Radford Testifies On Arms Contracts

"Little Outside Influence From Retired Military"

WASHINGTON (AP) — Adm. Arthur W. Radford told Congress Friday that outside influence on the Pentagon to swing weapons contracts is "very small—but I wouldn't say it doesn't exist."

The retired former chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff minimized the influence of generals and admirals who retire and go to work for munitions makers.

Radford, who has been recalled to temporary duty and is now serving as acting chairman of the Joint Chiefs, said he was not talking about anything sinister when he commented in a television interview June 28 that inter-service rivalries were encouraged from outside the Pentagon.

"It is only natural for the proponents of certain systems or weapons to feel that theirs are the best, and I believe these influences are properly brought to bear," he said.

He appeared before a House Armed Services subcommittee investigating what Chairman F. Edward Hebert, (D-La.), described as an alleged munitions lobby.

Under Herbert's questioning Radford disclosed he gets a $12,000 annual fee from Philco Corp., a major electronics maker, and the Philco International Corp., in addition to his $12,000 retirement pay.

Radford said his duties for Philco include attending monthly directors' meetings and answering questions, primarily in the international field.

Quizzed on whether "old school ties or old acquaintances" have been exploited by retired generals and admirals in behalf of private employers, Radford suggested that their influence quickly fades away.

Anti-Government Plots To Draw Death Penalty

HAVANA, Cuba (AP) — The government declared a maximum penalty of death Friday for Cubans or foreigners convicted of counter-revolutionary activity.

The decree lists a long catalog of activities — plotting, sabotage, bombing, invasion, assaults on the government, and the use of planes to drop anti-government leaflets — which could bring death before a firing squad.

The revolutionary government thus outlawed the kind of action that swept Fulgencio Batista from the presidential palace and brought Fidel Castro to power. The Castro government in the past month has been plagued by plottings and bombings, blamed on Batista supporters.

The same decree stripped the military tribunals of jurisdiction over cases involving ex-military men and civilian collaborators of Batista and handed them over to civilian courts. The military courts are not dissolved, however, and can be called to try those accused of conspiring against the government.

Iowa City Band To Give Concert

A third "concert in the park" will be presented Sunday by the Iowa City Community Band in College Hill Park.

Frederick C. Ebbs, director of SUU bands, will be guest conductor for the concert beginning at 4 p.m.

A special number to be played during the concert will be "Three Bluejackets," by Williams, with Robert Hanson, G. Corralville; Phil Olsson, G. Des Plaines, Ill.; and John Hall, Iowa City, playing as a trumpet trio.

The band will also play: "Hornstralers March" by Chambers; "Raymond Overture," by Thomas; "El Relicario," by Padilla; "Cantata for Band," by Smith; "Cowboy in Cuba," by Grundman; "American Plantation Dance," by Franko; "Sons of the Desert March," by Kline; "South Pacific" selections, by Rodgers-Gates; and "Nobles of the Mystic Shrine," by Sousa.

There will be three more concerts in the series at College Hill Park at Washington and Dodge Streets.

'Possibly Next President,' Khrushchev Says Of Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrat W. Averell Harriman assured Vice President Richard M. Nixon Friday that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev would welcome him as "possibly the next president of the United States" when Nixon visits Russia in two weeks.

Harriman, former New York governor and one-time ambassador to Moscow, said he told Khrushchev, however, that the next U.S. president would certainly be a Democrat.

"I told him to write down the names of four Democrat senators and Mr. Adlai Stevenson on slips of paper, put them in a hat and stir, and then pick one out," Harriman said. "And that way he'd have as good a guess as anyone about who will be the next president."

Although he did not identify them by name to reporters, it was known that the four Democratic senators Harriman had in mind were John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas and Stuart Symington of Missouri.

Harriman recounted his political discussion with Khrushchev after he called on Nixon and Secretary of State Christian A. Herter to brief them on the Soviet leader's talk about possible war over Berlin.

Harriman has reported previously that Khrushchev, during a Kremlin interview June 23, used "brutal" language in demanding that the West pull out of Berlin.

After his meeting with Nixon Friday Harriman was understood by newsmen to have said that Khrushchev "regards Mr. Nixon as the next president of the United States."

Later, after calling on Herter, however, Harriman said all he ever meant to say was that Khrushchev would greet Nixon as "possibly the next president."

"Mr. Khrushchev recognizes that Nixon is one of the contenders and he (Khrushchev) is very interested in the political prospects here," Harriman said.

Scientists Ask Nuclear Test Ban

GENEVA (AP) — East-West scientists Friday urged the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union to provide in a nuclear test ban treaty for a network of satellites to detect violations hundreds of miles above the earth.

Western delegates said the scientific report was a considerable step forward in the three-nation talks for a test ban treaty. It implied Soviet agreement to participate in a joint program to launch the control satellites although the report is not binding on the three powers.

The reported Soviet assurances center on the plan for a Berlin compromise put up by Gromyko to the West the day before the Geneva talks recessed June 20.

In that plan, Gromyko said that if East and West Germany could not agree within 18 months on a program to reunite their country, then the Big Four should meet again to review the situation. In the meantime the Berlin situation would be guaranteed to stand still.

Long Files $2 Million 'Slander' Suit Against Time And Life

WINNFIELD, La. (AP) — Louisiana Gov. Earl K. Long instituted a $2 million suit against Time and Life magazines Friday for what he called "slandering articles and pictures."

The 63-year-old governor, mapping final plans for an extended vacation through the Western states, Canada and Mexico, also indicated through a political follower that he plans to call the Legislature into special session early next month.

The ailing governor — there are conflicting reports about his physical condition — spent the day at his "pea patch farm" near here. His aides said he would go to Shreveport, La., Saturday and then catch a commercial flight for a stay in Fort Worth.

A proposal introduced Friday in the Texas House of Representatives would invite the loquacious Louisiana chief executive to address a joint session of the Texas Legislature Saturday morning.

Long said he expects his attorney, Joe Arthur Sims, to file the suit against Time, Inc., in the 19th District Court in Baton Rouge Monday.

There was no comment on what material in the magazines irked the governor. But two of his top followers in the Legislature were upset Thursday night when they read this week's issue of Life.

State Sen. B. B. Rayburn and State Rep. Jesse McLain were particularly critical of a picture

Morgan, Loria, Dvorsky Terms End—

3 Councilmen Won't Run

Three members of the City Council, whose terms expire this year, have announced that they will not be candidates for re-election in November.

Mayor Phillip F. Morgan and Councilmen Louis Loria and George P. Dvorsky have notified the Council-Manager Association, (C-MA), of their intentions to retire from the council following the completion of their first four-year terms.

John Wilson, chairman of the

Summerwill Chosen C-MA Chairman

Ben E. Summerwill, vice president of the Iowa State Bank and Trust Co., has been elected chairman of the board of representatives of the Iowa City Council-Manager Association to succeed Robert H. Lind Sr.

Lind served in the post the last two years. He has been named to fill the unexpired term of Thomas E. Farrell Jr., who resigned from the board because he was leaving Iowa City.

Summerwill is a former treasurer of the board of directors of the Iowa City Chamber of Commerce. He is treasurer of the Civic Music Association and its deputy commander of the 410th Battle Group, reserve unit headquartered in Iowa City.

Summerwill attended SUU, majoring in economics. He is married and has three children.

The board has appointed Dr. Raymond F. Sheets as one of its 20 representatives. Sheets, associate professor of internal medicine at SUU, replaces John R. Schmidhauser, assistant professor of political science, who will be on leave of absence from the University.

Poll Says—Would Vote Hoffa Out

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Tribune said Friday night that a secret survey of truck drivers from five states indicated James R. Hoffa would be forced out as president of the 1.6 million member Teamsters Union by a 4-1 margin if an election were held now.

For two years the union and Hoffa have been under investigation by the Senate Labor Rackets Committee.

The survey was made by Tribune reporters who posed as truck drivers and talked to drivers from Illinois, Wisconsin, Indiana, Ohio and New York at stops in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. The Tribune did not say how many drivers were interviewed.

The Tribune said its survey showed:

Many drivers have almost unbelievable lack of knowledge of the revelations of corruption in their union and candidly admit they "don't give a damn how much the bosses steal" as long as they are able to keep off the unemployment rolls.

"There are a number of devoted rank-and-file members who in recent months have decided to jeopardize their livelihoods and risk brutal retaliations in a revolt against the corrupt leadership in their local unions."

The Tribune said the survey showed Teamster officials have devised a system of keeping members from attending union meetings. The system provides for the assignment of a driver to a local union which has headquarters thousands of miles from the driver's home and starting point, the newspaper said.

"As an example, many members of Chicago Local 710 operate out of Los Angeles, only touch Chicago, and few of them have the faintest idea where local 710 headquarters are located."

C-MA candidates committee, told the association that the three felt one term in office was as much time as they could afford to give.

"They have given valuable service to this community and we regret that they feel unable to run again," he said.

Ben E. Summerwill, newly elected chairman of the association board, also expressed regret that the three would not be candidates for re-election.

In letters announcing their decisions, each of the three councilmen expressed support for the

Steel Talks 'Stepped Up;' Settlement Hopes Higher

NEW YORK (AP) — The tempo of steel negotiations rose considerably Friday, leading to renewed hopes that a settlement could be reached before a Tuesday midnight strike deadline.

Industry and United Steelworkers of America bargaining teams admitted they have been "exchanging data," but declined to specify what these have constituted any specific settlement offers.

However, it was reported that the union has made several settlement proposals and the industry has finally and clearly indicated it is willing to make some concessions.

There were signs that both sides were working toward a settlement package in the neighborhood of 10 cents an hour for wage increases and other benefits. It would perhaps be partially paid for by some work practice concessions on the union's part.

Both Steelworkers President David J. McDonald and R. Conrad Cooper, vice president of U.S. Steel Corp. and chief industry negotiator, were asked Friday morning about reports in the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph that the industry and union traded settlement offers.

"I deny it," McDonald said. Cooper then told newsmen, "You have heard the answer."

It was believed that Washington officials, including Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell, were working in the background to persuade the industry and union to a strike-saving settlement.

The industry has been insisting on a one-year wage freeze to avoid any new steel price increase as counseled by President Eisenhower.

For its part, the union has been seeking a substantial wage boost along with pension and insurance plan improvements. The workers presently average $3.10 hourly earnings.

Des Moines Lists New Polio Cases

DES MOINES (AP) — Two more Des Moines children have been hospitalized with polio, bringing the Polk County total for the year to 71.

Neither of the latest patients had received any Salk anti-polio vaccine.

The latest cases are Stephen Yeigh, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Yeigh, who has bulbar polio, and Zola Blanchard, 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray H. Blanchard, who has non-bulbar polio.

Of the 71 cases, 62 lived in Des Moines and nine lived in the county. One previously reported case was removed from the list Friday when it was found that the illness was not polio.

Hardest hit by polio in this summer's epidemic have been children between 1 and 9 years old. Forty-seven cases have been reported among children of those ages.

In all of 1958 Des Moines had eight polio cases, with Polk County reporting two others.

council-manager form of government.

Candidates for the three council vacancies will be selected by the C-MA board of directors before the biennial municipal election Nov. 3.

Chairman Summerwill has asked that Iowa City residents submit to Wilson names of individuals who have consented to be considered as potential candidates.

Holdover members of the council are Ray Thornberry and Mrs. Thelma Lewis, whose current terms expire at the end of 1961.

Promotion Man Held To Jury On Check Charge

DES MOINES (AP) — Avrum Katelman, 27, of Council Bluffs, a promotion man who had been accompanying Iowa's entry in the Miss Universe contest, was held to the county grand jury here Friday on two bad check charges.

He pleaded innocent on arraignment before Municipal Judge Harry B. Grund and was released on bond of $800.

Katelman, also known as Buddy Dundee, the name under which he operated the Buddy Dundee Enterprises, was arrested July 2 at the Municipal Airport here when he arrived with Miss Kay Nielson, 22 of Council Bluffs on a promotion tour.

Miss Nielson, as Miss Iowa, will compete in the Miss Universe contest at Long Beach, Calif.

Katelman said he was accompanying the beauty queen on a tour of several Iowa cities at the time and paying the expenses. He was picked up on charges that he passed bad checks for $20 at Younkers store here on May 29 and for $30 at Dahl's, a Des Moines supermarket on June 1.

Katelman contended that the dispute over the checks was the result of a misunderstanding.

Motions Requesting Acquittal Still Pending Before Judge

WASHINGTON (AP) — One juror who refused to yield to argument or persuasion blocked a verdict in the marathon trial of former Federal Communications Commissioner Richard A. Mack and Thurman A. Whiteside, a Miami lawyer.

U.S. District Judge Burnita S. Matthews brought the 14-week-long trial to an end Friday by discharging the jury and declaring a mistrial.

Still pending before the judge are motions asking acquittal of both Mack and Whiteside.

If these motions are denied, a Justice Department spokesman said, "We'll try it again." Any retrial probably would not take place before next fall.

Before she discharged the jury, 11 jurors reported to the judge through the foreman, Robert E. Burner, that they had agreed on a verdict, but had been unable to win over one unidentified holdout.

The bill also would raise the minimum for the 24 million workers already covered by the act. The floor for them would go to $1.15 the first year, and $1.25 the second.

For all but about 2.7 million of the workers the bill would newly bring under the law, the minimum would be stepped up to $1.25 an hour over a four-year period. The 2.7 million employed in retail and service establishments doing a business of less than $750,000 a year, would be brought under the $1-an-hour minimum but would not be included under the law's overtime provisions.

About 3.8 million employees of larger retail and service firms would be brought under the $1 minimum immediately and made eligible for overtime pay after 46 hours.

In the second year the minimum would be raised to $1.10 with overtime after 44 hours. In the third year it would be $1.20 and 42 hours, and in the fourth year and thereafter it would be $1.25 and 40 hours.

The same upscaling in minimum wages, but with different overtime provisions, would be applied to about 3.5 million other workers not now covered by the wage-hour law. These include loggers, local transit employees, seamen, agricultural processors, and laundry workers.

The bill was proposed by Sen. John F. Kennedy, (D-Mass.), subcommittee chairman, and approved with extensive revisions, many of which were suggested by Kennedy himself.

Kozlov Tour Ends; Khrushchev May Seek Invitation

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — A weary Soviet first deputy premier arrived in Pittsburgh Friday for the last of his fleeting glimpses of American industry at work.

Frol R. Kozlov's arrival coincided with lively speculation that his report to the Kremlin on his cross-continent tour will decide whether Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev applies pressure on Washington for an invitation to make a similar American visit.

One source connected with the official Soviet party said whether Kozlov's boss, Khrushchev, actively seeks an invitation will depend not only upon Kozlov's report but on the results of the Geneva foreign ministers' conference which resumes Monday. Kozlov leaves the United States early Monday for Moscow by Soviet jet transport.

If the foreign ministers' meeting leads to a summit conference of the Big Four heads of government, Khrushchev is likely to want to visit the United States, either for the summit meeting itself or after it.

Kozlov's visit has been far from an unparalleled success so far as the general American public has been concerned.

Senators Vote Against Funds For Integrating

WASHINGTON (AP) — A 43 vote in a Senate judiciary subcommittee Friday rejected a plan to use federal money to encourage Southern areas to integrate their schools.

Another 43 vote favored extending the life of the Civil Rights Commission another 15 months, to Jan. 31, 1961.

In both cases the deciding vote was cast by Sen. Roman L. Hruska, (R-Nebr.), an Omaha lawyer formerly active in county government.

Hruska, saying he had lined up with the three Southerners on the committee in opposition to the federal grant idea, said he does not believe the federal government should get involved in education in such a way.

The idea was advanced by Sen. Paul H. Douglas, (D-Ill.), a chief advocate of civil rights laws. Sen. John A. Carroll, (D-Colo.), moved its adoption.

Chairman Thomas C. Hennings Jr., (D-Mo.), said he voted for Carroll's motion. It seemed obvious that the other vote for it came from Sen. William Langer, (R-N.D.), but Hennings didn't say how individuals voted.

The three Southerners on the subcommittee are Sens. Sam J. Ervin Jr., (D-N.C.), John J. McClellan, (D-Ark.), and Olin D. Johnston, (D-S.C.). They have consistently opposed such measures as "Douglas proposed, on the grounds they violate the constitutional rights of states."

Douglas proposed that the Department of Health, Education and Welfare be empowered to grant financial and technical aid to states and local school districts moving from segregated to integrated education.

Local school districts which complied with the Supreme Court's integration holdings, in the face of state law resisting it, would have been eligible for federal grants under the Douglas bill.

High School Grads May Obtain Loans

A supplementary grant of $140,000 from the Federal Government will make more loans of up to $1,000 a year available to recent high school graduates who need financial aid to attend SUI.

High school graduates who show good academic promise, but feel that they do not have enough money to go to college should apply now for a National Defense Student Loan, members of the SUI committee on student loans said.

Under the federal loan program at SUI, students may borrow up to $1,000 each year for five years. Repayment of loans (in 10 equal yearly installments) does not begin until one year after graduation, a time when most college graduates are settled in jobs in their new career fields. No interest is charged on the loans until repayment begins.

A high school student's rank in his graduating class and scores on the Iowa Placement Tests are used in determining academic qualification for a loan. Before an application for a loan can be approved, a student must first secure permission to register at SUI.

Loans are made only for essential educational expenses — tuition, room and board, equipment and books. The exact amount of each loan depends upon the student's financial need.

Students who are interested in attending SUI with help from the federal loan program may obtain further information from the Committee on Student Loans, Office of Student Affairs at SUI.

4 SUI Students At Camp Mapping Rock Formations

Four Iowans are among SUI geology students who are taking part in an eight-week field camp to gain experience in mapping rock formations.

The students will work in the Black Hills until July 18 and in the Big Horn Mountains from July 19 to Aug. 8. The area where they are now working has some of the oldest known rocks in the world. Tests have indicated they are between 2.5 and 3 billion years old.

SUI students from Iowa participating in the field trip include Don Coch, A4, Manchester; Ralph Witte, A4, Rockwell; Louis Vermeer, A4, Sioux City; and Wayne Anderson, G, Keokuk.

Geology students doing field work in other parts of the U.S. this summer in connection with master's theses are Richard Moore, Moline, Ill., and Peter Goodwin, Baltimore, Md. Those doing field work related to doctoral dissertations include Robert F. Hudson, West Haven, Conn.; Lyman Williams, Augusta, Ga.; John Palmquist, Chicago, Ill.; and Samuel Kozak, Danvers, Mass.

In addition to SUI students registered for the eight-week field camp in the Black Hills and Big Horn Mountains, there are students participating from the University of Minnesota at Duluth; DePauw University, Greencastle, Ind.; Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn.; Augustana College, Rock Island, Ill.; and Denison University, Granville, Ohio, according to R.A. Hoppin, SUI associate professor of geology and director of the summer program.

Norman Foster, G, Woodstock, N.Y., is assisting Hoppin in the field course.

Following the field course, Hoppin and William Furnish, president here.

Kafer said he met with V. Lee Phillips, district director of internal revenue in Des Moines, to establish the cause of closing the office.

Phillips announced last week that the office would be closed as part of a plan for "more effective utilization of technical manpower in the state."

He said the department had found "services rendered by the Iowa City office could be provided without retaining a permanent post of duty. Technicians from nearby cities would open the Iowa City office the fourth Friday of every month and the present three-man staff here would be assigned elsewhere."

The Iowa City Internal Revenue Service has operated an Iowa City office for 20 years. The office is in the Post Office Building.

"Witschi Jubilee" At University Of Paris—

SUI Prof Honored

International honors were bestowed upon Emil Witschi, professor emeritus of zoology at SUI, at a special "Witschi Jubilee" meeting of scientists in Paris, France, recently.

Arranged at the invitation of colleagues and former students with the participation of the University of Paris Faculty of Sciences, ceremonies honoring Witschi were held in the salon of the Academy of Paris at the Sorbonne, historic center of the University of Paris. Praising the work of Witschi in special addresses at the meeting, the dean of the Faculty of Sciences of the University of Paris spoke of the high quality of a lecture series presented by Witschi to advanced students and faculty members, and the permanent secretary of the French Academy of Sciences reviewed and appraised the nearly half century of work by Witschi.

Congratulatory letters from former students and scientists from all parts of the world which were read at the meeting recognized Witschi's contributions to the fields of endocrinology and embryology and emphasized his activities in furthering international relationships among biologists.

A "Jubilee" volume of papers contributed by scientists from many countries was dedicated to the SUI scientist, and the page proofs of the volume were presented to him during the ceremonies. Witschi and his wife recently returned to Iowa City from Paris, where he had served as a visiting professor during April, May and June at the Sorbonne, lecturing on the biology of reproduction.

Many of the leading French embryologists, as well as those from other countries, are now working along lines developed by Witschi in his research at SUI. Elected last fall as honorary president of the French Zoological Society, Witschi presided at the annual meeting of the society in Paris. Witschi also visited several marine laboratories in the Mediterranean area in connection with research he is doing on underwater hearing for the U.S. Office of Naval Research.

Chosen president-elect of the American Society of Zoologists in January, Witschi will serve as its president during 1960. A native of Switzerland, he has been a member of the SUI faculty since 1927.

Group Won't Put Billboards On Interstate

DES MOINES (AP) — The Iowa Outdoor Advertising Association has agreed not to place billboards along interstate highways in Iowa.

The association represents 24 sign and billboard companies in the state. Its decision was announced Friday, after the Western Advertising Co. of Omaha, Neb., had placed two billboards along Interstate 35 just north of Osceola.

The association's agreement will remain in effect until the state decides whether to ban the signs. Thomas H. Stoner, vice president of the Stoner-McCray System in Des Moines, said Friday.

Stoner said the association's action was taken "informally" at a meeting last month. Formal action will be taken at the September meeting in Fort Madison, he said.

Stoner, chairman of the Public Service Committee of the association, Friday sent a letter to the Omaha firm requesting that they move the two signs off the interstate.

The Iowa association represents 50 per cent of the companies that erect billboards along the state's highways, Stoner said.

He said, however, the association has no way to control companies who are not members of the group.

The 1959 Iowa Legislature discussed legislation which would ban billboards along interstate highways, but no final action was taken.

States have until July 1, 1961, to ban the billboards and qualify for a federal bonus on financing of the interstate highways.

The federal government, which pays 90 per cent of the cost of the roads, is offering a bonus payment of one-half of one per cent to states banning the placement of billboards within 660 feet of the interstate right-of-way.

Des Moines Man Uninjured In Local Hotel Fire

The quick work of a Des Moines man early Friday morning saved Thomas Cranney, Fort Dodge, from possible burns when he pulled Cranney from his bed after a fire broke out in his room on the third floor of the Davis Hotel.

J. J. Mayer, who was staying in the next room, said he noticed the fire in Cranney's room and pulled him into the hallway.

Mayer went back into the room and extinguished the fire that was burning in a pile of clothes next to the bed. Firemen were called and they cleared the smoke from the third floor.

Lakeside Man Is Questioned About Woman Shot In His Home

STORM LAKE (AP) — Bernard Hintz, 53, of Lakeside, is being held for questioning in connection with the fatal shooting of Mrs. Margaret Richter.

Mrs. Richter, 48, was found dead early Friday in the home of Hintz, in the small community of Lakeside, east of Storm Lake.

Sheriff's officers and agents of the Iowa Bureau of Criminal Investigation questioned Hintz Friday and indicated they would continue today.

T. A. Thompson, chief of state Bureau Criminal Investigation said Mrs. Richter had been shot in the chest with a .32 caliber automatic pistol of foreign make. An autopsy was held in Des Moines at Mercy Hospital. It was originally thought that the woman was shot in the back.

2-Year-Old Kills Baby Sister Because She Was Jealous

WRIGHTSTOWN, N.J. (AP) — Susan Idel, 2, was very jealous of her baby sister, Marjorie, 1. Several months ago she knocked Marjorie out of her high chair, and the baby got two black eyes.

Thursday, police said, she killed the girl by dumping her out of a playpen and hitting her with a stick. She died of a fractured skull.

Farm Bureau Urges Benson To Clear Up 'Misunderstanding'

DES MOINES (AP) — The Iowa Farm Bureau Federation Friday urged U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson to clear up what it called "public misunderstanding about farmers and farm programs."

Howard Hill, president of the organization, told Benson in a letter that there have been "recent attempts to cast farmers as pampered and greedy wards of the government."

"The Department of Agriculture has rightly called attention to the inadequacies and weaknesses of existing farm legislation, but this forthrightness on agriculture's part has led to serious public misunderstanding," Hill wrote.

He said that "recent magazine articles have held up farmers as horrible examples."

CUE TODAY, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m., will contain first-hand information about current polo outbreak from Dr. Franklin Top; news about an important baseball tournament being concluded today; an interview with the student playwright whose work is current at the University Theatre; a Sports Roundtable weighing managerial changes in baseball; and comedy from "the warm-up". Nichols and May and the R... and R... segment with L... B... .

SATURDAY SUPPLEMENT, once again in the competent hands of the vacationed Emma Sue Phelps, will contain a sampling of the new recordings which have piled up while she's been gone. Other recorded items from antiquity, poetry and Mark Twain may be included. The time is 1 p.m. to 4.

TEA TIME SPECIAL takes on a curious cast this afternoon: featured will be vocalists who make a specialty of putting lyrics to the recorded instrumental improvisations of others. That's not all, however; Horace Silver, Gene Ammons (tenor-saxophone-playing son of the old Boogie Woogie pianist, Albert Ammons), Maynard Ferguson and a bunch of others will be heard.

Giants Clip Reds In 11th 8-6, Boost Lead To 1 Game

CINCINNATI (AP) — San Francisco's Giants staggered to an 8-6 extra-inning victory over the nose-diving Cincinnati Reds Friday night, increasing their slight lead in the National League.

The Redlegs had pulled even at 6-6 in the seventh inning when Vada Pinson singled and Frank Robinson socked his 19th homer of the season.

Felipe Alou led off the 11th inning with a double, moved to third on Jim Davenport's sacrifice, and scored on Willie Kirkland's sacrifice fly to break the deadlock.

Eight pitchers gave up 28 hits, featuring three Cincinnati and three Giant home runs.

Sad Sam Jones, fourth of five Giant pitchers, was the winner, his second relief victory in as many games here. Orlando Pena took the loss.

Home runs — San Francisco, Cepeda (18), Brandt (7), Mays (15), Cincinnati, Billy T. (8), Robinson (19).

Cards 9, Phils 7
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Powered by back-to-back home runs by Gene Oliver and Hal Smith and doubles by Don Blasingame and Gino Cimoli, the St. Louis Cardinals scored eight runs in the sixth inning Friday night to defeat Philadelphia 9-7.

The Cardinals banged out 9 of their total of 16 hits in the sixth of starter and loser Jim Owens who dropped his fifth straight, and relievers Dick Farrell and Humberto Robinson. They sent 13 men to the plate. Slugger Bill White entered the game hitting .348, struck out twice in the inning as he went 0-5. His average dropped to .342.

The Phillies almost pulled the game out of the fire with a three-run rally in the ninth that sent starter and winner Vinegar Bend Mizell to the showers.

Mizell gave up a leadoff single to Joe Koppe, the ninth Phillie hit, then walked Richie Ashburn.

Home runs — St. Louis, Oliver (3), H. Smith (10), Philadelphia, Koppe (11).

Pirates 7, Cubs 6
PITTSBURGH (AP) — Dick Stuart belted a three-run homer in the 11th inning Friday night to give the Pittsburgh Pirates a 7-6 come-from-behind victory over Chicago in a game marred by nine errors, six of them by the Cubs.

Stuart's blow off Don Elston cleared the center field wall. It was his 17th of the season. The Cubs had forged ahead 6-3 with a three-run outburst in the top of the 11th.

Roman Mejias reached first in the 11th for Pittsburgh on a fielder's choice. Bill Virdon then walked. Dick Groat fled out for the second out. Henry Foiles then singled Mejias with one run and Stuart stepped to the plate and belted the winning homer.

Tony Taylor, Ernie Banks and Dale Long committed all the Chicago errors — each having two apiece.

Chicago got its three markers in the 11th on a double by George Altman, singles by Bobby Thomson and Banks and a sacrifice by Randy Jackson.

Home runs — Pittsburgh, Stuart (17).

BoSox 8, Yanks 5

BOSTON (AP) — Bobby Avila and Ted Williams provided Boston with another victory over New York Friday night, 8-5, after the robust Red Sox built a five-run inning around three Yankee errors.

Avila singled and Williams doubled for the margin of difference of reliever Art Ditmar in the seventh. They had combined to drive in seven runs Thursday night as the Sox romped 14-3.

Mike Forneie pitched the final three frames for Boston, preserving the sixth victory for Tom Brewer over the Yankees in 19 decisions.

Southpaw Whitey Ford was the loser. The victim of a crumbling defense and his own miscues, Ford finished the big Boston fourth inning but went no farther.

Marty Keough, pinch hitting to lead off the Red Sox seventh, doubled high off the left field wall at which point Avila cracked his timely single to center. After Jackie Jensen singled Avila to second, Williams walloped a mighty double to center good for two more tallies.

Home runs — New York, Bauer (5), Boston, Avila (10), White (12), Ford (8-6), Robinson (6), and House (7) and White (7) — Brewer (7-5), L. Ford (8-6).
Home runs — New York, Bauer (5).

Senators 7, Orioles 6

WASHINGTON (AP) — Washington's home run sluggers struck four times Friday night for a 7-6 victory over the Baltimore Orioles.

Ken Aspromonte, Bob Allison, Heron Killebrew and Roy Sievers all connected as the Senators gave Washington pitcher Camillo Pascual a 7-2 lead.

The Orioles chased Pascual and Tex Clevenger in a 4-run rally in the eighth. Only a great leaping one-handed catch by shortstop Billy Conso on Albie Paaron's liner with a runner on third saved the Senators and their second reliever, Chuck Stobbs.

Stobbs also yielded a double to Gene Woodling and a walk to Joe Taylor in the ninth.

It was Pascual's fifth win in a row.

Indians 8, ChiSox 4

CHICAGO (AP) — The Cleveland Indians upped their American League lead to two games Friday night by defeating the Chicago White Sox 8-4 in a contest twice delayed by rain.

A drizzle which started in the fourth inning broke into a down-pour in the sixth after the Indians had broken a 3-3 tie and taken a 5-3 lead and halted play one hour and seven minutes.

A crowd of 41,588 saw Cal McLish overcome a rocky start to record his 11th triumph in 14 decisions although he needed help in the eighth inning from Gary Bell.

Minnie Minoso, Tito Francona and Rocky Colavito wrecked Chicago starter Early Wynn's hopes for his 12th triumph. Instead Wynn suffered his sixth loss when the same Cleveland trio drove him from the mound in the fifth inning with three straight singles which blossomed into two runs to snap the 3-3 tie.

Cleveland iced the contest with three runs in the ninth and as the Sox came to bat the game was delayed another nine minutes by rain.

Home runs — Washington, Aspromonte (2), Allison (22), Killebrew (29), Sievers (10).

Tigers 5, A's 2

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Jim Bunning halted Detroit's six-game losing streak Friday night as he pitched the Tigers to a 5-2 victory over the Kansas City Athletics.

The big right-hander permitted only seven hits, including Jerry Lumpe's homer in the fourth inning which scored both of the Athletics' runs. Bunning struck out eight and walked two as he ran his won-lost record to 8-6.

Ted Lepcio hit a two-run circuit smash in the sixth off reliever Bob Grim that proved to be the deciding blow. Grim, who absorbed his sixth loss against five wins, had come on for Howie Reed who developed a blister on his pitching hand after going five innings.

Home runs — Detroit, Lepcio (3), Kansas City, Lumpe (3).

Commission Suspend Patterson For 30 Days After Knockout Loss

NEW YORK (AP) — Former heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson's knockout loss to Sweden's Ingemar Johansson June 26 brought him an automatic 30-day suspension by the New York Athletic Commission. It's a rule of the commission that a fighter who is stopped must be suspended for 30 days. Then he must undergo a physical examination.

Cohn Loses In Semifinal Of Western

CHICAGO (AP) — Marge Lindsay of Decatur, Ill., 34-year-old former Curtis Cup player, and 20-year-old Jo Anne Gunderson of Seattle Friday battled into the finals of the Women's Western Amateur Golf Tournament.

Miss Lindsay, daughter of a newspaper publisher and winner of the Western crown in 1951, eliminated Barbara Williams, 20-year-old California state champion from Richmond, 2-up in Thursday's semifinals.

Miss Gunderson, sturdy blonde who won the 1957 national amateur title, trimmed Andy Cohn of Waterloo, Iowa, 19-year-old Northwestern University sophomore, 3 and 2.

Miss Gunderson and Miss Lindsay have met only once before on the tournament trail. Miss Lindsay, five-time Illinois state titleist, trounced the Arizona State physical education major 5 and 4 in the second round of the 1958 Trans-Miss at Springfield, Mo., and went on to win the championship.

Miss Gunderson was one-under-par in eliminating the erratic putting Miss Cohn. She turned the first nine in 2-under-par 35 for a 4-up margin after firing four birdies.

Miss Cohn used up 20 putts, including misses of 3 and 5 feet.

Miss Lindsay, a cross-handed putter, authored her best golf of the tournament to sideline her youthful opponent, who is a dental assistant in Berkeley.

Miss Lindsay was 4-over-par for the distance, and her opponent was 6 over.

Jordan Decisions Moyer, Retains Welterweight Title

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Don Jordan banged out a unanimous decision over young Denny Moyer of Portland to retain his world welterweight championship Friday night.

Jordan scored heavily with hooks and uppercuts and had Moyer bleeding from the second round on. By the sixth round it seemed a question of only whether the 19-year-old challenger could go the distance.

But Moyer pulled up reserve strength in the closing rounds and the bout went without a knockdown.

The closest to a knockdown came in the eighth round when Jordan staggered the Portland challenger with a series of hooks that had Moyer holding on.

In that round, as in several others, the champion from Los Angeles knocked Moyer's mouthpiece out. Blood flowed freely from Moyer's nose and mouth.

Moyer's best weapon against Jordan was a left jab. Occasionally Moyer also sneaked over a right cross but it became apparent early that Moyer did not have the strength to hold off the champion.

All the officials scored it as a lopsided victory for Jordan. The most rounds credited to Moyer by any official was five by Judge Ralph Grumman. The other judge and the referee each gave Moyer only three rounds.

Interest in the bout was heightened when it became known that Mickey Cohen, whose reported underworld connections bring police attention everywhere he goes, had visited Jordan at 1 a.m.

Cohen, who said he had a casual acquaintance with Jordan and was interested in the fighter, sat 15 rows from the ring. There was more police surveillance at the fight than is customary, presumably because of Cohen's presence.

For Jordan, it was his 46th victory against 11 losses. He now has won 11 in a row.

For Moyer it was the first defeat after 20 professional fights and it ended Moyer's hopes of becoming the youngest welterweight champion on record.

Inter-Loop Swap Rule, 3rd League Group Set By Majors

CHICAGO (AP) — The major leagues Friday approved again the inter-league trading rule, then announced appointment of a committee to deal with any group seeking to establish a third major league.

The controversial inter-league measure was approved in a whirlwind 14-minute night meeting, one of the shortest in major league baseball history.

Commissioner Ford Frick opposed the rule when it was first approved in December and asked the leagues to reconsider their action. He said neither the National nor the American leagues had changed its vote today.

The American voted 7-1 in favor and the National 5-3.

Frick said he did not view passage of the rule as "anything personal."

"If they want it, they have it," said Frick. "I don't know if it will work out or not, but I hope it does."

The new rule allows teams from the two leagues to trade with each other from Nov. 21 to Dec. 15 without obtaining waivers on players involved from member clubs of their own league.

Frick, one of the seven members appointed to the committee to deal with groups seeking a third league, said:

"In my opinion, a committee of this size and experience should prove the most satisfactory contact for such a group for obtaining information about major league operations and discussing their applications for a major league status."

The owners and representatives of the various teams were reluctant to discuss the possibilities of a third league. The general attitude appeared to be "let's wait and see what happens."

A Merry-Go-Round And Cotton Candy Means—

It's Carnival Time Again

'Ahh, A Cotton Candy Stand'

Glamorous Equestrienne

"Fun for young and old, from nine to ninety," was the barker's cry, and Carolyn Parks, A2, Maquoketa, took him at his word.

Carolyn, who is spending part of the summer with her sister and brother-in-law in Iowa City, was a member of the queen's court during the Mecca Ball last semester. For perhaps their most pleasant assignment in many a day, Daily Iowan photographers Jerry Smith and Jim Davies enthusiastically agreed to photograph her summer fun as she wandered from booth to booth at Schafer's 20th Century Shows, now appearing at the Lucas showgrounds here.

Carolyn led the camera-laden photographers to the cotton candy stand, the merry-go-round, and the baseball throwing booth. With a terrific windup and a fireball toss, she sent the photographers scampering as wooden "milk bottles" went flying in all directions. She wore a smile from ear to ear, as she walked away with her prize—a black and white teddy-bear almost half her size.

'300 Calories, So What?'

With her fuzzy prize to keep her company, Carolyn stepped aboard a whirling, spinning ride worthy of a place in a space flight training program, and tumbled over and over and over. The teddy bear was still black and white when the pair emerged from the cage-like compartment, but Carolyn had taken of a slight shade of green under her freckles. Another cotton candy, a bottle of pop, and an ice cream bar later, she felt her old self again, but the footsore photographers decided they'd had enough.

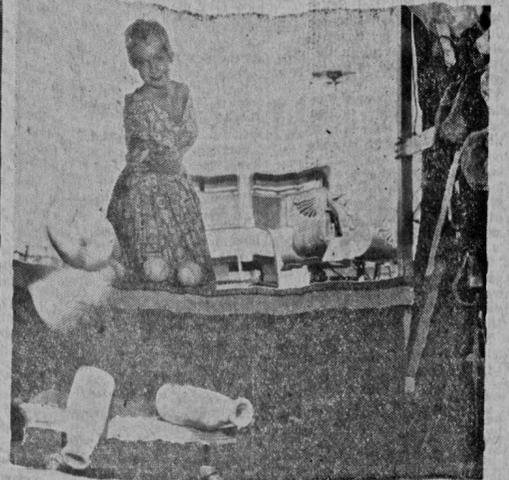

Today is the last day of the carnival's stay in Iowa City. Carolyn thinks she'll return this afternoon for another pink lemonade and perhaps one more spin on the merry-go-round.

Brush Fire Rages In California's Laurel Canyon

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP) — A brush fire roared out of control Friday in the tinder-dry Laurel Canyon area where many movie celebrities and writers make their homes.

All available fire equipment was rushed into the area.

Fire officials said at least three homes in the fashionable rustic hills were burned and many more were threatened.

The blaze broke out in the Look-out Mountain section, high in the rugged foothills that separate Hollywood from the San Fernando Valley.

Roads leading to the canyon on both sides of the rugged hills were clogged with traffic and fire fighting companies reported difficulty getting equipment into the area.

The Los Angeles Fire Department described the blaze as a major disaster.

Record-smashing heat steamed up California for the second straight day.

Eye-watering smog hit the Los Angeles and San Francisco areas.

Los Angeles' 103 shortly after noon made it the hottest day of the year. Nearby Sunland had 107.

San Francisco's 92 at noon made it the hottest July 10 on record.

3 Roosevelt Youngsters See President's Office, Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. James Roosevelt, (D-Calif.), took his three children to the White House Friday for a visit with President Eisenhower and a first look at the office once occupied by their grandfather.

The youngsters — James Jr., 13, Michael, 12, and Anna Eleanor, 10 — came away with their hands full of souvenirs. Eisenhower gave each of them a silver dollar minted in 1890, the year of his birth, a ball point pen inscribed with his name, and packets of matches with a White House insignia.

The congressman, son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, told newsmen his children are seeing Washington for the first time. Their home is in Pasadena, Calif.

"I wrote to the President and asked if they could have the privilege of seeing the office where their grandfather once was," Roosevelt said.

He added that Eisenhower replied he would be happy to have the youngsters visit him.

Butler—Continue For Active Party

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Post Friday quoted Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler as saying he intends to continue to work "for a party organization that will be positive and aggressive on the great public questions of the day."

The Post, in a story by Washington Correspondent Robert G. Spivack, said Butler stated that his primary purpose is to create a political climate favorable to the election of a Democratic president in 1960, regardless of who he may be.

Butler has sharply criticized his fellow Democrats in recent weeks for bowing to President Eisenhower's wishes on legislation in an attempt to avoid vetoes. In return, he has been criticized by important party leaders.
