Record SUI Enrollment

Registration Totals Show 14,161 Students

Eleventh Consecutive Year of Increased Student Population

DES MOINES — A preliminary count of 14,161 students — nearly 500 above the estimate — was reported for the University Thursday by SUI President Howard R. Bowen.

Dr. Bowen told the State Board of Regents here that SUI's final enrollment might reach 14,250 by the time late registrations are complete. University officials had expected at least 13,700 students this year.

Last fall the final enrollment on the campus in Iowa City was 12,923. This is the 11th straight year in which the University's student population has increased. Ten years ago SUI opened classes with 8,414.

THIS FALL'S major increase came in the largest of the 10 colleges at SUI — the College of Liberal Arts, which increased by 739 over 1963 to a current total of 8,019. The Graduate College increased by 339 students, from 2,780 to 3,119, while the College of Engineering showed a substantial increase of 14.8 per cent — from 494 to 567.

University housing officials report that they were able to accommodate all students who sought SUI single-student housing with 1,875 men and 2,395 coeds now residing in University dormitories. At the end of the first week of classes men's residence halls were full to their design capacity except for several overflow areas within the dormitories.

Women's residence halls were filled in excess of the number for which they were originally designed.

AGAIN THIS FALL married student housing is filled to capacity with 656 temporary apartments and 220 permanent ones occupied. University officials said 190 student families living elsewhere have indicated they would rent SUI apartments if they were available.

It is not yet known how many students are commuting to the campus from surrounding towns and cities but traffic attributed to this source appears to be heavier than it has ever been in the past, campus police say.

A SURVEY of Iowa City this week showed that approximately 80 students, most of them described as graduate students, were residing in motels and hotels while waiting to find off-campus housing, particularly among graduate students. The sharp rise in enrollment, part off-campus housing at a premium in Iowa City.

Preliminary enrollment figures for the other SUI colleges were 475 in business administration, 274 in dentistry, 438 in law, 689 in medicine, 423 in nursing, and 184 in pharmacy. Enrollment in the College of Education is included in figures for liberal arts and the Graduate College.

City Annex Proposal Put On Ballot

The proposal to annex 6.25 square miles to the city will be on the voting machine ballot in the Nov. 3 election in Iowa City, County Auditor Dolores A. Rogers said Thursday.

Until this week, county officials thought the issue might have to be put on a separate ballot because the machine was crowded by several other special issues.

Special issues on the machine ballot are the vote on retention of district and supreme court judges and a proposal to amend the State Constitution by providing for an election every 10 years on whether to hold a constitutional convention.

Also the question of whether Johnson County should have a Conservation Board will be listed,

Reminder To Students: Don't Forget I.D. Cards

All SUI students should remember that without their certificates of registration, I.D. cards, and tickets, they will be unable to see Saturday's game with Idaho State. Guards will be stationed at each gate to make sure the name on the I.D. card matches the name on the ticket.

Students sitting in the North Bleachers must enter at the gate behind the scoreboard, and those sitting in sections E through J must use the arches at the northwest corner and along the west side of the stands. Arches are marked by seat number and section.

Although the lines at the gates move fairly fast, students should allow some time for standing in line before the game. The kickoff is scheduled for 1:30 p.m.

According to the Athletic Department Ticket Office, all 8700 student seats along the west side of the stadium have been filled, however there are still a few seats in the north section, which normally holds 2,600.

Students who wish to sit with relatives or friends cannot use their student ticket to get into the paid admission section but must pay the full price for another ticket. Guards will restrain students from leaving the student section to enter the paid admissions section.

Pep Club has a block of seats between the 17 and 35 yard lines and will have synchronized cheering during the game.

The SUI Scottish Highlanders will entertain fans who arrive early, and the Hawkeye Marching Band will give a halftime performance greeting freshmen.

Students planning to drive cars must come early since parking is extremely limited. Lt. Oscar Graham of the Campus Police said drivers should park on the east side of the stadium if possible. All University-owned parking lots not reserved or restricted for 24 hours daily will have open parking for the weekend.

A post-game chili supper will begin at 4 p.m. in the Main Lounge of the Union. Tickets will cost 25 cents and students may win an autographed football. There will also be dancing with live music from 4-11 p.m. in the River Room.

Young Demos Elect Officers, Pledge Efforts For Campaign

Mary Lundquist, A4, Cedar Rapids was elected president of the SUI Young Democrats at the first YD meeting of the year Thursday night in the Senate Chamber of Old Capitol.

Other officers elected were: Bill Hieronymus, A4, Iowa City, vice president; Gary Matfield, A4, Melbourne, secretary; and Paul Fiala, A2, Cedar Rapids, treasurer.

There were 94 voting members at the meeting. The YD membership, boosted by a membership drive during registration and the Union activities open house, is about 400.

Miss Lundquist, who has served as secretary and first vice-president of the organization, said the main project for the fall would be to campaign for Democratic candidates in this area and to work on voter registration.

A new constitution was ratified by the assembled members.

Under the new constitution, directors of areas of activity are appointed by the membership. At the meeting, Paul Muhl, A4, Iowa City, was appointed director of publicity; Jerry Lawler, A4, Clare, director of programs; and John Barrett, A2, Solon, director of political organization.

Father Buckley told the 2,500 council prelates that, nevertheless, the world "welcomes any earnest indication that the Catholic Church is on the side of liberty. The council must not disappoint the world."

Bowen Asks 'Moving' Aid For Faculty

$600 Fringe Benefit Would Help University Attract New Personnel

By JON VAN Managing Editor

DES MOINES — "Moving money" was proposed as a way to boost SUI's faculty recruiting program as President Howard Bowen met here Thursday with the Policy Committee of the Board of Regents.

Bowen explained that the university must attract 150-200 new faculty members each year and that top people must fill new vacancies to maintain high standards.

"It is important to make the University more attractive to new people and to be competitive with other universities," he said.

BOWEN went on to outline a plan to offer to pay the cost of moving a faculty member's household goods to Iowa City as a fringe benefit inducement.

Limits would be placed on the amount the University would pay, and the University could choose who would be offered this inducement.

Under Bowen's plan top administrative personnel as well as faculty members would be offered up to $600 of their moving expenses. This would pay the entire cost of moving a man from the East Coast and would cover almost everything for a man from the West Coast, Bowen said.

All private colleges have a "moving money" plan, according to Bowen, and many large institutions are adopting it.

When other schools offer the same salary and have about the same facilities, he told the committee, this moving allowance can weight the scales.

The only alternative SUI can use — if it is to remain competitive — is to offer a higher salary, but this is a recurring expense, the president said. A "moving money" program could save the University money in the long run as it attracted top-notch people.

BOWEN SAID the average cost would be about $400 for each moving job.

Members of the committee seemed favor the proposal. Melvin Wolf of Waterloo and Mrs. Joseph Rosenfield of Des Moines expressed approval of "anything to help recruitment."

No one spoke in opposition to the proposal.

If the plan were adopted, it would be made available to all state schools. Presidents of these institutions seemed in favor of the proposal, but they wished to study it further.

J. W. MAUCKER, President of SCI, said he welcomes the idea but it is not familiar with it or how it might be administered. He said that colleges similar to SCI in size and organization do not yet use this inducement widely.

JAMES HILTON, President of Iowa State, said there was no question but that "moving money" would be a good recruitment point. He agreed with Bowen his university might actually save money by adopting this program. Hilton said he would like more time to think about the proposal.

The Ryan company is in bankruptcy proceedings.

A letter received by the regents Thursday confirmed that the remaining work at Kate Daum will be completed by other contractors and Ryan's bonding company will pay the added expense.

Third Rail Strike Delayed by LBJ

WASHINGTON — Another threat of a nationwide railroad strike — the third such crisis since April — was lifted Thursday when President Johnson created an emergency board to look into a dispute involving firemen and engineers.

His action automatically defers the strike threat for 60 days while the board, which will be appointed later, studies the dispute.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers had threatened to strike many major rail lines Friday morning. They are seeking wage improvements, including a 25 per cent across-the-board raise.

More than 99 per cent of the union membership had voted to strike if the union's demands were not met, according to the union president, H. E. Gilbert.

Head football coach Jerry Burns expressed his hopes for victory in the coming game with Idaho University before a crowd of nearly a thousand students in front of Old Capitol. Football captain Tony Giacobazzi also talked to the audience that gathered for the rally at 7 p.m. —Photo by Mike Toner

Ninth Person Hurt In Cycle Mishaps In Past 2 Weeks

A sixteen-year-old boy who suffered an ankle injury Thursday afternoon when his motorcycle went out of control, became Iowa City's 9th cycle accident injury in the last two weeks.

Craig Kessler, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. Kessler, 1019 Howell St., was injured at the corner of Keokuk and Highland Streets shortly after 3:30 p.m.

He was admitted to Mercy Hospital late Thursday afternoon.

Kessler was charged by Iowa City police with failing to maintain control of his vehicle.

Regents Assure Final Touches To Kate Daum

DES MOINES — Finishing touches on the new building at the Ryan Plumber and Heating Co., would be unable to fulfill its contract for the Burge addition. It also noted that work it had undertaken in Ames on the ISU campus would also go uncompleted.

A letter received in the regents office early this month stated that the Ryan Plumbing and Heating Co., would be unable to fulfill its contract for the Burge addition. It also noted that work it had undertaken in Ames on the ISU campus would also go uncompleted.

The Ryan company is in bankruptcy proceedings.

A letter received by the regents Thursday confirmed that the remaining work at Kate Daum will be completed by other contractors and Ryan's bonding company will pay the added expense.

Brush Fire Still Rages, Kills 1 Man

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. — A massive, uncontrolled brush fire killed one fire fighter, burned 34 others and left scores of homes destroyed Thursday, including the mansions of educator Robert Maynard Hutchins and the Olympic committee's Avery Brundage.

Some 1,800 fire fighters braced for the predicted return Thursday night of hot wind from the interior — the so-called Santa Ana or "devil wind" of California lore. Wednesday night, it whipped the fire to spreading fury and caused mass evacuations of more than 5,000 persons from their homes.

THE U.S. FOREST SERVICE, after helicopter surveys Thursday, reported 78 homes destroyed. They ranged in value from about $12,000 to the $100,000-$200,000 residential palaces in the exclusive suburb of Montecito.

Grant Morse, assistant regional U.S. forester, placed the burned-over acreage at some 30,000 acres and property damage at $3.5 million. No estimate could be placed on the loss of valuable watershed.

IN MONTECITO, long a favorite home site of the rich, one of the homes destroyed was that of Dr. Hutchins, president of the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions here and former president of the University of Chicago.

No Raise In Dorm Rates Seen

DES MOINES — The ceiling on dormitory rates at SUI and other state-supported schools was reinforced Thursday when the Board of Regents received good news on dorm financing at its meeting here.

The good news came in the form $15 million worth of Dormitory revenue bonds for Iowa State University which were sold to John Nuveen and Co., of Chicago for 3.5429 per cent interest over the next 40 years.

This interest rate is the lowest dormitory bonds have sold for and is part of a string of lower rates.

Paul Speer, financial consultant to the regents, said that he does not believe dormitory rates will have to be increased in the future to finance construction.

"REVENUES FROM the present rates should be sufficient to pay a good share of future construction," he said. He also said that expenses other than construction should not increase future dorm rates.

He pointed out that an expanded dormitory system would cost more to operate, but it would also bring in more revenue which should balance increased costs without a rate hike.

Speer also told the board that the Iowa State dorm bonds were the first to be sold since ISU had been given a Mooty rating of "A."

THIS RATING came after an investigation by the Mooty Co. Speer said many firms would not buy bonds in an institution unless it had been rated.

He said SUI also received a rating before 1965 when bonds to finance Phase B of the Quadrangle remodeling work and the Quadrangle addition will be sold.

Once an institution is rated, its bonds automatically have a broader market, Speer explained.

For this reason he is confident that SUI's bonds can be sold for an interest rate comparable to Iowa State's.

THE IOWA STATE bonds will provide for the refunding of about $6.3 million in outstanding indebtedness and for the financing of $8.7 million in new dormitory construction.

This sale of dormitory revenue bonds was the first conducted for ISU. Previous bond sales had been conducted for dormitory programs at SUI and SCI as authorized by a 1963 act of the Iowa Legislature.

SUI was the first of the three institutions to buy bonds under the act and paid the highest rates. SCI followed with a lower rate, and now ISU completes the cycle with the lowest rate.

Goldwater Declines To Discuss Farming

MASON CITY — Sen. Barry Goldwater, making his first visit to Iowa as the Republican presidential nominee, told Iowans Thursday he would not attempt to tell you anything about farming.

A poll of Iowa farm people last week by Wallace's Farmer showed they favored Democratic President Lyndon Johnson over Goldwater 69 per cent to 28 per cent.

Atty. Gen. Evan Hultman, GOP candidate for governor, has said Iowa farmers are afraid Goldwater might eliminate support programs and "jerk the rug out from under them."

GOLDWATER'S failure to spell out clearly his farm program distressed some top state Republicans. National Committeeman Charles Wittenmeyer of Davenport reportedly talked to some of the Arizona senator's aides, urging them to answer farmers' questions about farm policy.

"I know when a candidate comes into farm country he is supposed to make a farm speech," Goldwater said.

"But I was given the biggest ear of corn I have ever seen — so it is obvious I can't tell you anything about farming."

ONE TOP Iowa Republican said later, "It would have been better not to talk about the farm at all than to say that."

Most of Goldwater's prepared speech, which he followed closely, was aimed at what he described as "corruption and incompetence" in the Democratic administration of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Goldwater criticized Democratic agricultural operations and said that the Billie Sol Estes scandal still casts its reflection on the White House.

THE SENATOR was introduced by Hultman. Also on the platform was Republican State Chairman Robert Ray. Neither supported Goldwater at the Republican National Convention, and both have since been criticized by Goldwater supporters for their action.

Goldwater apparently was attempting to heal this split when he said:

"I hope and pray any little differences that might have developed during the primary or the convention may be forgotten so we can have a Republican victory that is typical of the Midwest."

"WE CAN elect and we will elect — but let's do it with unity."

The senator, who had made two speeches earlier in the day at Wichita, Kan., also praised the three Iowa congressmen who were scheduled to meet him but instead remained in Washington because of pending action on a bill dealing with reapportionment of state legislatures.

He called Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper an old friend, and said Sen. Jack Miller "is one of the outstanding young men in the Senate." Of Rep. H. R. Gross, Goldwater said, "If we had a few more like him, we wouldn't be so badly in debt."

Police Chief Stan McClintock estimated the crowd at the wind swept airport at more than 5,500.

Education Act Extended

WASHINGTON — House and Senate conferees reached quick agreement Thursday on a bill broadening and expanding the National Defense Education Act.

The act, originally intended to improve the teaching of mathematics, science and languages, would be extended to include English, geography, history and civics.

of them came out of retirement in the last quarter to recover a three-toothed deficit for a Redskin victory. What with today's platoon systems and all, you just don't hardly see that kind of flamboyant football any more.

When they needed that extra yard for first down or touchdown, there was big Ki Aldrich, the center who was worth any two ordinary linemen. Sammy would simply take the ball, latch onto the seat of Ki's pants and Ki would crunch a pathway right across for a yard or two.

The fans didn't like to see Old Brittlebones carry the ball for fear he'd get hurt, but now and then his receivers would be covered and he would have to run. When he did, the fans would rise up and scream. "No, Sammy, No!" But he would head on down the field, running as jerkily as a string-halter rooster until he got tackled.

Once Steve Van Buren playing against him, looped up to make the tackle. At the last minute, however, he just pushed Baugh out of bounds. When his coach chewed him out for not making a hard tackle, Steve reportedly replied: "Hell, I might have broken one of his bones and that would have lynched me!"

That's how it was then. But the other afternoon the squad came out and practiced in platoons and everybody was a specialist and it seemed like calling the plays was like pushing buttons on an adding machine. It just wasn't the same. Of course, maybe it never was.

Highlanders Select Coeds

The Scottish Highlanders tentatively have chosen 37 coeds from the more than 300 who auditioned.

Selected for musical ability and personality, these new girls will not perform in tomorrow's game with Idaho State. They must first complete satisfactorily the required training session with Highlander instructors.

The all-girl pipe and drum corps will be led by Drum Major Darlene Brady, A4, Maquoketa. Darlene joined the group as a freshman and played the snare drum until she was selected as the understudy for drum major last year.

Tomorrow she will appear in the white dress Stewart kilt and doublet and tall headdress of black ostrich feathers worn by Highlander drum majors since 1937. She will lead the 75 marching coeds who this summer carried their tradition on a 12-week European tour.

Those new members selected include:

Carole Neville, A1, Anamosa; Jane Robertson, A2, Atlantic; Cynthia

Authorization Bill Passed

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate passed late Thursday President Johnson's $3.3-billion foreign aid authorization bill after adopting a compromise solution to its long controversy over legislative reapportionment.
A 45-16 roll call vote passed the measure that sets a ceiling on foreign aid spending for the current fiscal year. Actual funds must be provided in separate legislation.
Passage of the measure, which has been pending in the Senate since Aug. 1, came in a burst of speed after it broke a stalemate created by a liberal Democratic filibuster against a proposal to delay court-ordered reapportionment of both houses of state legislatures on a population basis.
With that issue out of the way, the Senate quickly adopted by voice vote an amendment by Sen. George D. Aiken (R-Vt.) to require of aid contractors doing business with the foreign aid program the same loyalty oath he said is required of beneficiaries of the new war on poverty program.

Khanh Intervenes To Quell Rebellion

BAN ME THUOT, South Viet Nam (AP)—Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh intervened personally Thursday in a simmering rebellion of mountain tribesmen against lowland Vietnamese that a few U.S. Army Special Forces men are trying to mediate. The situation was explosive.
The caretaker premier flew to this heavily garrisoned mountain town, 160 miles north of Saigon, to tackle the problem created last weekend by a bloody uprising of several hundred tribesmen the Americans trained and armed to fight as irregulars against the Communist Viet Cong.
ABOUT 4,000 Government troops and 12 field guns guarded Ban Me Thuot against a possible onslaught by the mountain people, who slew perhaps 50 lowland Vietnamese officers and soldiers at their camps last weekend and seized 50 other Vietnamese as hostages.
The mountaineers, members of the Rhade tribe, did not appear in a mood for bargaining. Wearing camouflaged uniforms, they maintained barricades around four of their camps in the area and kept control of a bridge on the only direct highway to Saigon.
THEY WERE still angry about the ambush by a Vietnamese army unit of a truck convoy of tribesmen who had started through the no man's land toward the Vietnamese lines Tuesday with an assurance of safe conduct. Three of the tribesmen were killed and eight wounded. The wounded were treated by a U.S. Army Special Forces doctor, Capt. Richard Haskell of Old Town, Maine.
Significantly in the middle was Col. John F. Freund, 46, a native of New York, who is deputy senior adviser to the Vietnamese army's 4th Corps.

BRITAIN'S ROCKET—
CANNBERRA, Australia (AP)—Britain's second Blue Streak rocket will be launched at the Woomera range about Oct. 19, it is announced. The projectile is the first stage of a three-stage booster for putting experimental satellites into orbit.

As Iowa kicks off the 1964 season against Idaho Saturday, the question being asked around town is "Just how good are the Hawks?"

We can't answer that question yet since our Hawks are untested, but we can give a brief rundown on this year's personnel.

HEAD COACH Jerry Burns, possessor of one of the finest football minds in the nation, knows his football and he knows it well.

Jerry will be trying to make his "winning edge" program pay off for the first time, as he ended with a 3-3-2 record last year, after bringing a new pro-type offense and a unique physical conditioning program to Iowa.

Assisting Burns with the defense is former Philadelphia Eagle linebacker, Wayne Robinson.

Robinson's peppery chatter during practices has fired up the defensive units and has impressed them with the fact that they must play 100 per cent or get out.

IOWA'S FIRST unit offense is directed by local standout Gary Snook, a fellow who could end up as the Big Ten's best passing quarterback, and he knows it.

Coach Burns is hoping Snook will have adequate protection Saturday and will not have to run out of the pocket and away from a group of hungry blitzers. This year, if Snook completes twice the number of passes he did in four games last year and runs the ball at least half of last year's 44 attempts, Coach Burns will be happy.

—Snook will be throwing quite a bit to captain Tony Giacobazzi, a tight end who will be playing his heart out for an Iowa win instead of personal glory.

Sophomore standout Rich O'Hara has the uncanny ability to be in the right place at the right time. Coach Burns said O'Hara is one of the best sophomores ends he has ever seen and will get better as the season progresses.

FLANKERBACK Karl Noonan, although he is injury prone, has good moves after he catches the ball. He has the ability to get around the defensive halfback for extra yardage.

Kimble could be the breakaway back Iowa is looking for. He has the speed. The only question is whether or not his 161-pound body can take the punishment of the Big Ten season.

Ryan, at right half, is the power play carrier in Burns' pro-type offense. Butch has demonstrated skill in spinning for extra yardage after being hit by tacklers.

HOLDING UP the offensive line at left tackle will be a 6-4, 262-pound hulk named Bob Ziolkowski. There is not a pound of fat on his muscle-toned body.

At the other tackle is 1963 standout Leo Miller. Although a valuable man on defense, Leo has been switched to offense where he has impressed the coaching staff as a "very capable and intelligent ball player."

John Niland, a 238-pound tackle in 1963, has been switched to left guard for the '64 campaign. John has adapted well to his new position.

Bernie Budzik is back to play a very capable game of football at right guard. Bernie has impressed the coaches with his desire and ability to step out on the play and lead ball carriers through the defensive secondary.

TWO-YEAR letterman Dave Recher returns as No. 1 center. The 6-1, 220-pounder could make all-conference this year, if he wants to. Dave is confident the Hawks will be in shape to beat the Vandals Saturday.

The starting defensive club is held together by four former offensive ends. Left end Lou Williams is probably the toughest and will help the team considerably, as long as he holds his volatile temper.

Bill Briggs will hold down the other end with good moves and the ability to stop ball carriers coming over right tackle.

Roving hawkmen Ivory McDowell and Al Randolph will use their catching and running ability to snag Vandal passes and scamper for a sizeable gain.

LINEBACKERS Del Gehrke and Dan Hilsbeck will have the toughest defensive jobs Saturday. Experience is lacking in this department.

Halfbacks Larry McDowell and Bob Sorensen also lack experience, but have shown the ability to cover ground and make tackles in the defensive secondary.

Of the three, Deusch has the experience and potential to be this year's Mike Reilly. Phil will be in on more than his share of tackles.

Hodaway and Mitchell can't be sold short, however. Both have been working hard during fall practice and will be up to Deusch's playing ability after the first couple of games.

1964 Rules Changes

By IVAN B. WILLIAMSON
Chairman, NCAA Football
Rules Committee

College football coaches will be depending more and more on the game clock this year as a result of the new substitution rule enacted by the Football Rules Committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

The rule reads: "Any number of players may be replaced by either team during an intermission between periods. When the game clock is stopped during a period (for any reason) any number of substitutes may enter the game before the ball is put in play. When the game clock is running, two players of each team may enter the game before the ball is put in play."

Thus, coaches will be eying the clock closely this year. There will be ample opportunity for changing platoons, if desired.

Coaches may send in entire teams each time a live ball goes out of bounds. When a touchdown, fieldgoal or safety is scored, when a touchback is made, when a penalty is assessed, or when a time-out is called by either team.

Hawks Continue Workouts; Called 'Ready' for Idaho

Iowa held a light, two-hour practice session Thursday afternoon, reviewing their signals, ball handling and blocking assignments for the Idaho game.

Another substitution drill, held for the benefit of the players as well as the coaches, ended the day's workout.

Coach Burns told his squad he thought they were ready to play football and to beat Idaho Saturday.

Phil Deusch, 215-pound tackle from Detroit, was named honorary captain of the defensive units Thursday and will join captain Tony Giacobazzi at midfield for the tossing of the coin before Saturday's game.

Coach Burns said the Hawkeyes' injury situation has almost been cleared up. Defensive tackle Phil Deusch, offensive guard Bernie Budzik and flankerback Karl Noonan have all been cleared for heavy action Saturday. They have been practicing lightly, allowing minor injuries to mend.

Veteran right halfback Gary Simpson is still recovering from a sprained shoulder and will only be available for PAT and field goal attempts Saturday.

Defensive coach Bill Hoppel Thursday announced one change in his starting defensive unit.

Assistant Coach Hoppel said Moreland will be a good football player at Iowa but needs more time to adjust to collegiate competition.

"Coming from a small high school, Moreland lacks some of the knowledge of the skills of the defensive game at this time," said Hoppel.

NBC comes to Iowa City this afternoon to take pre-game films of the Hawkeyes for next week's regionally televised game here against the University of Washington.
