Majority of student body should support amendment

Tuesday night the Student Senate approved for the second time by more than a two-thirds majority an amendment to its constitution which would allow it to call for referendums on student issues. There was some opposition to the amendment, but it was defeated by votes to 34 in favor to 24 opposed.

The amendment will be submitted to the student body for approval in March. It would only affect the policy of the Senate in its current form.

The Moranian amendment has its origins in the early 1960s when the amendment was defeated by votes to 25 in favor to 24 opposed. It was introduced by Janice Moran, a student body member who has since become the prime mover behind the amendment.

The amendment would allow the student body to call referendums on issues in the future. However, the amendment is not a question of right or wrong but rather a question of timing. It is argued that the amendment is needed because the Senate has been too slow in responding to student demands.

The amendment is a response to the increased political awareness among students. It is argued that the Senate has been too slow in responding to student demands.

ANNOUNCE NEW INDICTMENT AGAINST RALPH PETERS AND JOHN KROHN

TODAY - the U.S. Attorney's Office today announced new indictments against Ralph Peters and John Krohn, former employees of the Illinois State Police. The new charges stem from an ongoing investigation into the alleged illegal distribution of police equipment.

Peters and Krohn are accused of conspiring to distribute police equipment without proper authorization. The equipment included radios, batteries, and other communication devices.

The indictments charge that Peters and Krohn conspired to distribute the equipment to a third party for use in a private investigation. The third party has not been identified at this time.

The new charges carry a potential sentence of up to 10 years in federal prison. Peters and Krohn are scheduled to appear in court on February 20th.

As education goes more electric

You can see the future happening!

New electric equipment and remarkable electronic aids to learning have already made school classrooms and classroom work more stimulating for pupils and teachers alike.

In the home, industry, and business, as well as in the school, electricity - and gas, too - will make possible an ever more amazing transformation in the future. To help bring this about, the country's gas and electric companies have hundreds of research and development projects in the works ... projects aimed at producing ever more useful, dependable service at low cost. The sample of the nation's inventor-owned gas and electric companies -- including New Haven -- are working hard for your today, and constantly planning for your tomorrow, too.
Minimum Baseball Salary Boosted by Club Officials

NEW YORK — Minimum and working men.

Minimum-wage provisions of the agreement included a new government arbitration provision, under which any club found to be violating the minimum-wage law would be subject to fines.

Representing the club owners and the National League, Tom Lanvin, general counsel, presented the owners' position. He pointed out that the National League extended a no-strike claus, and if the players' strike went on too long, the league would start its own teams.

The agreement, which was signed by club owners and club managers, covers players at all levels of baseball. The National League, which includes the American League, agreed to issue a statement endorsing the agreement.

How to interview 130 companies in half an hour.

Everybody should collect something.

We collect dust.

We also collect graduates—with industrial and semi-technical degrees—to insure our position as the world's largest manufacturer of air filters and a leading producer of air pollution control equipment.

Today, some 20,000 engineers are busy selling, designing, developing, researching and producing AAF's products. They are designed for environmental control in a complete range of installations—from office buildings, restaurants, hospitals, schools, auditoriums
and even to manufacturing plants, food and tobacco
mills, food processing and pharmaceutical plants.

In addition to the goaltender mentioned above, we also collect smoke and fumes and mini—all the airflows containing particles that cause troublesome pollution problems. We also burn, ventilate and cool thousands of the nation's schools, as well as offices, motels, hotels, hospitals and factories.

Your future in "Better Air" is bright. We would like to talk to you about it. Contact your placement office and arrange for an interview Feb. 21.
NFL Players' Unit To Be Recognized

NEW YORK -- The National Football League Players Association, in an effort to speed recognition of its charter by the National Football League, is making a last-ditch attempt to get the National Football League to recognize the players' union. The NFL Players' Association has been pressing for recognition for several years, but until now the NFL has been unwilling to recognize the union.

The NFL Players' Association is seeking a meeting with NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue to discuss the issue. The union has been negotiating with the NFL for several months, but has been unable to reach an agreement on the recognition of the union.

AFL-CIO Plan War Chest
For LBJ And Labor Friends

WASHINGTON — The AFL-CIO on Tuesday
said that it was postponing its scheduled meeting in Des Moines on Wednesday afternoon.

The meeting was scheduled to be held at the county fairgrounds, and was to be attended by President John S. Walker and several other union leaders.

The postponement was announced at a press conference held by the AFL-CIO.

Walker said that the postponement was caused by a "weather-related problem." He added that the AFL-CIO would reschedule
the meeting for a later date.

The AFL-CIO had been planning to hold a meeting in Des Moines to discuss issues related to the upcoming presidential election.

Walker said that the meeting would be rescheduled for a later date, and that the AFL-CIO would work to ensure that all members are informed of the new date.

The AFL-CIO is a federation of labor unions that represents more than 15 million workers in the United States.
