UAW Ends Strike Against Ford

Corporation Formed To Run Little Rock Schools

Agreement Reached On 3-Year Pact

Settlement Will Affect Chrysler, GM Contracts

BY CHARLES C. CAHN

Des Moines Register

The United Auto Workers (UAW) and the Ford Motor Co. agreed Wednesday on a new 3-year contract. Several hours after some 86,000 workers walked off the job, the two sides announced an agreement that will prevent a strike.

In announcing the settlement, bargainers said in a joint statement that the contract was "fair to the workers and the company and the American people.

The UAW had announced Tuesday that it would walk off the job Wednesday if a strike could not be avoided. The workers were expected to return to work Thursday.

The new Ford contract covers 86,000 UAW workers who are employed in 39 plants across the country.

The agreement was reached Wednesday just hours after the UAW had announced it was proceeding with a strike.

The UAW had been seeking a new contract for about a year.

The new Ford contract is based on a 1977 agreement, which expired at midnight Tuesday. It calls for a 3-year contract with no across-the-board raises, but does provide for cost-of-living increases for the duration of the contract.

A strike would have been "very bad," the UAW said, and would have forced the company to resume nuclear weapon tests.

The new Ford contract was reached as the UAW was also trying to negotiate new contracts with the General Motors Corp. and the Chrysler Corp.

Teamsters Union Named In $605,454 Damage Suit

FIELDHOUSE (1. 11) - The Teamsters Union, several of its locals and backer Olan Mills, Inc., filed a Federal District Court action here yesterday to recover $605,454 in supposed damages for allegedly being the victim of a $28,000 kidnap racket.

The suit contains the trademarks "Olan Mills" and "Olan Mills Camera" and was filed by William F. Olan, president of Olan Mills, Inc., and Carl M. Olan, vice president.

The defendants are a group of seven former employees of Olan Mills, Inc., and backer Olan Mills, Inc., who were arrested last week on charges of the alleged kidnap racket.

U.S. Fills Red Bid for UN Talks on A-Ban Propaganda

BY J. H. ROBERTS

American diplomats are counting on a new round of talks in Geneva, scheduled to start next week, as a desperate, last-minute appeal to United Nations members to agree on a ban on the testing of nuclear weapons.

The talks are scheduled to begin on Tuesday and are expected to last for three weeks.

If the talks fail, the United Nations may be forced to take more drastic measures, such as imposing economic sanctions or even military action.

The United Nations, through its International Atomic Energy Agency, has been struggling for years to bring about a permanent test ban on nuclear weapons.

The talks are expected to focus on the issue of whether a test ban treaty is feasible and on the proposed terms for such a treaty.

Representatives To Meet With Schwenglen on Lake

Representatives of various organizations interested in the development of recreation facilities on the Great Lakes were scheduled to meet with H. Frank Schwenglen, president of Lake County Conservation Board, to discuss the possible development of a permanent conservancy organization to locate, plan, design and build recreational facilities on Lake Michigan.

The meeting is expected to take place later this month.

AF Officers Enrolled in SUI Course

The Air Force Officer Training School at Fort Benning, Georgia, is starting a new course in suicide prevention, which will focus on helping air force officers identify and deal with the signs of suicide.

The course, which is being offered to all new officers at the school, will cover topics such as recognizing the signs of suicide, preparing for intervention, and implementing effective suicide prevention strategies.

Students will learn about the risk factors associated with suicide and the warning signs to look for in themselves and others.

They will also learn about strategies for preventing suicide, including how to approach someone who may be suicidal and how to provide support.

Swimming Bids for UN Talks on A-Ban Propaganda

Swimming bids are expected to be placed on the table during the upcoming talks in Geneva, which are aimed at finding a way to halt the testing of nuclear weapons.

The talks are taking place amid growing concern about the threat posed by nuclear weapons to global security and the environment.

Several countries, including the United States, have called for a ban on nuclear weapons testing as a way to reduce the risk of nuclear war and to limit the spread of nuclear technology.

However, other countries, such as Russia and China, have expressed reservations about a ban and have called for further negotiations before any decision is made.

The talks are expected to last for several weeks and will involve representatives from several countries, including the United States, Russia, China, France, and the United Kingdom.

The United States has been among the countries pushing for a ban on nuclear weapons testing, while Russia and China have been more cautious and have expressed concerns about the potential impact on their own security.
Foil Spahn's Bid For 21st Victory, 5-3

ST. LOUIS - The St. Louis Cardinals have manager, Bob Ruhsen replaced in the penultimate game with the five victories, as the Cubs did Wednesday night.
