U.S. 7th Fleet In Dramatic Airlift Rescue

TAIPEI (AP) — The U.S. 7th Fleet put an airlift into operation Friday and rescued 132 passengers whose ship ran aground after leaving Red China.

"When human life is at stake we make no distinction in political beliefs," Vice Adm. Frederick N. Kivette, 7th Fleet commander, said.

The flagship, the heavy cruiser Helena, dashed across the South China Sea from war exercises off the Philippines to the Nationalist-held Paracel Islands for the mercy mission on a plea from the stranded craft, the 3,405-ton Hoiwong, flying the Norwegian flag.

The Hoiwong, outbound to Singapore from Red Swatow on Formosa Strait, had run hard aground on Bamboo Reef in the Paracels, 420 miles southwest of Hong Kong, at 2:30 a.m. Monday. The hull was punctured and the No. 2 hold flooded. Heavy seas battered the ship.

U.S. naval headquarters here told of the rescue:

Two helicopters handled the transfer, flying above heavy seas that precluded removal of the passengers by routine methods. Two Hong Kong tugs had failed in an effort to float the Hoiwong. A freighter stood by helplessly.

Most of the passengers were women and children en route to their homes in Singapore and elsewhere; after visiting relatives on the Communist-ruled mainland.

Sailors broke out ice cream and candy for distribution to the children as they landed on the cruiser and showed them cartoon movies.

The Helena expected to land the passengers Saturday at Hong Kong, a British crown colony.

1-In-10 Odds Against Moon Shot

WASHINGTON (AP) — Although there was no official announcement, the Air Force may have slated a cosmic forward pass for before dawn today. And while you're eating breakfast, a mighty Thor-Able may be on its way toward the moon.

If launched, the odds for even a partial success were no better than 1 in 10.

Unofficial reports were that the rockets with its unmanned satellite might be sent aloft early this morning.

The rocket would be aimed at a spot in space about 137,000 miles ahead of the moon's position at the time of launching. The hope is that the moon and the satellite would rendezvous somewhere near each other 2½ days later, just as a quarterback hopes a sprinting halfback will rendezvous with a forward pass thrown ahead of him.

But instead of yards, this celestial forward pass must travel some 221,000 miles — the distance between the earth and the moon at this particular time.

A Real Cool Horn

HARRY JAMES HAD IT MADE Friday night, compared to Ted Shelly's troubles with a horn Friday afternoon. A liberal arts sophomore from Manchester and a member of the SUI Marching Band, Ted found it a little chilly practicing for today's performance during the intermission of the Iowa-Indiana football game. The sudden chill Friday, which is expected to carry over through today, caused the band members to don jackets and gloves for their practice session. Harry James? Oh yes, he played a Dad's Day concert in the nice, warm Iowa Memorial Union Friday night.

Will Hear Appeals Starting At 8 a.m. —

Student Traffic Court Begins

By CHERYL JENNISCH
Staff Writer

Starting today SUI students can appeal all ticket violations of University traffic regulations to the Student Council traffic court.

The court of five student justices will hear appeals every Saturday morning from 8 to 11 a.m. in the Recreational Area Conference Room of the Iowa Memorial Union.

Chief justice of the court is Keith Burgett, L3, Guthrie Center. Other justices are Pat Smith, A2, Elmhurst, Ill.; Dave Coppin, A3, Elmhurst, Ill.; Dave Hoyt, A3, Los Angeles, Calif.; and Don Lindholm, A3, Burlington.

Students can appeal tickets by filling out a form provided by the court and submitting it with their ticket within 48 hours from the date appearing on the ticket.

Each student justice, Burgett said, will read the appeal prior to the court hearing and decide if the appeal merits a hearing. If a hearing is granted, the student will be notified by mail when he is to appear.

Students appearing before the court will have the right to counsel and witnesses of his choice. The court will work in close cooperation with the campus police and if necessary the campus police will attend the hearings, Burgett said.

Burgett emphasized that students are welcome to bring in any evidence they feel is necessary. The court will have full authority to uphold, modify, suspend or dismiss a ticket, Burgett said.

No faculty members, he added, will be present at the hearings. Faculty and staff violations of University parking regulations will not be heard by the student court.

After hearing the appeal the justices will decide what action is to be taken and the student will be notified by mail of the court's decision. Failure to appear at a scheduled hearing will mean the dismissal of the appeal, Burgett said.

Three justices must be present to hear an appeal. Every justice of the court will have read the appeal before it comes up for a hearing. This is the first attempt at utilizing a student court at SUI. Previously violations were handled by the University Parking Committee.

The court was planned last year through the efforts of Student Council and the University Parking Committee. The justices were chosen last spring after receiving nominations from the Associated Women Students, Men's Dormitories, Married Students, Interfraternity Council and Town Men.

Burgett said that the justices have become completely acquainted with the parking regulations.

All student justices must be approved by the Student Council and the Dean of Students. No first semester freshmen may serve on the court and each justice must not have a grade point lower than that required for graduation from his respective college.

Removal of a justice requires both the recommendation of the Dean of Students and a two-thirds vote of the Student Council.

Saturday morning was chosen as the best time possible, Burgett said, in order to avoid class conflicts. Students may come and listen to the appeals even if they don't have a complaint.

"We'll try to be as open minded, fair and judicious as possible," Burgett commented. He added that all the justices are human and mistakes can happen. "We know, Burgett said, "that the success of the traffic court system depends on those of us who are working the present Court."

U.S. Accuses Red China Of Violation Of Secrecy

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States accused Red China Friday of giving other nations distorted information about its secret negotiations with the United States on the Formosa crisis.

A State Department spokesman said the Reds are trying to put over a false picture of themselves as "champions of peace and sweet reasonableness."

He said actually all the world knows the attacks on Quemoy Island which touched off the crisis were started by the Chinese Communists themselves on Aug. 23.

The accusation came soon after U.S. Ambassador Jacob Beam had met Red envoy ang Ping-nan in Warsaw for the latest of the series of talks they started four weeks ago.

U.S. leaders hope that either in or out of the Warsaw talks the Reds will declare their intention to continue the 7-day cease-fire now in force in the Formosa area beyond next Sunday.

The State Department is trying to overcome what it considers to be a false impression in many countries that the Reds have been making a real effort at Warsaw to find a basis for serious negotiations toward a Formosa agreement.

The State Department spokesman, press officer Lincoln White, declined at a news conference to give any detailed support for the distortion charge. He said he could not talk about what has been said by the Red Chinese ambassador at Warsaw since it was agreed at the outset not to make public disclosure of the exchanges.

Nuclear Tests Might Sneak By Monitors

WASHINGTON (AP) — Doubt is being expressed in some Defense Department quarters about the value of a proposed global system of detecting sneak nuclear tests, in the event an agreement is reached on banning further tests.

The proposed detection system presumably will figure heavily in U.S.-British-Russian talks on a test suspension which are scheduled to start Oct. 31 at Geneva.

The outlines for a detection system were considered by East-West scientists at a preliminary technical meeting in Geneva last summer. But scientists agreed an effective system could be set up if about 180 inspection stations could be spotted around the globe, without regard to political boundaries.

Against Halting Tests Both the Defense Department and the Atomic Energy Commission have argued for years against the idea of halting nuclear weapons tests.

In talking about the proposed detection system, one military scientist put it this way: The system considered at the technical sessions in Geneva probably would disclose test explosions which produced large quantities of radioactivity. Therefore, it could be of important value for health safety purposes.

But from the military standpoint there are at least three major loopholes cited:

Very high altitude tests — actually in the realms of space — could not be detected. These would be nuclear explosions of ballistic missiles fired far out beyond the 40-60 mile heights used in last summer's Pacific tests. Future tests may be made at altitudes ranging from one to several thousand miles.

Difficult to Detect Shallow underground tests would be difficult to detect or identify at any substantial distance. If a nuclear explosion is conducted at comparatively shallow depth in light soil, not close to bedrock, the soil dampens the shock wave and muffles it. Seismographic detection is reduced or rendered useless. The fact that the explosion is subsurface means that little or no radioactive material gets into the atmosphere to send tell-tale traces out for pickup by air sampling methods.

The comparatively tiny atomic blasts from low-flying or balloons produce only faint seismographic recordings and often mere wisps of radioactivity in the air.

All of these types of explosions are of interest to nuclear weaponeers.

Clair Hamilton
Judith Hamilton's Dad

Football, Fun And Favors— All For Dad

SUI Dads are the Big Men On Campus today, and among the more prominent dads this year are Clair Hamilton, 1958 SUI Dad of the Year, and Gov. Herschel Loveless.

Both men have daughters at SUI; Judith Hamilton is a senior in liberal arts, and Sandi Loveless a freshman.

SUI President Virgil M. Hancher will address Dads Association members, their families and guests following a Dad's Day luncheon at 11 a.m. in the North Gymnasium of the Fieldhouse.

Election of new officers and a round-up of Dads Association activities by Edward C. Halbach, Clinton, retiring president of the organization, will follow President Hancher's speech.

A concert honoring all SUI fathers will be presented at half-time of the football game today by the SUI Marching Band under the direction of Frederick C. Ebbs. During the ceremonies, SUI Dad Hamilton will be introduced, as well as the fathers of the men on the SUI football team.

The keynote of the band's performance will be the word "key". The routine will include formations of a jail key in a lock; Big Ben's tower formed to the tune of "Syncopated Clock" and accompanying chimes; a piano and keys playing Tchaikovsky's "Piano Concerto"; Her-key Hawk; and a big key to the campus Dad, along with the strains of "The Man I Love."

Van Doren Has Faith In TV Quizzes

NEW YORK (AP) — Charles Van Doren, one of the big winners on the television quiz show "Twenty-one," was questioned Friday in the district attorney's investigation of charges that some quiz shows were rigged.

Details of the interview were not disclosed, but Van Doren told reporters before his talk with an assistant district attorney: "It's silly and distressing to think that people don't have more faith in quiz shows."

Local Attorney Honored As Ideal Father

Will Be Presented At Game Today

Clair E. Hamilton, Iowa City attorney, was named SUI Alumni Dad of 1958 at the Dad's Day Concert Friday night at the Iowa Memorial Union.

Hamilton, the father of Judith Hamilton, A4, will be presented again during half-time ceremonies at the Iowa-Indiana football game today.

"I can't really tell you how wonderful he is, it's just something that I feel and lots of other people feel — but you can't put it in words," Judy said.

But Judy did put her feelings for her father in words — she convinced the members of Omicron Delta Kappa, honorary men's leadership fraternity who sponsor the SUI Alumni Dad.

Steve Shadle, president of the fraternity, presented Hamilton to SUI students and their Dads for the first time during intermission at the Harry James concert, Friday.

"My father has devoted himself to a life of service wherever he was needed: in his home, his community, his church, his University and his state," Judy wrote in her application.

A 1921 graduate from the College of Law, Hamilton is the father of four children who all attended SUI. "It has just been a tradition that we all go to SUI. One of the reasons I wanted Dad to get this honor was because I'm the last one," Judy said excitedly after she learned that her father had been selected.

Family First "The University and its activities comes second only to the family. I remember one time Dad jokingly said that the money we spend on tickets to University athletic events is more than the grocery bill — and he was almost right.

"Dad never misses a football, basketball or baseball game," Judy said. He is president of the Iowa City Quarterback Club, a member of the I Club and often accompanies the SUI baseball team when they go on spring training trips.

"And he plays golf, too. I think his several golf trophies are among his prize possessions.

"Although Dad is busy at the office and has become very involved in civic and church activities, he always has time to do things with the family," Judy said.

Hamilton is a member of the Johnson County Bar Association and is now serving on the judiciary administration committee of the Iowa Bar Association.

Civic Leader He is a past commander of the Roy L. Chopek American Legion Post and was the first president of the Iowa City Council-Manager Association.

Three of Hamilton's four children, Joseph, Greensboro, N.C.; Prudence, now Mrs. Richard Smith, Lewiston, Idaho, and Judy, who is a member of the SUI Highlanders, will be at the football field today when he is presented during half-time ceremonies.

His other daughter, Connie, now Mrs. George Athanas of Boston, Mass. was here this week but could not stay for the game today.

Weather Forecast

Crisp, slightly chilly breezes expected to hit football fans. Temperatures in the low 60s. Fair skies.

Forecasts for the weekend call continued sunshine and somewhat warmer temperatures.

Silent Red Chinese Guns

Political Implications Of The Cease-Fire

By J. M. ROBERTS
Associated Press News Analyst
The biggest question in the world's chancelleries today is whether the Chinese Reds will resume shelling the off-shore islands Sunday night.

The general opinion seems to be that they will not. There is no way of telling how much this opinion is influenced by wishful thinking. The chief basis for it seems to be a belief among diplomats that resumption would clearly identify this use of force as a typical off-again example of Communist political tactics and cost the Reds heavily among Asiatic neutrals.

160 Freshmen In Honors Program

A new program providing special educational challenges for some 160 top freshmen is now underway at SUI.

Designed to benefit superior students, the Honors Program will provide at least 12 semester hours of honors work during the junior and senior years, including special discussion groups, independent study and the preparation of research papers.

Honors students will take the same courses as other freshman and sophomore students, but some special sections will be set up in such introductory courses as American Government and Western Civilization, according to Rhodes Dunlap, professor of English and director of the Honors Program.

Each student in the program will have a faculty sponsor who will act as a guide through both curricular and extra-curricular activities. By the fall of 1959, at least 300 students are expected to be in the program, with some students entering after demonstrating their abilities as freshmen and sophomores.

Dennis M. Tate
Ex-SUIowan In Play

Former SUI Student Has Play Lead

Former SUI student Dennis M. Tate is playing the leading role in "Tobias and the Angel," which opened Oct. 8 at the Karamu House Players Theatre, Cleveland, Ohio.

Tate has been with the Karamu House Players, a well-known Cleveland drama group, for three years. He has done general technical work, played supporting roles in four professional productions, and once served as assistant director.

While at SUI Tate handled WSUI's "Jazz Time" program of pop and jazz music for one year.

Tate's mother, Mrs. Junious Tate, 914 S. Dubuque St., is a charter member and program chairman of the Iowa City Community Theatre. Mr. and Mrs. Tate flew to Cleveland this week for the opening night performance.

67 Will Attend Cosmetology Clinic

Sixty-seven Iowans have registered in advance to attend the first Cosmetology Conference and Clinic to be held at the SUI next week.

A part of the SUI Program of Continuing Education, the conference has been planned in cooperation with the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association of Iowa and is endorsed by the division of cosmetology of the Iowa State Department of Health and the Iowa Beauty Culture School Association.

Afternoon duties will feature Lee Self, Texas hair stylist, and three assistants in demonstrations. Monday morning speakers will be John H. Schulze, associate professor of art at SUI; and William D. Coder, SUI coordinator of conferences.

Loveless, Foss Cancel Trips To Research Meeting

Governors Herschel C. Loveless of Iowa and Joe Foss of South Dakota will be unable to attend the Missouri Basin Research and Development Council (MBRDC) meeting at Bismarck, N.D., Oct. 14-16 as originally planned, according to Professor C. Woody Thompson, chairman of the council.

The two governors, who earlier planned to participate in the conference, will send representatives instead. Robert H. Johnson, administrative assistant to Governor Loveless, will represent the Iowa governor. Noel Tweet, director of the South Dakota Industrial Development and Expansion Agency, will represent Governor Foss. The two representatives will take part in a panel discussion, "The Need for an Integrated Research Program in the Missouri Basin States."

Gov. John E. Davis, of North Dakota, will speak to the group at the closing luncheon. Professor Thompson, head of the SUI Bureau of Business and Economic Research, will report on economic research projects of colleges and universities in the basin area.

The MBRDC serves to coordinate research among related state and Federal agencies concerned with the 10-state basin area which stretches west from Des Moines to the Rocky Mountains, Dr. Thompson said. Participating in the conference will be state and Federal officials, business executives, and university researchers.

Daughters Of 2 Music Profs To Perform At Piano Contest

Daughters of two SUI music faculty members, Herald Stark, professor of music, and Richard Herwig, associate professor of music, will perform in a state piano contest at the Iowa Music Teachers Association (IMTA) Convention in Sioux City Sunday and Monday.

The two girls, Jan Stark, 10, and Kristi Herwig, 15, are both pupils of John Sims, associate professor of music. They won first place in their respective age groups at a regional contest held Oct. 3.

19 SUIowans Receive Awards In Engineering

Nineteen SUI engineering students received $25 or $50 awards in a scholarship competition sponsored by the James F. Lincoln Arc Welding Foundation, Cleveland, O.

The foundation makes 46 awards each year recognizing the engineering ability of college undergraduates in the field of welded design.

Awards are made for both mechanical and structural designs which make a significant use of arc welding for improvement and lower costs.

Students who have graduated, receiving awards were: Linford H. Keesey, Coralville; Warren M. Wield, Waterloo; Wayne O. Hildebrand, Arlington Heights, Ill.; Arnold Prosser, Cedar Rapids; John J. Kass, Dubuque; James M. Sealy, Cedar Rapids; Rolyn E. Baack, Homestead; Lee Ingwersen, Davenport; Carl D. Wahlstrom, Forest View Trailer Park; Tedford Andrews, Cherokee; William Brogan, Sioux City; and Laurence Murray, Belmond.

Students still enrolled at SUI who received awards were: James E. Johnson, E4, South Park; James F. Beatty, E4, Quonset Park; Alfred S. Decker, E4, Marshalltown; John W. Schlue, E4, Cedar Rapids; Paul Rausch, E4, Rock Island, Ill.; Elmer F. Floyd, E4, Iowa City, and Teodora Segura, E4, Iowa City.

Radiology Course Ends For 50 Iowa Doctors

More than 50 Iowa doctors are attending a postgraduate course in radiology which ends today at SUI's College of Medicine.

The course was the fourth in a current annual series conducted by the SUI College of Medicine to help Iowa doctors remain abreast of the latest advances in various specialties of medicine.

GARBEE APPOINTED

FAYETTE (AP) — Dr. E. E. Garbee, president of Upper Iowa University, has been appointed to the state Board of Curators by Gov. Herschel Loveless.

Johnson County will again elect a State REPRESENTATIVE.

I am a candidate. I served as your state representative in 1951 and 1953.

How much the Representative of Johnson county can do for the University is a question. I tried to do my best for the University when I served you. But, apparently our present Representative thought that was not good enough. He opposed me in the election of 1952 and 1954 with this promise to you people:

"My grandfather was an SUI graduate. My father was an SUI graduate. I am an SUI graduate with B.A. and J.D. Law degrees. If you want a fighter for SUI in the legislature vote for me."

In 1952 I beat my opponent. In 1954 he beat me.

There's An Election Coming — A State Election.

Now both of us have served you in two legislative sessions: I in 1951 and 1953; he in 1955 and 1957. You now have a record for comparison.

If I am elected this time I hope to continue the service I gave you before. If I am defeated that obligation will not be on my shoulders. But you can't blame me for showing you the record. This is it:

A perusal of both the chart and the graph reveals these facts: From 1949 to 1953 embracing my service in the legislature the total appropriation for the University and the Hospital was increased from $16,126,000 to $25,327,838 or about 57 percent. From 1953 to 1957, embracing the services of my opponent, these appropriations were increased from $25,327,838 to $29,128,106 or about 15 percent.

Evy's Hawks Favored Against Surprising Hoosiers

Iowans Eye 16th Victory In 30th Fray

By LOU YOUNKIN
Sports Editor

The Iowa Hawkeyes open their Big Ten conference play today at 1:30 p.m. when they host the Indiana Hoosiers at Iowa Stadium in the annual Dads Day game.

This is the third straight year Iowa has opened its conference schedule against Indiana. The Hawks won, 27-0 in 1956 and 47-7 in 1957, both games being in Bloomington.

Coach Forest Evashevski's Iowans enter the game as the favorite for the second week in a row. A 3-touchdown choice over Air Force last week, the Hawkeyes had to come from behind to tie the surprising cadets, 13-13.

1-0-1 Record

Iowa enters the game with a

1-0-1 mark, having shutout Texas Christian 17-0 Sept. 27.

The Hoosiers, playing their first season under coach Phil Dickens, have won one and lost one. They dropped a hard-fought 18-0 decision to Notre Dame and then upset the Mountaineers of West Virginia 13-12.

The Notre Dame fracas was closer than the score indicates — the Irish pushed over a pair of TDs in the last seven minutes of the game to assure the win.

A rugged defense is the strong point of the Indiana game while Iowa's forte is an impressive offensive show so today's contest looms at a struggle between the immovable object and the irresistible force.

30th Meeting

It will be game No. 30 in the Indiana-Iowa series that dates back to 1912. The Hoosiers last victory over Iowa was a 20-13 nod in 1952. The Hawks have won 15, lost 10 and tied four against their rivals from Bloomington.

The five lineup changes made in practice this week by Evashevski are expected to continue today. Newcomers to the No. 1 unit are left halfback Kevin Furlong, fullback Don Horn, center Lloyd Humphreys, right guard Don Shipanik and right end Don Norton. Norton was off the first string only one week, but his strong play in the two Iowa games to date have re-won him a starting berth.

Furlong has been the "third halfback" for a couple years now and gets his first crack with the first team. Horn will be starting for the first time. The 191-pound Detroit junior has gained 37 yards in 10 runs this year.

Humphreys and Shipanik, both juniors from Chicago, were on the squad last year but did not letter. Returning starters The other starters probably will be Curt Merz at left end, John Burroughs at left tackle, Gary Grouwinkel at left guard, Randy Duncan at quarterback and Ray Jauch at right half.

Bill Gravel, the 2-letterman halfback who was a regular last season, worked out Friday afternoon with the second team, alternating with junior Bob Jeter.

Other second team members as of Friday were Al Miller and Bob Prescott, ends; Mac Lewis and Chuck Lee, tackles; Hugh Drake and Gerry Novack, guards; Bill

American candidate Duncan. In two games Randy has fired 40 aerials with 25 of them hitting the mark for 265 yards and two touchdowns for a completion average of 62.5 per cent — third best in the nation. He has had two intercepted. Iowa's top ground gainer to date has been Jeter with 126 yards gained on 15 attempts for an 8.4 yard average. Jauch is a close second with 114 yards on 16 rushes for a 7.1 yard average.

Norton paced the club in pass receptions with seven for 72 yards and one touchdown. Merz has grabbed six for 92 yards.

Single Wing Attack Indiana, which uses a single wing attack, has improved steadily on offense the past two weeks with a second-stringer, Ted Smith, the big gun in the ground attack. Last week Smith ripped off 47 and 53 yard touchdown gallops — the only two TDs for the Hoosiers so far.

Coach Dickens, who sat out last season for "over-recruiting," will probably open with Ted Auerman and John Aveni at the ends, Pete Piccirillo and Joe Moore at the tackles, Capt. Mike Rabold and Bill Kerr at the guards and Tony Aloisio at center.

Kerr is a 24-year-old sophomore from Steubenville, O., where he played high school ball with the famed Iowa trio of Frank Gilliam, Eddie Inwata and the late Calvin Jones.

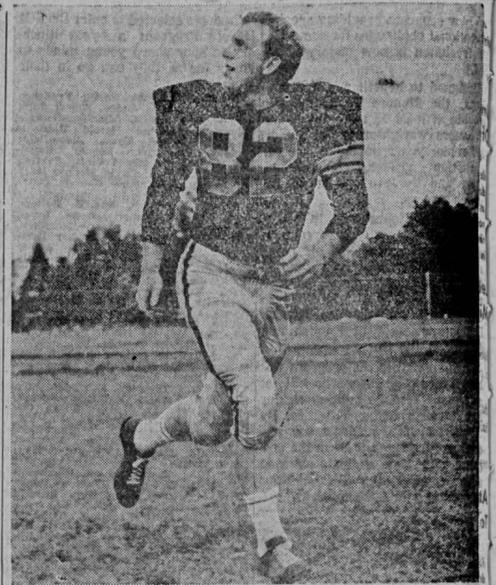

Hoosier Backfield

The backfield stacks up with Ken Hubbard at quarterback, Tom McDonald and Tom Campbell (or possible Smith) at halfbacks and Vic Jones at fullback.

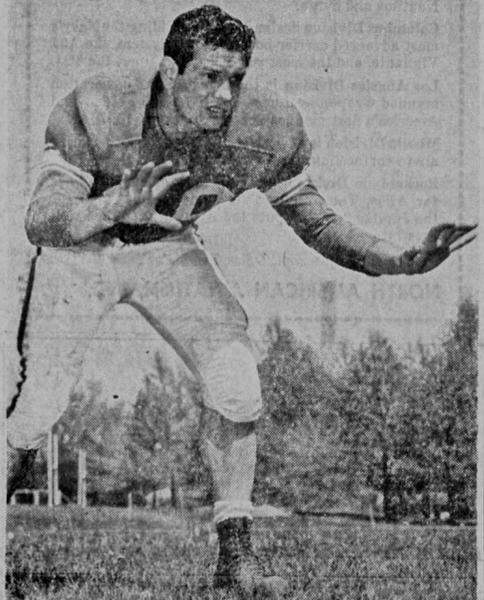

The two teams average weight is almost identical — Iowa averages 193 pounds and Indiana 192 pounds. The Hawks' line will average 291 pounds to 196 pounds for the Hoosiers.

In their opening game with TCU the Hawkeyes averaged 228 pounds per man up front, but with the rise of Sawin, Shipanik, and Humphreys to the first unit, the line has lost in weight and gained in mobility.

A crowd of over 50,000 is expected today with a forecast of fair skies but chilly weather in sight. This is the only game on the Iowa home schedule remaining that has not been sold out. Homecoming against Northwestern, Oct. 25; Ohio State Nov. 15 and Notre Dame Nov. 22 have been sold out for several weeks.

Army - Notre Dame Grid Special Today

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Army vs. Notre Dame, the only football rivalry to match Army-Navy in national interest, color and thrills, is renewed as the top attraction on today's college schedule.

The teams play the last in the two-game series—the original series was discontinued in 1947 after 34 consecutive years—and only the second time ever at South Bend, home of the Irish.

There is little to choose between the two. Army tops the nation in offense with its "lonesome end" and "bazooka" formations, while Notre Dame has a powerful multiple offense, and an iron-clad defense.

Cadets Rank 3rd

The Cadets are third ranked in the nation, the Irish No. 4 in The Associated Press poll. Army still is smarting from last year's 23-21 upset in Philadelphia on Monte Sickles fourth-quarter field goal.

No. 2 Oklahoma meets No. 16 Texas in the Southwest's top game of the day, and the renewal of another fierce rivalry. The Sooners still are getting over a 6-0 scrape in defeating Oregon last week. Texas is undefeated in three games.

Top-ranked Auburn faces a sleeper in Southeastern Conference rival Kentucky. The Wildcats have a 2-1 record but have an explosive-type offense that will put Shug Jordan's great defense to a real test.

O.S. vs. Illinois

Fifth-ranked Ohio State faces Big Ten opponent Illinois in the national television game of the day (NBC-TV, 1 p.m. CST). The Bucks just beat Washington 12-7 last week while the Illini were surprised by Duke 15-13.

Wisconsin and Purdue, No. 6 and 13 respectively, meet in a Big Ten battle that could be the most evenly matched game of the day. Both are unscored on in winning their first two games, with the Badgers ringing up 70 points, the Boilermakers 52.

Mississippi, seventh ranked takes on Tulane in a Southeast Conference game. The Rebels are hard put this season to maintain their ranking, with two first stringers gone because of injury and three on the doubtful list.

MSU Tries Pitt

Eighth-ranked Clemson puts its multiple-T offense to a test against Vanderbilt, while Michigan State No. 9 meets 10th-ranked Pitt. The Panthers will try to solve State's multiple offense with a line that has smothered three opponents.

Navy puts its 12th-ranking on the line against Michigan, which held Michigan State to a 12-12 tie last week. The Wolverines, No. 14 used two different attacks in two weeks, while Navy is countering with the passing of Joe Tranchini, and must play without tackle Bob Reifshyder and back Joe Bellino, out with injuries.

Oregon, No. 15, stacks the defense that almost stopped Oklahoma last week, against Southern California in a Pacific Coast Conference game. Iowa, No. 17, still a bit surprised by that 13-13 tie with the Air Force Academy, meets Indiana, a 13-12 conqueror of West Virginia last Saturday.

Meredith Leads SMU

Quarterback and superb passer Don Meredith is a doubtful quantity as 18th ranked Southern Methodist meets Missouri. Meredith was on crutches all week after being injured against Notre Dame.

Colorado plays Arizona and Houston meets Wichita in a Missouri Valley game to round out the top 20.

In the East Holy Cross-Dartmouth and Marquette at Penn State tops a card, which also sees a pair of Ivy League games. Georgia Tech-Tennessee meet in the Southeast Conference, while North Carolina State-Wake Forest top the Atlantic Coast Conference card.

Baylor comes from the Southwest to play Duke, while neighbor Texas A&M journey's to Maryland in other top games.

Texas Christian-Texas Tech and Rice-Arkansas top the Southwest, with the Air Force Academy at Colorado State, Oregon State at Wyoming and Stanford playing host to Washington in the Far West.

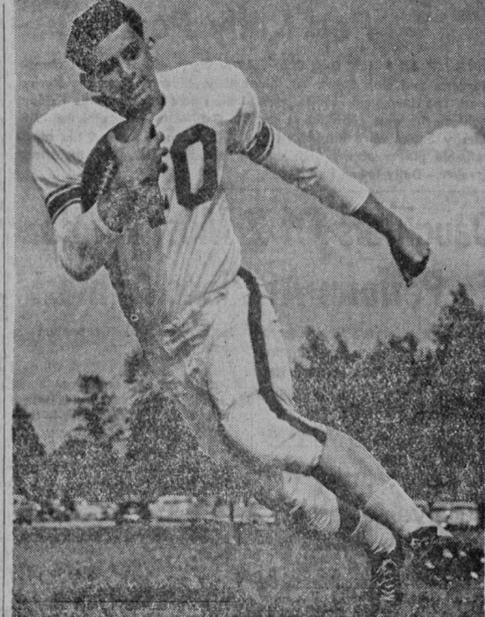

U-High, City Preps Score Grid Wins

University and City High School's earned football victories here Friday night.

U-high griddeers picked up their fifth consecutive win of this season, downing West Branch 27-13. City High's eleven upset Clinton, 20-13, for their third straight win against two losses.

Bobby Boyd Wins Unanimous Decision From Jim Beecham

CHICAGO (AP) — Bobby Boyd won a unanimous decision from Jimmy Beecham of Miami Friday night in an action-packed, 10-round bout at Chicago Stadium. Boyd weighed 160, Beecham 159 1/2.

Boyd piled up an early lead and managed to hold on in the later rounds when Beecham began scoring with an effective left hook that usually found its mark.

Boyd Hurt

Beecham appeared to be out of the running in the fifth round. But he came on and appeared the stronger of the two in the final rounds. In the sixth he hurt Boyd with a hard right to the jaw.

All three officials gave Boyd an edge of two or more points in the nationally televised bout scored on the five-point must system.

Only one decisive round emerged from the fight and that was the fifth when Boyd caught Beecham with a left hook over the right eye. The eye took on a mouse but remained open throughout the 10 rounds.

Brisk Opening

Both of the 24-year olds started off at a tremendous pace and kept it up through the first seven rounds. In the eighth, they appeared to tire. The action didn't pick up again until midway in the tenth round.

The victory was the 50th against 10 losses and three draws for Boyd. Beecham now has 24 victories, 7 losses and one draw.

Sports Scribe Says Chances 50-50 Casey Will Quit Yanks

NEW YORK (AP) — The Casey Stengel guessing game is on again. Will he quit as New York Yankee manager? Will he sign a new contract?

The New York Post's Sports Columnist Jimmy Cannon introduced a new element Friday when he said dissension had split the high command with Stengel on one side and General Manager George Weiss and co-owner Del Webb on the other. "The chances are 50-50 Casey Stengel will never put on a Yankee uniform again," wrote Cannon.

Before the print was dry the Yanks rushed out with a disparaging statement about the story.

Yanks Deny Story

"The story is utterly ridiculous and not worth of comment," said Bob Fishel, the Yanks' publicity director, who said he was speaking for both Stengel and Weiss.

"I doubt if there are two closer friends in baseball than Weiss and Stengel," Fishel said. "They even went home together last night after we got back from Milwaukee."

The Yanks will have a press conference with Stengel on hand early next week.

Great Triumph

The grizzled Yankee skipper scored his greatest triumph Thursday when he led the club to the greatest baseball comeback in 33 years. Even Stengel called it a "truly amazing comeback" to up-end Milwaukee after trailing 3-1 in games at one stage in the 1958 World Series.

Stengel spent much of Friday with a close friend from his home town, Glendale, Calif., and Weiss. He could not be reached by newsmen.

Stengel is finishing out a two-year contract. He reportedly draws about $75,000 a year. He is independently wealthy, owning several oil wells and is a director of a Glendale bank.

Casey Reprimanded

According to Cannon's story, Stengel was reprimanded by the front office when the Yanks slumped in the final months of the season after piling up a wide early lead. He said there has been disagreement because of Stengel's system of platooning players. This breach, Cannon said, was widened because Stengel got too much personal publicity that the front office thought should have gone to the organization.

Cannon said friends of Stengel in Glendale said he had spent his most miserable year of 10 as Yankee manager.

For several years now there have been stories that Stengel would step down. As long ago as 1952 he hinted he might retire because of his health.

3 Iowa Grid Games Set For Closed Circuit TV

DES MOINES (AP) — Closed circuit telecasts of three Iowa football games into Des Moines and Cedar Rapids have been set up by station KRNT-TV, Des Moines.

Station General Manager Robert Dillon said Friday that Iowa's home games against Northwestern, Oct. 25, and Ohio State, Nov. 15 and the game at Minnesota Nov. 8 will be televised into KRNT Theater in Des Moines and into the Coliseum in Cedar Rapids.

He said the Iowa-Michigan game at Ann Arbor on Nov. 1 is being considered for closed circuit telecast.

The Des Moines station will produce the closed circuit telecasts for both KRNT-TV and WMT-TV.

China Ready To Renew Off-Shore Bombardment

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Nationalist China girded Saturday for a renewal of the off-shore island war by pouring a massive build-up of munitions, supplies and troops to Quemoy.

Unemployment Decline Sign Of Continuing Recovery

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—President Eisenhower welcomed Friday a decline in unemployment as a sign of accelerating economic recovery. He said continuing recovery can be extended in the months ahead.

In a statement having political overtones, Mr. Eisenhower said it is noteworthy that employment conditions have improved "while the cost of living has been virtually stable."

Lebanon Fails To Form Military Cabinet, End Strife

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Hope of a quick solution to Lebanon's bloody five months of strife faded Friday with the failure to form a military cabinet.

Armed Moslem demonstrators milled through the streets demanding that Rashid Karami, a Moslem, remain premier of this half-Christian half-Moslem nation.

Karami had paved the way for a military cabinet by placing his resignation at the disposal of President Fuad Chehab, a Christian.

Attorneys Withdraw Motion To Reopen Norfolk Schools

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—Attorneys for 17 Negro pupils Friday withdrew a motion to reopen Norfolk's six integration-closed schools after a Federal judge said he would dismiss it because the proper parties were not made defendants.

The motion asked the school board be enjoined and "all persons in active concert or participation" with it from interfering with operation of the six schools under the court's integration order.

Race Riot Breaks Out In Trenton Prison; 2 Stabbed To Death

TRENTON, N.J. (AP)—A race riot broke out among 15 problem prisoners at state prison Friday.

One inmate, a Negro, was stabbed to death and another shot by a guard before the melee was halted by club-swinging prison officers.

Four other inmates were injured in the scuffle and taken to the prison hospital.

Warden George Goodman identified the dead man as Willard Jones, 28, of Camden. He died in the hospital from two stab wounds.

Goodman said he apparently was killed by a thin bed spring that had been straightened and honed to needle sharpness on a rock. Two weapons were recovered.

Eternal City Plunged Into Mourning Over Pope's Death

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The remains of Pius XII lay in state Friday night under the towering dome of St. Peter's Basilica.

Rome, the Eternal City whose faithful he served as bishop, was plunged into deep mourning.

While the great bells of St. Peter's tolled in a mournful dirge, the multitudes who cheered Pius throughout the 19 years of his reign looked on in grave silence, awed by the splendid solemnity attending the funeral of Roman Catholicism's spiritual and temporal sovereign.

The 261st supreme pontiff was borne in ancient, majestic splendor from Castel Gandolfo, his Summer Palace, through Rome to the seat of his reign, Vatican City.

Nearly a million persons lined the 18-mile route from Castel Gandolfo to Rome, standing in hushed tribute as the cortege passed by.

Here at the Vatican, hardly a whisper could be heard from the tremendous throng as the glass-walled hearse moved into the great square of St. Peter's dominated by statues of saints looking down from the massive Bernini colonnades.

A procession two miles long accompanied the pontiff's body from his Roman See, the Basilica of St. John Lateran. Scores of dignitaries of the Roman Catholic Church in their vestments, virtually all of Rome's multitude of priests, members of religious orders and uniformed members of the Vatican and Italian states walked behind the hearse bearing the red-draped coffin.

WSUI Helps Direct Football Game Traffic

Because of the combined efforts of SUI radio station WSUI and the Iowa Flying Club, motorists driving to Iowa football games on Saturdays can get an eagle's-eye view of traffic and road conditions.

For the past two Saturdays Roy Pollock, E5, Mt. Auburn, and Gibb Cuplin, A3, Iowa City have taken off in a little Piper J-3 aircraft at 10:45 a.m. to observe all highways leading into the city. They stay aloft for nearing two hours, sending back road information to be broadcast over WSUI.

The airplane belongs to the Iowa Flying Club, of which Pollock is president and Cuplin, vice president.

Communications Problem

One of the major problems in getting the project off the ground, Larry Walcott, assistant program director at WSUI said, was to devise a system of communication between the plane and the radio station.

On the first two football Saturdays, Pollock and Cuplin tried writing their observations of traffic conditions on small cards.

The cards were then put in a plastic bag weighted with pebbles and dropped from over 1000 feet on a marked area of old Finkbine golf course.

Waiting below for the information has been Mrs. Judy Walcott, who phones the reports to the radio station from her home at 1003 Finkbine Park.

Cuplin, who does the observing while Pollock pilots the plane, said that last Saturday he noticed a large traffic jam at the intersection of Highways 6 and 218.

He said that he included this information in his report to the radio station with the advice that motorists take the old 218 into Iowa City.

Could Save Time

"Anyone listening to the broadcasts," he said, "could have saved themselves some heavy traffic by following the advice."

The pilots are looking forward to today's flight, because they will be with WSUI for the first time. Two walkie-talkies have been loaned to the radio station by the SUI Department of Military Science.

If the radios work, Walcott says, the station will have continuous contact with the airplane and will be able to broadcast more than the two reports it has been airing each Saturday.

However Pollock and Cuplin are taking along their plastic bags today, just to be on the safe side.

Lodge Says U.S. Ready To Suspend Atom Tests

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge declared Friday the United States is ready to suspend nuclear weapons tests indefinitely provided there is reasonable year-to-year progress in other fields of disarmament.

But. Sov. Dep. Foreign Minister Valerian Zorin replied Moscow would agree to halt tests only if the United States and Britain accept an immediate ban "for all time."

He accused the Western Powers of doing all in their power to "barricade and block the way" toward agreement.

Western sources said the sharp U.S.-Soviet exchange in the U.N.'s 81-nation Political Committee foreshadowed possible failure of the U.S.-British-Soviet talks to begin in Geneva Oct. 31 on negotiating a test ban.

Lodge warned that if the Soviet Union continues its present tests after Oct. 31 the United States will call off its own 1-year test moratorium.

He asserted the U.S. offer to suspend tests is not conditional on existence of an entire disarmament plan.

Homecoming Activities —

Benny Goodman At Dance; 'High Barbary' Water Show

Iowa City is brimming with Dads today who, regardless of their alma mater, are tucking away mental notes to be sure to remember to return to SUI two weeks from today for Homecoming.

Although most of the Dads have had their Homecoming football tickets for ages, they are finding that the number of events scheduled for the entire Homecoming weekend will make them want to come early and stay late.

Benny Goodman and his orchestra will provide music for the annual Homecoming dance from 8 to 12 p.m. in the Union. Tickets will go on sale October 20, at $5 per couple. George Stevens, assistant director of the Union, said tickets would be sold only to students; however, if there are any left over on Saturday, they will be sold to the alumni.

Alumni Registration

Alumni registration will begin at noon in the Iowa Memorial Union and continue all day Saturday.

The Union open house, for everyone in Iowa City, will take place Friday night. Two bands will play, one in the River Room and the other in the cafeteria.

Departmental exhibits will be on display and coffee and donuts will be served. Football movies will be shown in the Pentacrest Room.

"High Barbary" is the Spanish theme of the 36th annual Dolphin show, Thursday through Saturday, Oct. 23 to 25. The 8 p.m. show Thursday will feature the crowning of the 1958 Dolphin Queen and her four attendants, who will also be presented at the 8:30 p.m. show Friday and both the 7 and 9 p.m. shows Saturday.

Homecoming will get into real activity when the mile-long parade begins to roll Friday evening, Oct. 24.

More than 800 high school musicians from various Iowa towns are scheduled to take part in the parade, along with the 28 floats from SUI housing units and groups, several city officials, and other organizations connected with the University and the community.

Pep Rally Friday

A pep rally to fire up enthusiasm for the Iowa-Northwestern gridiron battle Saturday will be held following the parade.

Saturday morning, Oct. 25, will begin with several events. Omicron Delta Kappa, men's honorary society, will host at their annual alumni breakfast at the Jefferson Hotel.

The Legislator and State Officials Luncheon will be held from 11:30

The Legislator and State Officials Luncheon will be held from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Saturday in the gymnasium at the Fieldhouse.

About 400 people are expected to attend, Bruce Mahan, professor and dean of the extension division, said. The Governor, other elected state officials, state legislature members and the U.S. congressmen from Iowa, were invited.

Music Program Added

A new addition to homecoming, a music program, will be given from 9 to 11 a.m. Saturday in the University Library.

Coffee will be served in the lounge for the first hour, followed by performances by the faculty string quartet, vocalists and pianists in Shambaugh Lecture Room.

The University Theater will present the play "Picnic" Thursday, Friday and Saturday of the Homecoming weekend.

After the football game, SUI fans are in hopes of burning the 1958 Corn Monument, to be constructed in front of Old Capitol. The Monument will put Herky on top of a satellite rocket, sitting on the letters "NW".

At any rate, it will be a busy weekend Dads, so get caught up on your sleep and start checking your calendars so you can take in all of the events.

CEYLON AMBASSADOR

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—President Eisenhower Friday appointed Lampton Berry of Columbia, Miss., to be U.S. ambassador to Ceylon.

The 50-year-old Berry will succeed Maxwell H. Gluck, who resigned. At present, Berry is deputy assistant secretary of state for Near Eastern and Southern Asian affairs.
