News in Brief

Viet Nam: New Government Formation

There has been some delay in the formation of the new government in Viet Nam, as the National Assembly has been unable to agree on the list of ministers. The Communist government, which has been in power since 1945, has been seeking to extend its control over all aspects of life in the country. The new government is expected to be more effective in implementing the country's socialist policies.

It's Christmas

The tree is trimmed and the candles glow as families everywhere gather to share the wondrous warmth of another Christmas season.

It is the sincere wish of Illinois and its family of employees that all the joy of this season may be found in your home. And may your health and happiness be with you and yours during the coming year.

Oilers Weigh Seattle Move

MADISON, Wis. — In an operation that could set back the goal for a Super Bowl win, the Houston Oilers were in the market for a major turnabout tonight.

The team, which lost a Super Bowl in December, is trying to make all the right moves for a Super Bowl in February. To do that, it must first make a Super Bowl in January.

The Oilers, who are in the playoffs for the first time in team history, are facing the Seattle Seahawks in the divisional round of the National Football League playoffs.

At stake is a trip to the Super Bowl.
