A Fighting Bid in Alaska

By GEORGE DIXON

The four presidental candidates in the U.S. Senate from the state of Alaska are making a spirited struggle for the nomination to the U.S. Senate. The race is said to be one of the most hotly contested in the history of the state. The Democratic party candidates are leading in the primary election, but it is not certain whether they will be able to win.

The most prominent of the candidates is Senator John Dewey, who has been in the Senate for more than 20 years. He is a strong proponent of the national government and is known for his ability to make effective speeches. His opponent is Senator John Brown, who is a strong supporter of the state government and is known for his ability to make effective speeches. The race is said to be one of the closest in the history of the state.

The Republican party candidates are also making a spirited struggle for the nomination. Senator John Wise, who has been in the Senate for more than 10 years, is leading in the primary election. His opponent is Senator John Smith, who is a strong supporter of the national government and is known for his ability to make effective speeches. The race is said to be one of the closest in the history of the state.

Hutchinson Baltimore-Bound

Orioles, Richards Nix Idea

CHICAGO — Paul Richards, field and front office head of the Baltimore Orioles, met with Ed Wilansky, general manager of the Chicago White Sox, Tuesday afternoon to discuss the possible transfer of Eddie Setzer.

Setzer was acquired by the Orioles earlier in the month and is under contract to the White Sox. Richards said the transaction could be completed as early as Friday.

Richards and Wilansky discussed the matter for about 20 minutes.

Said Richards after the meeting:

"We have not been able to resolve the problem and we will continue to work on it."
‘Need to Look For Reasons’

To get children’s cooperation, doctors need to look for reasons underlying the children’s behavior. Studies of children’s cooperation have shown that children who are cooperative are more likely to have a reason to cooperate. U.S. Schools Don’t Impress ‘Average’ Guest from Europe

By ARTHUR EDSON

Life in a foreign country with exchange programs is, by its very nature, challenging. It is, therefore, quite common for American students to be intimidated by the differences they encounter. Many students report feeling unprepared for the culture shock that comes with visiting a foreign country.

HELPERS

At the moment, several American students are helping to promote the idea of exchange programs in their home country. These helpers are known as ‘average guests.’ They are often invited to speak to groups of American students about their experiences abroad.

Worker Safe
After Swim
From Tunnel

COUGAR WALKS — A workman trapped nose-deep in swill and facing death inside a sewer in Des Moines yesterday, was pulled out of the tunnels and returned to safety.

The dark hole did not stick out of rock as Charles B. Mc-
Gill, one of three workers who had ventured into the manhole, later explained. But when their safety manhole cover was lifted, the depth of the manhole was 5 feet, 9 inches. The manhole is 10 feet wide and 10 feet deep, he said.

The manhole is in the Des Moines Southside Sewage Plant. The manhole was 5 feet wide and 15 feet long. A manhole cover was 4 feet wide and 3 feet deep.

The cover was lifted about 10 minutes after noon yesterday, a Des Moines City police officer said.

A 10-year-old 7th-grade student of Ralston Junior High School, was killed yesterday when he fell from a涉嫌 hazardous material.

Hoffa Claims Power To Use
Union Funds as He Sees Fit

WASHINGTON — Teamsters Union President Jimmy Hoffa denied yesterday that he had ever spent the money of his union in any way that a federal law prohibits.

Fearing disclosure of a new charge of misusing union funds, Hoffa was speaking at a news conference after near-ly being charged for the first time with violating an anti-corruption law that he had written himself.

Hoffa denied his office in a telephone interview yesterday that he had ever used union funds to pay for his personal expenses.

The news conference was called to announce a new charge of misusing union funds.

Hoffa also denied that he had ever violated any law that he had written himself.
