Water Show Tops Festival Schedule

By JUDY BRUHN
Staff Writer

A new concept in riverbanking will be offered this afternoon when the Spring Festival moves to the west bank of the Iowa River for water, land and sky shows.

The events, billed as a water festival, are scheduled from 1:30 to 4:15 p.m., subject to the weather.

TODAY the 10th International Festival of Folklore will be held in the Union Main Lounge from 7 to 11 p.m. It will feature exhibits and a stage show portraying the customs and cultures of 33 countries whose students attend the University.

The stage show will be presented from 8 to 9:30 p.m.

A parade at 12:30 p.m. is to touch off the afternoon's activities. It will start from the Union parking lot and go past the dormitories, fraternities and sororities.

The parade will include antique cars, Shriners and campus beauty queens.

The water festival will be held between the Art Building and the University Theatre. The stage for land activities is north of the Art Building.

THE FESTIVAL will open with a splash. Three skydivers will jump into the river from a plane 7,200 feet in the air. Their target will be an inflated inner tube.

The skydivers are Charles Freyermuth, E3, Muscatine; Donald Schultz, 521 E. Linn St., a pharmacist at University Hospital; and Arnold Sperslage, D3, Mt. Pleasant.

They will make two jumps each, one at 1:30 p.m. and the other at 3:30 p.m.

Sailboat races by the Sailing Club are scheduled to begin at 2:15 p.m. A water ski show is set for 3:10 p.m. and canoe races among representatives of men's housing units for 3:40 p.m.

Back on land, folksing groups will take over the stage at 2:25 p.m. At 2:50 p.m. will be a fashion show sponsored by Moe Whitebook.

SOME STUDENTS will have a chance to gorge themselves during the pie-eating contest scheduled for 3:40 p.m. Others, who haven't, will put on a gymnastics exhibition at 4 p.m.

Friday night was Carni, the campus carnival, in the Field House.

Spring Festival, which opened Thursday afternoon, is dedicated to Ted McCarrel, executive dean of Student Services.

Wind Increases Danger To Guttenberg Levees

Waves Batter Hasty Dikes Along River

Evacuation Units Asked To Be Ready in Case Shore-Up Efforts Fail

GUTTENBERG — Wind whipped waves crashed over a dike protecting Guttenberg Friday, but the city threw up a new wall that eased the flood threat from the swollen Mississippi River.

Waves created by the first winds in days were battering already strained dikes up and down the river.

The water slipped over about a block-wide segment of the wall that holds back about four feet of water from two thirds of Guttenberg, a town of about 1,900 persons.

THIRTY TRUCKS and scores of volunteers, including high school girls, boosted the dike to a safe level. Two secondary dikes were thrown up behind a critical corner in case it should be breached.

DES MOINES — Gov. Harold Hughes urged sightseers Friday to stay away from flood-threatened areas along the Mississippi River this weekend.

Hughes said he had asked the Highway Patrol to be ready to send additional men into eastern Iowa if traffic conditions become too bad.

"It is imperative," Hughes said, "with the increased intensity of the battle against the flood waters of the Mississippi River, that no one enter the immediate vicinity of the flood areas other than those who have legitimate business, homes or some emergency that would require them to be there."

Only a few residents left their homes, although the Coast Guard and the State Conservation Commission at Dubuque were asked to send up boats in case the dike gave way.

Water over Highway 52 into Guttenberg from the south cut off the route to motorists, but the big trucks carrying dirt went roaring through to aid in the battle to hem off the river, which at dusk was only inches away from a crest.

THE DIKE PROTECTING Guttenberg winds around the north end of town for about two thirds of a mile. Only a little water has seeped into residential areas, but some businesses have thrown up high walls of sandbags in case the dike fails.

Fran Mertes of the U.S. Army Corps Engineers, said, "I'm sure the town can hold out. The dikes here are real good now."

Around the clock patrols will be maintained on the dikes until the crisis is over.

While volunteers were throwing sandbags on the dike, other Guttenberg residents were on boats shuttling to a nearby island where several homes and cottages had water to the eaves. The boats were bringing out personal belongings and furniture left when the home owners evacuated.

DOWNSTREAM, THE city of Dubuque tensely awaited its moment of truth with the mighty Mississippi, which is expected to crest there Sunday.

City officials, who early Friday said they were confident that key dikes would hold, became concerned late in the day when the winds came up and the crest was boosted about three inches to 26.7 feet.

Condition of Coed Serious After Motorcycle Mishap

A coed was seriously injured in a motorcycle accident at about 3:45 p.m. at Bowery and Johnson St. The coed was Janice Caldwell, A4, Newton, who was in serious condition Friday night at University Hospital.

Miss Caldwell was riding a motorcycle driven by Joseph Mooney, A1, Leawood, Kan., when it was involved in a collision with an auto driven by Richard Lee Hahn, Cedar Rapids.

Hahn was charged with failure to yield the right of way.

Des Moines Hit By 85 MPH Winds

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A line of heavy thunderstorms with tornadic winds passed through Des Moines and south central Iowa Friday night.

Wind velocities of 85 miles an hour at the Des Moines Airport and 70 miles an hour further west were reported by the Weather Bureau from Radar findings.

The power was knocked out in a number of populated areas, including the northern part of Des Moines.

The Weather Bureau later issued a tornado warning until 10 p.m. for vicinity of Runnels, about 15 miles southeast of Des Moines.

The storm disturbance, coming from the west, stretched as far north as Marshalltown and as far south as Oskaloosa and Sigourney.

About $5,000 Collected Here For Selma Aid

More than $5,000 has been collected by the Friends of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) for the Selma Freedom Fund.

A check for about $4,300 was sent Friday to SNCC Headquarters in Atlanta, Ga. The money will be channeled through Atlanta to Selma, Ala., and the 19 black belt counties surrounding Selma.

Individuals and groups have sent funds for more than $1,000 directly to Atlanta, bringing the total to more than $5,000.

According to a Friends of SNCC spokesman, everyone who participated in the hunger strike held in March to raise money for the freedom fund is in good physical shape.

Steve Smith, E2, Marion, a participant in the hunger strike, said:

"I think it is terrific that people felt it was necessary to contribute to the Selma Freedom Fund."

"I hope they will follow up with support by writing to their Congressmen, asking him to back the Freedom Democratic Party challenge and free elections as part of the voting bill."

A Check for Selma

Steve Smith, E2, Marion, and Seymour Gray, A4, Des Moines, view the product of their efforts and those of other members of Friends of SNCC. Smith and Gray withdrew the check from the First National Bank of Iowa City Friday afternoon. The $4,270 will be sent to the SNCC office in Atlanta, Ga., where it will be distributed to the 19 counties surrounding Selma, Ala. More than $600 has already been sent to Atlanta.

Law Problems Of India Told

The problem that law in India faces is that of "pushing a bulldozer cart into the nuclear age," according to Phiroze Irani, head of the department of law, Bombay.

That problem, Irani told 200 persons attending his Murray lecture at the Iowa Memorial Union Friday night, can only be solved if Indian law becomes a reflection of the economic and social fabric of India.

Irani had sharp words of criticism for lawyers of India. He said the uniform composition of the Indian courts has made "lawyer" synonymous with reactionary and has led to frequent clashes between the Indian judiciary and the legislature.

Irani said the British Common Law-based legal system of India has made strides in dissolving the 5,000-year-old caste system, untouchables previously bound to agriculture, and redistributing the nation's wealth. That, in turn, has made India a country of true political democracy and the beginnings of economic democracy.

Irani, educated at Harvard and Bombay, defended against criticism that India had resorted to socialism to solve its problems of the caste system or wealth redistribution.

"The whole approach of the Indian government," he said, "has been pragmatic, and the approach cannot be called by any particular name."

Irani was introduced by Prof. Allan D. Vestal, of the College of Law. Irani was a guest of the College of Law for its annual Supreme Court Day Friday.

Saturday Class Problems Still Plague Departments

By GAYLE HALLENBECK
Staff Writer

Plans for Saturday classes are progressing but the directive is still presenting problems for some departments.

Because geology is a field science, said Brian F. Glenister, associate professor of geology, field trips are important for the study of geology.

Since many graduates teach the Earth Science classes that are scheduled for Saturday mornings, the graduates will not be able to take as many field trips as they should, Glenister said.

Several department officials said listing laboratories as general classroom space complicated scheduling so that some courses, in order to meet, had to be scheduled in places not ordinarily considered classroom space.

SOME JOURNALISM graduate students will be taking seminar courses in faculty offices, said Richard W. Budd, assistant to the director of the School of Journalism.

Those in the graduate program, Budd said, must take a number of two-hour seminars. In order that the seminar not conflict, and because all two-hour courses must be held after 2:30 p.m., the seminars are being scheduled at all times, even when general classroom space is not available. This means that faculty offices will become unofficial classrooms.

"We are limited by the fact that the journalism school cannot hold more than 10 class meetings throughout the week at any one class hour in general classroom space," Budd said.

"If we hold any more classes than we are allowed, we have to go outside the general classroom space," he said.

SOME department officials thought that attendance would drop in classes held on Saturdays.

Stanley Wawzonek, chairman of the chemistry department, said that his department had tried scheduling Saturday laboratory meetings but, since they could not find enough interested students, they had to drop the program.

Get Ready for Festival

City To Hire 40 Youths To Work on 8 Projects

Iowa City will undertake a Neighborhood Youth Corps program this summer that will involve 40 youths working in eight city improvement projects.

JOHN ADAMSON, ASSISTANT to the city manager, will be the project director. He received federal approval for the program Wednesday when he was in Kansas City to confer with the regional administrator of the Neighborhood Youth Corps.

The program will cost $31,000, of which $26,900 will come from federal funds and $4,100 from the city.

In addition, the city will contribute about $20,000 for capital improvements. This will be for the purchase of material to build twelve 25-man picnic shelters and a footbridge across a creek at Court Hill Park.

Six shelters will be built at City Park, four at Court Hill Park, one at Brooklyn Park, and one at Market Square Park.

IN ADDITION to the footbridge and picnic shelter projects, the program will include:

- Riverbank improvement at the old city landfill, which will involve grading and planting a 150-foot strip.

- Cleanup and landscaping of city-owned rights of way where no streets exist now.
- Cleanup of an 80-acre cemetery tract to become Northeast Park.
- Tree and brush clearance of a northwest tract to become Riverfront Park.
- Cleanup of the North Dubuque Street section of City Park, where the proposed U of I Fine Arts Center is to be built.
- Straightening the creek, landscape and lay drainage tile in Brooklyn Park.

EACH PROJECT WILL be undertaken by eight-man teams. The youths will work 32 hours a week and will be paid $1.25 an hour.

Qualified youth must be between 16 and 21 years old and must live in Johnson County. Since the program is intended to aid those from low-income families, preference will be given to those referred by the Johnson County Department of Social Welfare.

Phi Kappa Psi Wins 'Bowl'

The first question of the College Bowl Quiz finals was read by moderator Bruce French, A3, Reinbeck, Friday afternoon. The Phi Kappa Psi quiz team took the first place trophy against the "No Name" team in the final competition of the quiz bowl series.

Students To Present Papers—

Med Conference Set

Eleven University medical students will present papers at the original research they conducted here at the Student Research Conference Tuesday afternoon.

The conference will be held at the Medical Amphitheater at General Hospital starting at 12:55 p.m. Elliot N. Partridge, M4, Collins, chairman of the event, will give the introduction.

The guest speaker is Dr. Robert W. Berliner, Director of Intramural Research, National Heart Institute, Bethesda, Maryland.

A banquet at the Athletic Club will follow.

The students who will present their papers were chosen by a five man committee from 23 students that submitted abstracts.

Selected for the presentations were: Norman J. Lewiston, M4, Iowa City; Bernard E. Howter, M4, Des Moines; Lawrence D. Door, G, Iowa City; Stephen M. Weinberg, M2, Davenport; John J. Placek, M2, Webster City; Donald W. Nibelink, M4, Orange City; Robert E. Hoekman, M2, Maurice; Donald D. Brown, M3, Iowa City; George W. Counts, M4, Iowa City; Melvin A. Ochs, M2, Charles City; and R. Bruce Bedell, M4, Iowa City.

The student who presents the best paper will be given the Borts Award by Alpha Kappa Kappa, professional medical fraternity.

The Borts award was established last year at the conference in honor of Dr. Irving H. Borts, professor Emeritus in the College of Medicine.

Borts has been a member of AKK since his undergraduate work at the University. He received his M.D. in 1928 and was on the University Hospitals staff until he retired in 1964.

The Student Research Conference was started three years ago when a student-faculty committee decided that a great deal of significant student research at the University was going unrecognized, said Partridge.

The conference is sponsored by the Council of Iowa Medical Students with the support of the faculty.

Dr. Robert C. Hardin, Dean of the Medical College, said the students set the conference up themselves to promote research in the student body.

"It has been a success and is growing," he said. "It is enthusiastically accepted by the faculty, and the faculty is proud of the quality of the work being presented."

A student's local research club is being formed on campus in an effort to increase research, he added.

An example of the kind of research that has been conducted is one project by George M. Counts, M4, Iowa City, called "Chemical Studies of Carbohydrate Metabolism in Experimental Staphylococcal Infections."

Counts explained that he had been experimenting to determine the effect of exercise on chemical changes in the blood with infected mice.

"It's just one aspect of a project I've been working on for several years," said Counts. He spent last November and December working on his project seven days a week while on vacation from school.

Sorority Sets Anniversary

Alpha Delta Pi sorority will celebrate its 50th anniversary Sunday and dedicate its new chapter house at 111 E. Bloomington St.

Mrs. Rex E. Van Akin of Beverly, Mass., grand vice president of collegiate chapters, and Mrs. Frank Engstrom of Chicago, province president, will be guests of honor.

The day's program comprises a dinner at the chapter house at 12:30 p.m., a dedication program featuring those members of 50 years able to attend and a tea for active members, alumnae and guests.

Alpha Delta Pi was installed on the University's campus at Alpha Beta chapter on Jan. 17, 1915, from a local sorority, Theta Phi.

One of the early initiates was Mrs. Eleanor Jessup, wife of the late president of the University.

The old house at 222 N. Clinton St., now owned by Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity, was built in 1926 and occupied by the sorority until the fall of 1964, when the new chapter house was completed.

Active members in charge of committees are: Linda R. Nolan, A2, Guthrie Center, general chairman; Kay Asher, A3, Floydada, Texas, exhibits chairman; Linda L. Stofor, A2, Perry, corresponding secretary; Sheila Bauer, A2, Livingston, N.J., dedication chairman; and Sherry S. Birk, A3, Earlham, tea chairman.

Greeks Help Fund Drive

The Johnson County Cancer Drive is getting an assist from the Greek system at the University. Contributions from all of the fraternities and sororities on campus will be collected Monday night and presented as one donation to the American Cancer Society.

Steve Trecker, A3, Whippany, N.J., president of Delta Tau Delta, said Friday that teams of three members of that fraternity will visit all Greek houses Monday night between 5:30 and 6:30 p.m. during dinner hours or chapter meetings. They will ask for contributions from each chapter member.

Trecker said that a certificate of merit or some similar award would be given to the three houses which make the largest contributions.

Delta Tau Delta is working on the project in conjunction with the Interfraternity Council and with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson, 715 W. Park Rd. Co-chairmen for the Johnson County Cancer Drive.

Music Group Set To Play

The Iowa Woodwind Quintet will present a pilot program for Young Audiences, Inc., at 10:45 a.m. Tuesday at Longfellow School in Iowa City.

Playing for some 300 students in grades four through six will be five members of The University of Iowa School of Music staff — assistant professor, Betty Bang, flute; Wilma Zonn, oboe; associate professor Thomas A. Ayres, clarinet; associate professor Paul C. Anderson, French horn; and graduate assistant Stephen J. Basson, bassoon.

300,000 Could Stop All-out Red Viet Attack

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials said Friday it might take up to 300,000 American troops to help South Viet Nam stem a full-scale Chinese invasion.

But they said nothing like this is in prospect at this time.

The officials said there is no evidence that either the Soviet Union or Red China are moving toward a large-scale intervention in Southeast Asia.

On the American side, they said, no decision involving the sending of further U.S. forces to South Viet Nam has been made.

CORRECTION

Kris Randerson, A1, Highland Park, Ill., Pi Beta Phi, is pinned to Steve Trecker, A3, Whippany, N.J., Delta Tau Delta; and Julie Withington, A1, Des Moines, Delta Gamma, is pinned to Steve Smith, A2, Keokuk, Sigma Chi.

Friday's Daily Iowan said Miss Randerson was pinned to both Smith and Trecker.

The Daily Iowan regrets the error.

MAA MEETING

Five professors and two graduate students from the University's mathematics department will attend a meeting Friday of the Mathematical Association of America (MAA) at Dubuque.

Professors A. T. Craig, R. V. Hogg, H. T. Mubly, E. N. Oberg, and D. W. Wall and graduate students Albert D. Otto and Richard A. Vandervelde will attend.

Prof. Craig will present an invited address entitled, "Some Problems in Distribution Theory." Mr. Otto will present a paper entitled, "Central Automorphisms of a Finite P-Group."

Prof. Wall has been elected to a three-year term as governor of the MAA from the Iowa section.

MUSIC WINNER

Penelope Peterson, A3, Mason City, has won the student award in national auditions for orchestral wind instruments sponsored by the National Federation of Music Clubs. Miss Peterson plays the flute.

In addition to receiving $200 as winner of the competition, she will play at a banquet of the Federation's biennial convention today in Miami Beach, Fla.

ART LECTURE

An illustrated lecture on the "Art and Doctrine of Orthodoxy" will be given by Professor and Mrs. Nicolas Zernov at 8 p.m. Monday in the Art Building auditorium at The University of Iowa.

The lecture, open to the public, is sponsored jointly by the School of Religion and the School of Art. It will feature a number of slides showing the art of the Eastern Orthodox Church.

Peace Corps Loans Open For Summer

College juniors who wish to spend the summer before their senior year preparing for post-graduation Peace Corps service now may borrow up to $600 to help pay their senior year school expenses, according to an April 14 announcement by the Peace Corps. Repayment may be deferred until after Peace Corps service has been completed.

The loan program is the product of an agreement between United Student Aid Fund, Inc. (USA Fund), and the Peace Corps Volunteers Fund, a non-profit foundation established by the Peace Corps National Advisory Council.

The privately funded loans are guaranteed by USA Fund, a non-profit corporation providing loan guarantees to students on 700 campuses. More than 6,000 banks throughout the United States participate in the program.

The loans are designed to enable more third-year college students to enroll in the Peace Corps Advanced Training Program, a plan providing training before and after the senior year.

Advanced Program trainees will begin their Peace Corps Training in June. They will receive travel and living allowances while training. Selection for the Advanced Training Program will be by the standard method used for the regular program.

Advanced trainees will return to their regular college following the eight-week summer program. After graduation they will return to a training center for eight more weeks of intensive instruction. Trainees who successfully complete the final training program will then begin work abroad as regular Peace Corps Volunteers.

High School Seniors On Campus for Rush

About 170 male high school seniors interested in the University and fraternity life came to Iowa City Friday evening.

These seniors from throughout the Midwest will participate in an orientation program promoting the University and the Greek system. The program is sponsored by the Interfraternity Council.

Activities for the high school guests will begin at 9 a.m. today when they register and receive information in the Union South Lobby.

At 11:15 a.m. they will attend an orientation program in the New Chemistry Auditorium. Robert W. Hubbell, dean of men, Eldridge W. Roark, fraternity adviser, and Bill Rosebrook, IFC president, will speak.

The prospective University students will attend the Spring Festival along the Iowa River in the afternoon. Evening meals will be served in the 19 fraternity houses and groups of high school students will spend the night in various fraternity houses.

Orientation meetings will be held at five fraternity houses. At these meetings fraternity members will answer questions about the University and fraternity life. Emphasis at these meetings will be on the responsible role of the Greek system in University life.

The program will end at noon Sunday when the high school seniors may go to the fraternity house of their choice for dinner.

U of I Man To Go To Ohio College

A University doctoral candidate has been appointed to the staff of Wittenberg University's undergraduate college in Springfield, Ohio.

The candidate, Richard E. Crang, who expects to earn his Ph.D. degree this summer, will go to Wittenberg as an assistant professor of biology in September.

Crang is now a graduate assistant at the University and will teach in summer session. He graduated from Eastern Illinois University in 1958 and earned his M.A. degree in 1962 at the University of South Dakota.

Crang taught biology from 1958 to 1961 at Palestine, Ill., High School. He holds membership in the American Institute of Biological Sciences, Botanical Society of America, Iowa Academy of Science, Midwest Society for Electron Microscopy, National Association of Biology Teachers and the Society of Sigma Xi.

Illini Sock Hawks, 5-2

Iowa Gets Off To A Shaky Start and Fails To Recover

By CURT SYLVESTER
Staff Writer

Iowa's previously stalwart defense played give-away Friday afternoon and the hitting couldn't make up for it as the Hawks dropped their Big Ten opener to Illinois, 5-2.

Ken Holtzman, Illinois' sophomore lefthander, contained the Hawks on only one hit, a scratch single in the first inning, for the first five innings and withstood rallies in the last two innings to pick up his third win of the year.

settling down to pitch brilliantly over the last seven innings. Gebhard struck out six and walked only two. He retired Illinois hitters in order during the last four innings, reaching a peak of effectiveness in the seventh inning when he disposed of three hitters with only five pitches.

Of Illinois' five runs only two were earned — both in the first inning. Dan Humay walked, went to second on Jim Vopicka's single and scored the first run on Jerry Szukala's single. Szukala scored moments later on a single by Norm Schlueter.

With two out in the second inning, the Iowa defense went into a rare lapse and gave up two more runs. Holtzman hit a lofty fly to shallow right field which Iowa's Jim Koehn dropped. Trenton Jackson followed with a single to center field which got by center fielder Larry Rathje for the second error of the inning. Holtzman scored and Jackson continued to third before Iowa got the ball back to the infield. Dan Humay then drove in the final run of the inning with a single.

Illinois' final run came in the fifth inning, again with two outs. After rain delayed the opening of the inning, Humay walked but Gebhard retired the next two hitters. Shortstop Lee Endsley then let Schlueter's ground ball roll between his legs and Terry Kasper got a ground ball single through to drive in the final run.

Trailing 5-0 the Hawks tried in vain to get winning rallies going in both the eighth and ninth innings but were twice denied by Holtzman. Russ Sumka opened the eight with a sharply hit single into left field. Two outs later Iowa regained life with a walk to Mickey Moses and a single to Gebhard to score Sumka. Illinois' third baseman Al Waters ended the rally by making a dive to his left to stop Endsley's sharp grounder and force Gebhard at second.

Iowa opened the ninth with determined hitting. Ken Banaszek hit a drive which bounced over the fence in right-center for a double and Ron Shudes batted him across with a single into left.

Coach Dick Schultz then sent in Jack Warren to run for Shudes and hit in pitcher Bob Schauenberg to hit for Koehn. Schauenberg hit a dribbler down the third baseline and streaked for first base. It looked like the Hawks had a full scale rally going but Illini third baseman Waters saw he couldn't get Schauenberg at first and alertly fired to second instead where he got Warren who had run past second and was unable to dive back in time.

Drake Relay Records Are Smashed

DES MOINES (AP) — Baylor's sprint medley team streaked to a new record and muscleman Randy Matson led a wholesale assault on meet records at the 56th Drake Relays Friday.

A crowd of 13,500 saw Baylor's medley foursome win in 3:17.

This slashed five-tenths of a second from the current national mark of 3:17.5 set by Oregon State last year and smashed the Drake mark of 3:17.8 by Illinois in 1959.

The 260-pound Matson, Texas A&M sophomore, had trouble getting untracked in his bid for a sweep of the discus Friday and the shot put Saturday.

DI Yellows To Resume Series with Mike Hawks

The Daily Iowan Yellows will resume softball action this Sunday, carrying a perfect 1-0 record from last year into their opening game. The Iowan nine will face the WSUI Mike Hawks at 1:30 p.m. on the Women's Athletic Field.

Last season, the Yellows defeated the Mike Hawks, 14-12. Bob "Ace" Moyers went the distance on the mound for the Yellows, allowing just seven Mike Hawks hits.

Big Ten Baseball Preview

MINNESOTA
Coach: Dick Siebert (18th season) 1964 Record: 11-3 in Big Ten (championship); 31-12 overall (NCAA championship)

Top Hitters
Dennis Zacho, lb., .567, 7 RBIs
Jerry Cawley, c., .400, 6 RBIs
Frank Brosseau, p-of., .393, 4 RBIs

Top Pitchers
Gene Hassmusen (R), 2-0, 1.36 ERA
Joe Pollack (R), 2-0, 1.42 ERA
Charles Thoreson (R), 1-0, 1.93 ERA
Current record 8-4 . . . the Gophers really "came out of the woods" in 1964 to win the Big Ten and NCAA championships with a record-breaking pitching staff . . . two of the Gophers' "big three" return — Joe Pollack (the league's top pitcher — 5 complete games in 5 starts, 1.50 ERA, allowed only 17 hits for a record in 42 innings, limited the opposition to a .122 batting average and had a 4-1 record) and Frank Brosseau (also an outfielder of note).

In 1964 Minnesota won only three of their first 11 games on the spring tour . . . came home and won 28 of the next 32 games. Although the team lost All-Conference catcher Ron Wojciak, first baseman Bill Davis, second baseman Dewey Marcus, outfielder Al Druskis and pitcher Dick Mielke, seven lettermen return to add to a nucleus of fine sophomores.

Strengths — balance, good outfield defense and first rate pitching. All-Conference Pollack and Brosseau are aided in pitching by fine potential in Jerry Wickman, Jim Stewart and Rasmussen. Thoreson could be a good one. Future lies in Cawley to be a job behind the plate after being shifted from third to catcher . . . and maturing of sophomores Zacho and shortstop Jerry Fuchs.

Coach's comment: "We have the makings of a good representative Big ten team. We haven't been able to play enough games to really assess our potential, but I say we should have fairly strong pitching, hitting and fielding. Outfield is strong defensively and our pitching is our chief strength. Pollack has been excellent this spring."

NORTHWESTERN
Coach: George McKinnon (4th season) 1964 Record: 4-11 in the Big Ten (9th); 9-17 overall.

Top Hitters
Walt Tiberi, ss., .414, 5 RBIs
Gary Rusk, lf., .353, 3 RBIs
Chuck Falk, cf., .324, 3 RBIs

Top Pitchers
Buzz Fifer (R), 2-0, 0.00 ERA
Gene Abraham (L), 2-1, 2.49 ERA
Glenn Cermak (L), 1-0, 0.00 ERA
Current record 4-2 . . . outlook is better than originally anticipated with emergence of sophomore Tiberi and senior Rusk as hitters and the impressive work of a pitching staff that began the season as a question mark . . . Fifer is key hurler with an early season mark of 12 strike outs in nine innings . . . pitching is steady and Tiberi (ss) and Bill Hansen (2b) strong.

Coach's comment: "We have trouble fielding a complete team as indicated by the use of Abraham and Fifer in the outfield when not pitching. So we have to be a 'scratching-running' type team."

OHIO STATE
Coach: Marty Karow (15th season) 1964 Record: 10-5 in Big Ten (3rd); 21-10 overall.

Top Hitters
Arnie Chonko, lb., .388, 6 RBIs
Don Harkins, lf., .267, 15 RBIs
Bo Rein, ss., .236, 9 RBIs

Top Pitchers
Dave Singerman (R), 3-3, 1.78 ERA
John Durant (L), 3-0, 1.95 ERA
Steve Arlin (R), 2-1, 4.22 ERA
Current record 11-4 . . . the 1964 team knocked off Minnesota twice near close of season . . . a contender

WISCONSIN
Coach: Dymie Mansfield (26th season) 1964 Record: 8-7 in Big Ten (4th); 14-14 overall.

Top Hitters
Rich Hense, lf., .352, 12 RBIs
Paul Morenz, cf., .471, 4 RBIs
Gary Pinnon, cf.-lb., .455, 5 RBIs

Top Pitchers
Lance Toberst (R), 2-0, 1.50 ERA
Glenn Miller (R), 2-0, 1.50 ERA
Rick Fenn (R), 1-0, 2.70 ERA
Current record 4-2 . . . good hitting to date . . . pitching needs more work in . . . early season injuries have sidelined 1b Hal Brandt, 3b and 2b Joe Romano . . . although nine league games are on road, Badgers could be a contender . . . team speed is good with Toberst an outstanding pitcher with fielding chops up well even with newcomers at second and third.

Coach's comment: "If we can put all the pieces together in the coming weeks, we'll finish near the top."

Illinois' leading hitter, Trenton Jackson, had a disappointing day at the plate. Jackson, the Big Ten champion in the 100- and 220-yard dashes last spring and an Olympic runner during the summer, quit track to concentrate on baseball. The big left fielder was able to get only one single while being struck out three times by Gebhard.

The Hawks, now 3-8 for the season, will try to break into the win column again today with a double header against the Purdue Boilermakers. The first game will begin at 1 p.m. on the Iowa Field.
