SPU Pursues ROTC Attack

The SPU Student Body (GSPU) recently resorted to an unorthodox method to force the University to reconsider its decision to discontinue all ROTC programs.

``The SPU Student Body believes that the University has violated our rights to a democratic educational atmosphere by denying us the continuation of the ROTC program," declared George Beck, president of the student body.

Many students commented that the ROTC program can not only be an important part of a student's education, but it can also be an effective way of encouraging students to take a more active role in community affairs.

Laurel Jones, a Freshman Particularly interested in ROTC, considers the program as an important part of the university curriculum.

``I feel it is important that students be encouraged to participate in ROTC programs," she said. "In this way, students can not only develop their leadership skills, but also become more aware of the world around them."

However, the decision by University officials to close all ROTC programs has sparked controversy among the student body. Unfortunately, the decision has raised concerns among students about the future of the ROTC program.

``It is regrettable that the University management should be so insistent on terminating the ROTC program," commented Jones. "We would like to see the University reconsider its decision."
Wrong Way To Be A 'Loyal Iowa Fan'

We received the following letter from a Mason City resident of The Daily Iowan offices:

To whom it may concern:

The Officiating Saturday night is that Referee, who we formerly backed during Mr. Horace V. Greeley's tenure. Tension got pretty big when Mr. Big E. showed up, but it didn't sell the start right. Referee, on your own personal favor, save eight or nine of their plays, if we meet at Roach. Should nurse Referee to office.

P.S. He should, been back at Polo.

The letter is regrettable and was signed and endorsed, "Good Loyal Iowa Fan." The attitude the letter conveys has been issued from other quarters around the state, and unfortunately has also been renewed strongly on this campus before.

It is true that the Hawkeye fans that whoever their times being an athletic contest, they are quick to find reason for the box either right or wrong in the fact that the opinion is perhaps a better team. If they don't blame the coaches, blame the referees.

At the Field House Saturday, when the referee called the fifth foul on Iowa, three Hawkeyes, a scoring of four, the referees, the view the game and aren't concerned enough that the particular action by Nelson was a foul, but the prolonged bungling did little good. The throwing of papers and money on the playing floor was even more ridiculous - and I suppose in the players on the field.

Joesph Schaefer, Miesner Schaeffer, obviously embarrassed by the crowd's protest, would stop the game, but his reactions to freeing results were not getting better.

Similar to the performance of the Hawkeyes, the fact of which many on others, are letters and ideas such as those contained in the letter printed above.

Any ball-fans, be they students, alums, or just fans from the state that the University is a good team through such infections and articles of this nature have another thought coming. They can only do it anyway.

Better they take some of that negative emotions off of them and see from where the University is a good team, when games are being played.

The very least they can do is keep their mouths shut.

 McGill Striving To Be 'Complete Ballplayer'

Paul E. Poynter

Huskies likely would not want to be known only as one of Canada's leading basketball teams.

Recognized as the most physical player on the team, Dave Haugans, is one of McGill's stars in the backcourt and one of the most versatile of Mounties. He is the team's leading scorer, averaging 17.2 points a game.

Haugans, a sixth-year player, is a hard worker and, no doubt, one of McGill's most important assets. He's a throwback to the old-school type of basketball player who can do everything.

Haugans, who leads the Mounties in rebounding, is a very good passer and has no trouble getting to the hoop. He also has a good outside shot and is one of the team's top free-throw shooters.

McGill, the reigning national champion in 1963, is seeded 17th among 32 teams in the NCAA basketball tournament. The Mounties are in the West Regional and face a tough challenge against Montana.

McGill wants is to be the most versatile player in the game. The Canadian team is determined to be the best in the world and Haugans is one of the reasons why.

Haugans, who leads the Mounties in rebounding, is a very good passer and has no trouble getting to the hoop. He also has a good outside shot and is one of the team's top free-throw shooters.

Cold Vaccine

‘Not in Sight’

Shocking and settling will soon be the end of the cold season. Despite great promises of new drugs and vaccines, there is little to report.

Dr. David A. J. A. Eyre, head of the Laboratory of Immunology at the University of Chicago, said yesterday that he had heard no news of a cold vaccine.

Earlier, he said, scientists felt that a cold vaccine was "not in sight" and that "something that comes from the common cold" would be a "pious hope." He added that cures for colds would be "hard to find" because of the vast number of strains of colds.
