LBJ Cuts Spending

WASHINGTON — President Johnson, his voice hoarse after a day of fighting on the Senate's floor, said yesterday that Congress would have to cut spending and that he was willing to reduce government programs to pay for the war in Vietnam.

The President's statement, which could wreck a moment of progress for the Vietnam peace negotiators, was yet another indication that the Administration has decided to keep fighting in Vietnam until the North Vietnamese agree to a peace settlement, whatever the price.

In a speech at the University of Chicago, the President said that the United States would have to make a "hard choice" about how to spend its money.

"We have had a successful treatment for the Rh-negative mother who has a positive Rh factor," said Lerner. "When an Rh-negative mother has an Rh-positive father, they can have healthy babies."
Eisenhower-Nixon hitch called important by Ike

By ARTHUR EDDINGTON

WASHINGTON—Now that Lyndon B. Johnson is in the White House, David Eisenhower, son of the former President of the United States, has joined the administration.

I have been waiting for Mr. Eisenhower to announce his intention to vote for Lyndon B. Johnson, but I was not prepared for it.

"My father, General Eisenhower, has always been a man of integrity," Mr. Eisenhower said. "When my father was President, he always made a point of not being a part of the administration. But now that Lyndon B. Johnson is in the White House, I believe it is important that my father be there, too."

Prof deflects hippie habits

By R. E. LAWRENCE

A BURGESS MEANS THE: "Everythings under control"

Thar are no more hippies. Thar are no more "hippie" habits. Thar are no more "hippie" clothes. Thar are no more "hippie" music. Thar are no more "hippie" ideas. Thar are no more "hippie" lifestyles. Thar are no more "hippie" anything.

And that's just the way we like it. You'll have to make do with what you do have, but it's going to be just fine. There's nothing more to be done."

Maze Maker sometimes gets lost in own maze; style called good

By NORMAN ROLLING

NEW YORK—The Maze Maker, a new novel by John M. Murray, was published this week. The novel has been described as a "maze" novel, because it is set in a maze and the plot is complex and difficult to follow.

"The Maze Maker" is about a man who becomes lost in a maze and must find his way out. The novel has been praised for its complex plot and its use of a maze as a metaphor for life. It has been described as a "mysterious" and "complex" novel.

"The Maze Maker" is set in a maze and the plot is complex, making it difficult to follow. The novel has been praised for its complex plot and its use of a maze as a metaphor for life.

"The Maze Maker" has been described as a "mysterious" and "complex" novel. It has been praised for its use of a maze as a metaphor for life, and for its complex plot.

"The Maze Maker" has been praised for its complex plot and its use of a maze as a metaphor for life. It has been described as a "mysterious" and "complex" novel.

"The Maze Maker" has been described as a "mysterious" and "complex" novel. It has been praised for its use of a maze as a metaphor for life, and for its complex plot.

"The Maze Maker" has been described as a "mysterious" and "complex" novel. It has been praised for its use of a maze as a metaphor for life, and for its complex plot.
Iowa Loves Beat Nation
During 1966

The theme of University of Iowa Beat Nation in this yearbook is "Beat Nation." The yearbook's theme is reflected in the Beat Generation's social and cultural impact, characterized by their rejection of mainstream values and their embrace of individualism, spontaneity, and the exploration of new experiences.

Ambulance Standards Hit

The ambulance standards hit a new high this year in the state of Iowa.

Tavern Sues For Beer Permit

Some taverns are suing for beer permits in order to be able to offer customers a wider range of beverages.

DEAR SANTA — HELP — Sherlock, a two-year-old poodle, vanishing sitcom dog owned by his master, is missing. We believe he was last seen in the area of the Iowa State Fairgrounds. Contact (515) 123-4567.

The Nebraska High School football team has had a higher score than the Iowa team in recent years.

The primary personal income growth rate in the state of Iowa has been steady, with a slight increase in 2016.

Government Sector Jobs

The government sector has seen an increase in jobs in recent years, particularly in the education and healthcare sectors.

3 Grant Winners To Study At UI

Three of the 23 college-level students who applied for UI have been awarded grants to study at the University of Iowa.

The newspaper article discusses the importance of education and the role of newspapers in providing information to the public.
Bradley Needs Brave Front

By BEN GLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

In the absence of a regularly scheduled game last week, Bradley's football team, which is in excellent condition, practiced by participating in the University Library's publication of the University's Catalog.

Bradley's defense, practicing under the direction of Head Coach Charlie Tate, was scheduled to play the Los Angeles Rams in a non-conference game on Saturday. The Rams were led by the outstanding running back, with over 200 yards in the victory over the Notre Dame Fighting Irish. The Rams were also noted for their strong defensive play, which helped them to overcome the Fighting Irish in the previous game.

Bradley's offense, under the direction of Quarterback Charlie Tate, was expected to challenge the Rams' defense. The Rams' defense was led by the outstanding defensive backfield, which included the All-American defensive end, who had over 15 sacks in the game against Notre Dame. The Rams' offense was led by the outstanding quarterback, who had over 400 yards passing in the game against Notre Dame.

Bradley's defense was expected to challenge the Rams' offense, which was led by the outstanding running back, who had over 200 yards in the game against Notre Dame. The Rams' offense was expected to challenge Bradley's defense, which was led by the outstanding defensive backfield, which included the All-American defensive end, who had over 15 sacks in the game against Notre Dame.

The game was expected to be a high-scoring affair, with both teams seeking to establish themselves as the best in the conference. The Rams were expected to challenge Bradley's defense, which was led by the outstanding defensive backfield, which included the All-American defensive end, who had over 15 sacks in the game against Notre Dame. The Rams' offense was expected to challenge Bradley's defense, which was led by the outstanding defensive backfield, which included the All-American defensive end, who had over 15 sacks in the game against Notre Dame.

Mental retardation never kills anyone.

But who can count the lives it's wasted? What are you doing to help?