Pre-Easter Storm Brings 9-Inch Snow

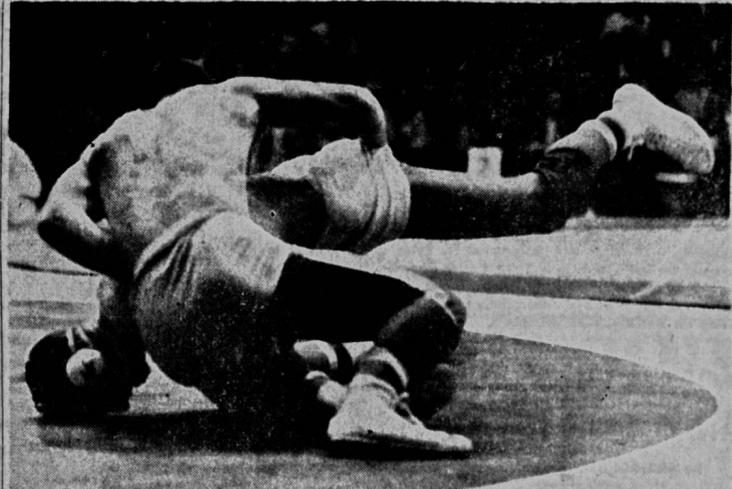

A fast-moving pre-Easter storm plastered parts of the Northeast with up to nine inches of wet snow Friday. Some airline flights were disrupted. Powered by strong winds, the storm dumped snow or heavy rains in areas from Colorado to New England.

Skate Proves Subs Can Run In Any Season

WASHINGTON — A winter voyage by the atomic submarine Skate has shown the Navy that its missile-firing subs, when they join the fleet, will be able to roam the north polar regions overlooking the Soviet Union in any season. This is one significant result of a new record polar voyage by the Skate, announced by the Navy Friday.

West And East Still At Odds Over Germany

By J. M. ROBERTS Associated Press News Analyst There are still considerable differences among the Western powers, as well as between them and the Soviet Union, over the approaches to negotiations over Germany.

But the Khamba tribesmen who sparked the revolt have been up in arms against the Chinese overlords since 1956, and best estimates in Sikkim say they hold between 30,000 and 40,000 square miles of the country on the roof of the world which has a total area of 400,000 square miles.

His actual whereabouts is unknown. Recent reports said he was under house arrest in his Potala winter palace at Lhasa. The sources here said rebels have consolidated their position by cutting the highway from Lhasa to the Chinese province of Sikang and severing a Red supply line.

English type of formal service is taught the crew members and used at dinners, Miss Violet Pammel, head of Union dining service, said. This type of service stresses courtesy, quietness, and perfection.

She learned the English technique of service while she was managing director of the Chilton Club, Boston, for 25 years. At this club only English butlers were employed who knew the most perfect service, she said.

On mountainsides, in tall woods and in city coliseums throughs will commemorate the event. In little churches and great temples, the hosannas will ring, the organs roll.

Applications for positions in the fall, but no experience is required, Miss Pammel said. Supervision of the dining crew is done by Mrs. Donna Lillard, dining supervisor and graduate of SUJ.

Miss Pammel accepted the position as head of the Union dining service in 1953. She was touring Europe and was in Zurich, Switzerland, when she received a call about the opening at SUJ. She majored in dietetics at Iowa State College and has had extensive experience managing dining areas in clubs and hotels throughout the east.

Communists Suppress All Opposition

Stage Set For Reds To Take Over Nation BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — The greatest purge in the Arab world has swept Iraq with the Communists suppressing all opposition in a ruthless drive. The stage may have been set for the outright takeover of the strategic oil-rich nation by the Communists.

The diplomats no longer wonder if Iraq is going Communist. The question now is "has the nation already passed the point of no return?" There is almost open anarchy among student groups who roam the streets in violent demonstrations against the West and the Arab nationalism advocated by President Gamal Abdel Nasser.

Baghdad radio emits a round-the-clock stream of Red propaganda and savage attacks on Nasser. It makes unceasing attempts to deify the personage of Kasseem. Foreigners, particularly Americans, are subjected to continual harassment.

Vendors openly hawk pornographic pictures defaming the Egyptian leaders. Slogans and cartoons debasing Nasser in the most salacious terms are scrawled on walls throughout Baghdad. The Communists have taken over many of the key ministries in the Government.

Christians Greet Easter With Lilt In Heart, Song On Lips

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Christians greet the dawn Sunday with a lilt in their hearts and a song on their lips. Across the land — outdoors and indoors — they'll gather in multitudes to celebrate the triumph of Jesus Christ.

It's the climax of Holy Week—the morning of Easter — the day of the Resurrection. On mountainsides, in tall woods and in city coliseums throughs will commemorate the event.

First Test For 3-In-1 Moon Shot

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Fire burst from the base of a new Vanguard rocket Friday during a special ground engine test for an upcoming three-in-one satellite shoot.

The Vanguard, which boosted a 21½-pound "weather eye" sphere into orbit Feb. 17, roared for a few seconds during the controlled static test.

The next Vanguard launching, expected in the next two weeks, is designed to produce, in effect, three separate satellites.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration plans to fire a plastic sphere 13 inches in diameter with a magnetometer arm stretching out about two feet to measure the earth's magnetic fields.

An expandable balloon 30 inches in diameter, used to provide more precise information on atmosphere friction or drag, and the 52-pound, third-stage rocket will be the other two orbs in space if all goes well.

Two Killed Friday In Iowa Accident

STRAWBERRY POINT (AP) — Two persons were killed late Friday in the collision of two cars in a curve on Highways 3 and 13 a mile and a half south of here.

The victims were Pearl Huntington, 61, of Darlington, Wis., and Mrs. Lora McDonald, 58, of Shabbona, Ill.

Huntington's wife Thelma, 59, was reported in critical condition in a Manchester hospital.

Mrs. McDonald's grandson, Kenneth Hurnance, 12, also of Shabbona, was in fair condition at the same hospital.

Mrs. McDonald and her grandson were traveling to Sumner to visit relatives. The Huntingtons were enroute east.

A carload of student nurses happened on the accident scene and gave first aid to the injured.

Mary Helen Kapler of Cresco, a student nurse at Mason City but currently taking psychiatric nurse training at Dubuque, rode to Manchester with the injured. She was returned to Strawberry Point by highway patrolmen so she could continue with her party.

tion, Economics and Social Affairs. Ministers and employees with anti-Communist sympathies have been purged.

A curious anomaly is that the Foreign Affairs Ministry has been relatively untouched by the Reds in the midst of the massive Communist infiltration.

Those arrested are known to include at least 150 and probably more Army officers, two and possibly three former cabinet ministers and four Iraqi employees of the U.S. embassy.

The purge includes persons in all walks of life. The hardest hit areas are middle rank civil servants, professors, students, former nationalist political leaders and middle-grade army officers. The common denominator was their potential opposition to the increasingly Red-dominated regime.

The known arrested include former Minister Abdul Jomard and Minister of Social Affairs Brig. Gen. Najj Talib. Talib was a member of the original "free officers" group that helped overthrow the Iraqi monarchy last July.

Coupled with the widespread arrests of civilians has been a massive purge of Army officers. A small clique of Communist officers has used the Mosul uprising as a pretext to rid the Army of all officers suspected of anti-Communist tendencies, including several of Kassem's former comrade-in-arms in the 1958 revolt.

The biggest riddle in Iraq is Kassem himself. Publicly he takes a soothing, moderate line. But he appears unwilling or unable to control those around him.

Vote-Loving Congressmen Almost Invariably Gallant

By ARTHUR EDSON

WASHINGTON (AP) — A congressman — bless his vote-loving heart — is almost invariably gallant.

And now our statesmen, are on a kick that may break all gallantry records.

Legislator after legislator leaps to his feet to defend, to extol, to laud.

Oddly, it began during a fuss involving, not cow haters, but local cow lovers who were hotly disputing the proper source of milk supply for this area. One group complained that the stuff, carted in from afar was "tired old milk."

You might as well tell a congressman his mother was a Communist as to say that his constituents' cows give tired milk.

The reaction of Sen. Harrison A. Williams (D-) of Westfield, N.J., probably was typical. His stirring defense, entitled "The Proud and Happy Cows of New Jersey," contained such words as:

"We cannot countenance criticism of our cows. They are not sacred cows, but we like to keep them contented cows."

Mooring happily, contentedly, even proudly, let's move along to the fact that congressmen often have a pretty fair sense of humor, but the jest often is so specialized and so wordy that it comes out dull and listless in print.

Still, anyone who knows that Sen. Wayne Morse (D) of Eugene, Ore., is an indefatigable talker can

To Silence Radio, TV For Half Hour In Defense Test

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission announced Friday that all normal radio and TV broadcasting will go off the air for 30 minutes Friday, April 17, in connection with a civil defense air raid drill.

The operation will start at 10:30 a.m. The only previous similar drill was held in July 1956.

About 1,200 standard AM radio stations known as "conelrad" stations, will shift to either 640 or 1240 kilocycles, a maneuver designed to minimize use of radio beams to guide enemy aircraft or put guided missiles on their targets. They will handle special defense programs.

Some 3,670 other AM, FM and TV stations — not included in the "conelrad" program — will remain silent.

The name "conelrad" stands for "control of electromagnetic radiation."

Suggests Politics, Science Must Work Together

BROOKLINE, Mass. (UPI) — Statesmen and scientists must achieve "spiritual reconciliation" to live successfully in the atomic age, Israeli Ambassador Abba Eban said Friday night.

"The world cannot afford a statecraft which ignores the scientific challenges; still less can it afford a scientific rationalism which deems itself to lie beyond the utilities and compassions of mankind," the diplomat said in an address prepared for a dinner in his honor sponsored by the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

"The scientific illiteracy of statesmen and political apathy of scientists must each be modified in a genuine effort at spiritual reconciliation," Eban said.

"Men and nations must live in closer intimacy and communion with their new knowledge of nature. The flowering of scientific discovery has plunged our generation into a kind of cosmic despair, for which all the new gadgetries and comforts offer scanty consolation," the ambassador said.

Speaking of his own nation's role in world affairs, Eban said that the Middle East has a better destiny than the present situation in which "the region which first gave the world its understanding of unity in nature and unity in man should itself be the most ravaged and disinherited of regions."

"The Arab world will awaken to the sheer compulsion of a future to be shared with us in peace. The great powers can do much to hasten this by strengthening security under the rule of law," ambassador Eban said.

Missile Explodes In Test

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (UPI) — A captive Atlas missile exploded on its test stand here Friday, the Air Force disclosed.

There were no casualties in the explosion of the Atlas — model 6C — which was used for static testing, although similar to flight configurations.

The same Atlas had completed numerous other test firings at the base, the Air Force reported.

The missile was destroyed. Cause of the mishap was not disclosed. The firing occurred at approximately 4 p.m., but the Air Force withheld a report until almost 8 o'clock in the evening.

The captive Atlas had performed most of its test objectives when the accident occurred during the captive firing run.

As a captive test model, the model 6C served as a backup for the Atlas flight test program. The gantry, a crane-type structure used to service the missile, received some damage, according to a preliminary Air Force report.

A joint Air Force-Conair committee will investigate the incident, the Air Force said.

Alaskan Fishermen Protest Presence Of Russian Fleet

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI) — The Alaska Fisherman's Union Friday added to the protests raised over the presence of a Russian fishing fleet in North Pacific waters.

The union released a statement which said they "strongly object to this invasion of the Bering Sea fishing grounds."

The union pointed out that the Bering Sea area has not been a historic fishing grounds utilized by the Soviets in the past, and their presence there now constitutes a real danger to North Pacific fishery resources, particularly halibut and salmon.

"Our Government must take appropriate action to alleviate any further strains on our fisheries by foreign nationals," the statement said.

The union protest came on the heels of objections voiced by Alaska legislators and by Sen. Warren G. Magnuson (D-Wash.) in Washington, D.C.

Acting Gov. Hugh J. Wade of Alaska has called for a four-way international agreement between Russia, Canada, Japan and the United States with regard to Pacific fisheries. A pact is already in existence between the latter three, but has been the object of recent criticism because of alleged Japanese infringement on the Bristol Bay, Alaska, salmon runs.

Wade called the presence of the Soviet fleet "an encroachment in the very area the state feels the Japanese have been over-fishing."

Magnuson accused the Russian of "attempting to beat American and Canadian halibut boats to the Bering Sea halibut grounds."

The Navy has reported sighting halibut on the decks of the Russian trawlers, many of which are equipped with communications antennas of a type not usually found on vessels used solely for fishing.

Mrs. Edgar X. Boyles, 86, was reported in good condition Friday at University Hospital where she is being treated for burns.

Mr. Edgar X. Boyles, 87, a well-known Iowa City businessman, was fatally burned in the same accident. Mr. Boyles operated the Johnson County Abstract and Title Guarantee Co. since 1920.

Services for Mr. Boyles will be held Monday at 9 a.m. in St. Patrick's church with burial in the new section of St. Joseph's cemetery.

The exact cause of the blaze is not known but it is believed Mr. Boyles' clothing caught fire at his home at 229 Melrose Court Thursday evening.

Captain Says Fog Cause Of Collision

NEW YORK (AP) — The tanker Valchem's skipper claimed Friday he was hoisted to in thick fog when his ship was rammed by the luxury liner Santa Rosa. Both vessels were using radar and he said both were sounding fog signals.

Capt. Louis L. Murphy, 33, told newsmen when his smashed tanker reached here under tow: "The Santa Rosa kept coming and hit us on the port (left) side near the stern at high speed. We were stopped in the water when she hit."

His statement was in direct contradiction to the prior announcement by the Santa Rosa's owners the Grace Line, that the Valchem crossed in front of the liner in perfect weather. On the contrary, Murphy contended, it was the liner that improperly changed course.

Good Listening— Today On WSUI

KING DAVID, the Symphonic Psalm by Honegger, will be rebroadcast this evening at 6 p.m. Tape recorded from the Memorial Iowa Easter Concert by the State University of Iowa Chorus and Orchestra under the direction of Professor Herald Stark. King David will comprise the greater part of Evening Concert from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. Lenten music from France recently transcribed by the French Broadcasting System will be heard following King David. Based on a drama by Rene Morax, Honegger's psalm utilizes a narrator, Professor Harold Shiffler, and five soloists: Leslie Eitzen, mezzo-soprano; Harry Morrison, Jr., baritone; John Duenow, tenor and Sandra Petzel Smothers and Lois Crane, sopranos.

LEE STRASBERG, one of the influential men in the contemporary American theatre, will be among the principal attractions which Cue holds for its listeners during the three hours today from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Other items of interest include an interview with the national representative of Civic Music Associations, a Sports Roundtable discussion of recent baseball trades, a recorded visit from comedian Stan Freberg and a live visit from vocalist Julie Vernon. The usual filler materials (news, weather, sports, good music and "that other") occupy the valleys between the high points.

Java Women Lose Battle In Divorce Cost

BONDOWOSO, Java (UPI) — The women of this east Java village were loser Friday in an effort to triple the cost of divorces to reduce the number of broken marriages.

They asked an increase from $1.66 to $5 for divorces. The men objected. A compromise was reached by officials of the regional administration — all men. The new price is $2.

Expect Russia To Accept 3:1 Meeting Ratio

MOSCOW (UPI) — Western sources said Friday they expected Russia to forego the old principle of mathematical equality at the conference table and agree quickly to the West's proposal to open a pre-summer meeting of foreign ministers in Geneva May 11.

It was believed in diplomatic circles the Soviet Government would not quibble over either the agenda or the Western formula for inviting Polish and Czechoslovakian representatives only at "certain stages." Thus for most of the conference, it would be Russia alone against the United States, Britain and France.

The Russians, apparently more eager than any one else to get an East-West Summit Conference arranged, formerly insisted on equal numerical representation for both sides at the ministers' parley. But it was believed they would abandon that idea — at least for the present — in view of the virtual certainty of holding a top-level conference this summer.

The proposed ministers' meeting was regarded here as practically a rubber-stamp conference. The Russians want to proceed with a discussion of global problems at the summit.

Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev, for all practical purposes, already agreed to the time and the place for a foreign ministers' meeting at his March 19 news conference. The Soviet leader at the same time made it clear that he was not interested in an agenda covering more than the German problem. A Soviet note March 2 proposed that the East-West leaders take up at a summit meeting the general problem of European security, disarmament and denuclearization of central Europe, in addition to the German problem.

Loosening Party Apron Strings May Cause Battle

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Southern Democrats promoting a campaign to free their presidential electors from the party's national apron strings may find themselves in a 1960 convention battle.

The Democratic National Committee has not yet taken action against the so-called "independent electors movement" in the South. However, party sources suggested that party organizations in the Dixie states may get a warning about it.

They said the party's answer might be an attempt to unseat convention delegates from states which have freed Democratic electors of allegiance to the party's national standard-bearer. Georgia passed a law last year and Arkansas approved one this year that frees electors of any requirement to vote for the Democratic presidential ticket. Alabama's Democratic party also approved the plan.

The independent electors movement is regarded as a maneuver to give Southerners more bargaining power in the choice of a 1960 presidential candidate and in drafting of a party platform.

News Digest

Proposal Will Focus Publicity On Congressmen Hiring Relatives

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A proposal to focus publicity on the hiring of relatives by Congressmen will get serious consideration by the House Administration Committee, its chairman said Friday.

Chairman Omar Burleson (D-Tex.) said the resolution would be studied along with any other proposals in the same vein after Congress returns from its Easter recess.

The plan was advanced by Rep. John E. Henderson (R-Ohio) who said it would "lift the finger of suspicion" from Congressional hiring practices.

Goldwater To Oppose Appointment Of Ike Nominee To NLRB Post

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Barry Goldwater, ranking Republican member of the Senate Labor Committee, said Friday he will oppose confirmation of the man President Eisenhower selected to enforce the Taft-Hartley Law.

The Arizona Senator said the President's nominee, Stuart Rothman, now solicitor for the Labor Department, is not qualified for the $20,000-a-year post as general counsel of the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB).

The 15-member Labor Committee must hold hearings on the nomination and then decide whether to recommend Senate confirmation. Barring the unexpected, Rothman was expected to be approved despite Goldwater's objections.

210 Million Silver Dollars Are Just Lying Around — Lonely, Unwanted

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The silver dollar is just about the loneliest coin in the world.

About 210 million of them are lying around, unwanted, in the vaults of the Treasury and the federal reserve system.

Most of these millions have been locked up since the day they were minted. Virtually all have been languishing for more than 30 years, some since the 1880s. Banker A. L. M. Wiggins of South Carolina and New York, is mailing 1923 silver dollars to friends over the country. He thus gets their attention, and then informs them that inflation has cut the value of these dollars almost in half since they were minted.

Nose Cone Recovered By Air Force After Space Flight On Thor

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI) — The Air Force recovered a data capsule Friday from the nose cone of a Thor missile that made a jack-of-lantern flight of 1,600 miles down the Atlantic tracking range last night.

The data capsule contained a device to record effects of the extremely high heat generated by atmospheric friction on the 15,000-mile-an-hour flight. It was only the third time that such a capsule had been recovered in 26 flights of a standard Thor.

The missile was fired at 10 p.m. Thursday night.

Type B Influenza Identified in 11 States Including Iowa

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Type B influenza has now been identified in outbreaks of respiratory infections in 11 states and the District of Columbia.

Deaths from all causes and from influenza and pneumonia continue to be in normal limits in the 114 large cities of the nation, the service said.

A spokesman said the states in which the type B virus has been identified include New York, Georgia, Utah, Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Maryland, Indiana, California, Massachusetts and Alabama.

Ike To View International Situation — Major Talk April 4

Major Talk April 4

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (UPI) — President Eisenhower will make an important speech on the international situation here next Saturday, the White House said.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty told newsmen the April 4 address at a Gettysburg College Convocation will deal with world problems rather than domestic issues.

He said the President was working on this and another speech scheduled for next week during his quiet Easter weekend with Mrs. Eisenhower at their Gettysburg farm.

The President and First Lady attended Good Friday services at a combined observance by Protestant denominations at Gettysburg's First Methodist Church.

A light rain which began last night and fell throughout Friday marred the second day of their 5-day weekend.

Except for describing the April 4 speech as important, Hagerty refused to amplify on its content. He did say he would not put it in the category as the President's recent radio-TV address on Berlin.

The press secretary said Mr. Eisenhower will touch on Berlin in another speech in Washington next Thursday to the 10th anniversary meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) Council of Foreign Ministers.

Hagerty said this speech "will deal with the NATO organization and the constant need for it," which naturally will include Berlin. He said the main point of the speech will not be Berlin, however.

U.S. Resumes Relations With Red Bulgaria

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States and Communist Bulgaria resumed diplomatic relations Friday after a break of nine years.

The State Department said the U.S. mission in Sofia would be reopened soon and that Bulgaria would tone down anti-American broadcasts.

The agreement left Albania and East Germany as the only European Communist countries with which the United States does not have diplomatic relations. This country also does not recognize such non-European red regimes as Communist China and North Korea.

Relations with Bulgaria were broken off in 1950 after Donald Heath, U.S. Minister in Sofia, was charged with espionage and accused of being involved in a plot to overthrow the Communist Government.

The Bulgarian government charged that Heath had been in contact with two Bulgarians, Traicho Kostov and Tzomu Tzontchev, who were convicted of treason and espionage.

The Bulgarian Supreme Court later annulled their sentences and the Bulgarian Government then withdrew the charges against Heath as groundless.

The State Department said the agreement to resume relations was negotiated here and in New York between Foy D. Kohler, deputy assistant secretary of state for European affairs, and Peter G. Boutov, Bulgaria's permanent representative at the United Nations. Bulgaria made the first move for preliminary talks in December, 1957. Final negotiations were started March 4.

Joseph W. Reap, State Department press officer, said both Governments agreed to make every effort to speed reopening of the other's missions. Each also will extend the usual diplomatic privileges and immunities.

Reap said this included toning down anti-American broadcasts by Bulgarian radio stations. He said these had been less frequent since negotiations started.

A charge d'affaires will head the reopened U.S. mission in Sofia temporarily, with a minister to be named later. Heath, the former minister, now is U.S. ambassador to Saudi Arabia.

The Swiss Government has been representing U.S. interests in Bulgaria since 1950. The Polish Government has been representing Bulgarian interests here.

Scientists Agree —

Sun Caused Van Allen Belts

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Scientists agreed at a "frontiers of space" seminar here Friday that explosions on the sun are responsible for the outermost of two zones of charged particles recently discovered in the Earth's magnetic field.

Their agreement was based on recently analyzed data from America's sun rocket, Pioneer IV. The two zones, the so-called Van Allen belts, constitute a radiation hazard to travelers venturing unshielded by lead into nearby space.

The source of the charged particles in the inner zone remained a matter of dispute after the seminar, conducted by Dr. Robert Jastrow, chief of the Theoretical Division of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

But before it left the Earth's influence forever and went into orbit around the sun, Pioneer IV reported information from the outer zone which, the scientists agreed, left no doubt that its particles were of solar origin.

Some scientists believe the inner belt's charged particles also come from the sun, but others are convinced they result from cosmic rays from much farther out in the universe.

The two belts, discovered with U.S. satellites by Dr. James A. Van Allen of SUI, are wide zones of particles trapped along lines of force in the Earth's magnetic field. Such particles stay trapped for periods ranging from a few seconds to 10 years, depending on whether they are in the fringes of the Earth's atmosphere or above it.

The intensity of particles reaches a peak at about 1,860 miles altitude in the inner zone and, when the sun is quiet, at about 15,500 miles in the outer zone.

Scientists disagreed as to the origin of the charged particles in both zones until the information from Pioneer IV, launched March 3, was translated. The sun rocket's launching followed five days of intense solar and auroral activity.

During its flight of escape from the Earth, Pioneer IV found that the outer zone had been extended by the eruption of particles from the sun and that its center had moved from 15,500 out to 21,700 miles.

Swiss Ensemble Scheduled Here

A Swiss string and woodwind ensemble of 20 players will head the list of concerts for the 1959-60 season of the Civic Music association.

The Master Players of Lugano, making their first tour of the United States, will appear here this fall. No date has yet been set for the concert.

Other concerts for the new series will be selected following the completion of the association's membership drive.

Admission to Civic Music concerts is by season membership card. No admissions to single concerts are available.

Oklahoma State Keeps Lead In NCAA Meet

Younkin—On A Limb Major League Outlook The Pittsburgh Pirates

By LOU YOUNKIN
Sports Editor

Since this column somehow or other was entitled "On A Limb" I will climb way out on the tip today and predict that the 1959 National League champions will be the Pittsburgh Pirates. This is liable to bring a knowing smirk from the Milwaukee backers and probably the San Francisco fans, but here is why I think manager Danny Murtaugh's Bucs will take the cake!

1. Pittsburgh has an outstanding pitching staff headed by Bob Friend, a 22-game winner in '58. Close behind him are Ron Kline, Vernon Law, Curt Raydon, George Witt and Harvey Maddix. Maddix was picked up from Cincinnati in the big deal that saw Frank Thomas lug his home run bat over to the Reds.

2. Paced by Elroy Face, the Pirates have a fine corps of relief pitchers. Ron Blackburn, Bob Porterfield and lefty Don Gross round out the fireman. All four had an earned run average under 4.00 with Face's 2.91 the best.

3. Probably the fastest outfield in the major leagues will be in Pittsburgh uniforms this year. From left to right we find speed merchants Bob Skinner, Bill Virdon and Roberto Clemente. Skinner banded the ball at a .321 clip last season with 13 home runs and 70 runs batted in. Although Skinner is not the best defensive player in history, you can't be too choosy with a guy who hits .321.

Centerfielder Virdon hit .267 last year with nine round-trippers and 46 RBIs and is an excellent fielder.

Clemente hit a healthy .289 in 1958 with six homers and 50 RBIs. The Puerto Rican flash is one of the fastest men in either league and like Virdon, a great outfielder.

4. Pittsburgh has a great keystone combination in Dick Groat at shortstop and Bill Mazeroski at second base. Groat hit .300 last year with three homers and 46 RBIs. A relatively slow man for a shortstop, Groat makes up for his lack of speed with a "know how" style of play — and he is a .300 hitter.

Mazeroski, only 22, is being touted as the best second baseman in baseball. He does everything a second sacker is supposed to do and last year hit .275 with 19 home runs and 68 runs batted in. Mazeroski is also very fast.

5. The Pirates have three first basemen of the finest quality. Ted Kluszewski seems to have shaken off the effects of a chronic back ailment and a healthy "Klu" spells trouble for National League hurlers. In 11 seasons, Kluszewski has rapped 255 home runs.

Controversial Dick Stuart is another first base candidate. Before 1958 his chief claims to fame were the 66 home runs he hit at Class A Lincoln in 1956 and his mouth which was seldom shut and seldom talking about anything besides Dick Stuart. He seems to be settled down on the latter claim to fame. Brought up at midseason from Salt Lake City, Stuart smacked 16 home runs, drove in 48 runs and had an average of .268 in 67 games.

Kluszewski is a lefthanded batter and Stuart a righthander so Murtaugh has the needed depth to rest big Klu and 2-platoon at the initial sack.

The third candidate at first base is minor league terror and major league bust Rocky Nelson. Another great talker about himself, The Pirate dugout could be the scene of some tall stories by Nelson and Stuart — if Nelson sticks. Rocky has failed previous major league trials with other clubs, but they can't get him out in the minors.

6. The addition of Smokey Burgess behind the plate is bound to strengthen a Pirate weakness of 1958. Burgess was part of the Thomas-Haddix deal as was Buc third baseman Don Hoak. Burgess was used mostly as a pinch hitter at Cincy last year where he compiled a .289 average with six home runs and 31 RBIs. He swings from the left side.

Behind him will be a righthanded swinger (and swinger is a better word here than hitter) who was the No. 1 man last year, Hank Foiles. He hit .205 in 1958, but for a catcher has great speed. Both Foiles and Burgess are good defensive performers, but not great in any sense of the word.

Add to these six reasons the fact that the Pirates have strengthened themselves defensively at third base with the addition of Hoak. Losing Thomas will hurt the offense, he hit 35 homers last year and drove in 109 runs, but Hoak is much faster and a much better glove man.

In Murtaugh Pittsburgh has 1958's manager of the year and Joe L. Brown was voted the league's general manager of the year. Good material to run the show is bound to show up in the performance on the field and this is the case at Pittsburgh.

Gene Baker is the handy man in the infield — he can play second, short or third. He could probably play first too, but there is already a crowd at that side of the infield. A former Cub, Baker missed most of the '58 season with an injured knee. Good field no hit Dick Schofield and a good minor league hitter and fine glove man, Harry Bright, are also available.

For catching behind Burgess and Foiles there is Danny Kravitz, Bill Hall and Daryl Westerfield. One of them will probably be retained as insurance.

Two rookie pitchers have a chance of sticking. Benny Daniels won 14 games at AAA Columbus last year and southpaw Alvin Jackson had 18 victories at Lincoln. Jackson's chances are probably better than Daniels' because he is lefthanded. Maddix and Gross are the only other outsiders on the staff.

One of the big factors in my choosing Pittsburgh over Milwaukee is the Braves' loss of Red Schoendienst at second base and the apparent bad knee possessed by his replacement Mel Roach.

San Francisco is much tougher this year and the trade it put over on the Cardinals when the Giants obtained pitcher Sam Jones in return for expendables Bill White and Ray Jablonski makes them a serious challenger. But I'm getting ahead of myself.

Pittsburgh, which in '58 finished second — eight games off the pace, has what it takes to win the flag and this looks like the year. Its weaknesses are few and far between. So for the first time since 1927 a National League championship flag will fly above Forbes Field.

Three 1958 Titlists In Finals Tonight

By GEORGE KAMPLING
Staff Writer

Defending champion Oklahoma State advanced three men into the final round of the NCAA wrestling meet at the Fieldhouse Friday night. Ted Ellis, heavyweight, pinned Johnson Oberly of Penn State in 2:23, for his fourth straight fall of the meet. Other Cowboys advancing were Shelby Wilson, 137, who defeated Dick Zboray of Indiana, 16-2, and Dick Beattie, 157-pound defending champion, who beat Art Kraft, Northwestern 3-2.

Of the five Iowa Hawkeyes who advanced into the quarterfinal round Thursday, only Jim Craig, 177-pounder, made it to the finals. Craig defeated Ed Rath, Colorado State, 6-4.

Craig and Rath wrestled to a 0-0 first round tie. Craig broke the tie with an escape in 56 seconds of the second round. In the third round, Craig was ahead of Rath 5-4, and leaped out for an escape, and 6-4 lead with 1:32 remaining.

Larry Moser, 115-pounder, suffered a neck and shoulder injury in his quarter-final match with Gene Williams of Western State, and lost to Dick Wilson, of Toledo, by forfeit.

Gordon Trapp, 191, lost a 9-6 decision to Art Baker of Syracuse, in the semi-finals.

Vince Garcia, 123, lost in the quarter-finals to Dave Auble of Cornell 8-5.

Heavyweight Gary Grouwinkel lost a 2-1 "riding time" decision by three seconds to Walter Golt, Colorado State College in a quarter-final match.

Two defending champs lost in the semi-finals. They were Paul Aubrey, of Oklahoma, who lost a 4-2 decision to Larry Hayes, Iowa State; and Duane Murty, who lost a 5-2 overtime decision to Ed Hamer of Lehigh. Aubrey was the 1958 NCAA champion at 137, and Murty was the 1958 167-pound champ.

Three defending champs moved into the finals today. They were Les Anderson, Iowa State, defending 130-pound champ; Ron Gray, 147-pounder from Iowa State, and Beattie.

Anderson beat Brandon Glover, Virginia Tech, 5-0, and Gray beat Bob Bubb of Pittsburgh, 8-1.

Andy Fitch of Yale advanced into the semi's in the 115 pound division with a 5-2 victory over Bob Taylor, Oklahoma State.

Dave Auble, unbeaten 123-pounder from Cornell (N.Y.), took an 8-5 decision from Utah's Doug Bingham.

In the 130 pound division, Stan Abel, Big Eight champ, moved into the finals against Anderson by beating Clarence McNair of Kent State, 8-3.

Shelby Wilson of Oklahoma State will go against Hayes in the 137 final. Wilson took the most decisive win in the semi's with a 16-2 win over Indiana's Dick Zboray.

In another "riding time" decision, Jerry Frude, Wyoming, took a 9-8 win over Oklahoma State's Bob Wilson. Frude moves into the 147 pound final against Gray.

Oklahoma's Sid Terry took a 5-4 Ellie Watkins. Watkins was leading 4-3 when Terry reversed him for two points with only two seconds remaining in the match.

In the 177 pound class, Al Blansham moved into the finals against Craig. Blansham from Mankato State, took a 4-3 decision from Minnesota's Big Ten champ, Bill Wright. Wright decided Craig earlier this month for the Big Ten title.

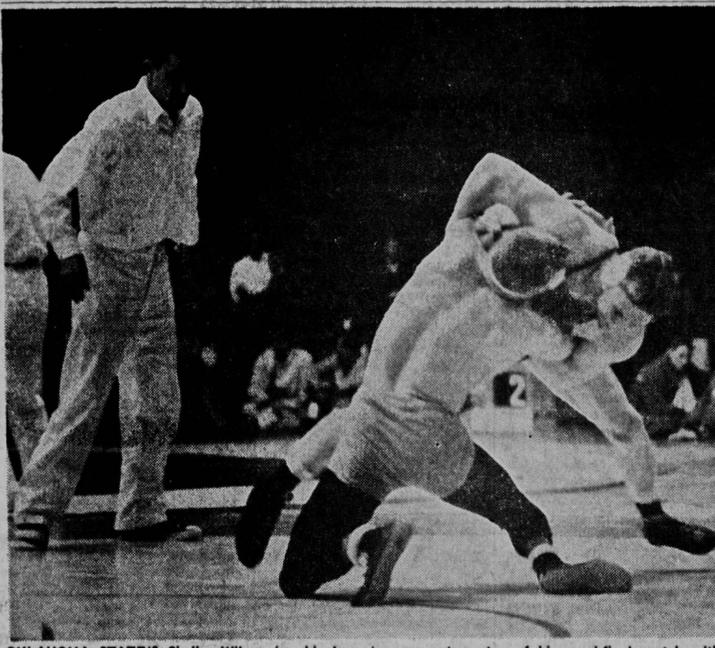

Tim Woodin, Big Ten heavyweight champ, moved into the 191 pound finals with an 8-2 win over Adnan Kaisy of Oklahoma State.

Heavyweight Bob Marella, Ithaca, beat 1958 Rocky Mountain champ Walter Golt, Colorado State College, on a referee's decision. Marella moves into the finals against Ellis.

Winners in consolation matches included Iowa's Vince Garcia, 123-pounder who won a 5-2 decision over Jim Stagg, Bowling Green.

Other grapplers advancing in the consolation include, Mitsy Tamura, 115-pounder from Ore. State, 3-0 winner over Ted Lamb, Indiana; Colorado State's Lannie Bryant, who beat Jerry Lane Iowa Teachers, 3-2; in the 130 pound class, Sam Minor, Penn State, 147, over Big Ten champ Jim Innis of Wisconsin, 2-1; and Jim Gass of Cornell (Ia.), winner of a referee's decision over Tom Robinson of Purdue.

Charles Coffee and Pete Veldman of Minnesota also advanced in the consolation round. Coffee beat Paul Pinn, Colorado Mines, 7-5, and Veldman, heavyweight, beat Jan Schwitters of Iowa State 2-1.
