BIG TEN TEAM SHOULD BE FIRST: COACHES

Chicago—"The loser is the harder test in Big Ten conference competition." That was the opinion of football coaches attending a meeting of Big Ten football coaches Tuesday night at the Chicago Bears Football Club. In his report, Coach Edward Deacon, head football coach at the University of Illinois, expressed the belief that the Illinois football team would not be able to compete with the Big Ten teams if it were not for the fact that the Big Ten teams have been playing each other for 10 years.

The Illinois football team is expected to play against the University of Wisconsin this week. The game is scheduled to take place at the Sportsman's Club in Chicago, where the Illinois team has scheduled its first game of the season.

For New Year's Day Classic

Chicago—Two sports last week that may determine the fate of the Big Ten football conferences were the games played between the University of Michigan and the University of Iowa. The University of Michigan, which leads the Big Ten conference in the East, defeated the University of Minnesota, which leads the Big Ten conference in the West, by a score of 20-13.

The University of Michigan, which is considered to be the best team in the Big Ten conference, defeated the University of Minnesota, which is considered to be the second best team in the Big Ten conference, by a score of 20-13.

NEW BOOK PRAISED BY SUL’S PRESIDENT

President Virgil M. Haucke said the book resembles a series of anonymous articles dealing with such subjects as United Nations, the values of science in education, and the political role of students. "The book is a timely and thoughtful study," he said.

"The book takes a serious look at some of the most pressing issues of our time," Haucke said. "It is a timely and valuable contribution to our understanding of the world we live in."

GREEN PLANTS AND DISEASE RESISTANCE CULTIVATED

Ardington, a University of Illinois plant physiologist who came to the United States from Cuba in 1946, said the plants are "a potential source of new sources of income for the University." He added that the plants could be used to produce new sources of income for the University.

NEW YORK — People from all over the world were reported keeping a close but friendly eye on the North Star, because of the recent claim that there is life on Venus. People were more interested in the news from Venus than in the nearby star, the North Star.

This is the conclusion of a new study, conducted by the North Star Research Center, which was released today. The study was conducted by the North Star Research Center, which was established by the United Nations for the purpose of investigating the possibility of life on Venus.

North Star scientists reported that the study was conducted by the North Star Research Center, which was established by the United Nations for the purpose of investigating the possibility of life on Venus.

Kiwanis Club of Waukesha

The Kiwanis Club of Waukesha held its monthly meeting on Tuesday, attended by approximately 60 members. The meeting agenda included updates on club activities, reports from various committees, and guest speakers. The guest speaker for the evening was Mr. John Singh, a prominent member of the Waukesha community, who shared insights on the impact of U.S. influence on India.

Singh discussed the historical context of the relationship between the United States and India, highlighting key events and milestones. He emphasized the importance of cultural exchange and educational initiatives in fostering mutual understanding. Singh also addressed the current state of affairs in both nations, concluding with a vision for future cooperation and the role Kiwanis clubs can play in promoting peace and prosperity.
