3 Rock 'N' Roll Idols Killed In Iowa Plane Crash

Crooner Of "Donna" Dead At Mason City

Ritchie Valens Just Finished 1st Movie

MASON CITY (AP)—Three rock 'n' roll singing idols, whose records and appearances stirred millions of teen-agers, were killed early Tuesday in a cold, wind-swept Iowa field.

The 4-place plane carrying the trio and their pilot crashed within minutes after taking off in light snow from the Mason City Airport.

They were Buddy Holly, 22, of Lubbock, Texas; Ritchie Valens, 17, of Los Angeles; J. P. "Big Boy" Richardson, 28, of Beaumont, Texas; and Roger Peterson, 21, of Clear Lake, the pilot.

Appeared At Clear Lake

The troupe, with which the trio had appeared, had entertained an estimated 1,100 teen-agers and their parents at the Surf Ballroom in nearby Clear Lake Monday night.

The Beachcraft Bonanza, chartered from the Dwyer Flying service of Mason City, was to take the three singers to Fargo, N.D., in advance of the troupe's engagement there Tuesday night. The others went by chartered bus.

Holly, Richardson and Valens, who soared to popularity among the teen-age rock 'n' roll set in the past several years, chartered the plane in order to take care of advance arrangements at Fargo.

Weather Blamed

Authorities tentatively blamed weather conditions for the crash. Besides the snow, the temperature

25 Students To Graduate With Honors

Will Take Part In SUI Exercises Saturday

Twenty-five students will graduate with honors at the Midwinter Commencement at the SUI Field house Saturday at 10 a.m.

The printed SUI Commencement program will indicate the two students graduating "with highest distinction," ten students graduating "with high distinction," and their ten students "with distinction."

Graduates in the honor group include Robert Koepke, Arcadia Howard Christensen, Atlantic Marly Jo Christensen, Burlington Kathleen Halloran, Norbert Malik Cedar Rapids; Robert Lewis, Dav

port; Robert Nelson, Exira Eugene Mathiesen, Harlan; Margene Braverman, Mrs. Margare Caldwell, Lester Campbell, Mrs. Janet Derrall, Robert Fillingham Theodore Rosky; Allyn Schafer Mrs. Wilma Taylor, James Young Iowa City; Donald Bartholomew Keokuk; Richard Cheville, Lamoni Mrs. Sandra Taylor, Mason City Richard Boyce, Nevada; Carol Leinhauser, Ottumwa; Robert Workhoven, Sioux City; David Dittmer, Quincy, Ill.; Mrs. Gay Hertzman, Raleigh, N.C.

The honors are based on scholarship in fields of study in the SUI Colleges of Liberal Arts, Commerce or Engineering. Grades from all undergraduate college or university work are averaged to determine the standings. Of the 25 receiving honors, 23 are Iowans.

SUBMARINE COLLISION

NEW LONDON, Conn. (UPI)—The atomic submarine Skate and the conventional submarine Cubera collided last Wednesday in the Atlantic, the Navy said Tuesday.

No one on either boat was hurt. The Cubera had just finished loading some mail on the Skate when she scraped and damaged the nuclear sub's port propeller while maneuvering away.

Emlyn Williams Will Present SUI Lecture On Dylan Thomas Stories

Emlyn Williams, Welsh actor and playwright, will present a program in the Iowa Memorial Union on Feb. 18 under the auspices of the University Lecture Course.

His program "A Boy Growing Up," is based on the stories of the Welsh author, Dylan Thomas.

Tickets Ready Feb. 14

Free tickets for the lecture will be distributed to SUI students and staff upon presentation of their ID cards at the East Lobby Desk of the IMU beginning Feb. 14 from 1 to 5 p.m.

On Feb. 16 and 17, distribution will be from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.; Feb. 18, 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Any undistributed tickets will be available to the general public on Feb. 17.

Williams' career in the theater, includes playwriting, producing and acting. He has also appeared in many movies including "The Citadel," "Hatter's Castle," "Another Man's Poison," "Ivanhoe," "I Accuse."

He is also the author of "The Corn is Green" in which he starred for two years.

Dylan Thomas Stories

The 1-man show which Williams will present at SUI is based on Thomas' stories of his youth. Williams opened a successful run of the presentation at the Longacre Theater in New York last fall.

He does not attempt to impersonate Thomas, but develops the plot of "A Boy Growing Up" largely through comic Thomas stories chosen from "A Prospect of the Sea," "Portrait of the Artist as a Young Dog" and his earlier "Self-Portrait" from "Return Journey."

Williams relates such episodes as the bus outing that became "Choral with Beer," "Just Like Little Dogs," and a humorous account of the arrival in London.

Memorial Performance

Williams began preparing the Thomas performance after he appeared in a memorial performance for Thomas who died in 1953. The success of the performance led Williams to believe that an entire evening of comedy and drama could be adapted from the stories and sketches of the poet.

Williams first experience with this type of 1-man show was in his impersonation of Charles Dickens. As Dickens, Williams, with a forked beard, red carnation, and swallow-tailed coat, performed all over the world, including two runs on Broadway and a U.S. Tour.

Williams prepared the Thomas entertainment for a full year while touring South Africa as Charles Dickens. He appeared at the Globe Theater in London with "A Boy Growing Up" before bringing the presentation to Broadway.

Plane Down In Icy Rain; 72 Aboard

American Plane Enroute From Chicago To N.Y.

NEW YORK (UPI)—An American Airlines turbo-prop Electra en route from Chicago to New York with 72 persons aboard crashed in icy rain into the East River near Rikers Island Thursday night.

Police and Coast Guard launches at the scene said they were recovering "some" bodies. A commercial tug reported that it had rescued "eight or nine" survivors. Police said seven survivors had been taken to shore. They were said to be injured, but details of their injuries were not immediately known.

The Coast Guard said a 20-foot section of the plane was sighted one mile east of Rikers Island, which is located in the East River off the boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx. A helicopter was participating in the rescue operation.

The Laguardia Airport control tower said the plane crashed shortly after the field lost contact with it at 10:15 p.m. as it was approaching for a landing.

The crash scene was near that of the Feb. 1, 1957, crash of a Northeast Airlines DC-6A on Rikers Island, which resulted in the death of 20 passengers. In addition, 28 others were injured seriously and 50 suffered minor injuries.

The American Electra, one of the newest of the commercial liners, crashed south of the famed Whitestone Bridge, close to the shore of the Bronx.

The crash of flight 320 came with dramatic swiftness. The airport's control tower said it lost contact with the plane and the next word it heard was from the Coast Guard, which said it had crashed into the river.

The Electra, a $2 million plane, can carry 76 persons — 71 passengers and a crew of five. American first put it into service on Jan. 23 in an inaugural flight from New York to Chicago.

The plane is manufactured by Lockheed, has a speed of 410 miles an hour and a cruising altitude of from 25,000 to 30,000 feet.

No Objection To IC-Lucas School Plan

West Lucas Township School District sought permission Tuesday night to merge with the Iowa City Community School District.

The Johnson County School Board met with the boards of the 40 school districts in Johnson County to discuss the merger.

Only one merger can take place in the county in a 12-month period, and the meeting was called to allow other districts to object to the merger. None did.

The West Lucas Board mentioned possible tax relief for Iowa Citizens and a new source of revenue for future Iowa City building programs as reasons the merger would be advantageous to the Iowa City District.

Members of the Iowa City Board declared that they did not want to take any merger action until the bonds for the present junior high building are sold. (The Iowa City Board will soon sell bonds to pay for a new junior high school and rehabilitate the old one. The bond issue was approved by Iowa City voters May 13.)

The Iowa City Board said, "The Iowa City School Board is in favor of everything that will improve education. Educationally, the Iowa City School District has no reason to make this merger."

"A merger should be made to improve education, not to lower taxes. And the tax difference in this case would probably not be great enough to effect the issue one way or the other anyway."

Merger steps are as follows: 1. A petition must be signed by 20 per cent of the people who voted in the last election in each school district.

2. The petitions are filed in the office of the County Superintendent of Schools. He sets a date for a hearing.

3. The merger is approved by the County School Board.

The proposed merger of West Lucas and Iowa City will be discussed again at a later date not yet determined.

'The Seven Year Itch' Hits Iowa City Stage Feb. 25

"The Seven Year Itch," a contemporary comedy by George Axelrod, will be presented at City High School's Little Theater Feb. 25 through 28.

Tickets for the play to be presented by the Iowa City Community Theater may be purchased for $1 from any Community Theater member. Additional information about tickets may be obtained by calling the Recreation Commission offices at 8-5493.

SUlowan Stars

The comedy deals with the problems of Richard Sherman, a typical crew-cut "organization man," played by Donald Stribling, G. Iowa City.

Sherman has been married for seven years, has settled into a routine, and has grown dissatisfied with his high-paying job in a publishing house, with his charming wife, and with his life in general. Rather than desert his family, Sherman turns his life into a fantasy.

Sherman's wife Helen, played by Mrs. Hood Gardner, 508 S. Summit, St. is on vacation in Massachusetts, but her ghostly presence interrupts Sherman's gay fancies and visions of being pursued by a horde of beautiful women.

More food for thought comes when Helen calls to say that she happened to run into Tom Mackenzie, Sherman's least favorite author and an old friend of Helen's. Mackenzie is played by David Beuter, 112 S. Governor St.

The SUI Girl Upstairs

When the girl in the upstairs apartment, played by Nancy Robertson, A4, Iowa City, accidentally drops a huge potted plant on a coach he has just vacated, Sherman rehearses in his mind the romantic scene in which he will sweep the girl off her feet.

His vision is interrupted by Dr. Brubaker, a psychiatrist with literary leanings, who brings a sheaf of galley proofs to be corrected. Michael Velez, 112 S. Governor St., plays the doctor.

When Sherman manages to get rid of the doctor, he returns the potted plant to the girl upstairs and invites her into his apartment.

The romantic scene he had pictured ends abruptly when he makes a clumsy attempt to kiss the girl and both fall off the piano bench.

Sherman's presence of mind is unbalanced again the next day when Dr. Brubaker tells of his case histories and psychoanalytic theories. By the time the doctor leaves, Sherman doubts himself to the point of wondering if he is fit to be running unchained in civilized society.

Guilt about his romantic fantasies drives him to call his wife in Massachusetts, only to find that she has gone out with friends, including Mackenzie.

Sherman's over-active mind immediately pictures a scene between Helen and Mackenzie, complete with dialogue from one of Mackenzie's livelier best-sellers. Driven past the point of endurance, Sherman decides to become the fatal charmer he has dreamed of being and calls the girl in the upstairs apartment.

Everyone who has ever felt "in a rut" will appreciate Richard Sherman's problem and will enjoy the hilarious consequences that follow when he deliberately splits his own personality.

The Other Women

Other women who invade Sherman's dreams are Elaine, one of his wife's society friends, played by Sharon Brady, A3, Grand Junction; Marie What-Ever-Her-Name-Was, played by Sandy Miller, A3, Des Moines; and Pat, a neighbor, played by Judi Lewis, Iowa City; Sherman's secretary, Miss Morris, is played by Mrs. John McLaughlin, 825 Otto St. The voice of Sherman's conscience is done by Jim Wilke, A4, Iowa City. Judi Lewis is the voice of the conscience of the girl who lives upstairs.

Mrs. Donald Stribling will direct the production. Other members of the production staff are: Mrs. Junious Tate, 914 S. Dubuque St., stage manager; Eugene Weiner, Coralville, lighting; Richard Webb, G. Iowa City, special scenic effects; Mrs. John McLaughlin, Mrs. Jim Wilke, 811 E. College St. and Mrs. Arthur Kern, 630 Bowery St., properties.

Iowa Union Shop Voted Down After Stormy 3-Hour Debate

DES MOINES (AP)—The strongest move in years to legalize union shop labor contracts in Iowa was repulsed by Republican House members Tuesday after more than three hours of spirited debate.

It was the first time since the state's so-called "right to work" law was passed in 1947 that any move to repeal or amend it has come up for debate on the floor of the Legislature.

The vote on two amendments followed almost strict party lines, with the 48 Democrats and 1 Republican representative supporting the proposed change in the law, and 57 Republicans voting against it.

After the amendments were voted down the vote on the main bill was anticlimactic. It lost 33-74. Republican House leaders said the vote clears the way for passage of a measure later in the session to abolish the requirement that a worker's spouse must sign a written request before an employer can check off union dues.

The original bill scheduled for House debate Tuesday would have called for outright repeal of the "right to work" law, which labor leaders contend is unnecessarily restrictive on unions.

Swisher Sponsor
It was overshadowed, however, by an amendment sponsored by three Democrats — Reps. Scott Swisher of Iowa City, Willard Freed of Gowrie, and Frank Martin of Cedar Rapids.

Rep. Riley Rietz (R-Walcott) proposed to change the Democratic proposal to require that unions, to qualify for the privilege of entering into a union shop contract, would have to:

Hold a vote by secret ballot on whether the workers in a plant want the union to represent them.

Agree that all strike votes by the union will be by secret ballot.

Provide for the secret ballot in the election of union officers.

Dietz was the only Republican who voted with the Democrats on the two amendments.

Rep. Clark McNeal (R-Belmond) declared that permitting the union shop is only "putting off the evil day" when a worker who doesn't want to join a union is forced to do so.

"Instead of hanging Tom Dooley tomorrow, he gets a reprieve of 30 or 60 days," McNeal said.

He called the bill an effort to open the door to "compulsory unionism" and said there was no reason for adopting it because the labor union movement is not on the wane, or dying.

Lively Labor Corpse
"If the labor movement is dying, I say it is the liveliest corpse that has existed since the Headless Horseman rode through Sleepy Hollow," he declared.

Rep. Robert Conner (D-Ottumwa) said "Unions are bound by law, such as no other organization under the heaven of God, to represent all employees whether they pay their fair share or not." "Where are we going to draw the line between a man's right to do as he pleases and his duty to his fellow men?"

Rep. John Duffy (D-Dubuque) drew a laugh when he said that by their stand on labor legislation Republicans are "vanishing Republicans."

Rep. Neal Pierce (R-Russell), brought an end to the debate by saying:

"All this talk about vanishing Republicans has me worried. I'd like to vote on this amendment but I'm afraid another election will slip up on me before I get to and maybe I won't be here!"

Messer Loses Contest In Judgeship Election

DES MOINES (AP) — The contest of Frank Messer, Iowa Democrat, against the election of Iowa Supreme Court Justices Ralph Oliver and Theodore Garfield, was dismissed by a 3-member contest court Tuesday.

In a 2-1 ruling the court held that it had no jurisdiction over the contest because Messer had not filed proper bond and posted proper surety to cover costs of the contest.

WASHINGTON (AP) — An additional federal judge for Iowa would be provided under an omnibus judgeship bill introduced Tuesday by Sen. Eastland (D-Miss.).

Crop Gifts Total More Than $67,000

DES MOINES (AP) — Iowa's 1958 Christian Rural Overseas Program of gifts totaled more than $67,000, the Iowa GOP committee reported Tuesday.

The Rev. Charles R. Martin, CROP chairman, said the total represents about 75,000 bushels of corn for relief food.

Officials said Franklin County topped the state with more than $3,000 given to CROP during the year, followed by Jasper and Sioux counties.

The 1959 CROP goal was set at 150,000 bushels of corn.

District Court Judge Firm—

Integration Delay Thwarted

LITTLE ROCK (UPI) — U.S. District Judge John E. Miller turned down Tuesday a request of the Little Rock School Board that it be allowed to open the city's four closed high schools segregated while it prepares a new plan of integration.

Wiley A. Branton, chief legal counsel of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in Arkansas, immediately asked for a three-judge Federal court to determine if the law Gov. Orval Faubus used to close the schools is constitutional.

The school board wanted to open the segregated schools immediately, and then be given until Aug. 15 to present a new integration plan to replace the one which led to rioting at Central High School Sept. 23, 1957.

Miller, however, accepted a report from the board which in effect said it could do nothing in the absence of four state laws passed in a legislative session which Faubus vetoed.

Miller said that under the plan which he approved in 1956 and which was later approved by the U.S. Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals in St. Louis, "All public schools would have to be opened on a non-segregated basis."

Miller said he was conscious that many problems faced a board trying to bring integration to a school.

"If they are unable to operate under that plan, they should not be denied the right to formulate a new plan of operation," he said.

School Superintendent Terrell E. Powell took the stand and said that 1,085 white and Negro students were getting no schooling since Faubus closed the three white and one Negro schools to block integration Sept. 12.

Thurgood Marshall, of New York, the NAACP's chief legal counsel, questioned Powell sharply, asking the superintendent if he knew how many students transferred from the Little Rock district were getting an education.

Marshall asked Powell repeatedly if the new plan the board wants to present would be for or against integration.

"We just want time to solve the dilemma we're in," said Powell. Herschel Friday Jr., attorney for the school board, argued that children, especially the Negroes, were the only ones suffering because of the school closure. He suggested that the Negroes would not be hurt by being segregated another semester.

Friday also attacked the Justice Department as being "extremely partisan" and suggested the Federal Government should withdraw from the Little Rock litigation as a "friend of the court."

"We're not asking for the moon, we're acting in good faith. We have told you what we have done and what we will do," he said.

Neither Branton nor Marshall would comment on the ruling other than to say: "We'll have to analyze it."

Donald P. McGuineas, an attorney representing the United States Justice Department, said the Federal court had accepted the Government's position of denying opening of schools on any other than an integrated basis.

"It shows there is nothing we can do about integration," said Ed I. McKinley, president of the school board.

Judge Miller cited a recent decision of a three-judge Federal court in Virginia, which said no single public school could be operated with public funds if other public schools were closed to avoid integration.

"If the decision of the three-judge court is the law of the land," said Judge Miller, "and I am not saying it is, it necessarily follows the present school board must submit another plan before the present one is discarded."

But he refused a proposal of Macguineas that the schools be immediately opened integrated and criticized the Justice Department, saying its written arguments against immediate re-opening of the schools did not recognize the laws of Arkansas.

Branton said that although the responsibility for public education rested with the state, the education must be in accord with the United States Constitution.

Crash—

was 18 degrees and a southerly wind was gusting at 35 miles an hour.

The left wingtip apparently struck the ground first and flew off.

Pieces of wreckage ripped off as the plane plowed across the field and piled up against a wire fence.

The plane came down about five miles northwest of the airport on the Albert Juhl farm. Apparently no one heard the crash.

Three of the bodies were lying on the ground near the wreckage and one remained in the wreckage.

Take Off OK
Mrs. Carroll Anderson, whose husband manages the Surf Ballroom, said "everything sounded okay when the plane took off."

Hollywood trade sources said the combined record sales of the three rock 'n' rollers was in the millions.

Valens, whose real name was Richard Valenzuela and who left San Fernando, Calif., High School last year to seek a career singing, just recently finished his first motion picture, "Go Johnny! Go."

His first recording six months ago, "Donna," sold more than a million copies, the Del-Fi Record Co. said.

Holly, star of the Crickets, who also appeared at the Surf, hit the rock 'n' roll pinnacle with his recordings of "Peggy Sue" and "That'll Be The Day." Both reportedly sold more than a million and a half copies.

Richardson, known professionally as the "Big Bopper," was on leave as a disc jockey, singer and program director at station KTRM in Beaumont.

No. Three Record
His "Chantilly Lace" was rated by Billboard for a time as the third most played record and was released to 37 other countries.

Both Richardson and Valens had written some of the tunes they recorded.

The body of Richardson, who is survived by a wife, Adrian, and a daughter, will be flown by private plane to Beaumont Wednesday afternoon.

Authorities sought to positively identify the other three men, who were mangled beyond recognition.

Holly recently was married and Valens was single.

The Surf Ballroom evening was thoroughly enjoyed by the trio.

they told the Andersons as they were driven to the airport.

"We had as much fun as the kids did," they said.

Valens' long ago recorded song he wrote himself "Come On, Let's Go." He had completed the motion picture for Hal Roach before going on the tour that led to his death.

Holly's musical career began with the violin at the age of 4 1/2 years later he won an amateur contest. But by the time he was in high school he had switched to the guitar, an instrument synonymous with the rock 'n' roll age.

Started Western
It was Western music that won him appearances on several broadcast shows. In 1955, he came to the attention of recording officials.

Holly's last record to be released was "It Doesn't Matter Any More." He had two recent appearances on the Ed Sullivan TV show.

Richardson started out as a radio disc jockey and the "Big Bopper" character he created while appearing in east Texas minstrel shows became his trademark.

A search for the plane was started when the pilot failed to report in after what should have been about a 3 1/2 hour flight to Fargo.

The plane took off about 1 a.m. after Mr. and Mrs. Anderson had driven the trio to the airport.

An early morning fog delayed first search efforts and finally Jerry Dwyer, owner of the flying service, set out in a plane and spotted the wreckage.

The traveling troupe included the other Crickets, Dion and the Belmonts and Frankie Sardo.

Fort Dodge Appearance
They had appeared in Fort Dodge last Friday night and in Green Bay, Wis., Sunday night.

They were scheduled for an appearance in Des Moines Thursday night.

Speculation as to the cause of the accident included the possibility that ice formed on the windshield or wings, making a landing necessary.

Dwyer said the plane was in good condition and Peterson was a competent pilot.

"I don't have the faintest idea as to what might have caused the crash," he said.

Peterson came to the Dwyer organization about a year ago to give flying instructions. His home formerly was in Storm Lake, Ia.

He had been married about one year.

The bodies of the rock 'n' roll artists were taken to a Clear Lake funeral home.

U.S. Movies Earned $215 Million From Foreign Showings In 1958

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Government reported Tuesday that American-made movies earned about $215 million from foreign showings last year and predicted they would do as well in 1959.

The Commerce Department said an estimated 45 per cent of the U.S. film industry's total revenue comes from foreign countries.

The report estimated that 1958 earnings from showings abroad totaled about $215 million, unchanged from 1957. The total included only revenues which were collectible in dollars.

U.S. Citizens Picket Mexican Border, Protest High Bail Levied On Countrymen

TIJUANA, Mexico (UPI) — U.S. citizens picketed at the international border Tuesday in protest over the delay and $1,600 bail involved in the cases of 44 countrymen arrested in a Mexican gambling raid more than a week ago.

An estimated 50 persons engaged in the picketing on the U.S. side of the border and customs collector Frank Thornton said they would not be restrained unless they caused a disturbance.

2-Penny Bet Earns $841,815 In Pool: Odds 36 Million To 1

LONDON (AP) — A quiet little Irish laborer who earns 10 pounds a week Tuesday night pocketed $841,815 — the winnings from Britain's biggest soccer pool ever.

Jimmy Gault said he'd split the jackpot with his cousin, who is partly blind. Each put up one penny for a total amounting to 2,333 cents in American money.

But the ticket is in Gault's name and the pool company regards him as the winner.

The winning on the 2-penny bet made odds of more than 36 million to one.

Allis-Chalmers Says Union Involved In Illegal Picketing

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Allis-Chalmers Mfg. Co. charged Tuesday that the striking United Auto Workers Union picket lines had prevented office and administrative employees from entering four of its eight plants.

A company spokesman said that "illegal mass picketing" had occurred Tuesday at its farm equipment and heavy machinery plants at Terre Haute and La Porte, Ind., Springfield, Ill., and at Gadsden, Ala.

Elsewhere, picketing was without incident at four other Allis-Chalmers plants — the main works at suburban West Allis, Wis.; and at La Crosse, Wis.; Cedar Rapids, and Pittsburgh. Some 14,000 UAW workers went on strike Monday, 7,000 of them at West Allis.

Senator Rips U.S. Handling Of World Basketball Meet

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Homer E. Capehart, who defers to no one in national pride, Tuesday protested the ultimate humiliation for a Hoosier—the spectacle of a Russian basketball team whipping the Americans.

The Republican Senator from Indiana, "where basketball is close to being a religion," complained that the United States did not make proper preparations for the recent World Amateur Basketball Tournament in Chile.

The U.S. team was chosen from 25 Air Force volunteers and sent to Santiago to play the best amateurs from other countries. It won four games and lost to Brazil and Russia.

Brazil won the tournament after the Russians, who were leading, refused to play Nationalist China on grounds that such a country did not exist.

Directors of the U.S. team have said they had to take a second-rate team to Chile because the nation's better players were tied up in college and A.A.U. competition.

They said U.S. officials even advertised in the newspapers for players. Some of those who finally made the trip, they said, were not even regulars on their own teams.

Capehart originally had planned to read his statement on the senate floor. But he finally contented himself with inserting it into the Congressional Record, the official daily account of House and Senate proceedings.

Capehart avoided criticism of the American team itself. But he said the "haphazard" method of selecting the team kept the United States from sending its best players.

The Russian team that beat the United States, 62-37, virtually was the same group that took a 69-55 trouncing from the 1958 U.S. Olympic squad, led by former San Francisco star Bill Russell.

Capehart said the United States was humiliated at a time "when our prestige could be much better in some parts of the continent to the south."

He noted that a Santiago newspaper observed "when it comes to shooting at the moon or at a basket, the United States cannot keep up with Russia."

Capehart, who last year objected to other Senators harping upon U.S. deficiencies in space science, found that too much to swallow.

He reminded the Senators that basketball was invented in the United States and introduced to other countries.

"We should guard that heritage zealously, I might even say jealously," Capehart said.

Gunther Tops Scoring List In All Games

CHICAGO (AP) — Iowa's Dave Gunther and Northwestern's Joe Ruklick remained one-two in the Big Ten all-games scoring race this week.

Gunther leads with 351 points in 15 games for a 23.4 average. Ruklick is second with 340 points in 15 games for a 22.6 mark. Gunther ranks 10th nationally on his 23.4 average.

Third in the Big Ten is Ron Johnson of Minnesota with 312 points in 15 games and a 20.8 average.

Only two other players are averaging 20 points per contest. They are Willie Merrivweather of Purdue with a 20.5 average on 288 points in 14 games and M. C. Burton of Michigan who is scoring at a 20.1 clip on 282 points in 14 games.

Michigan State Wins Away, But Fails To Gain Ground

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Michigan State has reached the halfway mark in the Big Ten basketball race in first place but the Spartans' crucial test comes up at Purdue Saturday night.

Michigan State led a blast of away-from-home triumphs in the conference Monday by trouncing Wisconsin, 88-57. But the Spartans couldn't up their lead as both Indiana and Michigan won on foreign courts.

Trail By 1½

Indiana put on a record-breaking offense to smother Ohio State, 122-92, and Michigan eked out an 87-85 win over Illinois. The outcome left Indiana and Michigan tied for second with 4-2 records, 1½ games behind Michigan State which is now 6-1.

Spartan coach Fordy Anderson, happy to win an easy one for a change, was fretting over Saturday's date at Purdue.

"We need the next one against Purdue real bad," said Anderson. "It'll be our crucial test. This race isn't over by a long shot."

Agreeing with Anderson about the race not being over was Indiana coach Branch McCracken. "This definitely was our best game of the season," said McCracken, who still hopes his Hoosiers will successfully defend their title. "We were in the second division this time a year ago. We could do it again — win the thing. But these kids are sophomores and they've looked good one game, but the next. If they play this way from here on out, we're still in the thing."

Michigan State simply coasted past Wisconsin which has yet to win a league game. The Spartans, with five players in double figures, took a 49-24 halftime lead and that was that.

Indiana, hitting a torrid 632 from the field, snapped a 48-48 halftime tie and scored an incredible 74 points in the second half. Five Big Ten records were set in the game. Indiana's 122 points was one; the combined score of 214 points was another. The Hoosiers' 632 percentage was a third conference record and the 84 field goals by the two teams set still another. Indiana's 50 field goals was the fifth new Big Ten mark.

Three sophomores — Gary Long with 29 points, Herbie Lee with 25 and Leroy Johnson with 20 — stole the show. Larry Siegfried was high for Ohio State with 25.

Burton ices it M. C. Burton's two free throws with four seconds to play enabled Michigan to remain in contention. Illinois blew three 10-point leads in the first half which ended with the Illini ahead, 46-42.

Burton, George Lee and Terry Miller aided a Michigan rally which put the Wolverines ahead, 65-59. Illinois came within two points but Burton iced the contest with his free throws shortly before Illinois scored a basket as the whistle blew.

Burton led all scorers with 24 points. Lee had 22 and Miller 20. John Wessels was high for Illinois with 21.

Aside from the Michigan State-Purdue game Saturday, Illinois will be at Northwestern, Minnesota at Iowa, Wisconsin at Ohio State and Indiana at Michigan in a regionally televised matinee.

FLANAGAN NO. 1 JOB GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Vince Lombardi, new head football coach of the Green Bay Packers, said Tuesday he considers the signing of Iowa's All-America quarterback Randy Duncan as his "No. 1 job at the moment."

He said he doesn't think the club is overstocked with quarterbacks. The Packers have five available.

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Del Flanagan and Ralph Dupas, a couple of fancy-foots with designs on the welterweight crown, struggle to stay within range of a title shot in their 10-rounder tonight.

Flanagan, of St. Paul, is giving away several years and is ranked fourth by the National Boxing Assn. to Dupas, No. 3. But he remains favored to win the nationally televised bout.

Flanagan has lost only once in his home town. He redeemed himself two months ago against the culprit, Gil Turner.

Dupas, of New Orleans, is young, probably even faster than Flanagan, and durable when he's fighting at his right weight.

"I'll go about 144 or so," Dupas said. Flanagan plans to come in at 148.

KCRG-TV Channel 9, Cedar Rapids, will televise the match beginning at 9 p.m., Iowa time.

Iowa Athletes In 8 Contests This Weekend

The heavy February schedule of sports events for Iowa opens this week, with eight contests set from Friday to Monday.

Iowa's Fieldhouse is the site of four events. The feature is the Minnesota basketball game Saturday at 7:30 p.m. when the Hawkeyes will attempt to bring their record to an even 4-4 in the conference. Iowa defeated Michigan, second place team, here Saturday, 78-74.

Notre Dame and Indiana fencing teams will appear Saturday at 1 p.m. in a double-dual meet affair and the fourth home event is the wrestling meet with Colorado School of Mines Monday at 7:30 p.m.

Three other teams are in action away from home. After winning six straight dual meets, the unbeaten wrestlers oppose Northwestern at Evanston Saturday and the swimming team, with a 1-2 record, goes against Minnesota at Minneapolis Friday. The gymnastics team performs against Ohio State and Minnesota at Minneapolis Saturday.

Pin Champs Here Today

Five members of the Falstaff bowling team of St. Louis will appear in Iowa City and Coralville today in a pair of clinics and an exhibition match.

Led by team captain Basil (Buzz) Fazio, the members here will be Steve Nagy, Billy Welu, Harry Smith and Jimmy Schroeder. Carl Richard and Elwood (Woody) Hulsey are other members of the squad who will not appear here today.

Fazio and Schroeder will present a clinic at the Plamor Lanes in Iowa City at 3 p.m. while Welu, 1959 match-game champ, and Smith present a clinic at the Coral Lanes in Coralville at the same time.

Nagy will join these four men for a 3-game exhibition series against a local team at the Coral Lanes at 9 p.m. The local outfit is scheduled to be Howard Lucky, Bill Poggenpohl, Stub Madden, John Hirko and Art Musack.

The local appearance of the Falstaffs, who won both the Bowling Proprietors Association of America match-game crown and the American Bowling Congress 5-man championship in the same season, was arranged by Frank Maher and Joe Kinney of the Oxford Beverage Company in cooperation with the Falstaff Brewing Corporation which sponsors the team.

Army Coach To Maintain Blaik's Winning Tradition

Hopes Dampened Of Cadets Joining New Football Loop

NEW YORK (AP) — Col. Francis Roberts, Army's graduate manager of athletics, Tuesday chilled the idea of Army's belonging to a proposed national football conference.

Speaking at a luncheon, Roberts said the Army Academic Board was "not favorably disposed to wards belonging" to such a conference.

The formation of a new national conference had been under discussion for several years. The proposal was reviewed in some detail at a semi-secret meeting during the National Collegiate Athletic Association convention in Cincinnati last month.

Possible members would be Army, Navy, Pittsburgh, Syracuse, Penn State, Notre Dame, Air Force Academy, California, UCLA, Southern California, Washington and Stanford.

Army and Navy are at odds with the Air Force because of a disagreement about scheduling football games. Roberts reviewed this situation at some length, placed the blame on a change of Air Force policy and said Army would be willing to play the air men at a neutral site "so long as it isn't in Denver or Colorado."

Nau Definitely Going To Kirksville State

KIRKSVILLE, Mo. (AP) — Kirksville State College announced Tuesday that it is getting another basketball transfer from the University of Iowa.

He is Earl Nau, 5'11" guard, who last played for Iowa against Ohio State Jan. 25.

Larry Swift, an Iowa transfer last year, is a starter this season for Kirksville and is the leading scorer in the Missouri Inter-Collegiate Athletic Conference.

Coach Boyd King said Nau told him only that he "wanted to make a change."

Robinson-Basilio Bout Appears Set For April

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Joe Netro, Carmen Basilio's co-manager, said Tuesday night a Basilio-Sugar Ray Robinson rematch will be held in Chicago Stadium, probably in April.

Netro also told Tampa Tribune sports columnist Ralph Warner: "Truman Gibson (International Boxing Club President) is coming to Miami in a week or so to see us. The TV deal will be closed circuit."

Robinson lifted the middleweight crown from Basilio when they fought last year.

Brennan Signs With Redlegs

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Redlegs of National League baseball Tuesday hired Terry Brennan, former Notre Dame football coach, to handle a player-conditioning program in spring training.

Brennan's job will be to get the Redleg basebalers into proper physical condition for the long 1959 baseball season.

Cincinnati General Manager Gabe Paul called the action "an unprecedented move in major league baseball — the inclusion of a football coach in a team's conditioning program."

The 30-year-old Brennan was fired just before Christmas as Notre Dame football coach after five seasons as the head man of the Irish football fortunes.

Only Monday night he announced in Chicago he was bowing out of football coaching and would take a job in April with a Chicago investment banking firm.

But Brennan said the job with the Redlegs would not interfere with his plans to go into the investment banking business.

Brennan, here for the announcement of his job with the Redlegs, said he would concentrate on leg conditioning. He explained that an injured player will recover more quickly "if he has the muscles well trained."

And Paul indicated the Redlegs are in for "the more strenuous football conditioning processes."

Paul told newsmen that club officials, including Manager Mayo Smith long have felt that football teams surpass baseball teams in the matter of pure conditioning.

Time schedule and ticket prices for the Big Ten championship wrestling tournament at the Iowa Fieldhouse March 6 and 7 have been announced.

The tournament will open March 6 at 2 p.m. with preliminaries in all eight weight classes. Semi-finals are set for 7:30 p.m. Finals in the championship and consolation rounds will open Saturday at 2 p.m.

Admission to the public is $1 for each of the three sessions, with university students admitted for 50 cents. There will be no season tickets or reserved seats.

Iowa is the defending team champion. The tournament last was held in the Hawkeye Fieldhouse in 1950.

10. West Virginia (16-3)

NEW YORK — The once-beaten "Big Three" of college basketball clung to the top spots Tuesday in the weekly ratings of the United Press International board of coaches, and scoring king Oscar Robertson was steering Cincinnati into position for another assault.

Kentucky, North Carolina and Kansas State, which have lost only one game each and now are riding winning streaks of various lengths, once again were rated 1-2-3 in the nation.

But Cincinnati, with a 14-2 overall record after games of last Saturday and now on an 8-game winning streak, moved up from fifth place into fourth to challenge the holdover leaders. Cincinnati opened the season as the top-ranking team and won six straight but then tumbled when it lost two games in the Dixie Classic Christmas Tournament.

North Carolina State dropped from fourth to fifth place. Michigan State moved up to sixth as unbeaten Auburn dropped to seventh. Bradley moved from ninth to eighth and St. Louis, which beat St. John's, jumped into the top 10 at No. 9. West Virginia retained the No. 10 slot.

Kentucky, the defending NCAA champion, now has ruled the roost for five straight weeks and faces only one game this week—against Mississippi on Saturday at Jackson, Miss. Coach Adolph Rupp's Wildcats have won six straight since suffering their only loss to Vanderbilt.

North Carolina also has won six straight but plays two games this week — against Maryland Wednesday and Duke Friday. Kansas State has rolled up 12 straight wins since losing to Brigham Young. K-State will meet Colorado, its closest foe in the Big Eight, this Saturday.

Cincinnati meets Dayton Wednesday and Temple Saturday.

Dulles Flies To Europe For Berlin, Disarmament Talks

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles flew to Europe Tuesday for urgent Allied talks, hoping to make "some long overdue progress" on solving the Berlin and disarmament stalemates.

Dulles predicted that his talks with Allied leaders would bolster the West's determination to stand firm in the face of Russian threats over Berlin.

possible Big Four conference on German reunification. Just before his Air Force plane left National Airport at 4:02 p.m. (EST), newsmen asked Dulles if the Russian threats to pull out of East Berlin this spring would lead to war.

New Red Maneuver May Be Attempt To Out-Fox Dulles

LONDON (UPI) — The Soviet Union has put out fresh diplomatic feelers for an early East-West Four-Power meeting on Berlin, diplomatic sources disclosed Tuesday.

The sources said the new Soviet initiative was launched during the past 48 hours in behind-the-scenes moves in Moscow and London.

The moves — carried out with unusual lack of publicity — appeared calculated to undermine the talks between Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and European leaders in London, Paris and Bonn starting today.

Missile Race Gets Tighter: McElroy

WASHINGTON (UPI) — By December the United States will have roughly as many intercontinental ballistic missiles (ICBM) as the Russians, Secretary of Defense Neil H. McElroy said Tuesday.

McElroy told this to the House Armed Services Committee, some of whose members have voiced concern that Russia may be pulling away from the United States in the missile race.

The Pentagon chief said this country will have a few ICBMs by July "and a few more by December 1959, which will be within a few miles one way or the other of what he would expect of the Russians at the same time."

McElroy later told newsmen he was speaking of missiles ready to be used as combat weapons, not test rockets. Not long after McElroy spoke, missilemen at Cape Canaveral, Fla., failed in a second try at launching the Titan ICBM. The Defense Department said a malfunction caused a cutoff of the missile's engines before the mighty rocket could leave its pad.

Just last week, McElroy told the Senate Preparedness subcommittee the United States will have fewer ICBMs than Russia in the next two years. He said then "it is not our intention" to match the Russians missile for missile in ICBMs over that period. But he expressed confidence that over-all U.S. military strength will be enough to deter attack.

Before McElroy testified in open session Tuesday, he and Gen. Nathan F. Twining, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, told newsmen they don't believe Russia's new claim to having the West out-gunned with hydrogen missiles of pinpoint accuracy. This claim, made by Soviet defense Rodion Malinovsky, was dismissed by McElroy as "a normal kind of statement in a war of nerves."

McElroy granted that in some fields—not ICBMs—the Russians are technically ahead of the United States. But he told the House committee that in total war-making potential, the United States now is clearly ahead of Russia.

Donald Norberg, state Democratic chairman, will be the principal speaker at a county party dinner scheduled for Feb. 24, at the Mayflower inn. The dinner party is being planned by the county Democratic central committee and the Johnson County Democratic Women's club.

Attorney Thomas J. Dailey, of Burlington, the party's candidate for first district congressman last November, will be guest.

Mrs. John MacQueen is chairman of the event. The public is invited to attend. Entertainment and refreshments are planned.

GOP Leaders Request Public Revolt Against Big Spending

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower and his Congressional lieutenants appealed to the people Tuesday to rise up against excessive spending.

By that they meant spending in excess of the $77 billion Mr. Eisenhower has proposed for the fiscal year beginning next July 1.

Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, the Republican House leader, told reporters after a 2½-hour conference of GOP congressional leaders with Mr. Eisenhower: "It is high time that the people of the country who believe in this budget make their voices heard."

Did Mr. Eisenhower share that view? Reporters asked. "He did—definitely," Halleck replied.

Were Mr. Eisenhower and the GOP leaders in Congress proposing that the public write letters to their congressmen?

Halleck replied that he, as an anti-spender, didn't need any letters himself, but he did think it would be a part of good government if people who believed in the Eisenhower budget would say so.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, joined with Halleck in saying that those who advocate greater spending should be saddled with the responsibility for it.

Halleck got specific, saying Democratic proposals in the fields of housing, airport construction and aid to education would exceed Administration spending limits by billions.

In housing, for example, Halleck complained that the Democrats are calling for spending $1,675,000,000 to $2,350,000,000 more of the taxpayers' money than Mr. Eisenhower has proposed.

Sen. John Sparkman (D-Ala.) said he is sure his $2,925,000,000 housing bill will get through the Senate without reductions.

Turton asked the school board if "in this enlightened age have we got to have nudes just because it is the done thing, at a cost of 4,000 pounds (11,200)?" He said the board might employ "a model who cannot talk and cannot run off with one of the students."

Russian Says A-Attacks Outdated By Missiles

MOSCOW (AP) — Marshal Rodion Malinovsky declared Tuesday the West's nuclear weapons are outdated by long-range sharp-shooting Soviet ballistic missiles that no anti-aircraft defense can stop.

"but this is an outdated means." "We have more perfected weapons, ballistic rockets — long, middle and close range — that can carry their hydrogen charges to any point on earth, to the very point, for they are very accurate."

In Washington, Secretary of Defense Neil H. McElroy and Gen. Nathan F. Twining, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, said they did not believe the claim to pinpoint accuracy. McElroy said he was not perturbed by Malinovsky's speech, adding: "It seems to me like a normal kind of statement in a war of nerves." The secretary said the Russians have developed a more powerful thrust for rockets, but as for ICBMs "we have enough thrust to send them 5,000 miles — or into Russia."

Malinovsky had a specific warning for the United States. "It is written very frequently overseas that the U.S. Navy is capable of landing troops at any point on our coast," Malinovsky said.

"It appears to me that it would be a good thing for those overseas to give a thought about the vulnerability of their own coast. "If war is imposed on the U.S.S.R. the rocket weapons will constitute the fighting force, capable of accomplishing the most important tasks in the air, on land and sea . . ."

"We are not contemplating attacking anybody, but we have all the means of inflicting retaliatory blows on aggressors, no matter where they are, in order to end any desire on their part to attack."

Lewis Improving After Heart Attack

WASHINGTON (UPI) — John L. Lewis, 78-year-old president of the United Mine Workers, was reported improved Tuesday from complications which followed last week's heart attack.

His physician, Dr. John B. Minor, said Lewis had a good night at Georgetown University Hospital and "looks much better." The UMW chieftain, who had a mild heart spasm about a year ago, entered the hospital last week after feeling ill for several days. Minor said tests showed he had suffered a mild heart attack.

NEW RUSSIAN AMBASSADOR
MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Government announced Tuesday night the appointment of Alexei V. Zakharov as new ambassador to Finland.

On Second Day—

Integration Proceeds Calmly

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Negro and white children paraded to school Tuesday without major incident on the second day of racial integration in Norfolk and Arlington County.

Enrollment at Norfolk's integrated schools jumped nearly 500 over Monday. The worries of parents apparently were diminishing. But wary school officials and watchful police in both Norfolk and Arlington were unconvinced the dangers of trouble and disturbance were over in a state that submitted unwillingly to federal court mandates for integration.

Police Present, But Idle
In diminished numbers, and with little to do but look on, police still stood guard at three senior and three junior high schools in Norfolk and at Stratford Junior High in Arlington.

Schools in both communities—

200 miles apart—operated without a hitch. There was a bit of hooting about "the niggers" from white youngsters at Norfolk's Norfolk High. In the cafeteria, four white girls sat at the end of a table with four Negro girls and chatted as they lunched together.

Alexandria, another Virginia community a few miles away, will learn in a day or two whether a federal court will decree admission of 14 Negroes to its public school system.

Alexandria Decision To Court

The local school board had turned them down. Legal arguments on the action ended Tuesday before U.S. District Judge Albert V. Bryan. The judge promised a ruling in a day or two. Whichever way it goes, the decision almost certainly will be appealed to the 4th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

Ordinarily the drop in school registrations would mean a drop in state funds for the Norfolk schools. State contributions are pegged to average attendance.

But one of the bills rushed through a 5-day special session of the Legislature was designed to ease this problem. It amended the law to permit certain adjustments, although details still must be worked out.

Almond Still Fighting
The state administration isn't conceding that it can't stop the spread of integration generally throughout the state.

Gov. J. Lindsay Almond Jr. has promised to set up promptly a special commission of members of the Legislature to work on a long-range program, probably built around the idea of a part-private, part-public school system.

The Legislature has adjourned until March 31. Neither it nor the Governor was able to find a way to halt the beginnings of integration in the Old Dominion.

Another Russian's Book Is Best Seller

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union seems to be grabbing the lead in everything these days, even in writing best sellers.

For here is Boris Pasternak, author of "Doctor Zhivago" and winner of the Nobel Prize. His fictional account of life before, during and after the Bolshevik Revolution is still considered too heady for Russians, but it has been leading the reading lists wherever it has been translated.

And now comes a companion note from this Government: We taxpayers own a best seller, and it, too, was written by a Russian.

The book, "Artificial Satellites," is by A. Shternfeld, and it's more than a best seller, it's a complete sellout.

True, "Artificial Satellites" has sold only 250 copies, whereas Pasternak's work has sold by the hundreds of thousands. But in rarefied technical circles selling 250 copies of a book in a couple of months is moving at the speed of a space rocket.

"We have more on order and we keep getting requests," Jim Wheat of the Office of Technical Services said.

Congress decided some time ago that a lot of technical stuff kicking around inside Government should be made available to industry, scientists and others interested. So the Technical Services started publishing some of it.

Titan Missile Fizzles Before Leaving Ground

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The Air Force's powerful new Titan ICBM belched fire for a split second Tuesday, but failed to fly on its second launching attempt.

It was the second time in six weeks the bullet shaped intercontinental ballistic missile, potentially the nation's mightiest war rocket, fizzled on the launching pad. A huge ball of orange flame flashed from the base of the 90-foot missile at 4:27 p.m. then sputtered out. The Air Force announced that "a malfunction occurred causing the engine to be automatically cut off while the missile was still on the launch pad."

The same situation occurred last Dec. 20 when the Air Force first tried to launch the 2-stage weapon.

Flares, Lights Reported In Area Of Wrecked Ship

HALIFAX, N.S. (UPI) — A U.S. Coast Guard cutter leading the 5-day-old search for the missing Danish ship Hans Hedtoft radioed Tuesday that it was speeding to investigate the sighting of possible flares and flickering lights in the area where the Hedtoft ran into an iceberg.

The Cutter Campbell radioed New York Coast Guard headquarters at 5 p.m. (CST) that what could have been flares were sighted 60 miles southwest of Cape Farewell, Greenland.

The Hedtoft's last message Friday afternoon was sent from about 37 miles off Cape Farewell. It reported that the 2,875-ton vessel with 95 persons aboard was sinking after crashing into an iceberg on its maiden voyage.

The Campbell said its crew and the crew of a Navy plane saw both what appeared to be flares and what could have been dim lights flickering on the water.

Denmark's King Frederik IX, the Government and the Greenland trading Company, operators of the lost ship.

Among the messages was one from Pope John XXIII to the King.

Two sets of faint radio signals had been picked up, on Sunday and Monday. But Canadian Air Force Search and Rescue Headquarters said the first signals had come from the U.S. Coastguard Cutter Campbell, which was directing the search.

Mixed Signals

The second group of signals were believed to have come from a German vessel in the North Sea sending to a German radio station.

Accompanying the Campbell into the ice-flecked Arctic waters were the German fishery inspection vessel Possidon; the Danish Navel cutter Teisten and the Greenland Cutter H. I. Rink. The Danish vessel Umanak prepared to return to the search area after discharging its 82 passengers in Greenland.

The air fleet looking for survivors of the Hedtoft included an Icelandic Catalina, a Royal Canadian Air Force Lancaster, two U.S. Air Force C-54s and a huge KC-97 tanker plane.

Weather Break

Good weather broke Tuesday for the first time in the 5-day search for the Hedtoft. It appeared almost certain all 95 persons aboard were lost, but the search was kept up anyway.

Search planes and ships had battled mountainous seas, gale-force winds and snowfall during the first four days of the search.

Tuesday, the sun shone bright and clear, the winds died down to mere breezes and the sea was calm.

But poor visibility and rising seas developed after the end of the short Arctic day, during which planes and ships took up the search for the Hedtoft with new vigor.

Kim Novak Crosses Union Picket Line

NEW YORK (UPI) — Actress Kim Novak posed amiably with pickets Tuesday before reporting to work on her new movie.

The pickets — nearly 100 movie directors — greeted Miss Novak and co-star Fredric March when they arrived at a New York studio where the film "Middle of the Night" is being shot.

The picketing resulted indirectly from a dispute between the Screen Directors International Guild, based in New York, and the Screen Directors Guild of America, of Hollywood.

Receives $50 Award

SHOWN RECEIVING THE $50 Robert L. Ballantyne Scholarship Award is Quentin Wilkes, A4, McIntire. Presented by Miss Helen Reich, assistant director, office of Student Affairs, the grant is given to a student who maintains a satisfactory scholarship record while contributing substantially to his own financial support. Wilkes has worked all four years at SUU. At present he works three hours a day as custodian at the Geology Building, eight hours each night at University Hospitals, and in addition does odd jobs for four SUU professors on weekends.

'58 Accident Toll Drops But Still At 91,000

CHICAGO (AP) — The nation's accident death rate dropped to a record low last year, but the toll still was tremendous.

The decline in fatalities occurred while the United States was growing. As a result, the population death rate from accidents fell to an all-time low of 52.5 deaths per 100,000 population. The 1957 rate was 56. The previous low, recorded in 1954, was 55.9.

The motor vehicle held its place as the No. 1 killer in accidents. But the traffic toll of 37,000 showed a decline of 1,702 from the 38,702 total of 1957.

The 1958 mileage death rate—deaths per 100 million miles of travel by vehicles—dipped to a new low of 5.6 per cent. The previous low was 6 per cent, in 1957.

The new record was set in the face of a 3 per cent increase in travel.

Deaths in other categories included 27,000 in homes, 13,300 on the job and 16,500 in public.

The Council's estimates showed drops in all those major classes. But, it reported, one of every 19 persons in the United States suffered a disabling injury last year.

Why did the nation enjoy a better record in 1958?

A Council spokesman attributed the improvement, in general terms, to an increasing awareness of accidents, a growing acceptance of responsibility for preventing them and a strengthening of local organizations.

$27,924 Set For Loans; Students May Apply Soon

Application forms for the Federal student loan program at SUU will be available in about three weeks, SUU officials said Tuesday.

The U.S. Office of Education announced Monday that SUU will receive $27,924 in federal funds for the coming semester for student loans under a nationwide program which authorizes $1 billion in aid for education over the next several years.

As soon as the money is received at SUU, the loan program will get under way. Students should wait until application forms are ready and final details are announced before seeking to apply for a loan.

Need Determines Amount

Students will apply for the Federal loans through regular channels, and, according to provisions of the program, may borrow up to $1,000 a year for five years. The exact amount of each loan will depend upon the student's financial need.

To be eligible for a loan a student must be able to show financial need, be capable of maintaining a good academic standing, and be a full-time student. Full-time graduate students may also receive loans. A schedule of 12 semester-hours is considered full-time.

Application forms for the Federal loans will call for a listing of the income and resources of a student's family, his own sources of income, a proposed budget and two personal references. All students will be required to have an endorser to obtain a loan.

Officials in charge of administering the loan program emphasize that students selected to receive loans must have demonstrated above-average academic achievement.

Although loans will be available to students in all fields of study, the Federal act specifies that special consideration will be given students with superior academic backgrounds who plan to become elementary or secondary teachers, and to students who show high promise in science, mathematics, engineering or a modern foreign language.

Loans are to be made only for essential educational expenses — tuition, board and room, instructional supplies, equipment and books. Students will probably receive loans on an installment basis, rather than in a lump sum, as long as they maintain a satisfactory academic standing.

Three Per Cent

Students will be required to repay loans in 10 equal installments beginning one year after they cease full-time college work. Interest will be charged at the rate of three per cent a year beginning with the first payment.

Ten per cent of the principal each year, up to five years, will be "forgiven" for every year a student teaches in an elementary or secondary school. Thus, if a student borrowed the full $5,000 and then taught for five years, he would be required to repay only $2,500.

SUU will contribute one-ninth the amount of the Federal grant, a sum of $3,102, to the fund, which will make a total of $31,026 available for loans during the spring semester. Additional sums will be allocated later by the Government for the summer session and the 1959-60 academic year.

In addition to the Federal loan program, SUU's regular loan fund will still provide loans to needy students. Last year a total of 1,018 students borrowed $141,358 from the regular fund.

SUU committee members working on plans for the loan program are Dirck W. Brown, counselor to men; Leonard Brcka, University secretary; Howard B. Moffitt, student employment manager, and Helen Focht, counselor to women.

Russian Guards Still Hold U. S. Convoy At Berlin Line

HELMSTEDT, Germany (UPI) — Soviet border guards still held a U.S. Army truck convoy within shouting distance of the West German frontier Thursday and pointedly displayed Communist control over West Berlin's lifelines despite repeated U.S. protests.

The five soldiers in the trucks waved and shouted to passing West German motorists. They had food and warm clothing and did not appear worried as they started their second day as virtual prisoners.

Armed East German guards turned back UPI correspondent Klaus Dreher when he pulled up in front of the blockaded convoy in a car and tried to talk to the Americans.

Russian troops carrying Tommy guns halted the trucks Monday insisting that the open vehicles had to be searched. Cpl. Richard C. Masiero, of West Stockbridge, Mass., in charge of the convoy, replied the trucks contained only jeeps that could be plainly seen and the Russians could not conduct a search.

Near Home

And so the convoy, which had traversed the 110 miles from West Berlin to the frontier without trouble, was halted within 50 yards of the American Army's border station.

Two verbal protests were lodged by the U.S. Army and State Department adviser Findley Burns paid a personal visit to Soviet headquarters in East Berlin.

But at nightfall Tuesday the five soldiers still sat huddled in the cabs of two of their trucks, keeping the engines running to generate enough heat to keep warm.

Humiliate West

American observers in West Berlin believed Russia staged the blockade to coincide with the close of the 21st Congress of the Soviet Communist Party in Moscow. It was seen as an attempt to humiliate the West by a token cutoff of the Berlin lifeline within a few feet of the West's heavily-guarded frontier.

Normally, powerful lamps shine down on the Communist guard house behind which the American trucks were parked but Tuesday the lamps were not switched on, obviously to prevent close observation from the West German side.

What Happens?

While negotiations for the release of the convoy were being attempted in Frankfurt, between the U.S. Army and the Soviet liaison mission there, and in Berlin on the diplomatic level, the big question was what U.S. forces might do if the Russians continued to hold the Americans.

The Army alerted tank and infantry units when an Army convoy was held up by the Soviets for only eight hours last Nov. 14, at

Ike's Breakfast Delayed By Two Frosh Congressmen

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Two freshmen Congressmen made their mark in Washington quickly Tuesday. One kept President Eisenhower waiting 10 minutes for breakfast. The other forgot him altogether.

The Congressional face that glowed reddest belonged to Rep. Robert R. Barry (R-N.Y.). When he arrived at the Capitol Tuesday noon, colleagues asked why he didn't show up at the White House breakfast for freshmen GOP Congressmen.

"I just completely forgot all about it," Barry confessed. "I hope the President will forgive me."

Barry said he was hauling trunks into the attic of his new home, buying mats for new carpets and driving his son to school when he was supposed to be breaking bread with the President.

Barry could take some consolation from the fact that his absence at least didn't upset the usually smooth-running schedule at the White House, where the big question Tuesday morning was "Where's Elmer?"

President Eisenhower, who hadn't had his coffee yet, wanted to know. A roomful of freshmen Republican Congressmen, nervously waiting to share bacon and eggs with the Chief Executive, wanted to know. "Maybe he lost the address," the President suggested. That seemed a gracious thing for the host to say, but it didn't do much to relieve the situation.

The President and his guests had been eating for 10 minutes when Rep. Elmer J. Hoffman (R-Ill.) finally puffed in. The 315-pound former Illinois State Treasurer never had a chance to make his apologies to the President.

But he told White House aides and reporters a tale of woe later. "You won't believe it, but I couldn't find a cab," Hoffman said. "I bet I could have made it faster if I'd walked."

The new Congressman said he was in front of his hotel, about two miles from the White House, a full half hour before he was due at 1600 Pennsylvania Ave.

"I waited five minutes without seeing a cab. Then I walked one block and waited another five minutes before I found a cab," he continued.

"Then we hit nine consecutive red lights. After the third one, I started counting them. I was perspiring pretty freely by that time," he said.

By ELIZABETH DAY Staff Writer

"Degree awarded" is the message that A. Nagaraja Rao is in India will receive Saturday evening.

These two words signify a 12,000 mile journey to the try, two and a half year search and study in botany. Ph.D. degree.

Wonderful Feeling

"It is a wonderful feeling to have all that tension of Rao's first reaction on completion of his oral examination. He completed his master's thesis in botany also from that city.

The desire to do experimental research in plant morphology prompted Rao to come to India in this country. "India is the descriptive approach," he said. "We need experimental approach, especially the university level."

Studying the variations in form and structure of plants subjected them to different experimental conditions. Rao's special field of interest is SUU.

Rao has held a research fellowship under Robert L. ... associate professor of botany.
