Irish play, production

By D.A. AKERLUND
Iowa City and the University have on the stage now a production of Terence's play The Education of Dally Johnson, whose story is based on the real American woman who went to Ireland and America are too long in the tooth. The Garden of Opinion... is currently directing her own play "The House in the Yellow Wood," while Tipton and Haig's "The House in the Yellow Wood" is a play by Writing book called invaluable for all writers

by TONI MEND

"Writing is a way of life. It is a way of expressing your self, it is a way of communicating with others. It is a way of shaping your thoughts and ideas. It is a way of making sense of the world around you. Writing is a way of learning, it is a way of expanding your horizons. Writing is a way of connecting with others, it is a way of sharing your experiences and ideas. Writing is a way of healing, it is a way of expressing your pain and emotions. Writing is a way of achieving your goals, it is a way of reaching your dreams. Writing is a way of living, it is a way of leading a fulfilling life. Writing is a way of being, it is a way of expressing your true self. It is a way of living a life of passion and purpose."

Kennedy's 'Man In Iowa' Thinks Job Can Be Done

by Ron GODDARD
Although Robert F. Kennedy's Senate campaign is faltering in Iowa, he said yesterday that he could win the state, and that the state's key endorsement of his brother, Gov. John F. Kennedy, would be a plus in California. The senator also said that he was not as discouraged as some of his supporters.

The senator was asked if he thought his chances in Iowa were better than a 50-50 proposition.

"I think so," he said.

"We've got to win here," he said.

"And we've got to win in order to carry California," he said.
