30 Million Fans Expected To See Big Ten Champs On TV

By LOU YOUNKIN
Sports Editor

The Fighting Irish of Notre Dame and the Iowa Hawkeyes square off today before a sellout crowd of 59,400 fans at Iowa Stadium plus a viewing audience of approximately 30 million people via NBC's National Game of the Week TV program. Game time is 1:30 p.m. Besides the television coverage two national radio networks—the American Broadcasting Company and the Mutual Broadcasting Company—will air the game across the country. Radio stations from Iowa, Indiana, Wisconsin and Michigan will also carry the play-by-play description to their fans.

KWWL-TV Channel 7, Waterloo and WOC-TV Channel 6, Davenport will televise the game in the Iowa City area.

Sold Out Sept. 6

The game, which was sold out Sept. 6, looms as another offensive battle similar to last week's high-scoring 38-28 victory of Ohio State over Iowa on the same field. The Hawkeyes will enter the fray as one touchdown favorites, but all forecasters see the final score in double figures.

Big Ten champion Iowa has compiled a 6-1-1 record so far this season and needs a victory over Notre Dame to boost itself back into the high rungs of the national rankings. Last week Ohio State's defeat dropped the Hawks four notches to sixth place in both the Associated Press and United Press International football polls this week.

Iowa has beaten Texas Christian, 17-0; Indiana, 34-13; Wisconsin, 20-9; Northwestern, 26-20; Michigan, 37-14 and Minnesota, 28-6. Air Force and Iowa played to a 13-13 deadlock in the second game of the campaign.

Notre Dame's season record stands at five victories and three defeats. The Irish have downed Indiana, 18-0; Southern Methodist, 14-6; Duke, 9-7; Navy, 40-20 and North Carolina, 34-24. The losses were at the hands of Army, 14-2; Purdue, 29-22 and Pittsburgh, 29-26.

In eight games Coach Forest Evashevski's Hawks have scored 203 points and allowed 113. Notre Dame has scored 165 and given up 129.

Injuries On Both Teams

Both teams will be hampered today by injuries. For the Hawkeyes, Curt Merz will be on the sidelines due to torn knee ligaments

PLANS FOR HALF-TIME CEREMONIES at the Iowa-Notre Dame football game today were discussed Friday afternoon by Meredith Willson and Frederick Ebbs, director of University Bands. Willson will be guest conductor of the SUI Marching Band today.

Meredith Willson To Direct SUI Marching Band Today

By ANN HARRINGTON
Staff Writer

The SUI band practice field could well have been the New York stage late Friday afternoon as the air was filled with the magic sound of Meredith Willson's songs and the magic spell spread by "The Music Man" himself as he directed them.

Half-time ceremonies at the SUI-Notre Dame game this afternoon will be based on Willson's current Broadway Hit.

Arriving late Friday afternoon to practice with the band for the two numbers he will direct, Willson stepped out of his car at the band practice field and spread his arms in greetings to the crowd.

"Shippoi!"
The tall, New Yorkish-looking man strode across the field listening to the SUI band square-dance their way through his "Shippoi."
"Great! That was just great!" he yelled at them.

The band responded with a whistle and "Oh Wow!"
A natural showman and clown, Willson wisecracked his way through the entire practice session.

Taking off his blue, belted, double-breasted overcoat, Willson climbed up to the director's stand to direct the "Iowa Fight Song." He gave a downbeat and nothing happened.

"We'll do something — what'd I forget?"
He had forgotten to give the sign of "instruments up."

"Well now if I forget that tomorrow — and then he brushed it off immediately, saying, "Well I won't forget — I'll tell my wife to remind me."

Using such sweeping and definite motions to direct the band that his greying hair fell into his eyes, Willson led the band through the "Iowa Fight Song," and "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You," mouthing the words he had written.

He asked the band to yell instead of sing the "fight" in the "Iowa Fight Song" and added four bars to the end of the song, thus making it sound more like a show production number.

He also changed the time arrangement in "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You."

"I made a mistake when I wrote that song nine years ago," he said, "and the publisher's too stingy to re-engage the plate, all these years it's been played wrong."

Both Quarter Notes

The mistake involved the words "keep you" in the title and should be quarter notes instead of an eighth note and a quarter note.

"It sounds better, and much more logical," Willson kidded.

Completing the direction of his two numbers Willson threw the band a kiss and to the sounds of the bands three cheers, climbed down from the director's stand.

While the band ran through the entire program again, Willson stood on another platform overlooking the band, shaking his head, and smiling.

Zippering down the field to California, Here I come," was the only deviation from Willson-written program for the day.

"76 Trombones" was stepped off in a precision drill, and the band frolicked and danced to "Shippoi," and formed a stagecoach for "Wells Fargo."

Formed Barberpole

The whole band joined in a barberpole formation to sing a barberpole quartet number, "Lida Rose." The Willson-directed numbers topped off the program.

Willson and his wife arrived in Iowa City Friday afternoon, had dinner with President Hancher and old Iowa friends Friday night, and today will have luncheon with Notre Dame officials, President Hancher, and members of the SUI Music Department.

Willson will visit with Frederick Ebbs tonight and will leave for a "Meredith Willson Day" in Peoria Sunday morning.

Willson wasn't saying who he'll be yelling for this afternoon — his father is an 1896 graduate of Notre Dame!

Soviet Troops Begin Leaving East Berlin

BERLIN (AP) — The Soviet Union threw out a hint Friday it will quit Berlin by Christmas, and began withdrawing Army families and some soldiers from East Berlin.

The 10,000 men making up the U.S., British and French garrisons will face a crisis when Red East Germany takes over control of the long supply lines to Berlin. But the Communists hastened to reassure 2,200,000 jittery West Berliners.

East Germany signed a new trade agreement for 1959 with West Germany in East Berlin. One clause virtually assures the free movement of German civilian supplies through East Germany to West Berlin, 100 miles behind the Iron Curtain.

These were other developments of the day:

1. The Soviet Foreign Ministry notified foreign envoys to call at its Moscow offices today. The reason was not announced there, but West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer said he had learned the Russians would hand over to all powers that fought against Nazi Germany a note on the 4-power status of Berlin. What that note would say remained undetermined.

2. In Bonn, West German officials said the Adenauer Government wants the Western powers to adopt a tough policy. Some declared tanks should be rammed through border barriers if necessary.

In private talks, the West Germans overcame East German resistance to the traffic provision. The pact made continued West German steel deliveries — urgently needed by the East Germans — dependent on the right of free access to West Berlin.

Bad-Check Artist Caught In Anamosa

ANAMOSA (AP) — A young man who told authorities a compulsion for check writing led him to hood-wink banks, hotels and stores from coast to coast, was in jail here Friday.

But it took a minor traffic violation to put Charles L. Germaine, 27, of St. Louis, there.

Sheriff Lewis M. Dreibelbis said Germaine signed a statement in which he admitted getting about $5,000 by fraudulent means, mostly by passing bogus checks.

A Compulsion

In the statement, Germaine said "check writing is compulsive with me."

Germaine was arrested Monday by a highway patrolman near Marshalltown for a passing violation. The sheriff said, that Germaine admitted a check writing spree starting Aug. 3 in St. Louis when he sold a stolen car for $1,250 and passed several worthless checks.

The man was charged here with false drawing and uttering of a $100 check at a Monticello, Iowa, grocery store the day of his arrest. He was bound over to District Court under $3,000 bond.

$450 From 2 Women

The sheriff said Germaine told of getting $450 from two Raymond, Wash., women, one a school teacher, by friendly persuasion. He also told of passing $300 in checks at Cour d'Alene, Idaho, while taking a six weeks law course at a junior college there.

He said he paid his hotel bills at Terre Haute and Fort Wayne, Ind., Decatur, Ill., Madison, Wis., and Buffalo, N.Y., with bad checks. Germaine said he cashed $1,100 in checks at two San Francisco banks, a $500 check at a Honolulu bank and lesser amounts at banks and stores in San Diego, Portland, Ore., Spokane, Wash., Springfield, Quincy and St. Charles, Ill., and North Judson, Ind., the sheriff added.

Winter Formal Tickets To Go On Sale Monday

Tickets for the Central Committee Winter Formal, featuring the music of Louis Armstrong, will go on sale Monday at 9 a.m.

The highlight of the dance to be held Dec. 5 will be the crowning of the 1958-59 Miss SUI.

Tickets for the dance will be on sale at the Union Information Desk for $4.50 per couple.

Today's football weather: partly cloudy, highs from the mid 40s to mid 50s. Weekend outlook: fair and cooler.

U.S. Will Flatly Refuse Plan For A Red-Controlled Berlin

U.S. Pledges Support For Western Zone

WASHINGTON, (UPI) — The United States was reported ready Friday to reject instantly, and in harsh terms, an expected Soviet note demanding that Berlin be turned over to the East German communists.

Diplomatic sources said this country was considered certain to tell the Kremlin it had no intention of surrendering West Berlin to the Soviet puppet regime.

The vacation White House in Augusta, Ga., further stiffened this position with a statement that the United States would persist in its firm intention to maintain the integrity of West Berlin.

Keep Close Touch

The statement came after President Eisenhower conferred by telephone with acting Secretary of State Christian A. Herter. It said the United States was keeping in close touch with Britain and France on the rapidly-developing German crisis.

In Moscow, the Soviet Foreign Ministry summoned a number of Western Ambassadors to a meeting today, presumably to receive a declaration of Soviet intentions to hand over control of Berlin to the East German Communists.

American officials have pledged that the United States will stay in Red-encircled Berlin and keep its traffic corridors open to West Germany no matter what the Russians or East Germans do. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles even has pledged this country to fight, if necessary.

Top-secret instructions have been sent to U. S. authorities in Berlin telling them how to handle specific instances in which East German authorities may try to take over functions performed by Soviet representatives.

Plans Formulated

These include methods of dealing with East Germans who may be placed by the Russians in control of check points formerly manned by Soviet soldiers.

U.S., British and French officials also have concerted plans to deal with any situation in which they are faced with a threat of force.

In between these extremes there is an area of maneuver in which American and other Allied officials apparently will be instructed on a day-by-day basis as they are presented with what Washington expects to be a step-by-step East German takeover of Russian functions.

Hooray For The Happy Couples!

CLAIMING THEIR PRIZE! The holders of the ticket stubs for the Lucky Date drawing at the Notre Dame pep rally Friday night didn't waste much time making the necessary arrangements. Bill Newell, A2, Altoona, won a date with Sharen Fleming, A2, Council Bluffs (couple on the left), and Carol Baily, N2, Rock Island, won a date with Jim Farrell, A3, Perry, (couple on the right). The drawing was supervised by Jack Burge, A2, Charles City, co-chairman of the Student Council sponsored 3-day Campus Chest Drive which closed Friday night. Sulowan Rose Bowl Tickets Reduced In Price To $2.75

Rose Bowl tickets for SUI students, faculty and staff, which go on sale Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, have been reduced in price from $3 to $2.75. No reason for the cut was given.

The tickets will be on sale at the Athletic Department Ticket Office in the Fieldhouse from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. In order to obtain tickets, students must present their ID cards and certificates of registration. Staff and faculty must show their staff cards.

Actual tickets for the game will not be distributed at the Fieldhouse but purchasers will receive vouchers or receipts of payment which can be traded in Los Angeles for the actual game ticket.

To obtain a game ticket at Los Angeles students must present their ID cards as well as their payment voucher.

Francis Graham, business manager of athletics, said there is no reason for anyone getting up before dawn to get in line for tickets.

U.N. Offered Outer Space Control Plan

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., (UPI) — The United States, spurned by Russia in its offer of East-West cooperation in outer space, proceeded without the Kremlin Friday night and proposed a study group in conjunction with 19 other countries.

The 20 sponsors of an earlier United Nations resolution formally submitted a new measure for consideration on Monday by the General Assembly's main political committee.

The 20 powers went ahead after Russia turned down a compromise offer submitted to the Kremlin and demanded four iron curtain votes in an 11-nation group to make preliminary studies on the peaceful uses of outer space. In addition, the Soviet Union sought to dictate to the West what countries could be named to the study group from Western Europe and Latin America.

The 18-nation study group proposed in Friday night's resolution gives three votes, including Moscow's, to the Iron Curtain countries.

The Daily Iowan is written and edited by students and is governed by a board of five student trustees elected by the student body and four faculty trustees appointed by the president of the University.

Pull Yourself Together, Man!

We Need A Parking Ramp

The Iowa City parking problem continues to rattle students and townspeople. A great deal of thought has been put in on the subject, but little action has resulted.

the presence of student cars. But students are people, and most people nowadays have an auto of some kind. We think most townspeople prefer having students — and their cars — to not having students at all.

Reasonable And Proper

Recent reports of a study by the State Department of Public Safety stress that speed caused 30 per cent of Iowa's traffic accidents.

a variance in the maximum safe speed. We are primarily interested in recognizing the true meaning of the report because too often reports stated in terms such as this are used as a basis for advocating a specific maximum speed law.

Letters To The Editor

Satire On A Serious Issue

Other Comments

To the editor: Comments on the Laughlin-Johnson episode:

Did Donald Johnson in an improper manner bring undue pressure on the West Branch school board?

Did the accuser, Johnson, ever attempt to confront the accused about the situation even though they were neighbors?

Is civil law always to be upheld at the expense of religious law, as implied in Tuesday's editorial in The Daily Iowan?

Since I feel that the first question has an affirmative answer while the other two have negative answers, I also feel that censure of Johnson was just.

That the majority of the West Branch School Board were swayed by one man is rather remarkable and almost deserving of censure in itself, particularly in a case of this nature.

See the Des Moines Register and Tribune's editorial of this past Sunday for further support of the censure of Johnson.

Dorothy Dayton, 44 411 N. Dubuque St.

To the editor: I wish to express my admiration for your fine editorial "Man With A Country." You masterfully defended Mr. Donald Johnson and the West Branch Board; but you were much too gentle with Mr. David Laughlin and the Governor's Commission on Human Relations. You let them off too easily.

Mr. Davies, I have a plan for retribution from Laughlin and the Commission. I propose that you, Mr. Johnson, myself, and any other "one hundred per cent" Americans who wish to join in, go to West Branch with tar, feathers, and a rail; give Laughlin the treatment he really deserves. After all, a man who is willing to be imprisoned rather than compromise his deeply felt religious beliefs has no place in our society.

When we finish with Laughlin, we can go after those lousy "communists" on the Human Relations Commission. What do they mean by taking a rational, fair, humanistic, liberal view of the West Branch case? I say: "Crucify them!"

As long as we are cleaning up, we ought to round up all those subversives who don't belong to the American Legion or the Daughters of the American Revolution. To do a thorough job, we should get all those unpatriotic cowards who refuse to have "Old Glory" tattooed on their chests.

When we finish with the foregoing tasks, we can consolidate our position. I think the West Branch School Board would make a swell United States Supreme Court.

Yes, Mr. Davies, judging by your editorial I think you will endorse my plan. What are we waiting for? "Germs abound!"

(It is too bad Senator McCarthy isn't alive today. He could be our honorary chairman.)

Glenn W. Sterling, 44 809 Finkbine Park

A Voice From The Pond

To the editor: Read your editorial on Mr. Johnson with a great deal of interest. Then I turned over.

Sincerely, Henry David Thoreau (by Sidney Landau, 6 410 S. Clinton St.)

Response To Letter Citing Prejudice

To the editor: A response to Messrs. Nelson and Marksman.

No doubt you were treated unjustly at this "local veterans club" you spoke of in your letter to the editor. I can readily see how the editing of the deplorable incident could have been.

However, by what authority do you set yourself up as the "judge and jury" of an entire city?

Does this single group represent the feelings and beliefs of this community's complete population? I think not.

My advice would be to contact the NAACP and put this thing on a national level if you are out to make an issue of it as your letter implied.

Gary E. Culver, 411 112 N. Johnson

Committee Coordinates Bowl Plans

The Board in Control of Athletics, the Athletics Department, students and faculty are jointly represented in the Rose Bowl Coordinating Committee now working on the thousand-and-one details involved in the SUU forthcoming trips to Pasadena as Big Ten representative in the annual New Year's Day classic.

Ties Together Details
Appointed by President Virgil M. Hancher to tie together the many facets of the University which are involved in an undertaking of this proportion, the committee held its first informal meeting less than 48 hours after Iowa's Hawkeyes defeated Minnesota to assure themselves of a Rose Bowl appearance.

Dr. George Easton, chairman of the SUU Board in Control of Athletics, is chairman of the Rose Bowl Coordinating Committee. Paul Brechler, director of physical education for men and intercollegiate athletics, is vice chairman, and Victor Harris professor of English is secretary. Leonard M. Flander, IS, Iowa City, and chairman of the SUU Student Council, is student representative on the committee.

Other members include Loren Hickerson, executive director of the SUU Alumni Association; Dean of Students M. L. Huit; Robert F. Ray, director of the SUU Institute of Public Affairs and faculty representative to the Western Conference; Hugh Kelso, professor of political science; Lee Cochran, director of audio-visual instruction; E. T. Jolliffe, vice president for business and financial affairs; and James R. Jordan, director of University relations.

Endorse Student Trip
In its first meetings the committee endorsed a student trip under sponsorship of the Student Council, designated a travel agent for both alumni and student trips; considered the question of sponsorship for a trip by the Marching Band and Scottish Highlanders, and heard a report on the Rose Bowl tickets allocation and priority system established by the Board in Control of Athletics.

Vanguard Fired; Paves Way For December Satellite Launching

CAPE CANAVERAL, FLA., (UPI)—The Navy test-fired the first stage of a Vanguard rocket Friday, indicating a possible Satellite-launching attempt early next month.

The static test was held despite an announcement last Tuesday by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration that no more Vandangers would be fired this year.

The NASA, which assumed control of all scientific rocket projects Oct. 1, said it was holding up the project until a study was completed on "ways to increase the reliability of all satellite vehicles."

Four Vandangers remain to be fired. The next, which will be the eighth in the series, will carry a weather reconnaissance satellite identical to the one in the rocket that failed and burned up in the earth's atmosphere Sept. 26.

U.S. To Give Communist Regime In Yugoslavia $100 Million Aid

WASHINGTON, (UPI)—The United States is preparing to give the Communist regime in Yugoslavia about 100 million more in economic aid, authoritative sources said Friday.

They said part of the aid would be designed to offset the loss to Yugoslavia when Soviet Russia last summer reneged on its agreement.

Mickelson, Associated Press News Editor, Dies At 59

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y. (AP)—Paul R. Mickelson, 59, general news editor of The Associated Press for 14 years, died Friday in New Rochelle Hospital.

His death was attributed to a ruptured blood vessel resulting from hardening of the arteries. On Wednesday, his last day at his desk in the New York AP office, he said he did not feel well. He remained at home Thursday and was taken to the hospital that night.

"One reason why I like it and the other newspaper work," he once said, "is because it affords one an opportunity for daily service."

Etta Rasmussen Named Dean Of SUI College Of Nursing

Etta H. Rasmussen, a member of the SUI College of Nursing faculty since 1952, has been named acting dean of the college by the State Board of Regents.

Dean Rasmussen holds a master of science degree in nursing service administration from SUI. A native of Delmar and a graduate of Cornell College, Mt. Vernon, and St. Mary's School of Nursing, Rochester, Minn., she has served as chairman of the executive committee which has directed the work of the SUI College of Nursing since the resignation of Myrtle Kitchell Aydelotte as dean in May, 1957.

Before joining the SUI faculty, Dean Rasmussen had served on the staff of St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester, Minn., and had been director of nursing service and the school of nursing at St. Luke's Hospital, Cedar Rapids. She came to SUI in October, 1952, as the first director of the department of practical nursing.

Dean Rasmussen is a member of Sigma Theta Tau, honorary nursing society, and Phi Beta Kappa and has served in a number of offices in the Iowa Nurses Association. She served on the Iowa Board of Nurse Examiners from 1948 to 1958, being chairman during the last four years.

B.S. • M.S. • Ph.D.

Lockheed Missile Systems Division has created a number of special, new openings with unusual opportunities for fall graduates in electrical engineering, mechanical engineering, aeronautical engineering, mathematics or physics.

The Division is engaged in a broad program of basic research in all areas of scientific activity in missile and space technology, including advanced systems research; nucleonics; physics; chemistry; mathematics; design; test; electronics; flight sciences; and manufacturing. Some of the important studies under investigation are: man in space; space communications; ionic and plasma propulsion; space physics; nuclear propulsion; magnetohydrodynamics; oceanography; computing machine memories; human engineering; noise suppression; materials and processes; boundary layer control; electro magnetic wave propagation and radiation; and operations research and analysis.

Lockheed is systems manager for such major long-term projects as the Navy Polaris IRBM; Air Force Q-5 and X-7; Army Kingfisher and other important research and development programs.

The Division was honored at the first National Missile Industry Conference as "the organization that contributed most in the past year to the development of the art of missiles and astronautics."

LOCATION

Headquarters for the Division are at Sunnyvale on the San Francisco Peninsula and new modern Research and Development facilities are located in the Stanford Industrial Park in nearby Palo Alto. A four thousand acre company-owned static test base is located in the Ben Lomond mountains thirty miles from Sunnyvale. Other Division locations are at Van Nuys and Santa Maria, California; Cape Canaveral, Florida and Alamogordo, New Mexico. Together, they occupy more than two million square feet of laboratory, engineering, manufacturing and office space and provide the latest in scientific and technical equipment.

ASSIGNMENTS

Upon joining the Division, you are assigned to your special areas of interest and work directly under distinguished leaders in your field. The company encourages and sponsors individual communication with other scientists, the publication of papers and articles, and participation in symposiums and conventions. Every opportunity is given members of the technical staff to participate in the initiation of advanced technological developments.

GRADUATE STUDY PROGRAM

Of special interest to those who wish to continue their advanced education, is the Division's Graduate Study Program. Under it, selected students with qualified academic records may obtain advanced degrees at the University of California at Berkeley or Stanford University, while employed in their chosen fields at Lockheed. All costs of tuition, admission, thesis and textbooks are borne by the company.

IMPORTANT

The number of these special openings is limited. If you are interested, please wire collect directly to Mr. R. C. Beverstock, College Relations Administrator, 962 W. El Camino Real, Sunnyvale, California, giving your major, and degree level.

Iowa Slight Favorite To Win High Scoring Duel

15 Hawks In Final Home Appearance

suffered in the Ohio State battle a week ago. The 219-pound junior end who is almost certain to make some All-America teams this year, leads Iowa in pass receptions with 24 grabs for 342 yards and two touchdowns. The Springfield, N.J., native also snagged a pair of conversion passes to give him a 1958 scoring output of 16 points.

Jeff Langston, 173-pound junior from Iowa City, will replace Merz at left end. Langston has pulled in seven passes for 78 yards and one TD. He scored another touchdown when he picked a fumble out of the air and raced 21 yards to pay-dirt against Wisconsin.

Fullback Don Horn is on the doubtful list for today's game. A hip bruise in the Buckeye contest last week allowed the Detroit junior only limited practice time this week and Capt. John Nocera is expected to fill in at fullback.

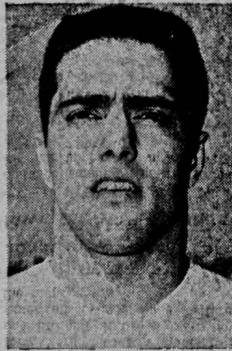

Nocera has scored 14 points this year on two touchdowns and a conversion run. In 27 rushing attempts he has gained 104 yards for a 3.8-yard per carry average. Horn holds the same ball carrying average on 67 rushes for 260 yards. He has scored two touchdowns.

Drake Ready
Hugh Drake, Iowa right guard, also received a hip pointer against the Bucks but is expected to be in the starting lineup today.

Notre Dame will be without the services of a pair of second-stringers. Fullback Ron Toth will miss his second straight game with a sprained ankle while tackle Bronko Nagurski will be sitting out his fourth consecutive game with a knee sprain.

Two other Irish, fullback Nick Pietrosante and tackle Frank Geremia, received slight injuries in last week's win over North Carolina, but are expected to be ready to go today. Pietrosante pulled a thigh muscle while Geremia's injury was a dislocated finger.

Both teams are owners of a powerful offense and questionable defense. The Hawks have gained 3,199 yards in their first eight games and rank No. 1 in the nation in total offense with a 399.6 yards per game average. The overall attack has gained 1,270 yards, the ground game 1,929.

4th In Offense
The Irish rank fourth in the country in the total offense ledger with 2,964 yards and an average of 370.5 yards a contest. 1,708 of Notre Dame's yards have come on the ground, 1,256 through the air.

Coach Terry Brennan's squad is the nation's sixth-ranked passing team — one notch behind Evy's Hawkeyes. Iowa also shows the variety of its attack by ranking fifth in the rushing totals in the U.S.

Only three yards separate the two teams in pass defense. Iowa has allowed 836 yards through the airlines, Notre Dame 839. However, the Irish have given up 1,107 rushing yards while the Hawks have been backed up 1,353 yards.

Iowa fans will find no comfort in the fact that Brennan's Notre Dammers have a fullback of the Bob White type in Pietrosante plus speedy halfbacks in Jim Crotty and Bill (Red) Mack and an aerial game that has developed rapidly since the insertion of George Izo into the lineup at quarterback.

Averaging 4.7
Pietrosante is a rugged, hard-charging 215-pounder who has ground out 505 yards in 104 attempts for a 4.9 yard average. He is also one of the top defensive men from his corner linebacker position with 38 tackles to his credit so far this year.

Mack is averaging six yards per carry on 377 yards gained while Crotty has picked up 221 yards and a 4.6 yard average. Mack is the No. 2 man on the Irish squad in number of tackles with 40.

Izo is the man who has made Notre Dame go this year, though,

The 205-pound junior replaced veteran Bob Williams in midseason and has loosened the defenses with his throwing. He has hit 48 of 82 throws for 816 yards and seven TDs. Six of his passes have been intercepted.

Up front both lines will average 215 pounds a man. Notre Dame, however, has no man lighter than 200 pounds starting in the line while Iowa has three. Both Hawkeye ends, Langston and Don Norton weigh in at 173 pounds and Drake is a 193-pounder. 305-pound Mac Lewis at right tackle is the man who brings the Iowa line average up to the level of the Irish.

Izo-Stickles
Monty Stickles, who caught a 47-yard scoring pass from Izo in last year's Iowa-Notre Dame game (won by the Hawkeyes, 21-13) will open at left end with Bob Wetoska at the other flank. The Izo-to-Stickles combination has been potent this season with the 225-pound junior end hauling down 17 passes for 332 yards and six touchdowns.

Also the team's place kicker, Stickles is the No. 1 scorer for Notre Dame with 51 points on the basis of 12 extra points and a field goal to go along with his six TDs.

Wetoska, a 225-pound senior has nine receptions for 154 yards. Halfback Crotty is second in pass receiving for the Irish with 13 catches for 137 yards.

Geremia and co-captain Chuck Puntillo will be the starting tackles. The 225-pound Geremia has made 31 tackles this year while the 200-pound and lightest man in the Notre Dame line, Puntillo has made 21 stops.

Ecuyer Top Tackler
The leading tackler on the team, All-America Al Ecuyer, will open at all-guard with Dick Shulsen the other. The other co-captain for the Irish, Ecuyer has come up with 64 tackles in eight games. Shulsen out part of the time this year with injuries, is credited with 28 stops.

Bob Scholtz, 225-pound junior will be at center. Scholtz and Myron Pottios have shared the position throughout the season with Scholtz having had 35 tackles, the 215-pound Pottios, 32.

The Irish have one more game on their schedule after today. Next Saturday the Trojans of the University of Southern California will host Notre Dame at Los Angeles.

For the Hawkeyes, nine members of the first two units and six reserves will be playing their last game at Iowa Stadium as members of the Iowa team. There is a possibility that some, or all, of them will appear later from time to time in the Alumni-Varsity game held each spring.

National Prominence
The nine men who have helped raise Iowa into national prominence on the football scene and will be playing their finale today, are: halfbacks Kevin Furlong and Bill Gravel, fullback Nocera, quarterback Randy Duncan, end Bob Prescott, tackles John Burroughs and Mac Lewis and guards Drake and Gary Grouwinkel.

Olen Treadway, Bill Scott, John Leshyn, Ernie Mielke, Paul Karas, and Jim Spanan are the six reserves who will make their final home appearance.

In their three years of varsity play, these 15 stalwart gridgers have rolled up an impressive record of 22 wins against only three losses and two ties going into today's game. They won the Big Ten crown in 1956 and 1958 and finished a strong third in 1957 — a far cry from Iowa football in the not too-long-ago past.

Evashevski indicated this week that if Horn is able to start today, he will be flanked by Furlong and Ray Jauch at the halfbacks. If Nocera is the starter, Bob Jeter and Willie Fleming will be the halfbacks.

Wide Threat
With Jeter and Fleming making Iowa's wide game a constant threat, Nocera will supplement the duo on the sweeps with his crisp blocking. Horn will make the Iowans more rugged up the middle and Evy prefers Jauch and Furlong in this type of attack.

Horn's injury will probably find him on the sidelines at the opening kickoff, however, so the starting backfield stacks up as Nocera, Jeter, Fleming and Randy Duncan.

Starting quarterback, of course, will be the great Duncan. A fabulous passer, Duncan has almost every overhead and total offense record in the books at Iowa. He needs only one more yard to break his total offense mark of 1,183 yards set last year.

Duncan has broken the total completion record (91), yards passing (1,183), most pass completions in a game (22) set last week against Ohio State and most yards passing in one game (249 against the Bucks).

Tied League Record
The 22 completions tied a Big Ten record set in 1952 by Tommy O'Connell of Illinois against Iowa. Duncan is again the conference passing champion and if Northwest's Dick Thornton is held to less than 143 yards today against Illinois, Duncan will also gain the total offense crown.

The Des Moines senior also at center. A steady performer, ranks second in the nation in passing and total offense. He trails the No. 1 passer, Ralph Hunsaker of Arizona, by only one aerial although playing in one less game and total offense leader, Charley Milshead of Texas A&M, leads "Dandy Randy" by only seven yards — again in one more game.

Iowa has three halfbacks averaging over six yards per carry — Jauch, Fleming and Jeter. Only a sophomore, Fleming tied a big Ten rushing record this year when he averaged 8.8 yards on 41 attempts. His over-all average is 7.3 on 47 rushes. Willie also leads the team in scoring with seven touchdowns for 42 points.

Jauch has picked up 485 yards on 68 tries — a 7.2 yard average and Jeter's 336 yards on 51 carries nets him a 6.5 average. The fourth man in the Hawks' two sets of halfbacks, Furlong, has gained 270 yards on 64 attempts.

2 Long Runs
Jeter has scored five touchdowns, Jauch two. Jauch's two were on a 64-yard ramble against Indiana and a 74-yard scamper at Michigan.

Norton, Iowa's starting right end, has picked off 22 passes this year for 289 yards and three scores and will probably be a marked man today with pass-catching mate Merz on the sidelines.

Lewis and Burroughs will be the starting tackles. Burroughs, a 218-pounder, will have started every game this year along with Grouwinkel and Jauch.

One of the top guards in the country, Grouwinkel will be butting heads with the rugged Ecuyer. The Wapello senior has been outstanding all year on defense and his blocking has sprung Iowa's fleet backs into the secondary more than once.

Bill Lapham, 235 pounds, will be

Lapham is a deadly tackler from his linebacker position.

Iowa's 2nd Unit

Behind the 11 starters for Iowa will be the second unit that was the doubtful point at the beginning of the season but has come through in fine style. Ready to go as backfield replacements are Mitch Ogiego, quarterback; Gravel and Jerry Mauren, halfbacks; and John Brown, fullback.

John Sawin, Lloyd Humphreys, Charlie Lee, Gerry Novack, Don Shipanik, Al Miller and Prescott are the second unit linemen. The loss of Prescott will be keenly felt next season. The "Man With the Educated Toe" is the fourth high scorer for Iowa although he has not scored a touchdown this year.

The Sioux City native has banged 18 of 23 conversions between the uprights, booted a field goal and caught a two-point extra point pass for a total of 23 points.

Today's battle will be the 17th between Iowa and Notre Dame in a series that dates back to 1921. The rivalry has been played annually since 1945 and the Irish hold the upper hand with eight wins to five for Iowa with three games ending in ties.

able to gain only three ties in the next 11 meetings before coming back to win the last two. On their last appearance in Iowa City, in 1956, the Irish were drubbed 48-0.

Notre Dame had a sophomore-dominated team that year and those sophomores are now seniors who will be out to put another dent in Iowa's Rose Bowl trip.

The game could be a game of breaks since both teams have shown a tendency to lose the ball more often than usual this year.

Notre Dame has had 16 passes intercepted and has lost 20 of 35 fumbles. Iowa has had seven aerials stolen and lost 17 of 27 fumbles.

Ott Dies Of Injuries Received In Wreck

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — Mel Ott, the former New York Giant outfielder who is immortalized in baseball's Hall of Fame for his exploits on the diamond, died Friday of injuries suffered last week in an automobile accident.

The 49-year-old former Giant slugger died at 12:30 p.m. (CST) in New Orleans' Touro infirmary while doctors fought to save his life.

The immediate cause of death, a hospital spokesman said, was uremia — kidney poisoning — resulting from a damaged kidney. This was one of the many injuries suffered by Ott in the head-on collision last Friday night.

Ott's wife, Mildred, also 49, at first was believed more seriously injured in the crash which also claimed the life of the driver of the second car. But while Ott lost his week-long battle for life, his wife was succeeding.

A spokesman for the family said they planned to keep the news of Ott's death from her until her condition improved. He said doctors felt the shock would be too much for her condition to bear.

Ott was transferred to the New Orleans hospital Thursday afternoon from a hospital in Gulfport, Miss., where he had shown slow, but steady improvement.

Ott and his wife had been taken to a hospital in Gulfport following the accident in Bay St. Louis, Miss. Both were injured when they pulled onto a highway from a restaurant driveway. Their car collided with one driven by Leslie Curry, 50-year-old carpenter, who was killed instantly.

Mrs. Ott is convalescing at the Gulfport hospital and is scheduled to be transferred to Touro infirmary, where her husband died, in a few days.

The Ott's and their daughter, Barbara Ann, made their home in Gretna, La., a suburb of New Orleans and were in Bay St. Louis to inspect a newly-acquired summer cottage at the time of the accident.

For 20 years Ott was as much a fixture of the Giants as the Polo Grounds. He leaped from sandlot baseball to the major leagues without customary struggles through the minor leagues at the age of 16. He wore no other uniform than that of the Giants, playing a total of 2,730 games in which he earned a lifetime batting average of .304. He amassed a total of 511 home runs — a record which still stands in the National League. Only the New York Yankee's Babe Ruth and Boston's Jimmy Foxx of the American League have bettered the mark.

Jones In Last Meet For Iowa At MSU Monday

Charles (Deacon) Jones, Iowa's distance running star, will make his final appearance in a Hawkeye uniform Monday when he competes in the National Collegiate championship race at East Lansing, Mich.

A member of the 1956 Olympic team, Jones will attempt to win his second NC title. He won over the same 4-mile course in 1955 as a sophomore. His latest crown came when he won the Big Ten championship this fall.

Crawford Kennedy of Michigan State will be Jones' chief opponent. Jones defeated the Spartan by ten yards in the Big Ten meet, but Kennedy won the 1000 title over a 5-mile course. Michigan State won both meets.

Frank Bates Not On PA System Today

Frank Bates, Iowa City High School football coach, will not be heard over the public address system during the Iowa-Notre Dame football game this afternoon. Bates, who has been the public address announcer at Iowa football and basketball games for several years, was notified this week that he would not be the announcer today.

University athletic officials denied that Bates had been "fired" from his position. There is no indication that his suspension is necessarily permanent.

Bates was involved in an "open microphone" incident last Saturday prior to the Iowa-Ohio State game. While rehearsing the names of players of both teams with his spotters about 1 p.m. Bates made, in jest, a remark about Bob Flora, Iowa assistant coach, which brought objections.

Unaware that his field microphone was on and that early arrivals at the stadium heard his remark, Bates later apologized to Flora, who accepted the apology in good nature. The incident has long since ceased to be a problem as far as Flora is concerned.

Though no University official has made such a statement, it is believed that much pressure for some further action in the matter has been felt by the University from groups who feel that Bates' comment was offensive to them.

Bates, City High coach for 12 years, said Thursday that "my main concern now is there might be a misunderstanding that I have offended someone's religion or nationality. In my years as a coach, I've had friends of all nationalities and religions and will continue to have more."

Today's public address announcer will be Fred Winters physical education director for the Cedar Rapids public school system. He has been an announcer for many high school athletic events, including the state basketball tournaments here and at Des Moines.

Bowl Pictures, Conference Champs To Be Decided Today

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Act one of a 2-part college football season finale is scheduled today with a plot that holds much more suspense than next week's curtain dropper.

The Rose and Orange bowls will be sewn up, and one half of the Sugar and Cotton bowls will be definite.

Then there is the matter of settling the Pacific Coast, Ivy League, Southwest, Southeastern and Skyline conferences for 1958.

Tradition will have its fling too.

Varsity vs. Fresh In Hoop Lidlifter

Iowa basketball coach Sharrn Scheuertman will unveil the 1958-59 Hawkeyes Tuesday when the varsity meets the freshman hoopers in the annual lidlifter in the Iowa Fieldhouse. Game time is 7:30 p.m. and admission is free.

Scheuertman has an all veteran quintet back from last year's squad that won 13 games and lost nine including a 7-7 record in the Big Ten good for sixth place.

Dave Gunther, Nolden Gentry, George Seaberg, Frank Mundt, Clarence Wordlaw, Mike Heitman, Earl Nau and Bobby Washington return for action this season. Gunther, Gentry, Mundt, Wordlaw and Washington were the starting five for the Hawkeyes last portion of the 1957-58 campaign.

The Hawks open against Colorado here Dec. 1—the first of three home contests before conference play opens in January. Texas Tech will be here Dec. 13; and Washington Dec. 20.

Regina, City High Lose

Iowa City's new Regina High got off to a bad start on the hardwood Friday night when St. Mary's of Clinton ruined the new gymnasium dedication by edging out a 24-9 victory over the Regents. City High's Little Hawks also took loss in the Christmas night in their opener when Muscatine came to town and took a 38-58 decision.
