

SUI Construction, Remodeling Plans Approved By Regents

Board Names 3 To Faculty; Grants Leaves Of Absence

Preliminary planning and budgets for several building and remodeling projects at SUI were approved Friday by the State Board of Regents.

During their May meeting at Iowa State College, the Regents also approved three appointments to the SUI faculty, accepted one resignation and granted three leaves of absence.

Construction projects considered by the Regents included three new buildings — Pharmacy, Volatile Storage, and Biology Research; remodeling of part of Macbride Hall to provide nutrition research space; renovation of elevators in University Hospital; construction of approximately 1,000 seats for spectators at track activities; and surfacing of several tennis courts, the area surrounding the stadium, and several parking lots. The various projects will be financed from different sources or combinations of sources — appropriated funds, athletic earnings, and federal grants.

Faculty appointments included those of David Lloyd, famous American tenor, to a position as associate professor of music; Dr. Andrew D. Dixon of the University of Manchester, England, as visiting associate professor of anatomy; and Harold W. Stevenson of the University of Texas as associate professor this summer in the Iowa Child Welfare Research Station.

The Board accepted the resignation of Frank D. Sills, associate professor of physical education for men, effective Sept. 15. Sills, who has taught at SUI since 1947, will become head of physical education and athletics at the East Stroudsburg State College in Pennsylvania.

The Regents approved a site south of SUI's Medical Research Laboratories Building for the new Pharmacy Building, funds for which were appropriated recently. The firm of Woodburn and O'Neill, Des Moines, was approved as architect in association with SUI's division of planning and construction, and the University was authorized to ask the legislative Budget and Financial Control Committee for approval and allocation of $50,000 for planning in connection with the $1,418,000 building. The new four-story Pharmacy Building will be 70 by 200 feet in size, with a one-story, 52 by 66 foot classroom at the north end.

A site east of the new Pharmacy Building was approved for a new $78,500 Volatile Storage Building, and the Regents again named Woodburn and O'Neill as architect in association with SUI architects. The University was authorized to request the Budget and Financial Control Committee for $5,000 to plan the one-story structure, which will be built underground and connect to the new Pharmacy Building by tunnel. Funds for the building were appropriated recently by the Legislature.

The Regents approved a budget of $19,898 for constructing and equipping a one-story Biology Research Building adjacent to the SUI Zoology Building. Half of the cost will be met from a U.S. Public Health Service grant of $9,949 for research to be conducted by Emil Witschi, professor of zoology, and Dr. R. H. Flocks, head of urology. Another $4,000 will be provided from the University's repair, replacement and alterations fund, and the remaining $5,949 from the urology trust fund in the College of Medicine. The concrete-block building will provide laboratory space and quarters for animals used in the Witschi-Flocks study.

Also approved Friday was a $61,476 budget for remodeling the southeast corner of Macbride Hall's ground floor to provide space and new equipment for a nutrition research project in the Home Economics Department. Remodeling will include temperature and humidity controls; plumbing, electrical, flooring and lighting changes, and several partitions. Cost of the project will be met from a $30,738 U.S. Public Health Service grant, $16,465 in SUI's repair, replacement and alterations funds, and $14,273 from SUI equipment funds.

Approval was granted by the Regents for a $45,000 project calling for renovation of three elevators at University Hospital. New cabs and doors will be installed on all three and new hallway position indicators would be installed for two of the elevators. The University was authorized to request approval for the project from the Budget and Financial Control Committee.

The Regents also received a report from the Board in Control of Athletics that it plans to build approximately 1,000 seats for spectators at the SUI track, the project to be paid for entirely from athletic earnings. To be constructed of poured concrete at an estimated cost of $16,000. The seats will be located on the natural slope south of the track.

A contract for surfacing several tennis courts, drives and parking lots was awarded by the Regents to the Ralston Construction Company, Marion, for its low bid of $32,646.25. More than half the cost will be paid from athletic earnings, the remainder being divided between funds realized from campus parking permits and SUI's fund for repairs, replacements and alterations.

Leaves of absence were approved for three faculty members during Friday's meeting of the Regents. Harvey C. Bunke, associate professor of general business, will be on leave during the 1959-60 academic year to accept a special appointment at Tulane University in New Orleans, and Boyd McCandless, professor in the Iowa Child Welfare Research Station, will be on leave Aug. 1-15 to teach at the University of Colorado. A two-week leave was approved for John R. Winnie, acting director of the Television Center, who represented the U. S. Department of State at an educational TV conference in Caracas, Venezuela, last month.

Ike Refused $250 Million—

House Group Trims Budget

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Appropriations Committee cut back President Eisenhower's 1960 budget requests a quarter billion dollars Friday.

The committee coupled its proposed reduction with sharp criticism of what it called an attempted administration cover-up of budget liabilities.

In its work on three previous regular appropriation bills this session, the committee went over the President's recommendations by about $80 million.

But in sending the fourth regular appropriations bill to the House Friday, the committee undercut total budget requests by date by voting to deny the President $252,348,200 contained in

SUI School Of Religion To Hold Annual Luncheon

Some 150 friends of the SUI School of Religion and members of its board of trustees are expected to attend the 32nd annual luncheon of the school Monday in the River Room of Iowa Memorial Union.

Welcoming the group for the University will be President Virgil M. Hancher, and Francis O'Connor, Dubuque attorney, who will bring greetings from the board of trustees.

School of religion faculty members who will speak at the luncheon will include Frederick P. Bargebuhl, associate professor of religion, who will describe a travel-study trip in Europe during 1957-58; Marcus Bach, professor of religion, who will report on his recent tour of the Far East under auspices of the State Department, and Father David J. Bowman, S.J., visiting Roman Catholic lecturer who will comment on his experiences at the SUI school.

Deputy Defense Head Dies

Quarles Had Been Mentioned As Successor To McElroy

Donald Quarles Died In Sleep

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Deputy Defense Secretary Donald A. Quarles, who was expected to be President Eisenhower's next Secretary of Defense, was found dead at his home early Friday. He was 64.

Quarles, who had been in good health but needed a vacation from hard work, according to his doctor, apparently died in his sleep. He was found by his chauffeur who tried to wake him at 5:55 a.m. C.S.T.

A few hours later, Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy said that he would reconsider his intention to resign later this year in view of Quarles' death.

Quarles, the number two man in the Pentagon and a veteran member of the Eisenhower administration, had been mentioned as the most likely successor to McElroy.

McElroy also cancelled plans to fly to Geneva late today to advise Secretary of State Christian A. Herter at the Big Four Foreign Ministers Conference with Russia.

He told newsmen, however, that he probably would go to Geneva sometime next week, when Herter needs his counsel on military matters.

The Defense Secretary said his immediate problem was to find a successor to Quarles, whom he called "really irreplaceable. He said he leaned to the idea of 'promotion from within' the Defense Department whenever possible.

The Defense Department said that Quarles will be buried in Arlington National Cemetery next Tuesday with simple military honors.

An engineer-industrialist who was born in the Ozark Mountain town of Van Buren, Ark., Quarles had been a member of the Eisenhower Administration since September, 1953, when he was named Secretary of the Air Force. He became Deputy Defense Secretary March 26, 1957.

President Eisenhower, Vice President Richard M. Nixon and other top government officials paid high tribute to Quarles.

The President, who last had seen Quarles at a meeting of the National Security Council Thursday said he was "shocked and saddened." He ordered flags on all government buildings at half staff.

He said Quarles' contribution as a government official "was of inestimable value to the security not only of the United States but of the free world."

Nixon said the Defense Department "never had a harder worker or a more dedicated public servant."

McElroy termed the death of his top deputy "a tragedy for the country." McElroy was at his Cincinnati home when Quarles' death was discovered, but returned to Washington immediately.

Mrs. Quarles also was out of town — in Chicago — at the time, pointing up the suddenness of her husband's death.

Typical of Congressional comments was that of Sen. Styles Bridges (N.H.), high-ranking Republican member of the Senate Armed Forces Committee, who said:

"The loss of Donald Quarles is a critical one for the United States at a critical time in our defense and international relations."

Quarles was reported in good spirits and in seeming good health last night when he attended a private dinner party and an Air Force Symphony concert. He had returned to his home about 9 p.m., C.S.T.

He was to have appeared this morning on a nationwide television program ("Today," NBC) and to have testified before a Senate Appropriations Subcommittee on Secret Space Research and Missile Development. The subcommittee met only long enough for members to eulogize Quarles.

His doctor, Air Force Col. Marshall Groover Jr., said in statement that Quarles had not been receiving treatment nor medicine before his death and was not ill.

Argue Over 'Permissible' Radiation

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A panel of scientists differed Friday over how long nuclear tests could be continued in the pattern of the past five years before radiation would approach maximum permissible limits for humans.

Estimates of when the danger point would be reached varied from as low as 40 to 50 years to as much as 100 years.

The panel gave its predictions to a congressional Atomic Energy Subcommittee as it ended public hearing on the fallout problem.

William Neumann, University of Rochester professor who read the report, said the group agreed that "from tests to date, the hazards are extremely small."

But he said it also agreed that if the fallout problem is ignored, "we can easily get into serious trouble."

One member of the panel, Dr. Willard F. Libby of the Atomic Energy Commission, said in separate testimony that the AEC thinks most small atomic weapons could be tested underground without an above-ground spread of radiation.

West Prepared To Deal, Or Push Way Into Berlin

BONN, Germany (AP) — Diplomatic informants said Friday the West is prepared to make a deal with the Soviet Union that would permit East Germans to man the checkpoints on overland routes between West Germany and isolated West Berlin.

But the Westerners are ready to push their way into Berlin either on the ground or in the air if the Soviets reject the deal, these informants said.

Reds Told Berlin Key To Summit

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States put Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev on notice Friday that he must help ease the war tension over Berlin if he wants a summit conference with President Eisenhower.

This attitude was set forth in a new U.S. note to Moscow and in remarks by Secretary of State Christian A. Herter as Herter left for new East-West talks opening in Geneva Monday.

To set the stage for these foreign ministers' talks, Eisenhower let it be known he would refuse flatly to meet Khrushchev if the Soviet Union sought to pressure the West by any of three actions:

1. Signed a separate peace treaty with Germany.
2. Turned over the Soviet sector of Berlin to the East Germans along with control of access routes to the divided city.
3. Issued any kind of ultimatum aimed at forcing a summit conference as the only alternative to peace.

Eisenhower's views were reported by authoritative informants who said the President wants concrete progress in settling Berlin and other German issues as his condition for a summit meeting.

Herter stressed this long-standing American attitude as he left by special plane to attend the Big Four meeting in Geneva.

He pledged that along with the British and French foreign ministers he would meet the U.S.S.R.'s Andrei Gromyko in a "sincere spirit of negotiation" in an effort to arrange a lasting European peace.

But he cautioned: "My expectations for success of that conference are not too high."

"A tremendous amount of patience is required in talks with the Soviets and even long negotiations do not lead necessarily to successful results."

Moscow's relatively soft words in the past few weeks have raised hopes Gromyko will show sufficient flexibility to insure a later summit session.

they will not accept the substitution of the East Germans for the Soviet Union.

This looks like an impasse, but qualified diplomatic sources explained the West will accept East Germany border inspectors, not in their own right but, as agents of the Soviet Union provided either the Soviets designate the East German personnel as their agents or, the Soviets do not quit the wartime occupation agreements.

The Bonn sources expressed hope the Soviets might be willing to compromise by hanging on to token occupation rights in East Berlin, despite their announced intention of giving East Germany complete sovereignty.

Under such a compromise, the sources said, the British, French and Americans would accept East Germans at the checkpoints but with the understanding that disputes would be carried to the Soviet Union.

On the other hand, if the Soviet Union insists on a 100 per cent breakoff of its occupation status, these sources said, the Western powers will refuse to deal with East German inspectors.

From there the reasoning is that presumably the West would make a probing operation on the ground to determine whether the Communists were willing to risk force to halt an Allied convoy or train.

Student Fees Due Tuesday By Midnight

SUI students must pay the final installment on their student accounts before midnight Tuesday to avoid a $5 late penalty fee, University Secretary Leonard Brcka reminded Friday.

Statements received by students or their parents the first of May included final installments on tuition and fees and charges for dormitory, fraternity or sorority housing, where applicable, for the remainder of the academic year. The statements also included other miscellaneous charges incurred through April 15.

Students will receive statements June 1 for any charges billed to them between April 15 and May 15. Any charges incurred from May 15 through the end of the semester will be included in a statement which will be mailed to the student's home July 1, Brcka said.

Brcka emphasized that no exceptions can be made on the $5 late penalty fee rule and that if for any reason a student did not receive a statement, he should report to the treasurer's office Monday or Tuesday to settle his account.

between West Germany and isolated West Berlin.

But the Westerners are ready to push their way into Berlin either on the ground or in the air if the Soviets reject the deal, these informants said.

The question of access routes to Berlin is at the heart of the Soviet challenge which motivated the East-West foreign ministers conference opening in Geneva Monday.

The Western package plan to be presented at Geneva deals with Berlin, German reunification, and a military security zone in Europe. The Soviets have implied they will not act alone to revise the status of Berlin unless the Geneva talks fail.

Last fall, the Soviet Union threatened to give up its occupation controls in Communist East Germany and turn over to that satellite control of the routes used by the United States, Britain and France to supply their 12,000 troops in West Berlin.

Texas Labor Leader Cleared By Senate Racket Probers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate rackets probers said Friday night a lie detector test cleared Texas labor leader Joseph McCollum of the allegation that he sought to raise money to have a union member killed.

Robert F. Kennedy, counsel to the committee, announced a lie detector test showed that "Mr. McCollum was telling the truth" in denying the accusation leveled at him earlier in the day by another witness.

The charge was made by Leland Head, business manager of Boilermakers Local 74 in Houston. Kennedy said a lie detector test taken by Head was inconclusive.

The two men took the test at the Office of Naval Intelligence after they had given conflicting testimony earlier in the day.

Head had sworn that McCollum tried to raise $500 from members of Head's local to pay for a killer to do away with Clarence Wilkins, a member of Boilermakers Local 132 in Galveston.

4 Youths Plead Innocent To Mass Rape Of Negro

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Four impassive white youths were led in handcuffs to the Leon County courthouse Friday where all pleaded innocent to the mass rape of a Negro college girl.

Rape can bring the death penalty in Florida.

A moan of protest went up from the courtroom gallery packed with Negroes, as each youth in turn said "not guilty" when his name was called. A quick call for order suppressed the outcry.

Sheriff Bill Joyce previously announced each of the four had confessed raping the 19-year-old coed, after taking her at gunpoint last Saturday from three companions.

Three of the men had no lawyers and will be represented at their May 27 trial by court-appointed attorneys. The fourth, Wilton Collingsworth, 23, hired an attorney at the last moment.

The men will be held without bond until the trial.

Besides Collingsworth, the defendants are Patrick Scarborough, 20; Ollie Stoutamire, 16; and David Ervin Beagles, 18. All live here.

AP Wire Editors To Meet At SUI

Wire editors of Iowa newspapers attending a conference of the Iowa Associated Press Telegraph Editors here today will hear a discussion of headline writing to be moderated by Arthur Sanderson, editorial advisor to the Daily Iowan and instructor in journalism, and a discussion of Associated Press reports led by Cy Douglas, chief of the Des Moines bureau of AP.

Max Van Derveer of the Marshalltown Times-Republican will give a report on a continuing study of AP service, and the group will elect officers at a business session.

The meeting opened Friday evening with a banquet at the Jefferson Hotel. James P. Wells, administrative assistant in physics at SUI, explained the operation of the Data Reduction Center in the Physics Building after the banquet and took the group on a tour of the center.

More Response Is Needed In Corn Monument Contest

Only one design has been entered in the Corn Monument contest for next year's Homecoming. Since there has been virtually no response, the deadline for submission of design has been extended to May 22, according to Gordon Mehaffy, E3, head of the contest committee.

If no one responds, Mehaffy said, the Corn Monument of next year's Homecoming "could well be a flop". Since any student, faculty member, or resident of Iowa City is eligible and the first prize is $15 and second prize $10, Mehaffy said he hoped for more response before the extended deadline.

Next year the Hawks play the Michigan State Spartans in the Homecoming game.

Entries should be turned in at the Dean's office in the Engineering Building and may be in any form: sketch, drawing, or model. They will be judged on theme, originality, ease of construction, and completeness of design.

To indicate the elaborateness of the design, the Corn Monument must be built for $300, Mehaffy said.

Maintenance And Clerical Workers Strike In Six New York Hospitals

NEW YORK (AP)—Maintenance and clerical workers struck six big private, nonprofit hospitals Friday, in defiance of court orders. It was the first major hospital strike in the city's history. An estimated 2,500 patients in Manhattan, Bronx and Brooklyn institutes seemed in no immediate distress.

J. Edgar Hoover Observes 35th Year As FBI Chief With Nixon, Rogers

WASHINGTON (AP)—J. Edgar Hoover, 64, who will observe his 35th anniversary as FBI director on Sunday, was guest of honor Friday at an exclusive luncheon.

Only three persons were present — Hoover; his host and boss, Attorney General William P. Rogers; and their mutual friend, Vice President Richard M. Nixon. The three men had lunch at a downtown hotel.

The arrangements were in line with word passed by Hoover that he did not want any big to-do over his 35th anniversary.

200 Egyptians Drown In Nile As Excursion Boat Overturns

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—A 200-ton pleasure boat carrying Egypt's top agricultural engineers and their families on a Sabbath picnic excursion overturned and sank in the Nile River Friday.

Police figures indicated perhaps 200 drowned. They estimated 100 were saved.

Gamal Abdel Nasser, president of the United Arab Republic, was one of the first to go to the rescue. He immediately took charge of efforts to save those struggling in the brown waters.

Agriculture Minister Sayed Marei reviewed the disaster Friday night and said: "This is a human and economic tragedy because those drowned include the best of our agricultural engineers."

Scientists Split On Appointment Of Lewis Strauss To Commerce Post

WASHINGTON (UPD)—Dr. Detlev W. Bronk, president of the National Academy of Sciences, Friday endorsed Lewis L. Strauss' nomination to be commerce secretary. But the Council of the Federation of American Scientists unanimously urged his rejection.

The Senate Commerce Committee heard this new evidence of the split among scientists over Strauss at a hearing enlivened by a charge of partisanship against the committee's action.

Chairman Warren G. Magnuson said the committee hoped to complete its hearings by the middle of next week.

Strauss formerly was head of the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC). Much of the opposition to his nomination as commerce secretary was centered on his handling of the AEC post.

One Killed When Two Jet Bombers Collide In Flight In South Carolina

SHAW AIR FORCE BASE, S.C. (AP)—Two Air Force jet bombers collided in flight near here Friday. One of the planes crashed, killing one of its three crew members.

The other two crewmen parachuted to safety. They were treated at the base hospital for minor injuries.

The second plane, its tail and undercarriage damaged, landed at the base. Its crew escaped injury.

Wreckage was scattered over a wide area in a freshly ploughed field five miles south of here.

Shaw AFB officers said the planes were flying at 11,000 feet when the spectacular collision occurred.

Religion School Trustees To Meet

The annual meeting of the Board of Trustees of the School of Religion will be held here Monday.

A luncheon for the trustees and friends of the School of Religion in the River Room of the Iowa Memorial Union will precede the meeting.

Dr. Robert Michaelson, director of the School of Religion, said Thursday.

Host and hostess for the luncheon will be Mr. and Mrs. Philip D. Adler, Davenport, Adler, Davenport publisher and a trustee of the School of Religion, is providing the luncheon as a memorial to his father, the late E. P. Adler who was a founder and trustee of the school for many years.

The Chamber Singers will also sing "Psalm 67" by Ives and two early American Moravian anthems by Peter. Soloists for the latter will be Marcia Heasley, A2, Donnellson, and Richard Grace, G, Albany, N.Y.

The Chamber Singers will be accompanied by a string orchestra and conducted by James Fritschel, G, Denver, Colo.

At International Club Banquet—

Bose Award To SUI Grad

The Bose Award, named in honor of the late Sudhindra Bose, long-time professor of political science at SUI, was given to Samuel Chen-Ying-Ling, G, Taipei, Formosa, Friday evening at the annual International Club banquet.

Betty Ann Junk, A4, Maquoketa, club president, welcomed guests at the banquet in the River Room of the Iowa Memorial Union.

Marion L. Hult, dean of students, presented awards to persons selected as having done the most for understanding and good will at the University during the past year.

The Hancher Award was given to Mrs. Dewey B. Stuit, wife of the dean of the college of liberal arts. The award is made for promoting good international relations.

The Carl E. Seashore Award was presented to Mrs. Barbara Boeke Whitney, N3, Hubbard. A Special Recognition Award was given to Mr. and Mrs. Diphish

Chakravarty of India. Chakravarty is a graduate student and assistant in pharmacy at SUI.

An open house at the International Club followed the banquet. Chakravarty was chairman of the publicity and invitations committee. Chuck Plummer, A3, LeMars, was in charge of decorations and Ieva Lemans, A3, Independence, was entertainment committee chairman.

Worry For SUI Vocalist. Not Crowds, But Hiccoughs

The one thing tenor John Duenow, A4, St. Ansgar, fears during a performance is getting the hiccoughs. Crowds don't bother him, but getting the hiccoughs does.

As yet, he hasn't had them during a performance. Duenow will sing the tenor solo in the University Chamber Singers' presentation of the "Stabat Mater," a liturgical hymn. The hymn will be sung at the singers and SUI Chorus concert Sunday at 4 p.m. in the Iowa Memorial Union.

No one simply learns to sing, Duenow said. One has to have a talent for singing, then it is the teacher's duty to help develop that talent, he added. At SUI the voice student usually takes private lessons and sings in a larger group.

By participating in a larger group, the singer can apply what he has learned in private studies, Duenow said.

One difficult thing about studying vocal music is dramatic interpretation, Duenow said. A soloist does not just sing notes, but must put dramatic feeling into the music, he explained. This interpretation is doubly hard when the words are French, German or Italian, he added.

The voice teacher cannot show the student what he is doing wrong as the piano teacher can, Duenow said. He teaches by listening to the student sing and giving constructive criticism.

A singer usually does not practice as much as an instrumentalist, though the amount of practice varies for each singer and for each part he sings. Duenow said he practiced about 2 hours a day to prepare for his 45-minute senior recital this year. However, for his part in the "Stabat Mater" he has practiced about seven hours a week by himself and four a week with the Chamber Singers.

SUI Badge Sales To Aid Crippled

About 40 SUI students will sell badges before the Varsity-Alumni football game today in observance of College Day for Crippled Children. Proceeds from the badge sales will help to finance a camp near Des Moines sponsored by the Iowa Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

SUI is one of 23 colleges in Iowa which will be raising funds today for the camp. Bob Specht, A3, Coralville, chairman of the Student Council Committee in charge of College Day, said about 40 volunteers will sell the badges at the Stadium gates.

The camp, which is under construction now, is located five miles north of Des Moines on Highway 60. Facilities will include a water recreation area, paved trails through wooded areas, hobby and trade shops and therapy training.

The camp is expected to cost over $200,000. About $120,000 has been raised so far, Specht said.

Kay Ackerman, A2, Iowa Falls, and Jack Burge, A2, Charles City, are serving on Specht's committee.

Free Tickets For Concert Available

Tickets are still available for the SUI Chorus and Chamber Singers concert to be held Sunday at 4 p.m. in the Main Lounge of the Iowa Memorial Union.

Tickets for the concert are free and may be obtained at the Information Desk in the Union.

The 150-voice chorus, directed by Herald Stark, professor of music and head of voice instruction, will sing "Where Art and Love of Beauty" from the opera "Fierabras" by Schubert, "I Will Not Let Thee Go" by Bach and "Wherefore is the Light Bestowed on the Disconsolate," a six part motet, by Brahms.

Under the direction of Gerald Lawson, G, Superior, Neb., the chorus will sing "Litany of Supplication" by Greshaminnoff with soloist Frederick Carne, G, Mount Pleasant, "Triptych" by Ruffman, "Echo-Song" by di Lasso, "Ballad of Green Broom" by Britten and "Soon Ah Will Be Done" by Dawson.

The "Stabat Mater," a liturgical hymn by Caldara, will be sung by the Chamber Singers. Soloists in the work will be Margery Ryan, G, Clinton; John Duenow, A4, St. Ansgar; Elizabeth Young, A1, Washington; and Charles Curtis, A3, Clinton.

The Chamber Singers will also sing "Psalm 67" by Ives and two early American Moravian anthems by Peter. Soloists for the latter will be Marcia Heasley, A2, Donnellson, and Richard Grace, G, Albany, N.Y.

The Chamber Singers will be accompanied by a string orchestra and conducted by James Fritschel, G, Denver, Colo.

India, Red China Friendly: Nehru

NEW DELHI (UPI)—Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru told a packed lower House of Parliament today that despite recent differences over the Tibetan revolt, India's policy remained one of friendship toward Communist China.

Nehru rejected opposition suggestions that if the Tibetan dispute could not be settled through negotiations between China and the exiled Dalai Lama of Tibet, then India should allow the Dalai Lama to launch a fight for Tibetan independence.

Nehru said the young god-king now in exile at Mussoorie, India, never had made such a suggestion and the Government never would approve use of Indian territory to stage an attack on another country.

The Prime Minister replied to appeals from Parliament by excited members to "face reality" and reassess the aims of Communist China.

"Nehru said that peaceful solutions to problems were not brought about by warlike approaches and observed that 'if someone in China or India said we should fight it would be wrong.'"

"Great countries like India and China cannot function that way," Nehru said. He added both countries were against cold war methods but in the Tibetan uprising, he regretted China got "involved in this technique."

Faiths Mobile Art Guild Patio Show Opens Today At Memorial Union

The Art Guild Patio Show will open at 10 a.m. today on the patio of Iowa Memorial Union, under sponsorship of the SUI Student Art Guild.

The combined exhibition and sale of student art work will include more than 100 exhibits. The show, open today and Sunday, includes paintings, sculpture, ceramics, weaving, jewelry, prints and drawings. Many of the art pieces will be on sale to the public.

Six works of art were selected Friday as winners of the exhibition by guest judge Marvin Cone, professor of art at Coe College, Cedar Rapids. The winning art pieces include paintings by Richard Hicks, G, Detroit, Mich.; Donn Moulton, G, Ravenna, Ohio; and Jeanette Ragner, A3, Chicago. Other winners include a print by Keith Acemphol, G, Elmhurst, Ill.; a ceramic pot made by Walter Wegner, G, Milwaukee, Wis.; and a sculpture by Norman Annis, G, Davenport.

The Patio Show is organized each year by members of the Art Guild. Robert Wolfe, Jr., G, Oxford, Ohio, is president of the student group.

In case of rain, the Patio Show will be postponed to next week, end.

Students And Play Leaders Attend Meeting

More than 39 playground and recreation directors from all over the state, as well as students participating in summer recreational programs, attended the Playground Institute Friday in the SUI Women's Gym.

Co-sponsored by the Iowa Recreation Society and SUI, the one-day meeting brought to the attention of delegates new possibilities for recreation programs in the areas of organized games and equipment, dramatic and musical projects, crafts, and rainy day and quiet activities. Keynote speaker was Frank Sills, associate professor of men's physical education, who addressed the group at a luncheon in the Iowa Memorial Union.

Coed Risks Life After Shark Attack

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A college coed risked her life Thursday trying to save a youth attacked by a 500-pound killer shark just outside the Golden Gate. Then she bent over the mangled, dying boy on the beach and prayed aloud with him until he was unconscious.

bravery. Supervisor Harold S. Dobbs recommended the citation for what one eyewitness called "the greatest exhibition of courage I have ever seen."

The shark which killed Albert Kogler, 13, was identified through serrated teeth marks by Dr. W. L. Follett, curator of fishes at the California Academy of Sciences, as a great white shark. He said the shark probably was 10 feet long and weighed 500 pounds.

It was far astray from normal warm water habitats when it lunged to the attack while Miss O'Neill and Kogler were swimming 50 yards offshore at Bakers Beach, just west of the Golden Gate Bridge.

Kogler died two and a half hours after the attack. Ignoring his warning to "get out of here," the girl had reached for his hand "but when I pulled I could see that his arm was just hanging by a thread."

So she cradled one arm about his back and swam through crimson-stained waters to the beach. There Shirley's mother, Mrs. Gertrude O'Neill, said Shirley scooped up sea water and sprinkled it on Kogler's head.

Making the sign of the Cross, the Catholic girl said over the dying body of her classmate at San Francisco State College: "I baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost."

"Is that all right?" she whispered the question. "Ok," Kogler gasped. He repeated after the girl the Act of Contrition.

Above the scene of the Presidio grounds, M.Sgt. Leo P. Day had looked down on the struggle with the shark.

"I could see the boy in the foaming red water, shouting and signaling someone to 'go back, go back,'" Day said.

"Then I saw the girl, swimming toward him with frantic strokes, completely ignoring his warning."

FORMER PRESIDENT Harry S. Truman is the usual good camera subject and points toward the photographer during his 75th birthday celebration Friday. House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.), has just presented Truman with a box containing two volumes of Civil War history.—AP Wirephoto.

Truman Described, Saluted At 75th Birthday Party

NEW YORK (AP)—A book-loving boy, a tough soldier, a president who could make a decision and not regret it. That's the portrait etched Friday night of Harry S. Truman as the nation saluted him on his 75th birthday.

It was a coast-to-coast party. There was laughter, song, nostalgic memories, and glimpses of history.

And the scrappy little man from Missouri was toasted by all sorts of folks.

"Well, as the fellow said back there in Kansas City, 'Harry Truman has sure gone a long way,'" summed up the master-of-ceremonies, actor Melvyn Douglas.

Gatherings in 16 cities, with a total of about 90,000 guests, were linked by closed-circuit television for the 90-minute celebration.

The chair of honor—for Truman himself—was on the flower-decked dais of the Waldorf-Astoria's grand ballroom.

Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.), "history is going to be kind to you."

"They are going to forget the few times that you have not taken dead aim, but have shot from the hip. They are going to remember you for the great things you have done."

Rayburn presented Truman with a rare gift—a set of five volumes of a handwritten diary and letters of a private in the Union Army during the War between the States.

"No men were more unlike than two men both named Harry S. Truman," said Dean Acheson, the secretary of state while Truman was in the White House.

"One was the public figure—peppery, often belligerent, didactic, the 'give-'em-hell' Harry. The other was the patient, modest, considerate and appreciative boss, helpful and understanding, sympathetic and concerned in any private worry or sorrow. This is the 'Mr. President' we knew, and know best."

Navy Successfully Fires Second Polaris Missile

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The Navy fired its powerful Polaris submarine missile over the Atlantic Friday on its second successful launching in three weeks.

Shortly after the missile blasted aloft at 1:28 p.m. the Defense Department announced in Washington that the missile attained all its test objectives.

It was learned that the 28-foot Polaris logged its most impressive flight yet, hitting close to the impact area some 700 miles away.

The two-stage Polaris, shaped like a bottle, poured out a puffy stream of smoke as it climbed.

It was the second appearance of a Polaris at the Cape in three weeks in the Navy's accelerated, and sometimes trouble-plagued program to make the missile operational by 1960.

The missile logged a successful flight April 29, after a series of failures.

The main mission this time was to attain successful ignition and separation of the two stages.

Where the missile went was not of primary concern, but if everything went well it would soar some 700 miles to an Atlantic target.

Work already is under way on six nuclear subs that will be equipped with 16 Polaris missiles each when they get to sea. Construction will start on two more subs this July.

U.S. Rejects All Bids For Ellis Harbor

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Government Friday rejected all 23 bids received March 9 for famed Ellis Island in New York Harbor.

Franklin Floete, General Services administrator, said the highest bid received was not reasonable in view of the Government's investment in the property and of the inherent value of the island.

The high bid was $671,000 by Sol G. Atlas, Yonkers, N.Y., who proposed putting the island to private use.

The government has invested $6,326,000 at Ellis Island.

The island became the chief immigration center in the United States in 1892. It has been federal property since 1808.

Efforts to dispose of it as surplus property have been under way since 1957. In February 1958, the highest bid received was $201,000.

Second Annual Varsity-Alumni Grid Game Today

Vets Bolstered By Members Of 2 Bowl Teams

Game Time 1:30, Crowd Of 20,000 Expected

Iowa Stadium will be the scene today of the second annual Varsity-Alumni football game with kickoff time slated for 1:30 p.m. Athletic Business Manager Francis (Buzz) Graham said Friday he expects approximately 20,000 fans to be on hand and the weatherman has given his blessings with a forecast for a clear warm day.

Forest Evashevski Jerry Hilgenberg Opposing Coaches Today

Today will mark the final day of activity for Varsity Coach Forest Evashevski's defending Big Ten and Rose Bowl champions — but several of the men who made the 1958 campaign such a success are now in the opposition camp.

Last Season's Stars
Among the 1958 vets who will play for the Alumni today are All-America quarterback Randy Duncan, owner of virtually every Iowa passing record in the books; halfbacks Kevin Furlong and Bill Gravel; fullback John Nocera, 1958 captain; centers John Leslyn and Steve Turner; ends Bob Prescott and Jim Span, tackle Mac Lewis and guards Gary Grouwinkel and Paul Karras.

RICE FLEMING

From Iowa's 1956 Big Ten and Rose Bowl titleholders are All-Americans, end Jim Gibbons; quarterback Ken Ploen, tackle Alex Karras. The later was a two-time All-America selection, in 1956 and again in 1957.

Practicing Since Wednesday
Some other Alumni notables who have been practicing since Wednesday under the tutelage of assistant varsity coach Jerry Hilgenberg are ends Jim Freeman, Frank Gilliam and Bob Hoff; tackles Cameron Cummins, Frank Rigney and Hugh Johnson; guards Bob Cummings, Frank Bloomquist and Ron Fairchild; center Chuck Pierce; quarterback Gene Veit; halfbacks Mike Hagler, Emilen Tunnell, Bob Smith, Eddie Vincent, Eldean Matheson, Bob Bostwick, Mel Knotts, Dusty Rice and Bob Wilson and fullbacks Bill Reichardt, Binkey Broeder, Jon Janda and Fred Harris.

REICHARDT NORTON

While a starting lineup for the Alumni is anybody's guess, it seems certain Hilgenberg will platoon his squad on offense and defense. Several of the former Hawkeyes are now, or have played professional ball where platooning is the rule rather than the exception.

Gibbons, Karras Teammates
Gibbons and Alex Karras are teammates for the Detroit Lions. Tunnell has been a standout defensive back for the New York Giants the last decade. Ploen, Rigney, Gilliam and Hagler have traveled the Northern route and now play in the Canadian League. Lewis has signed with the Chicago Cardinals and Nocera with the Philadelphia Eagles and several more, Reichardt, Freeman, Bloomquist and Smith, are former professional gridgers.

Evashevski has 19 lettersmen available including such veterans as ends Jeff Langston, Don Norton and Al Miller, tackles Charlie

Gymnasts Set For Contest With Alumni

By DON FORSYTHE Staff Writer

The varsity-alumni gymnastics meet to be held this morning resulted partly from a challenge to the gymnastics team from gymnasts still on campus and partly from boasts by former competitors about their athletic prowess, according to gymnastics coach Dick Holzhaefer.

The meet is scheduled for 10 a.m. today in the north gym of the Fieldhouse.

"This meet has been scheduled largely through the efforts of Sam Baillie," Holzhaefer said. "He has went to a lot of work to organize the opposition for my team."

Baillie, the freshman gymnastics coach, will lead the alumni squad. He scored more points in his career than any other Iowa gymnast and is considered to be the finest gymnast ever to represent Iowa.

In addition to Baillie, the alumni squad will include Staffan Carlsson, Ted Segura, Frank LaDuke, Don Casady, Dick Plato and Karl Wagonsner.

Carlsson, a mid-year graduate, is a fine all-around performer and was Big Ten titlist in free exercise in both 1957 and 1958. Segura was Big Ten still rings champion in 1958.

LaDuke and Baillie were both national champions during their collegiate years. Wagner, from Germany, never competed for Iowa as the Big Ten ruled him ineligible for intercollegiate competition, but Holzhaefer has indicated previously that he is on a par with Baillie.

The varsity squad will be paced by Bill Buck, a second place finisher in both the parallel bars and sidehorse in this year's NCAA meet.

Other performers for the varsity include John McCurdy, Tim Joe, Larry Snyder and Jon Boulton—all trampoline specialists and all-around men Tom Novack, Marshall Claus and Don Carney. These men formed the nucleus of the varsity team this year.

Adding strength to the varsity squad will be the freshman contingent of Roger Gedney, Drew Mawhinney, Hans Burchardt, Ed Walker, Russ Porterfield, Elven Walker and Ray LaDuke.

Holzhaefer says that the meet has given his team added incentive for practicing in the off-season and that the team has been practicing more than is customary for this time of year.

"Even though this is true, we are still a long way from being in competitive condition and the old-timers may be more than a match for us," he said.
A departure from the customary scoring procedure will be made with the first six finishers being awarded points for team score. A team may also place more than three men in a scoring position.

Reds Edge Braves 3-2, Hand Burdette 1st Loss

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds Friday night handed Lee Burdette, Milwaukee mound ace, his first defeat of the season after five straight victories and beat the Braves 3-2 behind the steady pitching of right-hander Brooks Lawrence.

The only runs scored against Lawrence were on homers by Eddie Mathews and Frank Torre in the eighth.

Despite the defeat the Braves held first place in the National League race, nine percentage points in front of the Reds.

The Reds got all their runs on four hits in the first inning but Burdette settled down after that and allowed only three more hits through the seventh. He was lifted for a pinch batter in the seventh.

Milwaukee 000 000 020—2 11 1

Lawrence and Bailey; Burdette, Pizarro (8) and Crandall. W.—Lawrence (3-1), L.—Burdette (5-1).
Home runs — Milwaukee, Mathews (10), Torre (1).

Cubs 3, Cards 2
ST. LOUIS (AP) — Randy Jackson's 10th inning triple and a tight three-inning relief job by left-hander Bill Henry combined for a 3-2 Chicago Cubs victory over the St. Louis Cardinals Friday night.

Henry started the winning rally with a two-out single to right in the 10th. Then Jackson stroked his winning triple.

Jim Brosnan, third Riddbird pitcher, took the defeat.

Henry struck out five men in his three-inning stint and gave two hits. He fanned pinch batter Ray Jablonski in the last of the ninth with two on.

The last-place Cardinals took their ninth one-run defeat out of 17 setbacks.

Phils 8, Pirates 1
PITTSBURGH (AP) — Gene Conley of the Philadelphia Phillies won his first baseball game since September, Friday night with a nifty 8-1 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Conley struck out seven and didn't walk any before he left the game in the ninth inning after he was gazed by a line drive off the bat of Smokey Burgess. Dick Farrell came in to set the Pirates down.

The Phils exploded for seven hits and five runs in the fourth and fifth innings and added three more insurance runs in the eighth and ninth. The Phils garnered 13 hits off four Pirate pitchers.

George Witt, the starter for the Pirates, was charged with the loss.

Conley, Farrell (9) and Sawatski; Witt, Giel (4), Smith (7), Blackburn (9) and Burgess. W.—Conley (1-0), L.—Witt (0-4).

Indians 3, ChiSox 1
CHICAGO (AP) — Rocky Colavito drove in all of Cleveland's runs and pitcher Cal McLish went the distance Friday night in defeating the Chicago White Sox 3-1.

The victory, fashioned on only three hits including a two-run, tie-breaking homer by Colavito, gave the league-leading Indians a three-game edge over second-place Baltimore which lost to Boston 5-0.

McLish, who lost his shutout in the fourth inning when Landis homered, limited the Sox to five hits and gained his fourth victory against no defeats.

Sox starter Dick Donovan gave up all Cleveland's hits before giving way to a pinch batter in the sixth.

Cleveland's Minnie Mino singled with one out in the fourth, stole second and rode home on Colavito's single.

Hawks Slap Purdue 7-3; Leave Cellar

By LOU YOUNKIN Sports Editor

The Iowa baseball team jumped on the merry-go-round in the sixth inning Friday and rode to a 7-5 win over Purdue on the Iowa Diamond. The Hawkeyes also rode out of the Big Ten basement as the Boilermakers fell into the cellar.

For Iowa it was conference victory No. 2 in seven starts while the Boilermakers now stand 1-5-1 in league play. Purdue still holds the edge in all games, however, with a 14-8-1 mark — Iowa is 7-14-1.

The wild sixth inning got off to an inauspicious start. With the score tied, 1-1, Dick Weatherly singled with one out and was forced at second by Mike Bougdanos. At this point, however, Riveter relief man Dick Simmons lost his control and walked Mike Lewis, Les Kewney and Roger Rudeen to force in the tie-breaking run.

After running the count to 2-0 on Jerry Mauren, Simmons was replaced by Mike Birck who promptly missed on the next two pitches to force in another tally. Don Peden kept the merry-go-round going by coaxing Birck for Iowa's fifth straight base on balls and Kewney walked in with the third run of the inning. Al Klinger then shot a single into left field plating Rudeen and Mauren. Paul Bonstead, who went for the collar Friday, then bounced out to end the five-run, two-hit inning.

Rudeen went the route for Iowa notching his second victory of the year against six setbacks. The Hawkeye co-captain was touched for seven hits, walked six men and fanned three. Rudeen was tough in the clutch, leaving 11 Boilermaker baserunners stranded in the nine innings. Only one of the three runs he allowed was earned.

Simmons, who relieved Purdue starter Gerald Lawlis in the fifth frame, was the loser. Lawlis had given up only one hit and one run in his four-inning effort. The one hit was a booming triple to left center in the third inning by Mauren and Jerry streaked home with the first Iowa run on Peden's sacrifice fly to right.

The Hawkeyes' final counter came in the seventh on singles by Bougdanos and Lewis and a boot by Purdue third sacker Bernard Allen.

The Riveters opened the scoring in the second on singles by Duff McKenzie and Joe Ostrowski and an infield out.

Bougdanos' wide throw in the seventh opened the gates for two unearned runs off Rudeen. Rowland Krupp, who was safe on the error, scored on a two-bagger down the field line by Gerald Zubak Ostrowski, who had three hits in four trips for the day, brought Zubak in with a solid single to left.

Illinois will be here today for a doubleheader beginning at 10:30 a.m. The Hawkeyes will be seeking their third consecutive win after snapping a 10-game losing string last week at Wisconsin. Bob Pearl and either Dick Clauson or Al Bachman are expected to top the rubber for Coach Otto Vogel's Hawks against the high-riding Illinois.

Ohio State To Vote 'No' On Rose Bowl

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Trustees of Ohio State University Friday approved the institution's opposition to renewal of the Rose Bowl football pact.

By a vote of 5-0 the board sanctioned the decision made March 10 by the Faculty Council, which orders the Buckeye representative to vote "no" when the agreement with the Pacific Coast group comes up for action May 22-23 at Ann Arbor, Mich.

The action of the trustees leaves Michigan, Iowa, Indiana, Purdue and Michigan State in favor of renewal, and Ohio State, Illinois, Minnesota, Northwestern and Wisconsin against it. A majority vote is necessary to continue the pact, which appears doomed unless one of the opposition changes its mind or refrains from voting.

The action of the Ohio State Faculty Council and the trustees in opposing the Rose Bowl pact is in contrast to the attitude of the OSU Athletic Council, which voted 9-1 earlier this year in favor of continuing in the Pasadena splendor.

Much of the faculty opposition to continuation of the Rose Bowl football pact by Western Conference schools has centered around the extension of the season by some five or six weeks, and the loss of classroom work by the players.

Coach Woody Hayes of Ohio State said Friday:

"We didn't miss a minute of school when we went out there last year. We held six practices here on weekends, when there was no school the next day, and the trip was made during the Christmas holidays. We were back before classes resumed."

Winner of the Western Conference championship next fall will go to the 1960 New Year's Day game if the pact renewal is killed at Ann Arbor by the faculty representatives. The current agreement ends Jan. 2, 1960.

The Varsity won the first game last year by a 28-24 count. After falling far behind at the three-quarter mark, the Alumni got its second wind to make a close final score of the contest that was viewed by an estimated 15,000 spectators.

Tickets are still on sale at the Fieldhouse at $2 for adults and $1 for students.

Norman Says 'I'll Be Back'
ST. LOUIS (AP) — Big Bill Norman, fired last Saturday after less than a year as manager of the Tigers, plans to remain in baseball. But, he said Friday, "I won't work for Detroit again."

Shortly after the 48-year-old Norman got the axe, Tiger General Manager Rick Ferrell said Norman would be offered a job with the club.

"Nothing concrete has been offered me by Detroit," Norman said at his home, "and I'm absolutely not interested. What kind of a job could they offer me now? I won't work for Detroit again, but I'll be back."

Norman is steering a neutral course on his dismissal. His statements, though, carry an undercurrent of resentment over the way the Tigers handed him his walking papers.

"Anything I could say now would sound like sour grapes," he commented. "Sure, the dismissal hurt. It was a matter of personal pride. But, like a bad penny, I'll bounce back."

Norman, in baseball in one capacity or other nearly 31 years, said he was mulling over "two or three offers in baseball."

"I'm going to take it easy for three or four weeks before I make up my mind," he continued.

"The only thing I'm interested in now," he said with a laugh, "is getting my shrubbery squared away."

New Lineup Set For Iowa Golfers On Minnesota Trip
Iowa's golf squad meets Wisconsin and Minnesota today in dual meets to be held at Minneapolis. The Hawkeyes, with a 2-4 season record, hope to climb back to the .500 mark.

Coach Chuck Zwienen has juggled his lineup in an effort to snap the team out of a three-match losing streak.

Sophomores Jack Litvay and Tom Holcomb will make their varsity debuts today. John Liechty, Frank James, Bob Davis and Mike Dull will round out the squad.

The Hawkeyes move to Madison, Wis., Monday to meet Minnesota, Notre Dame and Wisconsin. Iowa dropped a 22-14 decision to Notre Dame last week on the home course of the Irish.

Yankees May Trade With Washington

NEW YORK (AP) — The faltering New York Yankees may try to swing a deal with the Washington Senators during the latter team's visit here this weekend.

The world champions must cut three men by Saturday night to meet the 25-player limit and they would like to use the excess talent in a trade.

General Manager George Weiss acknowledged that he may huddle with the Senators' president, Cal Griffith, during the weekend series.
