Among Their Souvenirs

IAB AND FRANK (or "The City Kids") have found thatlife can be beautiful for a Caltech tortoise in Iowa. Especially when trees are trimmed to keep them from getting hungry. However, not all of the tortoises in the world are so fortunate. The photo shows one of the IAB kids, who was only glad to pose for the photographer. IAB and FRANK are both the captives of their respective fauna. The Iowa City Kids, when they win the beauty contest, are even opened to the public. The Iowa City Kids, when they win the beauty contest, are even opened to the public.
News Digest

Russian Vitae Test Ban

To Expand Nuclear Test Ban

In a proposal for expansion of the test ban, the U.S. Senate Foreign Relations Committee announced its agreement with the Soviet Union's stance on the test ban. The Soviet Union has proposed to expand the ban to cover all nuclear explosions, including those underground, as well as those in outer space. The U.S. Senate is expected to vote on the proposal soon.

V ast燕 Varyety Rehearsals, Ticket Sales Begin Monday

Rehearsals are underway and tickets will be sold for the V ast燕 Varyety show. The show is scheduled for 8 p.m. on Monday and Tuesday, February 11th and 12th, respectively. The proceeds from the show will be used to support the university's arts programs.

University Calendar

daily-lowan

The Daily Iowan
New Jersey Cop Loses Ring Battle To Ace Armstrong

NEW YORK — Green Villa, N.J., March 20 — A 25-year-old transit cop, who was last seen Friday at a homosexual bar, was found shot to death in a remote parking lot in an area of heavy traffic in the western part of the city. The victim, identified as Sgt. John E. Armstrong, was last seen Friday at a bar in the neighborhood. The police said his body had been found in a dark alley near a parking lot. The police said he had been shot several times. The police said he had been a transit cop for several years. The police said he had been a transit cop for several years.

Old Gold Day Leadership School Slated

Chicago leaders will take to high school students at the end of the school day on Friday. The students will be asked to join the organization of the American Legion. The students will be addressed by the director of the American Legion. The students will be addressed by the director of the American Legion.

Bean Authors Medical Book

Dr. William R. Bean, professor of medicine at the University of Illinois, will be the keynote speaker at the Medical Book Club of Chicago. The book will be about the medical profession. The book will be about the medical profession.

Social Notes

PSI OMEGA XI, Men's Club will hold its initiation ceremony this evening at 7:30 p.m. at the Masonic Temple. The ceremony will be attended by members of the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary. The ceremony will be attended by members of the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary.

Two SUI Dentists To Give Talks At Sigma Xi Meeting

Two SUI dentists will give talks at the meeting of the Sigma Xi Club this evening at 7:30 p.m. at the Sigma Xi Club. The meeting will be attended by members of the Sigma Xi Club. The meeting will be attended by members of the Sigma Xi Club.

Journalists To Lecture On Russia

Russia will be the topic of a lecture given by the Russian-speaking journalists this evening at the University of Iowa. The lecture will be given by the Russian-speaking journalists this evening at the University of Iowa. The lecture will be given by the Russian-speaking journalists this evening at the University of Iowa.

Doctors To Attend Postgraduate Course At SUI

Another Blonde Questioned In Lisa Rose Kidnapping

NEW YORK (UPI) — FBI agents on Saturday afternoon questioned a blonde woman in a case involving the kidnapping of Lisa Rose Kidnapping. The woman was taken into custody while driving a car in a remote part of the state. The woman was taken into custody while driving a car in a remote part of the state.
Evans Praises Hawkeyes

At Chicago Luncheon

By DON FORESTY

PACIFIC-premier Iowa football star, Bob Evans, patted the shoulder of one of his former teammates, Junior Smith, hailing him as an outstanding football player.

Junior Smith, who lives in Chicago, returned the compliment by saying that the Hawkeyes had made a very fine showing in the Big Ten Canoe Championship meet, held at Monticello, Iowa, last week.

The Hawkeyes have been making a name for themselves in the Big Ten, and it was evident that the fans of the Iowa State University were pleased with the team's performance.

Major Leagues Promise Help For Minor Leagues

CHICAGO -- The minor league baseball players were promised a better job by the owners of the major league clubs at the American Association of Independents convention, held in Chicago.

The owners pledged to improve the working conditions of the minor league players, who have been complaining of low pay and poor treatment.

Evans Named Rookie Of Year

At New York Luncheon

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

 Evan Simonian, a rookie of the year, was named to the National League's All-Star team by the Baseball Writers' Association of America.

Simonian was named as the Most Valuable Player in the National League, and was congratulated by the players and coaches.

Air Academy Fencers Drop Iowa, 17-10

A veteran Air Force Fencing team proved too much for the visiting Iowa team, winning by a score of 17-10.

The Air Force team, led by Captain John Youngerman, were able to win eight of the 10 matches, and took home the victory.

Champion Male Swimmers Tie Senior Record

At New York Luncheon

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The national champion male swimmers, who have set a new senior record of 3:03.4 in the 440-yard freestyle, were honored at the New York Athletic Club.

The swimmers, who are from all over the country, were chosen for their outstanding performances in the 1959 season.

The 3:03.4 record was set by the champion male swimmers, who are from all over the country, and is considered a new senior record.

The champion male swimmers were chosen for their outstanding performances in the 1959 season, and their record of 3:03.4 is considered a new senior record.