

Debts And Recessions

There has been widespread publicity for the idea that the consumer "auto buy" now, or that he "shoed buy." Etc., etc. And now the presidents of the twelve Federal Reserve Banks have declared that the consumer "holds the key" to recovery from the recession.

A study of the relationship of blood types to various diseases among four racial groups in the Union of South Africa will be conducted by an SUI physician this spring and summer.

Buckwalter Goes to Africa For Study of Blood Types

A significant relationship exists between the frequency of certain kinds of cancer and other diseases with the blood types classified as O, A, AB, and B. The letters are labels which refer to factors present in a person's blood.

Dr. Buckwalter says that as disease processes have become better understood during the first half of the 20th century, increasing evidence has accumulated suggesting the part heredity may play in the genesis of an expanding variety of human disorders.

Letters To The Editor

Files; Hoaxes; Bridges

TO THE DEAN OF STUDENTS - Via the Editor, Daily Iowan.

Dear Sir, File this directly. Do not pass go. Do not collect $200.

Yours, with a yawn, etc. R. S. Thomsen, G 423 E. Burlington

TO THE EDITOR: "Has a Hoax Been Perpetrated?"

The Daily Iowan blithely asks, "One of the literati seems to think another of the literati wrote all those bad letters attacking Mezey, and signed phony names like Clarke Meeker to them. Well, if The Daily Iowan wants to know if a hoax has been perpetrated it should find out. A committee of inquiry should be summoned. Is it possible that the same outfit (including Levin and Mezey) who investigated prejudice in the barbershops could be recalled to determine the reality of Patricia Frost and Paul Gray? Perhaps Mr. Slattery, who likes to leave his littered desk to float about in a parachute criticizing himself (he claims) could remain on earth long enough to lead these champions. Meanwhile it will have to be assumed that truth is stranger than fiction. There really are people who creep at the buffooneries of a censor like Mezey. As for Levin, he can use my condemned letters to help his literary ambitions if he wants. But Oliver C. Foster has succeeded. He has managed to leave his way into this long brawl about literacy just after everyone else has gone away. The field of battle is his to strut as many words over as he knows. Clarke Meeker 109 E. Burlington

TO THE EDITOR: I don't know if anyone has ever approached you with this problem, but even if someone has it is worth mentioning again. What I would like to see in your newspaper is a turbid by myself. I affirm this without mental reservation. 2. Adjustment to the University. I love the University, but not enough to disturb me emotionally. 3. Adjustment to Society. I am never emotionally disturbed by corruption, injustice, stupidity, or John Foster Dulles. 4. Adjustment to God. God, as revealed thru the local churches, finds it easier to adjust to me. 5. Adjustment to the Human condition. I affirm that Aristophanes, Socrates, Jesus of Nazareth, St. Augustine, Martin Luther, Galileo, Joan d'Arc, Voltaire, Thomas Jefferson, Abe Lincoln, Mahatma Gandhi and Albert Schweitzer (who wrote that nasty letter to the world about H-bombs), I affirm that all these people and hundreds like them who tried to arouse their fellow creatures from indifference and greed, I affirm that these people are incurably emotionally disturbed. Let their files be reopened. They were sick! sick! I affirm the Office of Student Affairs! (Clip on the dotted line.) Citizen 51085, low Delta An angry old man Jim Hatch, G.

TO FILE 51085: As the Office of Student Affairs files letters appearing in the Daily Iowan as "tip-offs to an emotional disturbance," and further, as I once in a weak moment wrote such a letter, I wish to inform you of my present completely "marketable" adjustment to life. I submit the following evidence: 1. Adjustment to myself. Myself is not now, nor ever has been, nor ever will in the future be dis-

REYNARD (FOXY) BITES the hand which feeds him. Apparently not at all concerned with the outcome is owner Mary Beth Taylor, G. Davenport. Mary received the cub as a gift three weeks ago from a service station owner. See story for details.—Daily Iowan Photo by Katie Harris.

Mary Has a Little Fox— It Follows Her to School

According to the nursery rhyme, Mary created quite a stir at school with her lamb. But an SUI Mary, Mary Beth Taylor, causes almost as much alarm when she goes to class everyday, followed by her pet fox cub, Reynard.

Reynard, who is estimated to be about eight weeks old, spends most of his day around the SUI Department of Music, where his mistress is a graduate student, and at Guernsey, where Mary teaches part time.

Reynard got his name from the fox in the fairy tale "The Cock and the Fox" by P. C. Asbjornsen. Mary, who is from Davenport, said that Reynard was given to her about three weeks ago by a filling station attendant at Guernsey, who got the fox from a farmer who caught him in a field nearby. Guernsey is about 50 miles west of Iowa City, just off Highway 6.

This isn't the first offering of an animal Mary has had. She said her students bring her baby rabbits, squirrels, lambs, chicks, mice and most everything alive around the farm.

She had been able to turn down everything but the fox. Reynard's big brown eyes and downy, brown fur were just too much to resist, Mary said.

The cub is about six inches tall and minus his tail — about 14 inches long. His bushy tail extends an additional eight inches. He has black feet and ears and a skinny long nose, with a mouth that seems to be grinning all the time.

During the day Reynard goes to school with Mary and sits tied, not too calmly, in the hall while she is in class. He spends his nights in a crate behind the William Gower home at 430 S. Summit St., where Mary has a room.

Mary said his diet of milk and dog food seems to appeal to him. She added added facetiously, that she should feed him tranquilizers to calm down his independent and nervous disposition. He doesn't care much for people and is especially wild and flighty in crowds.

His nervousness and independence linked with the time it takes to care for him and, above all, his inability to become house brok-

Toastmasters Hold Spring Conference At Union Today

The Iowa Toastmasters will hold their annual spring conference and speech contest at the Iowa Memorial Union here today.

Highlight of the one-day event will be the banquet at which the state extemporaneous speech contest winner will be selected. Nine men, selected earlier in area contests, will compete for the prize.

First and second place winners will compete on an equal basis in a Minnesota-Iowa zone contest in Waterloo in June.

George R. Dane of Iowa City, the district governor, will preside at the conference.

The program will begin at 10:30 a.m. with a meeting of the executive committee. Walter A. Steigleman, SUI associate professor of Journalism, has charge of the "Hi-Jinks" luncheon which follows. The educational session will begin at 2 p.m.

District officers will be elected at the business session at 3:45 p.m. The banquet at 6:15 followed by the speech contest at 8 p.m. will conclude the day's events.

Wives of members will also have a full program of activities including a tour of the Amana colonies near Iowa City.

SUI-Ames Bridge Tournament Today

The bridge teams of SUI and Iowa State College of Ames will compete in a two session tournament today in Room 200 of the Communications Center.

Sessions will begin at 2:30 p.m. and at 7:30 p.m. and the public is invited to observe the matches.

Trophies will be presented to the winners, according to John Glover, E3, Steubenville, Ohio, in charge of arrangements. The tournament is sponsored by the SUI Union Board.

The SUI team was chosen through a preliminary tournament open to any interested student. The four players will be: Michael Engel, G. Balboa Canal Zone; Theodore Shedroff, G. Chicago, Ill.; Lewis Barnett, G. Lexington, Ky.; Jon Weinberg, G. Iowa City.

Phi Rho Sigma Wives Will Host Tea

Phi Rho Sigma Wives will be hostesses at a tea for medical students' wives Sunday at 2:30 p.m. in the University club rooms of Iowa Memorial Union.

Academic Freedom Week on Campus Starting Monday

Academic Freedom Week, sponsored jointly by the SUI Student Council and the National Student Association will run Monday through Friday next week, according to Judy Jones, A2, chairman of the academic freedom committee.

The purpose of the event is to aid the free exchange of ideas on the SUI campus, said Judy Clark, A2, Cedar Falls, vice-president of the Student Council.

The event, which will be less extensive than in the past, will rely largely on individual organizations to promote the theme.

The program is designed for discussion and consideration in SUI classrooms, organizations and publications. It will include the use of the academic freedom theme in church groups Sunday, and discussion in communications skills classes next week.

Dr. Robert G. Turnbull, associate professor and chairman of the department of philosophy, will speak on academic freedom Friday at the Union Board Spotlight Series at the Iowa Memorial Union.

Captain Joins ROTC Staff

Capt. Francis B. Wilson, recently returned from the U.S. Army in Europe, has been assigned to the SUI ROTC Department as an instructor.

Capt. Wilson was born in Jacksonville, Fla. in 1922.

He received a B.A. in English at George Pepperdine College, Los Angeles, and took graduate work at the University of Florida.

Wilson's family includes his wife, Bernice, and four children, Jody, 8; Christopher, 5, Camille, 4; and Carol Ann, 4 months.

While in Germany, Wilson was the Company Commander in the 2nd Battle Group, 10th Infantry Division. He was in Europe from 1955 to 1958. Wilson also served in Korea in 1950-51.

Among military decorations that Wilson has received are the Silver Star, Purple Heart, Korean Service Medal, United Nations Service Medal, the Chinese Intervention Medal and the Good Conduct Medal.

Other new officers are Robert Straw, P2, Burlington, secretary, and Sylvia Patterson, P1, Council Bluffs, treasurer.

Construction Will Start in Some Weeks

Construction of the first unit of a new Lutheran student center will be begun here in several weeks at 130 Church Street, the Rev. Donald F. Hetzler has announced.

The building is being sponsored by the SUI Foundation for Lutheran Students. At a meeting of the board of directors Wednesday the contract was awarded to the Frantz Construction Company of Iowa City for the construction of the $35,000 project.

The Rev. Hetzler, executive director of the Foundation, reported that the second unit of the center will be erected in 1960-61.

The first unit, expected to be completed by September 1958, is planned to serve an expected 2,000 students for group meetings, discussion and study groups, informal worship, individual study and parties.

The second unit will be a much larger structure providing for meeting rooms, dining facilities, lounge, administrative and study areas, and a chapel. Estimated cost of the second unit is $160,000.

Funds for the project are provided by the National Lutheran Churches of Iowa, Division of College and University Work, and interested individuals among alumni and friends of the Foundation.

Members of the Foundation include Dr. William B. Anderson, assistant professor of Pediatrics and assistant director of State Services for Crippled Children; Dr. William Bockoven, resident physician of Psychiatry at University Hospitals; and Dale M. Bentz, director of University Libraries.

SHOULD BE TIME ENOUGH

DES MOINES — Allan Trimble pleaded guilty in District Court Friday to a robbery charge and asked to be sent to the state penitentiary at Fort Madison so he "could learn a trade." Judge Carroll O. Switzer obliged by giving him a 10-year sentence.

Alumni Like Game

Even if they should happen to get slaughtered, although I don't think they will, the Iowa Alumni will return home feeling pretty good after their game today with the Hawkeye Varsity.

From what I've seen, and my talks with some of the players, the former Hawkeye stars have had a great time preparing for the contest, and probably will have a good time today, regardless of the outcome.

Most of the returning players are hoping today's game will be a success so that they'll be able to return again next year. The game is a "natural" and I hope it can be continued for many years.

Football fans certainly should not miss the game if they can help it. Many of Iowa's greatest stars, including several who have starred in professional football will be in action. And there'll be plenty of good seats.

THE ALUMNI felt Friday night that the Iowa coaching staff might be using some underhanded methods. The Alumni were guests at a big dinner at Curt Vocum's restaurant and felt the coaching staff was trying to add even more extra pounds on some of the players.

The Alumni may retaliate though by using a Canadian pro football rule which allows a team to use 12 men. Kenny Ploen and Frank Gilliam played in the Canadian League the past season.

After Friday night's dinner Forest Evashevski thanked the Alumni team members, "not for their attendance, but for their courage in playing." Evy told the Alumni they must be the most courageous group he'd seen.

Naturally, the Alumni had different feelings about the game.

TODAY will be the first chance for fans to see the new extra point rule in effect. If the ball is run or passed over the goal line after a touchdown, two points will be scored. Only one point will be given if the extra point is kicked.

TO MOVE THE BALL, the Varsity will probably have to run the ends today. The Alumni 4-man line, weighing about 1,000 pounds, will be tougher to go through than a brick wall.

The Varsity will probably find trouble passing too, with Em Tunnell and Kenny Ploen, two of Iowa's finest defensive backs, in the secondary.

SPRING GAMES will be played at four other Big Ten universities today and maybe more. Michigan State will have an Alumni-Varsity contest, while Northwestern, Indiana and Ohio State will have intrasquad tilts to wrap up spring drills.

Incidentally prices for the games are $1.00 at MSU, and Northwestern and $1.25 at Indiana, while the Buckeye tilt will be televised. These prices are for everyone, students included, and three of the games are just intrasquad games. So 50 cents at Iowa today is a bargain.

IT APPEARS that one of the possible successors to the late Bucky O'Connor as Iowa basketball coach is headed for the head basketball coaching job at St. Louis University. The man is the present Drake coach, John Bennington.

St. Louis officials are expected to act in the next day or two in order to best Iowa to Bennington, should Iowa decide it wanted him.

The selection of a new coach at Iowa probably will not come for a week to ten days, according to Athletic Director Paul Brechler.

Support of Sharm Scheuerman for the job has seemed to gain a great amount of support around the campus the last few days.

It's quite possible petitions will be circulated around the campus asking the Board in Control of Athletics to hire Sharm.

Many students as well as most of the basketball players want Sharm as the new coach, and may go to great pains to get him.

Iowa Alumni To Test Varsity Gridders Today

Alumni Boast Several Pro Football Stars

By ALAN HOSKINS
Sports Editor

A power-packed Alumni football team will give the Iowa varsity its first 1958 test today as the two teams meet in the first Varsity-Alumni game in 41 years.

A crowd of 15,000 to 20,000 people is expected for the contest which will officially wind up spring drills for the Varsity. Tickets for the game will be available at the Athletic Ticket Office until noon today, and until game time (1:30 p.m.) at the Stadium.

The Alumni boast several pro and ex-pro players, plus several members of the 1957 team, and promise to give the Varsity a stiff test.

The game could be a battle of a strong Alumni defense and potent Varsity offense. The Varsity lost several of the key men from their outstanding defensive team of 1957, and most of these men will be in action against the Varsity today.

Included in this group are Jim Gibbons, Alex Karras, Frank Bloomquist, Bob Cummings, Bill Happel, Mike Hagler, Dick Theer and Gene Veit.

Defensive coach Harold Bradley, a member of the Cleveland Browns, has an outstanding defensive unit, boasting a huge front line. Starting in the 4-man pro type defensive line will be Don Chelf, Karras, Bradley and Dick Woodward.

Backing up the line will be Don Suchy, Bill Reichardt and Bloomquist with Happel and Bob Smith playing the cornermen in the umbrella defense employed by the New York Giants' pro team.

Playing safety will be two outstanding defensive men, Em Tunnell, an All-Pro selection 11 years in a row as a safetyman, and Kenny Ploen, the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player in 1956.

The Varsity boasts one of the top offensive units in Hawkeye history. Led by quarterback Randy Duncan, the Big Ten's leading passer last year, the Varsity appears able to score at any time.

Starting in the backfield with Duncan will be a pair of swift halfbacks, Gene Sessi and Ray Jauch, and fullback John Nocera, the 1958 captain.

Duncan will have a fine pair of targets to throw to in veterans Don Norton and Curt Merz. The rest of the starting lineup will be composed of tackles John Burroughs and Mac Lewis; guards Hugh Drake and Gary Grouwinkel; and center Bill Lapham.

Offensive coach Jerry Reichow promises that the Alumni will pass a lot. The Alumni will use a pro-type slot offense, which sends a halfback wide, thus giving him an opportunity to get loose for a pass much easier.

Reichow will start at quarterback, although he will alternate with Ploen as signal caller. They'll have two outstanding pass receivers in Gibbons and Frank Gilliam. Starting in the backfield will be halfbacks Del Kloewer and Eddie Vincent and fullback Binkey Broder.

Among the pro players in action today will be Tunnell, of the New York Giants; Reichow, Detroit Lions; Bradley, Cleveland Browns; Ploen, Winnipeg Bombers; and Gilliam, Winnipeg.

Also, several others have retired from pro ball. They include Bob Smith, outstanding linebacker with the Detroit Lions; Bill Reichardt, Green Bay Packers; Dick Woodward, New York Giants; and Don Chelf, Baltimore Colts.

In addition, Karras has signed to play with Detroit; Gibbons with the Browns, Mike Hagler with Saskatchewan; and Bloomquist with Winnipeg.

A pre-game ceremony will include individual introduction of the Alumni team.

Reserved seat tickets to the public are $2.00 each. Staff and faculty members will be admitted for $1.00 while students with ID cards get in for 50 cents.

Cubs Trail, 7-0; Win On Moryn Homer, 8-7

CHICAGO (AP) — Walt Moryn's second homer of the game, with nine on in the ninth, after a 6-run Chicago rally tied the score at 7-7 in the seventh, gave the homer-happy Cubs and 8-7 triumph over the Milwaukee Braves Friday. The Cubs trailed 7-0, in the sixth inning.

The Cubs, who have belted 28 homers in 15 games, thus improved their first-place standing in the National League.

Pinch-hitter Jim Bolger's three-run homer started the big Cub seventh and chased Milwaukee starter Gene Conley.

The roof caved in on Conley in the big Cub seventh after Bobby Thomson got an infield single. Sammy Taylor singled to center and pinch-hitter Bolger homered over the left field bleachers.

Playing safety will be two outstanding defensive men, Em Tunnell, an All-Pro selection 11 years in a row as a safetyman, and Kenny Ploen, the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player in 1956.

The Varsity boasts one of the top offensive units in Hawkeye history. Led by quarterback Randy Duncan, the Big Ten's leading passer last year, the Varsity appears able to score at any time.

Wisconsin Tops Hawkeyes in 10th, 4-3

Hawks 0-4 In Big Ten

By DALE KEUTER
Staff Writer

A 2-out single in the first of the tenth by Jim Lesniak enabled Wisconsin Friday to edge by the Iowa Hawkeyes, 4-3 on the Iowa diamond.

Lesniak's game-winning single came after the Badgers' Bill Mallatt had singled and moved to second on a sacrifice by Frank Marik. It was the second conference win for the Badgers, while the loss kept Iowa in the cellar with a 0-4 record.

The Hawkeyes rallied twice, in both the eighth and ninth innings to tie Wisconsin, but each time the Badgers were able to come back with a run.

A total of 25 hits were collected between the two teams with Wisconsin getting 14 off two Hawk hurlers. Glen Van Fossen started for Iowa, but was relieved by Jack Nora in the eighth. Nora finished the game and was the loser as he allowed five hits, one a home run by Wisconsin's Dave Moriarty in the ninth.

Iowa scored first in the second inning when Allan Klinger singled, stole second and scored on a single by Les Zanotti.

Wisconsin scored a run in the third on a double by Ed Cannon and a single by Mallatt. The Badgers picked up another tally in the seventh frame when Ron Nieman doubled and scored on a single by Walter Holt.

In Iowa's half of the eighth, Hawkeye rightfielder Don Rutkowski tripled with one away. Fred Long sent Rutkowski home with a line single to right center.

The Hawks were robbed of another possible run when Dick Weatherly smashed a ball off the glove of Wisconsin pitcher George Schmid. The ball rolled toward short where Badger shortstop Bill Mallatt made a somersault pickup and tossed to second to force Long.

In the ninth the Badger's Moriarty hit a home run over the right-field fence to again put the Badgers ahead, 3-2.

In the bottom of the ninth, after two Hawkeyes had been retired, Les Zanotti singled sharply to left. Nora then smashed a hit off the pitchers glove advancing Zanotti to second. Iowa third baseman Don Peden then came through with a clutch single to center again tying the score at 3-3.

Rutkowski, with a single and a triple, and Zanotti with a pair of singles, led the Hawkeye 11-hit attack.

The Hawkeyes resume play this afternoon as they host Northwestern in a doubleheader.

Tennis Team After 6th Straight Here Today

Iowa's tennis squad will meet their second Big Ten opponent of the year this morning when they host a powerful Illinois squad on the varsity courts at 10 a.m. In the event of bad weather, Hawkeye coach Don Klotz said the meet will be held in the Fieldhouse.

The Hawks are undefeated in five meets and have a 1-0 conference record. Wisconsin was a 9-0 victim April 26. Other Iowa wins have come over Bradley, Kalamazoo, Western Michigan and Southern Illinois. In the five meets, Iowa has outscored the opposition, 42-3.

Kotz said he plans to continue with the change he made in his doubles lineup last week. The No. 1 doubles will be Art Andrews and Bob Potthast. Joe Martin and Don Middlebrook will handle the No. 2 assignment with Bill Voxman and Milo Larimer in the No. 3 spot.

Andrews, Potthast, Martin, Middlebrook and Voxman have compiled undefeated singles records so far this season. The doubles combination of Voxman and Larimer is also unbeaten.

The Illini have won nine of ten meets including three victories over conference foes. They own victories over Minnesota, 9-0, Indiana, 8-1, and Purdue, 9-0.

Al Holtmann has paced Illinois this year with an unbeaten singles record. He is scheduled to play in the No. 2 position behind team captain Carl Noble. Noble won 18 and lost 6 singles during his first two years on the Illini squad. Holtmann was 15-1 last season, losing his only singles meet.

He was stepped on in last week's Drake Relays after he hit a hurdle and fell into an adjoining lane. Cretzmeier said that if he was able to run, he would not be in top form.

Iowa's "Deacon" Jones is slowly getting back into shape after an attack of the flu sidelined him in March and has held him below his peak since then.

Since the attack he was beaten for the first time in a collegiate mile or two mile race, and was forced to withdraw from last week's Drake Relays where he was defending champion in both specialties.

"We have to take it easy with him," Cretzmeier explains. "He can run one race without hurting himself, but he is not near his peak." Deacon will run in the two mile Saturday.

Tim Hine, senior sprinter for the Hawkeyes, hit what could possibly be called the peak of his career at Drake at last week when he defeated the great Eddie Southern from Texas in the final leg of the 440-yard relay.

Hine finished fifth in the 100-yard dash and anchored the Hawkeye spring relay team to a second place finish in the 440 and third in the 880 yard relay. He will run in the 100 and 220 yard dashes today.

The thinclads travel to Minneapolis next Saturday to meet Minnesota in a dual meet.

Iowa Golf Team In Quadrangular

Iowa's golf team meets Illinois, Indiana, and Northwestern in a quadrangular meet today at Champaign, Ill.

The Hawkeyes will be facing veteran teams in the quadrangular as all three foes have several returning lettermen.

Iowa takes a 3-2 mark into the meet, with both losses coming at the hands of Western Illinois. The Hawkeyes have defeated Wisconsin, Minnesota and Bradley.

In a triangular meet Thursday at Peoria, Ill., the Hawkeyes defeated Bradley, 11-7, but fell before Western Illinois, 10½-7½.

Thursday's results:
John Leighty (I) beat Jan Hartman (B), 3-0; Jim King (W) beat Leighty, 3-0; Bob Seward (B) beat Clyde Feltes (I), 2-1; Dick Myers (W) beat Bud Judish (I), 2-1; Judish beat Ray Moore (B), 3-0.
John Anderson (B) beat Steve Showers (I), 3-0; Showers beat Al Barkow (W), 3-0; John Ryskewicz (W) beat Dale Hayes (I), 2-1; Hayes beat Dick Habbinga (B), 2-1; John Goetz (W) beat Russ Schrage (I), 2-1; Schrage beat Bob Morse (B), 2-1.
