Putting the Apple on the Proper Desk

Always the Ulterior

Top officials of the present Administration are deeply worried about the future status of the American economic aid program...

We have the choice - which we are in the process of making by indifference - of allowing these nations to fend for themselves...

One Crisis Less

Teachers who have not succumbed to the organized propaganda that only the Federal Government can save us from the Sputnik crisis...

Our experience with the propaganda efforts of the Federal-aid-to-education exponents suggests that Dr. Edmunds and Dr. Schinnerer may know more about the subject than Washington does...

EDITOR'S NOTE: On December 16, 1957, SUI Pres. Vigil M. Hancher spoke to members of the Davenport Rotary club on American education and the challenge it faces from Russian scientific developments...

What is the meaning of the Russian venture in education for our own United States? First of all let us be sane enough to realize that we need not lie down and die on the one hand...

The first objective is to Americanize the foreign born and to make us one united people. The second is to create in our school children our ideals of individualism, initiative and enterprise...

Quite obviously we have a challenge to meet. Quite obviously we must give more thought to the importance of science and technology in the Russian way...

LET US PAUSE FOR A moment while you remember all the public school children you know - your own, your son's or daughter's, your neighbor's across the street...

ers demonstrated the truth of the possibility for all the world to see and believe. What value do we place on an Einstein, a Fermi, a von Neumann? Admiral Rickover, developer of our atom powered submarine, the Nautilus, says that the highest salaried man in Russia is the President of the Soviet Academy of Sciences...

IF OUTSTANDING MEN ARE to be attracted to science, we must learn to grant them the respect and status, the salaries and prerequisites due their ability and importance. If we solve our problem, we shall, in my judgment, do it in only one way. We shall do it (1) by providing the highest salaries and best working conditions for university teaching and research scientists and scholars...

WHAT RUSSIA POSSESSES that we do not possess is the power, either by setting salaries and prerequisites or by procurement and assignment, to direct its scientists and engineers to those tasks to which the regime attaches first importance.

First we must identify and educate, and, especially, we must identify and educate the very best. I once asked the wise director of a great foundation what he looked for in appraising the potentiality of a young artist. His thoughtful and incisive judgment was immediate and unhesitating: "I look for a great soul."

When in 1905 Einstein published his disarming simple formula: E equals mc squared, physicists saw the theoretical possibility of releasing energies on a scale never years later in the A-bombs of 1945 that Fermi, Oppenheimer and others demonstrated the truth of the possibility for all the world to see...

See any good movies over the holidays? If someone asked you to whistle something from one, and you hadn't been to a musical, chances are you wouldn't remember a note. That's the mark of a good film score - everyone has forgotten it after they leave the theatre...

Two Hollywood composers spend nearly all their time turning out scores for the films, and between them account for a goodly number of the scores available on record. Alfred Newman has to his credit such films as "Street Scene," "How Green Was My Valley," "Pinky," "Snows of Kilimanjaro," "The Robe," "David and Bathsheba" and "The Egyptian."

Another example of how well a score can fit in with the picture and how well it can fall apart without the picture, is "Baby Doll" on Columbia Records. Listen to this record and you will find it hard to believe all that trashy, decadent dirty noise was going on while you were trying to watch the movie.

Scientific advancement cannot be paid for and delivery demanded on a due date. Even two billion dollars will not produce one baby in less than the appointed time. And so we, as a people, must give our scientists and scholars time and resources, and prestige and compensation - and the assurance that there stands behind them - not a fickle mood, blown about by every changing wind - but a people firm of purpose and clear of vision, filled with a love of learning, seeking wisdom and understanding, and mindful that these are the products of slow and often painful growth.

WHEN INTRODUCED to a Western visitor, the students' dark eyes brightened. Smiling pleasantly, they were quick to correct their introduction as simply Vietnamese students.

'Needle Talk' by John Sunier

1930's did composers of note stick their necks out and try writing film scores. Today, we have scores of great musical value being written by such composers as Copland, Bliss, Honegger, Malcolm Arnold, Virgil Thomson and William Walton.

East German Students

LEIPZIG, East Germany (AP) - "We give education a high priority here," the student guide said proudly leading a Westerner through historic University of Leipzig, or Karl Marx University as the Communists call it.

WHEN INTRODUCED to a Western visitor, the students' dark eyes brightened. Smiling pleasantly, they were quick to correct their introduction as simply Vietnamese students.

Coeds To Perform Social Case Work

When your day is overflowing with meetings, classes and socializing, do you ever stop to think about the hundreds of people in Iowa City that have a day full of "nothing" ahead of them?

Approximately 20 SUI coeds thought of these people and decided to give up their extra "coffee hours" during the week to help them through social work.

The social case work interest group idea came from questionnaires handed out in the fall to all members of the University Young Women's Christian Association (YWCA), on which they were to indicate what they would like to work at in the YWCA.

Miss "Peg" Huffman, part-time executive director of the YWCA, said that many of the girls wanted to work with elderly people and young children through individual social work.

The third meeting of the group will be today at 4:30 p.m. in the East Lobby Conference Room of the Iowa Memorial Union.

The group will be co-advised by Miss Katherine Kruse, SUI School of Social Work, who will supervise the girls who will work with elderly people, and Mrs. Dale Falvey, supervisor of the Service Unit of the State Department of Social Welfare, who will help the girls working with young children.

Mary Caroline Long, A2, Cedar Rapids, is chairman. The program includes girls visiting elderly people in two Iowa City nursing homes for one hour each week. The elders are mostly alone and have no contact with the world around them.

Plans for the volunteer work with children will center around girls reading, tutoring or just playing with many youngsters who are living in foster homes in Iowa City. The children are here in order to attend either the speech or hearing clinics.

The coeds organize their ideas and plans this semester and will begin their various programs next semester. They plan to meet every other Thursday.

The first project for the nursing homes will concern Valentines Day and entertainment centered around it.

An orientation meeting about the needs of the aged and the young will be held as soon as plans are completed for February. Anyone interested in exploring the field of this social case work with this group may call the University YWCA, x2240.

Romance Language Key to Foreign Job

By JEAN DAVIES
Daily Iowan Staff Writer

With the "cash for your old books" market about ready to break wide open, don't get over-ambitious with your stack of throw-aways. That Spanish or French book may be the down payment for a ticket to Madrid, Lisbon, Paris or Rouen.

"EVERY YEAR we get more requests for foreign language candidates than there are candidates for the jobs," Edmund de Chasca, professor and head of the SUI Romance Language Department, reports.

De Chasca expressed the great need for qualified foreign language teachers recently (Daily Iowan, Jan. 8) saying that every year Government representatives come to SUI looking for people with linguistic backgrounds.

"We are usually unable to meet the number of informal requests from Government agencies, business and industry, and research," he said.

THE LIST of SUI graduates who are now employed in jobs resulting from a foreign language background, reads like a book on ideal jobs in ideal places: attache at the embassies in Lisbon and Helsinki; executive for Standard Oil Co. in Cali, Colombia; librarian in Santiago, Chile; French consultant for the Government in Washington; French writer for a publishing house in New York; and hundreds of others.

Tom Block, 1949 graduate of SUI, has one of the most unusual jobs resulting from a foreign language experience, de Chasca said. "Block graduated with an M.A. degree in Spanish but did not want to go into the teaching field. He is now manager of Sears Roebuck and Co. in Bogota, Colombia."

De Chasca mentioned several other SUI graduates who have interesting jobs in "far away places." Richard Sittler, 1952 SUI graduate, is in charge of the cultural exchange center in Bahia, Brazil. DeWayne Winterlin, 1952 SUI graduate, is a missionary in South America.

THE SUI DEPARTMENT of Romance Languages offers courses in French, Spanish, Italian and Russian. De Chasca pointed out that French is the language of one of the culturally richest nations of Europe, and Spanish is the language of most of the nations of the Western hemisphere with which the United States maintains important cultural and commercial relations.

Judging by class enrollment, SUI students are showing great interest in both Spanish and French. There are 625 students taking Spanish courses, 624 enrolled in French, 35 in Italian and 28 in the Russian classes.

Janis To Perform Wednesday In Music Association Concert

One of RCA Victor's top-flight pianists, Byron Janis, will perform Jan. 17 at 8 p.m. in Macbride Auditorium, the Iowa City Civic Music Association announced Wednesday.

Janis, who studied with Adele Marcus and Vladimir Horowitz, made his successful American debut at Carnegie Hall in 1948, and his British debut at Royal Festival Hall in 1953.

Janis recently has been noticed from coast-to-coast for his RCA Victor record album, "Byron Janis Plays Chopin."

Janis will open his concert with "Prelude, Fugue and Variation" by Franck, transcribed for piano by Harold Bauer; and "Sonata, Op. 53" (Waldstein) by Beethoven.

A Chopin group will include "Nocturne, Op. 27, No. 2," three mazurkas, and "Ballade in G Minor, Op. 23."

Moussorgsky's "Pictures at an Exhibition" will conclude the program. An exhibition of drawings by the architect, Victor Hartman, an intimate friend of Moussorgsky, inspired this composition.

Admission to the concert is by membership card issued by the Civic Music Association.

Arraign Two Men in Court On Wednesday

Two men were arraigned in Johnson County District Court Wednesday, one on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, and the other on a charge of operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated.

Charles Norman Riley was arraigned Wednesday in Johnson County District Court on charges of obtaining more than $1,600 under false pretenses.

Maria Herzog, Grand Rapids, Mich., in a joint account deposited the money in First National Bank, Iowa City, after Riley promised to marry her, according to a county attorney's information.

Mrs. Herzog said she met Riley on a ship returning from Germany Nov. 22, and accepted his proposal of marriage at that time.

Mrs. Riley said she last heard from Riley Dec. 22 after she deposited $2,000 in a joint account here.

Mrs. Herzog received a letter Dec. 24 stating Riley was married and had three children living in Germany.

Riley was arrested Dec. 28 in Iowa City by Police Sgt. Emmett Evans. Only $347.80 remained in the checking account, County Attorney William Tucker said.

District Judge Harold D. Evans appointed L. G. Klein, local attorney, to represent Riley and set continuation of the hearing for later this week.

Riley attended grade and high school in Iowa City.

Glenn H. Graper, R.R. 4, Iowa City, was arraigned Wednesday in Johnson County District Court on the charge of operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated, third offense.

Judge Harold D. Evans set continuation of the hearing for later this week, to give Graper opportunity to confer with his attorney before pleading.

According to a county attorney's information, Graper was arrested at 10 p.m. Dec. 30. Highway Patrolman H. R. Schapcott said Graper was driving south on Highway 218 from Cedar Rapids. Graper was convicted on OMVI charges Oct. 16, 1952, and Feb. 3, 1954.

Committee Okays Issuing of Booklets

DES MOINES — The State Superintendent of Public Instruction was authorized by the State Legislative Interim Committee Wednesday to publish three pamphlets dealing with school matters. The pamphlets are:

"How Good Is Your Local School System?" This is a guide for educators to use in evaluating a school system.

"Characteristics of a Good Local School System," an abbreviated version of the evaluation guide for dissemination to the general public.

A revised booklet discussing present problems and future goals of school district reorganization.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction J. C. Wright said money for the publications would come from savings realized from changing the form of the department's annual report.

$10,000 Goal Set For 1958 March Of Dimes Drive

A kick-off meeting for the 1958 Johnson County March of Dimes will be held at Curt Yocom's Restaurant tonight at 8 p.m.

This year's goal has been set at $10,000 according to campaign co-chairmen Vern Nagatz and Dick Oliphant. In 1957 the county fell short of its $10,000 goal. Only $9,113 was raised, Nagatz said.

A new feature of the '58 campaign will be a "Teens Against Polio" group headed by Joe Kennedy, 330 South Lucas St., and Sandra Fisher, 523 Brown St., Nagatz said. The youth group is planning a rock 'n roll dance Jan. 18.

The drive in Johnson county began a few days late, Tuesday, because both Nagatz and Oliphant were injured in an auto accident on their return from the National March of Dimes meeting held in Chicago in November. Both men have now recovered and are active in the 1958 campaign.

Ivan Gives Cash to Help U.S. Overcome Russia

LANCASTER, Pa. — The Lancaster New Era Wednesday received a $10 bill to start "to help America catch up with Russia in the missile race."

The sender identified himself only as "Ivan."

A letter, accompanying the bill, was reproduced on the front page of the paper with this notation by the editor:

"Please don't anyone else send The New Era more money — we don't know what to do with the $10 we have now."

Former Iowa Citian Faces Check Charge

A preliminary information filed here charges Alden with leaving his car at a local service station to be lubricated and filled with gasoline and oil and then leaving without paying for the services.

Varsity Varieties Talent Show Set for First Old Gold Days

By GRETA LEINBACH
Daily Iowan Staff Writer

With a bright, shining trophy in mind, skit chairmen from each SUI housing unit met recently with the Old Gold Days Varsity Varieties Council for a briefing on the contest's purpose and regulations.

Mary Littig, A3, Mechanicsville, general chairman of the talent show, announced that on January 29, all large-group numbers will be reviewed by the council to make certain that each performance will be suitable for high school viewers.

THIS PRECAUTION has been taken since Old Gold Days, a new weekend event to be held April 25 and 26, will attract any high school students who will be getting acquainted with SUI.

Miss Littig explained that Varsity Varieties will be a dual contest. Large groups will be judged separately from the individual and small group numbers. Two trophies will be awarded.

The small-group part of the contest will begin with reviewing and eliminations shortly after the second semester begins, Miss Littig said.

EVENTUALLY, the field of entries will be narrowed to five large-group acts, and five individual or small-group numbers.

Each large-group performance will be 15 minutes long. Such entries are expected to include skits, choral selections, and group readings.

The show will be presented twice during Old Gold Days at the field-house.

Miss Littig also introduced her council at the meeting of large-group representatives. They are: Sybil Norton, A2, Spencer, large groups; Karen Christian, A2, Elmhurst, Ill., small groups; Natalie Corson, A2, Shenandoah, finals; Dorothy Caplan, A3, Hampton, judges and awards; Cheryl Jenisch, A3, Decorah, publicity.

OLD GOLD DAYS was conceived by student leaders as a spring weekend event when SUI would be shown to high school students. Invitations have been extended through all Iowa high school principals to senior students who expect to go on to college.

The program will feature college and departmental demonstrations and exhibits, campus tours, a water show and fireworks display on the Iowa River, an all-university dance, a carnival of bands, and a leadership training school for outstanding senior students, in addition to the all-campus talent show.

Tom Jolas, L3, Red Oak, is chairman of the student board of directors, and George Stevens, assistant director of the Iowa Memorial Union, serves as University committee chairman and faculty adviser to the student board.

Student members of the University committee, the policy-making group for Old Gold Days, include in addition to Jolas: Adelle Davis, A4, Davenport; Nancy Roberson, A3, Des Moines; Bill Teter, L3, Des Moines; Linda Gamble, A4, Fairfield; Larry Popofsky, A4, Oskaloosa; Ernest Rickett, A4, Fullerton, Calif.; and Ann Fellows, A4, Houston, Tex.

IOWA FLYING CLUB will elect officers at their regular monthly meeting today at 7:30 p.m. in Conference Room 2 of the Iowa Memorial Union Cafeteria.

ZOOLOGY SEMINAR will hear Dr. Matsuo Kodani, assistant professor of Radiology, Zoology and Urology at SUI, speak on "The Supernumerary Chromosome of Man" Friday at 4:20 p.m. in Room 201 of the Zoology Building.

GRADUATE CHAPTER of Newman Club will discuss "The Church in Spain" Friday at 8 p.m. at the Catholic Student Center, 108 McLean St. The group will be led by Tom Case, G, Minneapolis, Minn., Mario Delgado, G, Iowa City and Father Welch, associate professor in the SUI School of Religion. Refreshments will be served after the discussion.

Any student wanting an interview should sign up in the Placement Office before Tuesday, Mrs. Claudine Jacobs, assistant to the director of the Business and Industrial Office, said.

Vacancies also exist for liberal arts majors. The jobs consist of research and intelligence work in the broad field of communications, languages and publications. No civil service examinations are required for these positions, but all applicants must be native-born United States citizens.

The NSA representative will be in Room 106 in the Mechanical Engineering Building Monday to interview all engineers interested in the jobs.

Game of Games

What well might be the game of games as far as amateur basketball in Iowa is concerned will be played next Thursday night at Cedar Rapids.

Scheduled for that night is a contest between the Phillips Oilers of Bartlesville, Okla., and Sanitary Dairy of Cedar Rapids.

Playing for the Oilers will be a name familiar to most Iowans, Gary Thompson, former Roland, Ia., all-stater and Iowa State all-American, along with three 1956 Olympic team members.

Of more interest, to most of the basketball fans in eastern Iowa, anyway, will be the playing of some of the players from the "Fabulous Five" of two years ago. Sanitary Dairy has received permission from the Iowa Amateur Athletic Union to use former Hawkeyes Bill Logan, Bill Schoof and Sharm Scheuerman.

Also, there's a good possibility that former Iowa all-America Carl Cain, now in the Army stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri, will be allowed to come up for the game. If he receives permission to play, he'll probably bring former San Francisco all-American K. C. Jones along to play with the Cedar Rapids club.

With Schoof and Cain at the forwards, Logan at center and Scheuerman and Jones at the guards, Sanitary Dairy should give the Oilers a pretty good ball game, although no one can expect miracles, since the former Hawks haven't played together for almost two years. Incidentally, Bucky O'Connor has been asked to serve as honorary coach for the game.

The game will be a charity affair for the Linn County crippled children's hospital. It will be played in the new Washington High School gymnasium in Cedar Rapids.

Iowa fans who want to go up for the game better hustle if they want tickets. Only 2,500 are available and if there are any left, can be obtained in several locations in downtown Cedar Rapids.

I wished they could play the game in the Iowa Fieldhouse. I'll bet it would draw upwards of 10,000 fans, and bring back many very pleasant memories.

Myers Hints He'll Be Recommended For A&M Job

Returns Home; Decision May Come Monday

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Jim Myers of Iowa State indicated Wednesday he believes he will be recommended as head football coach and athletic director at Texas A&M.

He made the indication as he left Dallas after a night of closed door meetings with the selection committee of the board of directors.

College officials refused to say whether Myers has the job or not. Apparently the selection committee must report to the full board before any action is possible.

Dr. M. T. Harrington, A&M president, said a meeting of the full board would be held before any announcement is made. He said that meeting may occur Monday.

Myers said he has met all but one board member. He also said he did not plan to return to Texas unless notified he has the job.

It is believed he would be offered a 5-year contract at $16,000 a year, the same as at Iowa State. Use of a residence, TV contracts and other benefits increase, the A&M coach's actual salary considerably.

Myers had a 4-5-1 record at Iowa State last season, his first there. It was Iowa State's best since 1951. He is a single wing advocate.

He graduated from Tennessee and was assistant coach at UCLA, Wofford and Vanderbilt.

On his arrival Tuesday night for the conference, he said that if given the A&M job, he will retain J. T. King and Willie Zapalac of the A&M staff. Myers also said he would take four members of his Iowa State staff to College Station: LeRoy Pierce, Russ Faulkinberry, Rudy Feldman and Doug Bradley.

A&M has been without a coach since the first of the year when Paul (Bear) Bryant went to Alabama, his alma mater.

Drake Gets 1st Ticket Orders for 1958 Relays

DES MOINES (AP) — Drake University Wednesday reported receipt of the first two ticket orders for the 49th Drake Relays next April 25-26.

The orders were from Mrs. Paul A. Peterson of Mason City and Murray Wallace of Eureka, Ill.

Award to Woody

OHIO STATE FOOTBALL coach W. W. (Woody) Hayes (right) Wednesday received the "Coach of the Year" plaque which was presented to him by the Scripps-Howard newspaper chain. Holding the plaque are Vice-President Richard M. Nixon (left), who spoke at the American Football Coaches Association luncheon where the presentation was made, and Roy Howard (center), executive of Scripps-Howard.

Iowa Wrestlers Sweep 3-Meet Western Trip

The Iowa wrestling team returned Wednesday after a clean sweep of a 3-meet western road trip. The Hawkeyes defeated Colorado A&M, Colorado State, and Wyoming during the past weekend.

The wins gave the Hawkeyes a 4-1 season mark, with the only loss coming at the hands of Illinois in the second meet of the season, 14-12. Iowa entertains Michigan State this Saturday night in the Fieldhouse.

On Saturday night, Iowa whipped Colorado A&M, 25-2, and followed with convincing wins over Colorado State, 20-5, and Wyoming, 21-6, on Monday and Tuesday nights respectively.

Several Hawkeyes turned in outstanding performances. Larry Moser, in the 123-pound division, and Ralph Rieks, 137-pounder, were undefeated in their three matches, while 130-pounder Vince Garcia and heavyweight Gordon Trapp both won two matches without a defeat.

Iowa's 147-pound NCAA champion, Simon Roberts, won one match while being held to a draw in the other two. Roberts and Wyoming's Skyline Champion Pete Jones fought to a 1-1 draw in Tuesday's top match.

Tom Halford, at 157 pounds, scored Iowa's only fall of the trip when he pinned Colorado A&M's John Clark in 5:26. Halford won two matches while drawing in one on the trip.

Gary Kurlmeier, Iowa's defending Big Ten champion, was held to a draw by Ed Rath of Colorado A&M, before scoring easy wins in his last two matches.

Other Hawkeyes scoring wins were John Kelly (130), Bob Riehm (167), and Jim Craig (heavyweight).

Big Weekend For Hawkeye Sports Events

Dual meet debuts of swimming and gymnastics teams, plus a wrestling meet and a basketball game, are the Saturday to Monday (Jan. 11-13) activities of Iowa athletes.

Three of the events are at home: Michigan State wrestling meet Saturday at 7:30 p.m., Wisconsin swimming affair Saturday at 2 p.m., and the Northwestern basketball game Monday at 7:30 p.m.

Meanwhile, the promising gymnastics team opens its dual meet season with a contest with Air Force Academy, a new opponent, at Denver Saturday.

Iowa wrestlers, who gained experience during a three-meet western trip, already have beaten Indiana and lost a close one to Illinois and face one of their biggest rivals in the Big Ten, Michigan State.

Return of Lincoln Hurring, 1956 National Collegiate 100 and 200 yard backstroke champion; and Jim Coles, a fine sprinter two years ago, has strengthened the swimming team. Gary Morris, winner of 16 first places last season who gets under :50 in the 100 freestyle, is expected to have another great season.

Steve Carlsson, veteran all-around performer, is one of six lettermen on the gymnastics squad. He is backed by Bill King, Tim Joe, Bob Justice and Tom Novak. One of the top new men is Ted Segura, another all-around performer from Mexico City.

Waterloo Honors Frank Bloomquist

The basketball team will face Northwestern in the first of two successive home games next Monday. Indiana is the foe of the following Saturday.

A recognition dinner for outstanding Iowa football guard Frank Bloomquist, was sponsored by the Waterloo Chamber of Commerce in Waterloo Tuesday night. Hawkeye Coach Forest Evashevski and his staff attended and spoke before 350 guests at the banquet.

Bloomquist who was a 3-season starter at Iowa and was twice chosen to the All-American Scholastic team, played his high school football at East High School in Waterloo.

Gentry is Big Ten' Leading Rebounder

Iowa sophomore Nolden Gentry jumped into the Big Ten rebounding lead while junior forward Dave Gunther held down fifth place in the Big Ten scoring race in conference statistics released Wednesday.

Gentry has picked off 36 rebounds in two contests to lead Michigan's M. C. Burton and Pete Tillotson. The Wolverine stars have grabbed 33 and 31 rebounds respectively. The rebounding record is a new department in Big Ten statistics.

Gunther sports a 22.5 average in two league contests. He trails Minnesota's George Kline, Indiana's Archie Dees, Minnesota's Whitey Johnson and Don Ohl of Illinois. Kline has a 31-point average but has only played one game, as has Johnson.

Dees, who led in the league in scoring last year, has averaged 26 points per game in two contests, while Ohl has averaged 24.5 in two conference outings.

Iowa guard Jim McConnell is tied for 15th in the scoring race with a 14-point average.

As a team, Iowa is eighth in field goal shooting. The Hawkeyes have hit only .313 in two games. In free throw shooting, Iowa is third, with an average of .759.

Detroit Linebacker Outstanding Pro Lineman of 1957

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Joe Schmidt, the demon linebacker of the champion Detroit Lions, Wednesday was voted the outstanding lineman of the National Football League in the annual Associated Press poll.

The quietly efficient defenceman is attributed by his Lion teammates to have made 50 per cent of his team's tackles this season. He received 18 of 36 votes cast by pro football writers to easily outdistance the rest of the field.

In all, 11 players were nominated for the honor with Baltimore's defensive end Gino Marchetti a distant second with six votes. Gene Brito, veteran Washington end, who also stars on defense, was third with four votes.

Third Quarter Burst Gives St. Pat's 3rd Straight Win

By DICK LYNES
Daily Iowan Sports Writer

St. Pat's of Iowa City broke a 40-40 tie in the middle of the third quarter and then romped to an easy 73-56 victory over Dubuque St. Columbkille's.

The Irish had a 35-26 halftime margin until Dubuque suddenly caught fire and scored 10 quick points to tie the game 40-40. However, with the game tied, St. Pat's came to life while the Co-Duke's chilled and scored seven straight points to lead 47-40 at the three-quarter mark.

Early in the fourth quarter, St. Pat's widened its margin to 14 points, 58-44, on eight consecutive free throws. Dubuque never posed a serious threat after that.

The victory was St. Pat's third straight and gave them a 3-4 Northeast Iowa Catholic record. Dubuque is now 2-6 in the Conference.

Panel To Discuss World Religions January 19

In observance of World Religion Day, a panel discussion will be held in Shambaugh Auditorium on Sunday, Jan. 19 at 1:45 p.m.

AEC To Seek Applications Here for Jobs

Candidates for Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) internships may be interviewed by AEC representative Joseph Adams here on Jan. 15.

All qualified students interested in nuclear energy research, development, production and management who wish to enter training under the commission's Junior Management and Junior Professional Development program should schedule interviews with Miss Norma Englert, Room 105, Mechanical Engineering Building.

The AEC recommended that only those who have a Master's degree in an appropriate field, or a Bachelor's degree and one year of significant professional experience apply.

Positions in nuclear technology lead to positions as project engineers and technical management jobs. Fields open are engineering other than civil, inorganic chemistry, and solid state nuclear and atomic physics.

The training consists of one year's study in nuclear engineering at either the Oak Ridge School of Reactor Technology or the International School of Nuclear Science and Engineering and their cooperating universities.

In addition, six months practical training in technical management functions is required. This is gained at one of the AEC's two divisions concerned with reactor research and operations.

Other internships open in the managerial field include those training for AEC accounting, auditing, and budgeting policies and procedures, the AEC said.

The purpose of this day, Mrs. M. E. Conaster, member of Bahai World Faith, said, is to bring people together in closer understanding and to help them discover that the inner reality of all religion is one, and that the ultimate objective is the same.

Among the prominent speakers to appear on the panel is the Rev. Evans A. Worthley of Iowa City, Unitarian Minister Emeritus, who will present the tenets of the Christian faith.

Abdullah Igram, Moslem, a Cedar Rapids businessman, will also participate in the panel discussion. Igram, first president of Islamic Association in the United States and Canada, is presently a member of the World Board of Continuing on Moslem-Christian Cooperation. Igram is a past chairman of the Cedar Rapids YWCA Board.

Mrs. Robert Lee Moffet of Des Moines, well known educator, author and commentator, will represent the Baha'i World Faith.

Mrs. Moffet was a special delegate to the League of Nations and an accredited observer at the San Francisco Conference at the birth of the United Nations Charter. She recently returned from the Holy Land and an extended lecture trip throughout Europe and the Near East, speaking in 55 cities and 14 countries.

The public is invited to this World Religion Day Program.

Estimated Highway Cost Up 10 Billion

WASHINGTON — The estimated cost of the nation's 41,000-mile superhighway program has jumped $10 billion, Congress was told Wednesday. This could mean an eventual increase in highway user taxes or a delay in completing the program. In making the report to Congress, Secretary of Commerce Weeks said he is not proposing any tax changes at this time. Neither did he call for taking more time to carry out the fast expressway plan. Instead, Weeks suggested these matters can wait a few years until more miles of new roads are built and cost estimates based on greater experience become more accurate. Weeks said the cost of the interstate road network is now estimated at $37 billion and indicated the figure may go higher. This compares with an estimate of $27.5 billion when Congress set up the program 19 months ago. The original plan was to build the roads in 13 years, with the Federal government paying 90 percent of the cost. Federal contributions would be financed on a pay-as-you-build basis from receipts of highway user taxes, which were increased at the time the law was enacted. These taxes are on such items as gasoline and tires. If building costs increase faster than tax receipts, the program presumably would have to be stretched out or taxes raised. Weeks told the Senate Public Roads subcommittee the highway program is now on schedule and that the progress being made is gratifying.

Ready To Return To TV Jan. 28, Red Skelton Says

SANTA MONICA, Calif. — Comedian Red Skelton, back from a brush with death, said Wednesday he feels well enough to return to his television show Jan. 28. Meeting the press at St. John's Hospital, the red-haired comic looked gaunt after dropping from 215 to 194 pounds, but was in good comedy form as he joked about his illness. Skelton was stricken Dec. 30 with an acute asthmatic attack. The comic said the last he remembered was working on notes for a new TV series in his bedroom. "The next thing I knew I woke up in the hospital and saw a picture of Jesus Christ on the wall and two doctors at the foot of the bed."

WASHINGTON — The United States leads the world in the scope of its program to develop "safe, efficient and competitive," electric power from atomic fission, Chairman Lewis L. Strauss of the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) said Wednesday.

He also said both the United States and Great Britain, in a cooperative effort, have made considerable progress toward taming the H-bomb reaction — atomic fusion — as another source of power.

Conservation Meet Draws Prof Hayes

Samuel P. Hays, assistant professor in the SUI department of history took part in the first of a series of meetings in Washington, D.C., on conservation problems Wednesday evening.

Hays acted as one of the commentators on a paper dealing with the history of the conservation movement in the United States. He wrote his doctoral dissertation on this subject.

Wednesday's meeting was the first of six in a series called "Natural Resources Conservation in the United States — History and Prospects." The remaining meetings are scheduled for each of the following five Wednesdays.

The meetings are sponsored by Resources for the Future, Inc., an organization partially supported by Ford Foundation Funds, and are designed primarily for governmental personnel in and around Washington. The meetings commemorate the 100th anniversary of the birth of Theodore Roosevelt, who while president was a leader in the development of conservation.

Hays is expected to return to Iowa City later this week.

College Group Studies Federal Aid to Schools

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. — American educators batted the hows, whys and wherefores of Federal aid to education around like a basketful of hot potatoes Wednesday, then gave up even trying to reach an agreement until Thursday.

The annual convention of the Association of American Colleges (AAC) was handed its first thorny issue when a special committee recommended that federal aid be in the form of tax credits to individuals and corporations contributing to the support of the country's institutions of higher learning.

Efforts to get speedy approval of the ideas failed in a somewhat stormy morning session. Further debate was first scheduled for Wednesday afternoon, then postponed until the closing session this morning.

The ACC has traditionally found itself divided on the question of federal aid to education. Those who oppose it say it carries a threat of federal control. Those who approve it say the country's educational needs can't be met without it.

The tax credit proposal came from a group opposed to federal aid, headed by J. Ollie Edmunds, president of both the AAC and Stetson University. It was offered as an alternative to President Eisenhower's proposal of $1 billion in federal money distributed over a 4-year period.

Under the plan, individuals making tuition or fee payments, and individuals or corporations making contributions to educational institutions, would be allowed to deduct a portion of their payments or contributions directly from their income tax bills. Such a plan is reported to be under consideration by a congressional committee now.

Opposition to the plan was immediate and vocal. The special committee which drew it up went back into secret session late Wednesday in an effort to find something more palatable.
