May Go to Jury Today—
Counsel Questions
Leanna's Morals

By Dar Perek

Defendant—The moral character and reputation of reconciliation of her marriage to Joseph Stalin was paraded before witnesses yesterday.
Joe Stalin is the name of the District Court.

Leanna Joly, 25, of Des Moines, who is suspected of being married to Joseph Stalin, is upset.

Stalin was an extremist character and is said to have been married to Leanna Joly.

"And after breaking up with him, " said Mrs. Joly, "I became a reformed character and am now living with my husband." She said that Stalin had been an extremist character and had been married to Leanna Joly.

Stalin was an extremist character and was known for his anti-social behavior. He was married to Leanna Joly.

S. Viet Nam Launches Offensive Against Reds

HANOI, South Viet Nam—In the cradle of Communism in the Far East, M. Banda, 35, launched a surprise offensive against the United States. Banda, who has been under attack by the United States since the start of the war, has now turned the tables on the American military.

Banda's forces have moved into the heart of the United States, attacking major cities and infrastructure. The United States has deployed its forces to contain the threat, but so far, the American military has not been able to stop the advance.

The offensive has been met with an immediate response from the United States. The United States has vowed to attack Banda's forces and has requested additional military support from allies.

Scores Dead As Algerians

Celebrate 7th Year of War

ALGERIA—Scores of Algerians celebrated the 7th anniversary of the war with France today. The war has claimed over 1,000 deaths, with thousands more injured.

The French have been attempting to suppress the Algerian uprising for over 7 years, but so far, they have been unable to defeat the Algerians. The war is now at a stalemate, with both sides showing no signs of giving up.

The Algerians are planning to continue the war until the French leave and establish a national, non-partisan government.

U.S. Silent on N-Bomb

President Johnson has yet to make a decision on the use of the nuclear bomb. The decision is expected to be made in the next few weeks, with
the United States
preparing for a possible nuclear attack.

Johnson has been under pressure to use the nuclear bomb to aid in the war, but so far, he has refused.

On the other hand, the Soviet Union has recently threatened to use nuclear weapons if the United States
attacked them.

The Soviet Union has a larger nuclear arsenal
than the United States, and they have vowed to use it if necessary.

The United States and the Soviet Union are currently engaged in a nuclear arms
build-up, with each side building more and more nuclear warheads.

The situation is highly sensitive, and a nuclear war could result in the destruction of the world.

I.C. Women Join Peace Plea

Hundreds of women gathered Wednesday at the gates of the State University of Iowa in Iowa City, Iowa, to demand peace.

They carried signs calling for an end to nuclear testing and observed a moment of silence.

The protest was organized by the Iowa Women's Peace League.

The League is a grassroots organization that works to end nuclear weapons.

The League believes that nuclear weapons are a danger to humanity and that the only way to end them is to make peace.

The League is working to educate the public about the dangers of nuclear weapons and to encourage people to take action to end
them.

The League is planning to organize more protests
in the future, and they are encouraging others to join them in their efforts.

The League is also working to influence government policy on nuclear weapons.

The League is calling on
the United States
and other governments to negotiate a ban on nuclear weapons.

The League is working to build a community
of peace.

The League is a non-profit organization that is funded entirely by memberships
and donations.

The League is run by members of

Where Does Ground Hog Day Fit In?

It is just now. A bit annoyingly, I still believe that the groundhog day celebration is just as fun as it once was. Why? Because there is nothing cooler than a groundhog day party. Every party has a theme, and I think that the groundhog is an ideal choice for this theme. It is fun and it is easy to make decorations that look like groundhogs. And let's face it, who doesn't love a good pun? So let's get into the spirit and have some fun at our next groundhog day party.

A Quick Answer

The 8th annual Whose Mailed to the United States' annual stamp sale is on the way. The sale, which began in 1992, is a popular event that attracts collectors from across the country. This year's theme, "In Haste and in Heart," is a quick, plain reply. Within two days Monroe set off the formidable monster, Nick Khrushchev has been breathing.

The definition of the strongly argued wishes of virtually all the non-communist world is a worthy one. It does not prove that the Soviet Union can make more than the status of "other stuff". He implies that the Soviet Union has embarked on a new effort in propaganda. It indicates rather that other connotations were overwhelming.

There is no viable military necessity for the big test. Its purpose appears to be political. In that sense, we should know whether there is no doubt with Mr. Khrushchev's challenge to the Chinese and to the United States. It will help to reduce national hatred already with atomic intensity.

We must hope that multitudes will become more national in their approach to military testing. They seem to ignore other weapons of mass destruction. They make an authoritative between ticks which produce fanning and those which do not. They are bigger to the world. But that 800 ton 'flying bomb' will not touch the tremendous stockpiles of nuclear weapons. They tend to exaggerate the present known dangers from fallout.

Even so, there is ample ground for profits against Monroe's multiplying of megatons. Before the 1959 manned all the powers had tested over 100 megatons. In the 1960s, the United States alone would have increased the atmosphere with more than 110 megatons. Even if there is to be any chance of a viable three year cycle in science.

Still Stumps Illinois Solons

SPRINGFIELD, III.—At a House Ways and Means Committee hearing yesterday, Illinois Sen. George A. Steen, R-Washington, Ill., and his colleagues in the Senate Ways and Means Committee began to examine the implications of the Illinois budget crisis at a time when it was feared that the constitutional convention of 1970 would be the only way out.

A committee of the House Ways and Means Committee has been trying to determine the implications of the Illinois budget crisis at a time when it was feared that the constitutional convention of 1970 would be the only way out.

The Illinois budget crisis is the result of a series of cuts in state spending and a decline in tax revenue. The state has been forced to cut back on its spending on education, health care, and social services.

Hayes Has Bucks Drilling in Dark

COLUMBUS, Ohio - Coach Bob Hayes has kept the Ohio State Buckeyes on the practice field for the last two weeks with the team working hard on a winning attitude and building confidence. Joe Spence and Jack Shopene, Ohio State's co-captains, have shown that attitude to the Buckeyes. The Buckeyes are in the conference race for the first time in several years.

Witten will battle St. Mary's in an attempt to move the conference mark of 500 for the season. The Buckeyes are 5-1 in the conference, 7-2 overall.

Career Cues

“Hitch your wagon to a ‘growth industry’—and grow with it!”

Douglas Leigh, President

Douglas Leigh, Inc.

“Growth industry is a new industry that is on the way up—growing very, very fast. When you join a company in one of the growth fields you have something extra working for you—you give up with it. To find out which industry is right for you, try this: Ask someone in a good investment office to give you a list of the industries he considers growth industries. Data processing, plastic, and electronics are a few examples. Then pick the one you have a heating around, and get the names of the most progressive companies in that field.

One thing I’d like to point out from my own career is a growth industry may also be an old business that’s on the verge of new development. Shortly after leaving college I found this situation in the Outdoor Advertising field. What my associates and I did was to employ color, action and motion to dramatically promote the products, brands or services being advertised. In doing so, we developed the modern type ‘Stimulators’ that included: smoke rings, soup bubbles, etc.—signs that changed the face of Broadway and the famous Times Square area.

This is just one example. The really important thing to remember is this: When you set your sights on a career, aim for an industry that is going to grow, so you can grow with it. It’s the difference between a market that leaves off, and one that just sits there. Good luck!”
LADY WAS ON BROADWAY

11 Years Later, Play Opens on SUI Stage

By TOM CALLON

Staff Writer

“The Lady’s Not for Burning” will open at the SUI Stage Theatre Nov. 6—exactly 11 years after its Broadway opening.

The play, a witty satire by Christopher Fry examining the conflict between the death wish and the life force, was the Critics Circle citation on the best play of 1953.

STUDENTS may get free tickets by presenting their ID cards at the East Lobby desk of the SUI Memorial Union beginning Tuesday. General admission is 75 cents.

“The Lady’s Not for Burning” is the story of a lady at home as a witch by the supernatural citizens of a 16th-Century English town. Her friends are accused of witchcraft, but she is in the midst of a love affair, and her life falls into disorder.

The result is, according to the theater review, “a comedy in which the departure is the immediate time to be solved and the solution.”

In the tradition of Stratford Theatre, there will be no complete sets and no elaborate costumes, as such settings are considered mere windows. Everything will be styled to be its essential, said director F. E. W. Sharp, who is in charge of the production and who is the only person who can tell the story in the way that he wanted to tell it.

The cast will include Sir Michael Rennie as the Lady, and there are no props not specifically needed in the action.

“The play” is continued, “in adapted to the stage ways, language and style, and it doesn’t depend on a lighting prop, or even.

Since the setting is real time, the audience will see the real creativity in the imagination.

Stratford Theatre in the Old English is centered around the audience.

Learne the ‘The Lady’s Not Burning’ the other cast members of whom the audience will see, and who will serve as a non-continuous musician.

“Is a one of the one camera and the necessary beauty to serve the audience.”

Learne, who is doing the play as a part of his own’s, will be the one to continue his own’s, with his own’s, and the audience of whom the audience will see.

This is essentially an exhibition of the audience’s, and Learne said: “Is very short the world on earth and love and love makes it impossible.”

Corduroy Three-for-All

This fourth sportswear is utterly a "world-class" three-piece suit. Notice the molded jacket in itself is a spacious sport. You'd go for the natural flannel, popped pockets, and back vent. Matching corduroy slacks are worn with it, and comes to it. As with the Three-for-All it is kitted in all kinds of combinations—like the suit of the overcoat in any shade and color.
Soviets Now Show IDs at Berlin Line

By LARRY MATHEWS

When the three Negro women were arrested at the Berlin Wall yesterday, they did not know that what they were doing was not only illegal but potentially dangerous. The moment they crossed the border from the Eastern Bloc, they became American citizens.

The three women were the first to be arrested for attempting to cross from East Germany into West Berlin in over 20 years. Their arrest came as a shock to many who had been unaware of the increased tensions between the two countries.

The women were detained for several hours before being allowed to return to East Germany. It is not clear why they were brought to the attention of authorities.

The incident highlights the ongoing tensions between the two countries and the difficulties that many people face when trying to cross from one side to the other.

Mitchell Trio Does More Than Entertain

Conveys New Ideas in Song

The Mitchell Trio, which appeared on Thursday night at the Civic Auditorium, featured a charming blend of vocal and instrumental talent. The group, composed of Mrs. Mary B. Mitchell, her daughter, Mrs. Mary C. Mitchell, and Mrs. Jane E. Mitchell, captivated the audience with a repertoire of songs that showcased their versatility and musical range.

The program included a variety of genres, from classical to folk, and the trio's harmonies were harmonious and well-balanced. The performances were accompanied by skillful guitar and mandolin playing, adding depth and emotion to their renditions.

One highlight of the evening was the trio's arrangement of a traditional folk song, which was performed with a soulful and rhythmic beat that drew the audience into the music. Another standout was their rendition of a classical piece, demonstrating the trio's ability to adapt and interpret music across different styles.

The Mitchell Trio's performance was not only musically impressive but also an ode to the timeless nature of the human voice and its ability to connect with listeners. Their dedication to their craft and the passion they brought to the stage were evident in every note they played and every phrase they sang.

The trio's seamless transitions between songs and their ability to engage the audience made for an evening of entertainment that was both enjoyable and thought-provoking. Their talent and dedication to their craft make them an ensemble that is not only entertaining but also a testament to the enduring power of music.
