Regent Voices Need For Budget Approval

By JOAN ANDERSON

An important plan of the Board of Regents Finance Committee was adopted last week at the appropriate meeting of the Board in Iowa City.

In a recent interview, John A. Estes, Board Secretary, explained that the Board's plans and the needs of the State University System were being met in the current budget. The present problem, he said, is that the Board's authority to spend money is limited to a certain amount, and that this amount is not sufficient to meet all the needs of the system.

In addition to the present problem, the Board is also facing the issue of how to allocate funds among the various departments of the University. The Board's budget for the next fiscal year includes a number of increases, including a 7% increase for the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, and a 10% increase for the College of Engineering.

The Board also plans to increase funding for research and graduate education. The Board's budget for the fiscal year ending June 30 includes a 10% increase for research, and a 15% increase for graduate education.

In conclusion, the Board's budget for the next fiscal year is designed to meet the needs of the State University System, and to provide adequate funding for research and graduate education. The Board is committed to ensuring that the University is able to provide a high-quality education to its students, and to meeting the needs of the state and the nation.
Treger: A Genuine Ambassador for SUI

The French motion of art may seem foreign to you. It is shared with his fellow Towans. It is for them, and for the world, a way of communicating. His "art" is couched to some degree in language. It is admired, by students, in Iowa City, Iowa, in New York City, in London, in Paris, in Rome, and in the entire world. It is admired for its beauty, for its grace, for its economy, where there are absolutes, of course. It is admired for its wisdom, for its humor, for its power, for its economy, where there are absolutes, of course.

Baker Makes Clearer Statement On Haefner Statement

To the Editor:

May I correct an impression created by a previous letter? On January 21, commenting the Haefner Statement, I stated that Haefner, in his campaign for the Student Senate, would be a "practitioner," not a "practitioner," and that he would "make you a "practitioner," not a "practitioner," for the Student Senate.

Actually, Millicent, I don't know WHAT it is ... But it seems to think you are its mother!

Questions Student Senate On Faculty Opinion Poll

To the Editor:

Having just read the story on the poll in the student senate, I was wondering what percentage of the students who participated in the poll actually read the student senate's opinion poll. It seems to me that the poll was not representative of the student body as a whole.

Dock Strike Nears End in Gulf Area

WASHINGTON — Longshoremen and shippers may be near to ending the strike that has been running for two and a half months, after both sides agreed to sit down and talk this week.

The National Maritime Union, representing the longshoremen, and the United States Shipping Board, representing the shippers, have been negotiating over the terms of a new contract.

The strike began in late July, sparking fears of a supply chain disruption in the Gulf area, one of the busiest ports in the country.

The union was demanding higher wages and better working conditions, while the shipping companies were pushing for lower costs and fewer regulations.

The talks broke down last month, leading to the strike. Now, both sides are ready to resume negotiations.

The strike is affecting not only the Gulf area but also other ports around the country, as shippers are looking for alternative transportation methods.

The strike is expected to last for several weeks, but both sides are optimistic that a resolution can be reached soon.

Clay would meet Doug Jones in the third round. Clay came out immediately but Powell kept backing away. Looking ahead, Clay said, "I'm ready to go out.

He will be the youngest to have kayoed an opponent. Knockout, sign of a great champion.

The cheering crowd, estimated at around 20,000, fired a solid left to his foe and then finished him off. Immediately after his round, Clay battered his gloves on his lap. I'm too fast."
