Correspondents See— Indonesian Rebel Defeat at Padang

Editors Note—Murray Fromson, Associated Press correspondent, was at Padang when Indonesian government troops invaded Thursday. He and three other foreign correspondents were held prisoner by Jakarta troops for four hours. They then were released and went to Bukittinggi, through rebel lines. Here is his first eyewitness account of the invasion.

By MURRAY FROMSON

BUKITTINGGI, Sumatra (AP)— Indonesian Marines and paratroopers Thursday kicked off the long-awaited invasion of West Sumatra practically unopposed. By nightfall the rebel city of Padang had fallen.

FEW REBEL soldiers were in sight as Marines waded in from the sea to Padang's beaches while parachute troops dropped into the nearby hills at dawn. There was little rebel fire.

The Indonesian army landed from the offshore flotilla on beaches eight miles north of Padang later in the morning.

The army joined the 300-man Marine spearhead and quickly seized control of the road leading north from Padang to Bukittinggi, the rebel capital.

They held the highway from Padang's outskirts to a point 13 miles north of the city. That put them about 40 miles by road south of Bukittinggi.

THE REBELS blew up the Padang airport north of the city to keep central government planes from landing.

The invasion actually was kicked off Wednesday night when a small landing party of Marines hit the beach four miles from Padang.

At dawn, the Jakarta air force swooped down and blazed away at rebel guns, which revealed their positions by concentrating their fire on the approaching aircraft rather than on the exposed paratroopers and landing Marines.

Three other correspondents and I were picked up by Jakarta troops and held for four hours. Then we were released by the forces commander, Col. Ahmed Jani, who got his command training at the U.S. Army Staff School at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan.

HE TOLD US we were free to go anywhere we wished. We rode back in a jeep to rebel territory. Rebel communications were so bad the correspondents were asked repeatedly what the situation was around Padang.

Rebel leaders expressed shock and bewilderment that the defenders did not put up a better fight for the Indian ocean port.

Drive Rebels Back to Last Stronghold

By JOHN RODERICK

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)— Government forces drove Friday toward Bukittinggi, capital and last stronghold of the tottering rebel regime on Sumatra, a military spokesman said.

"It will all be over soon," he predicted.

HE REFUSED to say how far the troops had advanced on Bukittinggi. The town lies 58 miles by twisting mountain road and 40 miles by air north of Padang, the rebel port the Government said its forces seized Thursday.

Rebel Premier Sjafruddin Prawiranegara and his Government of young Indonesian colonels apparently must soon make the hard decision of whether to stand and fight or flee to the jungles.

Other Government columns operating for weeks in eastern and northern Sumatra are moving on the rebel capital along all the other roads from north, east and south.

"The rebel forces are outnumbered by ours considerably, almost eight to two," the military spokesman said.

"I don't think it will take much longer now to finish the affair." From somewhere in Sumatra a rebel radio was heard in Singapore broadcasting a rebel Defense Ministry statement saying: "Let's fight to the end: God is with us."

Rebel reports reaching Singapore asserted there still was some street fighting in Padang up to noon Friday and that rebel forces still held positions five miles south of the port.

BUT A DELAYED dispatch from Associated Press Correspondent Murray Fromson at Bukittinggi said a Sumatran military spokesman there had announced the loss of Padang. The spokesman said it was occupied at 6:30 p.m. Thursday by two Jakarta battalions.

About 6,000 men hit Red Beach, 6 1/2 miles north of Padang, soon after dawn Thursday, and 11 hours later reported capturing the half-emptied city of 150,000. Resistance was said to have been light to moderate.

A FRIENDLY PECK on the finger is this pigeon's only reaction to being picked up by John Hohl, A1, Donnellson. Hohl found the bird as he crossed the footbridge near the Iowa Memorial Union, and since it appeared tame, he picked it up and took it home with him. He let it go later and the bird flew away. — Daily Iowan Photo by Bob Strawn.

Russia Says U.S. Courts Global War

Gromyko's Statements
Are Untrue, U.S.

By ROY ESSOYAN

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union accused the United States Friday of courting global atomic war by sending planes with nuclear bombs across the Arctic toward U.S.S.R. frontiers. It demanded an urgent U.N. Security Council meeting.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko made the accusation in a news conference called amid exploratory diplomatic talks about a summit meeting. A few hours later the Soviet U.N. delegation lodged a formal complaint in New York.

"THE PEOPLE of all countries are coming to realize that certain groups in the United States are doing really everything to keep the world on the brink of war and that this brink, as shown by their actions, may be overstepped in a matter of hours," Gromyko said.

"The world is finding itself in a position where atomic war can result from the smallest error of an American technician, lack of attention, miscalculation, or misconception of an American officer."

In Washington, the White House said "Mr. Gromyko's statements are not true." The State Department denied there had been any provocative American flights. The United States, contending its defensive air operations could not possibly set off war by accident, said it would welcome discussion of the Soviet charges in the United Nations.

Gromyko said the Soviet government knew of flights by American bombers with nuclear weapons across the Arctic toward the Soviet frontiers and that this constituted a "too dangerous game." He said such exercises are "unheard of in time of peace, and the U.S.S.R. government regards them as a dangerous provocation."

TO SUPPORT this argument, Gromyko said there were several Western reports of such incidents. Specifically, he mentioned an April 7 dispatch from Offutt Air Base, Nebr., written by Frank H. Bartholomew, president of the United Press.

Gromyko indicated he took this dispatch to mean that "such flights are made whenever the screens of American radar installations of the so-called Distant Early Warning system pick up any vague shapes which American observers take to be guided missiles or ballistic rockets, etc." He said in practice such objects have turned out to be electronic interference or meteorite showers showing upon the radar screens.

Bartholomew's article dealt with Strategic Air Command procedure in the event of radar warnings of approaching objects. It described how SAC would react in the event of an attack on North America.

Sometimes, according to Bartholomew, alerts have been created by "meteoric flights registering on the DEW Line radar scopes, or by interference of high frequency transmitters creating artificial 'blips,' or by the appearance of foreign objects on the scope, flying in seeming formation, which simply never have been explained."

Said Gromyko: "It is conceivable that on some occasion, the Americans will not realize in time that the meteor they see is not a guided missile. Then their planes will continue their flight and approach the Soviet frontiers. In this case, security interests would require instant measures on the part of the U.S.S.R. to eliminate the threat to the Soviet people."

GROMYKO said the U.S.S.R. demands "an immediate end to the practice of sending bombers and atomic or hydrogen bombs toward the frontiers of the Soviet Union," and appeals to all other governments to join the protest.

Gromyko said the Soviet people were "all the more indignant because such flights were made at a time when the big powers were preparing for diplomatic talks on summit conference possibilities."

These talks have not reached the stage of actual negotiations, U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson told correspondents. Preliminary talks Thursday night and Friday "do not constitute the starting of negotiations" as envisaged in the recent notes of the Western powers to Moscow, the envoy said.

It is understood that the meetings of the Western ambassadors with Gromyko have been little more than diplomatic probing. The Russians are standing pat on their position that diplomatic talks must be limited to settling the time, place, and composition of a foreign ministers' conference which, in turn, would be a preliminary to a summit meeting of chiefs of government.

Married Students Capitulate; Decide To Sign New Leases

JUST LIKE SUNDAY, The Rev. Linwood Fredrickson, G. Harlan, passed the collection plate at the general meeting of Married Students Friday night in the Chemistry Auditorium. The Married Student Protest Group had gone $15 into debt and wants also to finance another trip to Des Moines to talk with the Board of Regents.—Daily Iowan Photo by Bob Strawn.

A Resolution

By the Married Student Housing Group
at the State University of Iowa

WHEREAS WE, the Married Student Housing Group, are still convinced that the proposed Hawkeye Apartments, renting for $85.00 plus electricity, will not meet the needs of the majority of student families, and that the $10.00 increase in the barracks rent will be an unbearable burden to many now in the barracks and greatly impair the quality of the teaching of basic courses throughout the University by reducing the value of graduate assistantships by $120.00 a year, and that a site could be chosen which would substantially decrease the cost of the proposed structures; and

WHEREAS our position has been substantially supported by the Governor of Iowa, the faculty, the Student Council, alumni, and people throughout the state who have no direct relationship to the University, while we are aware of no opposition to our position except in the University Administration and the Board of Regents; and

WHEREAS the University Administration has not satisfactorily answered our inquiries concerning this issue; and

WHEREAS the Board of Regents, despite our request for a hearing, has cavalierly ignored the wide concern about how our money shall be spent, refusing either to meet with us or treat our arguments in any resolution;

NOW, THEREFORE be it resolved that despite our unshaken conviction of the essential validity of our position, and despite the virtually unanimous support of this position from the University community and all parts of the state, and because there is no higher authority to which we can appeal, we are forced to succumb to the will of the Administration as upheld by the Board of Regents. We therefore hereby declare invalid the notices of refusal to sign leases at $82.50 which were submitted to the University on March 26, 1958. This organization will nevertheless continue to seek an equitable solution to this problem, since we are vitally interested in making education less a function of ability to pay than of ability to learn.

WE APPEAL to the people of the state of Iowa to help us in our struggle. We must rely upon the people of the state to apply pressure upon those authorities who have failed to recognize us.

Les Elgart's Band To Play At Old Gold Days Dance

High temperatures bring on spring fever, and "Spring Fever" is the theme for the Old Gold Days dance, Friday, April 25, for University students.

Central Party Committee, sponsoring the dance has obtained Les Elgart and his "Band With the Dancing Sound".

"DECORATIONS will be a surprise," said Jim Kanealy, A4, Perry, Central Party Committee (CPC) president. He divulged only that the decorations would be in keeping with the spring fever theme.

The Hawkeyes, SU's five musicians, will be entertaining at intermission time. Also at intermission will be a tea for CPC members, guests, and Old Gold Days Student Board members.

TICKETS for the occasion will go on sale Monday, April 21.

This event, to be held in the Main Lounge, will be the last all-University dance of the season. However, a spring concert is still on the CPC schedule for May.

Applications for membership on next year's CPC board will be available to any freshman, sophomore, or junior Wednesday, April 23, at the Information Desk in the Union.

Group Still Says Rent Hike Unjust

The Married Student Housing Group Friday night passed a resolution in which they declared invalid the notices of refusal to sign leases at $62.50. The 185 married students at the meeting voted unanimously to go in a group the last week in April to the Dormitory Assignment Office to sign new leases.

Richard Clark, chairman of the married student committee, said the committee was now even more convinced of the validity of its position than it was one month ago.

CLARK SAID the SUI administration had given unrealistic answers as to how the additional $10 increase was to be raised by the married students.

David W. Jones, G, 208 Riverside Park, a committee member of the student group, said the notices of refusal to renew leases has served their main purpose; to focus the attention of the state on the SUI married housing problem.

Jones emphasized the group would continue to exist and should continue to oppose the SUI administration's and the Board of Regents' refusal to consider building cheaper housing.

Clark said there is no higher state authority to appeal to than the governor who has announced and reaffirmed his support of the married students' position.

Clark told the group also, "We are not in a position to change the Board of Regents' mind and win our point." He continued, "We must therefore, succumb to the powers that be, for our own protection, and appeal to the State of Iowa for help in this struggle."

JONES SAID the committee felt it could not continue further activity at the pace it has been going because the members could not afford to take more time from their studies. Some of the committee members are to take Ph.D. comprehensive tests within the next two weeks.

The committee intends to meet May 8 with the Board of Regents if Herschel Lovelace can persuade the regents to grant an audience, Jones told the group.

He said the resolution passed last Friday by the regents was not a compromise offered to the married students but a compromise between disagreeing members of the board.

The Board of Regents' resolution gave the married student an option of signing leases within April for a straight $62.50 including utilities or for $42.50 with a pay-your-own utilities plan.

JONES SAID the support received by the group demonstrated the married students may be right and the SUI administration wrong. He said, "We are being forced to submit because the administration is the authority."

He said the married group of students may have technically lost the battle but won a great moral victory.

ART EXHIBIT

"New England Journeys" is the theme of thirty paintings, all by New England artists, which went on exhibition in the SUI Communications Center earlier this week. One of several traveling exhibits owned and sponsored by the Ford Times Collection of American Art, "New England Journeys" includes the work of 27 New England artists, and will remain at SUI until April 30.

Weather

A high yesterday of 84 degrees set a new record for high temperatures in Iowa City for an April 18. The new mark broke the former record of 81 set in 1942.

Today's outlook calls for partly cloudy skies and cooler readings with the mercury expected to range generally in the 70's throughout the state. Fair skies are forecast for Saturday night.

Late News Bulletins

Poet Ezra Pound

WASHINGTON (AP)— Poet Ezra Pound soon will leave the mental hospital which has been his prison for 12 years. A treason indictment accusing Pound, 72, of betraying this country with pro-Axis, anti-American radio broadcasts from Italy during World War II was dismissed Friday in U.S. District Court.

With the indictment out of the way, only a few details remain before Pound can leave St. Elizabeth's Hospital, where he has been confined since he was adjudged mentally incompetent in 1946.

For one thing, his wife, Dorothy Shakespeare Pound, must file a plan for his care. The Pounds hope to get passports to return to Italy where they lived for 21 years before he was arrested by American troops in 1945.

Teamsters Funds Missing

WASHINGTON (AP)— The court-appointed monitors of the Teamsters Union have started a hunt for any funds missing from the union's $40-million treasury.

It was learned Friday the monitors have hired the private auditing firm of Price Waterhouse & Co. to make a thorough checkup.

The firm is expected to complete a preliminary audit within the next few weeks, ahead of a Teamsters Union Executive Board meeting sometime in May.

The monitors, keeping a close watch on disclosures being made before the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee, plan further outside audits into local and other Teamsters branches later. It is reported, for example, the monitors are watching the committee's current Philadelphia Teamsters hearings closely.

Brussels Fair

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)— The United States' slick, subtle, and slightly sexy show by Friday night was the biggest attraction at the 1958 World's Fair. The crowd became so excited at one point during the girly-girly fashion parade that a Belgian guard crashed through a plate glass window. He was hurried to a hospital.

The American exhibit was definitely outpulling the Russian. Fair officials said 169,000 had bought tickets for Thursday's inaugural opening. Of these, nearly 60,000 visited the colorful American pavilion, by American count.

Doing business across the street, the Russians declined to give attendance figures. Unofficial checks showed consistently larger crowds at the U.S. extravaganza.

Gunshot Victim

Jim Bowman, 29, of Victor was listed in critical condition Friday evening at University Hospitals as the result of a rifle wound suffered sometime Friday. He was admitted to the hospital Friday afternoon. According to hospital reports the bullet entered his mouth with a portion of it remaining lodged at the base of his brain.

It was reported that Bowman had taken the rifle with him to shoot rabbits when he went plowing. He was later found wounded. No details of the accident were available.

Cuban Rebels Killed

HAVANA (AP)— Four rebels were killed and several wounded in a clash in Las Villas Province, army general headquarters reported Friday night.

A communique said the action occurred on a farm 30 miles northeast of Santa Clara and the remnants of the rebel group were being pursued by troops. Earlier, the army said 13 rebels surrendered in the town of Coral illo, 60 miles northwest of Santa Clara.

Reports from Santiago said rebels attacked a rural guard post near Baracoa and killed two soldiers. Two truck drivers were found hanged along a road between Santiago and Guantanamo.

In Havana, the official government paper published details of a decree providing imprisonment and fines for saboteurs and persons spreading rumors.

Jobless Benefits Rise

WASHINGTON (AP)— The Labor Department reported Friday night that the number of unemployed workers insured for jobless benefits rose to 3,314,000 during the week ended April 5.

The department's Bureau of Employment Security said the figure, up 37,800 from a week earlier, is the highest since the end of World War II. Before that it kept records differently.

Baby's Condition Unchanged

The condition of eight-week-old Raymond Beauchemin was still listed as critical by the University Hospitals Friday evening. Raymond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Beauchemin of Storm Lake, was on his way to Iowa City Thursday for a lung operation, when his heart apparently stopped just before the plane carrying him landed at the Iowa City airport.

Following emergency treatment he was taken to University Hospitals where his chest was opened and his heart massaged.

The Daily Iowan Is—

Looking For New Editor

The SUI Board of Student Publications announced Friday that a new editor of The Daily Iowan will be chosen May 2 to serve from May 16, 1958 to May 15, 1959.

Board officials said prerequisites for applying for the editorship of the SUI student daily are experience on The Daily Iowan, demonstrated executive ability, a letter from the Registrar certifying good scholastic standing, and "plenty of time."

THE PRESENT EDITOR, TOM Slattery, G, Coralville, said he works 40-50 hours a week on the paper.

Besides the time he is actually on duty, he reads many papers and magazines to keep informed on the news and does other reading for backgrounding.

The editor is responsible for what give all the attention I want to the many problems.

"THERE IS A SHORTAGE OF help at the beginning of each semester and the problem of untrained help," Slattery said. The Daily Iowan is put together entirely by students for their courses.

Applications for the position must be filed with Mrs. Elaine Scheld, secretary of the Board of Trustees, Student Publications, Inc., in room 205 Communications Center by 5 p.m. Friday, April 25. The Board of Trustees, Student Publications, Inc., will choose the editor.

The Negro and the Barber

If Iowa City, 1958, is remembered for nothing else, it can be remembered as the year in which the ideals of brotherhood, equality, and the dignity of man took another step forward.

Iowa City's barbers are to be congratulated on shedding this vestige of an earlier, less tolerant, less understanding, and less democratic era.

U.S. Does Right!

America alone of all the nations represented in the World's Fair at Brussels, Belgium, has more than her best table linen on display — she also has a section called "unfinished business" displaying a little dirty linen.

U.S. is courageous and imaginative. To air these problems before the world — in such a setting especially — is to lend an air of reliability to the rest of the U.S. display as well as to indicate to the world that we can recognize their problems: after all, here are some of ours.

What has happened to your ebullient enantiomers Mezey and Gray? Being two of the main reasons for the paper's increased interest this year, one cannot help noticing their absence.

TO THE EDITOR:

When evidence is lacking, character assassination is often the next best thing. Medical student Updegraff (DI 4/16/58) says, "I freely admit that I do not know enough about the problem (of fluoridation) to take a stand."

Newburgh-Kingston experiment to prove the safety of putting sodium fluoride into drinking water and to prove its efficiency in preventing tooth decay.

In 1953 the New York Department of Education did some independent checking and found dental defects running fifty per cent higher among fluoridated Newburgh children than among unfluoridated Kingston children.

If no evidence of fluoride toxicity existed, enthusiasts might well argue (as they have argued) that it wouldn't hurt to try fluoridation.

hower. Throughout the U.S. military, both here and abroad, the armed services open their posts and bases for public inspection.

The Quad-Cities observance will be centered at the Rock Island Arsenal where active and reserve members of the various services have combined their efforts.

The objective of military open house on Armed Forces Day is to demonstrate the defense program of the U.S.

Van Allen has not announced the subject of his speech. A highly sought after speaker, Van Allen has been a key figure in the International Geophysical Year since plans began in 1950.

A leading authority on cosmic ray research and satellites, Van Allen edited the 1956 book, "Scientific Uses of Earth Satellites."

He contributed to another book on the intensity of cosmic radiation and is the author of about 50 articles on cosmic rays, nuclear and atmospheric physics, and the use of rockets in high altitude research.

Bremner Named New President of Phi Epsilon Kappa

John B. Bremner, A4, Iowa Falls, has recently been elected president of Phi Epsilon Kappa, professional physical fraternity.

Other officers elected are: Glen P. Reeder, G, Memminville, Tennessee, vice-president; Robert Hansen, A2, Dewitt, secretary; and Dr. A. J. Wendler, Iowa City, treasurer.

Gary Kurdelmeier, A4, Cresco, is the recent past president.

Geology Professors Will Attend Symposium

Richard A. Hoppin, and Donald A. Hase, assistant professors of Geology; Robert F. Hudson, Kenneth A. Sargent and Lyman O. Williams, graduate assistants in Geology, will attend the Fourth Annual Symposium on Lake Superior Geology in Duluth, Minnesota, May 19 to 22.

The symposium will deal with problems of iron formations and copper deposits in the Lake Superior area. Hosts for the symposium are the Duluth branch of the University of Minnesota and the Lake Superior Geological Club.

The group will have an opportunity to inspect the open pit mining operations in the Duluth area. A field trip will also be conducted along the north shore of Lake Superior.

Swiss Editor Will Lecture Wednesday

Urs. Schwartz, foreign editor of the Swiss newspaper Neue Zürcher Zeitung, will present a lecture titled "The Situation of the U.S. in the World Today: A Swiss View," at SUI at 8 p.m. Wednesday, April 23.

The lecture is co-sponsored by the Graduate College and the School of Journalism and will be held in the Senate Room of the Old Capitol building. All interested persons are invited.

Schwartz is in the United States attending the International Press Institute (IPI) convention currently being held in Washington D. C. He is making a State Department sponsored tour of the Midwest following the I.P.I. convention. Object of his tour is to afford him a first-hand look at the midwest and its people.

The Neue Zürcher Zeitung, of Zurich, Switzerland, is one of the leading newspapers of the world. It is highly regarded for its insight into world affairs and maintains four staff members in the United States, one of the largest U.S. staffs maintained by a foreign newspaper.

Schwartz was educated at the Universities of Zurich and Berlin and Harvard University and has held his present position since 1942. He holds the rank of Lieutenant Colonel in the Swiss army.

Foreign Students Preview College At Old Gold Days

Foreign students attending Iowa high schools under the American Field Service program can get a glimpse of higher education in the United States during Old Gold Days at SUI April 25-26, reports Jo Ann Roberts, A1, Nevada, chairman of the freshman council of Associated Women Students.

High school seniors from foreign countries spending the year in American schools have been invited to attend the weekend preview of college life being planned by SUI student leaders.

Foreign students who have indicated their intention to attend include: Maria Teresa Miron, Guatemala, now living at Independence; Ulla Jarinen, Finland, Fairfield; Elsa Parvianen, Finland, Mt. Pleasant; Gertraud Brandstetter, Belgium, Clinton; Henrik Seire, Finland, Manchester; Niki Lalou, Greece, Ottumwa; Anny Huysman, New Zealand, Dubuque; Piet Heida, Netherlands, R.R. 1, Nevada, and Danielle Deborne, France, Eldora.

The American Field Service students will be weekend guests of the freshman council of SUI's Association of Women Students and of Phi Eta Sigma, freshman men's honorary. SUI students will act as hosts and guides to the visiting foreign students.

The exchange students will tour the various departments on the University campus, visit with SUI faculty and students, and attend the Leadership School planned for the foreign students Saturday morning at the SUI International Center.

Under the American Field Service exchange program 1,000 students from other countries spend one year in U.S. schools. In exchange, 700 American students spend the summer following their junior year in another country. Miss Roberts visited Switzerland in the summer of 1956 as an exchange student.

Applications to attend Old Gold Days will be accepted as long as housing for the teenagers is available.

Train Orientation Leaders for Fall Monday, Tuesday

Orientation training schools will be held Monday and Tuesday at 4:30 p.m. in Old Capitol to acquaint the 1958 Orientation leaders and assistants with their responsibilities for the Orientation program next fall.

A make-up session will be held April 24 at the same time and place. Attendance at one of these meetings is mandatory for all Orientation leaders and assistants, according to Barbara Slemmons, A3, Ames, and Dave Hoyt, A2, Los Angeles, Calif., co-chairmen of the training schools.

Miss Helen Focht, SUI Counselor to Women, will speak to the groups on behalf of the administration on both days.

Mrs. Ellis Newsome, wife of an associate professor in the SUI Department of Marketing and Journalism, will talk Monday about why faculty wives enjoy the faculty home visits. Mrs. Harry Crosby, wife of an assistant professor and writing supervisor in the SUI Department of Communication Skills, will discuss the same topic with the Tuesday group of leaders and assistants.

The women leaders will be given their materials for letter writing over the summer, part of the Orientation program, at the meeting. Four hundred leaders and assistants have been selected to carry out the Orientation schedule for the 1958 SUI freshmen.

Add 'Big News' Discs To Library Collection

A record album, "The Big News of '57," has been added to the collection of historical recordings of poetry, drama and speech available to students and faculty at the main university library.

Joke Homer Record?

Now is the time a decision should be made — will batting records made in the Los Angeles Coliseum be put into the baseball record books?

My personal feeling is that the Commissioner of Baseball, Ford Frick, should now forbid the entering of any National League batting records as long as the Los Angeles Dodgers play in their temporary home — the Coliseum.

To allow Babe Ruth's record of 60 home runs in a single season to be broken because of the limited dimensions of the Coliseum would make a farce out of the game's greatest feat.

The Coliseum is a huge structure, but it was built for football and track, not baseball. Thus, the outlandish dimensions.

DOWN THE left field line, it is 251 feet to the wall. A 40-foot fence has been erected, but as close as the wall is, any National League bill player will be able to pop one over.

Earlier this week, the Southern California baseball team worked out in the Coliseum. In a half-hour, no less than 13 balls were hit over the short left field fence.

In Friday's opener in the Coliseum, 32 balls were hit into the bleachers over the 40-foot fence in left field during batting practice.

In the game, won by the Dodgers, 6-5, three home runs were hit, two over the high left field fence. Giant slugger Hank Sauer and Dodger rookie Dick Gray each hit home runs, and both narrowly got past the newly erected fence.

If the opener is any indication of things to come, there'll be a lot of cheap circus blows — and some mighty unhappy pitchers.

THE RIGHT field wall, although not as close, is about as bad. From home plate to the wall, it's 300 feet. However, the wall is only 6-foot high, and thus will be an easy target for many lefthanded swingers.

Contrast this right field wall with the wall at Ebbetts Field, which was considered to be a home-run hitter's heaven. It was 315 feet down the foul line, and at the end of the line was a 40-foot fence.

And still hitters like Duke Snider, Eddie Mathews and other lefthanders hit many home runs on the right field wall, which by all standards, was much tougher than the present Coliseum right field wall.

THERE ARE other ball parks regarded as home-run paradises. Fenway Park in Boston has a 37-foot wall 315 feet from home plate and is regarded as one of the prime targets of the American League right-handed sluggers.

The Polo Grounds, when used by the old New York Giants, had the closest fences in the majors. It measured 279 feet down the left field line and 257 down the right field line, but both walls broke sharply away from the plate, so that any ball hit 20 or 30 feet inside the foul line had to travel over 300 feet to reach the stands.

Several other parks have at least one wall close enough to be considered easy home-run targets for most of the hitters, but none of them even remotely approach the comical dimensions of the Coliseum.

I THINK most baseball fans, even though they like to see records broken, don't want to see Ruth's record broken in a "joke" ball park. I would resent it greatly to see one of the Dodger hitters hit about 40 home runs in the Coliseum and enough in the other parks to break Babe's record.

Even playing just 11 games in the Coliseum, as the visiting clubs will play, will be a tremendous advantage. Mathews, Hank Aaron, Ernie Banks, and several others could come awful close to Ruth's record with the addition of seven or eight "cheap homers."

Should some National League—probably a Dodger since they'll play their 77 games in the Coliseum—break the home run mark, I look for a lot of criticism. People will say, "Why wasn't something done to prevent a farce like this?"

That's why I think a decision should be reached now. I may be wrong and people may want records recognized that are helped by the closeness of the fences in the Coliseum. In any case, let's establish now whether these records be recognized or not.

Ideally, Ruth's record won't be broken and there will be no trouble.

But if it should be, I think that a decision on recognition should be made now. And I hope the fans won't decide on a major league record set in Little League surroundings.

James Norris Resigns As President Of IBC

Quits Because Of Ill Health; Gibson Hired

NEW YORK (AP)—James D. Norris, multi-millionaire boxing president, Friday resigned as president of the twin New York and Illinois international boxing clubs in a move that surprised boxing circles. He was succeeded as head of both companies by Truman K. Gibson Jr., of Chicago, a long-time assistant.

Norris, 52, said he was yielding both posts because of health reasons and on advice of his physicians. He was stricken with a severe heart attack last fall during re-negotiations with Sugar Ray Robinson for his first middleweight title fight with Carmen Basilio.

The tall, husky Norris, continues, however, as president of the Madison Square Garden Corp. Gibson, a 46-year-old Negro, has had increasing duties in the handling of IBC affairs both here and in Chicago.

The Illinois branch of the IBC promotes the Wednesday night network television fights. The New York company handles the weekly Friday night fights on radio and television.

Norris' resignations and the elections of Gibson to the two top posts took place here and in Chicago. Norris was not present at the meetings where his resignations were tendered and where Gibson was named successor. He was believed on a cruise somewhere off Florida. He has a home in Coral Gables.

Norris' statement of resignation as issued in New York read:

"I hereby tender my resignation as president of the International Boxing Club of New York, Inc., and request that it be made effective immediately. My doctors advised me last fall following a severe heart attack to restrict my activities by resigning as head of this company. I postponed tendering my resignation at that time wanting to renew the Gillette television contract for the Friday night telecasts, which now has been accomplished.

"Mr. Truman Gibson was elected executive vice-president of the company last fall and has been very helpful in relieving me of many of my executive duties, and I am sure that he and the organization can effectively carry on."

The IBC followed with another statement on Gibson's election as president and that of Harry Markson, managing director of the New York IBC, as a director.

3 New Records At Kansas Relays

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP)—The Oklahoma Sooners' sprint medley team bettered the American and intercollegiate record in 3:19.5 as three new standards were set in the first half of the 33rd Kansas Relays Friday.

Gail Hodgson, a sophomore from South Africa, ran the anchor 880 leg of the sprint medley in the blazing time of 1:48. He teamed with Gary Parr, John Pellow and Dee Given to dip under the recognized American record of 3:20.2 set by Kansas in 1954.

The other new records, both meet marks, went to Gene O'Connor, Kansas State veteran, who captured his third title in the 400 meter hurdles here in 51.3 seconds, and to Coffeyville (Kan.), Junior College's sprint medley team in 3:24.4.

Art Andrews

Iowa Tennis Team Trims Kalamazoo

Special to The Iowan

KALAMAZOO, Mich. — Iowa easily swept to its second straight tennis win of the season here Friday by whipping Kalamazoo College, 7-2.

The Hawkeyes won all six singles matches, but dropped two of the three doubles matches.

In the top match of the day, Iowa's Art Andrews defeated Kalamazoo's number one man, Les Dodson, 6-0, 7-5. Bob Poth-hast defeated Mike Beal, 6-1, 6-2, in the number two battle.

Iowa's other winners were: Joe Martin over Bill Japinga, 6-3, 2-6, 6-3; Don Middlebrook over Bob Brice, 6-1, 6-1; Bill Voxman over Bob Yuell, 6-3, 6-3; and Milo Larimer over Alan Cho, 6-3, 8-6.

In the doubles competition, Dodson and Pepinga teamed to defeat Iowa's number one doubles team of Andrews and Martin, 6-3, 6-2.

Beal and Brice combined to defeat Pothast and Middlebrook, 6-4, 6-4, but Larimer and Voxman whipped Yuell and Cho, 6-2, 6-2.

The loss gives Kalamazoo a 5-2 mark for the season, their only other loss coming at the hands of Presbyterian College.

Iowa meets Western Michigan University today.

Armbruster To Be Feted At Banquet

A "Remembrance Banquet" in honor of David A. Armbruster and his 42 years of service as Iowa's only swimming coach, has been scheduled for May 2 here.

The affair will be held in Iowa Union at 6:30 p.m. and tickets and reservations at $2.50 per person are being handled by Robert Allen, assistant swimming coach. Allen may be addressed at Field House, Iowa City.

Coach Armbruster has developed Olympic, national and Big Ten champions and all-Americans over the years and many of his Hawkeye teams have annually been among the first four in the conference and have ranked high in the National Collegiate meet.

In addition to his long service as one of the top coaches in the nation, Armbruster is known for his work as head of the required physical education courses since 1937. Coach Armbruster will reach the age of 68 next August. He established swimming as an intercollegiate sport at the university in 1917.

Bradley Beats Iowa On 4-Hitter, 2-1

Yanks Down Orioles; Dodgers Edge Giants

NEW YORK (AP)—Whitey Ford hurled a strong five-hitter Friday as the New York Yankees opened their home season with a 3-1 victory over Baltimore and moved into first place in the American League.

Ford, in winning his fourth straight as the Yankee Stadium opening day hurler, struck out six and walked two as he inflicted the first defeat of the season upon the Orioles. Baltimore had won its first two games, both against Washington.

Mantle, who had a perfect day with two singles and two walks, scored the first two Yankee runs. Skowron, with a pair of singles and a double in four times at bat, drove in the first run and highlighted the winning two-run rally in the sixth inning with a screaming double inside the third base line.

White Sox Whip A's

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Big Jim Wilson left Kansas City hitters with little more than a dull ache Friday and Chicago's supposedly powerful hitters unloaded four home runs as the White Sox defeated the Athletics 11-7 and spoiled the home club's opening for 23,001 fans.

Jim Landis, Ron Jackson, Bubba Phillips and Luis Aparicio parked the circuit clouts over the convenient left field fence and Nellie Fox chipped in with four hits including a pair of doubles.

Wilson retired after seven innings. Although they had him on the ropes in the second after Vic Power led off with a home run, the A's couldn't score again until the seventh. A single by pinchhitter Bob Martyn, a double by Mike Baxes and sacrifice flies by Bill Tuttle and Hee Lopez scored two runs.

Braves Defeat Phils

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Shortstop Johnny Logan's bases loaded home run in the sixth inning — the second grand slam of his career — propelled the Milwaukee Braves to a 4-2 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies at Connie Mack Stadium Friday night before an opening home crowd of 31,624 fans.

Logan smashed the winning homer off 1957's rookie of the year, Jack Sanford, in the sixth inning to break up a red hot pitching duel between Sanford and winning pitcher Bob Buhl.

Sanford had a ball and a strike on Logan when Logan slammed the ball into the upper left field stands. Sanford, a 19 game winner last season, started the sixth by walking Bob Hazle, but he appeared out of trouble when the Braves' heavy artillery, Eddie Mathews and Hank Aaron, went out.

Then, Frank Torre singled to right and Andy Pafko walked to set the scene for Logan's dramatic shot and Sanford's first 1958 defeat.

Redlegs Beat Pirates

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Rookie Vada Pinson's grand slam home run — his first in the majors — earned the Cincinnati Redlegs a 4-to-1 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates Friday in the season's opener at Forbes Field.

Bob Purkey, a righthander who was with the Pirates a year ago, won the nod over his former teammates but needed help in the ninth after loading the sacks. Hal Jeffcoat snuffed out the Pirates' rally getting pinch-hitter Gene Freese to hit into a double play.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A roaring crowd of 78,672 in a gay, picnic mood greeted the Los Angeles Dodgers in their new home Friday and broke the attendance record for any single regular season game ever played in the majors.

The Dodgers rewarded this sprawling mass of humanity with a 6-5 victory over the San Francisco Giants after rookie Jim Davenport forgot to touch third base during a ninth-inning Giant rally.

Hank Sauer slammed two home runs, the second a high fly ball that barely cleared the screen in the eighth inning. Hank's first homer was a 340-foot poke to left center just beyond the right end of the high screen in the fourth.

Dick Gray, the Dodgers' rookie third baseman, also found the left field range in the seventh, again just beyond the far edge of the screen.

Cubs Wallop Cards

CHICAGO (AP)—A wild six-run fourth propelled the Chicago Cubs to their third consecutive victory over the St. Louis Cardinals 11-6 before a home opener throng of 21,076 Friday.

Three wild pitchers and Walt Moryn's two-run homer figured in the five-hit Cub fourth which chased off starter and loser, Sad Sam Jones, first of six Card pitchers.

Another five-hit attack in the fifth produced three more Cub runs to sew up the game for starter Dick Drott, who yielded to Fernando Rodriguez in the eighth.

Del Ennis' three-run double in the seventh after pinchhitter Dick Schofield's solo homer in the fifth led to Drott's exit.

Zwiener Predicts 1st Division Golf Finish

Iowa golf coach Chuck Zwiener predicts big things for his Hawkeye team this spring. "I won't predict a championship," he said, "but we should finish in the first division."

The Hawkeye linkers are led this spring by senior captain Clyde Feltes, Ottumwa. Along with Feltes, coach Zwiener named Bud Judish, Iron River, Mich.; John Liechty, Iowa City; and Jim Frazier, a sophomore from Des Moines as his top four men.

The Hawkeyes finished second in the Big Ten meet last spring, but were hit hard by graduation of front line men John Marshall and Herb Klotz. The team received another blow when Phil Joslyn, and regular as a sophomore last year, failed to return to school.

Zwiener said, "We should receive lots of help from senior lettermen Steve Showers, Waterloo and Dale Hayes, Marshalltown." He also mentioned Bob Brandenberg, Waterloo junior, and John Wicks, Iowa City senior, as potential front line men.

Zwiener is blessed with a fine group of sophomores, which is headed by Frazier. Other sophos who show promise include: Bill Suttren, Red Oak; Beau Gambel, Des Moines; John Comer, Iowa City; Russ Schrage, Waterloo; Bob Benz, Oskaloosa, and Ed Bedell, Burlington.

"Freshmen Bill Barnhart, Downer's Grove, Illinois and Frank James, Grinnell show promise of being extremely good," Zwiener said. Barnhart surprised Zwiener by shooting a 35 on the tough back nine of new Finkbine earlier this week. Par for the back nine is 36.

The Hawkeyes open their season here Monday, with Western Illinois as their first opponent. "We don't know much about them," Zwiener said, "but we expect them to be tough." On Saturday, April 26, the Hawkeyes take on Minnesota and Wisconsin in a triangular meet on the new Finkbine course.

Zwiener picks Ohio State, Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Indiana as the teams to beat in the Big Ten this spring.

Several Pros To Play for Alumni

Iowa's 1958 football team will practically be up against a professional outfit in the Alumni-Varsity game which will wind up the spring practice session.

Among the 35 alumni expected to be here for the game will be Frank Gilliam, Bill Reichardt, Jim Freeman, Em Tunnel, Dick Woodward, Jerry Reichow and Harold Bradley who have played with professional teams, plus Alex Karras, Jim Gibbons and Mike Hagler, departing veterans who have lined up to contract.

Hawks' First Home Defeat

By ALAN HOSKINS Sports Editor

Southpaw Fred Davis hurled a neat 4-hitter Friday as the Bradley Braves edged the Iowa Hawkeyes, 2-1. It was Iowa's first home loss of the season and gave the Hawkeyes a 6-5 season mark.

Davis bested Iowa sophomore Roger Rudeen in a pitcher's battle. The Bradley ace struck out seven and walked none in the opener of a three game series.

A single by Chico Raybourne in the eighth inning drove in Joe Napoli from third for the winning run. Napoli had drawn one of Rudeen's six walks with one out and had advanced to second on a wild pitch.

Nora, Drennan To Hurl Twin-Bill

Captain Jack Nora and Ron Drennan are scheduled to pitch today's windup doubleheader against Bradley on the Iowa Diamond. Game time for the twin-bill is 1:30 p.m.

Nora will work the 9-inning opener with Drennan going in the 7-inning windup. Nora has won two without a loss this season, while Drennan has won one of two decisions.

Napoli moved to third on a ground out to first and scored on Raybourne's smash down the third base line past third baseman Don Peden.

Iowa opened the scoring in the third. Kevin Furlong led off the inning with a single and was advanced to second by a sacrifice by Rudeen. Furlong moved to third on Tom Hays' sharp single, and scored moments later on Larry Harsch's long fly ball to left fielder Scotty Sullivan against the fence.

Bradley knotted the game in the sixth. Napoli led off the inning with a walk, and moved to third on Don Groves long fly, which fell for a double when left fielder Fred Long fell while moving back to the catch. Raybourne scored Napoli with a sacrifice fly to right.

WSUI To Broadcast Iowa-Bradley Twin-Bill

Radio Station WSUI will broadcast the Iowa-Bradley doubleheader at 1:30 p.m. today. WSUI Student Sports Director Paul Eells and staff will be on hand to broadcast the game.

In addition to the Bradley game, all Big Ten home games will be carried over WSUI this season with the exception of the first game of a double-header with Northwestern on May 1, when the Alumni-Varsity football game will be broadcast instead.

In the short contest, which was played in our hour, 47 minutes. It was the first time Iowa has gone without an error as the Hawkeyes made 44 in their first 11 games.

Rudeen was hampered by his wildness. Both runs scored first via walks. Rudeen walked six in the game, while striking out seven. In the first and seventh innings, he struck out the side.

Iowa never seriously threatened against Davis other than in the third when the Hawks got their only run. Only two Hawkeyes reached second. Furlong in the third and Harsch in the ninth.

Harsch doubled with two out in the ninth but Davis got Les Zanotti to pop to short to end the game. Davis retired 17 men in a row between Hays' single in the third and Harsch's double in the ninth. Iowa led only two men on base.

The Hawkeyes got a break in the sixth, when with one out and men on first and third, Mike Kessler grounded to short. Hays tried for the double play but Harsch was taken out of the play by Don Fidler's hard slide. The run from third scored but was nullified when Fidler was called for interference.

Sigma Phi Epsilon Wins All-University Bowling

Sigma Phi Epsilon Thursday won the All-University Intramural bowling championship. The champs finished the season with a 30-2 record.

Members of team are Bill DeKock, A2, Iowa City; Al Voeks, A2, Waverly; Lake Crookham, E3, Oskaloosa; Mike Murray, A2, Sioux City; and Don Rochau, C4, Vinton.

LA Sets NL Attendance Mark

A RECORD SHATTERING crowd of 78,672 fans saw the Los Angeles Dodgers open their 1958 season Friday with a 6-5 win over the San Francisco Giants in the Los Angeles Coliseum. The crowd was the largest in National League history, breaking the old mark by about 18,000. However, it failed to break the all-time mark held by the Cleveland Indians of 85,288 in the 1948 World Series. Note the large number of buses in the upper left hand corner. —AP Wirephoto.

Children's Authors Will Meet Here

Some 20 authors of books for children will gather at the SUI Memorial Union April 30 for a professional conference. The intensive one-day meeting is planned to stimulate the creation of more reading material to help youngsters develop understandings of their social world, explains Ralph H. Ojemann, director of the Preventive Psychiatry Project in the Iowa Child Welfare Research Station.

The roster of authors expected for the Conference for Writers of Children's Literature includes some who have won national awards for their contributions to childhood reading. Among the writers planning to attend are John Tunis, Naples, Fla., writer of sports stories for boys; Joseph Krumgold, Hope, N. J., author of "And Now Miguel" and of documentary films for children; Inez Hogan, New York author of stories about children growing up in the Deep South; Joan Liffing, Cedar Rapids photographer-writer of illustrated books about growing up in the Corn Belt; and Henry Felsen, Des Moines, author of "Street Rod" and other popular books for boys.

The conference is open to persons with professional interests in children's literature, with participants expected to register in advance in order to familiarize themselves with background material. Prof. Ojemann points out, SUI staff members assisting Ojemann in planning the conference include Paul Engle, director of the Iowa Writers Workshop; William Eller, director of the reading laboratory in the SUI College of Education; Carlton Singleton, assistant professor of Education; Louane Newsome, assistant professor of Library Education; Marjorie Zumbstein, education librarian; May Tangen, education reference librarian, and members of the Preventive Psychiatry staff.

The art conference is designed to give Iowa juniors and senior high school art students and faculty members an opportunity to share creative ideas and discuss problem areas. Giving the opening conference address will be Michael F. Andrews, professor of art and education at Syracuse University, Syracuse, N. Y. Prof. Andrews is co-author of the book "Growing With Art." He has contributed to the Encyclopedia Americana and the New York State Art Teachers Association Bulletin.

Prof. Andrews will also conduct a critique of the high school art entries during concluding activities. Prof. Andrews is co-author of the book "Growing With Art." He has contributed to the Encyclopedia Americana and the New York State Art Teachers Association Bulletin.

Firemen Help Fireman

FIREMEN WERE CALLED upon to help an off duty co-worker early Friday morning. Herman Villhauer, the off duty fireman, was taking a load of trash to the city sanitary landfill when it caught fire. The on-duty firemen rushed to the scene and put the fire out before it could damage the pickup. —Daily Iowan photo by Jerry Rein

A Tippy Canoe On SUI's River

It's inevitable — in spring the grass grows, school work becomes more tedious and the SUI students migrate away from the books and out along the river.

And it's just as inevitable that with the increased number of people on and around rivers and lakes, the number of drownings and boat accidents increases greatly.

STATISTICS from the American Red Cross show that the majority of the accidents that happen near the water could have been prevented if the people involved or those nearby would have exercised a few simple precautions.

It would seem elementary that you should not stand up while you are in a boat or canoe but reports indicate that many accidents are caused because people do.

If you want to change places while you are in a boat or canoe, the Red Cross advises you to put both hands on the sides of the boat, crouch down and slide from one seat to the other by keeping your weight low in the center of the boat.

IF YOUR BOAT or canoe does tip over, there is little need for panic, for again a few simple steps can keep the situation in hand.

The Red Cross explains that your boat or canoe will act as a life preserver if you remember to keep your head.

When your boat or canoe tips over, divide into partners and lock arms across the boat, the Red Cross advises. By staying in this position you will easily be able to stay afloat until help comes.

For the on-lookers, there are several tips which could help to save the lives of those who get in trouble near the water.

Boat paddles, heavy sticks and towels make excellent extensions that can be used to reach out and help someone to shore.

One caution for those who attempt to aid someone to shore. If you are extending something out to the person in the water, be sure that you have yourself in balance by keeping your weight down and your body slightly inclined away from the water.

IF YOU JUST LEAN over and grab for someone you are likely to find that you will lose your balance and be pulled into the water.

Panic is the greatest cause of drowning. If everyone learned a few simple rules and kept a level head, the number of accidents and drownings could be greatly reduced and the lakes and rivers would be more fun for all, the Red Cross reports.

Journal Elects Nagle Iowa Man of Month

George Nagle, SUI graduate and president of Nagle Lumber company, Iowa City, was elected Iowa's man of the month for April by a commerce and industry journal.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Nagle, formerly of Iowa City, he was born at Milton, Iowa, in 1900, but received his elementary and high school education at Red Oak. After his graduation from SUI in 1922, he entered his father's lumber business in Iowa City.

Nagle is chairman of the board of the First National Bank, Iowa City; director of Iowa City Building and Loan Association; and president of Grandview Courts, Inc., of Dey Building corporation, and of Nagle Lumber and Coal company, Oxford, Iowa.

Nagle is also a member of Rotary, Elks, country club, Masonic lodge, Shrine, and has served as director and president of the chamber of commerce.

The Nagles have three children, George Jr., Jim, student at Stanford, and Susan, at home.

Indians Frustrate Survey Efforts at Niagara Project

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y. (AP)—The Tuscarora Indians, many in colorful costumes, frustrated for the third straight day Friday efforts to survey land taken by the state for the Niagara power project.

About 400 Indians, twice the number that turned out Thursday, massed on a plot of ground they claim is still part of the Tuscarora reservation. The state has appropriated 1,383 acres, about a fifth of the Indians' land, for the $600-million power project.

The Indians prevented surveyors from taking sightings by standing in front of the instruments.

There was no violence. Thursday three Indians and one surveyor were arrested after tempers flared briefly.

There was no indication of what the State Power Authority would do next.

Offer Color Photography Short Course

A short course in color photography will be offered at the SUI Center for Continuation Study May 2-4.

Sponsoring the 3-day lecture course is the University Camera Club.

Guest lecturer will be John W. Doscher, owner and director of the world-famous Country School of Photography, South Woodstock, Vt.

Doscher will present five lectures covering various areas of color photography. The first lecture is scheduled for Friday, May 2, at 8 p.m. at the Continuation Center. Two lectures will be given on Saturday, May 3, one at 2:30 p.m. and the other at 7 p.m. Final lectures in the course are set for Sunday, May 4, at 2:30 p.m. and 7 p.m.

Artist-photographer Doscher, who has won outstanding photo awards, is a Fellow of the Photographic Society of America and of the Royal Photographic Society. He is one of the world's leading pictorialists and serves frequently as judge in international exhibitions and salons. Doscher is a key judge for the National Press Photographers.

Doscher's Country School in Woodstock, Vt., located at a century-old farmstead, is open the year round for students and commercial artists in photography. Registrants may do studio work and go on field trips sponsored by the school.

Fee for the course to be given at SUI is $10 plus $1 for a textbook on color harmony and composition by Doscher. Applications for the course may be sent to the University Camera Club, Room 109, Physics Building, State University of Iowa. A $2 advance registration fee should be enclosed with the application.

'New Experiences' Is Monday's Child Study Program for WSUI

Children respond differently to new experiences according to their physical differences and their past emotional experiences, says Mary Russell, SUI teaching associate.

Miss Russell will be guest speaker on the Monday WSUI Radio Child Study Program at 12:45 p.m. She will discuss "Meeting New Experiences" with program moderator Fran Horowitz, research associate at the Iowa Child Welfare Research Station at SUI. The two will also deal with the problems adults have in helping children to adjust to new experiences.

Miss Russell is in charge of teaching the research station's preschool children, ages 3½ to 4½, in addition to college teaching duties.

Monday's program will be the 11th of 15 Radio Child Study Programs in the spring semester series being broadcast over WSUI.

Yogi Demonstration Sunday To Be at International Center

An open invitation has been extended to attend the yagi demonstration by Swami Raj Vishnu-devananda to be held at 7 p.m. Sunday at the International Center.

Swami Vishnu-devananda, professor of Hatha Yoga, Varendra Forest University, Rishikesh, India, is on a world tour. He is internationally renowned.

Hatha Yoga, which Swami Vishnu-devananda espouses, teaches man to attain a union between the soul of the individual and the soul of the Divine through controlled breathing, physical and meditative exercises.

"Yoga," Marcus Bach of the SUI School of Religion said, "has become increasingly important in the field of physical and mental health and is recognized now by many authorities in the Western world as fundamentally scientific in both principle and practice."

Swami Vishnu-devananda has given demonstrations at the Unitarian Church and in a class in "Religious Groups of America."

Student Gets Assitanship For Phoenix

Leonard Kopp, G. Iowa City, has received a grant entitling him to work for one year as intern assistant for the Research and Budget Department of the city of Phoenix, Arizona, Kirk H. Porter, professor and head of SUI Political Science said. Kopp's assistantship will begin July 1.

Through the provisions of his grant, Kopp will work and do research in city organization and administration under the officer of the Research and Budget Department. He will also participate in a city administration training service program.

For the past year, Kopp has attended SUI under a Fellowship provided by the Old Gold Fund.

34 Iowa Schools Registered for Art Exhibition

More than 200 junior and senior high school students representing 34 Iowa schools have registered for the 29th annual art exhibition to be held at SUI April 25-26.

On exhibition during the annual spring event will be art entries in two dimensions by high school students throughout the state. Each school may exhibit a maximum of twelve examples of art.

The high school works will be on display all day next Saturday in the main exhibition hall in the Art Building. Works will be evaluated and analyzed by Michael F. Andrews, professor of art and education, Syracuse University, Syracuse, N.Y.

Frank Wachowiak, SUI associate professor of art and co-chairman of the art conference, will select 50-75 of the most creative works on display. Pictures taken of the group selected will be made into color slides for the Traveling High School Art Collection.

Also on display during the conference will be art work by SUI students and faculty.

SUI Speech Pathologist To Meeting

Prof. James F. Curtis, head of SUI Speech Pathology and Audiology, will attend the sixteenth annual meeting of the American Association for Cleft Palate Rehabilitation. The meeting will be held at the St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco, Calif., April 24-26.

Curtis will be accompanied by Prof. D. C. Spriesterbach and Gene R. Powers, research associate, both of Speech Pathology and Audiology.

Spriesterbach is the secretary-treasurer of the association, and also serves as chairman of the foundation committee and of the budget committee.

Hunt Dog That Bit Iowa City Child

Three-year-old Arno Buntrock was bitten in the arm Friday afternoon by a dog thought to be a beagle or part-beagle as the boy was playing in his back yard at 410 4th Ave., Iowa City. Except for a bad scare and broken skin on his arm, Arno appeared to be all right.

Father of the boy, Arno Buntrock Sr., said police were making a house to house search for the brown and white dog in case the animal was rabid.

Arno's sister Marcia, 14, witnessed the accident, but said it happened too quickly for anyone to prevent it.

Judaism Talk To Start WSUI 'Beliefs' Series

A lecture on Judaism by Dr. Max Arts, a Vice Chancellor of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America, will open a series of talks from the Cooper Union Forum entitled "Basic Beliefs" to be aired over WSUI at 7 p.m. Monday.

The lectures, which present different points of view on various forms of religion and philosophy, are "... not to boost, attack, or defend" these points of view, but to inform, with the idea in mind that understanding will foster peace and good-will among peoples of the world, according to Johnson E. Fairchild, chairman of the Cooper Union Forum.

Van Allen on National TV This Sunday

Dr. James Van Allen, professor and head of the SUI Department of Physics, will appear on the nationally televised program, "Ceiling Unlimited," on the CBS network Sunday at 5 p.m.

The 15 minute filmed interview was made at the SUI physics building March 31.

Van Allen will speak on satellites, their instruments and space travel.

Also appearing on the program will be other prominent scientists who developed the U.S. satellite program.

Send Several to Des Moines for Economics Meet

SUI is sending several men to the twenty-second annual Midwest Economics Association (MEA) meeting which began in Des Moines Thursday and will continue through Saturday.

The purpose of the association, which is expected to draw between 500 to 600 people, is "to bring together the economists of the Midwest into a group smaller than was possible at the national meetings," according to Paul R. Olson, professor and head of the SUI Department of Economics.

Olson said that the MEA is one of the biggest meetings of its kind in the country. The association was organized in 1934, mainly through the efforts of Sidney L. Miller, then a professor at SUI, Olson added.

Topics for discussion at the meeting include, "The inflation-deflation dilemma," "The Social Responsibilities of Business," "The Future of Economics," and "Consumer Behavior."

Members of the Economics Department that will attend the meeting are Olson, Clark C. Bloom, professors, Albert A. Montgomery, instructor, Robert A. Flammang, instructor, and Donald L. Sternitzke, instructor. Olson said that other departments in the College of Commerce would also be represented.

C. Woody Thompson, professor and director of the SUI Bureau of Business and Economic Research, is secretary-treasurer of the association.

SUI Young Demos Helping Organize Davenport Club

Several members of the SUI Young Democratic Club were in Davenport this week working with Scott County people in organizing a club there.

Dan Efner, A4, Ottumwa, president of the SUI club; Franklin Hochholzer, A3, Neenah, Wis., digest chairman; Harvey Anderson, A4, Brayton, membership chairman; Gloria Forst, A2, Waterloo, women's division, and Ann Harrington, A3, Independence, news letter, attended the Wednesday meeting at which temporary officers were named and future action mapped out.

Officer elected until the constitution is adopted are Louis Mirfield, Jr., president; James Fluellen, vice-president, Mrs. Ida Kramer, secretary, and Albert Zimmerman, treasurer.

Iowa Grad Is Awarded Geology Fellowship

Floyd R. Nave, assistant professor of Geology at Wittenberg College, Springfield, Ohio, has been awarded a $7,000 fellowship by the National Science Foundation which will enable him to work on his Ph.D. in Geology at Ohio State University.

Nave received his masters degree in Geology from SUI in 1952 and has been a member of the Wittenberg faculty since 1953.

19 Vying for High School Speech Titles

Eleven out of a statewide field of 27 in original oratory and eight out of 18 in extemporaneous speaking were still in the running for state titles Friday afternoon at the Iowa High School Forensic League Finals at SUI.

State champions in these events and in debate and "superior" ratings in other events will be announced early this afternoon at the final luncheon in Iowa Memorial Union for the students and speech directors representing 75 high schools.

The remaining 11 in original oratory are Bob Gitchell, Cresco; Judy Erickson, Davenport; Linda Wilmet, Iowa City; Barbara Thomas (University), Iowa City; Dean Swanson, LeGrand; Mike Gilles, Mason City; Terry Oehler, Newton; Mike Strah, Oskaloosa; Douglas Stone (East), Sioux City; Vera Wilson, Spirit Lake; and Judy Williams (West), Waterloo. Still in competition in extemporaneous speaking are Jim Moeller, Davenport; John Hayek (University), Iowa City; Bliss Cartwright, Keokuk; Steve Bianco, Mason City; Ann Hillyer, Muscatine; Larry Caldwell, Newton; Norman Oberstein, Oskaloosa, and Steven Miller (East), Sioux City.

Revere Rides Postage Stamp

BOSTON (AP)—Friday, on the eve of the anniversary of the Revolutionary "Battles of Lexington and Concord, Paul Revere — minus his horse — galloped onto a brand new postage stamp.

Exercises commemorating his historic ride were held in Boston's Old North Church.

Post Office officials said that before the day ends a new record apparently will be set for first-day sale of a 25-cent stamp, with demands exceeding 100,000 from all parts of the world for first day covers.

The green standard-size stamp uses a portrait painted by Gilbert Stuart when Revere was about 80 years old.

TOWNSEND'S CAR LOOTED

PARIS (AP)—A burglar broke into Group Capt. Peter Townsend's car Friday and stole two suitcases and 400,000 francs ($952).

Passing through Paris, Princess Margaret's former suitor had parked his car on a Left Bank street. Finding a door forced open later, he filed a complaint at the local police station.

Annual festival activities will close this afternoon.

Child Welfare Director Will Speak in Kentucky

Professor Boyd McCandless, director of the Iowa Child Welfare Research Station, and Willard W. Hartup, assistant professor of child welfare at SUI, will speak Monday at a meeting of the Southern Association on Children under Six in Louisville, Ky.

Professor McCandless will speak on "Young Children's Groups: Laboratories of Human Relations" and Professor Hartup's talk is entitled "The Adult and His Influence on Hostility and Dependency in Young Children."

Members of the 13-state group are professional persons working with pre-school and kindergarten-aged children.

Library Has Harmon's Fur Journal

The 1957 edition of Daniel Williams Harmon's journal on fur trading contains a portrait from a copper plate which was loaned to the writer by the SUI Library. Acknowledgement was given to Frank S. Hanlin, acquisitions head, by William Kaye Lamb, Dominican Archivist and editor.

The edition is part of a display in the first floor lobby, Main Library on Harmon which features books and papers about Harmon; an 1820 edition of Harmon's journal; and a Harmon diary which describes his experiences as a fur trader from 1800-1816.

The diary is outstanding for its completeness on fur trading. No other journal describes the day-to-day experiences quite as well. It was given to the library by Philip D. Sang, Chicago, Ill. Harmon had another diary which covered 1800-1820; the library copy was made by Harmon for some of his friends.

The 1957 edition was written from a photostatic copy of the diary on display.

Doctors Will Convene In Des Moines Sunday
