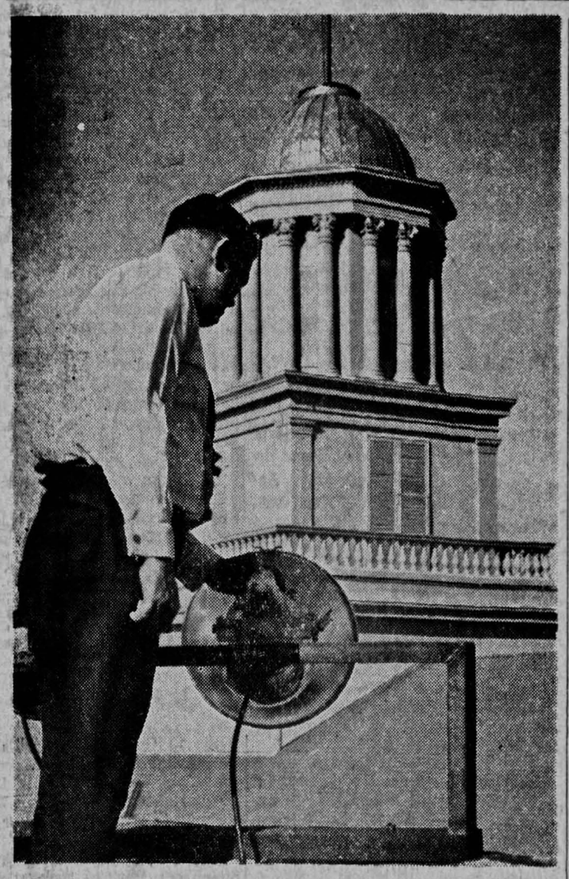
Eisenhower Backs Morton For Republican Chairman



It's Light Up Time

THE FIRST OF 15 new lights to make Old Capitol brighter is examined by Jim Wells, administrative assistant to James Van Allen, SUI physicist. The lights are being installed because old ones were worn out and rusted.

Hadden Pumphrey, foreman of electricity at the Physical Plant, said that four lights have been installed on the northeast corner of the Physics building. Others to be replaced are the four on the northwest corner of the Physics building, three on top of Macbride and four on University Hall.

Pumphrey said the lights will be the same size as the old ones, but a different type.

The old facilities, which had been in use for over 20 years, were plain floodlights. Pumphrey said the new lights — spotlights — will be brighter than the old ones.

Lights are now being installed with 1,000 watt bulbs, but Pumphrey said this may have to be cut down to 500 watts per bulb when the project is completed.

OK 'Family Type' Jobless Bill

Iowa Bill Bases Benefits On Size Of Ones Family

DES MOINES (AP) — The Republican majority in the Iowa Senate Friday pushed through on a 29-19 vote the controversial "family-type" unemployment compensation bill.

Passage of the measure came on an almost straight party line vote, after a day of debate during which more than half a dozen amendments were beaten.

The bill, strongly endorsed by the Republican party, would base jobless pay benefits on both the size of an individual's family and the amount of money he has earned while employed.

Under the measure, the maximum amount of jobless pay would be $44 a week for 26 weeks.

Unemployment compensation is paid to workers who are laid off or fired through no fault of their own. The present top compensation is $30 per week for up to 24 weeks.

Labor leaders and Gov. Herschel Loveless have advocated increasing maximum jobless pay benefits and modifying the laws regarding eligibility requirements for such compensation.

The bill, as drafted by the Republicans, drew strong criticism from both the Democrats and Labor union officials.

They claimed that the proposed bill:

Is discriminatory towards the single worker; would make employers reluctant to hire workers with large families; would increase the number of persons ineligible to receive benefits, and, in general, favors amendments point of view on paying unemployment compensation.

Labor union officials further maintained that the amount of increased benefits actually would amount to not more than one-half per cent greater than before.

However, Senate Majority Leader Jack Schroeder (R—Davenport) chief backer of the bill, argued that it would increase average jobless pay benefits about $7 per family.

The bill itself scales payments upward to a maximum of $44 a week depending upon the size of the family and previous income by the wage earner. The maximum of $44 would go to a worker with a non working wife, four or more children and who had earned a minimum of $1072.51 and over in the previous calendar quarter.

In summing up the opposition to the measure, Sen. Jake Mincks (D—Ottumwa) said he felt "there is more bad than good as far as benefits contained under this act."

He said the liberalizing benefits contained in the bill "are very minor in nature and there are very few cases under the bill in which people will be eligible for these liberalized benefits.

"The bill is not only discriminating against a worker with a large family by making it difficult for him to be hired, but there is a possibility that an unorganized worker who doesn't have the protection of a union will be hit first when layoffs come," Mincks said.

Among the amendments defeated were ones by Mincks and Sen. Andrew Frommelt (D—Dubuque) which would have modified Iowa's present jobless pay law.

The Frommelt amendment would have increased unemployment compensation from $30 to $45 a week for a maximum of 30 weeks in addition to modifying some of the qualification laws.

Mincks' amendment would have gone even further by providing for a maximum $48 for a total 39 weeks.

The Senate also defeated an amendment offered by Sen. Jack Miller (R—Sioux City).

Voting with the 17 Democrats against the bill, which now goes to the House, were Sens. Miller and Frank Byers (R—Marion).

Gives Choice At Meeting In Atlanta, Ga.

Churchill To Visit Ike In Washington May 4-6

AUGUSTA, Ga. (UPI) — President Eisenhower named Sen. Thruston B. Morton of Kentucky Friday as his choice as new Republican National Chairman and thus assured Morton's election.

The President's recommendation assured that Morton will be tapped today by the GOP National Committee in Washington to command party strategy for the 1960 elections.

It had been known earlier that the President favored Morton, but he announced the choice publicly at a luncheon meeting with a 10-member nominating committee at the Augusta National Golf Club.

The National Committee members meeting with the President flew here by chartered plane and returned to Washington this afternoon to deliver a formal report.

Morton will succeed Meade Alcorn who is resigning to return to his Connecticut law practice.

The nominating group spent two hours with the President and Mrs. Eisenhower in their vacation home beside the golf course. After lunch, the President in the natty green jacket worn by club members, gray slacks, a white shirt and a yellow club tie, posed amiably with the politicians for news photographs.

Mrs. Eisenhower made one of her fairly rare. political appearances and joined the picture group, her summery yellow cotton frock fitting the nearly-90 degree weather.

The nominating committee was headed by Ray Bliss of Ohio who reported after lunch that the President informed the delegates he would be "pleased if the National Committee elected Senator Morton as the new National Chairman."

While walking from the Eisenhower cottage to a driveway where cars waited to take the committee back to the airport, the President was heard to say emphatically to Bliss, "I don't believe there'd be anything better than a re-building all around."

Bliss later told newsmen the President expressed his support and approval of the aggressive program undertaken by Alcorn following the severe GOP defeat in the congressional and gubernatorial elections last November.

Bliss also is chairman of the GOP committee to recommend a site for the 1960 presidential nominating convention. He said before leaving Augusta that this subject did not come up with the president, but that the site committee would meet in Washington at 8 a.m. tomorrow. He also said the City of Los Angeles had just submitted a signed, formal proposal for the convention which would have to be reviewed by the site committee. There had been no written offer from Los Angeles before. He declined to discuss the possibility of providing a top-level assistant for Morton who will remain in the Senate while holding the chairmanship. Bliss said he thought this was a matter more properly discussed by Morton, himself.

As for Morton's qualities which led the president to favor him, Bliss said generally they include the senator's professional and personal background, plus the fact that Morton was "energetic and highly regarded."

During the morning, the White House announced that former British Prime Minister Sir Winston Churchill would visit the Eisenhower's in Washington May 4-5-6. Sir Winston was invited to the White House about a year ago, but was unable to make the trip because of illness.

The British leader, now 84, and Mr. Eisenhower were closely associated during World War II.

Regents Told Tuition Hike Would Cut Male Enrollment

DES MOINES (AP) — A study presented to the Iowa Board of Regents Friday indicates that tuition increases at the state-owned educational institutions would result in the dropping out of more men than women students.

Another result would be that more business and professional students than liberal arts students would drop out. These were the conclusion of a study made by the State University of Iowa Bureau of Business and Economic Research.

The reason why the loss of students would be the greatest in those fields is that women students who tend toward nonprofessional courses, get more financial help from home than men, the study indicated.

Based on a sampling at SUI, Iowa State College and Iowa State Teachers College, the study concluded that on the average, parents pay 43 per cent of what it cost to send a child to college. Students earn 37 per cent, and the remainder comes from miscellaneous sources including scholarships, loans and veterans' benefit.

The difference between men students and women students was shown in figures indicating that families pay 35 per cent of the expense of the men and 60 per cent of the expense of the women.

Iowa State Name Change

DES MOINES (AP) — The Iowa State Board of Regents voted Friday to change the name of Iowa State College to Iowa State University of Science and Technology.

The Board will file with the legislature a report presented to it on the subject Thursday by President James Hilton of Iowa State. The legislature will have to approve the change to make it effective.

Sign With Union — Wages Cut, Report 2 Detroit Car Washers

WASHINGTON, (UPI) — Two negroes—one a woman—who work 70 hours a week washing cars in Detroit testified Friday that their weekly wage was cut from $35 to $25 after their boss signed a Teamsters Union contract.

They told the Senate Rackets Committee the union collects 15 cents a day in duties but provides them no benefits.

Sen. Karl E. Mundt (R—S.D.) described the plight of the two, Anne May Anderson and Gus Richardson, the father of three children, as a throwback to the "sweat shops" and "salt mines" of old.

Jurisdiction over Detroit auto laundries is maintained by Teamsters Local 985, which has figured prominently in the committee's investigation of juke box racketeering in Detroit.

The local is headed by William Bufalino, described in testimony as a former business associate of some of Detroit's leading narcotics peddlers and underworld figures.

Mrs. Anderson and Richardson testified that they were making $35 for working 10 hours a day seven days a week before they signed up with Bufalino's local on a promise that they would get higher pay and shorter hours.

But on the payday after the union contract went into effect in 1954, Mrs. Anderson said, "the boss said he was going to cut our pay $10 because the union only required $25 a week for 70 hours."

C. D. Dukes, a partner in Tony's Car Wash which employed the two negroes, told the committee he had never mistreated his employes and could not pay them any more. He said the 300 auto wash shops in Detroit were hard hit economically and at least 190 of them were in 'bad shape."

"You may not know it, but $25 a week is a lot of money to guarantee these people," he said. "It may sound funny to you—"

"It doesn't Committee Counsel Robert F. Kennedy interrupted, "it sounds tragic."

Prof Requests Stolen Skins Be Returned

One Kudu-bull skin and an Impala skin were stolen Thursday night from the clothes-line of Dr. Peter Hayward-Butt, 217 Grand Ave., visiting assistant professor of anesthesiology at the SUI College of medicine. The skins were taken by Dr. Hayward-Butt on safari during the 12 years he lived in South Africa.

Dr. Hayward-Butt stated that the skins are valuable to him since they are mementos of his safari but to the thief they are of no value. He said that he wants them back and if they are returned quietly, nothing will be said.

Dr. Hayward-Butt has been at SUI for three months. Before coming here he taught anesthesiology at Natal University in Durban, Natal, a state in South Africa.

After serving with the only British ship in the Pacific Fleet during World War II, Dr. Hayward-Butt went to Africa in 1946 and started practicing medicine as well as teaching.

In addition to the stolen skins Dr. Hayward-Butt has several other trophies of his safaris and a collection of the guns he used in Africa.

Why don't you return those skins to this visitor to the United States?

Student Fees Must Be Paid By Sunday

Installments on student accounts at SUI must be paid or in the mail by midnight Sunday to avoid the $5 late penalty fee, according to University Secretary Leonard Brcka.

April statements include tuition installments, dormitory, fraternity or sorority housing payments, where applicable, and miscellaneous charges which have been incurred.

Raymond E. Owen of the SUI business office emphasized that it is the student's responsibilty to make payments on his student account before the 12th of each month.

Because students move and do not notify the business office of a change of address, statements are sometimes delayed beyond the deadline for payment, Owen said.

However, even though the student does not receive a statement, he must still pay his installment before the 12th of each month or else pay the $5 late penalty fee.

Exceptions cannot be made because statements did not arrive in the mail or arrived late, Owen said.

Replies Due By Monday For Matrix Fete

About 500 outstanding women students have been invited to the annual Theta Sigma Phi Matrix Table banquet April 29, Jane Hubly, A4, Cedar Rapids, president of the group, said Friday.

Miss Hubly said the invitations request a reply from the women by Monday. The replies may be made at the main office, Communications Center.

In addition to the campus leaders, women active in community affairs have been invited to attend the event. Attendance is by invitation only.

Harlan Miller, Des Moines Register columnist, will speak at the banquet in the Iowa Memorial Union.

Also on the program will be the presentation of two awards — to a senior woman active in campus affairs and to an Iowa City woman who has similarly contributed to civic projects.

Accuracy And Fairness Stressed—

Examinations Service Works Fast

By NIKKI PETERSON
Assistant City Editor

Feeling rather low after a week of mid-term exams? Or would you rather not talk about it? Then stop right now, because this story is all about the examinations service.

If you are waiting to hear the results of that all-important test, at least you're not alone. Mid-terms from about 100 courses are being processed at the University Examinations Service in University Hall, according to Arthur Mittman, director of the service.

After the instructor constructs his test the exam service takes over to type, proof-read and duplicate it.

There is no opportunity for a preview of the duplicated tests.

"Until the professor picks the tests up, we keep them locked up, Mittman explained. "Only the supervisor of duplicating and myself have keys — even the janitor does not have access to them."

After the exam, each answer sheet is scored on two separate machines. If the machines don't agree, the answer sheet is hand scored.

All extra copies of the test go into shredding machines at the testing service.

The service guarantees corrected tests within 24 hours, and the duplicating process usually takes about a week for mid-terms and three weeks for finals.

This often means working nights during finals week and occasionally during mid-term time.

Mittman said the service has never received student complaints on the accuracy of scoring.

"I do not remember an instance when we have found errors; our service requires accuracy," Mittman declared.

And Mittman's staff takes every precaution to protect this accuracy. Before machine scoring, the tests are scanned by the test administrator and then by the testing service.

The scoring machines automatically deduct one score for every extra mark on the score sheet, eliminating the myth about sure-fire cheat methods.

And what if the student marks his answers in the wrong section of the answer sheet? He is often in luck.

"Our supervisor of scoring has a feeling for the students," said Mittman, "and she goes to great lengths for the students' benefit."

This supervisor takes note of unusually low scores, and then scores these answer sheets by hand or returns the answer sheet to the instructor marked "incorrect response," Mittman said.

"I don't think there are too many wild guesses; the student has some information," Mittman declared.

In the long run, a chance score on guessing would be 25 per cent on a four-response multiple choice test, and most guessing remains in the chance range, Mittman said.

One popular test myth sometimes holds true, according to Mittman. This is the belief that the third foil or the longest answer are apt to be correct.

But such a guess would probably be a mistake on a well-constructed objective test.

"Most students do not appreciate the time a professor spends constructing his tests," Mittman declared. "It oftentimes takes the instructor an hour to build one good item for a test."

A good test item requires the student to apply his knowledge; to do independent thinking, Mittman explained. And it asks a significant question, he said.

Mittman said the quality of the item is more important than the type of test given.

"A good objective test can elicit as deep an understanding of the material as can a good essay test," he said.

Mittman said one of the main weaknesses of an essay type test is unrealiability in scoring.

"Very often a student receives credit or may not receive credit due to extraneous factors in which the instructor is not primarily interested," Mittman said. He said the "extraneous factors" included such things as penmanship and neatness.

No tickets are remaining for the Robert Frost lecture Monday at 8 p.m. in the Main Lounge of the Iowa Memorial Union.

The University Lecture Course and Writer's Workshop distributed 1,800 tickets for the Frost lecture.

Frost, celebrated poet, is the only four-time winner of the Pulitzer Prize.

DANE TO HEAD NATO

PARIS (AP) — Denmark's air force chief, Lt. Gen. Tage Andersen, will take command of NATO air forces for northern Europe, Denmark, Norway early in July.

He was nominated by Gen. Lauris Norstad, supreme Allied commander, to succeed Maj. Gen. Norman D. Sillin, U.S.A.F., who is retiring.

YUGOSLAV-MEXICAN DEAL

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Yugoslav Ambassador Dalibor Soldatic reports his country is negotiating to supply Mexico with small ships in exchange for cotton. Yugoslavia also would like coffee, petroleum and gold from Mexico in trade for electrical products and farm machinery, he added.

Chinese Reds Say Tibet Revolt Spreads

NEW DELHI, India (UPI) — Tibetan partisans Friday were reported re-grouping in Himalayan hideouts for further attacks against the Chinese Communists. The Peiping regime admitted it had its hands full trying to suppress the uprising.

Dispatches reaching New Delhi said fighting had increased in fury in the area south of the Tibetan interior cities of Chambo and Gyantse.

Green Chinese Troops

Heavy casualties were inflicted on green Chinese troops by the tough Khampa tribesmen fighting with guerilla hit-and-run tactics, the dispatches said. Some of the Chinese troops were said to be fresh-faced cadets just out of training schools.

In Taipei, Formosa, Nationalist Chinese Cabinet Minister Li Yung-Hsin said anti-Communist forces were regrouping after losing the battle to the Reds in Lhasa, the Tibetan capital. Li said the freedom fighters were expected to link up with anti-Reds in the Chinese border provinces of Tsinghai and Sikang.

The Chinese Communist Central News Agency reported in a broadcast for home consumption that the uprisings in Tibet could not be crushed "in a short period."

It said the Chinese commander in Tibet, Lt. Gen. Chang Kuo-Hua, had informed Peiping that the revolt which started March 10 had spread from Lhasa to other areas of the remote Himalayan country.

"It is not possible to mop up the insurgents in a short period," Chang was quoted as saying.

Panchen Lama In China

The Communists hustled the Panchen Lama, their handpicked rival to the Dalai, Lama to China for conferences. The 21-year-old Panchen arrived Friday at Lanchow en route to Peiping.

The Chinese authorities in Lhasa were appealing to all Tibetans to pledge their support in the fight against the Khampa tribesmen.

But the symbol of resistance, the god-king Dalai Lama, remained the hope of the rebels.

Dalai Lama To Bomdila

The Dalai Lama was en route over rugged horesback trails from the Indian border town of Towang to Bomdila. He was reported to have arrived Friday night at the crossroad town of Dirangdzong after a one-day trek of 14 miles that left him only 88 miles from civilization in India.

It was believed he would be able to make the remaining march to Bomdila in two days.

The Dalai Lama's brother, Gyalu Thondup and his Chinese wife, residents of Darjeeling, India, were reported en route to greet the Dalai Lama at Bomdila.

Canadian Discusses Psychiatry

Some mental disorders may have their beginning during the important nine months before a child is born, a Canadian scientist said Friday at SUI.

"Pregnancy hazards have too long been assessed solely in terms of the mother's well-being and only recently has serious attention been given to the health of the unborn child," said John W. Lovett Doust, professor of psychiatry at the University of Toronto.

At the second Institute on Preventive Psychiatry at SUI, Dr. Doust outlined some of the advances resulting from biological research into the emotional problems of psychiatric patients.

"Numerous attempts have been made to implicate a number of different epochs of development, from genetic factors to the emotional stresses of adolescence, as crucial in personality evolution," he said.

Aspects Of Mental Health Discussions Open

There is an increasing tendency to treat positive mental health as a kind of synonym for "the good life," a New York University psychologist said Friday.

Speaking at the opening session of the second Institute on Preventive Psychiatry here, Dr. M. Brewster Smith said, "It seems clear that if mental health is to be a useful term for other than propagandistic purposes, it will have to be confined to some more restricted sense."

The institute, which is open to all interested persons, is the second in series, each dealing with different aspects of mental health. The first institute was held at SUI in 1957.

Iowa High School Play Festival Opens Tuesday

Young thespians from 54 Iowa high schools have registered for the 31st annual Iowa High School Play Production Festival to be held on campus Tuesday through Saturday of next week, according to Ronald Gee, associate professor of drama at SUI and executive secretary of the Festival.

Baha'i Faith Discussion To Be Held Sunday

The subject "Baha'i Faith, Spirit of the Age," will be presented in a panel discussion Sunday at 2 p.m. in the East Lobby Conference Room of the Iowa Memorial Union. Eleanor Petzoldt, A2, Quincy, Ill., will act as moderator.

SUI String Quartet Recital On Sunday

The SUI String Quartet will present a program of chamber music Sunday at 4 p.m. in Macbride Auditorium.

Their recital will consist of the Boccerini "Quartet in A Major, Op. 33, No. 6," Mozart's "Quintet in G Minor, K. 516" and "Quartet in A Minor, Op. 51, No. 2" by Brahms.

Members of the University ensemble are Stuart Canin and John Ferrell, violin; William Preucil, viola, and Hans Koelbel, violoncello, all of the SUI music faculty. Assisting in the Mozart work will be Doris Preucil on viola.

The recital will be open to the public free of charge. Tickets will not be required for admission.

Judo Club Here Teaches Men Art Of Self Defense

By MARLENE JORGENSEN
Staff Writer

If you want to learn the art of self-defense, Iowa City now offers a way —the Judo Club.

The new club was organized Thursday night in the gymnasium of the Junior High School. Adult classes at City High School this semester created interest in judo by offering lessons, and the club was organized so that more persons could participate, Peter Marchant, supervisor of the club, said.

At the present time only men may join the club and Marchant invited all interested men to join. He listed specifically high school students, college men, townsmen, and policemen.

The female of the species need not be disappointed, however. Marchant said the club plans to allow women to join later date.

Marchant, who is also on SUI English instructor has been teaching the City High judo classes and will instruct the club in elementary techniques. He said that the group hoped to find an instructor for advanced judo in the future.

Marchant said the purpose of the club is merely to provide recreation and pleasure. The club plans to meet every week.

Marchant learned the methods of judo at Cambridge University in England. He defines judo as the art of using another person's weight and strength against himself.

SUIowans To Take Part In Conference At Iowa State

Four SUI staff members will take part in the fourth annual Machine Records and Computing Conference for Educational Institutions, to be held at Iowa State College Monday through Wednesday.

Registrar Ted McCarrel will launch one of the conference's three divisions, devoted to student registration, Monday morning with a talk on "Some New Approaches to Handling Machine Records." Donald Rhoades, associate director of admissions, will address the same group Tuesday morning on "Admissions and Punched Cards." Chairman for this division of the conference will be Carl Gochenour manger of the SUI statistical service.

YWCA Advisory Board Members Announced

Six new members have been elected to the SUI YWCA Advisory Board, it was announced Friday by Mrs. M. L. Mosher, chairman of the Advisory Board.

The newly elected board members are Mrs. Wendle Kerr, Mrs. Ronald Pflaum, Mrs. Thomas Porter, Professor Betty Vander Smissen, and Mrs. George Wyatt, all of Iowa City, and Mrs. Charles Sleichter, of North Liberty.

Midterm Is Here

Midterm is officially here today. That means that students anxiously awaiting semester's end are over the hump. Only 50 class days remain in the semester.

For those whose grades are not up to par, it is time to start burning the midnight candles. The "A" students can stick to their study habits, knowingly realizing their value.

Students' thoughts at this time of the year dwell on such subjects as swimming, work, weddings, and other happenings of the summer break between spring and fall semesters.

Some students are making plans for summer trips to California, or maybe Alaska. Others are planning to go back to last summer's breadwinning job. And the lucky ones are looking forward to doing "just what comes naturally."

7 Spacemen To Get Test 'Rocket' Rides

WASHINGTON (AP) — The seven Mercury Astronauts will all get test rides out to the edge of space in rocket-fired capsules.

These preliminary trips — the scientist call them sub-orbital flights — will be short compared to the eventually planned ride around the world.

They'll go skyward 20 to 25 miles and follow the rocket range out of Cape Carnaveral, Fla., around 100 miles to the neighborhood of the Bahama Islands. These aren't firm figures, but it is not possible now to be exact.

A spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration told about the preliminary plans Friday, one day after the seven finally chosen Astronauts were presented to the pubilc.

The spokesman said each of the seven will get at least one of the sub-orbital trips. Selection of the first man to orbit the earth may be based on how well the finalists do in the test flights.

There'll be no manned flights between these preliminaries and the big full orbit scheduled for 1961. The big one is suposed to be at altitudes of 100 to 150 miles and at speeds of 18,000 miles an hour — around the world in 90 minutes.

Army Redstone missiles, which have a range of 200 miles, will have a range of 200 miles, will propel the capsules in the practice flights.

After the manned sub-orbital flights there will be some medium range flights, with animals in the flights, fired by Thor and Jupiter type missiles. No dates were set for any of these flights, manned or animal.

Nurses Warned Against Loss Of 'Human Approach'

Nurses can quickly lose the human approach to caring for patients in a welter of details, pressure of problems, and conflicts of hospital policies, personnel and the patient's needs, Sister Mary Anthony of Kansas City, Kan., told members of the Iowa League for Nursing at the group's convention at SUI Friday.

SUI Group To Attend Geology Institute

Professors Richard A. Hoppin, Donald H. Hase and seven graduate students from the department of geology will attend the 5th annual meeting of the Institute on Lake Superior Geology in Minneapolis, Minn., Sunday through Tuesday.

Graduate students attending will be John Palmquist, Chicago, Ill.; E. Wayne Scott, Cedar Rapids; William Outerbridge, Arlington, Va.; Lyman O. Williams, Augusta, Ga.; John Donovan, Sussex, Canada; Robert F. Hudson, West Haven, Conn., and Kenneth A. Sargent, Ellsworth, Me.

Also attending will be Walter L. Steinhilber, district geologist with the U.S. Geological Survey, who is assigned to the Iowa Geological Survey office on the SUI campus.

Good Listening— Today On WSUI

"CUE ME IN" is the cry around WSUI every Saturday morning at 10:00 a.m. The reason is that CUE begins then to run its three-hour course which today will include the following high spots: the first broadcast by the newly formed, multi-piece, jazz rehearsal band whose conductor, Edwin London, will be the subject of an interview prior to (10:45 a.m.) the band's appearance (12:45 p.m.); recognition of Pan-American Week by SUI students from Brazil and Costa Rica; a preview of the next Iowa City Community Theatre, "Dark of the Moon," with guitarist Bill Braley supplying suitable music; Sports Roundtable with the round-table double-play combination, Grady to Younkin to Barrett. The usual music, news, weather and anti-rock-and-roll demonstration are included.

EVENING CONCERT at 6:00 p.m. will include another go at music from "Carmen," harp music by and for Salzedo, Symphonic Poem No. 7 by Liszt, Dance Suite by Bartok, and the Brahm's First.

HOMAGE TO ROBERT FROST, in anticipation of his impending visit to the campus, will be the theme of today's Saturday Supplement from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00. Principal participants will include Paul Engle, director of SUI's Writer's Workshop, who will discuss Frost's appearance here Monday; poets Gerald Stevenson, Bienvenido Santos, Carol Johnson, Stephen Berg, Edmund Skellings and William Murray reading their own poetry; Hurd Hatfield reading Milton's "Lycidas" from which Frost has said he discovered the poetic rhythm which distinguishes his work; and Reginald Cook from whose biography, "The Dimensions of Robert Frost," a chapter on "Yankee Comedy" will be read. As a sidelight, Allen Tate, the poet-teacher-critic, will discuss the complaint of some literary men that university teaching cuts them off from contemporary life. Interspersed with SS's Homage to Frost will be bits and pieces of music and humor from such likely sources as the Hoffnung Music Festival.

SWING SESSION SUCCEEDS SATURDAY SUPPLEMENT at 4:00 p.m. when one and one-half hours of fine jazz may be heard on T-Time Special. Featured today:

Segregated Homes Called Best Policy

ATLANTA (UPI) — Atlanta officials told the Civil Rights Commission Friday that segregation is in the best interest of Negro housing in the South and, in effect, integrated housing policies or laws won't work.

The Commission, holding a fact-finding hearing on housing opportunities and problems of minority groups, heard warnings that public opinion in the South strongly opposes mixed housing. In this field, the officials said, public opinion must be considered.

The officials cited advances and progress in providing better housing for Negroes in this Southern metropolis. They said integration attempts would destroy public housing programs and bring chaos in that field.

In private housing, mixed neighborhoods bring strife, bitterness and a general decline, they said.

Financing of either public or private housing programs would be impossible unless the color line is observed, they said.

Mayor William B. Hartsfield said that segregation is supported by public opinion and, with inter-racial cooperation and confidence, is best for all concerned.

He cited a "model" and upper class Negro housing development in what had been a "tension" area in Atlanta's west side. An inter-racial committee obtained voluntary agreements from both races which brought about a solution to the problem and resulted in progress, he said.

If segregation is prohibited in in housing, he said, "you would find that public officials, real estate, interest and loan companies would lose interest rapidly in developing the right type of Negro housing," he said. He said race might not be mentioned, but that "there would be all kinds of ways to restrict proper housing development."

M. B. Satterfield executive director of the Atlanta Housing Authority, warned that integration in public housing would create "chaotic" conditions. Atlanta Housing Authority Chairman John O. Chiles said an integration clause in public housing laws "would damage if not destroy good race relations here."

"It would result in chaos and tragedy," Chiles said. "Good race relations and more important than anything that could be gained by integrated housing. We are simply not ready for integration.

Cecil Alexander, chairman of the Citizens Advisory Committee for Urban Renewal Housing, said that program "must work in the environment in which it finds itself. A change in racial patterns through Government interference, he said, would mean "any possibility of working out racial problems will be lost."

Japan's Royal Honeymoon Trip Starts April 30

TOKYO (AP) — Japan's royal newlyweds must wait nearly three weeks before taking a honeymoon trip.

The imperial household disclosed this Friday as Japan rang to the cheers of millions celebrating the wedding of Crown Prince Akihito and his lovely commoner, Michiko Shoda.

Official Duties

The press of official duties will keep them busy until April 30. Then they will be off for a 10-day honeymoon at Hayama Imperial Villa on Sagami Bay, 50 miles south of Tokyo.

The duties include three days of completing the Shinto wedding rituals that began at dawn. These continued in the quiet of the crown prince's mansion.

There was an exchange of vows accompanied by drinking from a small cup of sake or rice wine. The couple retired after an offering of rice cakes at a bedroom altar. This ceremony will be repeated for two more nights.

Court Parties

Three days of imperial court parties for foreign diplomats, national, and civil leaders start Monday. Michiko and Akihito will attend a civic mass meeting in their honor April 16, and leave the next day on a three-day train trip to the imperial shrines at Ise and Nara.

The newlyweds expressed joy after arriving at their suburban palace Friday night from the Shinto wedding and a triumphal procession through decorated Tokyo.

Emperor Hirohito and Empress Nagako gave their blessing to their son and his bride, the first commoner ever to marry into the imperial family.

Celebrations and parades continued into the night, long after the gilt Victorian carriage drawn by beribboned horses had taken the young couple to their home.

NAME SHAME

WASHINGTON (AP) — American parents are better acquainted with the names of athletes and movie and TV stars than with the names of their children's teachers, a federal educator suggests.

Dr. L. G. Derthick, U.S. commissioner of education, expressed this view in testifying at a budget hearing before a House Appropriations subcommittee.

2 Students Give Concert On Sunday

A concert of music composed by two graduate students in the SUI Music Department will be presented Sunday at 8 p.m. in North Music Hall.

Horace Reisberg, G. Hamburg, and Edwin London, G, Iowa City, are both working toward the Ph.D. in music, majoring in composition. They have planned and organized the concert themselves.

Both Reisberg and London have had performances of their music played in New York City and elsewhere. Both studied with Luigi Dallapiccola, a well-known modern Italian composer, before coming here. They are studying here under under Philip Bezanson, associate professor of music.

Reisberg's compositions to be heard in the concert include "Variations for Violin, Obe, Bassoon and Piano," "Variations for Eight Instruments, (In Memory of Arnold Schoenberg)," "Canon for Nine Instruments," and "Two Pieces for Clarinet Solo."

The London selections to be presented are "Trio (In Memoriam—"Fats" Navarro)," "Quintet for Woodwinds," "Whose Blues," and "All's Well That Ends Well."

The compositions will be performed by students and instructors in the SUI Music Department.

The public is invited to attend the concert. No tickets are required for admission.

BURMA WANTS LAMA

NEW DELHI (AP) — Burma's elder statesman U Nu, pausing here en route to a world religious conference in Dallas, Tex., April 17-19, said he intends to invite the fugitive Dalai Lama of Tibet to Burma. It is a heavily Buddhist country.

U Nu, an ex-premier and Buddhist ascetic, plans to visit New York and Washington before going to Dallas.

Steelworkers Reject Freeze On Wages And Benefits

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — The basic steel industry, a keystone in the national economy, Friday proposed a one-year freeze on its workers' wages and benefits. The suggestion drew a prompt and emphatic "no" from the United Steelworkers.

Twelve of the biggest basic steel producing companies, in a letter to USW President David J. McDonald, suggested that existing contracts be extended for one year in order to combat inflation, unemployment, and foreign competition.

"We believe," the 12 companies said, "that it would be wholesome for the economy if the scheduled contract negotiations could be anticipated and a settlement reached now to assure the nation of continued steel production."

McDonald, who has seen his 1,200,000-member union make economic gains each year since he succeeded the late Philip Murray in 1952, replied promptly.

"I want to point out that this proposal has been made even before we have meetings of our Executive Board and our International Wage Policy Committee," he said. "I reject it out of hand."

The union and companies are scheduled to begin negotiations on a new contract May 18 in New York. The USW Wage Policy Committee will meet April 30 - May 1 in New York to draft union demands.

The current contract, signed in 1956 after a 34-day nationwide strike, expires June 30.

In recent months the industry and union have been conducting unprecedented publicity campaigns on what each side believes are the basic issues.

Government officials, including President Eisenhower, have publicly expressed hope that the steel-labor contract can be negotiated so that another steel price increase will not be necessary.

POPE ADDRESSES FISHERS

VATICAN CITY, (AP) — Pope John XXIII reminded fishing experts Friday that Christ had spent much of his time working with fishermen.

The Pontiff spoke to delegates to the Food and Agriculture Organization's congress on fishing boats now in session in Rome.

Professor Moeller Presents Awards At Press Banquet

DES MOINES (AP) — Three Iowa newspapermen Friday night were presented Master Editor-Publisher Awards by the Iowa Press Assn. at the group's annual banquet here.

Honored were Walter Merryman, 79, publisher of the Fort Dodge Messenger; J. C. Moore, 61, co-publisher, Winterset Madisonian, and John R. Burrows, 54, co-publisher, Belle Plaine Union. (Burrows is the father of Tom Burrows, A4, Belle Plaine.)

The awards were presented by Prof. Leslie G. Moeller, head of the SUI School of Journalism.

Spahn, Mathews Pace Milwaukee To 8-0 Victory

Pirates Held To 7 Safeties By Vet Lefty

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Pitching and power, the twin keys to a pennant last year, got the Milwaukee Braves off to a running start Friday with a 8-0 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates in their National League opener.

Left-hander Warren Spahn choked off two early Pittsburgh threats and breezed to the finish with his 44th major league shutout. In the second, the Pirates loaded the bases but Spahn got Bob Friend on a fly to short center and then faned Bill Virdon. In the third, Bob Clemente led off with a double, but was unable to score when Ed Mathews made a great stop on a single by Don Hoak and Spahn struck out Bill Mazeroski.

Mathews was the power man, booming a solid homer into the upper right field stands for two runs that broke a scoreless deadlock in the sixth. From that point the Braves won handily, adding two more runs in the seventh and four in a long eighth inning rally.

ChiSox 9, Tigers 7

DETROIT (AP) — Nellie Fox hit a 2-out, 2-run home run in the 14th inning Friday and gave the Chicago White Sox a 9-7 victory over the Detroit Tigers in a marathon American League opener.

The peppery little second baseman, who failed to hit a home run in 623 at-bats last season, connected against Don Mossi after Sam Esposito lined a 2-out single to left field.

It was Fox' fifth base hit in seven official trips in the contest that lasted 4 hours and 25 minutes.

The game was only one inning short of tying the record for the longest opening game in baseball history. Walter Johnson pitched 15 innings for the Washington Senators and beat the Philadelphia Athletics 1-0 on April 13, 1926.

The two teams used 43 players, only one short of the American League record set by New York and Boston in the 1956 season.

Gerry Staley, sixth of seven Chicago pitchers, was the winner. Mossi, fifth Tiger pitcher, took the loss.

Indians 6, A's 4

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Dick Brodowski came to the ninth inning rescue of young Gary Bell and veteran Herb Score Friday and Cleveland defeated Kansas City 6-4 in an American League opener before 22,630 fans.

Bell, who had suffered only one bad inning, went into the ninth with a 4-run lead. With one out he gave up three straight singles and one run before being relieved by Score.

Score walked the first man he faced, allowed a run on a wild pitch, walked his second batter and was removed in favor of Brodowski after the first two pitches to the third man were called balls.

Brodowski forced Bill Tuttle to pop up and Roger Maris to line out to short to end the game.

Bob Grim, removed in the eighth for a pinchhitter, absorbed the defeat. George Strickland was the Indians offensive star, collecting three hits and driving in two runs.

ISC BEATS OKLAHOMA

AMES (AP) — Iowa State walloped Oklahoma 13-7 Friday in the opening Big Eight Conference baseball games for both teams.

Iowa State picked up an 8-1 lead in the first three innings.

Consecutive singles by Dave Lewis, Lee Olmstead and R. D. Locker and two errors gave Iowa State three runs in the first inning. The same players hit three more straight singles in the second when the Cyclones added three more runs.

Phils 2, Reds 1

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Rookie George Anderson singled home a run in the eighth inning Friday night, backing up stout pitching by veteran Robin Roberts and earning the Philadelphia Phillies a 2-1 opening day victory over the Cincinnati Reds.

A crowd of 22,189 saw a brilliant pitching duel between Roberts and the Reds' Don Newcombe. Big Newk limited the Phillies to four hits.

The Phillies picked up their winning run in the eighth inning when after one out, shortstop Chico Fernandez walked. Jim Hegan singled as Fernandez stopped at second. Fernandez moved to third on a fielder's choice and scored on Anderson's first major league hit.

The Reds, who Thursday opened their season with a victory over Pittsburgh, were hitless until Newcombe singled in the sixth.

Giants 6, Cards 5

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Jackie Brandt beat his former St. Louis Cardinal teammates with a game-winning ninth-inning double Friday night as the San Francisco Giants and veteran Johnny Antonelli took a 6-5 opening-night victory.

The Giants, considered a top threat to Milwaukee's national league champs, blasted Cardinal relief pitcher Jim Brosnan for three runs in the last two innings.

Wilile Kirkland's homer and a run-scoring triple by Andre Rodgers put the Giants ahead 5-4 in the eighth. The Cards tied it on a walk, an error by Rodgers and a run-scoring single by Alex Grammas.

Al Worthington stopped the Cards in the ninth.

Brandt slammed a 400-foot drive to deep left center scoring Jim Davenport after a walk and an infield out.

Brosnan took the loss.

London Has Visa, Will Travel; Not Happy With Odds

LONDON (AP) — Brian London, the angry young man of British boxing, finally got his visa and started for the United States Friday for his world heavyweight title fight with Floyd Patterson.

"I've been made the underdog in the fight by my own countrymen and I don't like it," said the 24-year-old former British champion just before leaving for London Airport.

London, his father and brother were due in New York's dlewild Airport at 7:25 a.m. Iowa time today.

The title fight will be May 1 in Indianapolis.

London plans to stop in New York but he said he did not know for how long.

There is a return bout clause in the London-Patterson contract.

London, who lost his British title to Henry Cooper in January, will receive $75,000 for his endeavors against Patterson.

Bradley Halts Late Hawkeye Rally, 6-5; Play Two Today

By LOU YOUNKIN
Sports Editor

The Bradley Braves jumped off to a 6-0 lead at the end of 4½ innings at the Iowa Diamond Friday and then hung on for dear life as they fought down a late Iowa rally to notch a 6-5 victory.

Coach Leo Schrall's Braves put two unearned runs across the plate off Roger Rudeen in the first inning, added three earned markers in the second and another in the fifth to give the contest, viewed on the damp, cold day, all the aspects of a runaway.

Iowa Comes Back

The Hawks were not about to be stampeded, however, as coach Otto Vogel's squad scored a pair of tallies in the bottom of the fifth, two more in the eighth and one in the ninse to make it five one-run decisions in five home appearances this year two of which were losses.

Iowa defeated Western Illinois, 5-4 and 3-2 while dropping a 7-6 decision to the Leathernecks and Luther was a 5-4 victim before Friday's contest with the rugged Missouri Valley Conference foe.

Bradley and Iowa square off today in a twin bill at 1:30 p.m. The first game will be a 9-inning affair, the nightcap slated for seven frames. Bob Pearl and either Al Klinger, who pitched one inning in relief Friday, or Al Bachman are expected to toe the rubber for the Hawkeyes today.

The Braves got the ball rolling against Rudeen in the opening inning when with one out Larry Pohlman drew life on first baseman Charlie Lee's boot of a ground ball. It was the only Iowa error of the day. Joe Napoli doubled off Lee's glove and after Cecil Raybourne had bounced out harmlessly, Bob Fidler shot a 2-run single to left scoring both runners.

Mike Owens and Don Wyss opened the second by working Rudeen for bases on balls. Scotty Sullivan doubled Owens home and Napoli ripped a single scoring two more.

Walk Forces In Run

Bradley's final tally came in the fifth when Rudeen walked his pitching rival, Hal Kunkel, with the bases loaded to force in a run. Rudeen and Klinger then slammed the door on the Bradley scoring, but not in time. Klinger pitched the ninth inning and retired the side in order, two on strikes.

Iowa began its comeback in the last of the fifth with the aid of two of Bradley's four errors. Mike Bougdanos-singled to left and then all hands were safe when Fidler dropped shortstop Owens' throw on a possible double play on Les Kewney's ground ball. After Rudeen had forced Bougdanos at third, Kunkel loaded the bases when he threw badly to second base on Jerry Mauren's hopper. Don Peden was the second out via the strike out route, but Paul Bonstead looped a 2-run single to left to bring in Kewney and Rudeen. Dick Weatherly bounced to Owens to end the inning.

Kunkel put the Hawks down in order in the sixth and seventh, but ran into difficulty in the eighth. With one out Bonstead singled to right and Kunkel lost home plate on the next four batters. Weatherly and Fred Long were hit by pitches to load the bases and Lee and Bougdanos walked to force in a pair of markers.

Kunkel then bore down to get pinchhiters Jack Leabo and Carroll Scott on strikes.

When Mauren and Peden opened the ninth with singles, Kunkel was lifted in favor of lefthander Bernie Dwyer. Bonstead waved at a third strike in the dirt and when the ball got away from catcher Raybourne, Mauren and Peden moved up a peg. Weatherly lifted a high foul back of first that was captured by Lanny Lamont for the second out and Mauren streaked in from third before the surprised Lamont could launch a throw toward the plate.

Long rolled out, Fidler to Lamont, and Reden died at second base. Iowa left nine men on base Friday to bring its 5-game home total to 50. Bradley stranded 10 baserunners.

Kunkel Hard To Solve

Winning pitcher Kunkel was a difficult twirler to solve until he seemingly tired in the late innings. He gave only one hit in the first four innings and only three in the first seven. When relieved his record stood at six hits allowed, five runs (two unearned), four walks, two hit batsmen and nine strikeouts.

Rudeen, in his eight innings, was just about the opposite. He was touched for eight hits, six runs (two unearned), eight walks, one wild pitch and he whiffed three. He has now lost three of four decisions. Iowa is once again at the .500 mark with a 5-5-1 record. Bradley is 4-1.

Fielding gems came fast and furious in sharp contrast to the game which dragged on for over three hours. Brave right fielder Wyss was the author of two great defensive plays. He made a fine over-the-shoulder catch of a long drive by Lee in the second inning and repeated this performance in the third on a drive by Bonstead which resulted in a double play when Peden was caught off first base.

For Iowa left fielder Long made a fine catch of a drive by Raybourne in the fifth and center fielder Bonstead made a one-handed stab of Sullivan's long drive in right center field with the bases loaded and two out in the same frame.

Lee snagged a shot off the stick of Napoli in inning No. 6 with a belly-flopping dive and nearly turned into an unassisted double play but for some fast footwork by baserunner Pohlman.

ISC CAGE COACH

AMES (AP) — About two dozen more names have been added to the list of men who are interested in the basketball coaching job at Iowa State being vacated by Bill Strannigan, who resigned to accept a post at his old school, Wyoming.

Athletic Director Louis Menze, who also is retiring July 1, said Friday he has received around 12 telephone calls and 14 letters from prospects who either want the position or are interested in it. He did not identify anyone.

Rossi Floors Ryff Twice In 3rd Round To Win TV Scrap

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — Paoli Rosi floored Frankie Ryff twice in the third round before the referee stepped in and awarded him the fight at 2:48 in a televised scrap of New York lightweights Friday night. Rosi weighed 135½ pounds, Ryff 136.

Rosi, cut badly about the right eye, had been on the defensive until midway in the third when he floored Ryff with a sharp right. Then he caught Ryee flush on the jaw with a stiff left hook for the clincher.

A Ryff hook opened a bad cut in Rosi's eye early in the second round and Ryff pounded away at the cut.

Judge Harold McGrath had given Ryff the first two rounds. Referee Joe Palmer saw the first for Rosi and the second for Ryff. Judge Ray Kahl called the first even and gave the second to Ryff.
