

D. M. Hospital Fire Routs 100 Patients

DES MOINES (AP) — More than 100 patients, including an infant born after the fire started, were evacuated safely in sub-zero weather Friday as flames raced through Des Moines General Hospital. By midafternoon, the fire was under control, but the walls and roof of the older portion of the hospital, built over 60 years ago, were crumbling.

News In Brief

DES MOINES — The Iowa Legislature apparently will be asked to provide new weapons to be used in combating the use of barbiturate drugs and "stay awake" pills by drivers.

The State Department of Public Safety, the Highway Commission, the Commerce Commission and the narcotics division of the Pharmacy Board are sponsoring a move for legislation that would stiffen penalties for the illegal possession of such drugs.

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. — Building and construction trades workers decided Friday night to end their two-day-old, construction-crippling strike at the nation's moonport.

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia — Destruction of an Indonesian-inspired plot to promote armed revolution in Malaysia was announced by federal police Friday.

Three Malaysian political leaders who oppose Prime Minister Abdul Rahman's policies, were charged with conspiring to slip into Indonesia and set up a rebel government in exile as part of President Sukarno's campaign to crush this British-backed anti-Communist federation.

A fire wall kept flames from a five-story wing built in 1956, but patients there also were evacuated.

Mrs. Willis Condon was in the delivery room of the osteopathic hospital when the first alarm sounded. She and her newborn child were transferred a few minutes later to another hospital.

Operations being performed on two patients were completed after the fire broke out.

Patients able to walk were bundled into coats and blankets and helped down five escapes. Others were wrapped in blankets and carried down on stretchers into 5-be-low-zero cold.

Babies cried as they were carried out in baskets.

Heat from the flames shattered windows, sending glass peppering down onto the escaping 103 adults and six babies who were evacuated. Thick, billowing smoke choked the entire area.

A church across the street from the hospital was converted into a makeshift hospital.

Beleaguered patients there stared vacantly, wrapped in blankets and waiting for the ambulances and rescue units to take them to new hospitals.

Rescue units from small communities near Des Moines were called to help transfer patients. Some were moved in city buses, others in National Guard vehicles.

Mrs. A. E. Nuzum, administrator of the hospital, said a blowtorch being used in a remodeling project was believed to have started the blaze.

Bipartisan Support Seen For Succession Amendment

WASHINGTON — A chorus of bipartisan support arose Friday for swift congressional approval of a constitutional amendment to establish procedures for filling Vice-Presidential vacancies and insuring continuity of Presidential leadership.

Under examination in the Senate Judiciary Subcommittee public hearing was an amendment sponsored by Sen. Birch Bayh (D-Ind.) and 75 other senators. President Johnson in a special message Thursday endorsed the proposal and urged Congress "to act now without further delay."

To become effective, the amendment must be approved by two-thirds of the Senate and House and ratified by three-fourths of the state legislatures.

In his message, Johnson also recommended the prompt approval of another amendment which would make it possible for voters to vote directly for candidates for President and Vice President instead of for electors.

Legislation for this amendment has not been introduced yet, and early action on this suggestion seems unlikely.

The amendment now heading for probable early Senate action provides that when the office of Vice President is vacant — as it was from November 1963 to January 1965 — the President shall nominate a man to fill it, subject to confirmation by a majority of both branches of Congress.

It provides also that when the President is incapacitated, the Vice President shall take over with the approval of a majority of the Cabinet.

Should the President deny he is incapacitated, the Vice President could assume the duties only with Cabinet sanction plus a two-thirds vote of approval by the Senate and House.

Johnson Returns To Office Friday; Flu Bug Lingers

WASHINGTON — White House press secretary George E. Reedy told reporters President Johnson had no plans to come to his office Friday and then get a phone call, and promptly switched signals to say, "He will be in the office for a while."

It turned out that Johnson had quite a schedule of appointments Friday although it was announced late Thursday there would be none. And it was announced Friday there will be none for Saturday.

This was the seventh day the President had been combatting a cold and sore throat and traces of illness remained.

U.S. Warned To Keep out of Buddhist Politics

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE

SAIGON, South Viet Nam — Thich Tri Quang was reported Friday to have laid it on the line to U.S. political officers — he wants Washington to keep hands off future Buddhist political campaigns.

Quang is the Buddhist leader whose eight-day hunger strike, with other Saigon monks, build up pressure that led to the military ouster Wednesday of Tran Van Huu, the American-backed Premier.

He met with the political officers in the first such conference between Americans and ranking Buddhists since the hierarchy stated its final drive against Huu Jan. 20.

Fence-mending was under way. American officials said they feel that, since the Buddhists have now had a major role in bringing down three governments, they are likely to try for more.

U.S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor called on Lt. Gen. Nguyen Khanh for their first conference since the Vietnamese strong man threw out Huu and seized power again.

Through they have been openly critical lately of each other's views on military intervention in government affairs, a U.S. mission spokesman said their relations were normal. They talked a little more than an hour.

Khanh also talked with political leaders of central Viet Nam, a stronghold of Buddhist power marked by continuing anti-American agitation. He has made it clear he now wants to keep in the good graces of the Buddhists.

Stirring, Solemn Pageantry—

Sir Winston Bid A Final Farewell

LONDON (AP) — Britain and the world bid a final farewell today to Sir Winston Churchill with stirring processional pageantry, solemn salutes and brief ritual.

For the old warrior statesman it is the kind of funeral he wanted and at the public day's end he will be buried privately in a quiet country churchyard beside his parents — as he wanted.

The day of the great state funeral arrived with a bluster typical of Churchill at the height of his towering wartime leadership. But the harsh London weather did not deter those who wanted to pay him homage.

IN CHILL and sleet they gathered near St. Paul's Cathedral before dawn to say their last good-bys. Some stood grim and silent waiting through the long, cold hours for the funeral procession.

As the public started lining up for vantage points along the funeral route, two World War II generals — Dwight D. Eisenhower and Charles de Gaulle — paid a solemn, soldierly farewell to the bier of their old comrade in Westminster Hall on Friday night.

The two wartime leaders, both 74, each spent a few minutes of lonely silence near the Churchill catafalque as the procession of mourners filed through the vast, oak-beamed hall.

AT MIDNIGHT, nearly 300,000 persons had moved past the bier since 11 a.m. Wednesday when the lying in state began.

One Government official who watched the long procession confided that Churchill had visited the Ministry of Works several years ago concerning his funeral.

"I want music and bands and I want lots of soldiers," Churchill told the official.

Ten bands and 7,000 soldiers stood ready to march in the procession.

THE AMERICAN Broadcasting Co., Columbia Broadcasting System and National Broadcasting Co. cooperatively will use three passes of the Telstar II communications satellite to broadcast live coverage of the funeral.

Transmissions on the first pass, beginning at 4 a.m. New York time, will be videotaped for broadcast at the networks' opening time three hours later. The second and third passes, however, at 8:50 a.m. and 12:52 p.m., will be presented live.

Negroes Call off Protest March In Jackson, Miss.

JACKSON, Miss. — Negro leaders called off a mass demonstration Friday in response to state court orders and turned to other means to protest the killing of a Negro youth at the county jail.

The Negroes had wanted to march to the Hinds County courthouse to demand suspension of the five officers involved in the shooting of Ollie Shelby, 18. The demonstration was canceled on advice of attorneys for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Four state judges had banned the march on grounds it would interfere with the peace and dignity of the court and its proceedings. NAACP lawyers said a similar order had been upheld by the federal courts in 1963 and they urged Negroes to comply.

Charles Evers, NAACP field secretary in Mississippi, announced the cancellation, and called for LeRoy Collins, director of the Federal Community Relations Service, to personally join in the investigation. Collins' job, set up under the 1964 Civil Rights Act, is to act as arbitrator in racial disputes.

Federal, county and city investigations are being pushed into the killing, which has incensed the Negro community here.

Shelby, from nearby Flora, came here Jan. 21 looking for work. He was arrested for allegedly making indecent gestures at a white woman and on Friday was sentenced to six months in jail.

The shooting occurred shortly after he was taken to the county jail on the fifth floor of the courthouse.

Officers said Shelby attacked a policeman and tore off his shirt in an effort to grab a pistol. A deputy sheriff coming to the policeman's aid was hurled to the floor by the youth, authorities said.

490 Will Receive Diplomas Today

With Highest Distinction!

The old adage, "two heads are better than one," has been borne out by this Iowa couple who will graduate at the top of their class today. Roy Caldwell and his wife, Margaret, earned bachelor of arts degrees with highest distinction in zoology and psychology. Both are members of Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic society, and both taught courses in zoology this past year. The couple plans to enter graduate study at Iowa.

Professor Kennedy To Give Address

Mid-winter commencement exercises for approximately 490 students will begin at 10 a.m. today in the Field House.

Twenty-two of the candidates for degrees will be graduated with honors in the ceremony. The list includes those who ranked in the top 10 per cent of their class academically and those who are members of the University Honors Program.

The top 2 per cent of those graduating throughout the year are graduated "with highest distinction"; the next 3 per cent "with high distinction"; and the next 5 per cent "with distinction." University President Howard R. Bowen will deliver the traditional charge to the graduates.

FRANK R. KENNEDY, professor of law at the University of Michigan will address the candidates on the topic "In Praise of the Open Mind."

Kennedy formerly was a member of the U of I faculty.

More than 200 advanced degrees will be conferred by President Bowen. More than 30 degrees will be presented to students graduating from professional colleges and 250 bachelor's degrees will be presented by the deans of the colleges.

The University Symphony Band, led by Frederick C. Ebbs, director of bands, will provide music.

The graduates represent 35 states and 14 foreign countries.

The commencement ceremonies will be broadcast by WSUI with commentary by H. Clay Harshbarger, professor and chairman of speech and dramatic art.

FACULTY MARSHALS will be Richard Braddock, associate professor of English and coordinator of the Rhetoric program; Richard G. Peebler, assistant to the dean of the College of Business Administration; Donald E. Rhoades, director of admissions and registrar and director of convocations; and J. Richard Wilmet, associate professor of speech and anthropology.

William D. Coder, director of conferences and institutes, will be master of ceremonies. The invocation will be given by Robert S. Michaelson, director of the School of Religion.

Platform officials and guests will be: Pres. Bowen, Kennedy, Coder, Michaelson, Willard Boyd, vice president for academic affairs and dean of faculties; Alvin Dakin, administrative dean; Orville Hitchcock, acting dean of the Graduate College; Dewey Stuit, dean of the College of Liberal Arts; Mason Ladd, dean of the College of Law; Robert Hardin, dean of the College of Medicine and vice president for medical services; George Easton, dean of the College of Dentistry; Louis Zopf, dean of the College of Pharmacy; Arthur W. 28 More Cadets Leave Academy; Total Reaches 93

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. — Twenty-eight more cadets have resigned from the U.S. Air Force Academy, it was announced Friday, in the two-week investigation of cheating at examinations.

This brings to 93 the number who have resigned in the first scandal to strike the nation's newest service school. The investigation first was disclosed Jan. 19.

The official announcement did not go beyond the statement of 28 additional resignations and spokesmen refused to enlarge on it.

Earlier, a report swept the academy that the 65 cadets who resigned earlier were directly connected with stolen examination papers.

U.S. Preparing Big Atomic Bang Soon

WASHINGTON — The United States is preparing even bigger bangs in its underground nuclear testing, still keeping within the terms of the limited test ban treaty.

The Atomic Energy Commission disclosed this Friday in its annual report, revealing also that the equipment and plans for swift resumption of atmospheric testing of nuclear weapons are essentially completed and ready for use if the pact is violated by any nation.

The treaty prohibits atmospheric, outer space or surface tests of nuclear devices. It permits underground detonations if there is no escape of radioactive contamination beyond the local area or the territorial limits of a country.

The Soviet Union recently conducted an underground test from which radioactive traces in the air were detected outside that country's boundaries. Moscow, answering an inquiry by the United States, was reported to have said this resulted accidentally.

During 1964, the United States conducted 29 underground tests, ranging in yield from a few up to 200-kiloton category, the commission reported.

Heart Attack Fells TV Actor Larkin

HOLLYWOOD — Actor John Larkin, 52, died Friday of a heart attack. He played the role of Gen. Wiley Crowe in the ABC-TV series, "Twelve O'Clock High."

He had appeared in more than 7,500 separate radio and television roles, dating back to the late 1930s, and also appeared in motion pictures in character roles.

He was the "Perry Mason" of the network radio show from the late 1940s to the early 50s, and then played the leading role of Mike Karr in the daytime network television show, "Edge of Night," until 1961.

Meningitis Scare Hits West Branch School

Over 6,000 doses of sulfa tablets have been administered to students in the West Branch school since Wednesday when the illness of one of the students was diagnosed as spinal meningitis.

Susan Schrock, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schrock of Route 2, West Branch, became ill at the school Wednesday with what was later termed spinal meningitis.

She was listed in fair condition Friday at Mercy Hospital. Immediate preventative treatment was recommended by medical authorities who identified the disease. Any one who may have come into contact with the girl should take the sulfa drug, they said.

ACCORDING to the medical authorities, there is no immediate danger of the disease spreading if proper precautions are taken. They said the treatment is effective if diagnosed early.

The school business office was converted into an emergency room for the distribution of the sulfa, and all high school students and teachers were brought in to receive the drug. Many younger students who might have been in contact with her also were given the drug.

Students who had left the school earlier and those who were absent were recalled or notified of the emergency.

School Superintendent John Spiess said the treatment was begun as a precautionary measure.

Although many students were "quite concerned," there was no panic, according to Principal Glen Jensen. He said a careful search was made through school records to see which students had classes with the Schrock girl.

Spinal meningitis is an acute infectious disease caused by bacteria. The symptoms are fever, severe headache, chills, stiff neck, vomiting and sometimes skin rash.

No cases of meningitis have been reported in Iowa City, according to Dr. E. W. Paulus, health officer. Persons who may have been exposed to the disease should see a physician, he said.

Meningitis can be spread by nose, throat or personal contact.

Stopping Deadly Epidemic

Silver in Coins May Be Eliminated

Congress soon will receive a presidential request to eliminate silver from the coin system, according to Senator Jack Miller (R-Iowa).
In his regular newsletter, "Report to the Hawkeye State," Miller cited the steady decline in the U.S. Treasury stocks of silver. This decline will leave the United States with an inadequate supply of coins, Miller said.
"Due largely to increased industrial uses of silver, the price has increased from 91 cents an ounce to around $1.29," Miller said, "and there are fears that the price will continue to move up to the point that more than 50 cents worth of silver would be in the half-dollar."

"It would then be profitable to melt down the coins and sell the silver," he said.
With the present market price of silver at $1.29, there is 47 cents worth of silver in the half-dollar and proportional values in other coins, Miller said.
$50 WEEKLY PAY—
LONDON (AP)—The average gross wage for workers in British industry reached a peak of $50.40 a week in 1964, the Labor Ministry reported. This was an increase of 8.1 per cent over 1963.

Merchants Urged To Delay Judgment on Renewal Plans

An appeal to Iowa City merchants to listen to proposed plans for urban renewal before condemning them was voiced Thursday night by Clark Houghton, president of the chamber of Commerce.
An audience of approximately 500 heard Houghton urge that they hold back their judgment on the urban renewal proposals until the city planner and the City Council had presented their arguments.
Speaking at the Chamber's annual meeting, he said, "I'm not anxious to bid against outside interests for our bank's location, but I have enough faith in our City Council that I am willing to listen, to see an overall plan, and then to accept it, reject it in part, or reject all of it."
Houghton is president of First National Bank.
He said he felt the City Council would not go ahead with the plan if it were against the wishes of the city businessmen.
He added, however, that every planning expert who has visited the city has cited a need for development of the central business district. The Citizens Advisory Committee and a Chamber of Commerce committee reached similar conclusions, he said.

University Expands Classes; Commuting Area To Benefit

University classes will run from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. next semester as the University expands its evening and Saturday course schedule to offer more learning opportunities for those in the commuting area.
Registration for the more than 35 afternoon and evening residence courses to be offered by the University will begin Monday at 8 a.m. Students planning to take evening or afternoon classes must register between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. either Monday or Tuesday.
The resident courses carry full credit toward a degree and all are taught by regular U of I faculty members. Fees are commensurate with the number of credit hours taken.
Among the courses to be offered this spring are 29 in the College of Liberal Arts, six in the College of Education and four in the College of Engineering.
THE LIBERAL arts courses include classes in art, chemistry, comparative literature, English, general science, geography, home economics, journalism, music, physical education—women, psychology and speech pathology.
In addition to residence courses, the University will continue to offer more than 160 courses through correspondence study, extension classes in Cedar Rapids, Davenport, Fort Madison, Keokuk and the Quad Cities, Saturday classes and three radio courses for credit.

Long Distance Phone Rates To Be Reduced

Those bi-weekly phone calls to that boyfriend in Texas or that sister in New York may be costing you less after Monday.
According to R. A. Williams, local Northwestern Bell Telephone Company manager, rates for station-to-station calls to many out-of-state cities will be reduced beginning Monday.
Lower evening rates also will be in effect all day Saturday and the lowest rates of all will be in effect all day Sunday as well as after 8 p.m. the rest of the week.
Lowest night rates on out-of-state calls will begin at 8 p.m. instead of 9 p.m. These rates also will apply on all interstate calls to cities more than 220 miles away.
For example, the maximum charge for a 3-minute call from Iowa City to any place in the continental United States except Alaska will be 90 cents or less.
Week day evening rates for station-to-station calls to other states also will apply all day Saturday till 8 p.m. when the lowest night rates will go into effect. These rates will last until 4:30 a.m. Monday.

Iowa Downs No. 1 UCLA, 87-82

Pervall Hits 28 Points; Peoples Sprains Ankle

By CURT SYLVESTER
Staff Writer

Chicago, Ill. — Iowa's Hawkeyes, taking the role of the underdog and wearing it like a crown, Friday night upset UCLA, 87-82, before 13,900 in the Chicago Stadium.

The win was Iowa's third against a nationally ranked team and gave the Hawks a 10-3 mark for the season. They had previously beaten Minnesota and Indiana when they were among the nation's top ten.

UCLA, ranked No. 1 in the Associated Press poll for several successive weeks, had won 43 of its last 44 ball games before Friday night.

Playing against the touted UCLA pressure, the Hawks battled the Bruins on even terms in the first half. Both teams left the floor deadlocked at 45-45.

In the second half, Iowa proved it could exert a little of its own pressure, grabbing the lead at the opening jump and never losing it.

FORWARD CHRIS Pervall led all scorers with 28, but without the support of excellent outside shooting from Jimmy Rodgers and Dennis Pauling, Iowa's upset bid would have fallen short. Both Pauling and Rodgers picked up the scoring punch when it began to lag in the first half. It was Rodgers' 15-foot jump shot which augmented Pervall's scoring in the second half that kept the Hawks out of UCLA's scoring range.

UCLA gave Iowa its biggest scare with five minutes left. Ron Washington, a reserve forward, quickly whittled Iowa's lead from a substantial 77-70 to a meager 77-76. Washington sank three successive buckets in that span.

The Bruins' pressure at that point had stymied the Hawks momentarily, as Iowa twice failed to get the ball across the center line within the allotted 10 seconds. The Hawkeyes gained their confidence and held their own against UCLA's defensive experts, especially in rebounding.

Iowa center George Peoples injured his ankle with seven minutes left to play. The team trainer said it was a bad sprain. This might limit Peoples' play in Iowa's next home game against Northwestern, Feb. 6.

UCLA out-rebounded Iowa, 47-40. Peoples collected 12 before he left the game, and Jones had 9.

The first half had been a back and forth affair finally ending in a 45-45 tie. Iowa had taken an early lead on the play of Pervall who scored 8 of the Hawks 10 points sparking them to a 10-6 lead.

That 4 point lead, was the best the Hawks could build up as UCLA kept battling back on the scoring and rebounding of Keith Erickson, their 6-5 guard.

ERICKSON who led the Bruins scoring with 24 points, scored 18 points and grabbed 3 vital defensive rebounds in the first half to provide the spark the Bruins needed to keep them from falling behind the Hawks. Combined with 3 free throws and a field goal by Goodrich, UCLA stayed close and finally took the lead with approximately seven minutes left in the first half.

In the closing minutes of the half the teams traded leads and hit tied scores on several occasions. Trailing 34-30, the Hawks came storming back on two quick fielders by Jimmy Rodgers and the score was tied with 4:45 left in the half. Rodgers then added a free throw and a 15 foot jumper after Washington had given UCLA a momentary lead.

But the pressing Bruins surged again and it took a free throw and two quick field goals by Pauling to give the Hawks a lead, 43-42.

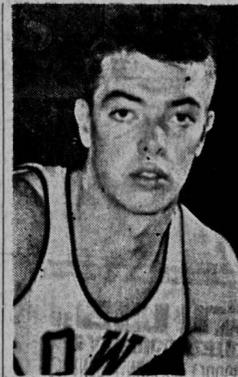

AT THE FINAL gun, many fans from the large Iowa delegation, rushed to the Iowa bench to help carry Coach Ralph Miller from the court.

In the opener of the double header, underdog Loyola fought back from a 9 point deficit, 48-39, accumulated by Wichita in the first half to end 93-92 with a lay up shot by forward Tom Markey with 2 seconds left in the overtime period.

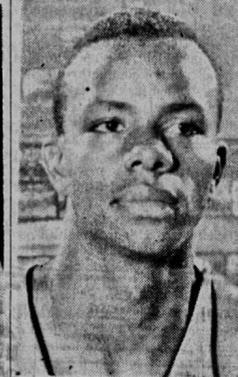

Wichita forced the game into overtime by knotting the score 83-83 with 30 seconds left in regulation play.

The game's leading scorer was Dave Stallworth, Wichita's star forward, who dumped in a total of 45 points and grabbed 19 rebounds. Iowa will meet Northwestern Feb. 6 in continuation of league play.

Iowa To Open Fencers Open Season In Chicago Today

Opening date for the University of Iowa's spring football practice is Monday, April 19 and the fourth annual clinic for coaches is May 14 and 15.

The Hawkeyes will have 20 days of practice, as prescribed by the rules, and will work six days a week.

Bad weather may make it necessary to cancel some drills, Burns said, but the schedule allows a leeway of four days.

The Iowa fencing team will open its season in Chicago today against Indiana Tech and the University of Chicago. Culver Military Academy was originally on the schedule, but that team cancelled out.

The Hawks are under the guidance of Richard Marks, who fenced for Notre Dame last year.

The team is led by Mike Kinsinger, the 1964 Big Ten foil champion who finished ninth in the NCAA meet last season. Kinsinger's record was 62 wins and 17 losses, the best of any Iowa fencer.

Other men competing in the foil class will be Al Hostetter, Orville Townsend, and Larry Brown.

Men scheduled to compete in the sabre division are footballer Karl Ryan, Dick Adams Jr., Wayne Whitmore, and Steve Combs.
