U.S. Will Not Desert Berlin--Ike

Search For Blarney Stone Begins

By KAY KRESS
Staff Writer

The age of machines has invaded even the oldest of SUI's traditions — the Engineering seniors are searching for the Blarney Stone aided by clues in the form of engineering problems and a walkie-talkie.

The bearded, straw-hatted engineers began the search for the 20-pound granite stone Monday with the help of a clue found on the bulletin board in the Engineering Lounge.

The solution to the first clue led the engineers to an Iowa City men's clothing store where they received the second clue.

The second clue which concerned "an elm standing alone" sent the searchers to Lone Tree for subsequent clues.

The clues are all given in the form of engineering problems which include all the departments of the SUI College of Engineering. The problem-clues are made up by graduate students in engineering who also hid the stone. The solutions are then checked for accuracy by the engineering professors.

Each clue will lead to another clue, with the last clue giving the hiding place of the stone.

The engineers are calculating and searching in a mad race against time and the law students. They are to present the stone at the annual smoker Thursday night, which involves finding the stone before the law students, who are also searching for it.

The law students use "other methods" in their search. Should the law students find the stone first, the engineers would be disgraced for the entire year. Rivalry between the two schools reaches a climax during Mecca

Week. Both claim St. Patrick as their patron saint.

The custom of the hunt started in 1910. The stones were not found in 1913 and 1947 and the classes which failed to discover the hunk of granite were forced to buy a new stone.

Last year the stone was found at Ralston Creek. Other years the hidden in the Sewage Lift Station stone was found in the Iowa River, the city dump and the city hall clock tower.

The only requirement for a hiding place is that it be within a 25-mile radius of Iowa City.

Other Mecca Week activities include the beard judging contest Wednesday and the Smoker Thursday, both at the Engineering Lounge.

The Mecca Ball, at which the Mecca Queen and St. Pat will be chosen, will be Friday night at the Iowa Memorial Union.

THE SECOND CLUE to the hidden Blarney Stone was found at an Iowa City clothing store Monday by SUI Engineering students. Fred Chown, E4, Nichols, Dick Maurer, E4, Iowa City, and Dick Sturdevant, E4, Minden, struck pay dirt at the store after an extensive search for a size 42D. Along with the garment they received the second of twenty clues. —Daily Iowan Photos by Larry Day.

Weekend Snow Storm—

Stranded—SUI Cars, Students

By J. CASEY DAVIS
Staff Writer

Stranded—35 cars between Solon and Iowa City, and 72 Phi Kappa Psi's and their dates in Amana. All were caught by the snow that hit Iowa Saturday night. Most of the deserted cars were student vehicles according to the Iowa Highway Patrol. The patrol said the storm also left one bus with 44 persons aboard and numerous trucks strewn in various positions on and off the highway.

Phi Kappa Psi president Gene Mueller gave this account of the Amana stranding:

The Phi Psi's and their dates were having dinner in Amana when the snow started and they found themselves snowed in with visibility zero when they started to leave. The Amana Community Center was turned over to them as the only heated building big enough for the group.

A dance was organized that lasted until four in the morning and then people went to sleep on the floor when they couldn't keep their eyes open any longer.

The group was treated royally and the experience turned into a lot of fun. The Ronneburg restaurant opened early to serve breakfast to the party.

The biggest problem of the night was that the cigarettes gave out. Several people were observed clawing the walls before Ronneburg's opened Sunday.

Other people were also stranded. Currier's head counselor, Miss Nancy Dickens, reported about 12 girls out all night from that dorm and informed sources at Burge estimated 8 girls were snowbound somewhere else.

The number of people who couldn't make it back to class Monday from weekends at home is not known.

ONE OF SOME THIRTY cars abandoned on Highway 218 north of Iowa City is checked by Highway Patrolman Howard Shapcott. Officers reported a majority of the cars displayed student stickers. Two carloads of motorists were rescued by patrolmen during the night and eight others sought refuge in farmhouses. —Daily Iowan Photo by Jerry Mosy

ELECTRONIC AGE and an electronic search for the Blarney Stone. Jim Macy, E4, Iowa City, David McCall, E4, Iowa City, shiver atop the Communications Center where they coordinate the search by walkie talkie. With the towers of WSUI in the background, the pair kept in touch with other teams searching for the second clue Monday afternoon. The popular hunk of granite is hidden somewhere within 25 miles of Iowa City.

Top O' Th' Mornin' To Ye! Time For Wearin' The Green

By MARLENE JORGENSEN
Staff Writer

Begorra, and a top o' th' mornin' to ye! It's time for the wearin' o' the green and a March salute to St. Pat.

According to the Encyclopedia Britanica, St. Patrick was born in fair Ireland in 389 and led a controversial life. Some say his importance was invented in later years, while others insist that he is deserving of the praise he has been given.

The encyclopedia says St. Patrick had an intensely spiritual nature, was enthusiastic, and was a man of action.

So, not to let the good Saint down, SUI students will be enthusiastic men of action for a day — in remembrance of St. Patrick — they say.

At least two taverns will be selling green beer today. The manager of one pub (as they're called in Ireland) said if this year follows along with previous years, four or five kegs of the green liquid would be consumed in his establishment.

An Irish couple on campus will be celebrating the day by attending a party at the home of some friends. The couple, Mr. and Mrs. Ristead DePaor, came to SUI from Dublin, Ireland, last fall. This year they will get a chance to compare St. Patrick's Day in the United States to the day in Ireland, which Mrs. DePaor says is very quiet.

She said St. Pat's Day in her homeland means all pubs are "shut." However, in the night, everyone in Dublin heads for a dog show — "the only place in the whole of Dublin where you can get a drink." She said most of the people care little about dogs and head directly for the bar.

DePaor is a graduate student studying in the fiction workshop. The couple have two children. Before they can attend the party tonight, DePaor must give a lecture on (what else?) the Irish theater.

Mrs. DePaor said as far as she knows her husband is the only student on campus from Ireland. They have a friend, William Murray, instructor of English, who came originally from Ireland, but is now a naturalized U.S. citizen.

Of course, our own brand of American-born Irishmen will be celebrating. Michael O'Donoghue, E3, Sioux City, said he guesses he'll be doing what most Irishmen do come March 17. But there is another chore that must be disposed of, he said — classes.

Kathleen O'Donnell, A3, Ida

Grove, said her job as an advisor in Burge Hall keeps her pretty busy, but she probably will be wearing green. Patrick E. O'Brien, E4, Dubuque, said he will be doing nothing special — just celebrating in general.

Anyway, it all boils down to this — German, Danish, Scotch, or Dutch, everyone will be turning Irish today!

Mrs. Darling New President Of School Board

Mrs. Dorothy Darling, recently re-elected to a 3-year term on the School Board, was elected Monday night to preside over the Iowa City Community School Board for the coming year.

In other action, a public hearing on the question of redistributing school boundaries was set for April 21 at the Junior High School.

In a report to the board by Norman S. Green, administrative assistant, boundary changes were recommended between Herbert Hoover and Longfellow Schools.

The present eastern boundary falls along Muscatine Avenue. With the suggested boundary change, Seventh Avenue would form the eastern boundary. Many children in the Bel Aire district presently going to Hoover school would attend Longfellow School if this change were adopted.

In his report, Green recommended that pupils be assigned to schools on the basis of educational and safety considerations as well as on the basis of making the best use of the available classroom space.

The Board also approved the appointment Ross Engel as administrative assistant for 1959-60 to replace Mr. Green, present assistant. Engel has completed his Ph.D. work at SUI and will be writing his thesis during the coming year.

Tickets Available For SUI Concert

Tickets for the Easter Concert, to be presented by the SUI Music Department Wednesday at 8 p.m., are available at the Information Desk of the Iowa Memorial Union.

The program, which will be given by the University Chorus and Symphony Orchestra, will include Vivaldi's "Gloria" and "King David," by Arthur Honegger.

But Willing To Attend Summit Meet

President Reports
To Nation

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower announced Monday night a conditional willingness to attend a summit conference with the Soviet Union.

But he also said the United States and its Allies "stand firm wherever the probing finger of an aggressor may point."

The chief executive reported to the nation by radio and television on the Berlin crisis.

He took the expected stand that the United States is not abandoning any rights or deserting a free people but still is ready to negotiate differences.

In unmistakable terms, Mr. Eisenhower let the American people, the Soviet Union and the world know that the United States has no intention to "try to purchase peace by forsaking two million free people of Berlin."

The President spoke of the possibility the Berlin situation might carry the seeds of war. But he said "the risk of war is minimized if we stand firm."

In Berlin, he said, the Soviets have confronted the West with three fundamental choices:

1. This is the one Mr. Eisenhower said, the Soviet rulers would prefer this country to make — by frightening the United States into abdicating its rights and responsibilities to help establish a just and peaceful solution to the German problem.

Mr. Eisenhower rejected the first choice as unacceptable.

2. This choice, the President said, is the possibility of war. He said the American people and Western world do not want war.

Calling again for firmness, Mr. Eisenhower said: "War would become more likely if we gave way and encouraged a rule of terrorism rather than a rule of law and order. Indeed this is the peace policy which we are striving to carry out throughout the world."

3. The last choice is negotiation. Mr. Eisenhower said "the United States and its Allies stand ready to talk with Soviet representatives at any time and under any circumstances which offer prospects of worthwhile results."

Toward the end of his address, Mr. Eisenhower told his fellow Americans he is sure of one thing: "That we have the courage and capacity to meet the stern realities of the present and the future."

Highlights

We will not retreat one inch from our duty. We will not be the first to breach the peace.

As long as the Communist empire continues to seek world domination we shall have to face threats to the peace, of varying character and location.

All history has taught us the grim lesson that no nation has ever been successful in avoiding the terrors of war by refusing to defend its rights — by attempting to placate aggression.

The risk of war is minimized if we stand firm.

Assuming developments that justify a summit meeting at the summit, the United States would be ready to participate in this effort.

The capacity of our combined striking forces represents an almost unimaginable destructive power.

We have heard that our military posture has been subordinated to a balanced budget, to the jeopardy of our national defense. That our defenses are inadequate to meet recurrent Communist threats. Such assertions as these are simply not true. They are without foundation.

Swisher To Report On Issues Tonight

Scott Swisher, Democratic representative from Johnson County, will deliver a report on current legislative issues at 8 tonight in the Main Lounge of Wesley House, Methodist Student Center.

The report is open to the public and will be followed by a question period.

Not Russian

NOT MARTIAN, just the continuing experiment of SUI physicists in measuring the earth's magnetic field. The rocket with its magnetometer payload is being tested in a tree in front of the Physics building. Checking the instrument is Edward Kupka, E4, Iowa City, left, and Research Assistant Laurence Cahill, Jr., of the Physics Department. Cahill made the first direct measurement of electric layers in the ionosphere about 70 miles above the equator. This equipment is being tested outdoors to prepare for future expeditions. —Daily Iowan Photo.

Begin Hunt For Miss Iowa City; Pageant April 25

The search has begun in Iowa City for a girl to succeed Joanne MacDonald of Ames as Iowa's candidate for Miss America. The Iowa City Junior Chamber of Commerce is again sponsoring the third annual Miss Iowa City Pageant, to be held at the City High School Auditorium April 25.

Any girl between the ages of 18 and 28 who is a resident of Johnson County, or who has been a student at the University of Iowa since September, and has never been married, is eligible to compete for the title of Miss Iowa City.

Application blanks will be available at Whetstone's Drug Store, the Chamber of Commerce office, at any of the University women's residence houses and other places to be announced later.

Plans are being made to make the Pageant a week-long affair, with several public appearances for the finalists and visitations to the business houses of the sponsors.

Students Hurt In Accident

The luck of the Irish does not always hold true, as two Irish SUIowans will admit today. They were injured in a 3-car accident in Iowa City Monday.

Injured were Joan McGuire, N3, Westlawn, with a lacerated scalp, and Collene McGovern, N3, Westlawn, with bruises. Miss McGuire is being held for observation in University Hospital. Miss McGovern was released after treatment.

The student nurses were riding in a car driven by Marvin M. McLaughlin, 1225 Rochester Ave., when it was involved in an accident with vehicles driven by Donald L. Villhauer, 411 Douglas Ct., and Mrs. Gertrude McLaughlin McQueen, 454 Lexington St. at the corner of Jefferson and Dodge Streets.

Iowa City police said McLaughlin was charged with running a stop sign at the intersection, and Mrs. McQueen was charged with driving with an expired operator's license.

Damages were estimated at $1,700, the Police Department said.

... Came Tumbling Down

MARQUEE crashed down at the Engert Theater early Sunday morning, luckily at a time when no one was on the streets. The drain pipe on the marquee, which was put up less than a year ago, clogged and heavy snow and water piled up, causing it to crash down. The front of the theater was not badly damaged, however, and the show went on as usual Sunday. —Daily Iowan Photo.

Rockefeller's Decision To Raise N.Y. Taxes May Weaken Future Presidential Possibilities

By J.M. ROBERTS Associated Press News Analyst New York 4 State, which recently acquired a new governor who never before had sought elective office, now has a new higher schedule of personal income taxes and a new political experiment to wate.

As governor of New York, Harriman had been a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1952. Rockefeller was immediately recognized as a potential opponent of Vice President Richard M. Nixon for the Republican nomination in 1960.

GEORGE DIXON A Peaceful Little Region

WASHINGTON — A certain country is currently making a big pitch to American shipowners to register their ships under its flag to escape high wages, taxes, etc. In making the bid, this country describes itself as "a peaceful region, where security prevails, and the people devote themselves to commerce, remote from the stormy currents which these days agitate the world."

SIC. SIC. SIC.

By JAY TOD

Decisions... decisions... decisions. The most over-worked question needing an answer has been: "Shall we dig out, or just let it melt?"

Correction: A reader claims that we had one too many snowfalls in our quota report last week. Corrected box score now reads: Snow quota: 28; To last week: 24; Last week: 3; Total: 27; Left to Shovel: 1.

One Iowa City man was grinning like a happy cat at Sunday's snowflakes. He had been keeping an eye peeled all last week for broken tire chains laid along Iowa City streets. "I've got enough links and pieces to keep me going all the way into June. Besides," he grinned, "do you know what they're charging for chains these days?"

A final snow note: A Finkbine Park resident claims he's got a sure fire method of making winter seem short. All he did was sign a ninety-day note last December.

Never believe all you see in the paper dept.: A whole flock of sharp-eyed people want to know why billiard champions Nancy Clark and Linda McMillan were shown playing their favorite games on a POOL table.

A new student council will be taking over in a couple of weeks. As a service to new members who may never have attended a meeting of this group we sent an operative (who has avoided meetings of any kind on campus for 3 1/2 years) to report first impressions.

"Don't be worried about people watching you," he reports. "There were only five students in the audience." Audience break-down: First person was there to appear before the group.

Second was present to help the first in case questions came up. Third was being appointed to something, but left before his appointment and had to be called back.

Fourth was a reporter assigned to the event. Fifth was there because the folks in the TV lounge weren't tuned to his favorite channel and he had nowhere else to go.

Our operative volunteered suggestions for action by the new council: Put the tables in a horseshoe rather than a square formation. This will spread out the members so they will have to speak above a mumble to be heard. He also says such a move will eliminate the rather poor view the audience gets of those late members who crowd around the west end of the table and have obviously spent most of their time sitting down.

Do you seem to have too much work left over to be done on weekends? Remember: Robinson Crusoe was the only man to get his work done by Friday.

have little voice in campus government.

Since coming to SUI in 1956 I have been an independent, living in non-University housing advocating independent views whenever possible. I have served on the Daily Iowan staff for several semesters and have attempted to promote the cause of the independent student through this media. As a member of Town Men, the Daily Iowan and Student Council I feel I could help the independent student's views.

Russell F. Roskens, C3
Campus activities: Town Men Executive Council and Intramural Sports athletic proctor.

Glenn R. Stine, C3
Campus activities: Westminister Fellowship; Forensics; Sabre Air Command.

Campaign platform: To activate the Student Council to find ways of improving SUI as an educational institution. To have the Council explore the possibility of a student cooperative book store to lower the cost of books.

To increase the influence, prestige and activity of Town Men in the area of student government. To cooperate with the administration and faculty to make SUI a better University. And, because Town Men are an important part of the student body and represent a large body of student opinion on campus they should take a greater part in government and student action.

Platform: I will assume full responsibility for a smooth running student government in Currier Hall. I would like to see the following accomplished:

Make South Rec. available as a study area thus leaving North Rec. open for recreation, personal attention given to all meetings and functions of Currier Hall, plans made and carried through for the continued building of Currier's Library, permanent office hours established so the president will be available to all residents.

Platform: To define duties and responsibilities of officers, board members, and unit officers; to initiate new projects that will benefit not only dorm residents, but will also give these people a chance to make their offices more worth while and effective; to give or set up goals for which each officer should strive.

To make the unit a functioning area both politically and socially rather than just a division of the dormitory set up primarily to facilitate the distribution of information.

To work more closely with the advisors as a source for recommending girls interested in dorm government and to afford them an opportunity to voice criticism and offer suggestions for the improvement of dorm government.

To use the dormitory as a training ground for the purpose of increasing academic interest.

St. Louis, Oklahoma Play In National Tournery Tonight

NEW YORK (AP) — St. Louis and Oklahoma City University, seeded No. 2 and No. 4 respectively, make their bows tonight in the National Invitation Basketball Tournament at Madison Square Garden.

St. Louis, boasting a 20-5 record, plays Providence in the opening game at 6:30 p.m. Oklahoma City featuring two full-blooded Indians in the lineup, goes against

New York University at 8:15 p.m. The games are quarter-finals.

"New York University either will win the tournament or the team that beats them will," said Abe Lemons, coach of the Oklahomans.

The youthful Oklahoma City coach apparently isn't just beating the propaganda guns.

His motion was seconded by Coach Charley Osborne of top-seeded Bradley, who said of NYU: "They're the best team I've seen in the tournament."

NYU, unseeded, rolled over Denver in the opening round 90-81. Oklahoma City has a fast, aggressive team which gets much of its momentum from a pair of Kiowa Indians, Bud Sahmaunt and Fred Yeahquo, who are cousins.

St. Louis is the tallest team in the current field, with a starting lineup averaging around six feet, five inches.

Providence is a relatively small, catlike team with tricky defensive patterns.

On Thursday Bradley will play the NYU-Oklahoma City winner and St. John's will meet the St. Louis-Providence survivor. The final round is scheduled Saturday afternoon.

Bassey-Moore Title Fight Wednesday

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Complete disdain for betting odds was voiced Monday in the camp of world featherweight champion Hogan "Kid" Bassey. The little Nigerian's caustic English manager, George Biddles, listened with scorn when advised that his fighter might be no better than even money when he climbs into the ring Wednesday night to defend the title against Davey Moore of Springfield, Ohio.

Biddles reminded one and all that Bassey was regarded in the same fashion when he fought Ricardo (Little Bird) Moreno in Los Angeles last April.

He didn't have to remind anyone about the outcome of that fight. Bassey destroyed the "Little Bird" in three rounds.

The nationally televised 15-rounder at the Olympic Auditorium — with Los Angeles for a 250-mile radius blacked out — promises plenty of excitement.

And with both fighters known to carry knockout punches, no one will be surprised if it ends short of 15 rounds.

Bassey has been stopped twice in his career of 66 engagements. Biddles claims both were due to severely cut eyes.

Moore has never been stopped in 41 matches and was floored but once — by Charley Riley in St. Louis in 1954. He went on to out-point Riley.

Gunther Wins Top Regional Honors In 'Look' Voting

Michigan State's Johnny Green and Notre Dame's Tom Hawkins were named by the 600-member United States Basketball Writers Association to the 1959 Look Magazine All America.

In the voting for NCAA District 4 All Stars, the basketball writers named Green "the most valuable player" and picked Hawkins, Iowa's Dave Gunther, Michigan's M. C. Burton, and Northwestern's Joe Ruklick for top regional honors.

Hawkins holds every all-time Notre Dame scoring record, single-game, single season and three-year total, noted the article, and "the 6'5" senior from Chicago averages well over 20 points a game and is one of the truly outstanding rebounders."

But the dominant figure in college basketball today, according to the voting by the basketball writers, is Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson, who "was accorded a far heavier support than any other player." Look declared.

The remainder of Look's traditional 10-man All America, in which each player enjoys equal first-string stature, are: Mississippi State's Bailey Howell, West Virginia's Jerry West, Kentucky's John Cox, North Carolina State's Lou Pucillo, Kansas State's Bob Boozer, St. Louis' Bob Ferry and St. John's Alan Seiden.

Civil War Survivor Dies Following Bout With Pneumonia

KINGSFORD, Tenn. (UPI) — Virginia's revered old mountaineer, John Salling, next-to-last survivor of the armies of the civil war, joined his comrades in death Monday.

A boy soldier of the confederacy, Salling died peacefully of pneumonia just sixty days short of his 113th birthday.

His death left just one more living veteran of the War Between the States, 116-year-old Walter W. Williams of Houston, Tex. Williams was too weak to be told that he was the last man alive of the great armies who fought under Lee and Grant.

The last union veteran, Albert Woolson of Duluth, Minn., died in 1956 at the age of 109. Woolson was a drummer boy. Williams was a Forager. Salling spent his service in the Army of Virginia digging salt-peter, an ingredient of gunpowder.

Near-Rioting Mobs Battle At North Carolina Cotton Mill

HENDERSON, N.C. (UPI) — Striking textile workers battled police and highway patrolmen with rocks, bottles and clubs Monday in a wave of near-rioting at the Harriet-Henderson cotton mills.

Police arrested nearly 30 persons on riot charges during a 45-minute outbreak of battling at the end of the day's work shift. Nearly 500 workers crossed picket lines despite jeers and catcalls Monday morning as the strike in this tense city entered its 18th week.

Violence has occurred almost daily since the mills resumed limited operations five weeks ago.

Another Mystery Missile Goes Up Under Heavy Security Guard

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — A two-stage mystery missile climbed through the clouds with a crackling roar Monday on the start of a security-cloaked flight test.

A puffy gray smoke trail traced the sleek rocket's course for several seconds before it disappeared in low overcast.

It was the second time in a month that the missile, believed to be an aero-ballistic test vehicle being developed by McDonnell Aircraft, was launched without warning.

Air Force officials confirmed that a missile was launched but declined to name either the type or mission involved.

Dulles Will Announce Plans Soon After Treatment Ends

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Cancer-stricken John Foster Dulles will decide in about three weeks whether he will be able to continue as Secretary of State, a State Department spokesman said Monday.

Department Press Officer Lincoln White also said the massive radiation treatments which Dulles has been undergoing since February 20 will end later this week.

Presumably, after the treatment ceases Dulles' physicians will decide how effective the radiation has been in arresting his cancer. He is expected to consider his findings, along with his own judgment of how well he feels, in deciding whether to continue in his post.

Fancy Invitations Fool Diplomats Who Attend Tea in London Flat

LONDON (UPI) — Gilt-edged invitations brought 25 diplomats from 10 nations to a tea party Sunday tendered by a charwoman and her husband in a dingy London flat.

After some initial puzzlement, the diplomats carried on as though they were at an Embassy affair. The only drawback was that the guest of honor did not appear.

The invitations read: "The Hon. W. H. Burborough and Mrs. Burborough request the pleasure of your company at a tea held in honor of Cmdr. R. A. Allen, M. P."

Allen is the member of Parliament representing the rundown Paddington area where Burborough, a machinist, and his wife, a charwoman, live in a walkup flat which has no bathroom.

Allen had helped the Burboroughs get their leaky roof repaired. In gratitude, they held the party so he could meet members of the Diplomatic Corps and "further his career."

Jury Returns Guilty Verdict In Duncan Trial

VENTURA, Calif. (UPI) — Elizabeth Duncan was convicted Monday of hiring two killers with a down payment of $175 to murder her son's pregnant wife, Olga.

A jury of eight women and four men returned a verdict of first-degree murder after deliberating 4 hours and 54 minutes to end a 20 day trial.

The 54-year old defendant who called the District Attorney "liar" and "son - - -" during the trial showed no emotion as the court clerk read the verdict.

Dr. Stebner is a graduate of Creighton University, Omaha, Neb., and is now practicing in Laramie, Wyo., in a group practice which he founded.

Mrs. Duncan said simply, "I wasn't expecting it."

Frank said he had "no comment" on the trial outcome.

He said, however, that he had told his mother earlier, "No matter what the verdict, mother, do not show any emotion."

He added that she told him after the verdict was read, "Don't worry too much, Frank."

Defense Atty. S. Ward Sullivan refused to comment on the case immediately. He said he might have a statement to make after the penalty trial, which begins at 10 a.m. (PST) today before the same panel.

Frank and Sullivan went to the jail to confer with Mrs. Duncan when she was taken back to her cell following the verdict announcement.

Asked to comment on the verdict, Dist. Atty. Roy Gustafson said, "I wouldn't have prosecuted her if I didn't think she was guilty."

Mrs. Duncan wore a blue dress and stylish high heels. In court before the jury took the case, she smiled and embraced her sister, Mrs. Helen Morris, 52, Los Angeles.

At that time, Mrs. Morris said that her sister "must be crazy" if she committed the crime.

"This has been a terrific shock to all of us," Mrs. Morris said. "I'm sure she must be crazy if she's guilty."

Dentist To Speak Tonight At Junior Dental Meet

Dr. Charles M. Stebner, noted general practitioner of dentistry, will be the guest speaker at the March meeting of the State University of Iowa branch of the Junior American Dental Association to-night at 7:30 in Room 10 of the Dental Building.

Dr. Stebner is a graduate of Creighton University, Omaha, Neb., and is now practicing in Laramie, Wyo., in a group practice which he founded.

Cairo Claims Reds Provoked Iraqi Uprising

CAIRO, Egypt (AP) — Vice president Abdel Hakim Amer declared Monday that Communist agents deliberately provoked the Mosul garrison uprising in Iraq as an excuse to crush Iraqi Nationalists.

"This is the secret of the revolution against injustice and dictatorship," Amer declared at a Cairo memorial service for the dead of Col. Abdel Wahab Shafiq's rebel command. "It was a reaction against the terrorism of Red agents."

Amer spoke at the climax of a demonstration for his chief, President Gamal Abdel Nasser, and against the left-leaning regime of Iraq's Premier Abdel Karim Kassem by tens of thousands of students and workers.

The vice president, who holds a field marshal's rank and is defense minister of the United Arab Republic, substituted for Nasser. Nasser remained in Damascus, Syria, keeping watch on the increasingly tense relations between the U.A.R. and Iraq. He opened a propaganda broadside against Kassem from that Syrian city last Wednesday.

Kassem got open backing in Moscow. Premier Nikita Khrushchev accused Nasser, a recipient of extensive Soviet aid, of stirring up trouble in Iraq with the aim of bringing that nation into the U.A.R. He said "we are all pained" by Nasser's anti-Communist speeches. The Soviet Union agreed to lend Iraq 550 million rubles — $137.5 million by Soviet evaluation — to start various industries.

The keynote of the Cairo demonstration was a prediction by Nasser in Damascus that the Mosul revolt of March 8, which Baghdad said was speedily put down, was only the beginning of action against Kassem's regime.

"Down with Kassem, enemy of God," student groups screamed in response to cues from their leaders. "Death to Kassem. We are free. We are free." "No communism, no imperialism in any Arab nation."

There were a couple of swipes at the West.

"Eisenhower must not set foot on our soil," was one.

The Damascus press, meanwhile, continued to report sporadic fighting between rebels and government forces in northern Iraq.

Two Brothers Die In Stalled Auto Buried By Snow

CRESTON (AP) — Two bachelor brothers, driving nearly blind through a wild snowstorm last Saturday night stalled on a country road near here.

As the snow piled up around their car, Floyd and Welby Gates left the motor running to keep warm. The snow drifted deeper and finally the gas ran out.

Monday Ben Crossley of Creston was trying to open the road with a snowplow. The plow attacked a huge drift and stalled.

Crossley backed off and rammed the drift again. Then he discovered a car buried in the snow.

Inside the car Crossley found Floyd, 48, and Welby Gates, 57. The brothers were returning to their Creston-home from a cousin's farm near Mount Ayr when the blizzard trapped them.

Union County Coroner Dr. Harold J. Peggs said death was caused by suffocation and exposure.

What the brothers never knew was that they were parked just 30 feet from a driveway that led to a farm home and safety.

Two Mountaineer Films Will Be Shown Sunday

Iowa Mountaineers guest lecturer, John Goddard, will present two film-lectures, "Congo Conquest" at 2:30 p.m., and "Ultrasonic Age" at 7:54 p.m. on Sunday in Macbride Auditorium.

Goddard, a combat flier for three years during World War II, has traveled through 55 countries and his exploits by land, sea and air, total over 350,000 miles.

He was the first person to explore the Congo River and has also explored and photographed parts of the Nile and Colorado River.

Goddard has studied and collected under-sea life in the Pacific, Caribbean, Mediterranean, Adriatic, and Red Seas.

"Congo Conquest" is the story of Goddard's lone exploration of that river, and includes the showing of the running of the savage Stanley Falls in dugouts, a visit to a tribe of cannibals, "walking" fish, and Zongo Falls.

"Ultrasonic Age" is a film which

Western Leaders Plan Conference Proposals

LONDON (AP) — Diplomatic sources said Monday the major Western powers have launched an intensive reevaluation of all cold war issues involving European security.

Their main objective is to come up with an agreed list of Western proposals for a foreign ministers' conference which the Soviet Union would have difficulty in rejecting out of hand.

That, in turn, would make the foreign ministers conference, and a summit meeting expected to come later, the biggest arenas for East-West bargaining since the Potsdam meeting of 1945.

Further Study On Radiation

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Arthur S. Flemming, secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, said Monday the Government is stepping up its investigation of radioactivity so it can set more precise radiation safety levels.

He also told a news conference the Budget Bureau was studying whether responsibility for setting public standards of radiation safety should be transferred from the Atomic Energy Commission to his agency.

Dr. Russell H. Morgan, chairman of the Public Health Service Advisory Commission on radiation, has argued that the AEC's devotion to development of nuclear weapons and atomic power makes it the wrong agency to handle public health aspects of radiation.

Flemming said the problems of radiation obviously are mounting in the atomic age "and will be with us from now on." He said the problems should not be minimized and should be the object of constant study.

He noted that many scientists are concerned about the cumulative effects on humans of repeated small exposures of radiation. He pointed out there are many sources of radiation, some of which contribute more than fallout from atomic tests.

Flemming said that all milk sampled by the public health service has been well within permissible levels. He also said current permissible limits on radiation are based on the most informed scientific opinion.

But he added that these limits are subject to change. He said there has been some discussion of lowering the limit for Strontium-90 from bomb test fallout in food.

Herter Against Demo Moves To Slash Aid

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Acting Secretary of State Christian A. Herter said Monday that major slashes in President Eisenhower's $3,930,000,000 foreign aid program would be a confession "that we are weakening" in the fight against communism.

Asserting that the President's program was "absolutely what we need," Herter also told the House Foreign Affairs Committee that cuts would force other allies to trim their armed forces and require "many more American boys" to don uniforms.

Committee Chairman Thomas E. Morgan (D-Pa.) said he believed Mr. Eisenhower's program would fare "very well" in Congress. But he said the Administration should expect a "small decrease" because of recent charges of "waste and inefficiency" in the aid program.

"We will make it more effective by eliminating the waste," Morgan said. "As a result, we will get more for our dollars in countries abroad."

Some Democrats have forecast a slash of as much as $1 billion in the aid program.

Several Congressmen said they felt the United States might be losing friends overseas by helping too many dictators. Rep. D. S. Saund (D-Calif.) said this country sometimes gives the impression it is "interested only in stable governments."

Saund urged the State Department to put new stress on making friends abroad. Joining him in the request were Reps. Clement J. Zablocki (D-Wis.), Dante B. Fascell (D-Fla.) and Walter Judd (R-Minn.).

Rep. Wayne Hays (D-Ohio) challenged Herter's assertion that a cutback in aid funds would require an increase in U.S. military forces.

Hays asked why the United States keeps providing foreign aid to build up allied forces in Europe when Mr. Eisenhower says the United States has no intention of fighting a ground war there.

"I am sure," Hays said, "the American people are just as confused as I am."

Herter begged off answering the question. He said he felt that military witnesses scheduled to testify later could provide a better answer.

Drifter Threatens To Kill President: Secret Service

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Secret Service has been worrying for three years about a hard-drinking drifter who has made repeated threats to kill President Eisenhower, it was disclosed Monday.

He has been arrested in such scattered areas as Glenwood Springs, Colo., Baltimore, Md., and Cleveland, as well as in the capital. The man threatened to shoot the President "if I get close enough to him."

The incident was related to a House Appropriations Subcommittee by Secret Service officials in describing how their men protect the President and vice-president.

The service's concern over the alcoholic drifter was disclosed in a written summary. It said the man first came to the service's attention in 1953 when he called at the treasury and complained he had been given a dishonorable discharge.

In 1956 the man made threats against the President, saying "I have a 30-30 bullet for him."

He was arrested in Glenwood Springs, Colo., March 28, 1956, and two bullets were found in his pocket. He was sentenced to six months in prison.

On Sept. 20, 1957, he was arrested in Baltimore after he had set fire to a telephone booth. He had tried to telephone the President and made statements that he had a gun and was going to kill Mr. Eisenhower. He was committed to a mental institution but released in a few weeks.

Mortar Board Begins Steps To Choose New Members

A list of all junior women will be posted in the Office of Student Affairs today — the first step in the selection of the 1959 chapter of Mortar Board, honor society for senior women.

Mortar Board President Corley Hamill, A4, Des Moines, urged each junior to check the list to see that her name has not been left out. All girls on the list will vote March 24 for the scholastically eligible junior women whom they feel have been outstanding in campus and extra-curricular activities.

Final selection for the honor will be made by the active Mortar Board chapter on the basis of the results of the junior vote and recommendations of the SUI administration and advisors to campus groups.

To be scholastically eligible, a junior woman must be in about the upper third of her class, Miss Hamill said. This year the minimum grade point average is 2.75.

The Mortar Board chapter may include from five to 25 members.

There are 14 women in the active chapter now.

The new chapter will be "tapped" for membership Sunday, May 3, during the SUI Mothers' Day Week. The traditional tapping ceremony will be held on the west approach to Old Capitol.

Junior women have voted in the selection process since the first honor group, Staff and Circle, was organized here in 1912. When the Staff and Circle group joined the national Mortar Board society in 1926, the custom was carried over for Mortar Board selection.

The award has been established in memory of the late Mrs. Fowler, once a national vice-president of Mortar Board. Her husband, Dr. Willis Fowler, is a professor of internal medicine in the SUI College of Medicine.

Miss Hamill has been president of Seals Club, vice-president of Associated Women Students, a member of Union Board, and vice-president of Alpha Lambda Delta, scholastic honorary for freshmen women.

Also honored at the party were 23 undergraduate women who earned straight "A" averages on at least 12 semester hours work during the fall semester.

A Campus-to-Career Case History

Bill Burns (far right) reviews a plan for expanding Syracuse's toll-free calling area with some fellow supervisors.

He wanted more than "just an engineering job"

William G. Burns majored in Civil Engineering at Union College. But he had his own ideas about his engineering future. "I wanted a job with a 'growth' company," he says, "where I could develop and move ahead as a member of management."

Bill found his 'growth' company—and his management opportunity. On graduating in June, 1954, he started work with the New York Telephone Company.

Six months of training and job assignments in Albany familiarized him with the Plant, Commercial, Accounting and Traffic functions of the telephone business. Then came 18 months as engineer in the Long Range Planning Group. In October, 1956, he was promoted to Supervising Engineer.

Bill was transferred to Syracuse in August, 1958, as Supervising Engineer—Fundamental Plans, with a staff of four engineers and two clerks. In this job, he studies and forecasts the future telephone needs of customers in a 4800-square-mile area, planning from three to 20 years ahead. He then co-ordinates the development of plans to meet future needs with the various engineering groups involved. Bill calls it "management engineering."

Bill is married, has three youngsters and owns his own home. "A man has to build his own security," he says, "and finding the right place to do it can be mighty important. Choosing a Bell Telephone career was the best decision I ever made. I don't know where an ambitious young fellow can find more or better chances to move ahead in management."

Many young men, with degrees in the sciences, arts, engineering or business, are finding interesting and rewarding careers with the Bell Telephone Companies. Look into career opportunities for you. Talk with the Bell interviewer when he visits your campus. And read the Bell Telephone booklet on file in your Placement Office.
