Stage Set For Berlin Showdown

Iowa Study Group Agrees On Reapportionment Plan

Both Houses Based Mainly On Population

Senate Would Have 54, House 125 Members

DES MOINES (AP) — A plan to give Iowans more equal representation in the Legislature was agreed upon Monday by the Governor's Committee on Reapportionment.

Under the plan, each House member would represent about the same number of people, and Senate membership would be based mainly on population, but with some extra representation for the most populous counties.

In the past 50 years, Iowa's larger cities have been growing and rural area population has been decreasing, but the distribution of legislative seats remained unchanged.

Rural Areas Favored

The result has been that city residents have much less voice in state government than residents of rural areas and small towns.

The committee's plan calls for a Legislative set up along these lines:

House — Districts from which representatives are elected would be drawn up so that each district — each 20,000-25,000 population — would represent as nearly as possible 1-125 of the state's population. The House would have 125 members.

The present House has 108 members.

Senate — Each county with two per cent or more of the state population would have one senator. All other counties would be put into 2-county districts.

On the basis of latest population estimates, nine counties would be entitled to have their own senators. The other 90 counties would form 45 districts, making a total Senate membership of 54, compared to the present 50.

10-Year Review

The committee earlier agreed on a method of assuming that the redistricting formulas for both House and Senate were used every 10 years.

If the Legislature didn't meet a deadline for redistricting, the governor would appoint a commission to do it. If the commission failed to get the job done, all legislators would be elected at large, on a statewide basis.

For the reapportionment system to go into effect, the Iowa constitution would have to be amended.

The committee Monday discussed plans to meet with legislative leaders and several statewide organizations to spur action on the committee's proposal.

Satchmo To Play For SUI Dance

The music of Louis "Satchmo" Armstrong and the presentation of Miss SUI will highlight the winter formal to be held at the Iowa Memorial Union Dec. 5.

Tickets for the dance are now on sale at the Information Desk in the Union for $4.50 per couple.

Armstrong, America's ambassador of jazz, will play for the semi-formal dance from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Satchmo's trumpet wizardry has made him a popular performer both here and abroad.

He has made a European jazz tour, played at the Brussels World Fair, and recently made an appearance at the Newport Jazz Festival. He was the first American jazz musician to appear in Russia since the early twenties. He has made many albums and appeared in many movie roles including the successful "High Society."

Miss SUI and her court will be presented during intermission at the dance which is sponsored by Central Party Committee.

The Devil's Due

TICKETS for the University Theater's "double feature" production of "The Chairs, by Eugene Ionesco and 'The Tale of a Soldier' by Stravinski, are available at the East Lobby Ticket Desk in the Iowa Memorial Union. In the photograph above, students were rehearsing a segment of Stravinski's "Tale of a Soldier." Depicting the Devil's Triumph over the soldier are left to right: Jim Ellis, G. Iowa City; Lila Chevillie, G. Oberlin, Ohio; and C. Tom Ingham, A2, Norfolk, Neb. The ticket desk is open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. today, and until noon Wednesday. It will re-open Dec. 1 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. Tickets may also be obtained Saturday, Dec. 6 until noon. —Daily Iowan Photo.

Alaskans Go To Polls Today —

'Think Them Blubber-Eaters Know Votin' Time's Near?'

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (UPI) — Whatever happens in today's election in this embryonic state will set a precedent.

But whether it will be a precedent of Alaskans bucking snowstorms and bitter cold to register their votes or of voter indifference as to who represents them in far-off Washington is anybody's guess.

"Do you really think them blubber-eaters know votin' time's near?" asked Mike Bishop, a bushman with hair of frost, throat Walrus-thick with wrinkles. He was referring to the Alaskan native.

Nuts!

"Shucks, those Eskimos (Eskimos) don't know about Thanksgiving, let alone election," he said. "Think this a time for hollerin' and whop-do for them? Nuts! They pick a day, any day, especially when fishin's been good, and then they raise hell."

Another reason for a low turnout could be the weather. It might be a mosaic of ice fog and thaw, full moon and nostril pinching cold. There was a full moon Sunday night, and there was brief sun earlier.

The candidates, particularly those four fated to be in history books as the new state's first two Senators, Representative and Governor, think the voters know it's election time. They have covered thousands of miles just to talk with them.

Flying 500 miles just to talk to 20 voters is commonplace in Alaska. It was thought by many the flying time piled up by the candidates would discourage "outside" politicians from coming here. But that wasn't the case.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Secretary of Interior Fred Seaton for the Republicans and Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts have been here. Seaton still is.

Just about everything, including that third word "smear," has come up in this first election for the neophyte state of Alaska. Something that might not have occurred in any of her sister-states was Brad Phillips' huge dog sled, pulled by a long team of Siberian huskies, in his campaign for the Secretary of State job.

Democrats Favored

Although 90 per cent of the vote expected in the farflung territory will come from the four largest cities, results from remote villages will be relayed by cooperative ham radio operators or come in to more populated centers by dogsled.

Democrats were favored in most of the contests on the basis of the vote polled at the August primary election at which Alaskans approved statehood by a 6-1 majority. I there is no change the Democrats will capture two of the three seats in Congress and will dominate the state Legislature.

The strongest GOP candidate appeared to be former Gov. Mike Stepovich, 39-year-old Fairbanks attorney, who resigned his appointment to campaign for Senator against Ernest Gruening, 72, who was Alaska's governor from 1953 to 1953.

Both ran unopposed in the primary and the popular Republican outpolled his experienced rival by nearly 3-2.

Weather Forecast

Sleet

Decreasing temperatures today with a possibility of rain turning to snow tonight are in store for Iowa City. Highs today should push into the 40's with occasional light rain or drizzle. There is a possibility of light snow with still cooler temperatures Wednesday.

Extra Day Slated For 'Orbit' Sign-Up

Sign-up time for the "Iowa Orbit" student trip to the Rose Bowl has been extended one day, Len Flander, I2, Iowa City, student body president, said Monday.

The additional day will be Dec. 1, from noon to 8 p.m. in the East Lobby Conference Room of the Iowa Memorial Union.

So far, Flander said, 823 SUI students have signed up for the trip. In 1957 630 students went to the game via the University-sponsored trip.

Davenport 'Giveaway King' Charged With White Slavery

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (UPI) — Herman Ziffren, prominent Davenport, Iowa, businessman and brother of California's Democratic National Committeeman, was named Monday in a 3-court federal indictment charging white slavery.

Ziffren, who pictured himself as the "giveaway king" on Davenport television programs, appeared before a U. S. District Judge at Peoria, Ill., and entered an innocent plea.

He was given 30 days to file motions attacking the indictment and bond was set at $2,500.

In Los Angeles, Ziffren's brother, Democratic National Committeeman Paul Ziffren, declined to comment on the charges.

The indictments were revealed in Springfield by U. S. District Attorney Harlington Wood Jr. He said they grew out of an investigation covering two and a half years.

All three of the charges alleged the transportation of girls from one side of the Mississippi River to the other for immoral purposes.

Ziffren was accused of: — Transporting Margie Brannon from Davenport to Rock Island for purposes of prostitution on Oct. 31, 1955.

— Transporting Rosetta Anville from Moline, Ill., to Davenport for purposes of prostitution on Jan. 17, 1956.

— Transporting Althea Deselle from Davenport to Rock Island for purposes of prostitution on July 26, 1956.

Conviction on the charges could bring a maximum penalty of a $5,000 fine or over five years in prison or both.

Ziffren, 53, is the owner of the Ziffren Appliance Center at Davenport. He is well known throughout the Illinois-Iowa Quad City area for his midnight television shows, which feature wrestling and pretty girl announcers.

Ziffren himself frequently appears on the shows, wearing a crown in his role of the "Giveaway King."

U.N. OKs Plan For Outer Space Study

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. Political Committee voted Monday night to set up a study group on outer space despite the Soviet Union's announced intention to boycott it.

By a vote of 54 to 9 with 18 abstentions the committee decided to create an 18-nation study group that would lay the foundation for a permanent U.N. body on exploration of outer space for peaceful purposes.

The entire Soviet bloc was opposed to the creation of the study group as recommended in a resolution sponsored by the United States and 19 other nations.

U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge declared the study would be fruitful without the participation of the Soviet Union.

But the relatively large number of abstentions reflected the somber opinion of many of the smaller U.N. members that no real progress can be made without U.S.-Soviet agreement.

The committee rejected a last minute proposal by India, Burma and the United Arab Republic to bring the United States and the Soviet Union together again in private talks in an effort to break the East-West deadlock.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin withdrew a Soviet resolution proposing the creation of an 11-nation study group. It specified membership of the Soviet Union, Poland, Czechoslovakia and Romania.

Speaking directly to Lodge the Soviet representative said: "The United States wants to gain a majority. Well, sir, you've got your majority. Go ahead and vote it."

He asserted that no progress would be made without Soviet participation, and that a year from now the U.N. would find itself in the same position as it is today.

CARD SECTION REFUND

A refund of $2 will be given members of SUI's football card section this afternoon. The refund, on a deposit of $2.50 made last May, will be given at the Old Information Desk in the Iowa Memorial Union. Applicants must turn in their card section badges.

SUIowans Buy 1022 Rose Bowl Tickets First Day

SUI students, staff and faculty purchased 1,022 tickets Monday in the first day of Rose Bowl ticket sales here.

Tickets will again be on sale today and Wednesday at the Athletic Department Ticket Office in the Fieldhouse from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. This will be the only chance for SUIowans to get tickets for the Rose Bowl.

In order to obtain tickets students must present their ID cards and certificates of registration and staff and faculty must present their staff cards.

The 750 students and 272 staff and faculty members, who made purchases Monday, didn't receive actual tickets. They were issued vouchers which must be traded for the ticket in Los Angeles. ID cards must also be presented with the vouchers.

University Band Needs Rose Bowl Trip Sponsor

Before Meredith Willson made the suggestion Saturday that the SUI band "has to be in California come New Year's Day," SUI officials were working on the same idea.

James R. Jordan, Director of University Relations and member of the Rose Bowl Coordinating Committee, said it was learned that the Oldsmobile Company would not be able to sponsor the band and Highlander trip to the Rose Bowl this year as they did two years ago.

Jordan said attempts are now being made to locate other firms that would be willing to sponsor the band and the Highlanders treks to the Rose Bowl.

During the halftime ceremony at the Iowa-Notre Dame game Saturday, Willson was honored by the SUI band which played some of his well-known selections. After directing the band in playing the

West Might Use Force To Run Blockade

Allied Forces Greatly Outnumbered By Reds

BERLIN (AP)—Western experts Monday night studied — many with grave doubts — proposals to ram armed convoys through any Communist blockade of West Berlin.

Talk of tank-led convoys and armored trains is heard from some Western officials in the event of an East German blockade of this isolated city.

It is one proposed answer if — as expected shortly — the Soviet Union transfers to East Germany controls over Western lifelines to West Berlin.

The West Germans are balking at an alternative plan under study by the United States, Britain and France for accepting East German controls on a nonrecognition basis.

"I think it is an impossible idea that the Western powers place themselves under the control of the regime in East Germany," said West Berlin's Mayor Willy Brandt in a radio interview Monday.

Urged To Get Tough! In Bonn, West German Foreign Office sources said the get-tough idea is gaining ground among the Western Allies. That's what the West Germans want.

Some of the get-tough thinking supposes that East Germany and the Soviet Union would back off from armed Allied convoys rather than clash with the West. But the prospect that the Communists might start shooting makes many shudder.

To understand why, it is only necessary to look at the practical military problems of running a gauntlet to West Berlin, 100 miles behind the Iron Curtain.

Soviet military forces in East Germany, which overwhelmingly outnumber Atlantic Pact divisions in Europe, could cut the highway at any point.

Soviet Strength There are 22 Soviet divisions stationed in East Germany, equipped with atomic weapons. Their fighting numerical strength is about twice that of the Atlantic Pact line divisions. The Soviet-equipped East German army numbers about 100,000 men.

The Allied garrisons in West Berlin consist of about 10,000 fighting men. With the United States, British and French soldiers are some 10,000 women, children and civilian officials.

An alternative to armed convoys might be an airlift of the kind which broke the 1948-49 Soviet blockade. In the 1948-49 blockade the Russians remained partners in the four-power air safety center, which controls all air traffic into the city. Thus, they tacitly allowed the airlift. But now, the Soviet Union apparently intends to substitute East German planes in the air center. And that's a different picture.

KOREAN BONUS DES MOINES (AP)—Korean War bonus payments have been made to about 20,000 Iowa veterans so far this fall. Ray J. Kauffman, bonus board executive secretary said Monday.

Another 4,000 bonus checks should be in the mail before Jan. 1, he said. The first payments were made last Sept. 19.

"Iowa Fight Song" and "May the Good Lord, Bless and Keep You," Willson faced the sellout crowd of 58,000 plus and millions of TV viewers and exclaimed:

"This is the finest university band in the nation and has the finest director I've ever met, in Fred Ebbs, and this band has to be in California come New Year's Day."

Ebbs, Director of University Bands, said Monday that he and his staff had been discussing a few plans for possible use at the Rose Bowl provided the band is able to go.

He said that bands following the teams to the bowl have become a precedent with Big Ten schools. Ebbs added Illinois didn't take its band to the coast the first time the Big Ten played in the Rose Bowl in the current series in 1947 but since that time all other schools have been able to send their bands.

sophomore gridders speaks highly of the freshmen coaches, and the individual blocking and tackling sharpness of both the backs and linemen indicates those coaches have been on their toes, too.

And we can't help but feel a bit proud that some 30 million TV viewers were watching Saturday when the Hawkeys proved why they're called champions, and the Iowa band proved they take a back seat to none for originality and excellence of performance.

As a team, we're convinced the Hawkeys this year have no peer. Throughout the season, they responded to each challenge and definitely proved their championship calibre by playing two fine, fighting ball games after the Big Ten championship already had been captured.

built symphonies around such folk tunes as "Turkey in the Straw." The tune of the Iowa Corn Song has a folklore tradition, too.

George E. Hamilton, a Des Moines chamber of commerce official who wrote the Corn Song in 1912, used a tune which he'd heard in boyhood days (he was born in 1873) called "Traveling." The original words told the story of a boy who was kicked out of the house by the irate father of his girl friend.

The Daily Iowan, student newspaper at the University, has taken a stand against playing the Corn Song in 1959. We'd like to venture an opinion to the contrary.

Whether the lovers of good music and the haters of the "Ioway" pronunciation like it or not, the Corn Song is identified with Iowa and so is the State University.

Can't the eminent composers and music arrangers at the University at least remind listeners of the Iowa Corn Song in one of their musical numbers? Long hair composers have question: We are not going to take a stand on the question one way or the other.

The hassle raged throughout the 1957 Rose Bowl trip, but no settlement was reached — probably because few ever stopped to think that we might be back so soon. It remains to be seen whether the question will be settled this time, just in case the Hawks are back there in 1961.

Closed Schools And Bitter Words — The Little Rock Integration Struggle Goes On

EDITOR'S NOTE: UPI roving reporter Jack V. Fox has just revisited Little Rock for a look at the integration struggle in the city of closed high schools. This is his report after a week there.

By JACK V. FOX LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI) — A long-distance moving company in one week moved nine families out of Little Rock. In that week, it moved one new family into the city.

It is a mark of the fact that no one here today sees a way out of the deadlock that has shut the four high schools and may before long affect the lower grades.

Letters To The Editor —

Who Makes Rules For The New Game?

To the editor: Every day as I walk to my car to play "The New Game" (so appropriately named by Egler in Wednesday's D. I.), I can hardly help wondering if the local gendarmes really get a thrill out of ticketing a student's car.

But now arises another question. During the past week, two Iowa Citizens have met with tragedy on the city's streets. I'm sure the students are wondering—and for the sake of their children, I'm sure the townspeople are wondering—how many noble public servants were out playing the "Game" when these tragedies occurred?

Certainly the accidents following the crackdown on parking is a coincidence, but it seems that public officials always wait until the harm is done before things are changed.

North Dubuque Street, among others, has turned into something of a drag strip; how soon will the street during one of these races? It seems that protecting these little ones should be more important than prying dollars from the students, but still the tricycles bearing the tire painters gallantly roam the streets.

Why can the students not be considered equal? The local salesmen, charity organizations, landlords, and merchants recognize the students as residents when after that almighty dollar, but these same people can't be bothered by cars belonging to these same students parked in the streets? Perhaps we should store them in our kitchens or leave them out in the country. Please understand, I am perfectly willing to abide by the law, but why must all crackdowns be against the students; why is it always the student who is in error?

For example, one evening last year I asked a man to move his car from the alley beside our apartment so I could get through. He very rudely explained that he lived beside that alley—and he must have been right and I wrong because I was only a student.

Getting back to the traffic and parking situation, I'm sure we all realize that Iowa City has, or rather had, a safety record worthy of great pride. I hope it can be fortunate enough to start a new record which will last for many years—another record of which it can be proud. I also hope it is proud of the way it treats the students—especially at the Traffic Bureau window at City Hall!

Basket Of Roses For Mr. Egler

To the editor:

A basket of roses to John R. Egler for his letter published Wednesday, Nov. 19. I've been going to write a letter too—but I've been too busy trying to find a parking place for my car, since the girl with whom I trade parking places hasn't had her car in town the past two weeks.

I agree wholeheartedly with Mr. Egler: What is being accomplished? Since I have to move my car every day, I drive it more than usual so that the battery won't become dead from moving from one block to another. If everyone does this, it is only causing more traffic and therefore more work again for the police force which is so obsessed with giving parking tickets.

Corn Song Citizens

To the editor:

There are two kinds of people that personally gripe me to no end. One is the loud-mouthed but tight-fisted, nickle-nursing senior citizen who has refused for more than 20 years to support the University, financially and morally—but who now blames the educational crisis on "good football". This "citizen" just wants an "out" for his pocket-book and lack of good judgement. He would not support the University when it had poor football, nor will he support it now that it has good football.

The second kind of person is the one who wants to ride to glory on a good football team and University band. He wants the Corn Song played everywhere the team and band go. This is his answer to the State's educational crisis and other problems—sing the corn song. "Best state in the land..." This solves all problems. His contribution to education and the state is to stand and sing this musical monstrosity.

I suggest that these two kinds of people shut up and get out of the way. Let the people who really care, BUILD a University and a state that is as good as our recent football teams. And if we wish to be as proud of a piece of music that represents the state, as we are proud of our good teams and band, let's sing the acknowledged "Music Man" Meredith Willson's "Iowa" in the Rose Bowl and at home.

Christmas gift suggestion No. 3: Each SUI student should mail a piece of yellow limescented chalk to the Iowa City Police Department for the man who must mark parked cars at night.

Now that the home football games are over and students have thawed out from over-night camping at the Fieldhouse for tickets, it's time to reminisce. Three years ago students didn't have reserved seats, and all they did was to go to the game two hours early. Progress.

It's definitely the atomic age. The U.S. readied a harsh rejection of a note demanding Red Berlin rule even before the Soviet demand was received.

Referendum To Determine Corn Controls

WASHINGTON (AP) — A farmer referendum Tuesday will determine whether corn — the nation's biggest agriculture crop — will be freed of production controls.

Eligible to vote will be three million growers in a designated commercial area comprising 932 major corn producing counties in 26 midwestern, eastern and south-eastern states, including all Iowa counties.

Farmers will have two choices, and the one receiving a simple majority will win.

One choice is a continuation of the present program, enacted in 1938, providing planting allotments for farms in a designated commercial area. Only those farmers who comply are eligible for full price supports.

The other choice is a plan, backed by Benson, under which allotments would be eliminated and all corn would be eligible for price support at the same level.

Under the new plan, corn would be supported at 90 per cent of the average corn price during the three preceding years, but not less than 65 per cent of parity.

Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices declared by law to be fair to farmers in relation to prices charged them.

Under the present program corn is supported at between 75 and 90 per cent parity.

New Dispute Over Burial Of Indian

SIoux CITY (AP) — The mother of the celebrated Sgt. John Rice was buried Monday at Winnebago, Neb., amid circumstances resembling those surrounding the interment of her hero son seven years ago.

As with her son, the last resting place of Mrs. Fannie West became the center of controversy and bitterness.

Rice, 37, a Winnebago Indian, was killed in action in Korea. His burial gained widespread attention when rites were halted at graveside at a private ceremony here, apparently because of racial reasons.

Former President Harry Truman interceded in behalf of the Indian soldier and his family and ordered the sergeant buried in Arlington Cemetery in Washington.

The sergeant's mother died early Saturday at the Indian hospital in Winnebago. A dispute then arose as to where she would be buried.

The Rev. Wilbur DeCora of Winnebago, former Golden Gloves boxing champion turned minister, said it was the family's wish that Mrs. West, a Catholic, be buried in the Catholic cemetery at Winnebago.

The Rev. DeCora said that preparations for burial, however, were halted Sunday on orders from the Rev. Frank Hulsman, parish priest at Winnebago, on religious grounds. But the Rev. Hulsman Monday denied restricting the burial site on religious grounds and said he was prepared to administer the rites at the Catholic cemetery.

He added, however, that a family argument developed among Mrs. West's children and that they finally decided to bury her on the Winnebago reservation.

PRINCE CHARLES ILL

LONDON (UPI) — Prince Charles has been confined to bed at his boarding school with a Catarrhal Cold for the last eight days, a Buckingham Palace spokesman said today.

His condition was described as not serious and he was expected to return to classes at Cheam school in a day or two.

High Court: Wife Can't Testify Against Mate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court ruled Monday that a wife, even though she is willing, may not testify against her husband in a criminal case in federal court.

Justice Black, noting that the forbidding testimony of one spouse in behalf of the other, commented:

"We are not prepared to say the same about the rule barring testimony of one spouse against the other."

"The basic reason the law has refused to pit wife against husband or husband against wife — was a belief that such a policy is necessary to foster family peace, not only for the benefit of husband, wife and children, but for the benefit of the public as well."

The court's eight other justices voted with Black in striking down the white slavery (Mann Act) conviction of James Clifton Hawkins, a dance hall operator of Dogpatch, Okla.

Hawkins was convicted in federal court at Tulsa of transporting a 17-year-old girl from Arkansas to Oklahoma for immoral purposes. Evidence was that the girl and Hawkins traveled to Tulsa in his car, an orange Cadillac with leopard skin seat covers and "Hawk" written across the back seat.

Over written objections, Hawkins' wife, known as Jane Wilson, testified for the prosecution. He received a 5-year sentence. Presumably the Government can bring Hawkins to trial again on the same charge, but without his wife as a witness.

In other actions the Supreme Court:

1. Agreed to review a decision by the New York State Court of Appeals upholding a state ban on the showing of the motion picture "Lady Chatterley's Lover."

2. Ruled unanimously that the National Labor Relations Board must take jurisdiction in labor disputes involving the hotel industry.

3. Ruled 5-3 that the Federal Housing Administration may prohibit renting of FHA-sponsored apartments for transients.

The ruling specifically applied to Darlington, Inc., which in 1949 built a 12-story apartment building in Charleston, S. C., with an FHA-insured mortgage. Congress in 1954 prohibited renting the FHA apartments to transients, and the sole issue was whether this ban could be applied under earlier legislation. The majority said it could.

Radio Comic, 'Parky,' Dies During Show

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (UPI) — "Parkyakarkus," whose Greek dialect made him one of radio's great comedians in the 1930's, collapsed and died of a heart attack early Monday at a star-studded Friars Club dinner honoring Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz.

More than 1,200 show business celebrities watched in horrified silence as "Parky," whose real name was Harry Einstein, slumped in his seat and fell sideways into the arms of Milton Berle at the speaker's table.

Only seconds before, Einstein, 54, a permanent feature on the old Eddie Cantor radio show, had delivered what witnesses described as one of the funniest monologues of his career.

Five heart specialists in the audience rushed to Einstein's aid. The comedian was carried by Berle, George Burns and actor John Bromfield to a small corridor behind the dais. There, on the floor, the doctors tried for nearly two hours to save his life.

Surgery with a pocket-knife opened his chest. Attempts were made to massage the heart. At one point, a shock treatment, using the bared ends of an electric cord, was tried to revive the heart muscles. But at 3:10 Iowa time, Parky was pronounced dead.

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Executive Committee of the Agricultural Hall of Fame narrowed its choice for a site to four places Monday and then received additional time to make recommendations for the final selection of the memorial location.

The committee's action left Kansas City, Mo.; Kansas City, Kan.; Des Moines; Ames, Iowa, and Springfield, Ill., still in the running.

Road Worker Killed When Equipment Upsets

ALBIA (AP) — Harley Wood Sr., 49, Colfax, was killed instantly Monday afternoon in a construction accident on a county road about 10 miles southeast of here.

Monroe County Coroner Bart Downs said Wood suffered a fractured skull when a piece of heavy equipment he was operating on a slope overturned.

Wood had been employed by the Mott Construction Co. of Centerville for about three years.

New Londoner Admits Robbing Illinois Bank

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — John P. Sanders of New London, Iowa, pleaded guilty in U.S. District Court Monday to robbing the Chestnut, Ill., bank in September, 1957.

Sanders, 21, requested probation. Two other men, Walter M. Chase of Aurora, Ill., and Wilbur F. Hilliard of Oswego, Ill., also are under indictment for the robbery.

Cronin, Great Vote-Getter, Dies At 46

CHELSEA, Mass. (UPI) — Massachusetts Secretary of State Edward J. Cronin, a five-foot-two self-styled "product of the depression" who rose to become one of the state's greatest vote-getters, died Monday at the age of 46.

A bachelor and a Democrat, Cronin died at Quigley Memorial Hospital at 7:25 p.m. (EST). He suffered a relapse Saturday following his second throat operation in a year last month.

Cronin was a political unknown until 1948, when he upset Republican Frederick W. Cook, who had held office for 28 years.

Former President Harry S. Truman used to call Cronin his "favorite cheer leader" after Cronin disrupted a national radio and TV hookup here when Truman visited Boston during the 1948 campaign, shouting "Three cheers for Harry Truman" into the open microphones.

Richard Cardinal Cushing once picked Cronin as one of the state's most eligible bachelors and offered to perform the marriage ceremony "free of charge."

6,100 Air Lines Workers Strike Against Eastern

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A strike by flight engineers and machinists against Eastern Air Lines Monday left the air transport industry with two of its major carriers grounded just before the Thanksgiving rush.

Six hundred members of the Flight Engineers International Assn. left their jobs at Eastern in a protest against taking pilot training courses, and 5,500 members of the International Assn. of Machinists (IAM) joined them in a separate contract dispute.

Trans World Airlines was immobilized in the fourth day of a strike by IAM employees after a breakdown of contract negotiations.

A third major carrier, American Airlines, was threatened with a strike by 1,491 pilots, in a dispute involving pay, rules and working conditions.

Frosting On The Cake

Quite a football season for the predicted sixth-ranked Big Ten team. Saturday's 31-21 win over Notre Dame was just frosting on the cake for Iowa, but very tasty frosting.

The expected pitchers duel between Iowa's Randy Duncan and George Izo of the Irish was all that was expected, but for awhile I was afraid Duncan was the pitcher and Izo the catcher. The Notre Dame signal caller pulled in three of Randy's tosses in the first half and Terry Brennan gets an assist for the interception in front of the Irish bench by Dave Hurd. Four stolen aeriels in the first half after eight games with only five interceptions for Randy.

Came Back Strong

Duncan came back strong, however, with 184 yards through the air including the big 53-yarder to Don Norton that put the Hawks away for good in the fourth quarter. And Randy did quite a job of running too. On one long TD march, the Des Moines All-American ran for 43 yards — why Brennan will be gray before he's 35.

I asked the Irish coach after the game if he was surprised at Duncan's running. "Who wasn't?" was his glum reply.

Duncan had a good man in the bull pen too, Mitch Ogiego did a Ryne Duren and hit five of seven pitches. Notre Dame's reliever, Bob Williams, was KO'd on one pitch — an interception by Ray Jauch.

Tough Line Again

It was a great game (all Iowa victories are) and the line again rose to great heights. After the terrific punishment dealt out the week before by the bruising Ohio State forwards, the Iowa line really halted the Irish backs — All-American candidate Nick Pietroski in particular.

The big fullback entered the game with a ball carrying average of just short of five yards and was held to 12 yards in five rushes by the Hawks. The whole Iowa line, played a whale of a game and dispelled fears that they were all done after the Buckeye fray.

Izo's passing was what hurt Iowa. Two long passes scored two TDs and the overhead attack set up the other — which Izo scored on a run himself. The 1958 Hawkeyes remind me of an old boxing adage — the best defense is a good offense. And what an offense!

Great Catches

Jeff Langston, Bob Prescott and Al Miller made some truly spectacular catches. Willie Fleming scared the Irish to death even if he didn't get away for one of his long specialties, although he scored twice for the fourth consecutive Saturday. And "Nose" Nocera was the Nocera of the last two years. When hit at the line of scrimmage the Iowa captain just wouldn't go down. It was his greatest effort of the year.

Fleming's defense had the press box gasping. On three occasions Irish receivers were wide open and Izo threw perfect passes. And Willie, doing a 100-yard dash in about nine seconds flat, got his left hand on the ball all three times.

Took Away TD

The third one was the crucial one, Iowa led, 13-7, but the Irish were threatening. An Izo pass found Jim Crotty all alone in the end zone and the points were as good as on the scoreboard — when Fleming appeared out of nowhere and batted the ball away. This one play could very easily have been the biggest in another big Iowa victory.

Duncan's 22 completions against Ohio State that tied Tommy O'Connell's record didn't last long. Bob Ptacek of Michigan completed 24 passes Saturday out of 35 attempts in a 20-14 loss to the Buckeyes. Woody Hayes is probably counting passes at night to put himself to sleep. Forty-six passes in two games — and Ohio State won both games.

Sharm Starts Veteran Crew In Annual Tilt

By LOU YOUNKIN
Sports Editor

Iowa basketball coach Sharm Scheuerman will unveil the 1958-59 Hawkeyes at 7:30 tonight when he sends a veteran five onto the Fieldhouse court to face freshman coach John McManus' quintet in the annual Varsity-Freshman contest. Admission is free.

The five varsity starters will be the same five that started most of the late season games a year ago. Forwards Dave Gunther and Nolden Gentry, center Frank Mundt and guards Clarence Wordlaw and Bobby Washington will get the starting call from the 24-year-old Scheuerman who will be making his head coaching debut.

A member of Iowa's "Fabulous Five" of the 1954-55 and 1955-56 campaigns, Sharm was named head coach to replace the late Bucky O'Connor who was killed in an automobile accident last spring.

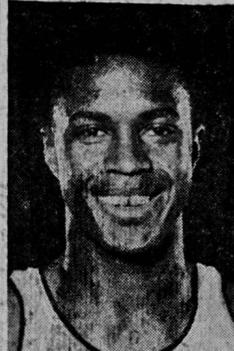

Graduation took only one member of last season's squad that finished with a 13-9 record in all games and a 7-7 mark in Big Ten play. Guard Jim McConnell is gone via the graduation route, but '66' Larry Swift and '6' 8' Americus John-Lewis are not around this season due to trouble with the books.

Mundt, the 6' 8", 235-pounder from Ida Grove, opens at center and a great deal of Iowa's success falls on his shoulders. His 4.4 point average of last year must be improved upon to balance the Iowa attack that depended almost entirely upon Gunther and Wordlaw last season.

Gunther finished fourth in the league last year with a scoring average of 20.8 points. The LeMars senior has paced the Hawkeyes in point production the last two years and was named the team's most valuable player both years.

Wordlaw was the Big Ten's 32nd high scorer, but played in only 10 games — the only player in the top 50 in less than a dozen loop contests. A great drive-in specialist and out-shooter, Wordlaw is expected to overcome occasional defensive lapses. "He is working hard on defense this year," Scheuerman said.

Gentry and Washington, the Rockford, Ill., duo, round out the starters. A disappointment in the scoring columns last year but a spectacular rebounder and defensive player, Gentry may be shifted to the center slot if Mundt fails to make the grade. A heady little (5' 10") playmaker, Washington is a deadly jump shooter from anywhere on the court.

Bobby Washington
Starting Varsity Guard

Guards Earl Nau and Mike Heitman could very easily be starters, Scheuerman said, and tonight's starting lineup is only tentative. If Gentry is shifted to center, veteran George Seaberg will be moved into the vacated forward position he said.

Sharm plans to take a look at his entire squad tonight and six sophomores will receive close attention. They are forwards Ron Weller and Mike Dull, center Dennis Runge and guards Les Kewney, Bob Carpenter and Ron Zagar.

Freshman starters will be forwards Mike Woods, Fulton, Ill., and Gary Lorenz, Clinton, Ill.; and Gary Nelson, Rock Island, Ill., and guards Joe Novak, Rock Island, Ill., and Dave Maher, Iowa City. Maher is well known to the local fans, leading St. Mary's of Iowa City to two state crowns and a second-place finish his last three years as a prep.

California Vs. Iowa In Rose Bowl

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Pacific Coast Conference Monday announced California has been selected to play in the Rose Bowl against Iowa of the Big Ten.

Acting Commissioner Bernard Hammerbeck, said the PCC vote in favor of the Golden Bears was unanimous.

Won Saturday

To all intents, California won the role in whipping Stanford Saturday 16-15 to win the undisputed conference championship.

Coach Pete Elliott's team, after a poor start, settled down to win the PCC title with a record of six victories and one loss, to Oregon State. It's over-all record was 7-3, with other defeats to College of the Pacific and Michigan State.

The Jan. 1 game will be the 13th in the PCC-Big Ten series. Southern California defeated Wisconsin 7-0 for the only PCC victory.

"California will be a worthy representative. It is a continually improving team with keen competitive spirit and intelligent coaching," Hammerbeck said. "It should play an excellent game in the Rose Bowl."

Played In 7

California has played in seven Rose Bowl games, dating back to 1921 when the Bears defeated Ohio State 28-0. They have an over-all Rose Bowl record of two wins, four losses and one tie.

In 1922 California and Washington and Jefferson played a scoreless tie. Georgia Tech edged the Bears in 1929 8-7 in a game famous for Roy Reigel's celebrated wrong-way run.

The Bears defeated Alabama in 1938 13-0 and then took three successive setbacks from Big Ten representatives, all decided in the final minutes — Northwestern 20-14, Ohio State 17-14 and Michigan 14-6, in games of 1949-50-51.

Iowa's only appearance in the Rose Bowl was on Jan. 1, 1957 when it defeated Oregon State 35-19. Under the no-repeat agreement, the Hawkeyes were not eligible to play in the past Rose Bowl game.

No automatic gas incinerator!

It isn't that the owners of some brand new homes don't want to do away with the bad-weather nuisance of an outdoor garbage can. They simply found out too late that certain chimneys are inadequate for the installation of an automatic gas incinerator. It's the modern way to dispose of all burnable garbage and trash.

BEFORE you build or buy a home, make sure that chimney diameter, height and materials meet all necessary requirements of an incinerator. And the man who'll give you all the facts is your appliance dealer or heating contractor.

Find out how easily you can have an automatic gas incinerator installed in your home.

100 Per Cent Peak By Iowa For Title: Evy

CHICAGO (AP) — The ability to maintain a 100 per cent emotional peak carried Iowa to the Big Ten football championship, Coach Forest Evashevski said Monday.

"Our team has physical shortcomings, and we found out we couldn't win in the Big Ten unless we held a 100 per cent emotional peak," Evashevski told the Chicago American Quarterback Club.

Luck And Breaks
"You also have to be extremely lucky to win in the Big Ten, and we had our share of luck and breaks. That 13-1 tie with the Air Force Academy brought home to us that we had to operate at 100 per cent efficiency. From that game on, our boys were a dedicated group to achieve this."

"We were very fortunate not to have a serious injury until just before our Notre Dame game."

"California, our Rose Bowl opponent, has a very fine ball club and our boys won't take it lightly. They learned their lesson against the Air Force and know that it will take 100 per cent effort to win in the Rose Bowl."

Big Ten Balanced
"The Big Ten was the strongest I've ever seen in this season as far as balance was concerned. No team you could point to couldn't knock you off on any given Saturday."

Evashevski, who has been mentioned prominently as coach of the year, was asked who his choice would be.

"It would be Bennie Oosterbaan," he replied.

Oosterbaan stepped down as Michigan's head coach at the end of the season. His assistant, Bump Elliott, replaces him. The Wolverines finished eighth in the Big Ten race with a 1-5-1 record.

"Bennie is the finest football man ever to put on a pair of shoes," said Evashevski. "I have five sons and I would like to see all of them play for Bennie. He left the game with dignity and glory. I hope when I go, it will be with the same."

"Bump is the finest young man I know and I don't think Michigan could have picked a finer one to take the reins."

After 'Long Count' Folley Takes TKO Win Over Bygraves

LEICESTER, England (AP) — Zora Folley, heavyweight contender from Chandler, Ariz., Monday night stopped Joe Bygraves, former British Empire heavyweight champion in the ninth round of a ten round bout.

The 27-year-old American, third ranked among the challengers for Floyd Patterson's crown, controlled the fight all the way.

Making up for his Oct. 14 upset in London by Britain's Henry Cooper, Folley held a 6-1-1 edge on The Associated Press scorecard through eight rounds.

Bygraves who had knocked out Cooper in the ninth round in February, 1957, was a 2 to 1 underdog.

The only knockdown of the fight was a "long count" nine in the second round, reminiscent of the famous "long count" of the Gene Tunney-Jack Dempsey scrap in Chicago in 1927.

The fast-moving, fast-punching Folley sent Bygraves slumping to the canvas with a short right cross. The Jamaican, dazed and bewildered, sat on the deck as the count mounted to nine.

Then Bygraves looked toward the timekeeper, shouted "is that nine?" and stumbled to his feet.

It seemed to ringsiders the count had gone past 10 before Bygraves got up but British referee Frank Wilson allowed the bout to continue and Bygraves fought back.

There was only a second to go in the ninth round when Referee Wilson stopped it at 2:59 of the round to save Bygraves, 27, from further punishment.

Hawks Leave December 17

The Iowa football squad is expected to leave by plane for Pasadena, Calif., and the Rose Bowl Dec. 17, it was disclosed Monday. Two chartered planes are to transport the 44-man squad from the Cedar Rapids Airport to Burbank, Calif.

A reception is planned for the Hawks at the Huntington Hotel in Pasadena, where the Hawks will set up headquarters.

Football practice reportedly will be held at the East Los Angeles Junior College stadium where Iowa practiced for its 1957 Rose Bowl appearance.

The return from Pasadena to Iowa City has been set for Jan. 4.

Evy's 7-Year Mark At Iowa: 38-22-4

The 7-1-1 mark of the Iowa football team in 1958 now brings the record of the seven Hawkeye teams coached by Forest Evashevski to 38 wins, 22 losses and 4 ties for a percentage of .625. In the last three seasons, Iowa has a record of 23-3-2 (14-3-1 against Big Ten opponents). This is the finest 3-year performance in Iowa football history.

Bowl bound Tigers of LSU were concerned.

The 115-16 margin measured the first place votes in the weekly Associated Press poll of sports writers and broadcasters. Iowa came the closest in this respect but placed only fourth in the over-all balloting, counted on the basis of 10 points for each first place vote, nine for second, etc. There will be one more poll next week, but it seems a formality for LSU, which has completed its regular schedule.

Unbeaten, Untied
After LSU, the only unbeaten and untied major college team in the nation, wound up its season with a reverberating triumph over its ancient rival, the experts jumped on the Tiger bandwagon. All but 41 of the first place votes cast went to LSU, and most of the voters who didn't put the Tigers first gave them a vote for second.

Auburn, with only five first place votes but strong support for second, held its place behind LSU, nearly 400 points behind. The margin this week was 1,445 to 1,083. Oklahoma and Iowa, two other bowl bound teams that won impressively last Saturday, moved ahead of idle Army into third and fourth places.

Iowa's Big Ten champions drubbed Notre Dame 31-21, and Oklahoma, again the Big Eight winner, belted Nebraska 40-7. Army took its usual Saturday off before the Navy game and lost some of the attention focused on it during the rest of its unbeaten but once-tied season.

Buckeyes Advance
Wisconsin, down one notch from last week, Texas Christian, Air Force, Ohio State and Syracuse completed the top ten. Ohio State, a 20-14 winner over Michigan in the Big Ten windup, moved into the select group in place of Purdue, which was tied by Indiana. The Air Force Academy, which tied Iowa and won all its other games, moved up one notch to eighth place.

The second ten: Purdue, Clemson, Mississippi, Florida, Vanderbilt, South Carolina, California, Notre Dame, Pittsburgh and Rutgers.

12-Inch Snow, 70 M.P.H. Winds Sweep Montana; One Dead
 HELENA, Mont. (AP) — Snow and winds of up to 70 m.p.h. swept over most of Montana Monday. Up to 12 inches of snow fell. One man was killed when his heavy truck plunged off a highway in high winds. Five hunters were reported missing in remote areas. Rescue crews checked farmhouses and other shelters for them.

Two Double Murder-Suicides Within 6 Hours in Denver
 DENVER (UPI) — Six persons were shot to death in Denver during a 6-hour period Monday in what authorities called two double murder-suicides. A suburban Wheat Ridge man shot his wife and 3-year-old son with a .22-caliber target pistol and then turned the gun on himself as a sheriff's officer listened over the telephone. Horace Siragusa, 65, shot his daughter, Frances, 25, in the back of the head while she was at breakfast. He ran from the house to the yard of his neighbor, where he killed Mrs. Mollie Jacks, 78. She was hanging up a wash. Then, police said, Siragusa shot himself with the .22-caliber automatic pistol. He killed his wife 20 years ago.

Pittsburgh Businessman Denies He Spread $200,000 TV Channel Rumor
 WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Pittsburgh businessman Monday flatly contradicted under oath testimony that he was the source of rumors that a former FCC chairman was offered $200,000 for his vote in the Pittsburgh channel 4 TV case. The witness, William G. Matta, swore that he first heard the report from Earl Reed, president of Television City, Inc.—the man who had identified Matta as the person who told him about the rumors. Matta, a heavy-shouldered, balding man, was summoned before the House Influence Investigating Subcommittee in connection with its effort to determine whether someone deliberately "manufactured" the rumors in an effort to influence award of the channel.

Red Chinese Resume Shelling Of Quemoy On Odd Numbered Days
 TAIPEI (AP) — Red Chinese shore guns fired 168 shells at Quemoy between midnight and daybreak Tuesday, the Chinese Nationalist Defense Ministry reported. It was a resumption of shelling the offshore islands on odd-numbered days. The Red artillery was silent Monday after pounding the Quemoy Sunday with the heaviest barrage in nearly three weeks.

Conservatives Will Control Australian House, Senate
 SYDNEY (AP) — The Conservative coalition Government of Prime Minister Robert Menzies will control both the House of Representatives and the Senate as the result of the general election last Saturday. The Government lost control of the Senate in the 1955 elections but held a majority in the House. The Government has won 76 seats and the Australian Labor party 43 in Saturday's voting. Four seats still are undecided. No seats were won by either the breakaway Democratic Labor party or the Communist party.

De Gaulle's Views Differ From Chief's
 PARIS (AP) — A compact rightist group called De Gaulle's views on France's new National Assembly. Paradoxically, they may cause Premier de Gaulle a pack of trouble. The big friction point is Algeria. From results of Sunday's first-round Assembly elections, this appears clear: De Gaulle will be leading with a hard core of deputies with less liberal thinking than himself on that North African territory. A solid chunk of perhaps even more conservative deputies is expected to be sent to Paris from Algeria in Algerian balloting next weekend. De Gaulle would have preferred a substantial moderate bloc to second him on Algeria and act as a counterweight. However, the vote all but silenced the serious-minded moderate opposition. Former Premier Pierre Mendes-France, for instance, was swamped by a little-known politician flying the banner of Jacques Soustelle's Gaullist Union for the new Republic (UNR). An absolute majority of all a district's votes was needed Sunday for a candidate to take one of the 465 Assembly seats designated for Metropolitan France. About six persons were running for each seat. Only 39 came through. In a run-off next Sunday, the man who leads the field will win, regardless of whether he has an absolute majority. The Communists lost 1,649,000 votes compared with the elections in 1956.

Like Chooses Committee To Evaluate Military Aid
 AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower Monday ordered a penetrating evaluation of the U. S. military aid program with the goal of bolstering free world defenses. And he picked a blue ribbon committee to conduct the study. Republican William H. Draper Jr., undersecretary of the Army in the Truman administration and a former ambassador to NATO under Mr. Eisenhower, was named chairman of a 9-member committee with wide experience in key government jobs. Draper, 64, directed the Berlin airlift from Washington during the Communist blockade nearly 10 years ago. He now makes his home in Mexico City as board chairman of the Mexican Power and Light Co. The President's appointment of Draper to lead what Mr. Eisenhower termed "a completely independent, objective, nonpartisan analysis" of the military assistance program was announced after they had conferred for 45 minutes at the Augusta National Golf Club. Then Draper flew back to Washington for a first meeting with other members of the new committee at the White House. The members include James E. Webb, who was former President Truman's budget director, and three retired military men who once held top posts. The three are Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff in 1953-57; Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, former supreme commander of North Atlantic Treaty forces in Europe and now president of the American Red Cross; and Gen. Joseph T. McNarney, commander of U.S. forces in Europe in 1945. Mr. Eisenhower ordered the study in the midst of his drive to cut federal spending. For the fiscal year which started July 1 the Administration asked Congress for $1,800,000,000 in military aid funds and got 1 1/2 billion dollars. As for chances Mr. Eisenhower might ask for even less for the next fiscal year, Draper told a news conference here: "From my talks with the President, I understand this is to be neither an economy or anti-economy drive."

To Push Bill Ending Iowa Death Penalty
 DES MOINES (AP) — State Sen. Howard Buck (R-State Center) disclosed Monday that he and two other senators will sponsor a bill eliminating the death penalty in Iowa. Buck and others tried unsuccessfully in the 1957 Legislature to get an anti-death penalty measure passed.

Supreme Court Upholds Pupil Placement Law

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court Monday upheld the constitutionality of Alabama's pupil placement law despite arguments that it was designed solely to thwart the court's 1954 school integration order.

In a brief, the high court affirmed the decision last May of a 3-judge federal court which held that the law is valid provided it is properly administered and not used merely to keep Negroes out of the public schools because of their race.

The lower court said the state law on its face sets up machinery for administering schools "in a constitutional manner by the admission of qualified pupils upon a basis of individual merit without regard to their race or color."

The opinion said the record did not show that the four Negro children, who challenged the law, were excluded from the white schools of their choice on the basis of anything but a proper test.

But the lower court emphasized that the statute could be declared unconstitutional in some future lawsuit if it was administered in such a way that race was the primary factor in assigning pupils to various schools.

In affirming the lower court decision, the high court made it plain that it was acting only "on the limited grounds on which the district court rested its decision."

It was the first time the Supreme Court had ruled directly on pupil placement laws which were enacted by 10 Southern states in the wake of the court's decision banning the segregation of Negro and white students in the South's public schools.

The Alabama statute directs local school boards to consider a number of factors in assigning pupils to schools.

Among these are available space, psychological qualifications, the possibility of disorder, and "the maintenance or severance of established social and psychological relationships with other pupils and with teachers." Race is not mentioned.

Court Considers Segregation Laws

RICHMOND, Va. (UPI) — Virginia's Supreme Court of Appeals Monday took under advisement the state's own anti-integration laws.

State attorneys pegged their arguments that the laws are valid solely on the contention that the U.S. Supreme Court's 1954 anti-segregation ruling nullified Virginia's constitutional provision requiring the state to maintain a public school system.

Police Find Sliced Body Of Des Moines Woman

DES MOINES (AP) — The mutilated body of Mrs. Barbara Holloway, 20, of Des Moines, was found on the bed at her home Monday after detectives received a tip from a deputy sheriff at Adel. Coroner R. Corwin Johnson said Mrs. Holloway was stabbed to death. He said she was cut between the eyes, about the neck and chest.

Johnson said Mrs. Holloway was several months pregnant. He said neighbors and relatives told him the Holloways had been having trouble. Des Moines Detectives returned Holloway here from Adel Monday afternoon and were holding him in city jail for questioning.

Dallas County deputy sheriff Ralph Grimm called detectives here about 12:45 p.m. He told officers he had in custody, Mrs. Holloway's husband, Howard.

Grimm told detectives Holloway walked into a locker plant at Adel and asked a man what he would do if he had killed his wife. The startled man replied he thought he would get a lawyer. Holloway left.

The man then called Grimm. The deputy found Holloway on an Adel street talking to an attorney and placed him under arrest.

Coroner Johnson said the woman had been dead since about 5 or 6 a.m. Monday. He said there was evidence of a struggle in the bedroom and that Mrs. Holloway had suitcases stacked in a corner of the bedroom, packed as though she were ready to leave home.

An announcement of special interest to fall graduates in Engineering and Science
 B.S. • M.S. • Ph.D.

Lockheed Missile Systems Division has created a number of special, new openings with unusual opportunities for fall graduates in electrical engineering, mechanical engineering, aeronautical engineering, mathematics or physics.

The Division is engaged in a broad program of basic research in all areas of scientific activity in missile and space technology, including advanced systems research; nucleonics; physics; chemistry; mathematics; design; test; electronics; flight sciences; and manufacturing. Some of the important studies under investigation are: man in space; space communications; ionic and plasma propulsion; space physics; nuclear propulsion; magnetohydrodynamics; oceanography; computing machine memories; human engineering; noise suppression; materials and processes; boundary layer control; electro magnetic wave propagation and radiation; and operations research and analysis.

Lockheed is systems manager for such major long-term projects as the Navy Polaris IRBM; Air Force Q-5 and X-7; Army Kingfisher and other important research and development programs. The Division was honored at the first National Missile Industry Conference as "the organization that contributed most in the past year to the development of the art of missiles and astronautics."

LOCATION
 Headquarters for the Division are at Sunnyvale on the San Francisco Peninsula and new modern Research and Development facilities are located in the Stanford Industrial Park in nearby Palo Alto. A four thousand acre company-owned static test base is located in the Ben Lomond mountains thirty miles from Sunnyvale. Other Division locations are at Van Nuys and Santa Maria, California; Cape Canaveral, Florida and Alamogordo, New Mexico. Together, they occupy more than two million square feet of laboratory, engineering, manufacturing and office space and provide the latest in scientific and technical equipment.

ASSIGNMENTS
 Upon joining the Division, you are assigned to your special areas of interest and work directly under distinguished leaders in your field. The company encourages and sponsors individual communication with other scientists, the publication of papers and articles, and participation in symposiums and conventions. Every opportunity is given members of the technical staff to participate in the initiation of advanced technological developments.

GRADUATE STUDY PROGRAM
 Of special interest to those who wish to continue their advanced education, is the Division's Graduate Study Program. Under it, selected students with qualified academic records may obtain advanced degrees at the University of California at Berkeley or Stanford University, while employed in their chosen fields at Lockheed. All costs of tuition, admission, thesis and textbooks are borne by the company.

IMPORTANT
 The number of these special openings is limited. If you are interested, please wire collect directly to Mr. R. C. Beverstock, College Relations Administrator, 962 W. El Camino Real, Sunnyvale, California, giving your major, and degree level.

State GOPs Show Intentions To Cooperate With Democrats

DES MOINES — An intention to cooperate with Democratic Gov. Herschel C. Loveless and the Democratic legislative minority was indicated Monday in a statement by 70 Republican members of the House and Senate.

The brief statement was issued after a closed session at which the GOP legislators discussed plans for the 1959 General Assembly which convenes in January.

The brief statement summarized the stated aims of the GOP legislature majority said:

Our first objective in the next General Assembly is to do what is best for the state of Iowa.

We recognize the need for the greatest achievements during the next session and to gain such ends we shall strive for the fullest cooperation with our fellow executive departments.

With majorities in both Houses, the Republicans will choose the various officers of the two bodies. Formal caucuses to agree on their choices were set for Dec. 13.

Reps. Vern Lisle of Clarinda and Leroy Chalupa of Pleasant Plain are announced candidates for Speaker of the House.

GOP senators also announced a patronage committee. Its members are Guy Bulter of Rolfe, L. M. Boothby of Cleghorn, Earl Elijah of Clarence, Lawrence Putney of Gladbrook, George L. Scott of West Union, W. C. Stuart of Chariton, John D. Shoeman of Atlantic and Carl Rigggenberg of Ames.

English Profs At Meeting In Pittsburg

Two professors in the SUI department of English, John C. Gerber and Robert G. Carlson left for Pittsburg, Pa. last weekend to attend the Executive Committee meeting of the Annual Convention of the National Council of Teachers of English which is now in session.

Richard Braddock, assistant professor and acting supervisor of writing in communications skills, plans to leave for the convention on Wednesday.

As a member of the Executive Committee, Gerber will speak on a panel which will discuss "The Highlights of the Basic Issues Conference." Material for the discussion was obtained from a conference held earlier this year where some basic issues of education were discussed.

Carlson will be chairman of a symposium which will discuss "New Approaches to Developing the Reading Habit."

During his stay in Pittsburg, Braddock will propose that the National Council establish "bar exams" for its new members. The exams, Braddock said, would be like the bar exams required for the legal profession, only members would be tested on English and literature skills.

James Nolans Overruled In Suchy Case

The special appearances of Mr. and Mrs. James Nolan attacking the jurisdiction of the Johnson County district court in a $75,000 damage suit have been overruled by Judge James P. Gaffney.

The suit was brought against the Nolans by Donald Suchy for his daughter, Angela, 23, who was injured November 14, 1956, in an accident in Finkbine Park. Mrs. Nolan is charged with negligence in connection with the mishap.

Suchy was a co-captain of the 1956 football team.

Judge Gaffney made no comment when he overruled the appearance by Mrs. Nolan, driver of the car which struck the Suchy girl.

The jurisdiction of the court was questioned by the Nolans on a technical point involving service of the notice of pendency of the damage suit.

Judge Gaffney pointed out that the status governing service on non-residents temporarily in the state had been carefully followed in the special appearance of Mr. Nolan, owner of the vehicle.

Four SUlowans Participate In Forensics Conference

Four SUI students participated in the annual University of South Dakota Forensics Conference held at Vermillion, S.D., Friday through Sunday.

Peggy Brooks, N3, Burlington; Dorothy House, A4, Muscatine; Kathy Kelly, A3, Newton; and Ron Stump, A2, Keokuk; were among the 200 students representing 19 colleges and universities at the event.

In discussion, Dorothy House, Kathy Kelly, and Stump were rated "excellent," and Peggy Brooks was rated "superior." The discussion question this year is "How Can We Improve Our Relations with Latin America?"

In debate, "excellent" ratings were given to Peggy Brooks, Kathy Kelly and Stump. Dorothy House was rated "superior."

The affirmative team, composed of Kathy Kelly and Dorothy House, won three of four debates.

Peggy Brooks and Stump, representing the negative team, won two and lost two of their four debates.

Viola Recital On Dec. 3 By Preucil

A viola recital including the works of Schumann, Bloch, DeHervelois will be presented Dec. 3 at 8 p.m. by William Preucil, instructor in the SUI music department.

Preucil will open his program with the DeHervelois "Suite in A Major," arranged by Doris Bogen Preucil, wife of the violist.

Also to be performed are Bloch's "Suite for Viola and Piano (1919)," Findlay's "Sonatine," "Introduction and Allegro" by Clark Eastham and the Schumann "Fantasy Pieces, Op. 73."

Pianist for the program will be John Simms, associate professor of music at SUI.

Violist with the University String Quartet, which has made appearances earlier this fall, Preucil was a member of the Rochester Philharmonic and the Detroit Symphony orchestras before coming to SUI this year.

The recital is to be given in Macbride Auditorium. The public is invited free of charge. Tickets are not required for admission.

Kent Hart To Present Piano Recital Today

Kent Hart, A4, Davenport, will present a piano recital today at 4 p.m. in North Music Hall.

Included in the program are "Fantasia in C minor" by Mozart, "Sonatine" by Ravel and "Sonata, Op. 164" by Schubert.

SUI Plans Iowa Mental Health Talks

With the aid of a 2-way telephone circuit, staff members of five of Iowa's mental health institutes will again be able to participate in a special series of educational programs originating from the State Psychopathic Hospital in Iowa City.

The first program will be held Saturday, Nov. 29. Dr. George A. Jervis, director of research at the Letchworth Village mental health center in New York, will lecture on "Disorders of Metabolism Affecting the Central Nervous System."

Began Last Year
Designed to increase professional skill and bring new information to the psychiatric and mental health personnel of the institutes, the series was started last year as part of a new training and research plan.

Each of the psychiatric clinics and lectures will be "broadcast" to the institutions at Independence, Mount Pleasant, Woodward, Clarinda and Cherokee. Staff members who are unable to attend the meetings in Iowa City will hear the proceedings over loudspeakers connected to the telephone circuit.

Will Enable Questions
The two-way hook-up also will enable institution personnel to participate in the question session which will follow the case conference and the lecture, said Dr. Paul E. Huston, professor and head of psychiatry at SUI and director of the Psychopathic Hospital.

Photographic slides used to illustrate lectures are mailed to each of the institutions so they may be projected on a screen at the same time the lecturer is describing them in Iowa City.

Eleven Saturday morning programs have been scheduled during the next seven months, with outstanding psychiatrists from many parts of the country delivering the lectures and leading case conference discussions.

Plays Translated By SUI Lecturer

Two classical plays, "The Birds" by Aristophanes, and "The Menaechni" by Plautus have been translated for English enthusiasts by Peter D. Arnott, visiting lecturer in classics at SUI, in his new book, "Two Classical Comedies". The plays were adopted to be presented in marionette form.
