A traveling trophy will be awarded the housing unit that accumulates the most points during the races.

SMOKED TONGUE SAUCES
Take your choice of accompaniments for smoked tongue: serve a raisin, cherry, mustard, horseradish or tomato sauce with the meat.

GELATIN MOLD STICKY?
Be sure to let air get at a gelatin mold before turning out; do this by running the tip of a knife around the edge of the mold.

This Week-End Give Mom the Best from Andes

If she doesn't come down, then let us mail her candy and she will know you are thinking of her.

106 S. Dubuque Andes Candies

You Can Be Sure with . . .

BENNER BONDED MEAT

BAR - B - BIRDS

Roasting CHICKENS 39c lb.

BENNER'S BONDED GROUND BEEF 3 Lbs. 89c

WILSON CORN KING BACON Lb. 45c

BOSTON BUTT PORK STEAK Lb. 49c

Another Benner Service!

Any organization may borrow a 48 cup electric coffee urn at NO CHARGE to the user. See us at any time for our new service.

Del Monte Spring Garden Sale!

DEL MONTE FRUIT COCKTAIL No. 303 Cans 19c

DEL MONTE CATSUP 14-Oz. Bottle 19c

DEL MONTE CORN Whole Kernel or Cream Style 2 No. 303 Cans 25c

DEL MONTE PEACHES Slices or Halves 2 No. 2 1/2 Cans 59c

DEL MONTE Tomato Juice 46-Oz. Cans 99c

DEL MONTE BARTLETT Pear Halves 2 No. 303 cans 49c

Fresh Florida SWEET CORN 6 golden ears 19c

FLORIDA SEEDLESS GRAPEFRUIT 80 Size 7 For 49c

A SPECIAL TREAT WATERMELONS Ea. $1.19

SYMPHONY FROZEN WHOLE STRAWBERRIES (Reg. 49c) 2 16-Oz. Pkgs. 69c

CASCADE INN COFFEE Lb. 69c

You Can Be Sure Of Big Savings at Benners plus S&H GREEN STAMPS GIVEN WITH EVERY PURCHASE.

Benner Foods

WE RESERVE THE RIGHT TO LIMIT QUANTITIES

1029 So. Riverside Drive (Highways 218 and 1 South)

As seen in the Saturday Evening POST

Which is the happier bride?

WED-LOK "Lily of the Valley" ring ensemble $225

The happier bride wears Wed-Lok lock-together rings

She's ring-happier all her life because there is no twisting, no separating, no rubbing—with a Wed-Lok ensemble. A quick "click" locks the rings together, maintains correct alignment of the precious diamonds. And the enchanting "Lily of the Valley" design symbolizes love and luck! The ensemble pictured has a large fiery center diamond and 6 matching diamonds.

I. Fuiks Jewelry

228 E. WASHINGTON Your Jeweler for over 50 Years

---

Campus FIRSTS BY Capezio's

In step with style and comfort are these beautiful care-free casuals by Capezio. . . Shoes of fashion smartness and skilled craftsmanship . . . with the built-in foot ease and comfort for which Capezio's are known.

7.95 to 16.95

Younkers

FASHION SHOES—FIRST FLOOR

OFF THE CUFF

By Larry Dennis

Divots

A bevy of beautiful gals will take to the water tonight in Iowa fieldhouse in the first performance of the annual Seals Show, the female counterpart of the Dolphin Club presentation earlier in the school year.

Theme of this year's event is "Just Add Water" and the word has been passed around that the women should come to pick up some tips on how to trap a man through his stomach.

Among the performers in the synchronized swimming show will be Ann Cooper, the Cedar Rapids diving star, now a freshman at Iowa. The show also will be presented Saturday night.

THE LAST FRESHMAN to make the Iowa City High golf team was John Liechty, currently a member of Iowa's Big 10 title contenders and new owner of the Finkbine course record.

Now there's another freshman playing on the City High team. His name: Frosty Evashevski, son of Iowa's football coach. Fifteen-year-old Frosty has trouble hitting the ball far enough to score really low as yet, his dad reports, but still has been shooting in the low 40s.

The senior Evy, who likes to spend some time on the links himself in between his gridiron duties, also is raising another young golfer. Thirteen-year-old Jimmy, he reveals, broke into the high 40s himself the other day. This is always an event for a young golfer, and a particularly creditable one for a 13-year-old.

SPEAKING OF GOLF, it seems that Iowa's newly-hired golf professional, Harold Cooper from St. Cloud, Minn., has decided to accept another offer and will not join the Hawkeye staff.

Cooper was scheduled to report next September.

JOHN (SKY) MARSCHALL, the Iowa golf captain whose record 67 at Finkbine was broken recently by sophomore John Liechty, went out Wednesday to take a serious crack at the new mark. The result: Five birdies, an eagle and two bogies for a 67, one short of Liechty's 66. Included in Marschall's valiant effort were two three-putt greens, two missed putts under five feet and an eight-footer which hung on the lip.

IVY LEAGUE STYLE PANTS

- Polished Cotton, Black ..... $5.95
- Polished Cotton, Tan ..... $5.95
- Polished Cotton, Green ..... $5.95
- Heavy Army Twill, Tan ..... $4.95
- Heavy Army Twill, Black ..... $4.95
- Cotton Baby Cord ..... $6.95

Sizes 28 to 42

EWERS

Men's Store
28 So. Clinton

Brady's SUPER MARKET

So Easy To Shop

Just Dial
4115

FREE DELIVERY

103 W. Burlington — 1 Block South of University Library
OPEN FRIDAY NITE 'TIL 9

BIRDSEYE PEAS OR BIRDSEYE
Orange Juice Strawberries
2 Pkgs. 35¢ 2 Pkgs. 43¢

LOVING CUP DELICIOUS
COFFEE ..... Lb. 69¢

BORDENS
Snow King 1/2-Gal. 59¢

Pillsbury Buttermilk BISCUITS ..... can 10¢
Van Camp's TUNA ..... 2 cans 39¢
Dennis Boneless CHICKEN ..... 4 cans $1.00
Heinz KETCHUP ..... 2 bots 45¢
Heinz Baked BEANS ..... 2 cans 29¢
Hawell's ROOT BEER ..... 12 bots 37¢
Yven Fresh COOKIES ..... 1 lb. bag 29¢
Hi-BRAU BEER ..... 24 bots $2.39

FANCY SWISS STEAK Lb. 59¢
FANCY SPRING FRYERS Lb. 35¢

Fancy ASPARAGUS Lb. 19¢
First-Cut PORK CHOPS Lb. 39¢
Crisp Tasty CARROTS 2 bags 19¢
Maybelle OLEO 5 lb. $1.00
Large Florida Grapefruit 5 for 29¢
New Calif. White POTATOES 10 lbs. 49¢

BANANAS No. 1 Fancy Lb. 10¢

Cards Outlast Dodgers, 3-2, In 16

3-Hitter, 13 Strikeouts By Phils' Roberts

BROOKLYN — Don Blasingame's single with two out in the top of the 16th inning scored Eddie Miksis from second with the run that gave the St. Louis Cardinals a 3-2 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers in a four hour and 53 minute game Thursday night.

After filling the bases in the 10th, 11th and 12th without scoring, the Cardinals finally broke through in the 16th against Don Bessent, third Brooklyn pitcher. Miksis, who started his major league career with Brooklyn more than a decade ago, opened the inning with a scratch single that Charlie Neal fumbled.

Hobie Landrith, ignoring the bunt, struck out and Larry Jackson, who had relieved starter Herman Wehmeier in the 13th sacrificed. Blasingame, after taking two strikes, lined a sharp single to right field and Miksis dashed over the plate ahead of Carl Furillo's wide throw.

PHILADELPHIA — Robin Roberts scotched talk that he is over the hill with a 3-hit, 13-strikeout performance against Chicago Thursday night as the Philadelphia Phillies beat the Cubs 4-2.

Dale Long and Lee Walls, made their debut as Cubs by rapping the other two hits off the Phillies' ace.

Long homered in the fifth. Walls who was traded with Long to the Cubs from Pittsburgh Wednesday, tripled in the seventh, scoring Ernie Banks.

Roberts walked only one man and faced a total of 31 batters, 4 over the minimum.

PITTSBURGH — The first place Milwaukee Braves pushed across three runs in the 10th inning Thursday night to defeat the Pittsburgh Pirates 8-5 and give Lew Burdette his third victory against one loss. Red Murf relieved the tiring Burdette in the 10th to nail down the Brave's 11th victory against only two setbacks.

Hank Aaron led the Braves' 18 hit assault on three Pirate pitchers, collecting five singles in six official trips. Ed Mathews and Danny O'Connell, a former Pirate, each had three.

NEW YORK — Don Hoak Cincinnati third baseman, bombed New York Giant pitching Thursday for three singles and a homer, driving in five runs, including the winning pair in the ninth inning for a 9-7 Redleg victory over the Giants.

CHICAGO — Pinch hitter Walt Dropo's grand slam homer off Chuck Stobbs in the sixth swirled the pace setting Chicago White Sox to their 10th triumph in 12 starts with a 6-1 decision over the Washington Senators Thursday.

Dropo's big clout broke up a duel between Stobbs and Chicago's Dick Donovan, who finally notched his first victory in three starts with a five-hitter.

DETROIT — Rookie right-hander Don Lee captured his first major league victory Thursday when the Detroit Tigers scored five runs on just two hits in a wild fourth inning and defeated the Boston Red Sox 7-5.

Lee, son of former major league pitcher Thornton Lee, needed relief help from southpaw Al Aber, Jim Bunning and Steve Gromek over the last inning and a third to preserve the decision. The 23-year-old newcomer, less than a year off the University of Arizona campus, yielded four Boston runs and eight safeties before he was lifted in the eighth when the Red Sox scored one run.

KANSAS CITY — Rookie Tony Kubek tripled and scored the winning run Thursday night as the New York Yankees defeated the Kansas City Athletics, 3-1, behind Tom Sturdivant's steady 7-hit pitching.

FOURTH DERBY WIN? - - By Alan Maver

Hawks Meet Illinois In 2d Big 10 Start

Iowa's Hawkeyes, stunned by a 10-2 shelling at the hands of Western Illinois Wednesday, will attempt to rebound today when they meet Illinois in their second Big 10 baseball game of the season.

On the mound for the Hawks will be their ace, long-geared Don Dobrino, who stands 2-2 in the worst department thus far.

The rest of the Iowa lineup will remain the same — Les Zanotti at first base, Larry Harsch at second, Glen Van Fossen at third, Tom Hays at shortstop, Kevin Furlong in center field, Jim Ward in right and either Don Bock or Fred Long in left. Dick Weatherly will handle the backstopping chores.

Game time is 3:30 p.m.

Iowa, winner over Wisconsin in its first conference start a week ago, will take on Purdue in a double header here Saturday.

Meanwhile, Michigan's Wolverines have an excellent chance to run their undefeated string to six games in this weekend's round of conference play.

The Wolverines are host to three-beaten Wisconsin (0-3) today and Saturday play a double header against visiting Northwestern which goes into the weekend play undefeated in conference competition.

Bad weather washed out Northwestern's three games scheduled last weekend.

Minnesota (2-0) will try to stay in the unbeaten ranks as the Gophers, both Big Ten and NCAA champs, entertain Purdue (0-0) in a single game today and take on invading Illinois in a Saturday brace.

Other Friday solo games include Ohio State (2-1) at Indiana (0-3) and Northwestern at Michigan State (1-2).

Saturday's doubleheader round also includes Ohio State at Indiana and Wisconsin at Michigan State.

BAILIE TO NAAU
Sam Bailie, Iowa's brightest gymnastics star, will head a contingent of three Iowa Dolphin Club gym team members in the NAAU championships in Chicago today and Saturday. Bailie will compete in side horse, flying rings and trampoline. Don Casady and Tom Slattery, the other two Dolphin entrants, will compete on the trampoline. Preliminaries will begin at 1 p.m. today. Finals will be Saturday afternoon and evening.

You'll be glad to know... CHICAGO'S Harrison

DRIVE-IN hotel IS NOW BEING ULTRA-MODERNIZED

Yes, Chicago's newest major hotel is being completely renovated. During the next several months, more than $350,000.00 will be spent here for your added comfort and convenience. Plans include redecorating, refurbishing, air-conditioning and television.

Rooms $4.50 From

SPECIAL FAMILY AND GROUP RATES

FREE INFORMATION ON "WHAT'S GOING ON IN CHICAGO" AVAILABLE

Just off Michigan Boulevard, on Harrison Street

And Remember... NO PARKING WORRIES even in the heart of Chicago! GARAGE IN DIRECT CONNECTION Drive right into Lobby!

Bold Ruler 8-5 Favorite In 10-Horse Derby Field; Gen. Duke Still Doubtful

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — No surprises popped out of the entry box at Churchill Downs Thursday as 10 colts were entered officially for the Kentucky Derby. Gen. Duke's foot injury still posed one of the biggest question marks in the history of the great 3-year-old classic.

While the latest bulletin from the Calumet Farm barn disclosed little change in Gen. Duke's condition, Wheatley Stable's Bold Ruler became a slight favorite for the $125,000-added race Saturday.

However, trainer Jimmy Jones said he believed his ace had "something less than a 50-50 chance" of starting in the race. "We would like to run him but I'm not going to do anything that might injure him seriously."

Bold Ruler, trained by the veteran Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons and ridden by Eddie Arcaro, winner of five previous derbies, was an early 8 to 5 choice. The uncertainty around Calumet headquarters caused the entry of Gen. Duke and Iron Liege to be listed at 2 to 1.

While the horses were being entered a crowd gathered at the Calumet barn to get the latest dope on Gen. Duke, who had been favored to give Calumet its sixth derby.

"A lot of the soreness in Gen. Duke's foot has been relieved, but we have not been able to localize the injury," said Jimmy Jones, the Calumet trainer.

"We're going to have to work on this thing on an hour to hour basis, and probably won't be able to say until an hour or so before the Derby whether or not he can start."

The other seven entered at $250 apiece for the 1 1/4-mile race were Ralph Lowe's Gallant Man, John Appelbaum's Mister Jive, Clifford Lussky's Federal Hill, Travis M. Kerr's Round Table, Mrs. A. L. Rice's Indian Creek, T. A. Grisom's Shan Pac, and Walter S. Miller's Better Bee.

Each will pack 126 pounds in the race, to be televised and broadcast (CBS) from 3:15-3:45 p.m. (CST) on a nationwide network.

If 10 start, the total jackpot will be $153,000, and the winning horse can collect $109,200, second highest derby purse. Needles beat 16 others a year ago and netted $123,450.

Chief Weather Forecaster O. K. Anderson said in a special communique Thursday, "There is no rain in sight. The temperature should be in the middle 70s."

MINTS
IN COLORS
For your Reception
Also
DELUXE MIXED NUTS
HALL'S BRIDAL SHOP
127 So. Dubuque

BREMERS
IVY SLACKS
75% DACRON - 25% COTTON
WASH - DRIP DRY AND WEAR
ALL WANTED COLORS
$9.95
BREMERS

BECKMAN'S FUNERAL HOME
507 E. COLLEGE ST.
PHONE 3240

Rooms for Rent
BATHS for girls. Phone 8-2913.
CLEAN room $15.00 - 5586.
SINGLE or double rooms for rent. Good parking. 6780.
Miscellaneous for Sale
FURNITURE for barracks, available. Phone 8-1416.
SUV-BED, 6-2518.
Ebbe-Tenda high chair, 2245.
DRESS out sale on several styles of bicycles. No. 24 Center. 224 So. Clinton St.
FOR SALE: Mercury outboard 15 @ H.P. Novotny's Cycle Co. So. Clinton St.
BASKET, jumper seat, carrying case - excellent condition.
SOLD with parts. Goody's - 801 E. 1st. Dial 5922.
SOUNDING OUT 30-inch steel bed. Studios. Pickart Mattress Store & West.

FORE!

Get in the swing with—
Spalding Made—Jerry Barber

Personal Woods	Personal Irons
SET OF 2 ..... $20.95	SET OF 5 ..... $34.95
SET OF 3 ..... $29.95	SET OF 7 ..... $48.95
	SET OF 8 ..... $55.95

Bass Golf Shoes for Men ..... $14.95
Spalding Golf Shoes for Women ..... $12.95

Golf Bags $5.95 to $35.00
SPALDING Golf Cart $15.95

Iowa Supply COMPANY
COMPLETE LINE OF GOLFING ACCESSORIES
TEES GLOVES CAPS GOLF BALLS
8 So. Clinton

Available for...
Tickets for the last University production, "The Man Who Came to Dinner," are still available for all performances, May 10-13-14-15-16-17-18.

Students may pick up reservations at the ticket office, 8A South Hall, from 9 a.m. through 5 p.m. on weekdays, and from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday.

Telephone reservations will be taken, but tickets must be picked up two days after the reservation is made.

"The Man Who Came to Dinner," by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman, is a situation comedy in a small town, breaks his head is forced to stay in the town for six weeks.

The play tells the story of a man, Whitehead, who causes upheavals in the town and in some where his unusual conduct takes place.

The production is under the direction of Prof. O. G. Brockington, Department of Dramatic Arts, G. Commerce, Tex., and the direction of Prof. A. S. G. of the Department of Drama.

Lighting is by Prof. Walter... and costumes by Prof. M. Hall. Both are members of the Drama Department.

UNCOOPERATIVE CATT... introduced into the Pacific I... not thrive there.

More Values Than you Can imagine

Blondie
"WHAT ARE YOU DOING SIS?"
"Yoo-hoo!"

Beetle Bailey
"YOUR DEAL OF HAVING THE MEN LIVE IN FOXHOLES WAS A GOOD ONE, SIR!"

Tickets Available for 'The Man Who Came to Dinner'

Tickets for the last University production, "The Man Who Came to Dinner," are still available for all performances, May 9-11 and 13-15.

Students may pick up reserved seats at the ticket office, BA Schaeffer Hall, from 9 a.m. through 4:30 p.m. on weekdays, and from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. Saturday.

Telephone reservations will be taken, but tickets must be picked up two days after the reservations are made.

"The Man Who Came to Dinner," by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman, is a situation comedy about a famous author and lecturer who visits a small town, breaks his hip, and is forced to stay in the town for six weeks.

The play tells the story of Sheridan Whiteside, who causes many upheavals in the town and in the home where his unusual convalescence takes place.

The production is under the direction of Prof. O. G. Brockert of the Department of Dramatic Art. The set was designed by Curtis L. Sage, G. Commerce, Tex., under the direction of Prof. A. S. Gillette of the Department of Dramatic Art.

Lighting is by Prof. Walter Dewar, and costumes by Prof. Margaret Hall. Both are members of the Drama Department.

UNCOOPERATIVE CATTLE
Although cattle and horses introduced into the Pacific Islands by European navigators, they do not thrive there.

Iowa City's U.S. Senator—

Martin Was Campus Leader

By JULIE FOSTER
Daily Iowan Staff Writer

Sen. Thomas Martin, Iowa City, has proved that a student's college job is no indication of future success.

Martin, who entered SUI as a freshman in 1912, secured a part-time job sweeping floors in the then newly-opened Physics Building to help pay for his education.

Forty-two years later he was elected to the United States Senate.

While studying for a B.A. degree, Martin worked in a local restaurant, cared for a cow, split wood, shoveled snow at the old ladies' home, and served as a house boy at the Delta Tau Delta and Beta Theta Pi social fraternities.

Martin has been active in city, state and national politics for the past 25 years. At two different times, 1932 and 1934, he was the Republican nominee for Railway Commissioner of Iowa. In 1936 he was made permanent chairman of the Iowa State Presidential Convention.

He entered Iowa City politics in 1935 when he was made city solicitor. Two years later he was elected mayor. Martin did not serve in the state legislature. Instead he went from mayor of Iowa City to a member of the House of Representatives. He served in the 76th through 80th Congresses.

Since his election to the House in 1938, he has been a member of the Military Affairs Committee, Ways and Means Committee and a member of the congressional subcommittee on administration of internal revenue laws. He also served as chairman of the Iowa delegation in the house.

Martin's college achievements reveal his leadership ability was not developed through political work alone. While he was attending SUI Law School following World War I, he served as assistant Professor of Military Science and Tactics.

He was also assistant track coach and auditor for some 25 fraternities and businesses in Iowa City.

When he received his Doctor of Jurisprudence degree in 1927, he was made a member of the Order of Coif, which is the Phi Beta Kappa of law. He was also awarded a 2-year scholarship by Columbia University.

Several of his campus activities included Omicron Delta Kappa, honorary men's leadership fraternity, AFL, All For Iowa, which he helped organize in 1915, Alpha Tau Omega social fraternity, and Phi Delta Phi, law fraternity.

After taking a year of graduate work at Columbia, Martin practiced accounting and law in Iowa City. He was admitted to the Iowa bar in 1927 and to the U.S. Supreme Court bar in 1939.

Martin has been an advocate of farm support.

He has praised the soil bank and has predicted that it will give Corn Belt farmers badly needed help and start the gradual reduction of stored surpluses of basic crops.

Mechanization of farming is pulling the farmer off the farm, not political parties, Martin told the SUI Young Republicans when he spoke to the group last fall.

He feels that a small industrial development program for Iowa is the answer to the farm problem. Annually Martin sends out a questionnaire to his constituents asking them for their opinions on congressional issues of the day. He started this practice as First District Congressman and is continuing it as U.S. Senator.

"The overall economic picture in our country is excellent," Martin said recently.

Martin has said that he would almost rather talk about track than politics. The extra-track coach for SUI, has an unusual explanation for his interest in track.

"One day back in 1921, when I was thinking about digging into the law books, I decided to go over to the track to watch the weight men perform."

Martin casually told the coach that the swingers of the 35-pound hammers were letting go without making a proper whirl-around. He showed them and came within a couple of inches of setting a new outdoor record. Shortly after this incident, Martin was asked to be SUI track coach.

During World War I, Martin served with the 35th Infantry in Europe. He retired from service in 1919 as a captain.

Woodwind Group To Appear Here

The Philadelphia Woodwind Quintet, sponsored by the University Concert Course, will present a concert at 8 p.m. Monday in Macbride Auditorium.

Students may obtain free tickets upon presentation of ID cards at the East Lobby Desk of the Iowa Memorial Union.

Non-student reserved seats are available for $1.50. Tickets will be distributed from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. today, from 1 to 5 p.m. tomorrow and from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday. Tickets may also be purchased at Macbride Hall from 7 p.m. until concert time Monday.

The Quintet will open the program with Mozart's "Divertimento No. 8, K. 213." Other selections will include "Quintet in E flat, Op. 88, No. 2" by Anton Reicha, "Divertissement (Trio), by Jean Francaix, and "La Cheminee du Roi Rene," by Darius Milhaud. "Trois Pieces Breve" by Jacques Ibert will be the final selection.

RIDES OPEN DAILY

City Park

Danceland

LOWA'S SMARTEST BALLROOM

Cedar Rapids, Iowa
TONITE
Top Country & Western Star
IN PERSON
RAY PRICE
plus

KENNY HOFER
& HIS MIDWESTERNERS
SATURDAY
"Boy Meets Girl Nite"
BUDDY MOORE
& HIS ORCHESTRA

SATURDAY SPECIAL
STUDENT RATES
Only 50¢ till 10 p.m.
with I.D. Card

ENGLERT TO-DAY!

1:30-4:00
6:45-9:00

SATURDAY "FANTASIA"
MORNING Doors Open 8:45 a.m.
Show At 9:30 a.m.

ENGLERT

STARTS SATURDAY TO-MORROW
1:15 P.M.

The Newspaper Comedy of The Year!

EXPLOSIVE FUN DELUXE DOLL
CINEMASCOPE And METRO COLOR!

GREGORY PECK
LAUREN BACALL
DESIGNING WOMAN
DOLORES GRAY

'TIS ALL FOR FUN...
FUN FOR ALL!

ENDS TONITE
2 BIG HITS

IOWA

STARTS SATURDAY THRU TUESDAY

HITCHCOCK'S FIRST REAL-LIFE THRILLER!

HENRY FONDA
VERA MILES
and the exciting city of New York in
ALFRED HITCHCOCK'S
The Wrong Man

Excellent Co-Hit

ALAN LADD VIRGINIA MAYO EDMOND O'BRIEN

THE BIG LAND

WARNERCOLOR
XTRA • COLOR CARTOON

DOORS OPEN 1:15

STRAND

STARTS TO-DAY
"ENDS MONDAY"

2—FIRST TIME—FIRST RUN HITS!

"The Screen's Terrifying Plunge Into Suspense!"

Crossfires of Vengeance at Crossroads of EMPIRE!

RUTH ROMAN STERLING HAYDEN

SCOTT BRADY MALA POWERS BILL WILLIAMS

FIVE STEPS TO DANGER

THE STORM RIDER

You Get Amazing Results With WANT ADS

Looking for a bargain? A job? Hired help? Or a home? Then check the want ads in today's and everyday's Iowa Classified section.

CLASSIFIED Advertising Pays

1st TIME IN IOWA CITY!

VARSAITY

NOW "OVER THE WEEK-END"
THE WONDER MUSICAL OF ALL TIME!

Admission This Attraction
Matinee Till 5:30 P.M. — 65c
Evening & Sunday — 75c
Children — 25c

RODGERS & HAMMERSTEIN
present
OKLAHOMA!

SHOWS AT
1:30, 4:00, 6:30, 9:00 P.M.
"LAST FEATURE"—9:10 P.M.

Phone 2213

DRIVE-IN Theatre

TONITE and SATURDAY!

6 BIG FEATURES IN ALL STARTING AT 7:30

- 1 "TEENAGE CRIME WAVE"
- 2 "TOP GUN" Sterling Hayden
- 3 "SANTA FE PASSAGE"
- 4 Walt Disney's "LIVING SWAMP"

These 4 Features Tonite and Saturday PLUS THIS

BIG BONUS ROCK and ROLL & HORROR SHOW

FUN FILLED MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT

Guy Mitchell "MIRTH and MELODY"
"Tony Pastor's Orchestra" Clooney Sisters

Late Late Horror Feature Scott Brady in "TERROR AT MIDNITE"

6 Big Features Tonite & Sat. See them all at no extra charge! 1st Show Starts At 7:30 Box Office Open Till 12:00

More Values Than You Can Count in Today's CLASSIFIED ADS

Rooms for Rent

ROOMS for girls. Phone 8-2913. 5-8
BEAN room $15.00 — 5586. 5-8
SINGLE or double rooms for men. Close to Good parking. 8700. 5-11
Miscellaneous for Sale
SHELF for barracks, available now. Phone 8-1416. 5-7
SUV-BED, 8-2618. 5-16
Babe-Tenda high chair, 2243. 5-4
GOLF out sale on several models and sizes of bicycles. Novony's Cycle Center, 224 So. Clinton St. 5-4
SALE: Mercury outboard motor 19 @ H.P. Novony's Cycle Center, 224 So. Clinton St. 5-4
MUSNET, jumper seat, carriage, crib and scales—excellent condition. 8-2106. 5-8
BED site parts. Goody's—801 Madison Lane. Dial 3992. 5-2
SINKING OUT 30-inch steel bunk beds and studio. Pickart Mattress Co., 614 W. West. 5-8

Help Wanted

PART TIME — all around restaurant help. Apply in person. Sky Harbor Cafe — Airport. 5-3
WANTED: Experienced checkers. Produce and meat wrappers. Smith's Super-Value, Coralville. 5-25

Apartment for Rent

NEW 2 bedroom duplex sublet for summer. Furnished. $85.00 per month, call 8-4622 after 5:30. 5-3
4 ROOM upstairs apartment, private bath, stove and refrigerator furnished. 6868. 5-8
APARTMENTS 8-4843. 5-30
APARTMENT FOR RENT: Phone 63992. One room furnished apartment. Private bath, suitable for married couple or graduate boys. One block from business district. $50.00 per month with utilities paid. 5-25

Classified Advertising Rates

One Day ..... 8c a Word
Two Days ..... 10c a Word
Three Days ..... 12c a Word
Four Days ..... 14c a Word
Five Days ..... 15c a Word
Ten Days ..... 20c a Word
One Month ..... 39c a Word

LAFF-A-DAY

"Yoo-hoo!... You the baloney on rye?"

Trailer for Sale

1956 Elcar 35 ft. 2-bedroom trailer. Air-conditioned, carpeted. With 8x8 ft. extra room. Located at Forest View Court. Available for June 8th occupancy. Write Box 18, Daily Iowan. 5-10

Autos for Sale

1954 INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER station wagon — Low miles. Economical, good condition. $556 or 8-0225. 5-4
1955 Volkswagen, excellent condition $1,345.00. Evenings or weekends. 8-4576. 5-4
1948 Pontiac Hydramatic. Good condition 5564. 5-3

Typing

TYPING-MIMEOGRAPHING, Notary Public. Mary V. Burns, 801 Iowa State Bank Building. Dial 2656. 6-2
TYPING 8-0437. 5-30
TYPING 2447. 5-26
TYPING 8-0429. 5-23
TYPING: All kinds. 8-3997. 5-4
TYPING. 4991. 5-3
THESIS typing 9302. 7-2CE
TYPING 6343. 5-4

Pets for Sale

BUY Merry Paws cockers. Dial 4600. 5-14

Personal Loans

PERSONAL Loans on typewriters, phonographs, sports equipment, and jewelry. Hawk-eye Loan Co., 221 S. Capitol. 5-18R

REGULAR $11.95
SAVE $10.95 NOW
BUNNY BEAR CRIB-MATRESS FOR ONLY $1

WHEN YOU BUY YOUR STORKLINE BABY BED MORRIS

FURNITURE CO.
DIAL 7212 217 S. CLINTON

Display Ads

One Insertion ..... 98c a Column Inch
Five Insertions a Month, each insertion ..... 88c a Column Inch
Ten Insertions a Month, each insertion ..... 80c a Column Inch (Minimum Charge 50c)

DEADLINE

Deadline for all classified advertising is 2 P. M. for insertion in following morning's issue. The Daily Iowan reserves the right to reject any advertising copy.

DIAL 4191

Pets for Sale
BUY Merry Paws cockers. Dial 4600. 5-14

Personal Loans

PERSONAL Loans on typewriters, phonographs, sports equipment, and jewelry. Hawk-eye Loan Co., 221 S. Capitol. 5-18R

No Job Too Small None Too BIG

AT
SY SEYDEL Auto Service

DIAL 3974
QUALITY WORKMANSHIP AT REASONABLE PRICES

BLONDIE

WRITING INVITATIONS TO MY PARTY
WHAT ARE YOU DOING SIS?
ARE YOU GOING TO INVITE ALVIN AND ME?
NO
I'M NOT INVITING ANY MIDDLE-AGED PEOPLE AT ALL
WHAT DOES THAT MAKE US?

BEETLE BAILEY

I THOUGHT IT WOULD CONDITION THEM TO LIVING IN FOXHOLES IF THEY EVER HAD TO HAVE YOU HAD TROUBLE WITH ANY OF THEM?
NO, SIR. THEY DUG THEIR HOLES TWO WEEKS AGO
... AND I HAVEN'T HEARD A SQUAWK FROM ANYONE!

By CHIC YOUNG

By MORT WALKER

Realistically Frank! Unbearably Exciting!

IT'S INTIMACY IGNITES THE SCREEN

NOT SINCE... "ONE SUMMER OF HAPPINESS" HAS A FILM BEEN SO REAL... SO BOLD!

Giselle Pascal, who was Prince Rainier's Constant Companion prior to his marriage appears as the "Femme Fatale" in the film.

IT DEFINITELY IS FOR ADULT AUDIENCES!

FIRE UNDER HER SKIN

NOW!
THE CAPITOL
MID-WEST PREMIERE

Giselle Pascal
Raymond PELLEGRIN

Old Standby M1 Rifle Bows to Progress

THE ARMY'S NEW AUTOMATIC RIFLE, M14, is held at ready by Pfc. Cornelius Brands, Rock Valley, Iowa, during a demonstration by the Department of Defense in Washington, D.C. The new rifle will replace the Garand M1, the Browning Automatic rifle, the carbine and the M3 submachine gun. The weapon will use 7.62mm ammunition, the standard adopted by NATO troops.

Ike Jerks Ambassador Richards from Mideast

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower Thursday gave up on Egypt, Syria and Jordan as participants at this time in his military-economic plan for combating Middle East communism.

The President called home his special ambassador, James P. Richards, choosing not to have him mark time waiting for invitations to visit these three Arab countries.

The invitations seemed unlikely to be forthcoming. All three nations had made clear they took a dim view of the Eisenhower resolution and its $200 million. Each, in its own way, had cold-shouldered Richards.

Benson Says Farm Control Is Impossible

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson said Thursday it has become virtually impossible to control farm production.

He said crop control and price support programs have been outmoded by a "technological and expansion" on the farm, and explained:

"Production per farm worker has doubled in the last 15 years. This creates a new dimension in farm policy and makes it virtually impossible to curtail agricultural output with the type of controls acceptable in our society."

Benson had these remarks in a letter to Chairman Allen Ellender (D-La.), of the Senate Agriculture Committee, who had asked the secretary to consider problems arising under existing price support legislation.

Benson wrote that major provisions of present farm laws have failed. He had criticism for crop control measures enacted under Democratic administrations in the late 1930s, and since amended, and also for the flexible price support system Congress accepted in 1954, at the urging of President Eisenhower and himself.

The secretary cautioned, too, against continuation of the soil bank reserve plan beyond its expiration date in 1959. Both Republicans and Democrats have taken credit for the soil bank concept. It is designed to reduce the huge surpluses of farm commodities held by the government.

In this connection, Benson wrote Ellender:

"There are two things which the American people are not likely to tolerate:

1. The rebuilding of surpluses in response to high wartime incentives after stocks have been pulled down by surplus disposal and the soil bank.
2. A permanent soil bank and a permanent disposal program of the dimensions made necessary by price incentives and ineffective controls."

While finding fault with the past and present farm program, Benson did not lay down any formula for the future. He did say a worthy goal would be the highest possible farm income, and said this can be achieved only through a combination of large marketings and competitive prices.

Ellender said in a statement he wasn't surprised at Benson's stand. He said the secretary "has been hinting that the current program should be abandoned."

But Mr. Eisenhower decided Wednesday to cancel that meeting. Instead, he directed Richards to return to Washington. For the record, it was explained that Richards is coming here to help prepare the new foreign aid bill.

Officials made little effort, however, to hide a more practical reason. This was that after touring 12 countries in six weeks and with three more on his schedule.

The State Department said that, after going from Greece to Israel today, Richards will visit Tunisia on Saturday and Morocco on Monday, returning to Washington next Wednesday. On Thursday he is scheduled to attend a meeting of congressional leaders on foreign aid at the White House.

Richards' decision to go to Israel, caused more than one set of eyebrows to be raised. The Eisenhower Administration has been jealously guarding the Arab good will it won by its opposition last October to the British-French-Israeli attack on Egypt.

Richards' visit to Israel is not expected to sit well with most Arab leaders or with State Department officials concentrating on keeping on good terms with the Arabs. At least some of these officials were reported to have advised against an Israeli visit, but Richards was understood to have elected to go when Mr. Eisenhower indicated that was what he wanted.

State Department press officer, Lincoln White said the Richards mission will end upon Richards' return to Washington. He put it this way at his news conference:

"It is envisaged that discussion of the doctrine will be carried out through normal diplomatic channels with such of those countries as may indicate sufficient interest in doing so."

Richards' decision to go to Israel, caused more than one set of eyebrows to be raised. The Eisenhower Administration has been jealously guarding the Arab good will it won by its opposition last October to the British-French-Israeli attack on Egypt.

Richards' visit to Israel is not expected to sit well with most Arab leaders or with State Department officials concentrating on keeping on good terms with the Arabs. At least some of these officials were reported to have advised against an Israeli visit, but Richards was understood to have elected to go when Mr. Eisenhower indicated that was what he wanted.

State Department press officer, Lincoln White said the Richards mission will end upon Richards' return to Washington. He put it this way at his news conference:

"It is envisaged that discussion of the doctrine will be carried out through normal diplomatic channels with such of those countries as may indicate sufficient interest in doing so."

Richards' decision to go to Israel, caused more than one set of eyebrows to be raised. The Eisenhower Administration has been jealously guarding the Arab good will it won by its opposition last October to the British-French-Israeli attack on Egypt.

Richards' visit to Israel is not expected to sit well with most Arab leaders or with State Department officials concentrating on keeping on good terms with the Arabs. At least some of these officials were reported to have advised against an Israeli visit, but Richards was understood to have elected to go when Mr. Eisenhower indicated that was what he wanted.

State Department press officer, Lincoln White said the Richards mission will end upon Richards' return to Washington. He put it this way at his news conference:

"It is envisaged that discussion of the doctrine will be carried out through normal diplomatic channels with such of those countries as may indicate sufficient interest in doing so."

Richards' decision to go to Israel, caused more than one set of eyebrows to be raised. The Eisenhower Administration has been jealously guarding the Arab good will it won by its opposition last October to the British-French-Israeli attack on Egypt.

Richards' visit to Israel is not expected to sit well with most Arab leaders or with State Department officials concentrating on keeping on good terms with the Arabs. At least some of these officials were reported to have advised against an Israeli visit, but Richards was understood to have elected to go when Mr. Eisenhower indicated that was what he wanted.

State Department press officer, Lincoln White said the Richards mission will end upon Richards' return to Washington. He put it this way at his news conference:

"It is envisaged that discussion of the doctrine will be carried out through normal diplomatic channels with such of those countries as may indicate sufficient interest in doing so."

Richards' decision to go to Israel, caused more than one set of eyebrows to be raised. The Eisenhower Administration has been jealously guarding the Arab good will it won by its opposition last October to the British-French-Israeli attack on Egypt.

Richards' visit to Israel is not expected to sit well with most Arab leaders or with State Department officials concentrating on keeping on good terms with the Arabs. At least some of these officials were reported to have advised against an Israeli visit, but Richards was understood to have elected to go when Mr. Eisenhower indicated that was what he wanted.

State Department press officer, Lincoln White said the Richards mission will end upon Richards' return to Washington. He put it this way at his news conference:

"It is envisaged that discussion of the doctrine will be carried out through normal diplomatic channels with such of those countries as may indicate sufficient interest in doing so."

Richards' decision to go to Israel, caused more than one set of eyebrows to be raised. The Eisenhower Administration has been jealously guarding the Arab good will it won by its opposition last October to the British-French-Israeli attack on Egypt.

Richards' visit to Israel is not expected to sit well with most Arab leaders or with State Department officials concentrating on keeping on good terms with the Arabs. At least some of these officials were reported to have advised against an Israeli visit, but Richards was understood to have elected to go when Mr. Eisenhower indicated that was what he wanted.

State Department press officer, Lincoln White said the Richards mission will end upon Richards' return to Washington. He put it this way at his news conference:

"It is envisaged that discussion of the doctrine will be carried out through normal diplomatic channels with such of those countries as may indicate sufficient interest in doing so."

Richards' decision to go to Israel, caused more than one set of eyebrows to be raised. The Eisenhower Administration has been jealously guarding the Arab good will it won by its opposition last October to the British-French-Israeli attack on Egypt.

Richards' visit to Israel is not expected to sit well with most Arab leaders or with State Department officials concentrating on keeping on good terms with the Arabs. At least some of these officials were reported to have advised against an Israeli visit, but Richards was understood to have elected to go when Mr. Eisenhower indicated that was what he wanted.

State Department press officer, Lincoln White said the Richards mission will end upon Richards' return to Washington. He put it this way at his news conference:

"It is envisaged that discussion of the doctrine will be carried out through normal diplomatic channels with such of those countries as may indicate sufficient interest in doing so."

Richards' decision to go to Israel, caused more than one set of eyebrows to be raised. The Eisenhower Administration has been jealously guarding the Arab good will it won by its opposition last October to the British-French-Israeli attack on Egypt.

Richards' visit to Israel is not expected to sit well with most Arab leaders or with State Department officials concentrating on keeping on good terms with the Arabs. At least some of these officials were reported to have advised against an Israeli visit, but Richards was understood to have elected to go when Mr. Eisenhower indicated that was what he wanted.

State Department press officer, Lincoln White said the Richards mission will end upon Richards' return to Washington. He put it this way at his news conference:

"It is envisaged that discussion of the doctrine will be carried out through normal diplomatic channels with such of those countries as may indicate sufficient interest in doing so."

Richards' decision to go to Israel, caused more than one set of eyebrows to be raised. The Eisenhower Administration has been jealously guarding the Arab good will it won by its opposition last October to the British-French-Israeli attack on Egypt.

Richards' visit to Israel is not expected to sit well with most Arab leaders or with State Department officials concentrating on keeping on good terms with the Arabs. At least some of these officials were reported to have advised against an Israeli visit, but Richards was understood to have elected to go when Mr. Eisenhower indicated that was what he wanted.

State Department press officer, Lincoln White said the Richards mission will end upon Richards' return to Washington. He put it this way at his news conference:

"It is envisaged that discussion of the doctrine will be carried out through normal diplomatic channels with such of those countries as may indicate sufficient interest in doing so."

The M1 rifle, the standard piece of equipment for U.S. infantrymen, will continue to be used by SUI ROTC students for the next year or so, Col. Max V. Kirkbride, head of the SUI Department of Military Science, said Thursday.

The Army has announced plans to scrap the M1 for another weapon, the M14, called the T44 during tests.

Kirkbride said that barring an emergency, it would probably take several years for the new weapons to be put into production.

The new weapons, Kirkbride said, are lighter than the M1 and consequently much easier for the foot soldier to carry. He said that he has seen a model of the M14 and although he has little information on the new weapon, it will probably hold more ammunition than the M1 and have a more rapid rate of fire.

SUI's ROTC unit, Kirkbride said, has 200 M1 rifles which are used by about 300 students. At the present time, he added, these weapons are not used for target practice at the Army.

A new ammunition which would burst on contact is being perfected, he said, and it would be safe enough to use for target practice with the M14 at SUI.

As the M1 rifles are gradually replaced, he said, the Army may give the obsolete weapons to other countries.

Worn-out rifles will be melted down for new weapons and it is possible that some of the M1's will be made available for public sale.

Kirkbride said that barring an emergency, it would probably take several years for the new weapons to be put into production.

The new weapons, Kirkbride said, are lighter than the M1 and consequently much easier for the foot soldier to carry. He said that he has seen a model of the M14 and although he has little information on the new weapon, it will probably hold more ammunition than the M1 and have a more rapid rate of fire.

SUI's ROTC unit, Kirkbride said, has 200 M1 rifles which are used by about 300 students. At the present time, he added, these weapons are not used for target practice at the Army.

A new ammunition which would burst on contact is being perfected, he said, and it would be safe enough to use for target practice with the M14 at SUI.

As the M1 rifles are gradually replaced, he said, the Army may give the obsolete weapons to other countries.

Worn-out rifles will be melted down for new weapons and it is possible that some of the M1's will be made available for public sale.

Kirkbride said that barring an emergency, it would probably take several years for the new weapons to be put into production.

The new weapons, Kirkbride said, are lighter than the M1 and consequently much easier for the foot soldier to carry. He said that he has seen a model of the M14 and although he has little information on the new weapon, it will probably hold more ammunition than the M1 and have a more rapid rate of fire.

SUI's ROTC unit, Kirkbride said, has 200 M1 rifles which are used by about 300 students. At the present time, he added, these weapons are not used for target practice at the Army.

A new ammunition which would burst on contact is being perfected, he said, and it would be safe enough to use for target practice with the M14 at SUI.

As the M1 rifles are gradually replaced, he said, the Army may give the obsolete weapons to other countries.

Worn-out rifles will be melted down for new weapons and it is possible that some of the M1's will be made available for public sale.

Kirkbride said that barring an emergency, it would probably take several years for the new weapons to be put into production.

The new weapons, Kirkbride said, are lighter than the M1 and consequently much easier for the foot soldier to carry. He said that he has seen a model of the M14 and although he has little information on the new weapon, it will probably hold more ammunition than the M1 and have a more rapid rate of fire.

SUI's ROTC unit, Kirkbride said, has 200 M1 rifles which are used by about 300 students. At the present time, he added, these weapons are not used for target practice at the Army.

A new ammunition which would burst on contact is being perfected, he said, and it would be safe enough to use for target practice with the M14 at SUI.

As the M1 rifles are gradually replaced, he said, the Army may give the obsolete weapons to other countries.

Worn-out rifles will be melted down for new weapons and it is possible that some of the M1's will be made available for public sale.

Kirkbride said that barring an emergency, it would probably take several years for the new weapons to be put into production.

The new weapons, Kirkbride said, are lighter than the M1 and consequently much easier for the foot soldier to carry. He said that he has seen a model of the M14 and although he has little information on the new weapon, it will probably hold more ammunition than the M1 and have a more rapid rate of fire.

SUI's ROTC unit, Kirkbride said, has 200 M1 rifles which are used by about 300 students. At the present time, he added, these weapons are not used for target practice at the Army.

A new ammunition which would burst on contact is being perfected, he said, and it would be safe enough to use for target practice with the M14 at SUI.

As the M1 rifles are gradually replaced, he said, the Army may give the obsolete weapons to other countries.

Worn-out rifles will be melted down for new weapons and it is possible that some of the M1's will be made available for public sale.

Kirkbride said that barring an emergency, it would probably take several years for the new weapons to be put into production.

The new weapons, Kirkbride said, are lighter than the M1 and consequently much easier for the foot soldier to carry. He said that he has seen a model of the M14 and although he has little information on the new weapon, it will probably hold more ammunition than the M1 and have a more rapid rate of fire.

SUI's ROTC unit, Kirkbride said, has 200 M1 rifles which are used by about 300 students. At the present time, he added, these weapons are not used for target practice at the Army.

A new ammunition which would burst on contact is being perfected, he said, and it would be safe enough to use for target practice with the M14 at SUI.

As the M1 rifles are gradually replaced, he said, the Army may give the obsolete weapons to other countries.

Worn-out rifles will be melted down for new weapons and it is possible that some of the M1's will be made available for public sale.

AFROTC Awards To Forty Students

Forty SUI students will receive awards this afternoon during the annual SUI Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps awards program.

The Air Force ROTC awards parade is an annual event at SUI, during which individual members of the unit are singled out for their military and scholastic accomplishments.

The Military Scholastic Medal is awarded to cadets who receive a Military Science and Leadership grade of A and an academic grade of B. Military Scholastic Keys are presented to senior cadets who through their extra-curricular activities and interest in air science, perform outstanding service promoting the Air Force ROTC.

The "Convair" award is a model airplane which is presented to an outstanding sophomore to heighten interest in flight training. Two sophomore students will receive medals from the Reserve Officers Association and an outstanding senior will receive the Air Force Association Award. Minute Man Awards are made to students in the first year basic course for leadership, military bearing, and knowledge of the founders of the United States.

The awards will be presented by Dean Dewey B. Stuit of the College of Liberal Arts; Dean Francis M. Dawson of the College of Engineering; Dean Sidney G. Winter of the College of Commerce, and Dean Mason Ladd of the College of Law.

University Briefs

MUSIC FESTIVAL — Two hundred musicians from Franklin High School in Cedar Rapids will join with students from Iowa City High School for the second High School Music Festival Concert today and Saturday.

PHYSICAL THERAPY — Olive Farr, director of the Physical Therapy Department at SUI, will attend the Northern Midwest Physical Therapy Directors Meeting in Chicago Saturday and Sunday.

PIANO RECITAL — Arthur Lambert, G. Portales, N. M., will present a piano recital at SUI Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in North Music Hall.

HUMANITIES LECTURE — How America's pre-Civil War fiction expressed national interests and self-doubts will be analyzed Monday at 8 p.m. in Old Capitol in a public lecture by Prof. Perry Miller of Harvard University, distinguished specialist in American literature and intellectual history.

To speak on "The Romance and Novel in America, 1820-1860," Miller will offer the 11th lecture in the 1956-57 series of the SUI Humanities Society.

ENCYCLOPEDIA BRITANNICA — Mr. Robert S. Conger, vice-president of Encyclopedia Britannica, Inc. will speak at the Monday meeting of the SUI Student Marketing Club. A coffee hour after the meeting will honor the faculty and staff of the marketing department.

JOURNALISM TRIP — Eight SUI journalism students are leaving for Grinnell today to edit and publish the Grinnell Herald-Register for the week of May 3-10.

The trip provides experience for the journalism students in the problems of publishing a semi-weekly newspaper. It is also an experience for the merchants of Grinnell, who will buy advertisements from the students for the paper.

The trip is sponsored by the SUI School of Journalism in conjunction with the Herald-Register.

Teamster's Veep Says Union Safe

DES MOINES (AP)—James R. Hoffa, of Detroit, an international vice-president of the Teamsters Union, said here Thursday that "there isn't anybody going to destroy the Teamsters—we're going to get larger and larger."

Hoffa was here for a closed meeting with representatives of teamsters locals in Iowa and Nebraska.

"We're in Des Moines to discuss what has happened to the Teamsters Union in the last two or three months," Hoffa said in an interview. "We're doing it in all our states."

TIRES

CHECK OUR USED TIRE BARGAINS!

Factory New Treads

Firestone

22 S. Dubuque

CHOOSE 2 FINE HARRIS HOTELS IN NEW YORK

HOTEL TIMES SQUARE 436 ST. WEST OF BROADWAY 1000 rooms with radio and MUSEUM from $375

HOTEL KNICKERBOCKER 434 ST. EAST OF BROADWAY 400 fine rooms with radio from $4

TELEVISION AIR-CONDITIONED Other Harris Hotels

JU-2-4200 LA-4-6900

CINCINNATI, Metropole Broadway Kemper Lane

Respective Offices: MIAMI BEACH, Seagrain HOTEL METROPOLE, Cincinnati, Ohio DETROIT, (for Wayne Hotel) ARTHUR H. WOFFMAN, Managing Director COLUMBUS, Columbus Hotel

Matrix Awards Presented

Margaret Rickett, A4, Fullerton, Calif., and Mrs. Wallace Maner, Iowa City, were presented the annual Matrix awards Thursday evening at the Matrix Table banquet in the Iowa Memorial Union.

Each year Theta Sigma Phi women's journalism honorary, presents the awards to the outstanding woman student and Iowa City's outstanding woman in civic affairs.

Mrs. Kay Metz, member of the public relations staff of the Quaker Oats Company in Chicago, gave the main address on "Women's Role in Today's World."

Mrs. Metz told her audience that it is difficult to hide "the growing importance of women to our country, our industry and our over-all economy."

One of the reasons women are important is because "they have influence and they use it," Mrs. Metz said.

"There is still in America a power bigger than government, big as it is," she said. "There is still in America a power equal in force to the atom bomb and only one!"

"Abraham Lincoln called it public sentiment. He said that without it, nothing could succeed, and that with it, nothing could fail. Today we call it public opinion."

Our government has mushroomed into a huge operation, Mrs. Metz said. "We are baffled by its complexity, frightened by its size."

"The balance of power lies in the hands of women," Mrs. Metz concluded.

"May we use our numerical strength, our economic resources and our influence to put our government back on the path to national stability and solvency from which it has strayed so far."

See Our Bargains At

THE JUMBLE SHOP

129 1/2 S. Capitol

Why not call us to pick-up your salable discards when you move or clean house?

Call 8-1477

FOR COLLECTIONS

Sponsored by St. Thomas More Guild & Catholic Student Center

OPEN SATURDAYS 9 A.M. - 3 P.M.

GIVE YOURSELF A WARM WEATHER TREAT

BEAT THE HEAT AND FOLLOW THE GANG TO JOE'S PLACE.

DELICIOUS ITALIAN PIZZA

- CHEESE • SAUSAGE • ANCHOVY • MUSHROOM

Your Favorite COLD Beer

ON TAP

- MICHELOB
- HAMMS
- PABST
- SCHLITZ

JOE'S PLACE

"Where Friends Meet"

115 IOWA AVE. Ph. 9017

It's PICNIC TIME!

It's Spring, that means picnics! For your big outings be sure you stock up where you know you'll get the best quality for the lowest price... Shop HY-VEE.

ROUND STEAK	lb.	59 <sup>c</sup>
CLUB STEAK	lb.	69 <sup>c</sup>
SIRLOIN STEAK	lb.	79 <sup>c</sup>

A MUST FOR ANY PICNIC

Fresh Baked COOKIES

2 doz. 49<sup>c</sup>

GERBER BABY FOOD 3 cans 23<sup>c</sup>

DEL MONTE PEAS 2 Tall Cans 35<sup>c</sup>

BANANAS

lb. 10<sup>c</sup>

IT PAYS TO SHOP AT

FOOD STORES

227 Kirkwood

Open Weekdays 9 A.M. to 9 P.M.

Open Sundays 9 A.M. to 6 P.M.

MIRACLE WHIP Qt. Jar 39<sup>c</sup>

Carnation MILK 3 cans 39<sup>c</sup>

FRESH GROUND BEEF 3 lbs. 89<sup>c</sup>

VISTA PACK CRACKERS 46-Oz. Cans 19<sup>c</sup>

GOLDEN RIPE

KRAFT ORANGE DRINK 46-Oz. Cans 69<sup>c</sup>

LUSH'S Tomato JUICE 46-Oz. Cans 49<sup>c</sup>

Established in 1911

Se

Nuclear Best De NATO S

BONN, German ministers of NA meeting Friday munique declaring of deterring Sovi terrible firepowe clear weapons.

"Pending an a ment on disarmam ministers, "no p right to deny the possession of needed for its de NATO officials Ministers' Council its joint retort to threats and w atomic guided n Scandinavia. W Greece and Turke

The communicu viet Union is realy on defense prep only to "accept a ment agreement fective measures" inspection within t the proposals ma occasions by the ers."

It added the So aimed at giving monopoly of nucl the European cont remarked:

The Council wa longed division of the anomalous s lin" is a "cont world peace and German reunificat

Earlier, the r West German F Heinrich von Br Secretary of Sta Dulles in warnin many is a turbul might erupt at

The ministers p possible means to viet Union to hon that Germany sho by free elections the Geneva "su 1955.

Corre

A story in lowan incorrec the Board of Tru Publications, Inc open meeting Ma

The Trustees w May 9 to finish were unable to regular meeting

At the May Board will set statements on the ial supervision p

Persons wishin ments must noti writing by 5 p.m. fications may be 205, Communicat

"MODULUS-H," projects when the SUI Art Building Gardner, of the S of the feature pra