

The Daily Iowan

Serving The State University of Iowa and the People of Iowa

Established in 1868 — Five Cents a Copy

Member of Associated Press Leased Wire and Photo Service

Iowa City, Iowa, Friday, July 25, 1958

While Iraq Discusses Joining UAR—

Syrian Disorder Plagues Nasser

Iraq Rebel Regime Claims To Be Anti-Communist

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — President Nasser is reported as being plagued by Communist disorders in his province of Syria just as Iraqi rebel leaders began talking of joining his United Arab Republic. The Iraqi rebel regime professes to be anti-Communist. It is said to have stiff-armed Red elements trying to climb aboard the revolutionary wagon. So it may follow events in Syria with interest.

Reliable informants returning from Syria said the Communists were active in Aleppo, an agricultural and industrial center in northern Syria. They said the Communists, although outlawed by Nasser, organized 50-man groups to shout "Down with Nasser" in the streets. They said more than 200 were arrested.

The informants reported that on July 5 the leftist transport union went on strike in Aleppo. Nasser brought in troops and operated public transport, breaking the strike.

Hard Times in Syria

Northern Syria has fallen on hard times since the union of Egypt and Syria in February. The Communists are trying to blame the depression on Nasser, the travelers said. But the real trouble, they added, was a bad crop year that cut buying power. This forced industry layoffs.

Two higher officials of the Iraqi regime were quoted by a Cairo newspaper as saying negotiations for a union with Nasser's U.A.R. are being prepared.

Iraqi Dep. Premier Abdel Salam Aref told the newspaper Sabah el Kheir he is "looking forward to the day when union will be achieved between all liberated Arab countries."

Guarantee Independence

Nagy Taleb, Iraq's new minister of social affairs, said union with the U.A.R. is "our only guarantee for independence."

In Beirut, attention was centered on the hope that next week's parliamentary election of a new president would end the 76-day-old rebellion, clearing the way for withdrawal of U.S. troops.

The Lebanese Assn. of Industrialists indicated it will call off a threatened general shutdown of all industry until it sees what Parliament does. The shutdown would protest havoc wrought by the revolution.

Postpone Election

Parliament postponed the election session until next Thursday to give negotiators for both sides time to agree on an acceptable candidate.

The rebels have been gunning for pro-Western President Camille Chamoun, whose term expires in September. If a candidate cannot be found acceptable to both sides, this little nation faces real civil war.

The Beirut press reported the Government was trying to get its financial house in order by asking the United States for a $30-million grant to wipe out a budget deficit.

Maj. Gen. Paul D. Adams
New Commander
Of Troops in Lebanon

Ike Tries To Delay Summit Meet

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower drafted a new letter Thursday to Premier Khrushchev which reportedly insisted that the United Nations Security Council set the time, place and ground rules for a summit meeting.

Khrushchev proposed a summit conference to start Monday but Mr. Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles obviously were seeking to slow the rush by a couple of weeks.

Mr. Eisenhower rushed his draft to British and French leaders in an apparent move to win their acceptance to his plan to pin down Khrushchev to clearly defined conditions for any summit conference.

Some authorities said President Eisenhower felt the 11-nation Security Council should meet or consult in advance to settle this problem.

This would eliminate the need, it was felt, for Khrushchev to continue to fire messages to Western Big Three leaders on the final arrangements for such a meeting in New York. Mr. Eisenhower's main goal was understood to be to get Khrushchev on record as willing to follow the existing rules of the Security Council during the meeting.

Boat Club Rejects Compromises

New Petition Asks Bridge Be Vacated

Sportsmen Also Want Water Level Raise

By TOM MAINE
Staff Writer

The Iowa City Boat Club rejected any compromise with the Mehaffey Bridge Committee at a meeting Thursday night.

Members of the boat club voted to circulate a petition that the Johnson County Board of Supervisors vacate the bridge. The petition also asks that the Army Corps of Engineers take action immediately to raise the water in the Coralville Reservoir to 680 feet above sea level.

The Mehaffey Bridge crosses the Iowa River between Solon and North Liberty and will be submerged if the water level reaches 680 feet. The present level of the reservoir is 670 feet.

Citizens of the Solon and North Liberty communities formed the Mehaffey Bridge Committee to save the bridge until a new one is guaranteed.

The County Board of Supervisors have refused to relinquish the bridge to the Army Corps of Engineers for demolition.

The bridge committee pointed out that they have never brought pressure on the County Board of Supervisors to hold the bridge. The only petition they have circulated was sent to Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper (R-Ia.), the bridge committee claimed. That petition was for a new bridge to replace the old one, they said.

The Iowa City Boat Club wants the water level raised so boating hazards on the reservoir and Lake Macbride will be removed.

Attending the boat club meeting were members of the Cedar Rapids Boat Club, the Isaac Walton League and the Iowa City Coast Guard Auxiliary who backed the circulation of the petition.

In their petition, the boat club asks that the Johnson County Board of Supervisors vacate title to the Mehaffey Bridge.

They ask further that in case the board of supervisors refuses to vacate the bridge, the Corps of Engineers "initiate condemnation procedures under the right of eminent domain to secure title" to the bridge.

Spokesmen for the committee said copies of the petition will be available in three Iowa City sporting goods stores as well as in a Cedar Rapids store.

In a telegram Wednesday, Representative Fred Schwengel (R-Ia.), stated that the Army has declared a new bridge at the site is justified. He also said that local interests may have to share in the cost of construction for a new bridge.

Following is the text of the petition which will be circulated by the boat club:

"The undersigned residents of Johnson, Linn and adjoining counties do hereby request of the Johnson County Board of Supervisors and the Army Corps of Engineers that title to the bridge known as the Mehaffey Bridge across the Iowa River, and adjacent approaches of Johnson County Road Y be vacated; that the Corps of Engineers be allowed to remove the bridge in question; and that action be taken to restore the planned 680-foot-above-sea-level water level in the Coralville Reservoir. We further petition the Army Corps of Engineers, that in case the Johnson County Board of Supervisors fails to act on this petition before the date set for impoundment of water in the reservoir; that the Corps of Engineers initiate condemnation procedures under the right of eminent domain to secure title to the above described property and to carry out the action hereby requested."

Only Critical News To GIs in Lebanon

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Red Cross has passed the word from the military. Only the most critical messages from families can be cabled to U.S. troops in Lebanon.

The Red Cross said Thursday that for the present it can transmit only notifications of deaths in servicemen's immediate families. Very serious illness and other critical emergencies at home.

ERNEST RAY, SUI PHYSICIST who will leave this morning with his wife for an IGY meeting in Moscow, is shown getting ready to play a magnetic tape. The tapes are recordings of signals received all over the world from Explorers I and III. Ray has been supervising interpretation of the data.

SUI Physicist May Get Sputnik Data

The Russian Government has invited Ernest C. Ray, SUI assistant professor of physics, to attend a meeting in Moscow where they will presumably reveal some of their findings from interpreting Sputnik data.

Ray and his wife will leave Iowa City this morning and fly to Moscow where scientists from all over the world and 60 or 70 physicists from the United States will attend the meeting.

Will Deliver Papers
Ray will also deliver four papers on rocket and satellite work at

Wickie, The Mouse Lost In Atlantic

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Wickie the mouse apparently was lost at sea Thursday after a violent 6,000-mile journey through space in the nose cone of a Thor-Able missile.

The nose cone was a dot in a wide expanse of the Atlantic to search units patrolling waters near Ascension Island, some 1,000 miles off the African coast.

The Air Force announced the search was discontinued temporarily due to darkness in the area and the absence of any radio signals from the nose cone.

Present plans call for one more day of searching, officials said.

Weather

Cooler temperatures and a continued threat of scattered showers and thunderstorms are forecast for Iowa City today. Weekend outdoor plans do not need to be thrown out, however, for the weatherman promises clearing skies and moderate temperatures, between 76 and 83, Saturday.

No Results In IC Campaign To Ban 'Indecent' Magazines

By KATIE HARRIS
Staff Writer

Little effect has been noted in the sales of "indecent reading materials" by Iowa City merchants despite a letter from several local organizations asking that such publications be banned.

At least six Iowa City news stands still had many of the magazines for sale late Thursday night.

Letter Received
The letter received by local merchants this week read as follows:

"Whereas, there is a growing concern in the community and nation over the increasing amount of harmful material being offered for sale, especially to the children and youth, on the news and magazine racks, and, whereas confidence is expressed in the retailers of the community, respectful request is made asking their cooperation in the elimination of such material for sale."

Letters received by 23 merchants were sent by a volunteer committee originally organized in April by the Knights of Columbus.

Supporting Groups
Supporting this committee are such groups as the Chamber of Commerce, Ministerial Association, the Iowa City Police Department, County Attorney's office and the Mayor.

The purpose of the letters is to promote public sentiment against this type of literature. Jack White, chairman of the committee said.

A list of some 36 magazines of questionable nature has been collected by the committee. Among those listed are a widely read men's magazine with a rabbit for its trade mark, photography magazines, and other magazines which feature "cheese-cake pictures."

Average Cost
Price of these publications runs from 25 to 75 cents higher than most magazines. Average cost of the magazines is from 50 cents to $1. White said.

There is no city ordinance against the sale of publications that are classified as indecent. No actual banning can be done by the city without such an ordinance.

The State of Iowa law regarding indecent literature states it is unlawful to publish or disseminate them in the state.

Bill in Congress
A bill that would prohibit the sale or publication of indecent material is soon to be discussed in Congress, White said.

A previous campaign against horror comic books was conducted by the Iowa City Police Department in 1954. The campaign, under the direction of Detective Lieutenant Harland Sprinkle, checked all news dealers and asked their cooperation in ridding the city of the literature.

Regular Check
Sprinkle again plans to keep a regular check on the news stands during this censoring movement, White said.

The Voss News Company, publication distributor in Iowa City, was not notified of the committee's letter, a member of the firm said. The first knowledge they had of the letter was from a local merchant.

Several other meetings of this unnamed committee have been held recently. Plans are being made to continue the meetings in the fall.

Safety Plaque Awarded To City

"For its outstanding record of no pedestrian deaths" in three years, Iowa City was given an award by the American Automobile Association (AAA) Thursday.

Police Chief Oliver R. White received the plaque for the city from W. R. Morrison, representative from the Des Moines office of the Motor Club of Iowa, a branch of the AAA.

Miss United States Is Third Cherokee

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — The Cherokees may not know it but they have a stunning entry in competition Thursday night for the title of Miss Universe.

The brand new Miss United States—a honey blonde with blue eyes, a classic figure, and liquid Southern drawl—disclosed that she's approximately one-third Cherokee Indian. The rest, she added, is Irish.

Eurylyne Howell, 18-year-old Louisiana coed, Wednesday night was chosen most beautiful of 45 United States entrants in the annual beauty extravaganza.

She competes Thursday night against 34 foreign beauties. And she's not very confident.

"I think my chances are very, very slim," she remarked, looking fresh as a magnolia blossom despite her late hours.

Miss Howell has been described by the pageant's top judge as a girl "with that special sparkle... that indescribable something that makes a girl an actress."

Eurylyne, considered by some a Grace Kelly type, is slender with perfect posture. Her hair, down, reaches her waist.

Her statistics: 5 feet 6, 119 pounds, 35 1/2-23-35.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Howell of Bossier City—He's a retired oil driller—and has two sisters, Mavis, 23, "who looks like Ava Gardner," and Marilyn, 13, "who looks like Joanne Woodward."

Both parents, she said, have Cherokee blood.

Her ambition? "To be a high fashion model."

Beauty secrets? "Well, I don't use soap on my face, just water. And I don't eat very many sweets."

The field of contestants narrows to 15 Thursday night, and moves into its finale Friday night when a new Miss Universe will be chosen to take over the crown from Gladys Zender of Peru.

Only Six More Days Till 4-Cent Letters, 3-Cent Cards

Only six more shopping days until Christmas—that is if you want to mail Christmas cards or books at the present postal rates.

One week from today, 3 cents an ounce will be charged for all third class mail, including Christmas cards. One and one-half cents will be charged for each additional ounce on third class mail.

First class letters will have to carry 4 cents postage for each ounce.

Pay Differences
First class mail with post marks later than July 31 will be delivered, but the recipient will have to pay the difference of the new rate in postage due. After October 31, a 5 cent assessment will be made in addition to the postage due.

A new commemorative 4-cent stamp, bearing a portrait of Simon Bolivar, goes on sale in Iowa City today. The new stamp is slightly larger than the standard stamp, and comes in sheets of 70 stamps. Most commemorative issues will now be 4-cent stamps.

The standard 4-cent stamp is not new. It bears the head of Abraham Lincoln.

New Shipment
Thursday, the Iowa City Post Office was waiting for a shipment of the new airmails, 4 cent coils, books, stamped envelopes and postal cards.

The present stamp dispenser in the Post Office will be altered to dispense a different stamp assortment. However, the alteration may not be accomplished by August 1.

Postal cards will be raised from 2 cents to 3 cents on August 1. Air mail will go from 6 to 7 cents, and air post and postal cards will cost 5 cents each.

Book Rate
The book rate, now 8 cents for the first pound and 4 cents for each additional pound, will be 9 cents for the first pound and 5 cents for each additional pound.

Stamps, envelopes, and postal cards may not be exchanged, but can be used by attaching the additional postage required.

The limits for third class mail is being increased from 8 ounces to, but not including, 16 ounces. Previously, items weighing over 8 ounces went for the pound rate.

No Increase
There will be no increase in bulk rates until Jan. 1, 1959.

The minimum charge for mailing articles in bags which are addressed by tags is being raised from 3 cents to 6 cents.

The minimum charge for odd-shaped bundles, which cannot be stacked or tied in bundles, is also being increased from 3 to 6 cents.

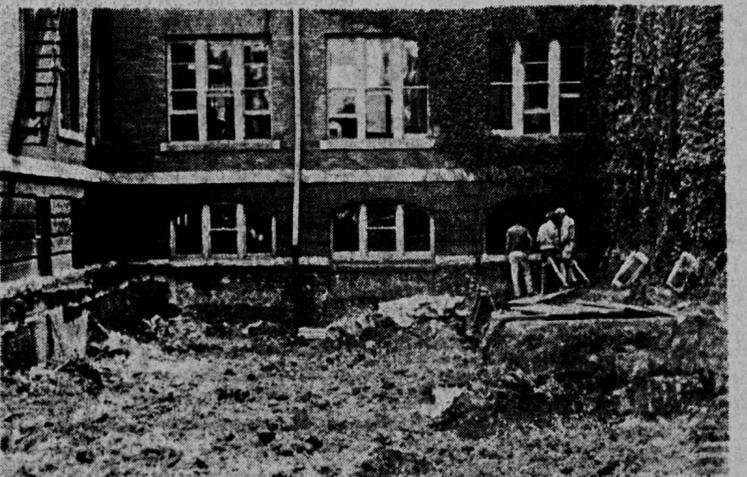

S.R.O.

Opera Performances Sold Out

Tickets for all four regular performances of the summer opera "Madame Butterfly" have been sold, William L. Adamson, assistant to the director of the Iowa Memorial Union, said Thursday.

Tickets, however, for the dress rehearsal, Saturday, July 26 in Macbride Auditorium at 1 p.m. are now available, Adamson said.

Purchase of these special tickets may be made today from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. at the East lobby desk of IMU and at the performance Saturday.

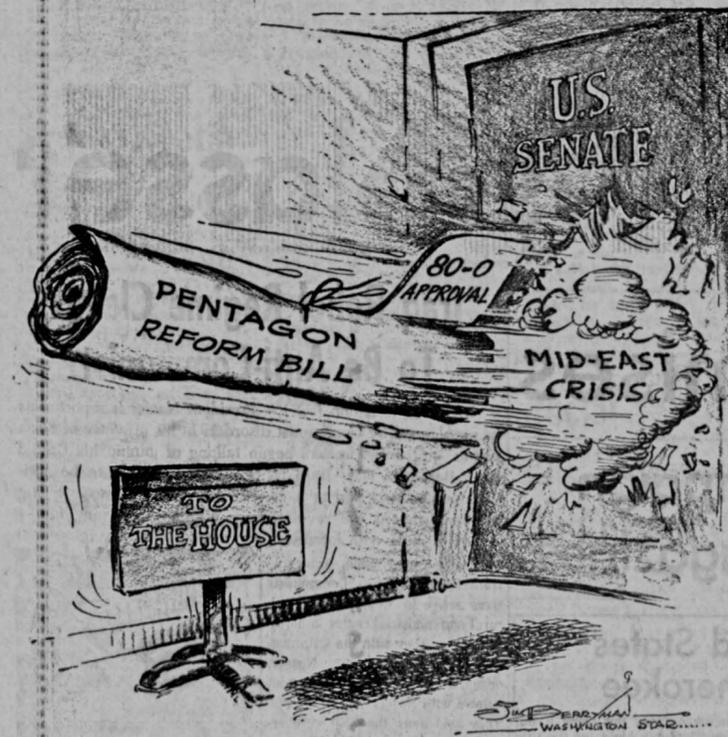

Begin East Hall Addition

WORK PROGRESSED Thursday in the northwest court of East Hall where a one-story, fireproof addition is being constructed. Barrows Construction Company, of Iowa City, was awarded the contract for the construction with a bid of $12,000. The 85 feet by 42 feet structure which will contain one sound proof recording room and two control rooms, will be used by the Testing Bureau of the Department of Education and the Department of Audio Visual Instruction. The general finishing of the building will be done by University Maintenance and Operation—Daily Iowan Photo.

The Daily Iowan is written and edited by students and is governed by a board of five student trustees elected by the student body and four faculty trustees appointed by the president of the University.

Powerful Propellant

A Two-Headed Coin

No matter how many fables deny it, Mohammed must go to the mountain if the two are to meet face to face. This was the reasoning the White House used some months ago when it issued a statement saying the Administration was not interested in negotiating a heads of government talk in Russia.

Official sources indicated that if the President went to Moscow, we would lose face with the rest of the world - we would be put in the position of bowing to the Kremlin.

Now we are confronted with the prospect of a visit from Nikita Khrushchev and what are the official tongues wagging about? Why the great propaganda coup the Soviet Union has scored. No thought of Mohammed and the mountain.

It seems that in the eyes of officialdom, anything the Russians do which concerns the United States is a blow to our prestige, while anything we might do would be a loss of face. Must we forever choose tails when faced with a two-headed coin?

Perhaps one way we could retain or regain the respect of the neutral countries is to quit quibbling about the procedures and minor points of a proposed summit conference and get down to actually holding such a conference.

So far, we have been fortunate in Lebanon. Our troops have acted judiciously and forestalled any major physical conflicts. The situation in the Middle East seems to have quieted

The Judge Is Waiting

The classic story of sign disobeyers conceals the fellow who was riding on a bus, calmly enjoying a cigarette in violation of a clearly posted admonition "Do Not Smoke."

"Naturally the bus driver found it necessary to ask the man to extinguish his cigarette and, pointing to the sign, said, "Didn't you see that?"

"Certainly, I saw it," the man said "And do you see THAT sign?"

"The bus driver looked in the indicated direction and saw an advertising poster telling passengers to "Wear Slenderizer Girdles."

"Well," the smoker said, "I just ignore both signs."

"The story isn't especially funny, but it does point up the fact that all of us must choose which signs we obey and which we ignore.

All too often, we choose to disregard important notices such as speed limit signs in the University married student housing area. The residents of the areas should be commended; most of them slow their cars to the specified speed, realizing that there are a great number down to a great extent. We have given the Lebanese a breathing spell, have diminished the possibility of a coup in Jordan, and have achieved some measure of faith with the new government in Iraq.

The wisest thing we can do now is to find a way to pull our troops out gracefully and as quickly as possible. If we don't, if we remain too long in Lebanon - until after the elections, we probably again will be faced with that two-headed coin.

On one side, we pull our troops out at the request of the Government and then listen to cries that "the imperialist aggressors have been driven from the free soil of Lebanon."

On the other side, we remain in a foreign country against the wishes of its Government and suffer even worse and more justifiable propaganda attacks.

We should do everything possible to eliminate the chances of being faced with these two undesirable alternatives, and we should do it now while there still is time.

A first step would be to sit down at the U.N. conference table with Nikita Khrushchev, Gamal Nasser and other Arab leaders, and neutral United Nations parties, and try to work out an equitable solution to the Mideast situation. We must realize we are as much out of place in that area as any other foreign nation.

Bickering, postponing and hair-splitting are three industrious workers in that dismal mint which turns out that unlucky two-headed coin called defeat.

of small children in the areas.

The majority of the violators are visitors to the park - friends, salesmen or deliverymen, and moving van drivers. Too many of these persons seem to feel the signs are only advice, to be ignored or followed as they choose.

This is not so. A short time ago a resident of one of the married housing areas asked a van driver to slow down through the park because of the children. The driver became belligerent, so the student made a citizen's arrest after ascertaining there were other witnesses to the speeding violation.

In court, the trucker was given a stern warning by the judge and paid costs of the action. The point to remember is that the speed limits posted are enforceable and should be obeyed.

If the residents of the areas will ask violators to slow down to preclude the possibility of an accident, that is all - in most cases - which will be necessary. For those violators who continue to ignore the posted speed limits, well - the judge is waiting.

Letters To The Editor

Smartypants Reporter

TO THE EDITOR:

Dear Mr. Kirkpatrick: Your ignorance is showing... (or should I say your adolescence?) Your views on what Cleopatra should or should not wear will fit in my scrap book in what I call the 'provincial section'.

Ticket Sales Called Unfair

TO THE EDITOR:

I wish to protest against the way the ticket sales for the opera "Madame Butterfly" have been handled.

This morning, the first day of box-office sale when I went to the ticket office at 9 a.m., all the good seats had been sold by mail order. There were no seats available for any night in the center section of the balcony which, of course, is the best place to sit.

James Green, 41 811 East College Iowa City

newsmen... Jim Bishop for instance. Incidentally, the costume of Cleopatra which seemed to displease your young eyes was the one I wore at the Shakespeare Memorial Theatre at Stratford on Avon in England and the thousands of GI's who came to the Shakespeare Festival seemed to find nothing wrong with it...

The recorded music for Mary Magdalene was found in the University hi-fi department... Not purchased in town. In fact you are so wrong in everything you've written that you annoy me and I am glad to have these few moments while waiting to be taken to the plane, to let you know how I feel.

I do hope though that it will help you to mature a bit... I also hope that one day you will become a good newspaper man... and I wish you luck!

Claire Luce NEW SONGWRITING TEAM NEW YORK (AP) - The two daughters of composer Richard Rodgers have been doing some team songwriting of their own. Mrs. Rodgers, as lyricist, and Mrs. Linda Melnick, writing the tunes, turned out a miniature revue, "It Takes Three to Make Music." Mary Martin may incorporate it into the program of the concert tour which takes her across the country next fall.

Oil Gushes at $5 a Second

Sheik of Kuwait Lives Amid Wells; On List of World's Richest Men

By ARTHUR EDSON

WASHINGTON (AP) - In all the dreary and often frightening news from the Near East, at least one item always is a joy to contemplate.

The Sheik of Kuwait, the stories say, is one of the world's richest men, with an annual income of 200 million dollars - and no income tax to pay.

But for heaven's sake what's Kuwait? Is it a fruit? A tropical disease? A new soft drink? The phonetic spelling of a bird call?

The dictionary says you pronounce it koo-wite or ko-wate, with the accent on the second syllable in either case.

It's a Country If you peer closely enough at a map of the Near East, you'll find the sandblown country of Kuwait, up at the top of the Persian Gulf.

To the north is troubled Iraq. To the south is Saudia Arabia. But never mind what's on each side of Kuwait. It's what is underneath that counts.

Oil! Beneath Kuwait's sand may be the biggest pool of oil in the world.

With our Puritan heritage, we still like to think that success comes only to those who labor like ants. It's something of a shock to realize that countries, like men, can strike it rich without much effort.

Anyone camping through Kuwait's history scarcely would hit on this as the ideal place for a successful sheikdom.

It's smaller than New Jersey, and much of it is unrelieved desert. Only 206,000 people, less than half the population of Newark alone, live there.

Once its seaport did a lively business in shipping horses to Bombay, but you know what happened to horse trading. Once it did a good business in pearl diving, and then came the cultured pearl to displace it.

Oil Everywhere And then - oil. It first was discovered in Kuwait in 1938, but nothing happened because of World War II. Not until July 30, 1946, was the first Kuwaiti crude oil poured into a tanker. By 1955 production was up to 386,398,000 barrels a year.

One of the world's greatest jackpots had been hit. Presiding over this profitable venture is Sheik Abdullah As Salim As Subah, who gets half of the profits made by the Kuwait Oil Co., owned by British and Americans.

He comes from a long line of sheiks. Although the country has been a British-protected state for more than a half a century, it still is a proud, independent sheikdom that can trace its dynasty back to 1756, or 20 years before the United States went into business for itself.

Sheik Abdullah Salim, in a picture dug up by the National Geographic Society, doesn't look much like a movie sheik. He has a short beard, a wart on the right side of his nose, and what looks like a red-checked tablecloth over his head.

Charitable King But by Near East standards he appears to be a benevolent ruler. Instead of building race tracks and collecting assorted costly bric-a-brac, the sheik has put considerable of his enormous income into hospitals and schools.

Still, it's nice to contemplate a man fetching in half a million dollars a day. Back in the Ozarks, when we landed a soft job, we used to say: "All I have to do is draw my breath and my pay."

As the sheik draws a deep breath, he also draws another $25 in pay. The oil money gushes in at the incredible rate of $5 a second.

General Notices

General Notices must be received at The Daily Iowan office, Room 201, Communications Center, by 8 a.m. for publication the following morning. They must be typed or legibly written and signed; they will not be accepted by telephone. The Daily Iowan reserves the right to edit all General Notices.

KOREAN VETERANS: University students and staff members who entered service for the Korean Conflict while a resident of the State of Iowa may secure application blanks for the Iowa Korean Service Compensation (Bonus) from the Veterans Service in University Hall beginning Tuesday, July 29, 1958.

SUMMER OPERA, "Madame Butterfly" by Puccini with full cast and orchestra in Macbride Auditorium 8 p.m. July 29, 30, August 1 and 2. Tickets available East Lobby Desk, Iowa Memorial Union 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. except Saturday, July 26th from 1 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. Also on sale at Macbride Auditorium 7 p.m. to 8 p.m. evenings of Opera. All tickets reserved $2.00.

RECREATIONAL SWIMMING HOUR at the Women's Gymnasium pool will be from 4:15 to 5:15 Monday through Friday. It is open to all women students and staff members. Please bring cap.

PARKING - The University parking committee reminds student motorists that the 12-hour parking limit applies to all University lots except the storage lot south of the Hydraulics Laboratory.

THE UNIVERSITY Cooperative Baby-sitting league will be in charge of Mrs. Young from July 22 to August 4. Telephone her at 6-9890 if a sitter or information about joining the group is desired.

FAMILY NITES at the Fieldhouse for students, staff, faculty, their spouses and their families every Wednesday. Recreational swimming and family-type activities will be available from 7:15 to 9:15 p.m.

Bitten Hand Engel's Bridge Angles

U.S. Military Aid to Iraq Backfires Our Way

By GEORGE DIXON King Features Syndicate

WASHINGTON - This ought to frizzle your hair. In the last year, with the coup already in the plotting stages, we gave Iraq nearly $30 million worth of planes, tanks, guns, and ammunition. Now you know which side has our deadly weapons.

But that isn't the worst of it. Right up to the moment of the outbreak, we were programming another $15,000,000 worth of warmaking hardware for Iraq. The rebellion was at hand, but our Central Intelligence Agency didn't tell Congress a thing about it.

New shipments of death-dealing weapons were to have begun this fall. The only thing that stopped them was that the coup was pulled off too soon.

State Department Gifts In the last couple of years, Iraq has gotten more than $40 million in strictly military aid from us. The warplanes that can bomb us, the tanks and guns that can mow us down, were given to Iraq through the State Department, in conjunction with the military.

Congress wouldn't even have started programming the $15 million in military aid for this year if it had received even an inkling of a warning from the CIA. Our so-called "Intelligence" outfit which spends close to $400 million a year doing heaven knows what, either didn't know about the conspiracy brewing in Iraq, or neglected to tell Congress about it.

Many members of Congress, high in the councils of military planning and appropriations, say they have grave doubts as to whether the CIA told the White House either. These legislators say they have every reason to believe that the CIA didn't tell the President or Congress, because it was itself in unbelievable ignorance.

The coup, as is now known, was in the planning stages for more than a year, but the CIA headed by Allen Dulles, brother of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, didn't whisper even a suspicion to Congress.

So They Can Fight The nearly $30 million aid to Iraq last year was entirely in weapons of war - our finest, most modern bombers, tanks, and guns, made in this country. On top of this, it received economic aid, too. But the American public never is given a breakdown on foreign aid from the State Department. It lumps military aid with economic aid - and our people have to guess how much goes to help a recipient economically, and how much to enable it to make war.

Developments of the last two weeks would seem to indicate that our State Department gives weapons to a country without any true picture of its internal situation - or which side it is likely to wind up on.

Get this - and digest it, if you can! Many of the guns being used by the rebels in Lebanon are American guns.

Just before the big blow-up in the Middle East, Senator Henry C. Dworshak, of Idaho, had a run-in with Secretary of State Dulles and a couple of the latter's subordinates. The State Department crew came to the Capitol to urge an increase in foreign aid funds for the Middle East. Senator Dworshak, ordinarily a quiet and contained gentleman, almost blew his nose cone.

The GOP solon demanded to know just why we should give more to the Middle East. The State Departmenters replied that increases were necessary to remedy the situations there.

This was too much for Senator Dworshak. "Judging by developments," he retorted, "the treatment you have prescribed for the Middle East has been most ineffective. Now you want to increase the treatment."

UNITED NATIONS Radio presents "The Universal Postal Union" at 11:45 this morning.

COUNT BASIE will be heard frequently during the next few days on Rhythm Rumbles at high noon and Tea Time from 4:30-5:30 in the afternoon. The approaching visit of Mr. Basie and his orchestra to Cedar Rapids Saturday night may have something to do with this trend.

VAN CLIBURN, the young Texas pianist whose victory in the first International Tchaikovsky Competition in Moscow in April of 1958 has brought him national and international recognition, will be heard in his recorded version of the Tchaikovsky Piano Concerto No. 1 at approximately 3:15 this afternoon on Mostly Music. Beginning at 1, the three-hour period of music for the afternoon will contain the Schumann Piano Concerto in A Minor, the Dohnanyi and Stravinsky Quartet No. 2, Sixteenth Century choral music from France, and Sonata Concertante for Violin and Piano by Kirchner. Pianist Cliburn is supported in his evening performance by a symphony orchestra under the baton of Russian conductor Kiril Kondrashin.

TRIO TONIGHT: Les Brown, the Otto Cesana Chorus, and the saxophone and sounds of Lee Konitz and group.

FM (FINE MUSIC) may be heard from 6-9 p.m. from KSUL-FM, 91.7 megacycles. Composers featured tonight include Respighi, Schubert, Liszt, Glazounov, and Rachmaninoff.

WSUI - IOWA CITY 910 k/c/s Friday, July 25, 1958 8:00 Morning Chapel 8:15 News 8:30 Victorian Literature 9:15 The Bookshelf 9:45 Morning Feature 10:00 News 10:15 Kitchen Concert 11:45 U.N. Radio 12:00 Rhythm Rumbles 12:30 News 12:45 Over the Back Fence 1:00 Mostly Music 9d 1:15 News 2:00 Masterworks from France 2:30 Mostly Music 3:00 News 3:35 News 4:00 Tea Time 4:30 News 4:45 Sportstime 5:00 Dinner Hour 5:15 News 5:30 News 6:00 Broadway Tonight 6:30 Ideas and the Theatre 7:00 News 7:15 News 7:30 News 8:00 NEWS OFFER 8:15 News 8:30 NEWS SCHEDULE 8:45 News 9:00-9:30 Feature, work, will, 9:30-10:00 LIZST: A Faust Symphony

Michael Engel

Many readers have no doubt heard of some of the so-called higher plays at bridge: squeezes, coups, end-plays, etc. What is not generally realized is that at least some of these plays are not as difficult to execute as they might be imagined. I wish to introduce the reader today to several of the simpler end-plays; though I hasten to add that these are also among the more common ones, hence more useful in practice.

As I mentioned once before in these lines, and it can bear repetition, it is not necessary to know the really advanced and complicated plays to be a fine player; such situations occur too seldom to matter.

What is an end-play? Briefly, it is a situation, usually though not always arising toward the latter part of the hand, where an opponent is forced into the lead in such a way that whatever he returns, presents the declarer with a trick. To recognize an end-play situation is not as esoteric a process as it sounds. An end-play should occur in an observant declarer's thinking whenever the hand has a loser which cannot be taken care of by direct means. Here is a trivial, but illustrative, end-play situation: declarer has Ax opposite dummy's Qx. Obviously a trick must be lost if declarer has to lead the suit. But if the enemy can be forced to lead the suit, there is a possibility of no losses in case the person on lead must play from his king; in other words he is end-played.

An example, using the above theme, follows. South plays in 6S, and West opens the queen of hearts.

Declarer wins the first trick with the king, and notices that he has two losers: one in hearts and one in diamonds. If clubs break, there is a chance to discard one loser, so South draws trumps in two rounds and then tries the clubs, which fail to split evenly. The only hope lies in an end-play which will be coupled with a slough-and-a-ruff as accessory. So the first step is to eliminate the clubs by ruffing North's last club. West's opening lead indicated probable possession of the jack and 10. Accordingly, South cashes the ace of hearts, and now exits with the 9 of hearts, which West is forced to take. West can't return the thirteenth heart, otherwise he presents South with the slough-and-a-ruff: South pitches his losing diamond and ruffs on the board. Therefore West must lead diamonds. Fortunately for South, West has the king, so that the queen wins the trick.

The next situation is a form of end-play known as a trump coup. South is in 4S.

Declarer wins the first trick with the king, and notices that he has two losers: one in hearts and one in diamonds. If clubs break, there is a chance to discard one loser, so South draws trumps in two rounds and then tries the clubs, which fail to split evenly. The only hope lies in an end-play which will be coupled with a slough-and-a-ruff as accessory. So the first step is to eliminate the clubs by ruffing North's last club. West's opening lead indicated probable possession of the jack and 10. Accordingly, South cashes the ace of hearts, and now exits with the 9 of hearts, which West is forced to take. West can't return the thirteenth heart, otherwise he presents South with the slough-and-a-ruff: South pitches his losing diamond and ruffs on the board. Therefore West must lead diamonds. Fortunately for South, West has the king, so that the queen wins the trick.

The next situation is a form of end-play known as a trump coup. South is in 4S.

Declarer wins the first trick with the king, and notices that he has two losers: one in hearts and one in diamonds. If clubs break, there is a chance to discard one loser, so South draws trumps in two rounds and then tries the clubs, which fail to split evenly. The only hope lies in an end-play which will be coupled with a slough-and-a-ruff as accessory. So the first step is to eliminate the clubs by ruffing North's last club. West's opening lead indicated probable possession of the jack and 10. Accordingly, South cashes the ace of hearts, and now exits with the 9 of hearts, which West is forced to take. West can't return the thirteenth heart, otherwise he presents South with the slough-and-a-ruff: South pitches his losing diamond and ruffs on the board. Therefore West must lead diamonds. Fortunately for South, West has the king, so that the queen wins the trick.

The next situation is a form of end-play known as a trump coup. South is in 4S.

Declarer wins the first trick with the king, and notices that he has two losers: one in hearts and one in diamonds. If clubs break, there is a chance to discard one loser, so South draws trumps in two rounds and then tries the clubs, which fail to split evenly. The only hope lies in an end-play which will be coupled with a slough-and-a-ruff as accessory. So the first step is to eliminate the clubs by ruffing North's last club. West's opening lead indicated probable possession of the jack and 10. Accordingly, South cashes the ace of hearts, and now exits with the 9 of hearts, which West is forced to take. West can't return the thirteenth heart, otherwise he presents South with the slough-and-a-ruff: South pitches his losing diamond and ruffs on the board. Therefore West must lead diamonds. Fortunately for South, West has the king, so that the queen wins the trick.

The next situation is a form of end-play known as a trump coup. South is in 4S.

Declarer wins the first trick with the king, and notices that he has two losers: one in hearts and one in diamonds. If clubs break, there is a chance to discard one loser, so South draws trumps in two rounds and then tries the clubs, which fail to split evenly. The only hope lies in an end-play which will be coupled with a slough-and-a-ruff as accessory. So the first step is to eliminate the clubs by ruffing North's last club. West's opening lead indicated probable possession of the jack and 10. Accordingly, South cashes the ace of hearts, and now exits with the 9 of hearts, which West is forced to take. West can't return the thirteenth heart, otherwise he presents South with the slough-and-a-ruff: South pitches his losing diamond and ruffs on the board. Therefore West must lead diamonds. Fortunately for South, West has the king, so that the queen wins the trick.

The next situation is a form of end-play known as a trump coup. South is in 4S.

Declarer wins the first trick with the king, and notices that he has two losers: one in hearts and one in diamonds. If clubs break, there is a chance to discard one loser, so South draws trumps in two rounds and then tries the clubs, which fail to split evenly. The only hope lies in an end-play which will be coupled with a slough-and-a-ruff as accessory. So the first step is to eliminate the clubs by ruffing North's last club. West's opening lead indicated probable possession of the jack and 10. Accordingly, South cashes the ace of hearts, and now exits with the 9 of hearts, which West is forced to take. West can't return the thirteenth heart, otherwise he presents South with the slough-and-a-ruff: South pitches his losing diamond and ruffs on the board. Therefore West must lead diamonds. Fortunately for South, West has the king, so that the queen wins the trick.

The next situation is a form of end-play known as a trump coup. South is in 4S.

Declarer wins the first trick with the king, and notices that he has two losers: one in hearts and one in diamonds. If clubs break, there is a chance to discard one loser, so South draws trumps in two rounds and then tries the clubs, which fail to split evenly. The only hope lies in an end-play which will be coupled with a slough-and-a-ruff as accessory. So the first step is to eliminate the clubs by ruffing North's last club. West's opening lead indicated probable possession of the jack and 10. Accordingly, South cashes the ace of hearts, and now exits with the 9 of hearts, which West is forced to take. West can't return the thirteenth heart, otherwise he presents South with the slough-and-a-ruff: South pitches his losing diamond and ruffs on the board. Therefore West must lead diamonds. Fortunately for South, West has the king, so that the queen wins the trick.

The next situation is a form of end-play known as a trump coup. South is in 4S.

Declarer wins the first trick with the king, and notices that he has two losers: one in hearts and one in diamonds. If clubs break, there is a chance to discard one loser, so South draws trumps in two rounds and then tries the clubs, which fail to split evenly. The only hope lies in an end-play which will be coupled with a slough-and-a-ruff as accessory. So the first step is to eliminate the clubs by ruffing North's last club. West's opening lead indicated probable possession of the jack and 10. Accordingly, South cashes the ace of hearts, and now exits with the 9 of hearts, which West is forced to take. West can't return the thirteenth heart, otherwise he presents South with the slough-and-a-ruff: South pitches his losing diamond and ruffs on the board. Therefore West must lead diamonds. Fortunately for South, West has the king, so that the queen wins the trick.

The next situation is a form of end-play known as a trump coup. South is in 4S.

Declarer wins the first trick with the king, and notices that he has two losers: one in hearts and one in diamonds. If clubs break, there is a chance to discard one loser, so South draws trumps in two rounds and then tries the clubs, which fail to split evenly. The only hope lies in an end-play which will be coupled with a slough-and-a-ruff as accessory. So the first step is to eliminate the clubs by ruffing North's last club. West's opening lead indicated probable possession of the jack and 10. Accordingly, South cashes the ace of hearts, and now exits with the 9 of hearts, which West is forced to take. West can't return the thirteenth heart, otherwise he presents South with the slough-and-a-ruff: South pitches his losing diamond and ruffs on the board. Therefore West must lead diamonds. Fortunately for South, West has the king, so that the queen wins the trick.

The next situation is a form of end-play known as a trump coup. South is in 4S.

Declarer wins the first trick with the king, and notices that he has two losers: one in hearts and one in diamonds. If clubs break, there is a chance to discard one loser, so South draws trumps in two rounds and then tries the clubs, which fail to split evenly. The only hope lies in an end-play which will be coupled with a slough-and-a-ruff as accessory. So the first step is to eliminate the clubs by ruffing North's last club. West's opening lead indicated probable possession of the jack and 10. Accordingly, South cashes the ace of hearts, and now exits with the 9 of hearts, which West is forced to take. West can't return the thirteenth heart, otherwise he presents South with the slough-and-a-ruff: South pitches his losing diamond and ruffs on the board. Therefore West must lead diamonds. Fortunately for South, West has the king, so that the queen wins the trick.

The next situation is a form of end-play known as a trump coup. South is in 4S.

Declarer wins the first trick with the king, and notices that he has two losers: one in hearts and one in diamonds. If clubs break, there is a chance to discard one loser, so South draws trumps in two rounds and then tries the clubs, which fail to split evenly. The only hope lies in an end-play which will be coupled with a slough-and-a-ruff as accessory. So the first step is to eliminate the clubs by ruffing North's last club. West's opening lead indicated probable possession of the jack and 10. Accordingly, South cashes the ace of hearts, and now exits with the 9 of hearts, which West is forced to take. West can't return the thirteenth heart, otherwise he presents South with the slough-and-a-ruff: South pitches his losing diamond and ruffs on the board. Therefore West must lead diamonds. Fortunately for South, West has the king, so that the queen wins the trick.

The next situation is a form of end-play known as a trump coup. South is in 4S.

Declarer wins the first trick with the king, and notices that he has two losers: one in hearts and one in diamonds. If clubs break, there is a chance to discard one loser, so South draws trumps in two rounds and then tries the clubs, which fail to split evenly. The only hope lies in an end-play which will be coupled with a slough-and-a-ruff as accessory. So the first step is to eliminate the clubs by ruffing North's last club. West's opening lead indicated probable possession of the jack and 10. Accordingly, South cashes the ace of hearts, and now exits with the 9 of hearts, which West is forced to take. West can't return the thirteenth heart, otherwise he presents South with the slough-and-a-ruff: South pitches his losing diamond and ruffs on the board. Therefore West must lead diamonds. Fortunately for South, West has the king, so that the queen wins the trick.

The next situation is a form of end-play known as a trump coup. South is in 4S.

Declarer wins the first trick with the king, and notices that he has two losers: one in hearts and one in diamonds. If clubs break, there is a chance to discard one loser, so South draws trumps in two rounds and then tries the clubs, which fail to split evenly. The only hope lies in an end-play which will be coupled with a slough-and-a-ruff as accessory. So the first step is to eliminate the clubs by ruffing North's last club. West's opening lead indicated probable possession of the jack and 10. Accordingly, South cashes the ace of hearts, and now exits with the 9 of hearts, which West is forced to take. West can't return the thirteenth heart, otherwise he presents South with the slough-and-a-ruff: South pitches his losing diamond and ruffs on the board. Therefore West must lead diamonds. Fortunately for South, West has the king, so that the queen wins the trick.

The next situation is a form of end-play known as a trump coup. South is in 4S.

Declarer wins the first trick with the king, and notices that he has two losers: one in hearts and one in diamonds. If clubs break, there is a chance to discard one loser, so South draws trumps in two rounds and then tries the clubs, which fail to split evenly. The only hope lies in an end-play which will be coupled with a slough-and-a-ruff as accessory. So the first step is to eliminate the clubs by ruffing North's last club. West's opening lead indicated probable possession of the jack and 10. Accordingly, South cashes the ace of hearts, and now exits with the 9 of hearts, which West is forced to take. West can't return the thirteenth heart, otherwise he presents South with the slough-and-a-ruff: South pitches his losing diamond and ruffs on the board. Therefore West must lead diamonds. Fortunately for South, West has the king, so that the queen wins the trick.

The next situation is a form of end-play known as a trump coup. South is in 4S.

Declarer wins the first trick with the king, and notices that he has two losers: one in hearts and one in diamonds. If clubs break, there is a chance to discard one loser, so South draws trumps in two rounds and then tries the clubs, which fail to split evenly. The only hope lies in an end-play which will be coupled with a slough-and-a-ruff as accessory. So the first step is to eliminate the clubs by ruffing North's last club. West's opening lead indicated probable possession of the jack and 10. Accordingly, South cashes the ace of hearts, and now exits with the 9 of hearts, which West is forced to take. West can't return the thirteenth heart, otherwise he presents South with the slough-and-a-ruff: South pitches his losing diamond and ruffs on the board. Therefore West must lead diamonds. Fortunately for South, West has the king, so that the queen wins the trick.

The next situation is a form of end-play known as a trump coup. South is in 4S.

Declarer wins the first trick with the king, and notices that he has two losers: one in hearts and one in diamonds. If clubs break, there is a chance to discard one loser, so South draws trumps in two rounds and then tries the clubs, which fail to split evenly. The only hope lies in an end-play which will be coupled with a slough-and-a-ruff as accessory. So the first step is to eliminate the clubs by ruffing North's last club. West's opening lead indicated probable possession of the jack and 10. Accordingly, South cashes the ace of hearts, and now exits with the 9 of hearts, which West is forced to take. West can't return the thirteenth heart, otherwise he presents South with the slough-and-a

British Welcome Summit Conference

LONDON (AP) — Britain rejected Thursday night Soviet charges that the peace of the Middle East has been imperiled by American and British landings in Lebanon and Jordan.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's agreement to attend a special summit conference of the U.N. Security Council on the Middle East crisis got an official welcome from this country.

But a Government statement — seeming to reflect American and French thinking — rejected as unrealistic Khrushchev's idea that the talks should start Monday. It pledged Britain's readiness to participate "as soon as a special meeting of the Security Council can be conveniently arranged." The trend of thinking seemed to be that would be in about 10 days, or during the first week in August.

However, the U.S. Embassy in Moscow was taking no chances. It made preliminary arrangements for quick American clearance of Khrushchev's jet plane whenever it receives formal notification of his plans.

Russians Confident
Self-confidence was reflected among the Russians at Khrushchev's decision to accept the West's challenge.

"He did it, he gave it to them," said a Moscow cab driver. "He will show them."

Approaches of the British and French press toward a summit meeting paralleled differing views of their Governments.

British newspapers are generally for the U.N. summit meeting as is Prime Minister Macmillan's Cabinet.

De Gaulle Objects
There have been objections from Premier de Gaulle, heavily burdened with a rush job to put France's domestic affairs in order. The French press indicated hostility to having De Gaulle sit down with President Nasser of the United Arab Republic.

Britain has had no diplomatic relations with Nasser since the 1956 Suez incident. Macmillan sidestepped a question Thursday as to whether he believed Nasser qualified under Khrushchev's proposal that chieftains of the Arab nations concerned with the crisis sit in.

Broad Agenda
A British Foreign Office spokesman stressed that this country's idea of the agenda embraced the problems of Jordan and Lebanon and perhaps a number of wider issues relating to the Mideast.

Arrangements are going ahead for a meeting of the heads of government of Baghdad Pact powers in London Monday. Secretary of State Dulles is planning to attend as an observer.

Norway came out in favor of the expanded Security Council session.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

Capehart's Quiz Causes Commotion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Homer Capehart (R-Ind.), questioned the ethics of Rep. James Roosevelt (D-Calif.), Thursday. It set off an uproar in the Senate Banking Committee.

Roosevelt, son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, went before the committee to oppose legislation dealing with savings and loan advertising, introduced by Sen. J. Glenn Beal (R-Md.).

Accuses Roosevelt
Capehart, one of the hottest-tempered of Republicans, accused Roosevelt of reflecting on the integrity of the men who drew up the legislation and said: "If you are going to attack these gentlemen, we want to know who is paying you for the attack."

Warmly, Roosevelt replied: "I am not being paid for testifying." Roosevelt disputed Capehart's suggestion that in appearing against the legislation he was representing a company which opposed it and had put him on the payroll after it was introduced.

Would Forbid Advertising
The legislation would forbid savings and loan associations to advertise that their certificates of deposit, etc., were insured — unless they were insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp., or the federal savings and loan system.

Under Capehart's questioning, Roosevelt said he became board chairman of the Family Savings Assn. of Silver Springs and Baltimore, Md., within the last six or seven weeks at an annual salary of $6,000.

The congressman, now nearing 50, has a business background as an insurance broker and has also had motion picture interests.

Question From Monroney
"Do you think it is proper that you as a member of Congress should represent a company . . . ?" Capehart started to ask. The rest of his sentence was lost in an unclear reply from Roosevelt and a sharp question from Sen. Mike Monroney (D-Okla.), as to whether Capehart's question itself was proper.

"I don't think it's fair to smear him," put in Sen. Joseph Clark (D-Pa.).

Sen. John J. Sparkman (D-Ala.), said he too disapproved of Capehart's question.

There followed a real to-do, with the witness and three or four senators all trying to talk at once.

Sparkman, who was presiding, restored quiet by recessing the hearing until Friday.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

High Level Talks May Be Closed at U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Many U.N. diplomats feel the key phrase in Premier Khrushchev's latest message on a summit meeting is his reference to consultations outside the Security Council chamber.

The feeling is that whatever achievements come from any proposed high-level gathering will be the result of private talks among East-West leaders and not from the formal sessions of the 11-nation Council.

The Council probably would do little more than put its approval on agreements, if any, reached by the big powers. Khrushchev and British Prime Minister Macmillan already have suggested that no resolutions be submitted to the Council unless they arise from previous agreement.

This clearly indicates private negotiations are envisaged. U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld, who has agreed to take part in any high-level meeting, is a strong believer in quiet diplomacy.

Advocates of private consultations see these main advantages: Private talks minimize the opportunity for propaganda, they can be limited to the few key leaders whose agreement is essential, and they are much more speedy.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

There were reports the United States and Britain may accord limited recognition to the Baghdad rebel government as the de facto — effective — rulers of Iraq. Informed sources said this would avoid a snarl at the summit talks because Iraq is a member of the Security Council.

It's Your Dream Come True!

THE VACATION OF A LIFETIME
A FREE TRIP FOR TWO TO THE

WORLD'S FAIR AT BRUSSELS

You'll Be Flown by Luxurious SABENA BELGIUM AIRLINES direct from Chicago to Brussels

WE ARE ALSO GIVING AWAY A

FREE FAMILY TRIP TO THE STATE FAIR

5 NAMES WILL BE DRAWN EACH DAY UNTIL SAT., AUG. 9

It's simple to enter Benner's "Fair Contest". Simply fill in a registration blank at your Benner store. Each day through Saturday, Aug. 9, 5 names will be drawn. On Wednesday, Aug. 13th, a final grand prize drawing from these names will be held to determine the winner of the "Brussels World's Fair Trip". The winner of Benner's "State Fair" trip will be drawn on Saturday, Aug. 9th. All winners will be announced in our ad on Thursday, Aug. 14th. Hurry, register now!

COUPON

COCA-COLA
KING SIZE
BOTTLES 6 PAK 19c
PLUS DEPOSIT

WITH THIS COUPON
COUPON GOOD ONLY SATURDAY, JULY 26

FREE

A 12 DAY TRIP
You'll Visit Historic London and Gay Paris

BENNER'S WILL SEND 34 ENTIRE FAMILIES TO THE STATE FAIR

HERE'S WHAT YOUR STATE FAIR TRIP INCLUDES:

HOTELS
You'll stay at the finest hotels where you'll be treated in true celebrity fashion. No expense will be spared to make your stay a memorable one.

FAIR TICKETS
Yes, you'll receive free tickets not only to the fair itself but also to the many rides and events of interest.

FREE GASOLINE
No matter how far away you may live your complete gasoline bill will be paid for by Benner's.

CASH SPENDING MONEY
For extra fun, eating and souvenir-buying Benner's is giving you cash to make your fair trip even more gay and carefree.

FREE!
HOT DOGS & COKE

FRIDAY - 12 to 6
SATURDAY - 10 to 6

SUGAR 5 LB. BAG 39c

SAVE SWIFT'NING SHORTENING

34c 3 LB. CAN 49c

NORTHERN Toilet Tissue 4 ROLLS 29c

LIBBY'S Deep Brown Beans 14 OZ. CANS 25c

ELBERTA FREESTONE PEACHES 4 Lbs. 59c

BUDDIE CHIPPED BEEF 4-Oz. Pkg. 35c

BENNER STOP 'n SHOP 1029 South Riverside Drive

Benner Food Stores

BENNER SHOPPING CENTER
Towncrest Addition, Highway 6 East

Liner Captain Says Admiral Must Have Jumped Overboard

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Rear Adm. Lynne C. Quiggle, 52, disappeared at sea from the liner President Cleveland and apparently jumped overboard in a "fit of mental depression," the liner's master said Thursday.

"From information I know I can see no other answer to it," Commodore H. D. Ehman told newsmen when the liner docked in Honolulu. "It seems reasonable that he left us in a fit of mental depression."

A Navy board of investigation, headed by Rear Adm. John Q. Owsley, Medical Corps, started a formal inquiry into Quiggle's disappearance from the liner early Wednesday morning, about 800 miles off San Francisco.

Bound for San Diego
The admiral and Mrs. Quiggle, the former Ann Griffin of Washington, D.C., were returning on the President Cleveland from his tour of duty as deputy chief of staff on the joint staff of the commander of U.S. Forces in Japan. Quiggle's next assignment was to be commander of Amphibious Group 1, Pacific Fleet, based at San Diego, Calif.

Mrs. Quiggle reported to Commodore Ehman about 7:15 a.m. Wednesday that her husband was missing. She said he left their cabin about 5 a.m. and she started a search of the ship as soon as she could get dressed.

Ehman said Mrs. Quiggle told him she believed the admiral might have jumped overboard.

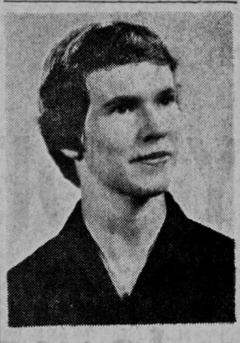

Kissed Wife and Left
The commodore reluctantly confirmed reports from other sources that Quiggle had kissed his wife and left the cabin after telling her, "You'll be better off a widow."

Cmdr. Daniel J. Harkins, USNR, told newsmen he had observed in frequent shipboard visits with Quiggle that the admiral "appeared tired and had a lot of tension."

After a fruitless search of the ship, Ehman said he decided very little could be accomplished by turning back in an attempt to search the sea.

Ehman declared there was no indication of foul play. He said an accidental fall overboard "by a man who knew the sea as the admiral did was inconceivable."

Quiggle was a native of Grand Island, Neb. He was graduated from the Naval Academy in 1930. The Quiggle's home is in Chevy Chase, Md. They have a son, Robert Lynne Quiggle.

October Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Treloar of Fredericksburg announce the engagement of their daughter, Darlene to Pvt. Eugene N. Wheeler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wheeler of Brooklyn.

Miss Treloar will graduate from the SUI College of Nursing this August and attended Sumner High School.

Mr. Wheeler was graduated from SUI in 1957 and is now stationed in Berkeley, California with the U.S. Army.

An October wedding is being planned.

City Record

BIRTH
Dr. and Mrs. David Evans, 604 9th Ave., Coralville, girl, July 15.

DEATHS
Mrs. Ann Yanata, 80, Tipton, July 23.
Martin L. Oberfoel, 62, Epworth, July 20.

Thick Delicious Malts & Shakes

For these hot, sultry days, there is nothing more tantalizing than

• Malts • Shakes • Sundaes • Cool, Cool Drinks

Whetstone Drug

Across From Campus 32 S. Dubuque 6622

State University of Iowa Fine Arts Festival

presents "Madame Butterfly"

an opera in two acts by Giacomo Puccini a complete stage production full cast—costumes—scenery orchestra

Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday, Saturday July 29, 30, August 1 and 2

MACBRIDE AUDITORIUM (air conditioned)

Tickets on sale Iowa Union East Lobby 9:30-5:30 Price: $2.00

Box Office Phone X2280-All seats reserved

Upsets Mark Western Junior Meet

Rule Survives First Day of Match Play

By DICK LYNES
Sports Editor

Two of the pre-tournament favorites will be watching the Western Junior golf championship as part of the gallery today as upsets marked the first day of match play in the 41st shooting of this annual junior championship.

Don Essig III, Indianapolis, the meet's defending champion and one of the better junior golfers in the country, was eliminated in the second round 1 up in 19 holes by Frank James, Grinnell, a sophomore at Iowa in the fall.

The two golfers were tied at the end of 18 holes and were forced into an extra-hole, sudden-death playoff. Both golfers carded 74's at the end of 18 holes.

DON ESSIG III, Indianapolis, left, picks his ball out of the cup on the 18th green Thursday afternoon in his elimination match with Frank James, Grinnell and a student at Iowa. The two golfers were tied at the end of 18 holes. James went on to defeat the defending champion on the first extra hole, 1 up.—Daily Iowan Photo.

Liotta Out

Gary Liotta, Albany, Calif., the tournament's medalist with two sub-par rounds of 71, was sidelined in the first round Thursday morning by Rich Gleacher, Skokie, Ill., 2 and 1. Gleacher was eliminated in the second round by Bob McDonald, Prospect Hills, Ill.

Of the nine Iowans to start out this morning, only James and Jack Rule Jr., Waterloo, remained as the field was cut to eight for today's quarterfinals.

Rule easily eliminated Tom Grace, Lathrup Village, Mich., 6 and 5 in the morning round and then ousted Harry Allers, Fort Lauderdale, Fla., 2 and 1 during the afternoon.

Rule, one of the best match play juniors around, will play Dave Daniels, one of the two Columbus, Ohio boys left in the tournament. James will meet Joel Goldstrand of Worthington, Minn.

Goldstrand eliminated Sam Carmichael, Martinsville, Ind., 1 up in 20 holes.

Field to be Narrowed

The eight golfers will play 18 holes of elimination this morning with the remaining four going out between 12:45 and 1 in the afternoon. The field will then be narrowed to a pair for Saturday's 36 hole match play finale.

According to some of the golfers Thursday the course was still in good condition despite the beating it has taken since last Monday. The greens are becoming rough around the cups due to spikes in the golfer's shoes. So far the weather has held for the tournament but scattered showers are predicted for the Iowa City area today. Tournament officials indicated it would take something short of an extended downpour to postpone the matches.

MORNING ROUND

Ron Long, Monticello, defeated Paul Earle, Winnetka, Ill., 1 up, 19 holes.

Dave Daniels, Columbus, O., defeated Dave Nelson, Clinton, 3 and 1.

Jack Rule, Waterloo, defeated Tom Grace, Lathrup Village, Mich., 6 and 5.

Harry Allers, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.; defeated Ty Porter, Winnetka, Ill., 1 up.

Sam Carmichael, Martinsville, Ind., defeated Barry Meerdink, Muscatine, 5 and 3.

Joel Goldstrand, Worthington, Minn., defeated Ed Menke, Jr., Floomoore, Ill., 4 and 3.

Frank James, Grinnell, defeated Steve Spray, Indiana, 1 up.

George Thatcher, Lake Geneva, Wis., defeated Jack Litvay, Fort Madison, 3 and 2.

Don Essig, Indianapolis, defeated Bill Gifford, Aurora, Ill., 4 and 3.

Don Stickey, Columbus, O., defeated Dave Gross, Daventry, 3 and 1.

Jim Stahl, Cincinnati, O., defeated Mike Toluszis, Bradley, Ill., 4 and 3.

James Colbert, Prairie Village, Kan., defeated Lynn Adelman, Milwaukee, 2 and 1.

Bill Barnhardt, Downers Grove, Ill., defeated Fred Henoch, LaPorte, Ind., 4 and 2.

Bob McDonald, Prospect Hills, Ill., defeated Pete Green, Franklin, Mich., 4 and 2.

C. A. Smith, Jackson, Mich., defeated Bill Hird, Fort Dodge, 2 up.

Rick Gleacher, Skokie, Ill., defeated Gary Liotta, Albany, Calif., 2 and 1.

AFTERNOON ROUND

Daniels, defeated Long, 1 up.

Rule defeated Allers 2 and 1.

Goldstrand defeated Carmichael, 1 up in 20.

Stickey defeated Thatcher, 4 and 3.

James defeated Essig, 1 up in 19.

Smith defeated Barnhardt, 3 and 4.

McDonald defeated Gleacher, 1 up.

Karras, Gibbons Report For All-Star Grid Drills

Today's Tee Times

8:30 a.m. — Dave Daniels vs. Jack Rule.

8:40 a.m. — Joel Goldstrand vs. Frank James.

8:50 a.m. — Don Stickey vs. Jim Stahl.

9 a.m. — C. A. Smith vs. Bob McDonald.

Williams in Trouble Again For Spitting

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Ted Williams' reputation as a spitting outfielder was in the spotlight again Thursday. It brought him a $250 fine.

The Boston Red Sox star spat only once Wednesday night during the game with the Kansas City Athletics. But it was in the general direction of booing fans who thought Williams failed to show enough effort on his feet after his grounder was snagged by first baseman Harry Simpson for an unassisted putout.

The episode brought a fine of $250 upon Williams from American League President Will Harridge at Chicago. Harridge said Williams' spitting is "conduct detrimental to best interest of baseball."

Williams jogged about halfway to first base in the fourth, then turned and headed for the dugout. The fans opened up with boos. Williams stopped and spat in their direction. That increased the booing.

As a result he was booted at his every appearance, even when he hit a double in the eighth for the Sox' only run of the 3-1 victory for the Athletics.

Williams was fined $5,000 just two years ago for a similar incident in Boston. The fine, levied by the Boston club, later was rescinded.

Thursday the outfielder could not be reached at his hotel for comment.

Officials of the Kansas City Athletics were inclined to be charitable.

Parke Carroll, vice president and business manager of the A's, said he didn't see the incident and would have nothing to say.

But another member of the staff said:

"Ah, it's just part of the game."

Yanks Pound Tigers (Again) 10-7; Cards Blank Braves, 4-0

DETROIT (AP)—The New York Yankees used their vaunted home run power and wiped out their early season frustrations against Detroit Thursday, beating the Tigers and their no-hit ace Jim Bunning 10-7.

The triumph was marred by an injury to Rinold Duren, the Yankees ace reliever. Duren, credited with saving 16 games this season, was struck in the head in the ninth inning by a pitch thrown by Paul Foytack.

He was carried from the field on a stretcher and was taken to a Detroit hospital for examination.

X-rays uncovered nothing more serious than a bruised and cut left cheek, but the big righthander, who was carried off the field on a stretcher, will remain in a Detroit hospital for several days for observation. Duren was credited with the victory and now has a 5-3 record.

New York 000 000 424-10 12
Detroit 029 002-7 12
Larsen, Monroe (4), Trucks (6), Duren (7), Kucks (9), Shantz (9), Turley (9) and Howard; Bunning, Aguirre (8), Foytack (9) and Wilson, W.—Duren, L.—Bunning.

Home runs — New York: Throneberry (4), Berra (16), McDougald (7), Mantle (26), Detroit, Harris (9).

Indians 6, Senators 1

CLEVELAND (AP)—Gary Bell tossed a 3-hitter at the Washington Senators and catcher Russ Nixon hit a home run, double and two singles to drive in four runs as the Cleveland Indians defeated the American League last-placers 6-1.

Nixon's home run led off the Tribe's half of the second and Rocky Colavito, the next batter, smashed his 19th home run of the season.

Washington 001 000 000-1 3 1
Cleveland 022 000 80x-6 9 0
Griggs, Valentineti (3), Constance (8) and Fitz Gerald; Bell and Nixon.

Home runs — Washington: Aspromonte (5), Cleveland, Nixon (5), Colavito (19).

Orioles 7, White Sox 3

CHICAGO (AP)—Mill Pappas, 19-year-old right-hander, was the whole show Thursday as the Baltimore Orioles defeated the Chicago White Sox 7-3 before a Ladies Day crowd of 12,289.

Pappas limited the Sox to five hits. He hit a double and the first home run of his professional career. He struck out three and walked six while recording his seventh victory against three defeats.

Washington 001 000 000-1 3 1
Cleveland 022 000 80x-6 9 0
Griggs, Valentineti (3), Constance (8) and Fitz Gerald; Bell and Nixon.

Home runs — Baltimore: Nieman (5), Pappas (1).

Cards 4, Braves 0

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals whipped the Milwaukee Braves 4-0 Thursday as Sam Jones handed the Braves their fifth shut-out loss of the season.

Jones, now 8-7, gave the World

Champions only four scattered hits as he acquired his first decision over them against two losses this season.

Loser was Warren Spahn, whose bid for a 13th victory against 6 losses was brief indeed, as the Cards shelled him from the mound with four straight singles in the first. Stan Musial and Ken Boyer were driven in by Del Ennis and Gene Freese respectively before Bob Rush replaced the veteran lefthander.

St. Louis 200 000 000-4 10 0
Milwaukee 000 000 000-0 4 1

Jones and Smith; Spahn, Rush (1), Robinson (6), Conley (7) and Crandall, L.—Spahn.

Pirates 5, Dodgers 3

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates made a clean sweep of their three-game series with the Los Angeles Dodgers Thursday with a 5-3 victory that featured a four-run outburst in the fourth inning.

Dick Stuart walloped a two-run homer for the Pirates in the fourth and three singles scored two more runs for Pittsburgh in that frame. The Pirates got another run in the eighth on back-to-back triples by Bob Skinner and Bill Mazeroski.

The Dodgers got one run in the seventh when Charlie Neal hit his 18th home run of the season over the right field screen.

Los Angeles 000 000 102-3 6 2
Pittsburgh 000 000 01x-5 9 1

Williams, Kippstein (4), Kipp (5), Labine (7) and Roseboro, Pizarro (7) Witt, Gross (6), Face (9) and Hall. W.—Witt, L.—Williams.

Home runs — Pittsburgh: Stuart (5), Los Angeles, Neal (16).

Redlegs 4, Cubs 3

CINCINNATI (AP)—Chicago pitching strategy backfired Thursday night and Ed Bailey's home run with a man on base produced a 4-3 Cincinnati Redleg victory over the Chicago Cubs. The homer had been sent in to pitch to left-handed Redleg hitters.

It was the second straight night the Redlegs had come from behind with game-winning home runs. Frank Robinson also had a homer for Cincinnati.

Alex Kellner, who relieved starter Brooks Lawrence in the sixth, got credit for the victory.

Chicago 000 003 000-3 9 0
Cincinnati 020 000 02x-4 8 0
Briggs, Henry (8) and S. Taylor;

Major Scoreboard

NATIONAL LEAGUE				AMERICAN LEAGUE
W	L	Pct	GB	W	L	Pct	GB
Milwaukee	50	39	.562	New York	61	30	.670
San Francisco	50	40	.556	Boston	47	43	.522
Chicago	46	47	.495	Baltimore	45	43	.500
St. Louis	43	45	.489	Kansas City	43	46	.483
Pittsburgh	44	47	.484	Chicago	44	49	.475
Cincinnati	43	46	.483	Cleveland	44	50	.468
Philadelphia	41	44	.482	Detroit	42	48	.467
Los Angeles	41	50	.451	Washington	39	54	.419

THURSDAY'S RESULTS
Pittsburgh 5, Los Angeles 3.
St. Louis 4, Milwaukee 0.
San Francisco at Philadelphia, rain.
Cincinnati 4, Chicago 3.

TODAY'S PITCHERS
Chicago at Milwaukee (2, twi-night) Phillips (6-3) and Drott (4-7) or Hobbie (7-6) vs Pizarro (0-9) and Trowbridge (0-2).

San Francisco at Pittsburgh (N) — Antonelli (10-7) vs Rayden (3-3).
Cincinnati at St. Louis (2, twi-night) — Purkey (11-6) and Newcombe (2-9) vs McDaniel (5-7) and Mizell (6-7).
Los Angeles at Philadelphia (N) — Podres (10-8) vs Simmons (6-10).

THURSDAY'S RESULTS
Boston at Kansas City, rain.
Cleveland 6, Washington 1.
New York 10, Detroit 7.
Baltimore 7, Chicago 3.

TODAY'S PITCHERS
New York at Cleveland (N) — Ford (12-4) vs Mossi (6-6).
Baltimore at Kansas City (N) — Portocarrero (8-5) vs Grim (0-1).
Boston at Chicago (N) — Sisler (6-4) vs Donovan (6-10).
Washington at Detroit (N) — Kemmerer (5-8) vs Susce (2-0).

Students
GOING HOME THIS WEEKEND?
FILL 'ER UP

REGULAR	ETHYL
28 ⁹	31 ⁹

ALL TAX PAID

Superior Oil Co.
Coralville West on Highway 6

BECKMAN'S FUNERAL HOME
507 E. COLLEGE ST.
PHONE 3240

The Annual UNIVERSITY EDITION
of
The Daily Iowan
Will Be Published On August 23rd
The Greatest Issue of the Year!

Featuring

- All Campus Activities and Events
- New University Projects
- What's Coming in Iowa Athletics
- SUI Facilities and Services

ORDER MAIL-AWAY COPIES NOW
for parents and friends in other parts of the country!

Only 25¢ a copy
(Covers cost of paper, handling and postage.)
40 cents for copies going outside the United States.

Circulation Department,
The Daily Iowan,
Iowa City, Iowa

Here is my order for copy (ies) of the annual University Edition.
I enclose $ to cover entire cost at 25 cents a copy. Please mail to:

Name
Address
City and State

Use extra sheet for additional names & addresses.

EWERS
Men's Store
28 S. Clinton

SEMI-ANNUAL SALE! TODAY

SHARP REDUCTIONS ALL THROUGH OUR STORE ON

SUITS SHIRTS
SPORT COATS SOCKS
SLACKS SHOES

Come In and See For Yourself

Me Too

FOR THE PERFECT
BREAKFAST CUP OF COFFEE

Serve Me Too Every Morning

FULL-BODIED FLAVOR TO SATISFY EVEN THE MOST PARTICULAR COFFEE-DRINKER

IN VAPOR-SEALED BAGS, GROUND ESPECIALLY TO YOUR ORDER, TO INSURE PERFECT FRESHNESS

NEW LOWER PRICE MAKES ME TOO EXTRA-ECONOMICAL

Me Too

FINER FOODS LOWER PRICES

IOWA CITY'S CONVENIENT SUPERMARKET

News Digest

Administration To Seek Boost Of National Debt Ceiling

WASHINGTON (AP) — Confronted by rising defense spending, the Eisenhower Administration will ask Congress Monday for another boost in the national debt limit.

The permanent ceiling now is $275 billion. Congress earlier this year authorized a temporary increase to $290 billion, but the Treasury foresees a need for still more borrowing authority.

Rep. Wilburg D. Mills (D-Ark.), chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, told reporters Secretary of the Treasury Anderson will appear before his committee Monday to ask for a further increase. But Mills said the amount was not definite.

No One Hurt As Nuclear Submarine Collides With Sub Tender at Pier

NEW LONDON, Conn. (AP) — The nuclear submarine Skate collided with the submarine tender Fulton Thursday while the tender was moored to a pier.

The Navy said the Skate suffered damage to her propeller.

A spokesman said one compartment on the port side of the Fulton was flooded and the tender suffered a gash just below the water line.

No one was injured. Preliminary indications are that damage is slight, the spokesman said.

Khrushchev Accuses 'Hotheads' Of Trying to Start New War

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Khrushchev said Thursday hotheads holding important posts in some countries are trying to start a new war. Khrushchev named no names.

He spoke at a Kremlin reception honoring Austria's visiting Chancellor Julius Raab. The Soviet Premier said there is a need for "the peoples of the world to take things into their own hands to prevent war."

His statements came after an anti-U.S. blast by the Government newspaper Izvestia and accusations by the Communist party paper Pravda that the United States is guilty of meddling, wire-pulling and open aggression in the Middle East.

Ghana Premier Asks Guarantee For Middle East Countries

WASHINGTON (AP) — Prime Minister Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana proposed Thursday that the major powers guarantee the sovereignty of each country in the Middle East.

Nkrumah told a National Press Club luncheon audience that under this plan the oil resources of the Middle East should be brought under international control and the proceeds used for the benefit of its people.

He suggested that this could well be a matter for consideration by the United Nations.

Nkrumah, who arrived Wednesday for a 10-day state visit to this country, addressed the press club after conferring with President Eisenhower at the White House.

U.N. Meeting Big Soviet News But Pravda Attacks Religion

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet press was nearly filled today with Premier Khrushchev's move for a U.N. summit meeting, but Moscow Pravda, the local daily paper, found space for an attack on religion.

The paper said communism can never be reconciled with religion because religion suppresses peoples' activities and inoculates a feeling of passivity on political questions. It conceded that some Soviet workers still are influenced by religion.

Help to Private Firms 'Routine' Says Bridges

WASHINGTON (AP) — "It was a routine thing," Sen. Styles Bridges (R-N.H.) said Thursday. "I did it for a New Hampshire group and I'll do it again if anybody asks me to."

Bridges thus commented on a letter he wrote several months ago asking the Army to hurry up on a $41,284 refund granted to Raylaine Worsteds, Inc. of Manchester, N.H., on a World War II contract penalty.

Acted on Request

Bridges told a reporter he acted at the request of Marston Heard, president of the Amoskeag National Bank of Manchester. The senator said Heard represented three bank creditors of the now-defunct textile mill.

He added that the refund already had been ordered and he wrote the Army only to ask if the payment could be speeded up.

A House Armed Services subcommittee is investigating to determine whether presidential assistant Sherman Adams, former governor of New Hampshire, exerted any improper influence in bringing about the refund.

Two Witnesses Called

The subcommittee Thursday called as witnesses Leo Wolff, former president of Raylaine Worsteds, and Lester Brown, former company treasurer. They did not testify Thursday, however.

The inquiry is being held behind closed doors and Chairman F. Edward Hebert (D-La.) indicated that plans for public hearings may be dropped. He said the transcript of testimony taken at closed hearings may be made public instead.

Peron Promises Argentine Return Despite Warning

CIUDAD TRUJILLO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Juan D. Peron said Thursday he will return to his Argentine homeland whenever he considers it necessary and opportune.

The exiled ex-dictator made clear in an interview that he was not worried over a recent declaration of Argentina's President Arturo Frondizi that he would not be able to return. Frondizi said the Argentines did not want either old or new dictators.

Peron, in high spirits and smiling, said only he could determine his next move whenever he decides to quit the asylum he has enjoyed on this Caribbean island for the last six months.

"My return to Argentina depends upon me and nobody else," he said. "I assure you that my presence in the country will be inevitable whenever I judge it necessary and opportune."

Peron was asked whether there was a written agreement with Frondizi under which he could return, regain personal properties, and again lead his Peronista party in return for the Peronista support that helped elect Frondizi to the presidency last February.

"Dr. Frondizi has contracted obligations with the people of Argentina and in consequence with the Peronismo, in whose name it acts," Peron replied. "None of these obligations has been satisfied."

Order Crackdown On Additives In Meat Products

DES MOINES (AP) — The State Department of Agriculture issued a crackdown Thursday on what was termed a widespread practice of putting additives in fresh meat products, particularly hamburger.

Henceforth, all such products may contain only one of two additives authorized by the Federal Government. The additives are benzoate soda or bicarbonate of soda. Both are used as preservatives.

Not more than one-tenth of one per cent of the meat product may consist of one of these additives, however. And if an additive is used, it must be marked on the package.

The department took its action after an investigation showed many grocery stores throughout the state are selling hamburger and other fresh meat products with several kinds of additives, some of which could be harmful, the department said.

L. B. Liddy, chief of the department's dairy and foods division, said no prosecutions are planned if grocery stores comply with the new order.

Parents Mourn Daughter

THE PARENTS OF 9-year-old Darlene Stasik sob over her body after she drowned in Long Lake at New Brighton, a Twin Cities suburb, Thursday. The girl, a former polio victim, was eldest of four Stasik children. Also watching the futile efforts to revive the child is her tearful grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Stasik.—AP Wirephoto.

Congress OK's Reorganization Of Department of Defense

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress passed a bill Thursday giving President Eisenhower authority to reorganize the Defense Department and streamline the chain of command.

The compromise measure sailed through the House and Senate within a matter of hours. Passage in both chambers was on a voice vote. The compromise apparently silenced early bitter opposition to the legislation.

Mr. Eisenhower is expected to sign the bill into law quickly. It gives him essentially what he asked for to make the Pentagon changes.

"The result for America," the President said Wednesday, "will be a more efficient and more economical national defense."

While the reorganization bill progressed through Congress, Secretary of Defense McElroy appeared before a Senate Armed Services subcommittee to report on the present state of defenses.

Citing the recent landings of U.S. armed forces in Lebanon, McElroy said "Our forces are ready and . . . can move rapidly to those parts of the world where they are needed."

The reorganization bill reduces the power of the individual service secretaries and their military chiefs.

It provides a clear-cut command system for the kind of forces most often used in modern wars — teams composed of selected elements of one, two or more services. Once the service committed units to the task force it could not withdraw them without approval of the Secretary of Defense.

Sen. Dennis N. Chavez (D-NM), manager of the gigantic money bill, reported the senators added $108,700,000 for 13 more long-range jet B-52G bombers. The House had provided funds for 39.

Another $111,189,000 would provide 30 additional KC-135 jet tankers of the type that recently set new transoceanic speed records.

As the bill goes to the Senate for action possibly next week, it would provide these service funds: Army — $9,074,000,000 plus 325 million of transfer funds. Navy and Marines — $11,422,000,000 plus 160 million of transfer funds. Air Force — $18,160,000,000.

The balance goes to Defense Department administration and inter-service activities.

Phony Doctor Nabbed For Passing Bad Checks

DUBUQUE (AP) — A man sought by police in five cities for allegedly passing bogus checks was arrested here Thursday.

Police identified him as Ralph Lucas, 67, Ackley, whom officers said was a self-styled cancer doctor. He was located at a Dubuque hotel where he was registered under the name of "Ed Smith," officers said.

They said they had sought Lucas since last May 30 when he allegedly passed a worthless check in a cafe here.

Officers said a cafe employee told them Lucas asked to cash a check, saying he was to give a cancer lecture at a Dubuque hospital and had forgotten to bring any money from his home in Newton.

Tough Walls Needs Joshua In Suicide Attempt

MALIBU, Calif. (AP) — James Sidney McDonald tried to commit suicide Thursday by hitting himself on the head with a building, the sheriff's office reported.

Dep. John Sheeley said McDonald told him:

He was despondent about being out of work so he drove his sports car through a plate glass door at the front of a drug store on the coast highway.

This didn't turn the trick so he drove around inside the store, trying to knock the walls down so the roof would collapse and kill him.

This didn't work either, so he cut himself with glass, but inflicted only superficial wounds.

Somehow, a fire got started. McDonald decided to report it. He went to a nearby fire station, then returned and offered to help firemen.

Deputies said the 38-year-old man was booked on suspicion of arson and would be taken to a hospital for observation.

Store owners estimated damage at $75,000.

6 HOURS

In at 11 — Out at 5
Yes — that's all it takes at YOUNG'S

Photo-finishing at its best. Bring your film in by 11 a.m. and have beautiful quality prints by 5 p.m. — same day.

Young's Studio
3 S. Dubuque Dial 9138

ALWAYS
Ask for and Insist on

Rich Brand

MEAT PRODUCTS

at Your Favorite Food Store

C. E. RICHARD & SONS

MEAT PACKERS

Muscatine, Iowa

Mideast at a Glance

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON — Western Big Three consultations slowed down the Soviet rush toward a U.N. summit meeting. But a history-making session in New York seemed virtually certain within a few weeks.

MOSCOW — Premier Khrushchev declared at a Kremlin reception hotheads holding important government posts in some countries are trying to start a new war. He named no names. The Soviet press leveled fresh blasts at the United States and President Eisenhower.

LONDON — Britain welcomed Premier Khrushchev's response but rejected Soviet charges that American and British landings in Lebanon and Jordan have imperiled Middle East peace.

UNITED NATIONS — Many diplomats felt that whatever achievements come from the projected meeting will result from private talks among East-West leaders, with the Security Council doing little more than putting on its stamp of approval.

BEIRUT — President Nasser was reported plagued by Communist disorders in northern Syria just as Iraqi rebels, avowedly anti-Com-

Hussein Hopes To Save Iraq From Becoming Soviet Satellite

LONDON (AP) — Jordan's King Hussein said in a BBC-TV interview Thursday night he is preparing with free world help to save Iraq from becoming a Soviet satellite.

He declined to say what active measures he proposes against the regime that overthrew the monarchy in Iraq last week, set up a Nasser-style republic, and declared an end to the Arab federation of Jordan and Iraq.

Britain sent parachute troops to Jordan last week in answer to Hussein's plea for help against any such coup in Jordan.

The young monarch accused the Soviet Union of inspiring revolution in the Middle East as part of a grand plan to destroy Arab nationalism and turn Arab countries into Soviet satellites.

"The plan, it seems, also calls for the Communists to control the oil fields of the Arab world," Hussein said. "It would be a tremendous blow to the free world."

"We are preparing with the aid of our friends in the free world, and I hope very soon we shall be able to save Iraq from what she has fallen into — and that is the Communist orbit."

Hussein expressed belief that President Nasser of the United Arab Republic, "the men in Baghdad and the men in Syria are all working for the Communists."

Two drivers were fined in police court Thursday for traffic violations.

Gerald P. Duffy, 204 W. Benton St., pleaded guilty to a charge of failing to have his car under control, and was fined $20 and costs. The charge followed an accident on the Rohrer road Tuesday.

A second violator, Betty A. Kosa, 340 Hutchinson Ave., was fined $7.50 and costs for failing to stop for a red light.

2 POPULAR HARRIS HOTELS IN New York City

TIMES SQUARE

HOTEL 41st St. West of Broadway

1000 Fine Rooms from $4.00

LA-4-9500

KNICKERBOCKER

HOTEL 45th Street East of Broadway

400 Excellent Rooms from $4.00

LA-4-4200

Pan Ready EACH

Frying CHICKENS

59¢

PORK LOINS 1/2 or Whole lb. 59¢

Center Cut PORK CHOPS lb. 79¢

First Cut PORK CHOPS lb. 55¢

Brown or Powdered Hy-Vee

SUGAR

3 1-lb. boxes 39¢

COFFEE

69¢

lb.

Golden Ripe

BANANAS

10¢

lb.

U.S. No. 1 WHITE POTATOES

10 lbs 49¢

ARKANSAS No. 1 PEACHES

Bushel $2.98

Bskt

Hy VEE

Chocolate-Vanilla-Strawberry ICE CREAM

59¢

1/2 Gal.

Betty Crocker

CAKE MIX

89¢

3 Boxes

Free PKG Betty Crocker Frosting MIX

With Each 3 Boxes Cake Mix

LAST WEEK

TO REGISTER FOR

FREE COLORADO

Vacation for 2

Hy-Vee

FOOD STORES

227 Kirkwood

Open Weekdays 9 A.M. to 9 P.M.

Open Sundays 9 A.M. to 6 P.M.