A Not-So-Gentle Reminder

Local Motorists Get Safety Check Today

All motorists in Iowa City today are encouraged to take part in a free 10-point vehicle safety check sponsored by the Iowa City Jaycees.

The President Trades Shoes—

'Now If I Were Mr. K...'

By TOM LAMBERT

PARIS (HTNS) — In combat of any kind — political, athletic or military — the leaders of both sides often try to project themselves into their foe's shoes.

President Kennedy, the leader of the Western Alliance, tried publicly Friday to put himself into the shoes of Nikita Khrushchev.

Asked at his news conference how he would appraise Mr. Kennedy if he were Mr. Khrushchev, the President replied, almost grimly: "I suppose if I were in Mr. Khrushchev's place . . . and had lived his life . . . I would look to the West and I would see a good deal of reports of disagreement."

"I would see where all Western leaders may not agree on every issue. I would see where distinguished American correspondents who speak with great influence take a different view on what actions the United States should take."

a kind of vitality and also projects individual liberty.

Abandoning Mr. Khrushchev's shoes and resuming his own identity, the President said he disagreed with the Communists who conclude "from the events of the last 15 years" that the tide of history is veering inexorably to the left.

Even now, he went on, "rather strange relationships" have developed within the Communist bloc, between Albania and China, between Yugoslavia, Albania and Russia.

If Communism extends its borders, he speculated, the nations under the Red flag would be plagued by "the same rivalries which we now see already in evidence."

But the West must not permit Communism to make more gains for the sake of proving in the end that Communism is wrong, the President said.

"So, I may say as I said at the beginning, I go to Vienna with more confidence as a result of my last two days," Mr. Kennedy concluded.

The President's audience applauded lengthily. That reply was the only one of his responses to 13 questions which was cheered heartily.

3 Colleges To Honor Graduates

Three SUI colleges will honor seniors the evening before Commencement exercises June 9.

The College of Dentistry will hold its annual convocation in Macbride Auditorium at 8 p.m., June 8. Fifty candidates for the degree, doctor of dental surgery, will be presented, and 32 coeds will receive certificates of dental hygiene.

The College of Medicine convocation will be held in Iowa Memorial Union at 8 p.m. the same evening. The 96 candidates for degrees will hear an address by Ted McCarrel, SUI executive dean for Student Services.

Award winners from the College of Medicine will also be announced. A senior dinner for the College of Pharmacy will be at 6:30 p.m. June 8 in the River Room of the Union.

Mourners Restrained by Police

Police hold back spectators across the street from San Cristobal church outside Ciudad Trujillo in the Dominican Republic today during funeral services for the assassinated Gen. Rafael Trujillo.

One Assassin Slain; Mastermind Escapes

CIUDAD TRUJILLO, Dominican Republic — The Dominican armed forces of young Rafael Trujillo Jr. announced Friday the assassination of his father has been partly avenged by the slaying of one assassin and capture of three others by special agents.

But the military conceded that the accused mastermind, ex-Brig. Gen. Juan Tomas Diaz, got away, and said he is being hunted.

The announcement came as a dramatic aftermath of a massive funeral in tribute to the old dictator, Generalissimo Rafael Trujillo Sr., 69, who was cut down from a helicopter Tuesday night.

The military statement said one assassin was machinegunned to death Thursday while firing at special agents from behind an aunt in whose home he was found hiding here. It said another was seized in the home of a Roman Catholic priest.

Despite an old feud between the Trujillos and the church over repressive measures under the dictatorship, the slain feudal ruler was given Catholic funeral rites at his home city, San Cristobal, 23 miles from the capital.

Efforts went ahead here to give the old Trujillo dictatorship a future under 32-year-old Lt. Gen. Rafael Jr. and the nominal government chiefs who served his father, Rafael Sr., was a year-old infant when Rafael Sr. took over in 1930.

Rafael Jr. — a colonel by appointment of his dying father at 3 and a brigadier general at 9 — became chief of the air, sea and land forces Thursday night by decision of the government heads.

Late Friday afternoon, after the funeral, Rafael Jr. was confirmed in the newly created post by unanimous vote — 24-0 in the Senate and 60-0 in the Chamber of Deputies.

From elsewhere in the Americas, nations that put this country outside their pale because of its totalitarian character openly expressed misgivings.

The United States asked the Organization of American States to send a watchdog team here to head off what it called a reported wave of terror since the assassination. The OAS group in charge of penalties sanctions against offending nations then decided to meet again early next week.

More than 60 persons, including three Socialist deputies and a number of policemen, were injured in the first major anti-Government riots since last summer when demonstrators forced cancellation of a goodwill trip here by President Eisenhower.

With the leftist People's Council Against the U.S.-Japan Security Treaty threatening new outbreaks Saturday, police stationed 5,000 helmeted guards around Parliament Friday night for all-night protection of the building.

Police estimated 18,000 to 21,000 demonstrators led by the people's council converged on Parliament where the anti-violence bill was approved by a committee of the lower house.

Some 3,500 police were mobilized to stop the demonstrators from storming the Parliament compounds.

Scuffles resulted in an estimated 20 injuries in Tokyo, most of them police who were stoned by the students.

In the city of Kyoto 43 students were injured, five seriously, when demonstrators clashed with police during a protest demonstration. Seven police were injured.

The anti-violence bill is aimed at controlling all acts of political government party, it is supported by the moderate Democratic-Socialists.

It is to be submitted to the lower house Saturday for approval.

Threatens Leaders With Jail Terms

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A Federal judge who threatened Negro and white leaders alike with prison terms ordered "Freedom Riders" Friday to halt their racial challenge in Alabama until further notice.

In a series of sweeping decrees, U.S. Dist. Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr. also put Montgomery police and a former reserve policeman under stern injunctions against bus violence, with indefinite prison sentences as the penalty for violation.

He also left in effect, until further court action, a restraining order issued earlier prohibiting the Ku Klux Klan and three individuals from any future violence against Freedom Riders or any other interstate bus passengers.

Although he put the blame for the recent race rioting in Montgomery and elsewhere in Alabama squarely on the Klan — and charged police with "willful failure" to prevent violence, Johnson was critical of Negro leaders and Freedom Rider organizations, too.

He said the segregation — challenging bus trips through Alabama — are directly causing an undue burden and restraint upon interstate commerce.

A few hours before the judge ruled, a Trailways bus left Montgomery with half a dozen Freedom Riders for Jackson, Miss.

On arrival in Jackson three white persons in the group went to the Negro waiting room, the first time white persons have sought to integrate the Negro waiting room.

Three Negroes went directly to the white waiting room. Police arrested all six.

Denouncing the Freedom Rides as "agitation" and "nonbonafide interstate trips," Johnson declared, "those who sponsor, finance and encourage groups to come into this area with the knowledge that such publicized trips will foment violence . . . are just as effective in causing an obstruction" to interstate travel as the mobs themselves.

He issued a temporary restraining order against four Freedom Riders organizations including the Congress on Racial Equality — and five Negro leaders, and "all persons acting in concert with them."

The injunction, which will remain in effect at least until a hearing set for June 12, prohibits the Freedom Rider groups from: "sponsoring, financing, assisting or encouraging any individual or groups of individuals in traveling in interstate commerce through or in Alabama for the purpose of testing the state or local laws as those laws relate to racial segregation."

Johnson also restrained the Freedom Ride sponsors from any other act "designed to cause violence upon, or threats toward" interstate bus passengers, or anything else which obstructs the movement "of bona fide interstate passengers."

In New York, CORE said it will appeal Johnson's order to the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

The action against the Freedom Rider group came at the request of attorneys for the police department. All other injunctive measures were requested by the Justice Department.

Dent Courses Set for June

Concurrent courses in basic oral surgery and restorative dentistry will be sponsored by the SUI College of Dentistry in June.

The course in restorative dentistry will be June 5-7. It will include three phases — operative dentistry, diagnosis and treatment in crown and bridge dentistry, and work with removable partial dentures.

The basic oral surgery course, June 5-8, will use closed-circuit television to demonstrate surgical procedures. The course is designed to enable the general practitioner to keep abreast of developments in oral surgery.

The final day of the oral surgery course, June 8, will be devoted to an advisory panel to plan a new series of social studies achievement tests for use in junior- and senior high school courses.

The program was arranged by Dr. James H. Wick, head of operative dentistry; Dr. Ralph C. Appleby, head of prosthetic dentistry, and Dr. Keith E. Thayer, head of crown and bridge.

Dr. D. E. Waite, head of the Department of Oral Surgery, is coordinator for the basic oral surgery course.

Berra Homers Twice As Yanks Beat ChiSox

CHICAGO (AP) — Two home runs by Yogi Berra and another by Roger Maris helped southpaw Whitey Ford and the New York Yankees inflict a 6-2 defeat on the Chicago White Sox Friday night.

Ford gained his seventh triumph of the season and his first against the White Sox since July 19, 1959. During that period the Sox had beaten Ford five times.

Ford was reached for a two-run homer by Al Smith in the first inning but settled down after that, scattering a total of seven hits.

A 5-2 Yankee lead fashioned in the first four innings was never in jeopardy.

Berra started the Yankee scoring with a homer in the second inning and the New Yorkers picked up three more in the third on a sacrifice fly by Tony Kubek and Maris' homer with a man on.

Berra walloped his other homer to open the fourth inning.

Tigers Drub Twins 2-0

DETROIT (AP) — Jim Bunning pitched a strong four-hitter and home runs by Rocky Colavito and Al Kaline carried the veteran Detroit right-hander to a 2-0 victory over the Minnesota Twins Friday night.

Bunning, victim of poor batting support in most of his previous 11 starts, needed only Colavito's 13th home run off the facing of the upper deck in left field in the second inning. Kaline hit his fourth to almost the same spot in the sixth.

The defeat was the sixth in a row for the Twins and their 11th in 12 games.

Wertz' Last Ditch Homer Lifts Boston Past Orioles

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Red Sox, on a long two-run homer by old pro Vic Wertz, pulled out a 4-2 triumph over the Baltimore Orioles in the ninth inning Friday night.

The smash came after Jim Pagliaroni drew the second walk given up by the Birds' Billy Hoelt. Tom Brewer ran for Pagliaroni and trotted home ahead of Wertz.

The victory was the third in as many tries for Don Schwall, only recently recalled from Seattle of the Pacific Coast League.

Thus, youth and age served the Sox. Schwall at 23 is the youngest player on the Boston roster, and Wertz at 36, the oldest.

The Sox, hitless through the first four innings, crashed through for a 1-1 tie in the fifth and seemingly had the game won when they scored another in the eighth.

But in the ninth with one out, Ron Hansen tripled and scored on Whitey Herzog's single, setting the stage for Wertz's blow.

4 Hawkeye Track Standouts To Run in Marquette Classic

By Staff Writer
Four members of Iowa's track team will compete in the Central Collegiate track and field meet today at Marquette University in Milwaukee.

They are Gary Fischer and Ralph Trimble, half-milers; Don Gardner, hurdler; and Cloyd Webb, discus thrower.

The meet, annually held at Marquette, is being staged there for the final time, as Marquette is dropping track from its athletic program in 1962.

Fischer was a runner-up in the Big Ten 800-yard run in the outdoor meet at Iowa City two weeks ago. The lanky sophomore was the Big Ten indoor champion in the 1,000-yard run. He set an SUI indoor record last winter of 1:54.9 in the half-mile.

Trimble, also a sophomore, will compete in the 800 and possibly 1 mile. He finished fifth in the Big Ten 800 this year, and placed in the Big Ten indoor mile run.

Gardner will run both the high and low hurdle events. He took fourth in the conference 220-yard low hurdles with a time of :23.9, his personal best.

Webb holds the Iowa record in the discus, 162.3. He defeated defending Big Ten champion Larry Schmalenberger of Ohio State in a dual meet, but then lost to Schmalenberger the following week in the Big Ten meet.

Top mid-western colleges and universities entered in the meet are Kansas, Western Michigan, Michigan State, Notre Dame, Iowa, and Indiana.

The 800-yard run should be one of the top events, with Notre Dame's Ron Gregory, Western Michigan's Jon Bork, Michigan's Ergas Leps, and Kansas' Bill Dotson all fighting for the crown. All have run the event in less than 1:50.

Several Iowa runners who placed in the Big Ten meet were scheduled to run but had to cancel out because of final examination conflicts.
