about the so-called murder of a

But the testimony of witness Vernon Nelson, Chester, Ark., 44, who had been present with the defendant, William D. Miller on the night of the slaying, was falsely presented as truth.

Miller's wife, Mrs. Nola Miller, was falsely convicted of murder.

The newly convicted

Judge Approves Sale Of 'Turncoat' Adhesive From Rival Firm

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal judge has approved the sale of "Turncoat" adhesive from a rival firm.

The ruling comes after a trial that lasted several days. The judge found that the adhesive is essentially the same as the "Turncoat" product, which was developed by a rival company.

The ruling also ended a long-standing dispute between the two companies. It is expected to have a significant impact on the adhesive market.

For more information, please contact the judge's office at (123) 456-7890.

Race Track Shut Over Wage Strike

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., May 19.—San Francisco race track officials closed down the tracks yesterday in a wage dispute with the organized teams. Strikers throughout the racing men of California, the employers groups, and the racing and the union enemies will be called. It is feared the shutdown of the tracks will mean the loss of the season. The strike is the result of a wage cut of 25 cents an hour, the pay cut being carried out today. The strike will mean the end of the season. The tracks have been closed because of the strike. The track men want their wages increased to $2.10. The tracks have been closed because of the strike. The track men want their wages increased to $2.10.

MOVES TO REVERSE SMITH ACT CONVICTIONS

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The Government's recent victory in its effort to get convictions under the Smith Act for Citizens for a Better America is overruled by the Supreme Court in the case of the Citizens for a Better America, Inc.

The Supreme Court decision in the Citizens for a Better America case today reverses the conviction of the group under the provisions of the Act which makes it a crime to organize or support any organization that advocates the overthrow of the Government by force.

The Court said the decision was based on the finding that the group had not advocated the overthrow of the Government.

The decision was unanimous.

The Smith Act was declared unconstitutional by the Court as applied to the group.

The decision was announced by Justice Hugo L. Black, who wrote the opinion for the Court.
