Auction Project AID Items at Union Tonight

By JOAN ANDERSON
Staff Writer

Money and cigar packages will be of great value tonight as the Student Senate opens its Project AID (Assist Iowa Development) auction in the Main Lounge of the Union at 7:30.

One of the items to be auctioned is a $200 scholarship which the Phillip Morris company will award to the housing unit bidding the greatest number of their company's cigar packages.

The remainder of the items will require money bids. The majority of the SUI housing units have contributed items for the auction.

Gifts include a piano, the services of an entire pledge class for one day, the Interfraternity Council flag, the Irish flag which hung on the engineering building tower last St. Patrick's Day, and a football and a basketball autographed by the SUI teams.

Most Iowa City merchants have contributed merchandise to the auction. The display case outside of the Union Gold Feather Room contains some of them.

One of the auction items of SUI traditional value is Nile Kinnick's crutch which is being contributed by the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

Kennick was an All-American SUI back who won the Heisman Trophy for best player in the country in 1939.

All proceeds from the auction will go to the Project AID scholarship fund. Auctioneers will be Ron Anderson, A3, Dyke, and Robert Hines, A3, Harlan.

Ticket sales for the Jan. 9 performance of the Four Freshmen will begin tonight at the auction. Reserved seat tickets are $3 and general admission tickets $2. The Freshman concert is being sponsored by the Hillcrest Association with the profits to go to AID.

Forming a fourth branch of Government as a new instrument for bringing about fair reapportionment of state legislatures was proposed Thursday evening by Prof. Charles S. Hyneman of Indiana University in the last of four Shambaugh lectures he has given this week.

The subject for the lecture was "Making Democracy Safe for the Nation."

Hyneman said he favors self-restraint by judges in all cases except those which challenge our democratic character. He said aggressive judicial review should be confined to those cases where the democratic character of our Government is at stake.

Because the democratic process is still evolving, Hyneman said we seem to need an additional instrument of government to make sure of an equitable distribution of executive branches of Government.

However, the commission which he suggests would have to permit the courts to stay out of political activity and in so doing retain public confidence that they are scrupulously impartial.

Fair representation in legislative bodies is at the very core of the democratic process, Hyneman said. Yet the notorious reluctance of American state legislators to reapportion their own seats is explainable because the legislator personally may suffer great loss of advantage if he supports the changes in legislative apportionment which a sound democratic principle requires.

"What judges can do to compel reapportionment of legislatures may be tested in the near future. Suits are pending, both in the U.S. Supreme Court and one or more state supreme courts, which may result in judicial orders for a reassignment of legislative seats," said Hyneman.

The commission which Hyneman proposed would not order the legislature to reapportion its seats. It

JFK Hints He'll Run Again in 1964

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — President Kennedy indicated Thursday he had already decided to seek a second term in the White House.

He gave the hint in an off-the-cuff remark he made to a national meeting of young Democrats.

Kennedy said he was not appearing to ask their help in the 1962 and 1964 elections. He drew cheers and shouts of approval when he added:

"I'll do that then."

Local police said the ring operated out of the Davenport-Moline-Rock Island area of Illinois and Iowa. All but one of those arrested are from that vicinity.

The trap that netted the seven was sprung after an investigation started last July when The Andersons uncovered a 50,000-bushel soybean shortage.

The FBI entered the probe to determine if any federal statutes were violated.

Apprehended Wednesday night in addition to Krana, McNutt and Hawk were Harold R. Melvin, 32, Moline; Clarence L. Cole, 42, Davenport, and Richard E. Murphy, 36, of St. Joseph, Mo.

All will be arraigned Friday before County Judge Fred Carpenter.

Swaner, a former member of the Iowa Highway Commission, spoke at a breakfast to 55 C. of C. members. He said that the North Dubuque Street interchange specifically should be supported.

A group of Iowa City residents in the North Dubuque area have circulated petitions asking for the abandonment of the interchange. Another group has been collecting signatures on petitions opposing such abandonment.

Swaner said that a traffic count on North Dubuque is running higher than was indicated when the interchange was proposed.

Swaner added that Congressman Fred Schwengel (R-Iowa) is "trying to please everyone" and should be "told that the interchange problem here is our problem and not his." Schwengel recently demanded another traffic count on North Dubuque.

Eliminating one or more of the proposed interchanges would divert traffic onto other streets, Swaner said. He pointed out that "Dubuque street is narrow, North Dodge street is narrow, and so is Highway No. 1."

"If you cut out the proposed North Dubuque street interchange, you divert more traffic onto both North Dodge street and Highway No. 1. There are schools on both of these roads."

Swaner cited the development of the reservoir recreation areas north of Iowa City as a big factor in the need for several interchanges.

19 Nations Support U.S. on China Vote

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — Nineteen Latin American countries pledged support Thursday to a U.S. move to force a two-thirds majority on the China representation issue, a maneuver expected to keep the Chinese Communists out of the United Nations.

U. S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson met with members of the Latin American group and informed sources said all but Cuba were prepared to support the U.S. resolution to declare the China issue an "important question," requiring a two-thirds majority.

The Latin American support was believed enough to insure the simple majority required to call for a two-thirds vote in the showdown. While other observers predicted at least 56 votes for the move, U.S. sources were unwilling to predict the size of the favorable margin.

FBI Probes $180,000 Truck Swindle

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — The FBI and Iowa authorities joined Thursday night in a spreading investigation into a $180,000 swindle allegedly carried out by seven midwestern truck drivers.

The truck drivers — from Iowa, Illinois and Missouri — were arrested Wednesday night and are accused of rigging scales at the Andersons grain elevator in nearby Maumee. Lead weights were used to manipulate the scales, which registered up to twice the amount of grain carried by trucks operated by the ring.

Maumee Police Chief Newell Baggett, singled out Huie E. Krana, 27, as the ringleader. Authorities said he had been involved in similar scale rigging schemes in Iowa, and Kosciusko, Miss.

Krana, of Davenport, Iowa, was held in Lucas County Jail under $150,000 bond. His six companions were held in lieu of $75,000 bonds. All were charged with larceny, a felony, and with engaging in a short-weight violation, a misdemeanor.

Officers said the ring would smuggle a man down a service tunnel beneath the truck scales. From there he could rig the amounts the scale registered by attaching weights to the scale's works.

Local police said the ring operated out of the Davenport-Moline-Rock Island area of Illinois and Iowa. All but one of those arrested are from that vicinity.

The trap that netted the seven was sprung after an investigation started last July when The Andersons uncovered a 50,000-bushel soybean shortage.

Apprehended Wednesday night in addition to Krana, McNutt and Hawk were Harold R. Melvin, 32, Moline; Clarence L. Cole, 42, Davenport, and Richard E. Murphy, 36, of St. Joseph, Mo.

All will be arraigned Friday before County Judge Fred Carpenter.

Hi, Jack!

Answer to Argument Leaves 2 Speechless

CHOUSTON, Tex. (UPI) — Michael Schipper, 19-year-old college psychology major from New York has changed his mind about President Kennedy being "completely inaccessible."

Schipper, the Houston Chronicle said Thursday, became engaged in a heated argument at a University of Houston dormitory one night recently.

He argued the government has become "such an unwieldy bureaucracy the President is out of touch with the people, completely inaccessible."

A freshman disputed the statement. Schipper grabbed the telephone and told the operator to call President Kennedy collect at the White House. Two secretaries and a long pause later, the unmistakable Bostonian voice of the President came on.

"This is President Kennedy, Mr. Schipper. What can I do for you?"

"Well . . . yessir . . . Mr. President," Schipper replied feebly. "I ah . . . I am a student at the University of Houston . . . and I ah . . . just called . . . ah . . . to wish you a Merry Christmas . . ."

A long silence followed.

"Oh, the President said in deliberate tones, "Well, I wish the same to you. Kind of you to call."

The freshman pulled at Schipper's arm. "Mr. President," Schipper said, "there's a friend here . . ."

"Very well, put him on," said the President.

"Merry Christmas, sir," the freshman said. "Thank you," the President replied. "And now I have to hang up. I'm very busy."

"Yessir, goodbye," Schipper said. "Goodbye."

Dominican Strike Continues

Balaguer Spurns Opposition

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — The Government of President Joaquin Balaguer rejected Thursday night the latest opposition plan to settle the Dominican political crisis.

It was the second such rejection by Balaguer, a holdover from the Trujillo era, within a week, and came on the 10th day of a paralyzing general strike aimed at forcing him to resign.

Earlier in the day, huge crowds jammed into the main streets of Santo Domingo following reports that the opposition had won its victory in the crisis with an agreement under which Balaguer would step down.

But after a 2½-hour meeting between Balaguer and top congressmen and military chiefs, the Government rejected the opposition formula as "inadmissible."

The nation's military hierarchy went to the national palace led by Air Force Gen. Pedro Rodriguez Echavarría. Balaguer last month made him the General Secretary of State for Armed Forces, putting him in direct succession behind the President.

It was the second time since Nov. 30 that Balaguer, with the backing of the powerful military, spurned opposition demands that he clear out and make way for a small junta to lead the nation to democracy after 31 years of feudal Trujillo rule.

On that day the military called for an all-powerful junta headed by Balaguer that would have given the military virtual autonomy.

This time the military made no announcement of its views. But the opposition plan was reported to have demanded that Rodriguez Echavarría be replaced by another man to take over when Balaguer resigns.

Capt. John B. Keeley, 32, company commander from West Bend, Wis., said he saw "quite a few" of East Germany's green-uniformed people's police on the four-lane highway. The Americans, as usual, ignored the East Germans — the United States does not recognize their Communist regime.

No Trouble for U.S. Troops Despite Earlier Red Threats

BERLIN (AP) — A new American battle group began rolling into West Berlin Thursday. Despite Communist threats, there was no interference with its motor march across Red-ruled East Germany.

The unit that arrived was Co. E, 1st Battle Group, 19th Infantry. Its 25 jeeps and trucks took 6 hours and 20 minutes to go the 110 miles from Helmstedt, in West Germany, to West Berlin.

Nearly half the time was spent going through Soviet checkpoints at each end of the highway. This is about normal for the meticulous examination given to official papers by Soviet troops.

Brown: 'Heathen' Authors May Express God's Will

By FRAN SMITH
Staff Writer

God makes his will known through such "non-Christian" authors as John Steinbeck and J. D. Salinger, suggested Robert McAfee Brown Thursday night.

Brown called Steinbeck and Salinger "Assyrians in modern dress." He explained that in Isaiah 10, God turned the pagan nation Assyria against the people of Israel.

Perhaps in that same way God uses the Steinbecks and Salingers to make His will known to us, Brown said.

"Ours is a culture that has been nourished by Christian roots," Brown said. But he cautioned the Christian about accepting the truths in non-Christian writings as simply a product of this common heritage.

"We must read these authors on their own terms as non-believers," he said, "not on our terms as believers."

Brown explained that reading such works takes the Christian to the brink of non-belief, forcing him to examine such ideas. Faith that can stand this challenge will emerge even stronger than before, he said.

This means that literature can take us in directions where we recognize more clearly than before our need for salvation, he said.

Brown urged the contemporary Christian to watch for the hand of God in unlikely places and listen to voices he would usually disdain. "Much truth can be learned from heathen writers," he said. "God does not limit His truths to Christians alone."

Brown, a well-known lecturer and theologian was one of the freedom riders arrested in Tallahassee, Fla. last summer.

He is a professor of systematic theology at the Union Seminary in New York.

Gunfire from Tshombe Home Pierces Plane

Tempo of Fighting Rises as U.N. Jets Hit Ammo Dumps

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga (AP) — Katangans temporarily knocked out a U.S. airlift Thursday and a U.N. spokesman acknowledged that U.N. provincial troops seemed to be holding their positions against U.N. task forces in very confused fighting.

Bullets fired from the residence of Katanga President Moïse Tshombe slightly damaged a U.S. C124 Globemaster and led American authorities to halt their aerial transport of U.N. men and supplies to this secessionist capital.

American sources said small arms fire from Tshombe's residence as the big plane was coming in for a landing at Elisabethville airport hit the fuselage but caused no serious damage. Tshombe was not at home at the time, officials said.

The Globemaster was one of six which began an airlift Wednesday of armored cars, anti-aircraft guns and their crews to the 3,000-man U.N. force in Elisabethville.

American sources said further flights were suspended or diverted to Kamina, 245 miles to the northwest, pending consultations in Washington on security for the big expensive planes.

A U.N. spokesman in New York announced the American planes will resume operations today under escort of U.N. fighters. He said his announcement was based on official information relayed by U.N. authorities in Leopoldville.

Until the Globemaster mission was undertaken at the request of the U.N., the United States had not been involved in internal operations because the U.N. wished to keep the big powers out of the Congo. The United States has flown troops and supplies to the country, however.

U.N. forces laid down a heavy mortar barrage late in the day on Katanga positions on the west side of the Elisabethville airport road. In other areas, the tempo of the fighting appeared to be rising.

The U.N. jet force, striking its own blow at enemy supplies, blasted a Katanga ammunition dump six miles outside Elisabethville and the resulting explosions shook the heart of the city.

Katanga Foreign Minister Evariste Kimba told a newsmen that he and Interior Minister Godefroid Munongo had toured battle positions and felt very confident. Both claimed the Katangans had gained ground in the skirmishing, though they did not say where.

Tshombe, in angrily denouncing the U.N. air attacks on Kolwezi and near Jadotville Wednesday, charged American planes were "killing women and children."

Reds Say U.N. Efforts Are 'Sabotaged' by West

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The Soviet Union Thursday charged Britain, France and Belgium with openly sabotaging the United Nations effort in Katanga and demanded that such action be stopped.

A statement distributed by the Soviet U.N. delegation indicated the Russians might ask for a Security Council meeting to consider the accusation.

The charges were denied immediately by a British delegation spokesman, who accused the Soviet Union of spreading malicious propaganda.

Referring to the council resolution of Nov. 21 empowering the United Nations to take new action in secessionist Katanga Province, the Soviet statement said: "The United Nations cannot remain passive in the face of open sabotage of the Security Council decision on the part of the colonial powers and their agents in Katanga."

The U.N. spokesman called a news conference to tell of the U.N. decision.

President Addresses AFL-CIO—

Asks Trade Policy Support

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — President Kennedy asked organized labor Thursday to support bold new U.S. trade policies needed to meet challenges greater than those posed by the attack on Pearl Harbor 20 years ago.

The president made his plea before the AFL-CIO national convention just one day after he called for similar support from the nation's businessmen in a speech before the National Association of Manufacturers in New York.

Kennedy said that while management must intensify its efforts to increase efficiency and thus stabilize or reduce unit costs and prices, labor must demonstrate its responsibility in helping to keep overall wage movements in line with increases in productivity.

The president told the labor leaders that they had vital stakes in the matter of U.S. trade policy. He warned:

"If we cannot obtain new bargaining power to open up overseas markets, our export industries will wither — and American labor will lose jobs.

"If American businessmen cannot compete from here or grow up as follows:

Urges Installation Of Car Seat Belts

DES MOINES (UPI) — State Safety Commissioner Carl Pesch Thursday asked Iowa wives to talk their husbands into installing seat belts in the family car this month.

"As a married man of some experience, I know the women can get this job done if they realize how important it is," Pesch said.

He pointed out that tests have proved that seat belts in use will increase the safety of a family as much as 60 per cent in the case of a traffic accident.

Pesch said the seat belt is the most effective single safety device available today.

He said at least 75 lives could have been saved on the state's highways this year if seat belts were in use in most of the cars now operating in Iowa.

Labor Department Announces Drop In Jobless Rate

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The nation's nagging unemployment problem improved for the first time in a year last month when the seasonally-adjusted jobless rate dropped sharply, the Labor Department announced Thursday.

Expressing Administration elation, President Kennedy reported the figures to the AFL-CIO convention in Miami a few hours before the department announced the unemployment rate from here. "And we're going to get it down lower," he told the cheering meeting.

The department's manpower expert, Raymond D. Larson, predicted that the rate would go down "moderately in the future."

The number of Americans holding jobs stood at 67.3 million last month, a record for November but 500,000 less than in October.

The seasonally-adjusted jobless rate dropped from 6.8 per cent in October to 6.1 per cent in November, meaning that 61 persons in every 1,000 in the working force were looking for a job. The rate had not dropped below 6.8 per cent in almost a year.

While the rate improved, the actual number of persons out of work increased from 3.9 million in October to about 4 million last month.

The adjusted jobless rate takes into account seasonal layoffs of farmers, construction workers and others. It declined because the increase in the number of unemployed was smaller than normal.

In other words, if unemployment had increased by the normal 500,000 in November, the seasonally-adjusted rate would have remained at 6.8 per cent. Instead, the number of jobless workers increased by less than 100,000.

Red China Charges India Planning Border Attack

NEW DELHI (UPI) — Communist China Thursday accused Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru of lying, lacking moral courage and "pursuing an un-friendliness policy" in the Sino-Indian border dispute.

The attack also accused India of preparing to "invade and occupy Chinese territory" along the border.

In the past two days, Nehru twice has threatened to go to war as a last resort to protect India's northern frontier from Chinese incursions.

The attack was broadcast abroad by Peking's New China news agency. It quoted a Foreign Ministry statement, a "strong" protest note sent last month to India and the official newspaper People's Daily.

The statements linked Nehru's position on the border to his recent visit to the United States and American aid to India.

The broadcast said India's policy of trying to realize border claims by armed force is "extremely dangerous" and could lead to war.

"One needs only to recall the history of the past three years to see that the anti-Chinese campaign in India is inseparably connected with the United States' assistance to India," the People's Daily said.

Nehru is not at all interested in solving the Sino-Indian border question," it added. "He prefers to leave it unsettled indefinitely so he can at any time fan up anti-Chinese feelings, and conduct anti-Chinese propaganda."

Nehru said in parliament Thursday that India would go all out to avert war with Communist China over the frontier dispute "but if it has to be done, we will do it and we are prepared for it."

First, he said, they are not shatterd by outright attacks on religion during their college days, but rather are harder hit by the indifference to religion shown on college campuses.

Secondly, according to his students, churches don't awaken interest in religion, and when the interest is awakened, churches don't promote it. The predominant spirit around churches is one of "chumminess," he said.

Brown said college graduates entering the seminary are usually of three types — the very few who are fully committed to the Christian faith; the group very badly shaken in religious convictions by colleges; and the wistful pagans who have had some interest stirred up, but have no direction.

He said he hoped that in the seminary these students would find some way to channel their vague yearnings into a definite philosophy.

Dr. Robert Michaelson, director of the SUI School of Religion, said he thought colleges do stifle religion — moderately. He said religion in the classroom is stifled by neglect, by ignoring "the ultimate question" such as the meaning of life and death and the relationships between human beings.

Michaelson listed excessive vocationalism and excessive or too early specialization as causes of this neglect. He said, "More evidence of religion is available at technological schools than at liberal arts schools because the technological schools aren't 'shaken up' by the ideas liberal arts students are exposed to.

Michaelson went on to question, "After the student is shaken up, is something done to aid him back on the path to reconstruction?" He said, "It is up to the University to provide the opportunity — a kind of formalized approval to subjects that would enable students

Brazilian Leader Julio Says He Is Communist

GIOANIA, Brazil (UPI) — Peasant-leader Francisco Juliao, known as the Fidel Castro of Brazil, confessed Thursday he was a Communist.

Founder and leader of the powerful peasants' leagues movement in depressed northeast Brazil, Juliao defiantly told newsmen:

"I am a Communist and I do not care if you call me one."

It was the first time Juliao had admitted his political leanings.

Juliao told newsmen that if the Government did not carry out a program of agrarian reform soon, his followers' only choice would be "to let their beards grow and use their guns."

Colleges Stifle Religion?

5 Panelists Disagree On Solution to Topic

Visiting lecturer Robert McAfee Brown, professor at Union Theological Seminary, New York City, joined four SUI professors Thursday in discussing the fourth Spotlight Series topic, "Do Colleges Stifle Religion?"

Brown, now instructing pre-ministerial freshmen in the Union Seminary, said he had learned two facts from his students concerning religion in their college days.

First, he said, they are not shatterd by outright attacks on religion during their college days, but rather are harder hit by the indifference to religion shown on college campuses.

Secondly, according to his students, churches don't awaken interest in religion, and when the interest is awakened, churches don't promote it. The predominant spirit around churches is one of "chumminess," he said.

Brown said college graduates entering the seminary are usually of three types — the very few who are fully committed to the Christian faith; the group very badly shaken in religious convictions by colleges; and the wistful pagans who have had some interest stirred up, but have no direction.

He said he hoped that in the seminary these students would find some way to channel their vague yearnings into a definite philosophy.

Dr. Robert Michaelson, director of the SUI School of Religion, said he thought colleges do stifle religion — moderately. He said religion in the classroom is stifled by neglect, by ignoring "the ultimate question" such as the meaning of life and death and the relationships between human beings.

Michaelson listed excessive vocationalism and excessive or too early specialization as causes of this neglect. He said, "More evidence of religion is available at technological schools than at liberal arts schools because the technological schools aren't 'shaken up' by the ideas liberal arts students are exposed to.

Michaelson went on to question, "After the student is shaken up, is something done to aid him back on the path to reconstruction?" He said, "It is up to the University to provide the opportunity — a kind of formalized approval to subjects that would enable students to provide for reconstruction." Robert Boynton, assistant professor of political science, said he disagreed with the feeling that colleges tend to stifle religion. He said, "In college, religion for the first time becomes involved in the mind with a competition of ideas. Relatively few people leave college with religion meaning the same thing to them as it did when they entered."

Harold Saunders, professor of sociology, indicated that the stifling of religion may reflect a general phenomenon in our society, rather than something originated by college life.

John Harlow, associate professor of business, concluded "Most of the answers at the present time are tentative and will continue to change, with no certain predictability in the foreseeable future."

Olefsky To Present Cello Recital at 8 Paul Olefsky, associate professor of music, will present a cello recital today at 8 p.m. in Macbride Auditorium. He will be accompanied on the piano by Prof. John Simms, also of the music faculty. Admission is free.

Olefsky is a member of the Iowa String Quartet and director of the SUI Symphony Orchestra.

The program will be opened with Beethoven's "Sonata Op. 102, No. 1." The other numbers are Hindemith's "Variations on 'A Frog, He Went A-Courting,'" Weber's "Drei Klein Stucke," Debussy's "Sonata," Brahms' "Sonata No. 1, Op. 38," and Manuel de Falla's "Suite Populaire Espagnole."

'Wage Earner's' Form Dropped for '61 Returns Federal income tax payers will have only two forms to choose from when they file their 1961 returns next year — the familiar Form 1040 or the punch-card Form 1040A.

According to Commerce Clearing House (CCH), the "wage earner's" Form 1040W has been dropped.

Rules which explain which form is best suited to the individual taxpayer can be found in CCH's "Everyman's Income Tax," a guide explaining how to prepare 1961 returns.

Murphy Gets Bridges' N.H. Senate Seat

CONCORD, N. H. — Atty. Gen. Maurice J. Murphy Jr. was appointed successor to Sen. Styles Bridges Thursday and indicated he would follow closely the conservatism and strong anti-Communist stands of the late dean of Senate Republicans.

"I'm sure that on major issues my thinking will be much along the same lines as the late senator," said Murphy, who at 34 will be the youngest member of the Senate.

Murphy was appointed to a one-year interim term by Gov. Wesley Powell, his friend and political mentor.

Asked by a reporter whether he considered himself to be a conservative Republican, the new senator said: "As to a label, the people of New Hampshire can determine that by my actions in the U.S. Senate."

Powell's naming of Murphy hit the capital city as something of a surprise. Most of the guessing had been that Powell would name either himself or Doloris Bridges, the senator's widow.

There had been pressure from some state GOP leaders to name Mrs. Bridges, and it is no secret in New Hampshire that one of Powell's early ambitions was to go to the Senate. He twice unsuccessfully sought senatorial nominations.

6 Iowa Footballers Named All-America Honorable Mention

NEW YORK (AP) — Six Iowa football players were given honorable mention in The Associated Press All-America football balloting Thursday, but no Hawkeye made the first three teams.

Quarterback Matt Szykowny and his favorite passing target end Cloyd Webb were listed along with halfback Joe Williams. Members of Iowa's line nominated for honors were center Bill Van Buren, guard Sherwyn Thorson and tackle, Al Hinton.

Iowa State tailback Dave Hoppmann was named to the third team.

A giant line averaging 232 1/2 pounds to the man and one of the most brilliant backfields of recent years featured the mythical first team.

In the backfield are Sandy Stephens, Minnesota; Ernie Davis, Syracuse; James Saxton, Texas; and Bob Ferguson, Ohio State.

Merlin Olsen of Utah State at 265, playing tackle, is the biggest member of the forward wall that includes Jerry Hillebrand, Colorado, and Bill Miller, Miami of Florida, ends; Bill Neighbors, Alabama, tackle; Roy Winston, Louisiana State and Dave Behrman, Michigan State, guards, and Alex Krull, Rutgers, center.

Vokolek Sets Pool Record in Team Intrasquad Meet

The Golds defeated the Blacks, 59-34 in an annual intrasquad meet held by the SU1 varsity and freshman swimmers Thursday night.

Individual standouts included Denny Vokolek, junior from Cedar Rapids, who swam in the winning medley relay, finished three tenths of a second from a pool record in the medley (2:22.4) and set a long course pool record in the 200-yard orthodox swim with a 2:37.6. The old record was 2:38.1 set in 1956 by a University of Michigan swimmer.

Bill Meyerhoff, a senior standout from Highland Park, Ill., took both the 100-yard free style (1:53.7) and the 200-yard free style (2:15.9).

Jim Robbins, varsity junior from Ft. Dodge, won diving honors by totaling 237.5, but he had to go some to nose out an impressive freshman, Michel LeVois of Iowa City, who totaled 208.2.

The meeting was held in the Field House pool and pitted two teams of mixed varsity and freshmen against each other.

Individual winners:
400-yard medley relay—Cutter, Vokolek, Michelson, White, 4:09.7.
200-yard free style—Meyerhoff, 2:15.9.
50-yard free style—Wray, 24.3.
200-yard individual medley—Vokolek, 2:22.4.
Diving—Jim Robbins, 237.5 points.
200-yard butterfly—Michelson, 2:21.0.
100-yard free style—Meyerhoff, 1:53.7.
200-yard back stroke—Cutter, 2:19.2.
440-yard free style—Waddington, 5:22.4.
200-yard orthodox—Vokolek, 2:37.6.
400-yard free relay—White, Rhodes, Nichols, Meyerhoff, 3:47.7.

Ferguson Gets Another Year Of Eligibility

The Big Ten Thursday granted an additional year of eligibility to Iowa Captain-elect Larry Ferguson, who injured his leg in the California game Sept. 30 and missed the remainder of the season.

No word was received concerning possible eligibility for Hawkeye quarterback Wilburn Hollis, who fractured his wrist during the Southern Cal game.

Another year of eligibility was also granted to Duane Petz, halfback from Williamsburg who came to SUI in 1959 but left school because of financial difficulties. Petz is not currently enrolled here.

Others gaining another year of eligibility were: center Dick Enga of Minnesota, Robert Fell of Indiana, William Costanza and Anthony Kehl of Minnesota, Ron Bentley and Charles Migyanka of Michigan State, Tom Yakubowski of Purdue and Ken Mike of Michigan.

The additional eligibility in cases of injury suffered this year also stipulated the players must remain out of spring practice next spring in order to gain the additional competition.

200 Entries Expected For AAU Wrestling

CEAR FALLS — Over 200 entries are expected before today's deadline for the AAU regional wrestling tournament here Saturday.

Entries from Iowa, Wartburg, Parsons, St. Cloud State, Upper Iowa, and Dubuque were among the first to be sent.

Previous entries came from Mankato State, River Falls State, Cornell and host SCI.

Several other schools including Iowa State, Nebraska, Omaha and Minnesota are expected to enter wrestlers.

CORRECTION
It was incorrectly stated in Tuesday's Daily Iowan that Sigma Pi's lightweight basketball team lost to Alpha Tau Omega, 46-22. Sigma Pi was the winner — by the same score.

Hawks Need Aggressiveness, Help for Nelson—Scheuerman

By HARRIETT HINDMAN
Staff Writer

Iowa basketball coach Sharm Scheuerman, speaking at a Rotary Club luncheon Thursday, cited two major areas in which the Hawkeys will have to improve if they are to have a successful 1961-62 season.

Discussing the game with Evansville College which Iowa lost 65-59 last Saturday night, Scheuerman said, "We went down to Evansville with six sophomores on a traveling squad of twelve. We know that for us to rise above the average team, our sophomores have to help us. The biggest thing that we can do is to become more aggressive. We weren't quite aggressive enough."

"I am not making excuses for the Evansville loss, but simply stating facts. If a team plays a basic defense, we can do a real good job against them. However, Evansville used a concocted type of defense. That plus the number of mistakes we made was the difference. We can't lose the ball 27 times. If you do that, you shouldn't even be close."

This is something we are going to improve upon and I know that we're going to show that this Saturday.

"We are going to have to have someone to score with Don Nelson. It is said that if you score more points than shot attempts, you are doing O.K."

At Evansville Don shot thirteen times so he should have had 13, 14, or 15 points. He had 29. We must let him shoot more, which other teams don't let us do or we have to get help from some other player."

Scheuerman

Hawk Gymnasts Host Mankato State

By GARY SPURGEON
Staff Writer

The Iowa gymnastics team entertains Mankato State College of Minnesota in their initial home appearance tonight in the north gym of the Field House.

The two teams, both fresh from the Midwest Open held last week in Chicago, will square off at 7:30. Mankato State figures to give the Hawkeys a very strong test even though they are a small college team.

"I believe they have enough strength to create a situation similar to the one faced by Sharm Scheuerman when he opened at Evansville," Coach Dick Holzapfel said as he compared Friday night's meet with the Hawkeye basketball team's opening game.

Holzapfel went on to point out that the Minnesotans had obtained quite a few transfers from the University of Minnesota, which should make them a real strong team.

"They have a couple of boys by the name of Rollick and one by the name of Hall who are very good on all apparatus plus free exercise."

"I believe that in order for us to keep in the running, our men are going to have to hit their routines and we are going to have to catch up and keep ahead of them on trampoline and tumbling," Holzapfel commented.

Roger Gedney, rated one of the best tumblers in the Big Ten, will lead the Hawkeys in both tumbling and trampoline. Keith Spaulding and George Hery will give Gedney strong support in tumbling while Hery and Jon Boulton will help him out on the trampoline.

The rest of the Hawkeye lineup: Free Exercise: Hery, Gedney, and Joe Ross.
Side Horse: Jon Cads, Hans Burcharth and Jim Liddell.
Parallel Bars: Ed Wilson or Cads, Burcharth, and Bob Schmidt.
High Bar: Gedney and Russ Porterfield.
Still Rings: Drew Mawhinney, Burcharth, and Cads.

Matt Szykowny Weds Miss Sandra Tinker

Matt Szykowny, outstanding Iowa football and basketball player, was married Thursday to Sandra Lou Tinker, Miss Perfect Profile of 1960.

The ceremony was performed at St. Thomas More Chapel.

Szykowny, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Szykowny of Pittsburgh, Pa., was given honorable mention Thursday on The Associated Press All-America football team. He also directed the SZYKOWNY basketball team to a second place finish in the Big Ten basketball race last winter.

The bride, also 20, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Tinker of Bettendorf.

Miss Tinker left school last year and has been employed at a Davenport bank.

Coach Sharm Scheuerman said that Szykowny will not play in Saturday night's game here against Miami of Ohio. He will rejoin the team Sunday.

Connie Hawkins Hits 37 for Rens

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Former Iowa freshman player Connie Hawkins scored 37 points Thursday night to help the Pittsburgh Rens defeat the Los Angeles Jets 107-93 and snap a five-game losing streak in the nightcap of an American Basketball League doubleheader at the Civic Auditorium before 2,432 fans.

Hawkins, currently the ABL's 3rd highest scorer, hit 14 field goals and tossed in 9 of 13 free throws.

The victory left the Rens 14 games behind Cleveland in the Eastern Division race.

The Cleveland Pipers, sparked by Johnny Cox, rallied in the second half to beat the Chicago Majors 107-88 in the opener.

Weekend Christmas Fetes Set

The Christmas season is here again and fraternities are doing their best to make the holidays a success with formals and Christmas parties this weekend.

Five all-house formals and one pledge formal will be held Friday and Saturday nights. The Sigma Nu "White Rose Formal" will be held Saturday night with dinner at the Amanos and a dance at the house. The "Secession Ball" climaxing Seclusion Week of Pi Kappa Alpha will get underway Saturday night with dinner and a dance at the house. Other Saturday night formals include: The annual Acacia Christmas formal with dinner at Ronneburg Inn and a dance at the house; the Delta Chi "Night Before Christmas" Formal with dinner-dance at the Ranch; and Phi Kappa Theta's formal to be held at the Knights of Columbus Hall. Alpha Epsilon Pi plans a Pledge Formal Saturday night working around the theme, "Star Bright."

A multitude of Christmas parties are planned for the weekend. Sigma Chi is having a Las Vegas party Saturday night with the lodge decorated with novelties from clubs in Las Vegas. Tonight, Lambda Chi Alpha, Sigma Pi, and Sigma Phi Epsilon are holding Christmas parties at their houses to decorate Christmas trees and sing carols.

Sunday afternoon Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity and Kappa Alpha Theta sorority will host SUI faculty members and housemothers. The tea will be held at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon House. The weekend will end Sunday night with an Alpha Tau Omega Christmas party at the house.

Schweiloch Will Head AEPi House

Les Schweiloch, A4, Roslyn Heights, N.Y., has been elected president of Alpha Epsilon Pi social fraternity.

Other new officers are: Phil Sameroff, A2, Detroit, vice president; Bob Worman, A2, Brooklyn, N.Y., secretary; Bruce Levin, B3, Rock Island, Ill., treasurer; Barry Kipnes, A2, Chelsea, Mass., and Bob Rubin, A3, Highland Park, Ill., members at large.

Howie Kipnes, A4, Chelsea, Mass., will be the plegemaster; Max Yaro, A1, Des Moines, house manager; Wayne Toyne, A2, Muscatine, corresponding scribe; Larry Stein, B3, Chicago, sentinel; Mike Berk, A2, Highland Park, Ill., and Jerry Weiner, A3, Rock Island, Ill., assistant treasurers; Hirschel Katz, E4, Cedar Rapids, historian; and Gary Somermeyer, A2, New Albin, assistant house manager.

PRETTY GARNISH

Next time you have a can of pitted ripe olives in the house, insert some thin strips of carrot through their centers.

Three Fraternities Activate Pledges

Three SUI fraternities recently conducted initiation ceremonies for their spring pledge classes.

New active members of Sigma Chi include: Robert M. Cook, A2, Norfolk, Neb.; Jay Anthony, A4, Des Moines; Charles Lovett, B3, Iowa City; and Steve Ward, A2, Des Moines.

Pi Kappa Alpha activated five men. They include: Mark S. Corr, A3, Wilmington, Del.; John F. Gardner, A2, Galesburg, Ill.; Joseph I. McCobe, A3, Taylorville, Ill.; Lumir W. Nezerka, A2, Ely; and Robert A. VanderMarten, A2, Fort Dodge.

The three new initiates of Sigma Pi are: Jerry Bronerman, B3, Monticello; Ronald Fessler, A2, Des Moines; and Charles Johnson, E1, Cedar Rapids.

Engineering Honorary Initiates 8

The fall initiation and banquet of Beta Iota Chapter of Eta Kappa Nu, national honorary electrical engineering society, was held on Tuesday evening at the Ox Yoke Inn in Amana.

Arthur W. Melloh, dean of the SUI College of Engineering, was initiated into professional membership.

Undergraduates initiated were: David K. Graham, E4, Keokuk; Richard R. Halsor, E3, Mason City; Jimmie D. Huff, E4, Dewitt; Michael A. Inman, E4, Cedar Rapids; John R. Simon, E4, Mason City; John W. Standeven, E4, Oakland; and Robert A. Sufficool, E3, Cedar Rapids.

The banquet was held following the initiation ceremony.

Hawk Gymnasts Host Markato State

By GARY SPURGEON
Staff Writer

The Iowa gymnastics team enters Markato State College in their initial home appearance tonight in the north gym of the Field House.

The two teams both fresh from the Midwest Open held last week in Chicago, will square off at 7:30 Markato state figures.

Head Coach Dick Holmberg said he expects a very close contest. "I believe they have enough strength to create a situation similar to the one faced by Starnum last year," he said. "I believe they have enough strength to create a situation similar to the one faced by Starnum last year," he said.

Starnum's coach, Dick Holmberg, said he expects a very close contest. "I believe they have enough strength to create a situation similar to the one faced by Starnum last year," he said.

Though Prices Up, I.C. Gas War Not Over

Gas prices here went up slightly Thursday, but the gas war, according to dealers, is not over yet. Few stations would give any reason for the raise and most men who did comment would not be exact in the matter. Major brand stations have upped prices to 27.9 cents or 29.9 cents per gallon of regular and 31.9 cents to 33.9 cents for ethyl. One attendant noted that this is still not as high as in other areas. The usual price, he said, is 32.9 cents for regular and 36.9 cents for ethyl. Opinions on why the prices went up, varied. One attendant said "his guess was" it may be because of the holidays. Another thought it was due to the raise of suppliers prices. One attendant stated that from the information he received he thought that some major companies had been squeezing cutrate companies.

He added that, on the basis of what he was told, apparently the major companies now thought it was time to see whether the cutrate outfits would be ready to follow more closely the lead in prices set by the major companies.

Bright futures in data transmission at W. E.

New engineers with initiative who can meet Western Electric's high standards are offered many exciting career opportunities with our company in data processing development work as it relates to communications. For example, Western's engineers—working closely with Bell Telephone Laboratories—have solved development and manufacturing problems connected with the Bell System's new DATA-PHONE Data set (made by Western Electric). DATA-PHONE service lets business machines, such as computers, "speak" to each other in a language of numbers and symbols over existing telephone communication networks. This represents a tremendous boon to business; and consequently, it is estimated that some day there may be more machine talk than people talk using telephone lines. Of course, data communications is only one of many rewarding career areas that await you at Western Electric. Here are just a few of the others: electronic switching... solid state electronic devices... microwave radio relay... computer-programmed production lines... solar cells... optical masers... futuristic telephones.

We need high-caliber, forward-thinking engineers now to help us transform these plans into realities or to work with us in scores of other key communications areas. Your future, the future of Western Electric, and the future of America's communications—could well depend on your first career connection. Challenging opportunities exist now at Western Electric for electrical, mechanical, industrial, and chemical engineers, as well as physical science, liberal arts, and business majors. All qualified applicants will receive careful consideration for employment without regard to race, creed, color or national origin. For more information about Western Electric, write College Relations, Western Electric Company, Room 6106, 222 Broadway, New York 38, New York. And be sure to arrange for a Western Electric interview when our college representatives visit your campus.

Principal manufacturing locations at Chicago, Ill.; Kearny, N. J.; Baltimore, Md.; Indianapolis, Ind.; Allentown and Laureldale, Pa.; Winston-Salem, N. C.; Buffalo, N. Y.; North Andover, Mass.; Omaha, Neb.; Kansas City, Mo.; Columbus, Ohio; Oklahoma City, Okla.; Engineering Research Center, Princeton, N. J. Teletype Corporation, Skokie, Ill., and Little Rock, Ark.
