Schwartz Fired!

A CHURCH WAS WRECKED BY FIRE in Camden, New Jersey, Monday, and loss was set at $200,000. A 15 year old boy was questioned by police and admitted to setting fire to St. Lawrence Church by accident when he dropped a candle in the altar boy's room.

He Says Committee Wanted Whitewash

WASHINGTON (AP) — Bernard Schwartz was fired Monday night as chief counsel to a House subcommittee after charging most committee members wanted to "whitewash" his investigation involving President Eisenhower's chief aide, Sherman Adams, and other high officials.

The subcommittee's action came shortly after 6:30 p.m., CST, following a long day of angry wrangling between Schwartz and the House group, headed by Rep. Morgan Moulder (D-Mo.).

Moulder announced the group's investigation of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) and five other regulatory agencies will continue today — behind closed doors and with Schwartz subpoenaed as a witness.

Shortly before the announcement of his dismissal Schwartz said the committee had "grilled" him for three hours and subjected him to untrue accusations.

One of the latter, he said, was that he was a "contemptible liar."

"The majority of the committee

149 Tickets Gone For T.V. Smith's SUI 'Humor' Talk

Only 149 of the available tickets to hear author-philosopher T. V. Smith speak on "The Therapy of Humor" have been claimed by SUI students, a Union desk clerk reported Monday.

Tickets became available Saturday for the lecture to be held in the Iowa Memorial Union at 8:30 p.m. Thursday.

Smith, who received his Ph.D. from the University of Chicago, is the founder of the University of Chicago Roundtable. He is also the author of several books on philosophy and political science.

was interested in a whitewash," Schwartz told reporters.

Schwartz had said before the session he expected to lose his job because, as he put it, he had been digging too deep for evidence of official misconduct.

While the House committee met, demands were raised in the Senate for it to make its own probe, if the House group doesn't get ahead with its investigation.

Also, Sen. John Carroll (D-Colo.) said the White House has a responsibility of its own to take action.

Schwartz has named President Eisenhower's chief assistant, Sherman Adams, among government officials he regarded as having tried to influence the decisions of Federal agencies.

The subcommittee voted 6-5 Monday morning against firing Schwartz, a 34-year-old law professor on leave from New York University.

Schwartz has said previously that subcommittee members tried to put a roadblock in his way when he investigated the operations of the "Big Six," independent agencies which regulate such things as television broadcasting, stock exchange transactions, and railroad rates.

Iraq May Construct Second Arab Federation

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — The Hashemite Arab kingdoms of Iraq and Jordan seemed headed Monday night for federation in a move which could take the Iraqi regime out of the Western-oriented Baghdad Pact.

Sources in Amman, predicting this, indicated a strong possibility that a federation of the two kingdoms might be joined by the Saudi Arabian monarchy.

This would create in the turbulent Middle East a situation in which two separate and possibly rival Arab federations would face one another.

The prediction came in the midst of strong Egyptian-Syrian propaganda for a general Arab federation under the leadership of Egypt, now joined with Syria in the United Arab Republic.

Federation with Iraq likely foreshadows the beginning of the end of Jordan's existence as a national entity. The little state in the heart of the Arab East long has been teetering on the edge of extinction. In federation with Iraq it would be dominated by Baghdad. Such federation, too, would be counter to Egyptian-Syrian ambitions for the future of Jordan, which Damascus and Cairo view as a historical part of Syria.

Tax Cuts Proposed By Senator Douglas

WASHINGTON (AP) — A variety of tax cuts, one of which would reduce income taxes by $50 a person, was proposed Monday by Sen. Paul Douglas (D-Ill.).

In all, Douglas — a former economic professor at the University of Illinois — offered bills that would reduce individual income taxes 3 to 3½ billion dollars a year and excises by approximately $1,420,000,000.

Douglas proposed the tax cuts as a temporary means of combating the business recession.

"The danger point . . . has been reached," he told the Senate.

He offered 2 plans for an individual income tax cut.

One would boost the individual exemption from the present $600 to $700 — the other would split the lowest tax bracket, which is now taxed at 20 per cent, into two parts and tax the first $1,000 at the rate of 15 per cent instead of 20 per cent. This would amount to a tax cut of $50 per person.

In other developments bearing on the drop-off of business and employment:

1. PRESIDENT Eisenhower called in four economic advisers for another of a series of White House meetings that have been held in the last two months.

2. THE HOUSE and Senate completed action on an emergency appropriation of $43,400,000 to replenish unemployment compensation funds for veterans and ex-federal employees.

3. REP. FLOOD (D-Pa.), introduced legislation to create a public works program covering schools, streets, sidewalks, parks, airports, hospitals, water and sewer facilities, and flood control, navigation and water power facilities.

4. A PANEL of economists told the Senate-House Economic Committee that an upturn in business might not come for many months.

Iraq is ruled by young King Faisal II, great grandson of the Arab nationalist hero, Sherif Hussein of Mecca. Jordan is ruled by Faisal's cousin, 22-year-old King Hussein, also a great grandson of Sherif Hussein.

Faisal, accompanied by a retinue of Iraqi officials, is due Tuesday in Amman to talk with Hussein on the future of the two Hashemite countries in the light of the Egyptian-Syrian union, which has produced strong pressures against the two regimes demanding an outward show of all-Arab unity.

Jordanian sources suggested the possibility that King Saud of Saudi Arabia would join the federation later. Saud's family once considered itself the blood enemy of the Hashemites, whom the late Ibn-Saud drove out of the Hejaz in the Arabian peninsula.

But the exigencies of the Arab East's turbulent politics in the past two years have produced a sort of reconciliation between the two families, which eventually saw King Saud supporting Hussein against Egyptian-Syrian pressures.

Senate Asks New Civil Rights Legislation

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bipartisan group of 16 senators introduced a new civil rights bill in the Senate Monday. It may touch off a new North-South fight over racial issues.

The Eisenhower administration has said it won't sponsor new legislation this year but Atty. Gen. Rogers has indicated the President would sign a bill restoring provisions knocked out of last year's measure.

The new bill, backed by ten Northern Democrats and six Northern Republicans, is designed to encourage racial integration of schools. It would compel compliance with Supreme Court rulings in that field if necessary.

Storm Slams NY, Death Toll Hits 46

Iowa City remained comfortable — for polar bears — as the Cold Arctic air kept things on ice for the fourth straight day with no let-up in sight before Wednesday.

Low Lows: zero to 5 above, with highs today of from 10-20 above. Further outlook: Brrrr!

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A new storm of near-blizzard proportions slammed into western New York Monday while the rest of upstate still struggled to dig out from snowdrifts that towered up to 15 feet.

Eighteen deaths in New York state were blamed on the storms that started on Friday and turned into a blizzard Sunday across much of the state.

The winter's worst storm, which spread icy cold, snow and freezing rain throughout the Midwest, the Southeast, and into other sections as far south as the Gulf states, took an overall death toll of 46.

In addition to the 18 in New York, Massachusetts listed 8, Pennsylvania 7, Oklahoma 5, Texas and IOWA 3 each, Illinois 2 and Indiana 1.

The worst spot Monday night was Buffalo, which escaped relatively unscathed Sunday.

Roads in the Buffalo area were reported generally open but dangerous.

Visibility was down to zero in places.

Many city schools were closed at noon and downtown stores closed during the afternoon, although they normally stay open Monday nights.

Trains, buses and planes were behind schedule.

Algeria Minister Called To Paris

PARIS (AP) — French Premier Felix Gaillard, under pressure from the United States and Britain, summoned his Cabinet into special session Monday night to consider repercussions of the attack by French warplanes on a Tunisian border village.

GAILLARD recalled his present minister in Algeria, Robert La-coste, to report personally to the Cabinet on the raid Saturday on Sakiet Sidi Youssef near the Algerian border.

The Cabinet was reported ready to take steps to see that military commanders are no longer allowed to stage such raids on their own authority.

Gaillard, the financial wizard who came to the premiership when France was tottering on the brink of economic disaster, now is faced with his biggest diplomatic task.

THE FRENCH claim the attack was launched to wipe out Algerian rebels hiding in Tunisian sanctuaries and firing at French observation planes over Algerian territory.

But the venture was being viewed in Paris as a military blunder that pushed France's back to the wall diplomatically.

THE TUNISIANS claim 78 persons killed and 84 wounded as twin-engine bombers, unloaded bombs and fighter planes swooped down with machine guns blazing in the hour-long daylight raid.

Gaillard and Foreign Minister Christian Pineau kept official silence, but three of France's Allies didn't.

The United States officially was profoundly disturbed. Britain said it hoped the situation wouldn't explode into something worse. West Germany voiced concern for the loss of lives.

IN WASHINGTON, the State Department authorized the U.S. ambassador to Tunisia, G. Lewis Jones, to go to Sakiet Sidi Youssef for a first-hand investigation and report. Tunisian President Habib Bourguiba has invited all foreign diplomats in Tunis to visit the bombed village of 2,000 persons.

Most of the 25 planes the French used in the attack were made in the United States.

But State Department press officer Lincoln White told reporters in Washington the government had insufficient information on whether the planes were given to France as military aid for defense in the NATO area.

He noted France had bought some planes with its own money.

President Hancher Terms Van Allen Fund 'Gratifying'

President Virgil M. Hancher Monday characterized as "extremely gratifying" the efforts now under way in a small mid-Iowa community to raise a research fund in honor of Prof. James A. Van Allen, head of the SUI Physics Department.

Paul Franzenburg, Jr., of Conrad announced Saturday that he and several other residents of that community are undertaking a popular subscription of funds to be used by young science students under the direction of Van Allen, who was in charge of instrumentation for the recently-launched Explorer satellite.

"It is gratifying to me, and to Dr. Van Allen's friends at the University, that a committee of Iowans should choose this means to express appreciation for the outstanding work being done by Dr. Van Allen and his colleagues," President Hancher said.

"The greatest contribution anyone can make to society is to help add to the total of man's knowledge. By making it possible for young men and women to pursue research under the guidance of a great teacher, Mr. Franzenburg and his committee may well be opening the door to new and important scientific findings, or to the development of another young scientist of the caliber of Dr. Van Allen. The significance of this voluntary gesture can hardly be over-emphasized. It deserves the highest praise."

In explaining the belief of his committee of Conrad businessmen that Iowa should be proud of the contributions made by Van Allen and his research associates, Franzenburg expressed hope that Iowans would contribute to a research fund to be administered by Dr. Van Allen.

Contributions may be sent to the First State Bank of Conrad, and should be in the name of the Van Allen Research Fund, he said.

REGISTRATION WILL CONTINUE TODAY IN THE IOWA FIELDHOUSE as the second half of SUI's student body goes through the efficient IBM processes of signing up for classes. Approximately 5,000 students were advised and found some of the courses of their choice Monday.

Dig Dixieland? Hipsters Hop Here Saturday

Jazz music in the old fashioned Dixieland style will be "on hand" Saturday at the all University dance from 8 to 12 p.m. in the Sun Lounge of the Iowa Memorial Union.

The music will be played by the seven "Dukes of Dixieland" band at the party sponsored by the student Central Party Committee (CPC).

Tickets are now on sale for the dance at $2.50 per couple at the Information Desk in the Union. Any University student may attend.

Leo Cortimiglia and his band will play in the River Room and refreshments will be sold on the Sun Porch.

"Mardi Gras" is the new theme of the dance, replacing "Club Cabaret" which has been presented in February during the past few years.

Rickover Amazes House Group

WASHINGTON (AP) — In open mouthed amazement, a House committee Monday heard Rear Adm. H. G. Rickover suggest that Congress use defense funds if necessary to increase teachers' salaries.

Cite Rising Demand For Teachers Industry Growing More Selective

By JEAN DAVIES
DI Staff Writer

Job opportunities for February graduates in industry and business seem to be more selective than last year, but the demand for teachers in all levels is much greater.

Miss Ermina Busch, placement director for the SUI College of Education, reported a noticeable increase in job opportunities for elementary, secondary and college teachers.

"The supply of teachers is remaining about the same, but the demand is steadily increasing," she said.

The SUI Business and Industrial Placement Bureau and the College of Engineering indicate that although the demand for applicants is not high in comparison with other fields, there are good jobs available.

Many SUI department heads indicated an increased need for graduate assistants and high school teachers in their respective fields.

Ralph L. Shriver, head of the SUI Department of Chemistry, said, "The number of jobs open to chemists in industrial labs and governmental research labs is about the same as last year, but the demand for chemistry teachers has almost doubled."

"We always have more jobs than applicants," said Gladys Scott, chairman of the SUI Women's Physical Education Department.

Miss Scott also indicated that salaries for teachers in physical education are higher this year, on the average, than before.

Edmund de Chasca, head of the SUI Department of Romance Languages, said that there is a greater demand this year for teachers, but they have not been able to fill the number of applications they have received for the last several years.

"For graduates, there is an increasing demand for both teachers and ministers of religion this year," said Robert Michaelsen, director of the SUI School of Religion.

Harold McCarty, chairman of the SUI Geography Department, said that the demand for college teachers is slightly better than last February, but the demand for jobs in industry is lower.

"However, all qualified people wanting jobs are guaranteed of getting them," he said.

The Department of Zoology expressed a need for graduate assistants. "Financial assistance is available for teaching assistants and research assistants," said Jerry Kolros, chairman of the SUI Zoology Department.

Miss F. Eugenia Whitehead, chairman of the SUI Department of Home Economics, said the home economics field has been expanding since the end of World War II.

Marcus Bach Returns to SUI

Dr. Marcus Bach, currently at work on a new book called "God and the Soviets," has returned to the School of Religion faculty for the spring semester to teach a course in "Religious Groups of America."

The course stresses religious movements currently important in America, such as the Bahais, Jehovah's Witnesses, Spiritualists, and the Pentecostal Movement.

Dr. Bach, a widely known lecturer and author ("Circle of Faith"), toured Russia last summer from June 12 to July 13. Since he returned, Dr. Bach has been organizing the impressions of his Russian tour into a new book.

Dr. Bach's thesis in this book: man's spiritual impulses cannot be sublimated to a political ideology or replaced with secular motivation.

During his Russian tour, Dr. Bach says he found in the Russian people a strong undercurrent of religious interest. In the older people this interest was manifested in a return to church.

Among the young people Dr. Bach found the interest in religion manifested in a concern for spiritual values that came near to expressing contempt for the present Russian emphasis on science.

"The communists have rejected all concept of a Prime Mover," Dr. Bach said. "But the people of Russia are wondering if everything in life can be reduced to matter and motion as the dialectical materialists propose."

"The big question in the Soviet mind today," Dr. Bach said, "is 'What and Where is God?'"

The Soviet people's secret concern with God and spiritual values, Dr. Bach said, challenges the people in the United States to make religion more demonstrative in their political life.

"In Russia," he said, "people are looking for something distinctive in our way of life, something that is different from theirs. It is not enough for us to meet the

THE KREMLIN'S St. Basil's Cathedral presented a dramatic background for a picture of Marcus Bach, professor in the SUI School of Religion, and his wife, when they toured Russia last summer. Legend has it that when the architect presented his plans for the cathedral, Ivan ordered the man's eyes put out so he could never again design a church so beautiful.

Soviets on their own ground—science. "Today the Soviet people are asking Americans this question," Dr. Beck said. "You condemn our dialectic, but what about your own materialism?"

Wendell Johnson New Speech Journal Editor

Wendell Johnson, professor and head of the SUI Department of Speech Pathology and Audiology, has been elected association editor of the American Speech and Hearing Association. He will assume office in January, 1959.

In this capacity Johnson will have general supervision of all of the publications, including the Journal of Speech and Hearing Disorders and the recently initiated Journal of Speech and Hearing Research.

Dorothy Sherman, associate professor in the Department of Speech Pathology and Audiology, is editor of the latter, having been appointed to this position last fall by the Council of the ASHA. She had served previously for several years as an associate editor of the Journal of Speech and Hearing Disorders.

Frederic L. Darley professor and director of the SUI Outpatient Speech Clinic, is assistant editor of the Journal of Speech and Hearing Research.

Johnson, past president of the American Speech and Hearing Association, is a Fellow of the association and has been presented the Honors of the Association Award, the highest honor given by the organization, in recognition of his distinguished contribution to the field of speech pathology and audiology.

At present Johnson is on a special assignment with the U.S. Office of Education in Washington, D.C., helping to develop a program to strengthen the services for children with speech and hearing handicaps in the nation's schools. He is a consultant in speech pathology to the Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington, D.C., and a member of the Council of the federal Office of Vocational Rehabilitation.

Manford H. Kuhn, associate professor of sociology and anthropology at SUI, will serve as social and psychological consultant to the committee on business enterprise of the Social Science Research Council this week at a meeting in New York City.

The meeting will extend through Saturday.

The Bureau of Media Service of the SUI School of Journalism has been selected to judge the third annual publications contest of the Iowa Industrial Editors Association.

The competition is planned to recognize superior editing of Iowa industrial publications. It is open only to members of IIEA.

Awards will be presented at IIEA's fall meeting for general excellence, photography, content, layout, and for the most improved publication during the period of the contest.

'Devil's Highway' to be Sunday Lecture Subject

John M. Goddard will present an all-color full-length motion picture, "Devil's Highway," Sunday at SUI. He will speak at 2:30 p.m. in MacBride Auditorium under the auspices of the Iowa Mountaineers.

"Devil's Highway" is the story of a 1700-mile expedition down the entire length of the Colorado River. Included are scenes taken by Goddard near a fatal plane crash at the river's source 8,000 feet high in the Rockies, his party's exciting discovery of a new natural bridge in the unmapped plateau country of southern Utah, numerous botanical specimens, ancient Indian ruins and a spectacular cloudburst in the heart of the world's "eighth wonder" — the Grand Canyon.

Goddard's presentation of 20 minutes of the "Devil's Highway" film on the television show "I Search for Adventure" was chosen the most outstanding and exciting program of the series.

During his eleven years as a professional explorer, Goddard has traveled through and explored some 53 countries. His travels on land, sea and in the air total over 300,000 miles — the equivalent of 12 trips around the globe.

A member of the faculty at Brigham Young University, he is also a member of the Adventurers Clubs of Los Angeles and Chicago, Explorers Club of New York, Savage Club of London and the Sports Club of Alexandria, Egypt, and is the only American member of the French Explorers Society.

Exhibits and demonstrations by troops will be scheduled for the party, according to Mrs. L. W. Rogers, president of the Cardinal Council troop leaders.

The exhibits will feature areas of Girl Scout activities, including nature study, crafts, homemaking and health.

The board of Cardinal Council will also meet at 8 p.m. today at the Iowa City office.

Sixteen Girl Scout troops have registered to attend the fifth annual open house for Girl Scouts of Cardinal Council at the SUI International Center on Feb. 24-25. Additional troop registrations can be taken for all days of the International Center open house except Feb. 27, according to Mrs. Hugh Carson, executive director of Cardinal Council.

Junior and senior high school Girl Scouts will entertain a group of SUI foreign students Feb. 24 at a potluck supper in Iowa City high school.

Troop 1 will sponsor a chicken-biscuit supper at the Iowa City Baptist Church on Feb. 25. Tickets may be purchased from the Girl Scout office or from members of the troop.

Hawks Lose Thriller To MSU, 90-84

Three Spartans Hit 78 Points; 30 By Gunther

Loss Costs Hawkeyes First Place Tie

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Led by three steady scorers and helped by the homecourt advantage, Michigan State defeated Iowa 90-84 in a Big Ten basketball thriller here Monday night.

MSU kept its lead throughout the game. Several times it was as much as 10 points. Iowa came close in the second half when the Hawks twice drew to within one point of overhauling the Spartans.

State now has a 5-3 conference record. Iowa dropped back in the standings with a 4-4 record.

The win moved the Spartans into a first place tie in the Big Ten race with Indiana, who knocked off Wisconsin, 93-87. Had Iowa won, the Hawkeyes would have shared the Big Ten lead.

Powering the MSU attack were Larry Hedden with 27 points, John Green with 26 and Jack Quiggle with 25.

Dave Gunther was high man for Iowa with 30 points.

Michigan State kept command through the first half and had a 10-point, 36-26 margin with less than five minutes remaining in the period. Iowa closed the gap however, and the MSU edge was only 44-40 at the half.

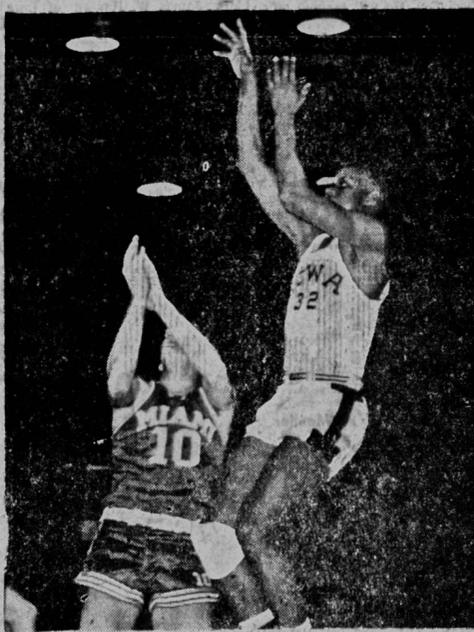

Green made 16 of his points in the first period and Gunther had 14.

State again climbed to a 10-point, 56-46 lead in the first seven minutes of the second half. But Iowa, mostly on sharp outside shooting by Gunther, cut the advantage to 66-65 with nine minutes remaining. It was 69-68 in favor of State a few seconds later but that was the closest Iowa came to breaking the home court jinx that has been so important this season.

Iowa was playing without three regulars, Larry Swift, Tom Payne and Dennis Bruns, all sidelined by scholastic troubles.

Minors Are Facing Battle For Survival

NEW YORK (AP)—Baseball's minor leagues, facing a bitter battle for survival, will probably go to the post with only 25 member circuits this season.

This will represent a decline of 58 per cent from the peak of 59 leagues in 1949.

An Associated Press survey disclosed Monday that since the close of last season three leagues have folded, another likely will collapse, one more had dwindled from eight to six clubs and four other leagues still are seeking franchises.

On the brighter side, one new circuit has been formed and three have expanded.

Definitely out of the picture are the Class B Big State League, the Class C Evangeline League and the Class D Sooner State League. The Class B Southwestern League probably will not operate.

Columbus, Ga., and Columbia, S.C., have dropped out of the South Atlantic League (A) making it a six-club organization. The Western, another Class A League, may lose Colorado Springs, Colo., and Sioux City, Iowa. Decisions on both franchises are expected this weekend.

The leagues looking for new cities are: Class C Arizona-Mexico (for Phoenix, Ariz., which moved to Pacific Coast); Class C Pioneer (for Salt Lake City, also in PCL); Class D Midwest League (for Mattoon, Ill.); and the Class D Midwest League (for Mattoon, Ill.); and the Class D Florida State (for Leesburg, Fla.)

Several other circuits have successfully found replacements for lost franchises. For example Rochester, Minn., Green Bay, Wis., and Appleton, Wis., replaced Evansville, Ind., Keokuk, Iowa, and Peoria, Ill., in the Class B Three-I League.

The Class C West Texas-New Mexico is the minors' new loop. Represented are San Angelo, Midland Plainview, Texas, and Carlsbad, Hobbs and Artesia, New Mexico.

The expanded leagues are the Eastern, the Class B Carolina and the Class C northern.

Hoad's Success Secret: Control

NEW YORK (AP)—The secret of Lew Hoad's pro tennis success, by his own reckoning, is control—control of his game and his emotions.

"I haven't had a flareup since I turned pro," said the 23-year-old former Australian Davis Cup star whose career as an amateur was marked by periodic petulance and devil-may-care attitudes.

"I don't let little things bother me any more. I don't worry about the umpire and linesman. I just go out there and play the best tennis I can."

Hoad, who dropped 11 of his first 20 pro starts, flew into New York Monday to resume his 100-match series with pro king Pancho Gonzales, whom he leads 9-6.

No Change In Campy's Paralysis

GLEN COVE, N.Y. (AP)—Roy Campanella was reported in "good spirits" and in satisfactory condition Monday but there still is no improvement in the paralysis of his lower limbs.

The Glen Cove Hospital said the Dodger catcher, who suffered a broken neck in an automobile accident Jan. 28, has satisfactory temperature and is eating and resting well, but no change has been noted in his sense of feeling from the chest down.

ASK SOCCOR POSTPONEMENT

LONDON (AP)—Manchester United mourning the deaths of seven of its brightest stars in last Thursday's Munich air crash, Monday sought permission for a postponement of its fifth round English Soccer Cup match against Sheffield Wednesday scheduled for Saturday.

Swim Team Falls Before Wolverines

Superior depth paid off for the Michigan swimming team Saturday as the Wolverines took a 59-46 dual meet decision from Iowa.

In the big event of the meet, Iowa's Gary Morris defeated Olympic swimmer Dick Hanley in the 100-yard free style race.

Tony Tashnick of the Wolverines set the only new mark of the meet. Tashnick cut five-tenths of a second off the record of 2:13.8 in the 200-yard butterfly.

Iowa's Lincoln Hurring and Jake Quick remained undefeated in their specialties. Hurring captured the 200-yard backstroke in 2:10.5, while Quick won the diving event.

Morris was the only double winner of the meet. In addition to winning the 100-yard free style, the Hawkeye sprinter won the 50-yard free style in addition to anchoring Iowa's winning 400-yard free style relay team.

The meet was the last home dual meet of the season, although the Big Ten championship will be held in the Iowa pool, Mar. 6-8.

MIDDLEWEIGHT DRAW PARIS (M) — Jimmy Martinez of Phoenix, Ariz., and Germain Ballarin of France fought to a draw in a 10-round middleweight bout at the Paris Sports Palace Monday night. Each weighed 160 1/2 lbs. Ted Wright, 146, Detroit, won an unpopular decision over Sauever Chiocca, 147 1/2, France, in a 10-round semifinal.

Iowa Wrestlers Whip Wildcats For 7th Win

The Iowa wrestling team won its seventh meet of the season and fourth against Big Ten foes as the Hawkeyes easily defeated Northwestern, 25-7, in the Iowa Fieldhouse Saturday.

The Hawkeyes had previously defeated Indiana, Michigan State, Minnesota, while losing to Illinois in conference dual meets. Iowa's other loss was suffered at the hands of Oklahoma State.

Iowa's Larry Moser remained undefeated in the 123-pound class, as he pinned Northwestern's Smith Holt in 48 seconds. Moser has won seven straight.

Hawkeye Gary Kurldelmeier won his seventh victory against one loss as he decimated Chris Wunsch, 4-1. Simon Roberts, Iowa's defending NCAA champion, decisioned Jim Freeman in the 137-pound class, 8-0.

Two Hawkeyes won matches by forfeit. Ralph Rieks, in the 147-pound division, and Bob Riehm, 167, won by forfeit.

Charles Arends was the Wildcat's only winner, decisioning Tom Halford, 2-1, in the 147-pound class. Two matches were draws.

Iowa travels to Michigan Saturday before returning home for meets against Oklahoma and Wisconsin, Feb. 21 and 22, respectively.

123 pounds — Larry Moser (I) pinned Smith Holt, 0:48. 136 — Vince Garcia (I) and Don Woehric drew, 3-3. 147 — Ralph Rieks (I) won by forfeit. 147 — Simon Roberts (I) defeated Jim Freeman, 8-0. 157 — Charles Arends (N) defeated Tom Halford, 2-1. 167 — Bob Riehm (I) won by forfeit. 177 — Gary Kurldelmeier (I) beat Chris Wunsch, 4-1. Heavyweight — Tom Shaheen (I) and Jack Siatta drew, 3-3.

Milwaukee's Youngsters Look Great

NEW YORK (M) — Glowing reports from Puerto Rico about the work of Juan Pizarro, Gerry Nelson and Humberto Robinson are calculated to inspire added respect for Milwaukee's pitching staff.

With Bob Rush available to back up Warren Spahn, Lew Burdette and Bob Buhl, the development of an added starter from the winter league could make the Braves heavy favorites to repeat in the National League.

Pizarro probably has the best chance of blossoming into a new phenom.

Pizarro turned in a 4-0 record in 1957 at Wichita and finished the National League season with a 5-6 mark. Although this was several degrees below his flashy 23-6 season at Jacksonville in 1956 where he struck out 318 batters, it was fair enough for a rookie attempting the big hop.

Pitching in Puerto Rico during the winter season, the 21-year-old lefty rolled to a 14-5 record. He struck out 186 and turned in nine shutouts, including a no-hitter and a one-hitter with the Caguas team that is representing Puerto Rico in the Caribbean series.

The six-game round robin series opened Saturday night at San Juan and Pizarro shutout Panama on two hits and struck out 17 for a series record.

Milwaukee's pitching gained added luster Sunday when Nelson, a 23-year-old righthander who toiled on the Wichita farm last year, helped Puerto Rico beat Venezuela 6-1. Nelson still is on the Wichita roster but his work will be watched closely during the spring training season at Bradenton, Fla.

Robinson made it an all-Milwaukee Sunday in the Caribbean when he shut out Cuba, the co-favorite, with four hits as Panama whipped Pedro Ramos of Washington 5-0. Humberto, a Panamanian, is 27, and is up for another chance after an 18-7 year at Toronto in the International League.

Fencers Win 2; But Lose First

The Iowa fencing team won its second and third victories of the year the past weekend but suffered its first setback of the season.

The Hawkeyes defeated Cincinnati, 19-8, on Friday night, and followed Saturday with a split in a triangular meet at Bloomington, Ind. Iowa whipped Indiana, 18-9, but fell before Notre Dame, 18-9.

The Hawkeye fencers have a heavy weekend schedule. On Friday, they travel to Detroit for a triangular with Detroit University and Lawrence Tech, and follow on Saturday with a triangular with Michigan State and Wisconsin at East Lansing, Mich.

Charlie Trippi Joins Georgia Coaching Staff

ATHENS, Ga. (M) — Charlie Trippi, former All-American halfback at the University of Georgia, joined the college's football coaching staff Monday.

Coach Wally Butts said he is "pleased and happy" over getting Trippi.

Trippi made the All-America team in 1946, then played for several years with the Chicago Cardinals of the National Football League. For the past two years he was coach with the Cards.

Gymnasts Win Triangular Meet

Iowa's gymnastics team swept a double win Saturday as the Hawkeyes defeated Wisconsin and Ohio State in a triangular meet at Madison, Wis. Iowa ran its winning streak to five as they whipped the Badgers, 78-33, and the Buckeyes, 75-37.

Iowa captured all seven first places against Wisconsin, and took five of seven against the Bucks, in winning its second and third meets against Big Ten foes.

SUI Offers 2 New Courses This Semester

Two new courses have been added to the University schedule this semester. One, Post-Biblical Judaism, was added so recently there was no time to include it in the schedule of courses. The other, Cultural Ideas of the East and West, is scheduled for the first time on the SUI campus.

Post-Biblical Judaism, a course taught this semester by Rabbi Ben-Zion Gold, covers a period of Jewish history in which the traditions were formed that still direct the religious life of the Jews in the world today.

Rabbi Gold is a visiting lecturer in SUI's School of Religion. Post-Biblical Judaism (32-127) is a three credit-hour course that meets on Monday and Wednesday, 3:30-4:45 p.m.

Post-Biblical Judaism traces the development of Judaism from the exile of the Jews in 586 B.C., through the Persian Hellenistic, Roman and early-Christian periods, and ends with the close of the Talmud in 500 A.D.

Likenesses and differences between Oriental and Occidental goals and standards of excellence will be examined in a course which will meet Wednesday for the first time at SUI.

Cultural Ideas of East and West, to be taught by two professors of different backgrounds, is the newest addition to The Humanities, interdepartmental program now in its fourth semester at the University.

Professors Y. P. Mei, Oriental studies, and David Stout, sociology and anthropology, will conduct the class in comparative culture. Large questions to be considered will include:

What can we learn about ourselves by looking at Eastern culture?

What different ways are there of looking at ideals different from those we have grown up with?

Students will seek answers in philosophical, religious, anthropological and literary works which point up ideals of East and West.

Indonesian Rebels Issue Ultimatum

PADANG, Sumatra (AP) — Revolutionary leaders opposed to President Sukarno's "guided Democracy" for Indonesia Monday demanded a sweeping government shakeup within five days.

The ultimatum called for ouster of Premier Djuanda's Cabinet, hand-picked by Sukarno, and told the president to rid the government of Communist influence.

It did not mention a threatened counter government in opposition to the Java regime. But one dissident leader warned that the five day ultimatum "is the last effort to restore a democratic system in Indonesia by peaceful means."

The ultimatum had been forecast by rebel leaders for a week. A broadcast outlining the demands was made over the "Voice of the Rebels" radio in Padang and heard in Jakarta.

The rebels demanded that Sukarno resume his constitutional position — in other words give up his Red-tinted "guided democracy."

The broadcast said the ultimatum was issued by Col. Achmad Hussein, military commander in central Sumatra and head of the rebel Batang Council.

'Spaceman' Feeling Fine

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Airman Donald G. Farrell began making space history Monday feeling bright and chipper.

The young pioneer of space frontiers completed 24 hours in an experimental sealed cabin at the School of Space Medicine at nearby Randolph Air Force Base at 9:35 a.m. Monday.

"At this point I see no reason why he should not last the full seven days," said Lt. Col. George R. Steinkamp, chief of space medicine at the school.

Previously, humans have spent only one day and night in a sealed cabin where they breathe the same air over and over.

Steinkamp said he was confident Farrell, 23, a blond six-footer, would emerge unharmed at 9:33 a.m. next Sunday.

"He may even gain some weight the way he is eating now," the chief aero-medical expert said.

Federal Power Project Attacked

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Establishment of a Missouri Valley Authority was assailed Monday by W. W. Hollowell, president of the Mississippi Valley Association, (MVA) and Gov. Joe Foss of South Dakota.

Hollowell told the opening session of the 2-day MVA convention that adherents of free enterprise should make "every effort to refute the false premises of the government power people."

Timetable Troubles

TWO GIRLS AS PRETTY AS THIS shouldn't have to worry about what courses they will take this semester, but like many other SUIowans, Carole Maxant, N. Riverside, Ill. (left), and Loretha Lohmeyer, N. Waterloo, had trouble Monday juggling times and totals into a workable schedule. The University's second semester officially begins at 7:30 a.m. Wednesday.

Iowa School Hit By Fire; 200 Students Safe

CAMBRIDGE (AP) — Fire of undetermined origin Monday destroyed three rooms of the Cambridge (Iowa) Independent School here, but about 200 students were evacuated safely.

Volunteer firemen from this south Story County town and nearby communities battled the blaze, believed to have started in a dressing room.

Anti-Sub Weapon Unveiled

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — A deadly new weapon — part rocket, part torpedo and all menace to an enemy submarine — was displayed Monday by the U.S. Navy.

They call it the RAT, for rocket assisted torpedo, and claim it does for anti-sub warfare what the development of artillery did for ground warfare.

A RAT-equipped destroyer can splinter a submarine miles away, without ever leaving the convoy it guards. The RAT is fired into the air and lowered into the target by parachute. Once in the water it automatically seeks out and destroys its target.

It is fired from a launcher that can be built onto a destroyer's existing 5-inch gun mounts.

KC Educators to Revive Old-Fashioned Discipline

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The old-fashioned punishment of being kept in after school was revived in Kansas City Monday. The action came as harassed educators sought to tighten discipline in the wake of a series of teen-age disturbances.

Principal M. Wayne McKanna of Northeast High School announced he was reinstating the punitive system abandoned a year ago and butwarking it with a cumulative punishment plan that would result in ultimate suspension for incorrigible students.

"It's time for an about face in handling discipline," said McKanna. "We're going back to some of the things we used to do," he added. "We're going to fight this thing."

Last week McKanna suspended 10 students, nearly all listed as "bad cases" by their teachers.

At the same time other public schools in the city began initiating discipline crackdowns.

"There is no doubt there has been a general laxity all over in discipline and we educators have been partly responsible," McKanna said.

Ousted Students To Get Hearings

NEW YORK (AP) — The Board of Education Monday held out hope of reinstatement to some of 644 public school students suspended as trouble makers in last week's classroom purge. All will get hearings.

After an emergency City Hall conference, an announcement said the Board of Education did not rule out the possibility that some of the cases presently under suspension might be returned to the regular school.

Teamsters Tangled In Financial Web Of Ex-Prexy Beck

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Teamsters Union bosses got to work Monday unraveling some of the complicated investments of the big union's funds previously engineered by Dave Beck, former president.

Beck had tied up most of the union's 41-million-dollar assets in long-term mortgages and other investments and was proud of the interest yield. The only trouble is this left the union with relatively few liquid assets.
