Rioting Students Spread Violence In Mexico City

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Rebellious students burned buses and shot at storekeepers in Mexico City late Wednesday in fresh outbreaks of violence after two days of gun battles that claimed at least 15 lives.

Reports indicated at least three persons were wounded when police moved in to disperse students attacking merchants who refused to support them.

Police were seeking a mysterious group of thugs who roamed the streets on the previous two nights, machine-gunning six schools and beating up students.

The student unrest began July 26 when they accused police of brutality in stepping a rumble between two rival high schools. Since then the riots have snowballed, and government officials have variously blamed the trouble on hooliganism, Communist influence, and the students' determination to gain certain concessions from the government.

At the start of the demonstrations, many students vowed they had no intention to disrupt the Olympic Games, scheduled to begin Oct. 12, but since then posters have appeared showing Olympic rings with swastikas and the white Olympic dove of peace drenched in blood.

The police Wednesday interviewed a 28-year-old man who said he was kidnapped by night riders and threatened with death if he took part in the student demonstrations. The newspaper El Universal Grafico identified the man as Carlos Vasconcelos Elizalde.

It said he identified his kidnapers as members of a right-wing student group called MURO.

President Gustavo Diaz Ordaz has repeatedly accused professional agitators and Communists of leading the demonstrators. The students have admitted that outsiders took part in the demonstrations, but they said efforts were being made to discourage such "help."

Police reported Mexico City was "under control."

Newspapers published photographs of Czechoslovak-manufactured machine guns that police said were confiscated after a night-long battle on the campus of the National Polytechnical Institute.

They reported almost 500 persons were in jail, at least 15 were killed and an undetermined number were injured in the gun battles that raged around the campus Monday night and Tuesday.

Boston Violence Leaves 12 Hurt

BOSTON (AP) — Violence and disorder moved from public schools to the streets of Boston Wednesday as police and blacks clashed after incidents of vandalism and looting.

Twelve persons were treated at City Hospital with injuries suffered in the disturbances, which were centered in the black areas of Dorchester and Roxbury.

The violence broke out as black adults and youths returned from a Black Power rally at Franklin Park in Dorchester. The rally was an outgrowth of black demonstrations earlier in the week for permission to wear African costumes to school.

Some 200 helmeted policemen cleared several hundred persons — mostly young blacks — from the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority's Dudley Street station after an officer was hit on the head with a liquor bottle.

Rocks and bottles were thrown after the station was cleared, and five police officers were treated at a hospital for cuts and bruises suffered in the melee.

Several hundred blacks attended the Franklin Park rally and heard militants stress black nationalism and self-determination.

A half-hour battle between police and blacks in the Roxbury section followed the rally. Bricks, rocks and beer cans were thrown at police, who used nightsticks to break through a crowd at one intersection.

About a block away, rocks, cans and pieces of asphalt were thrown at police from rooftops. Witnesses said motorists were pulled from cars and car windows smashed.

Blacks looted one supermarket and were prevented by police from entering another. Two liquor stores and a cleaning shop were robbed. Police dispersed about 80 black youths who had been prevented from entering a discount department store by employees who closed the store.

A former Boston School Committee chairman, Mrs. Louis Day Hicks, was chased by about 100 black youths at the rally.

She and a woman identified as her secretary were standing about 100 yards away watching the rally when the youths, some of them yelling "Get Mrs. Hicks," ran towards them.

Mrs. Hicks and her companion escaped before they were harmed.

Mrs. Hicks, who opposed busing plans to desegregate city schools when she was a member of the School Committee, was an unsuccessful candidate for mayor last year.

Critics Cite $15,000 Fee As Fortas Debate Begins

WASHINGTON (AP) — Abe Fortas' critics zeroed in on a $15,000 lecture fee Wednesday as the Senate plunged into full-scale debate on his nomination to be chief justice of the United States.

Sen. Robert P. Griffin (R-Mich.), a leader in the fight against confirmation of Fortas, did not contend there was anything illegal about the payment but he said it was "clearly wrong in principle."

Other senators questioned the propriety of the $15,000 paid to Fortas for conducting a seminar at the American University law school here last summer.

Democratic leader Mike Mansfield of Montana, who backed President Johnson's June 26 nomination of Associate Justice Fortas to succeed Earl Warren as chief justice, termed Fortas' acceptance of the fee unfortunate.

It was unfortunate, Mansfield said, because "it breaches the extraordinary insulation which must exist between the Supreme Court and other branches of the government and private business."

Senate leaders pushed aside all other business including the $71.9-billion defense appropriation bill and the nuclear non-proliferation treaty to meet the simmering Fortas appointment head on.

"Rather than keep the Senate in a state of suspense on the Fortas nomination," Mansfield said, "I decided it was better to face up to it now."

Opponents immediately announced they will seek to hold the Senate floor indefinitely against Mansfield's motion to call up the nomination for formal approval.

An Associated Press survey showed the opposition has enough votes to keep a filibuster going.

Mansfield indicated he might move to invoke the debate-limiting cloture rule early next week if he deems this necessary, but this would require a two-thirds majority of senators voting. If all 100 senators were present, 34 "no" votes would be enough to defeat a cloture petition, and the AP count showed at least 35 senators would vote against cloture.

This was brought home to the Senate by Sen. James O. Eastland (D-Miss.), chairman of the Judiciary Committee, who said there are "a surplus of votes" to prevent debate from being cut off. He declared Fortas' nomination is "doomed to defeat."

Eastland contended in a statement that Fortas' decisions as an associate justice "clearly demonstrate that his judicial philosophy disqualifies him for this high office."

Sen. Ernest F. Hollings (D-S.C.) also based his opposition on what he termed the philosophy of the Warren court.

Griffin, in a 2½-hour speech opening the drive to block action on the appointment, told the Senate that "rewarding an old friend with the chief justiceship of the United States is uniquely inappropriate" at this point in the country's history.

"If there ever was a time when cronyism is a disservice to the nation, this is such a time," Griffin said.

Code Controversy Centers On UI-Added Sections

By MARY CLARK

The controversy swirling around the University's new Code of Student Life centers, actually, on several key sections which, the way some critics see it, infringe upon students' constitutional rights. Many — but not all — of the sections now under fire were not the work of the student-faculty committee which drafted the new code, but were added on by the administration, according to Student Body Pres. Carl Varner.

The new code, as approved in final form by University Pres. Howard R. Bowen, has raised the hackles of many students and campus groups and prompted the introduction of a Student Senate resolution condemning the document. The resolution, which was debated by the senate Tuesday and sent to a committee for further study, asks that the senate declare the code "void and non operative."

Varner, who is a member of the Committee on Student Life (CSL), which drafted the code, said that only one recommended change from the old code which was overruled by the administration, but several sections of the old code which the CSL had deleted in its draft were reinserted and several new sections were added.

The vetoed change dealt with student age in regards to unapproved housing.

The CSL wanted to allow students who would be 21 within the academic year to be allowed to live in unapproved housing. The recommendation was not accepted by Bowen. The final version of the code reads that students must be 21 before or during the semester in which they wish to live in unapproved housing. This was the same as the old regulation.

The additions, as pointed out by Varner, are all in the code's preamble and include sections 7, 8, 12, 13, 15, 17 and clauses a, d and e of section 6. The entire code is printed on page 8 of today's edition of the Daily Iowan.

Ken Swain, A2, Columbus Junction, a substitute student senator who introduced the bill asking the senate to throw out the new code, mentioned sections 3, 5 and 6 as objectionable and said he also objected to sections 7, 8, 13, 15 and 17, which Varner cited as administration additions not approved by the CSL.

Section 3, which says that a student must be prepared to present his University identification card to authorized University personnel and which was opposed by many senators Tuesday night, was a CSL recommendation, Varner said.

Sections 5 and 6 deal with restrictions on "disrupting, hindering, or impeding the functions of orderly processes of the University," obstructing and interfering with the "lawful rights of other persons on campus"; and picketing or demonstrating on campus.

Sections 7 and 8, added by the administration and disapproved of by Swain, deal with unauthorized entry or occupation of University buildings and the intentional setting of fires or setting off of fire alarms in University buildings.

Swain accused the University of using the code as a public relations gimmick for the people of Iowa and the state legislature. Many of the additions, such as sections 7 and 8, Swain said, covered incidents parallel to those which disrupted and forced the closing of Columbia University in New York City last spring, and those during the campus demonstrations here last winter. Swain said the code is something Bowen could use to show people that he is keeping the students in control. Parts of sections 15 and 17 are objected to on similar grounds.

Some student senators objected to the whole tone of the code because they claimed it violated students rights as set down in the American Association of University Professor's AAUP statement on student rights. The statement was accepted by the University last year. Bowen in, in a statement in today's DI, and Varner both said that the preamble to the code is in line with the AAUP statement.

The CSL made numerous changes in the code which were accepted by Bowen.

Included in these changes was the liberalization of women's hours. University coeds who are 21 or have junior standing, and sophomores, with parental consent, have no hours.

Second semester freshmen with parental consent also do not have hours on Friday and Saturday nights. Formerly only girls with junior standing or over 21 had no hours. Those under 21 needed parental consent.

Varner said that the CSL had also changed the code on the subject of student indebtedness to the University. Under the old code, a student who owed money to the University could be dismissed. Now the code reads that appropriate action should be taken. This allows for leniency in individual cases, Varner said.

Drinking regulations were also changed by the CSL.

Formerly, no alcoholic beverages could be served at any University student organization's social functions. Now the code says that alcohol may be served as long as the organization sees that only those over 21 are allowed to drink.

A section in the old code which prohibited gambling on campus or in a student residence was eliminated in the CSL draft.

The sections on gambling (14), as well as sections covering possession of narcotic drugs (13) and possession and consumption of alcoholic beverages on University property or in approved housing (12), were purposely left out of the code by the CSL, Varner said, because they were covered by civil law.

All these sections have been reinserted by the administration.

Varner said that the new code was more specific and would not be subject to as much interpretation as was necessary last year, when disciplinary action was taken against students who participated in campus demonstrations.

The students were disciplined under a section of the old code which said that the University expected every student to conduct himself in accordance with "good taste." There was also discussion about whether or not a section dealing with campus disturbances such as party raids should apply to the students. Both of these sections are missing from the new code.

However, the administration seemed to have gone out of its way to explain the specific offenses for which a student could be disciplined. Varner said that in this way the code was redundant.

Czechs Reaffirm Drive for Changes From Soviet Line

PRAGUE (AP) — With more than half a million Soviet-led troops still occupying Czechoslovakia, the nation's reform-minded Communist party reaffirmed Wednesday it will press on with changes designed to make the party function more democratically.

The reform is contained in the party's proposed statutes which have been criticized in the Soviet Union as being counter-revolutionary. They were first published 10 days before the military invasion designed to halt the demonstration process here.

The new statutes would provide such reforms as secret balloting and publication of minority opinions. Both are in opposition to Moscow-style orthodox communism.

The reassertion came during a trip to Moscow by the Czechoslovak leadership to discuss further Soviet demands aimed at curbing liberal reforms and a withdrawal of some of the Soviet, East German, Polish, Hungarian and Bulgarian troops.

The reassertion to proceed with the party reform came in a Rude Pravo interview with R. Filus, chief of the Central Committee's organizational and political section. Rude Pravo is the official organ of the Czechoslovak party.

Filus said, "I think that the published draft corresponds to basic Marxist-Leninist principles . . ."

He rejected a return to "administrative methods which considerably discredited the party's role in the eyes of the public before January 1968," when hard-liner Antonin Novotny was ousted as party chief.

The draft statutes are to be voted on at the party's 14th congress, at a date not yet set.

Rude Pravo also announced the rehabilitation of one of its former editors, Olga Krejcová, who was punished and expelled from the party in the 1950s for supporting Yugoslavia in its quarrel with the Soviet block.

In an apparent concession to Soviet complaints, the Prague government announced Wednesday it is ousting the heads of Czechoslovak radio and television from their jobs.

Students Get Parking Break

A change has been made in the University parking regulations.

Students who formerly could not park on campus between the hours of 7:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. weekdays because they live within the campus zone can now park in the Union ramp and in the student metered lot south of the Field House after 3 p.m.

Announcement of the change was made Wednesday by John D. Dooley, head of the campus parking department. Dooley said this would help accommodate students with late afternoon appointments and business at the Field House. The change was made to allow parking on both the east and west sides of the river, Dooley said. He stressed that the parking restrictions had only been lifted for these two areas and not all student metered parking areas.

Clifford Denies Troop Cut Likely

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford knocked flat Wednesday a Republican prediction that the United States likely will cut its troop strength in Vietnam by next June.

At the same time, Clifford's statement by implication challenged forecasts by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, the Democratic presidential candidate, that systematic reduction of U.S. forces should be possible soon.

Clifford asserted that "we intend to continue to build toward" the authorized level of 549,500 Americans in South Vietnam. The U.S. force now stands about 550,000 short of that level.

"We have no intention of lowering that level, either by next June or at any time in the foreseeable future," Clifford's statement said.

The defense chief spoke out a day after Rep. Melvin R. Laird (R-Wis.) said in Seattle that by June 1969 "we are likely to have fewer U.S. troops in Vietnam — by some 90,000 — than we have today, unless the military situation deteriorates."

Richard M. Nixon, Republican presidential candidate, with whom Laird is traveling, said the Wisconsin congressman was talking about a technical development and that he, Nixon, could see no objection to any such reduction so long as it did not cut into the real force of strength.

Laird is a member of the House defense appropriations subcommittee before which Clifford testified in secret earlier this month. There was no immediate indication as to whether Laird was present.

The defense secretary disclosed his previously secret testimony, given Sept. 10. Clifford recalled that he was asked by Rep. Glenard P. Lipscomb (R-Calif.) whether there was a basis for reports that there would be a substantial decrease in U.S. troops in Vietnam either late this year or early next year.

The defense secretary recalled that he testified then that:

"No such information was coming authoritatively from the Pentagon.

"We had no plan to reduce the number of troops in Vietnam at all.

"We had an authorized figure of 549,500 and we would maintain that figure until there was some development that caused us to decide that we could bring some home.

The same old circus

In Student Body Pres. Carl Varner's message to the Senate at its first meeting Tuesday night, he called for the senate to cease its "circus" actions and become an organized and official body of student government.

Varner cited several instances last spring when the Senate became lost in meaningless debate and suggested that the Senate work to promote a good and orderly image.

Varner's warnings and public relations pleas apparently met deaf ears, because the Senate ended up in another one of its infamous debating sessions.

The problem Senate seems to face this year is one of coordination of efforts and ideals. The Senate is split into two camps — the HSP senators and the SRA and independent senators. Neither group seems to be willing to compromise on any measure.

For example, Tuesday night, the major discussion centered around the new Code of Student Life. The code, according to HSP senators, is authoritarian and insulting to students. It, therefore, should be declared inoperative.

I must side with HSP in its acquisition that the code is authoritarian. However, only some sections of the code fall into this category. Other sections, the most obvious is the leniency of women's hours, are marked improvements over last year's code.

The good sections of the code actually outweigh the bad sections, so scrapping the entire code really isn't the answer. The answer is compromise, a word unknown to the senators.

Block voting is the rule, not the exception, at Senate meetings. Senators from HSP usually sit on the left side of the meetings, while the SRA senators and the independent senators sit on the right side. It seems a little like the old boy-girl splits of grade school seating days.

If a body of student government is going to operate in an infantile manner, it will be regarded as infantile. The Senate is nearing this point.

The discussions on the code have only begun. It is doubtful whether any other matters can be taken up by the Senate until the code discussions have finished. They may be done next week, or they could go on all semester.

There are many matters the Senate could and should consider. One is the student parking situation. Another is student voice on faculty committees and policy committees.

Until each senator realizes that he is elected to represent a segment of the student body and work for the benefit of all the University students, the Senate will have its hands tied.

The ultimate goal of the Senate should be aiding to establish the best possible atmosphere for learning and campus life that is possible. The answer is neither anarchy or establishment control. Therefore, the ideal situation would be a compromise arrangement. Senators should at least try to compromise. No line of policy stands a better chance for success.

Coralville goes on its own

The Coralville City Council agreed Tuesday night to begin its own bus service from Coralville to Iowa City.

The move is both surprising and unsurprising.

Coralville has traditionally been very independent and very anxious to keep independent from Iowa City. In fact, in the past, Coralville officials and Iowa City officials have been quite hostile. Last year, moves were made to make peace between the Hatfields and the McCoys, but the Coralville officials still prize their autonomy.

The move is surprising, however, because subsidized bus services have been losing money and running into great financial difficulty all across the nation. Iowa City is no exception. City officials began subsidizing the bus system two years ago and ceased last spring. The city's bus company, owned by Lewis E. Negus, went on its own last spring and seems to be doing fairly well.

But to have two competing bus lines around town could be a disastrous move. Negus and Coralville had contemplated a Coralville service route, but those negotiations never worked out. Very few people expected Negus to be able to continue bus service without a city subsidy. He did and he has.

Coralville is planning to subsidize its bus system at approximately $10,000 for the first year. The system is new and will be run by Coralville residents and businessmen. Even with a subsidy of this amount, the bus system stands a good chance of going broke. Negus made his system work, but he had the experience and trial and error learning of nearly 30 years of his family's service operations behind him.

Although the Coralville residents will get the service they want, I doubt if their system will make it.

Reader disputes editorial: 'our work must begin here'

To the editor:
Quote from an editorial in Tuesday's issue of The Daily Iowan: "At present it seems that the planners of any radical uproar will have to hunt quite a bit for a cause at the University worth demonstrating about." It seems terribly unfair for me to have several injustices gnawing at my cranial omdmsman, when you cannot even think of one. Let me share some of my concerns with you.

1. Will the Student Code of Ethics remove its boot from the First Amendment (which, I am told, applies even to students) or must we, before opening our mouths, pucker them up and kiss the foot of Mother Iowa? For students concerned with this problem there will be an open forum on the subject Friday at 8 p.m. in Shambaugh Auditorium.

2. Will the University and the Board of Regents withdraw their request that Campus Security officers be deputized, thereby becoming not only armed, but virtually immune to civilian control, as well? The business offices have requested that the officers not be armed while making money deliveries since this only attracts attention and unnecessary danger (the money is bonded and, therefore, safely insured against theft). The only possible justification for arming these officers can be to provide for their safety during nighttime warehouse patrols. A weapon for their safety (such as a gun which incapacitates rather than kills) could be locked in a safety box in each warehouse area. It could be withdrawn before the patrol and returned after the patrol.

3. Will the Student Senate or the Faculty Senate be allowed to vote on ratification of the appointment of Col. William Binney as Campus Security chief? After the students' loud complaints about University complicity with the military, this summer maneuver comes as a painful slap in the face. Is there any student who has been offered the opportunity to determine this man's qualifications for his job? Does anyone know whether he would protect demonstrators from counter-demonstrators (something Mr. Hanna refused to do because his men didn't have any guns)?

4. Will the Martin Luther King Scholarship Fund be administered in accordance with its original goal, which was to provide aid and encouragement to students (of minority groups) who would not normally be able to meet the financial or academic requirements for admission, or will the fund be steered by the timid who feel safer when aiding transfer students?

5. Will the military continue to run an armed camp in the midst of our university?

6. Will intelligence agents continue to intimidate dissenters without one word of discouragement from the administration?

7. Will the University take a stand against the threat to dissent, which is manifest in the legislation that would provide for the abolishment of government loans to student protesters?

Nobody had to search for these issues. These are University problems. Local problems, such as control of our County Sheriff, have not even been mentioned. Personally, I think Iowa City has the potential to become liberated from bigotry and injustice. I do not relish being bogged down by local issues and local militarism when national militarism is our biggest sin. But every time I and my brothers raise a voice in unison (not as loud as the fraternity bands) or make a march (remember December when we stopped at DON'T WALK signs?), we are beaten and harassed. Our work must begin here.

Jewish holiday ignored by UI, reader asserts

To the editor:
It is with both regret and anger that I write this letter. I regret that the University cannot see fit to suspend classes through the Jewish New Year in as much as the New Year is the second holiest observance in the Jewish religion, followed only by the Day of Atonement.

I am angry also because the first day of classes is the one where syllabi are handed out, class lists are taken and the requirements of the course are given by the instructor. In sum, it is an important day to miss and it is regrettable that those who wish to observe an important religious holiday should be penalized by this University for doing so. Last year, when the extension of the vacations were mentioned, we were told that the calendars were made well in advance and so could not be disturbed. Yet, the Jewish New Year was written in right above the announcement of the first day of classes.

I hope this error will not happen again. In our concern for minority groups, if it is a genuine and not farcical concern, let us be fair to all minorities.

Varner blasts Senate for inaction, indirection

To the editor:
Tuesday night the Student Senate once again embarked on a course that can only lead to a year of frustration and non-accomplishment. With many more salient issues in sad need of Senate action, it once again became bogged down in a debate over its autonomy and the basis for its existence.

In its usual chaotic manner that has led to its reputation as a "circus" or "Iowa City's best Tuesday night entertainment," the Senate lost its sense of rationality and direction to emotionalism. It was led around by the nose by those whose only objective is to disrupt the University as an academic community.

While the new Code of Student Life is not perfect, I must ask where the Student Senate was last year when the new Code was being drafted? Both my predecessor (John Pelton) and I tried to get the Senate to consider various sections of the Code last year, but it chose to spend its time in a meaningless philosophical debate about the nature of its own existence.

The Senate has once again chosen to follow its usual course of ignoring a problem as it develops and then complaining about it after it becomes a reality.

I will fight to defeat the Senate resolution introduced last night. My position on autonomy and the constitution is clear. I am against both. I interpret ratification of the constitution last spring as a mandate for Student Senate to act on issues facing students. The suggestion in the resolution that I either play their ball game or quit is ridiculous. I will not, under any circumstances, play their ball game, and I will never resign.

While Student Senate spends its time in meaningless debate, the important contributions that it could make the University are shoved aside.

It is time that the Student Senate took action to relieve the sad parking situation for students. It is time that Student Senate became the vanguard of students wishing to achieve academic reform. It is time that the Student Senate lobbied actively in the Iowa Legislature for 18-year-old voting rights. It is time the Student Senate acted to be certain that the Martin Luther King scholarship fund really goes to disadvantaged people. Yet as long as it continues to conduct itself as it did Tuesday night, it will continue to be a farce in the eyes of the student body, the administration, and the people of Iowa.

Carl Varner

Grad student senate useless without real power, grads say

To the editor:
Advocates of a graduate student senate think the need for such an institution is obvious. We disagree. There are several things wrong with their proposal. It is based on a faulty analysis of the divisions within the university community. It ignores the lessons of the past several years concerning the nature of campus politics. Most important, the proposed senate will be powerless and therefore, we believe, largely ineffectual.

In a recent leaflet advocates listed several problems they thought a graduate student senate could effectively deal with. We maintain that some of these problems are either not peculiar to graduate students or not amenable to solution by a powerless institution within the university structure. Several of the tasks which the proposed senate would assume are too vaguely defined to permit discussion here.

We admit the necessity of and strongly favor extensive changes in curriculum and degree requirements to permit greater flexibility. However, obstruction of the learning process by formal administrative requirements is a problem facing all students and faculty members seriously interested in the pursuit and transmission of knowledge.

It is not a problem peculiar to graduate students, nor are all graduate students united on the matter. We submit that such questions can best be dealt with by an inclusive organization of like-minded individuals rather than an organization based on a largely formal distinction between grad students and other participants in the university community.

The same is true of the other substantive issues mentioned, housing and parking. Housing problems concern all of us in the university community who rent; parking concerns all those who drive. Neither renting nor parking are peculiar to grad students.

The one substantive problem mentioned that is the particular concern of graduate students is setting standards for hiring and firing teachers and research assistants, especially protecting assistants from political persecution. We do not believe a senate would have enough power to effectively deal with such matters. With hunters cannot be stopped by the censure of student government.

Of course, a union is the logical organization for protecting the rights and interests of teaching and research assistants, although we admit that an effective union does not seem a likely prospect in the immediate future.

As long as the institutions of student government are without real power they will be ineffective. Those who want results should not waste their time on them. We submit that graduate students should either refrain from participating in the new senate or work to elect representatives committed to its abolition.

NCU executives urge 'close look' at student code

To the editor:
We write to urge all students and faculty to take a close look at "The Code of Student Life, 1968-69," promulgated by "the University" and distributed during Registration.

Fear of what it calls "undue interference" with one student's "freedom to learn" by other students seems to motivate the anonymous drafters of the Code, with a result that, instead of attempting to create an open and challenging academic atmosphere, it is essentially repressive and authoritarian in tone and content.

Our particular concern is with the outrageous sections on demonstrations and solicitation, but all sections of the Code from General Conduct and Social Regulations to Housing and Student Organization regulations seem unduly restrictive, examples of that "undue interference by others" which the Code is presumably trying to eliminate. In fact, the very legitimacy of the Code might well be questioned.

We have therefore invited members of the Committee on Student Life to attend a special meeting on Friday, September 27, at 8 p.m., in Shambaugh Auditorium, to explain the controversial sections of the Code and to answer questions about it.

All concerned are urged to attend.

UI football is no fun 'without a few drinks'

To the editor:
I would like to protest the action taken by the Athletic Department and the caterer in raising the price of set-ups at the football stadium from 15 to 25 cents. The additional ounce does not justify the increase. This increase in the already high cost of drinking substantially decreases enjoyment of the game. During recent years, it has been necessary to drink to watch Iowa football.

Now that a team has been procured which can defeat a top ten opponent, the Athletic Department should not take a reactionary tack and decrease audience fulfillment and participation by increasing the price of set-ups. Fans should fight back by bringing their own mix. The football team should be guaranteed a happy stadium.

U.S. Troops Rout Foe In Fight Near Tam Ky

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Americal Division reported killing 208 more North Vietnamese regulars Wednesday in a running battle along the northern coastal plain which has cost the enemy an estimated 300 dead.

The fighting took place five miles southwest of Tam Ky where the Americal pursued an enemy unit Tuesday and reported killing 92.

U.S. helicopter gunships accounted for most of the dead Wednesday. Associated Press correspondent John Wheeler reported from 1st Corps headquarters in Da Nang. He said another 12 of the enemy were killed in related actions, putting the two-day death toll at 312.

U.S. casualties in the fight were listed as four dead and 48 wounded.

Near the Cambodian border, about 400 government irregulars and a handful of American advisers reportedly beat off an estimated 1,000 North Vietnamese who tried to overrun an isolated Special Forces camp Wednesday with flame throwers, rocket launchers and assault rifles.

Douglas Halts Viet Departure Of Reservists

WASHINGTON (AP) — Justice William O. Douglas, for the fourth time this month, Wednesday blocked temporarily the dispatch to Vietnam of Army reservists called up in May.

A Supreme Court spokesman said the order affects 43 members of the 74th Field Hospital from New York who are contesting the legality of their call to active duty by President Johnson.

The order brought to 252 the number of men among 17,000 Army reservists called up who have won temporary Supreme Court stays of their scheduled departure for Vietnam.

At issue is the reservists' contention they cannot be called up legally for extended tours of active duty without a presidential declaration of war or national emergency.

Douglas' orders, affecting four units, were made pending a decision by the Supreme Court on whether it will hear their cases when the tribunal reconvenes Oct. 7.

His order affecting the 74th came as part of the unit was being shipped from Ft. Lee, Va., to Norfolk, Va., to board a troopship for Vietnam. All were returned to Ft. Lee.

The three other units granted stays by Douglas were the 448th Army Postal Unit and 1018th Service Supply Co. from New York — also based at Ft. Lee — and the 1002nd Combat Supply Co. from Ohio, now based at Ft. Meade, Md.

At the time Douglas signed his order from Goose Prairie, Wash., where he is vacationing, eight members of a Mississippi reserve unit and 57 from a Kansas unit were denied similar stays by U.S. District Judge Robert R. Merhige and Circuit Judge John T. Butzner Jr. in Richmond, Va.

Chief Justice Earl Warren, who had original jurisdiction in the four cases because they came from the 4th U.S. Circuit Court, rejected their requests earlier this month.

Under court rules, a person can appeal to any justice after the one who supervises the individuals geographic jurisdiction rejects an appeal.

Hughes Says Fewer GIs Would Not Hurt War Effort

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS — The United States could withdraw some troops from Vietnam without adversely affecting the war effort, Gov. Harold E. Hughes said Wednesday.

"I believe it is possible to cut troop commitments in Vietnam," Hughes told a news conference while campaigning in Davenport. "We can reduce the level of support troops by maintaining an adequate combat strength."

Hughes, the Democratic nominee for the U.S. Senate, said some war experts believe the United States could "reduce troop strength by 100,000 men and not lose effectiveness in the field."

"Hughes' Republican opponent, state Sen. David M. Stanley of Muscatine, voiced support in Waverly for the non-proliferation treaty awaiting Senate approval.

"This treaty will benefit our country and all mankind," Stanley told Wartburg College students. "We are not giving anything away. Rather, we are gaining a little protection against the growing threat of nuclear war."

Elsewhere on the Iowa political scene, Republican 2nd District congressional candidate Tom Riley of Cedar Rapids called for

Nixon Campaigns For Naval Buildup

SEATTLE (AP) — Richard M. Nixon campaigned afloat Wednesday, urging a buildup in U.S. sea power, and then declared there would be no reduction in American combat strength in Vietnam.

Nonetheless, the Republican presidential nominee said technical progress in the war zone may make possible some American troop withdrawals which would not affect combat capabilities.

Nixon skimmed across the waters of Puget Sound in a white hydrofoil as a fireworks salute from a Seattle police boat sounded across the sunny harbor.

Then the candidate donned an orange hard hat and went on a tour of the Lockheed Shipbuilding and Construction Co.

Nixon said that without a change in government policies, the United States would become a "second rate seapower." He said that as president he would reverse that trend.

In a sidewalk interview, Nixon discussed the latest dispute over U.S. troop strength in Vietnam. Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford said Wednesday in Washington that the level of troops has not yet reached its authorized ceiling of 549,500.

"We have no intention of lowering that level either by next June or at any time in the foreseeable future," Clifford said.

Nixon said that some American troops may be removed from Vietnam because of greater participation in combat by South Vietnamese forces, and because of a lessening of requirements for U.S. support and construction men.

"But I agree there will be no reduction in combat strength while the Paris talks are under way," Nixon said.

House Leader Ford Denies Urging Support for Wallace

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Republican leader Gerald R. Ford, trying to stem cries of anguish in his party's ranks, Wednesday denied suggesting that GOP congressional candidates support George C. Wallace to avoid hurting their own campaigns.

What he was talking about, Ford told a news conference, is that House members might feel they have to back Wallace if the presidential election is thrown into the House because no candidate gets a majority of electoral votes.

Ford said he would not go into the question of whether he did not express himself clearly or was misunderstood in talking to newsmen in Winston-Salem, N.C. on Monday.

He was quoted as saying "I would want all of them to support the national ticket if they can, but if they can't because of local sentiment we will understand."

House Unit Clears Way For Presidential Debates

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Commerce Committee, on the third time around, stamped an approval Wednesday on a bill that could make possible televised debates among Richard M. Nixon, Hubert H. Humphrey and George C. Wallace.

But, even as it passed this huddle, there was skepticism in some quarters about its chances of survival in the waning days of the congressional session before the Nov. 5 election.

The equal time requirements of federal communications law were suspended back in 1960, clearing the way for the debates between John F. Kennedy and Nixon.

A similar bill opening the way for the Democratic and Republican nominees cleared the Senate this year, leaving a decision on what to do about Wallace up to the networks. This version made it past the House committee but a vote to reconsider last week brought the bill back and opened the door to approval of an amendment designed to give Wallace an equal chance to appear on the same program with Nixon and Humphrey.

A Republican-backed parliamentary move blocked final action at that time but the modified bill was approved Wednesday.

Rep. William L. Springer of Illinois, ranking Republican member of the committee who offered that motion, for the past several days has avoided reporters who wanted to question him about reports he was acting in behalf of Nixon.

Nixon has said he would take part in a debate with Humphrey but not in a three-way affair with Wallace. Humphrey has indicated he would go along with a three-man appearance.

Chairman Harley O. Staggers (D-W. Va.), calling the bill's ultimate chances "the $64 question," said he will seek clearance of the measure from the House Rules Committee. That group has closed up shop for the year except for emergency problems.

Rep. William M. Colmer (D-Miss.), Rules Committee chairman, said no meetings of his unit, which clears bills for House consideration, have been scheduled.

NOSE TO NOSE CONFRONTATION — Vice President Hubert Humphrey, on the presidential campaign trail in Long Beach, Calif., Wednesday, rubs noses with one prospective voter, comedian Jimmy Durante, and then shares a laugh with him — perhaps over the things candidates need to go through. # Humphrey Urges 3-Way Debates

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Hubert H. Humphrey urged Wednesday that his two presidential opponents, Richard M. Nixon and George Wallace, join him in a cross-country debating tour in the tradition of the Lincoln-Douglas debates.

Humphrey urged that the candidates be heard together on the same platform in the same towns at the same time so that on Nov. 5 "we wouldn't be voting on who has the most razzle-dazzle, the most money . . . the most slogans."

Humphrey made the dramatic proposal in informal remarks to 200 students who met him at Pepperdine College. Earlier in a speech to older citizens, Humphrey promised that if elected he would work for a 50 per cent increase in social security benefits. Humphrey, standing in the sunlight outside the college cafeteria, said, "I haven't had a television advertisement since Aug. 29 because we haven't had the money. . . so help me God."

Humphrey has been hammering at his demand for Nixon to join him in a debate like the Nixon-John F. Kennedy debates in 1960.

Humphrey strategists, acknowledging they are lagging as of now, hope a debate with Nixon — and Wallace — would put their candidate ahead.

In proposing the cross-country debates, Humphrey said he was willing to start wherever Nixon wants too and he assured the students that news media — including television — would be there.

Muskie Shouted Down

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP) — Some 50 college students, chanting "Stop the War" and boing, drowned out Sen. Edmund Muskie as he addressed a rally Wednesday at the Washington County courthouse.

The students, from Washington & Jefferson College, started the uproar a few minutes after the Democratic vice presidential candidate started to deliver a prepared speech.

"I'm not going to try to shout anybody," Muskie told the crowd of several thousand.

Muskie said he would allow one of the students to speak to the crowd for 10 uninterrupted minutes if the students would let him speak.

Rick Brodie, a senior from New York, came to the platform. "We're true Americans," Brodie said. "We love the flag."

Everybody speaks for law and order but nobody speaks for justice.

"Nobody listened in Chicago when we said we were dissatisfied with LBJ. We're here to make our voices heard."

Muskie later delivered the speech he was to give at Washington in Alliquippa to an estimated 2,000 persons. He said aid to education programs would suffer with Republican Richard Nixon or American Independent George Wallace in the White House.

Katzenbach Hits Wallace On 'Law and Order' Phrase

WASHINGTON (AP) — Undersecretary of State Nicholas Katzenbach said Wednesday presidential candidate George C. Wallace brings shame on the phrase "law and order."

Katzenbach, in reference to Wallace's efforts to block integration of the University of Alabama in 1963, said, "when the governor of a state ignores a court order and then goes and preaches law and order, that term is as denigrated as it can be."

Katzenbach, who faced Wallace at the door of the university as a Justice Department official at the time, made the statement in testimony before the President's commission on violence.

The former attorney general told the panel that violence had masqueraded as law and order too long in too many states in a dual system of justice used to deny blacks their rights.

AP Votes Simpson 'Back of the Week'

By The ASSOCIATED PRESS
When Southern California Coach John McKay sat down before the college football season started to chart his offense, the first marks he made may have looked like this:

Simpson: 35-40.
For it was McKay's estimation that his All-America back, O. J. Simpson, would be carrying the ball for the Trojans upwards of 35 times a game during the 1968 season.

"Why we're against the big-goes," and other voices from the battlefield.
... and Nicholas von Hoffman describes the puzzlement of the class of '43.

"When you have a running offense," McKay explained, "you give the ball to your best weapon."
O. J. is just that, and he turned in a performance last Saturday in Southern California's opening 29-20 victory over upstart Minnesota that earned him selection Wednesday as The Associated Press' Back of the Week.

Simpson carried the ball 39 times and gained 236 yards on the ground while scoring four touchdowns. He also was used as a pass receiver on six occasions, adding another 59 yards to his total.

Simpson's outstanding one-man show brought him the first weekly award of the season over Chris Gilbert of Texas and Paul Gipson of Houston, who put on outstanding one-man shows on the same field as the Longhorns and Cougars played to a 20-20 tie.

Gilbert carried 21 times for 195 yards and scored two touchdowns while Gipson gained 173 yards in 28 carries while scoring three touchdowns.

Blacks Drop Charges That Brundage Resign

SOUTH LAKE TAHOE, Calif. — Black members of the U.S. Olympic track and field team have dropped their demand that Avery Brundage resign as president of the International Olympic Committee, it was revealed Wednesday.

Hilmer Lodge, chairman of the U.S. Olympic track and field committee, said that Brundage,

AVERY BRUNDAGE Remarks Were Misquoted

the controversial 81-year-old IOC head, had convinced the group that remarks he had made concerning a possible demonstration at the games in Mexico City next month had been misunderstood.

Brundage spoke with Stan Wright, black assistant coach of the team, Lodge said, and they agreed that Brundage had been misquoted.

On Tuesday, 21 black members of the team signed a statement calling for Brundage's resignation. The statement was triggered by a remark Brundage made at a news conference that anyone participating in a demonstration at Mexico City would be sent home.

"He was misquoted," Lodge said. "His statement was misconstrued. The matter is closed now."

Dilbeck Releases New League Plans

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Walter J. Dilbeck, owner of the Louisville Colonels baseball team, announced the formation of a new baseball league Wednesday.

At a news conference Dilbeck said the new league — the Global League — will consist of two American teams and four Japanese teams. The American teams will be Louisville and Jersey City, N.J.

Formation of the new league will cost in excess of $3 million, he said.

The new Louisville team, however, will not conflict with the Louisville Colonels, who will continue to play in the International League, Dilbeck said.

Dilbeck, who is president of the new organization, said Global League games will be played next summer in stadiums in Louisville, Houston, Kansas City, Chicago, Jersey City, Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Maloney Pitches Reds Past Bucs

PITTSBURGH — Jim Maloney fired a two-hitter and Mack Jones cracked two solo home runs as the Cincinnati Reds defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates 3-0 Wednesday night.

Maloney struck out 11 and gave up only a double to Willie Stargell in the second and a single to Roberto Clemente in the fourth.

Lee May hit a first inning homer off loser Dock Ellis and Jones connected in the fourth and again in the ninth.

Jets' Crane Takes Namath's Spotlight

NEW YORK — When the New York-Boston game in Birmingham, Ala., was billed as the return of Joe Namath, no one figured he'd be upstaged by Paul Crane.

Namath, a hero at the University of Alabama a few years ago, did his part for the 29,192 fans in the Jets' 47-31 victory over Boston Sunday, but it was a play by Crane that broke the game open.

The play also earned Crane honors Wednesday as the American Football League's defensive player of the week.

The big play came early in the third quarter after the Patriots had rallied to within three points at 20-17. The Patriots' Bob Scarpitto was back to punt on fourth down, but linebacker Crane smashed through the Boston line and blocked the kick.

Mar Smolinski picked up the ball at the three and went in for the touchdown. The game wasn't close after that as the Jets exploded for 27 points in the second half.

Crane, incidentally, is one of the few pros who play both ways. Besides playing on special teams — such as the defensive unit on punt situations — the 206-pound Alabamian is the center for Jet punts.

There were several other standout performances in the AFL this past weekend.

Willie Lanier, for example, made four unassisted tackles and helped on seven others from his middle linebacker spot as Kansas City whipped Denver 34-2. Dave Grayson intercepted two passes in the first 70 seconds of the third quarter in Oakland's 47-21 triumph over Miami.

And in Cincinnati's second straight victory, a 34-23 decision over Buffalo, Charley King and Al Beauchamp each intercepted a pass and dashed to a key touchdown for the Bengals.

JOE NAMATH Still Did His Job

Astros Top Giants

HOUSTON — Bob Aspromonte broke a 2-2 tie with a seventh-inning single and the Houston Astros edged San Francisco and Juan Marichal 3-2 Wednesday night.

Dave Giusti, 11-14, gave up a two-run double to Hal Lanier in the seventh and needed relief help from Danny Coombs and Jim Ray.

Tigers Win 4-3

BALTIMORE — Gates Brown unloaded a three-run homer in the ninth inning that carried the Detroit Tigers to a 4-3 victory over the Baltimore Orioles Wednesday night.

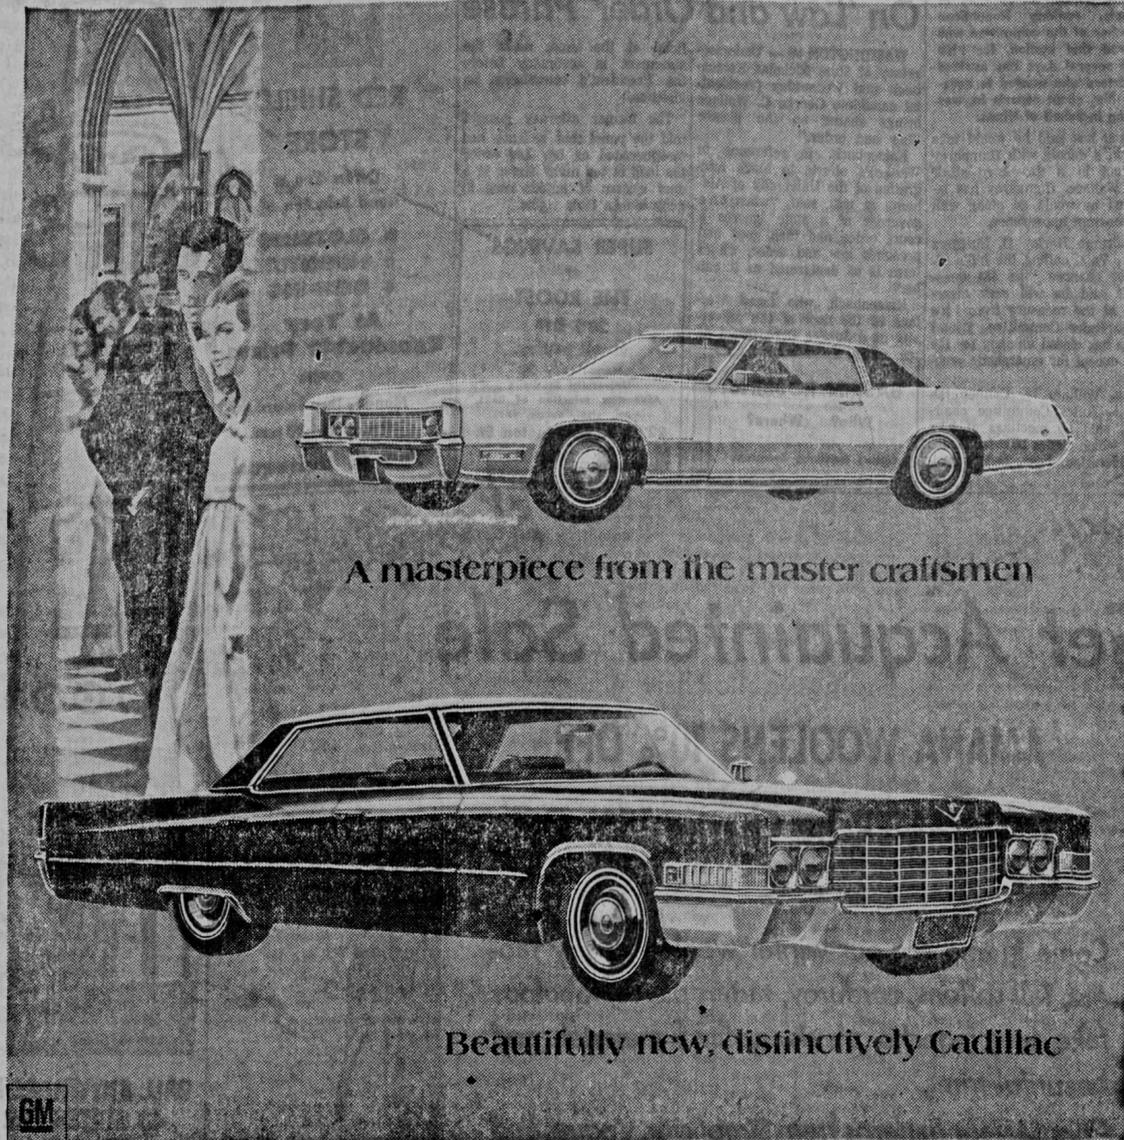

Brown connected with one out against Tom Phoebus after Jim Northrup had singled and Norm Cash reached base on Don Buford's error.

SPORTS BRIEFS

Nagel Plans Night Practice

It's under the lights for the Iowa Hawkeyes tonight as they make final preparations for their game with Texas Christian University Saturday night.

Coach Ray Nagel admits he really isn't worried about playing a night game, however, there's word from George Wine, Iowa sports information director, that they are having trouble with the lights at TCU Stadium.

Wine also reported that a crowd of only about 25,000 people are expected in the stadium which holds more than 46,000.

It's the home opener for the Horned Frogs, who lost last weekend 17-7 to Georgia Tech.

"They were in a position to beat Georgia Tech," said Iowa defensive line Coach Lynn Stiles, who scouted TCU last weekend, "but they game up a real cheap touchdown at the end. True score of the game was really 10-7."

TCU should be psychologically up for the ball game. The Hawks will try to make it two in a row after their 21-20 upset over eighth-ranked Oregon State. Following the loss, the Beavers dropped to 18th in the AP poll and the Hawks receive honorable mention.

Nagel said that he would be sending a reasonably healthy 44-man squad to TCU.

"Tim Sullivan still has a shoulder that is bothering him," said Nagel, "but he should be in better shape than last weekend."

Against Oregon State, Sullivan, nursing a bruised shoulder, gained 112 yards on 16 carries for the game's top rushing honors.

CHICAGO — Ron Santo's grand slam homer for Chicago with nobody out in the ninth inning beat Los Angeles' Bill Singer 4-1 Wednesday after Singer had taken a one-hit shutout into the ninth.

Willie Smith walked to open the last of the ninth and Billy Williams, who had singled in the fourth, followed with a double. Dick Nen was walked intentionally loading the bases. Santo then hit homer No. 24 on the first pitch.

The only hit off Singer up to the ninth was a scratch single off the pitcher's glove in the fourth. Singer recovered the ball but his throw was too late to get Williams.

Los Angeles' run came on a homer by Willie Crawford off Bill Hands in the fifth.

WASHINGTON — Ray Culp pitched his fourth straight shutout, a four-hitter, and extended his string of scoreless innings to 40 as the Boston Red Sox defeated the Washington Senators, 1-0 Wednesday night.

AMES — Iowa State began tapering off preparations Wednesday afternoon for its game against Brigham Young at Provo, Utah, Saturday night.

The Cyclones drilled for two hours and stressed their kicking game.

Vern Skripsky and Steve Powers handled the kickoffs and place kicking, with Bob Brouillette doing the punting.

Coach Johnny Majors also polished the offense and defense against BYU's plays and defensive sets.

The defense worked only in sweat clothes, while the offense had some limited contact work against freshmen.

NEW YORK — Luis Tiant held the New York Yankees to one hit Wednesday, a first-inning single by Mickey Mantle to win his 21st game for Cleveland 3-0. Tiant struck out 11.

Tiant gave up a clean single to Mantle with two out in the first and retired 18 in a row before Roy White was safe on Duke Sims' error with two out in the seventh.

Grimsley Picks Notre Dame To Stop Super-Star Keyes

STARS STUDY TOO — Brushing up on their school lessons are Notre Dame's two main offensive threats — end Jim Seymour (left) and quarterback Terry Hanratty. On the practice field, however, it's a different story. Their major assignment for the weekend will be top-ranked Purdue at South Bend Saturday.

By WILL GRIMSLEY
NEW YORK — Feelings always run high when Notre Dame plays Purdue and they're apt to pop the thermometer this week with pride, revenge and No. 1 national ranking providing a combustible mixture.

The Fighting Irish, at home, are certain to resurrect the ghosts of George Gipp and Knute Rockne in a gargantuan effort to atone for last year's loss to Leroy Keyes and his mates. We think the Irish will draw upon a hidden well of strength to edge out a superior team.

Last week: Won 46, Lost 9 for a .336 percentage.

Notre Dame 21, Purdue 16: Terry Hanratty goes for Gipp's all-time offensive record and Notre Dame's muscle men rise up to halt Leroy Keyes.

Texas 15, Texas Tech 7: Even with Bill Bradley and Chris Gilbert, the Longhorns find the Raiders tough.

Stanford 18, Oregon 10: The Indians should come into their own with a more mature defense and a Gene Washington punch.

Miami, Fla. 21, Georgia Tech 7: The Hurricanes have too much muscle in the line.

Army 17, Vanderbilt 14: Quarterback Steve Lindell and fullback Charley Jarvis should edge the Commodores.

Princeton 23, Rutgers 10: Minnesota 10, Nebraska 8: The Gophers have the same team that tied for the Big 10 title in 1967, too much depth for the Huskers.

Arkansas 24, Tulsa 20: The Razorbacks figure to have the better defense.

California 17, Colorado 13: Southern California 25, Northwestern 0: The Trojans could win this game with their junior college transfers.

Georgia 23, Clemson 14: Michigan 14, Duke 8: This is one of Bump Elliott's better teams.

Among the others:
EAST: Navy 23, Boston College 13; Yale 25, Connecticut 14; Harvard 14, Holy Cross 8; Syracuse 20, Maryland 7; West Virginia 14, Pittsburgh 7; Columbia 17, Lafayette 0; Dartmouth 14, New Hampshire 0; Penn State 30, Kansas State 6.

MIDWEST: Michigan State 25, Baylor 7; Ohio State 20, Southern Methodist 13; Washington 15, Wisconsin 0; Indiana 25, Kansas 18; Missouri 21, Illinois 14.

SOUTHWEST: Iowa 20, Texas Christian 13; Louisiana State 10, Rice 7; Oklahoma 23, North Carolina State 7.

FAR WEST: UCLA 31, Washington State 7; Oregon State 27, Utah 14; Wyoming 23, Air Force 7; Arizona 30, New Mexico 8; Arizona State 28, Texas-El Paso 21; Brigham Young 20, Iowa State 12; North Texas State 25, Colorado State 12.

Raiders Top AFL In Total Offense

NEW YORK — The Oakland Raiders are away to their fastest takeoff with 95 points in the bank, 806 yards in total yardage and two big triumphs in the American League.

AFL observers give much of the credit to the offensive line anchored by Jim Otto at center.

Iowa: Playing Indiana Role?

From Big 10 Service Bureau
CHICAGO — Jean Valjean never had it so good.

The injustices of Napoleonic France, portrayed by the unfortunates of Victor Hugo's "Les Miserables," were terrible. There it was a way of living or dying.

But in the city that Hogie Carmichael gained his education, partisans of the cause have learned to ride the tumbrels every Saturday since a band of "Happy Hooligans" gained sophomore standing and forced a football coach to become a caffeine addict.

Indiana is back once again to confound the experts, the pundits, the strategists and the sanity of its fans. It's Brinkmanship, Part II.

However, over the horizon and into the cornfields is another outfit, on a similar time table as John Pont used for his Bloomington mob, under the direction of Iowa's Ray Nagel.

For eight years Nagel successfully guided the fortunes of Utah in the foothills of the Wasatch Mountain Range. He was plucked to the good earth of Iowa City three years ago. Last Saturday, aided and abetted by another hungry bunch of sophomore greenhorns, the Hawkeyes knocked off one of the nation's top ranked teams, Oregon State, 21-20.

For Nagel it was "one of the top victories of my career." For Iowa it was its fifth victory in four seasons and a great hope for the future. An excellent defensive effort staved off three assaults by Oregon State in the final 13 minutes, capped by sophomore Coleman Lane's interception with less than a minute on the clock.

With 13:02 left in the game, a trio of sophomores put the winning Hawkeye points on the scoreboard: Larry Lawrence pitched out to Denny Green, who scrambled nine yards for the score . . . Marcos Melendez booted the 21st point.

Nagel doesn't wish "to compare" his team's situation with Indiana. He thinks "in terms of what we CAN do" and Texas Christian is next.

But at Indiana John Pont will go down in history as the coach who has spilled more coffee on the sidelines than Brazil can supply. His rousing bunch pulled it off once again, making it 10 out of 12.

With 1:12 remaining in the game and Baylor in front, 36-34, quarterback Harry Gonso casually commented to Pont as he ran into the game to put the ball in play on the Indiana 20: "Don't worry coach, we'll get it in the end zone."

With 18 seconds left the ball was there and Indiana a 40-36 winner. The key play in the seven-play, 80-yard drive was a 50-yard pass play from Gonso to Jade Butcher to the Baylor 23. Asked in the locker room after the game if he or the bench had called the play, Gonso replied, "Well you know our coach is Coach-of-the-Year."

Out of the 60 minutes of action, the Hoosiers took only 10 minutes and 51 seconds in aggregate to make its six scoring drives, coming from behind four times.

3 Frazier Challengers All Want Return Bout

NEW YORK — Joe Frazier, the five-state heavyweight champion, has stopped Manuel Ramos, George Chuvaal and Buster Mathis, but all three victims want another shot at the unbeaten Philadelphian.

And so does James J. Woody, who once turned down a fight with Frazier before the latter won a piece of the title.

All four aspirants will be in action tonight in a non-televated Madison Square Garden heavyweight doubleheader.

Ramos, the Mexican champion, lasted two rounds with Frazier, Chuvaal went four. They will clash in a 10-rounder that should provide a lot of fireworks.

Woody, a 6-foot, 200-pounder from New York, will face Mathis, who was stopped in 11 by Frazier, in the first of the two co-featured 10-rounders.

Seaver's 3-Hitter Paces Mets 3-0

ATLANTA — Tom Seaver fired a three-hitter Wednesday night, pitching the New York Mets to a 3-0 victory over the Atlanta Braves.

Seaver, who won his 16th game, set down 19 Braves in order after allowing two infield singles in the first inning.

Cleon Jones led the Met attack with three hits and scored twice.

Gene Upshaw, Bob Sivilus, Wayne Hawkins and Harry Schuh also help protect quarterback Daryle Lamonica.

Oakland tops the league in total offense and running attack and is second to San Diego in passing yardage. Boston Patriot's rate on top in total defense with Kansas City No. 1 in defense against the rush and Buffalo against the pass.

Incidentally, the Raiders have racked up the opposing quarterback 11 times in two games for 118 yards in losses. The New York Jets have thrown up the best protective curtain around their quarterback, Joe Namath, who has been pinned only once for six yards.

Electric hair dryer, of course
Electric toothbrush, for sure
Hot showers provided by gas
Electric content
Electric tummy slimmer for those electric lines
Total girl warmed and cooled with gas or electricity

She's part of the modern "Go-Go" generation — the "gas and electric" generation. Without gas and electricity, a girl might as well live in the dark ages. What these low-priced services do — for what they cost — makes them two of the biggest values available. Fact is, today you get more for your gas and electric dollar than you did five years ago. Pretty good, when you think how the prices of almost everything else have gone up.

At business-managed gas and electric companies — such as Iowa-Illinois — research and engineering projects are constantly in progress to help hold down costs while improving the quality of the service.

Soviets Boost Navy Strength

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. chief of naval operations says the Soviet Union's first aircraft carrier, now operating in the Mediterranean, has the ability to land marine-type units ashore in the Middle East.

Adm. Thomas H. Moorer, the nation's top sailor, said in an interview the new ship Moskva "is visible evidence of Russia's announced intention to become a modern major offensive sea power."

However, the admiral spoke of the latest Soviet naval reinforcement in the Mediterranean in terms of capability rather than intent.

The 650-foot Moskva, a helicopter carrier, arrived in the Mediterranean last weekend with two escorting destroyers.

Her appearance may have been designed to show new Soviet support for Egypt in a time of new tensions with Israel.

Navy men said, however, the Moskva in no way compares with the big American attack carriers in the Mediterranean. The 23,000- to 25,000-ton Soviet ship is neither designed for nor does she carry jet fighters but U.S. intelligence estimates the Moskva can carry as many as three dozen helicopters which could rapidly send troops ashore to the aid of an ally.

U.S. carriers, by contrast, range up to 85,000 tons and carry squadrons of supersonic fighters, bombers and assorted support aircraft.

The Soviet Union only began regular naval operations in the Mediterranean in 1954 but she suddenly quadrupled her fleet in the area after last year's Middle Eastern war.

The Soviets now operate around 40 military vessels in that sea but Navy men say the United States holds both a quantitative and qualitative advantage with the 55 to 60 ships of the 6th Fleet.

LET'S TALK ABOUT GROCERY PRICES

21 MONTHS AGO

Randall's Introduced Total Savings

TO IOWA CITY and CORALVILLE

In announcing this unique grocery pricing policy, we promised to price very item at our lowest possible price, every day. We pledged that our prices would remain this low and would increase only when our manufacturers' prices increased to us. We assured our customers that they would always get the benefit of special purchases, big volume, supplier's allowances, etc. Because of the success of this program, Iowa City and Coralville shoppers have come to depend on Randall's to give them the lowest possible prices for their food. Plus, they have found out that by buying all their groceries at Randall's, the total on their food bill is lower than it could possibly be at any other store. Because we have kept these pledges, thousands of people have become regular customers at Randall's, and are saving hundreds of dollars each year. Why don't you join them and see for yourself?

From Time to Time Others Shout "Me Too!"

The popularity of our Total Savings Program has naturally attracted imitation. From time to time others make claims of "lowered prices." It has happened a number of times — we suppose we can expect it to happen in the future.

Text of the New Code of Student Life

EDITOR'S NOTE The following is the complete Code of Student Life for 1968-69. The Student Senate Tuesday night debated and questioned sections 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 13 and 17 of the Preamble.

Preamble General Conduct Regulations

Academic institutions exist for the advancement of knowledge, the pursuit of truth, the development of students and the general well-being of society. Free inquiry and free expression are indispensable to the attainment of these goals. As members of the academic community, students are encouraged to develop a capacity for critical judgment and to engage in a sustained and independent search for truth.

Freedom to teach and freedom to learn are inseparable facets of academic freedom. The freedom to learn depends upon appropriate opportunities and conditions in the classroom, on the campus and in the larger community. Students are expected to exercise their freedom to learn with responsibility and to respect the general conditions conducive to such freedom. Accordingly, the University has developed the following general regulations pertaining to student conduct which provide and safeguard the right of every individual student to exercise fully his freedom to learn without undue interference by others.

Any student who commits any of the following acts of misconduct shall be subject to disciplinary action of the University, including disciplinary probation, conditional suspension or dismissal, in accordance with established disciplinary procedures; provided, however, that these regulations shall apply only where a student's misconduct has adversely affected some University process or function or some other distinct and clear interest of the University as an academic community.

1. Academic dishonesty, including the acquisition of honors, awards, certification or professional endorsements, degrees, academic credits or grades by means of cheating, plagiarism or falsification with respect to any examination, paper project, application, recommendation, transcript or test, or any other dishonest means whatsoever, or aiding or abetting another student to do so. Violation of this section is also an academic offense which will normally be handled within the College concerned.

2. Knowingly making any false, inaccurate, or misleading statement, written or oral, to any member of the faculty or staff of the University, or to any office department or committee thereof (including the Committee on Student Conduct), or making any such statement or otherwise misrepresenting to anyone, within or without the University community, his status with or the support, sponsorship or approval of his services or activities by the University.

3. Willful failure or refusal of any student to obey or comply with any proper order or summons of any authorized University official acting within the scope of his authority, or willful failure or refusal of any student to identify himself by stating his name and showing his student identification card upon request of any dean, faculty member, campus security officer or other authorized University official acting in the performance of his duties.

4. Forgery, alteration or misuse of any University record, document or student identification card.

5. Alone, or with others, purposefully — a. disrupting, hindering or impeding the functions or orderly processes of the University;

b. obstructing or denying access to services or facilities by those entitled to use such services or facilities as provided by the University; or

c. interfering with the lawful rights of other persons on the campus or with the free convenient or normal use of University buildings, facilities or campus; or inciting, urging or encouraging others to do so; provided, however, that this section shall be construed so as not to abridge any student's First Amendment Constitutional rights of free expression of thought or opinion, peaceable assembly, or the petition of authorities.

6. Alone or with others, willfully picketing or otherwise demonstrating —

a. within the interior of any University building or structure, except areas specifically authorized for such purposes;

b. at any place or in any manner which unduly obstructs, hinders, impedes or otherwise unduly interferes with the entrances to or passageways within any University building or other structure or with the normal flow of pedestrian or vehicular traffic on or to the campus;

c. at any time or place or in any manner which unduly disrupts, hinders or otherwise unduly interferes with the normal operation or function of any University classroom, office, library, dormitory or other function, including the normal functioning of the physical plant;

d. in a disorderly or disruptive manner or in any manner which results in or creates an imminent and unreasonable risk of injury to persons or destruction of property; or

e. after having been properly ordered to stop doing so and/or to disperse by a campus security officer or other authorized University official who reasonably believes such action is necessary to preserve public order and safety.

7. Unauthorized entry into or occupation of any room, building or area of the campus at any time or of any public building or area at any unauthorized time, or any unauthorized or improper use of any University property, equipment or facilities.

8. Intentional setting of fire in any University building or on the campus without proper authority, or intentional sounding of a false fire alarm in any University building or on the campus.

9. Theft or wrongful appropriation, or willful destruction damage, defacing or mutilation of any property belonging to or in the possession or custody of another member of the University community, the University or the State of Iowa.

10. Assaulting, threatening, physically abusing, unduly harassing or endangering in any other manner the health, or safety of any person on the campus or at any University sponsored or supervised function or event.

11. Use or possession of serviceable firearms, ammunition, explosives, fireworks or other dangerous articles within a University building or University approved housing, on the campus or at any University sponsored or supervised function or event, except in authorized storage facilities.

12. Possession or consumption of any alcoholic or other intoxicating beverage within any University building or University approved housing (except married housing), on the campus, or at any University sponsored or supervised function or event, except as expressly permitted under Social Regulations, Section 2, of the Code of Student Life.

13. Use, possession or sale of any narcotic drug, marijuana or other addictive or hallucinogenic substance, except as expressly permitted by law.

14. Gambling within any University building or University approved housing, or on the campus.

15. Students are expected to obey the laws of the United States and of the State of Iowa and the ordinances of the City of Iowa City as they relate to personal conduct, and violations of any such laws or ordinances in which the University has an independent institutional interest shall be deemed a violation of these student conduct regulations. Evidence of previous criminal convictions for misconduct involving University interests may be considered in determining the sanction to be imposed in any subsequent disciplinary proceeding involving the student, notwithstanding that no disciplinary proceedings were undertaken by the University for such previous misconduct.

16. Violation of any other regulation contained in the Code of Student Life or any other rule, regulation or policy which may be promulgated by the President of the University, or his authorized representative, by any college, department, dormitory, office or other facility within the scope of its authority, or by the State Board of Regents, provided such rules, regulations or policies were published, posted or otherwise adequately publicized or the student had actual knowledge thereof. All provisions contained in University residence halls contracts which pertain to personal conduct shall be deemed rules subject to this regulation with respect to all dormitory residences.

17. Any other conduct or action which adversely affects the educational process or other functions or operations of the University community, or which demonstrates a student's lack of fitness as a member of the academic community provided that any conduct engaged in or action taken by a student anywhere, on or off campus, and whether or not such particular conduct or action is related to any University interest, is relevant and shall be considered in determining a student's fitness as a member of the academic community.

These general conduct regulations are applicable to all students attending the University of Iowa, including undergraduates, graduate, professional and part-time students, continuously at all times, whether or not the University is in session, from the date of their initial registration at the University for as long as they are students, regardless of whether or not they are currently registered at the University.

It is the duty and the responsibility of all students to acquaint themselves with these general conduct regulations and with the other rules and regulations pertaining to personal conduct contained in the Code of Student Life, and every student will be conclusively presumed to have knowledge of such rules and regulations from the date of his initial registration at the University. The Code may be amended at any time by authority of the President of the University. Amendments are effective as of the beginning of the semester in which they are first published in the Code of Student Life, provided that if the President deems an amendment of immediate importance, it shall be effective from and after publication in The Daily Iowan (which will be conclusively presumed as adequate notice to all students). A full and complete text of all such general rules and regulations of personal conduct currently in effect, including all amendments, shall be on file in the Office of Student Affairs at all times and shall be available for inspection by students. The Office of Student Affairs shall also be responsible for making available to students copies of all amendments deemed of importance and for the distributing of copies of such amendments to all housing units, affected student organizations and otherwise as the Dean of Students deems appropriate, provided that the failure to make such distribution shall not affect the effectiveness of such amendments.

Middle East Temperature Rising Again

When Cairo and Moscow, within 24 hours, warn that there is an imminent danger of a new war in the Middle East, the rest of the world is bound to take stock of the possibilities.

The Middle East temperature is rising again, and with it the possibility of parallel between what is being said and done today and what happened 12 years ago.

At that time, a Middle East crisis occurred just in time to divert world indignation from the Soviet Union for its abrupt strangulation of a Hungarian freedom movement.

The Russians were not directly responsible for provoking that crisis at that particular moment, although their determined intrusion into the area at the time with Soviet arms had a lot to do with it. The crisis of 12 years ago was sparked by a British-French attempt, in league with Israel, to counter Egypt's nationalization of the Suez Canal Zone. The canal hardly matters any more. But other elements which fed the crisis until it reached brink-of-war proportions are present again today. The worry now for the West must be whether any new Arab-Israeli war can be confined to that area.

The Russians' foreign policy pronouncements tend to link the Arab-Israeli question and the Middle East in general with the broad world picture, representing developments there as part of an over-all "imperialist intrigue" against the Communist-ruled world.

Pravda, the Kremlin's voice, insisted Sunday that countermeasures in Czechoslovakia was just an "episode in a long and stubborn secret war" of the West against communism. It added that "the imperialists themselves do not hide that for them the events in Southeast Asia, the Near East and Europe are links of a single chain, a single line of struggle." This has been a dominating Soviet press theme in the Czechoslovak crisis.

On Tuesday, Egypt's Foreign Minister Mahmoud Riad said new war with Israel could be expected at any time and that "the situation is very serious and dangerous." The next day, Moscow, in an unusual move, warned that U.S. support of Israel could have "serious consequences for peace." There is Western concern that the Arabs once again may be placing a superabundance of confidence in their Soviet arms. The Russians have poured into Egypt and Syria tanks, artillery and combat aircraft, along with other armament and military advisers. This has created a situation in which one side or the other may feel impelled to make a "preventive" strike. The burning question thereafter would be whether a new Arab-Israeli war, given the new intensity of the cold war, could be confined to the Middle East area.

Douglas Plans City Area Stop

Former Sen. Paul H. Douglas will make a series of appearances in Iowa's First Congressional District Friday.

The former Illinois legislator is scheduled to appear in the Iowa City area in behalf of John Schmidhauser's congressional candidacy at a 5 p.m. reception to be at the Eagles Hall on Highway 1 south of Iowa City.

Tickets and further information can be obtained at the Schmidhauser headquarters here.

Museum Head to Be Feted

Ulbert S. Wilke, who became director of the University's new Museum of Art on July 1, will be honored by the Cedar Rapids Art Center's president and board of directors Friday evening at a preview reception for an exhibition of African sculpture from Wilke's collection.

The exhibition, which will begin the third year of the Cedar Rapids Art Center, will be open free to the public at the Center from Saturday through Oct. 24. Gallery hours at the Center are from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday; 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Thursday, and 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday. The gallery is closed Mondays. Presented at the Friday reception also will be Mrs. Wilke; Gustave von Groschwitz, who became associate director of the University Museum on July 1, and Mrs. von Groschwitz.

The Cedar Rapids Art Center's announcement of the exhibition states: "Until recent years the art of black Africa has been little known to most gallery goers. In the past, missionaries and anthropologists were the only collectors of native African art. It is particularly important that the art of black Africa be placed prominently before the public at this time in America's history when such a great segment of its population is searching for an ethnic and cultural heritage so long denied them."

"With the serious intent to better acquaint our community with the purity and power, uniqueness and unity, beauty and delicacy of black African art, this exhibition is presented."

Speaking of Wilke, the announcement says: "Mr. Wilke, an artist of considerable merit and repute, brings with him (to Iowa) not only great knowledge and experience but also an outstanding and diversified art collection."

Hurricane Belt Comes Alive; Storms Active

MIAMI (AP) — Tropical disturbances brought gusty winds and driving rains Wednesday to islands on both ends of the Caribbean Sea as the hurricane belt suddenly came alive after weeks of comparative quiet.

A depression in the northwest Caribbean spread pounding rain across western Cuba and northward into Florida. Another, moving in from the Atlantic, threatened the Windward and Leeward Islands with flooding.

All told, hurricane hunter pilots flew into three disturbances during the day. The third, located 475 miles west-southwest of Bermuda in the Atlantic, was drifting toward the northeast away from the U.S. mainland.

Giving forecasters the most immediate concern was the depression in the northwest Caribbean, breeding ground of most of the major late-season hurricanes.

"It's not very imposing yet, but it's on the make," said Robert H. Simpson, director of Miami's National Hurricane Center.

"It's over water now and taking on some fuel," Simpson said, referring to the heat of tropic waters from which storms draw their strength.

Rains of two to four inches, with some locally heavier falls, were forecast for south Florida.

A hurricane hunter found the second depression 300 miles east of the Windward Islands. There was evidence of a weak circulation in the main cloud area near Latitude 11.5 North, Longitude 50.0 West.

As it spun westward at 20 miles an hour, kicking up 30-mile an hour squalls, residents of the islands were warned to prepare for possible flooding.

Because the upper atmosphere of the tropics has been abnormally cold, not a single major hurricane has crossed American shores this year. But Simpson warned Tuesday, "It takes only a week for a vast change in atmospheric conditions that could yield a whole rash of storms, or develop one giant hurricane."

Abby, first storm of the season, drove thousands from their homes in western Cuba and crossed Florida, but she was a minimal hurricane and damage was minor. Candy, forming in the Gulf of Mexico, brought heavy rains to Texas and the Midwest, causing damage estimated at more than $1 million and killing two persons. Brenda, Dolly and Edna never made landfall.

And a Child Shall Lead...

KENMARE, S.D. (AP) — The insistence of a 5-year-old girl that she saw a plane crash played a part in the rescue of a state legislator from his burning craft.

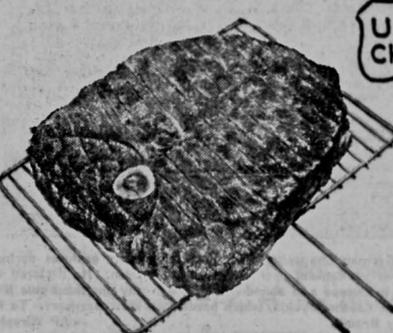

The 5-year-old girl, Dawn Potter, was riding with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Potter, and her younger sister and brother, in their car Tuesday when she looked out the rear window and cried: "Daddy, that plane crashed."

Her parents, who also had seen the plane landing at the rural airstrip, told their daughter that what she had seen was the plane landing on the runway.

"No, the dirt is flying now, and it tipped over," insisted Dawn. Potter, who farms in the Kenmare area, turned the car around and headed back toward the airstrip.

The plane was in flames when he arrived. Potter and John Johnson, a nearby farm worker, pulled Lee Christensen from the overturned craft.

Christensen, 43, a state senator from Kenmare, was listed in serious condition with multiple fractures, lacerations and burns.

Ford Boost Follows Pattern Set by GM

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. Wednesday announced a 1.6 per cent increase in the list price of its 1969 models, following the pattern laid down by General Motors and approved by President Johnson.

Ford said the average increase on the price of its new models would be $47, just below GM's $49 average increase and well below Chrysler's $84 boost. GM said its prices were up an average of 1.6 per cent and Chrysler said its were 2.9 per cent higher.

Officials of Chrysler Corp., which has rolled back its prices the past two years after facing smaller increases by GM, said they would study the Ford list before making a final decision on the cost of their new cars. List prices do not include the 7 per cent federal excise tax or dealers' handling and preparation charges.

The Ford increase would be $50 on its "sticker price," the firm said. The sticker price is the one a buyer finds on a car window in the dealer showroom, and it includes the excise tax and handling charges. GM said its sticker price increase would be $52, and Chrysler pegged its at $89.

President Johnson assailed the Chrysler price hike last week, but within hours after GM had reported its figures on Monday the President hailed the latter firm's action as improving "the outlook for the nation's prosperity and price record."

One lawmaker, however, has charged that the auto industry's prices still are higher than they should be.

Sen. Gaylord Nelson, (D-Wis.), said Tuesday he has obtained information which indicates the automakers make tremendous markups when they set their prices.

Nelson said that the resulting "enormous profit margins" show that all the companies should roll back their price hikes.

American Motors, smallest of the four major domestic auto-makers, is expected to reveal its new price list later this week or next week.

Movie Shows Pueblo Crew In Times of Stress and Play

BERLIN (AP) — The men of the captured U.S. intelligence ship Pueblo are shown trembling as they come ashore, their hands raised in surrender, on a dark January night in North Korea.

Later, the viewer sees them deeply tanned, playing basketball and volleyball in an outdoor stadium.

The camera zeroes in on a man identified as the Pueblo's skipper, Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher, and a film voice said to be Bucher's intones that he and his men "are criminals who committed espionage and hostile acts after having intruded into your territorial waters. We are now most sincerely repentant of those crimes."

The scenes are from two films prepared by Communist North Korea about the Pueblo and her crew. One details the alleged aggression of the ship; the other shows Bucher and some of his crew at a news conference and participating in their daily routine. The news conference was for North Korean journalists Aug. 13 in Pyongyang.

The material, filmed by the North Koreans, was made available to U.S. television networks by the North Korean Embassy in East Berlin.

The two films run a total of an hour and 40 minutes.

North Korea has demanded the United States apologize for the Pueblo's alleged violation of North Korean waters last Jan. 23 when she was captured. North Korea has said the 82-man crew would not be released without such an apology.

Documents are shown in the films purporting to show that the Pueblo had penetrated deeply into North Korean waters. One is a chart labeled "Pueblo's intrusions into territorial waters of D.P.R.K." — Democratic People's Republic of Korea. The chart includes dates, times and distances in nautical miles.

Bucher is shown in the film thanking North Korea for giving him the opportunity to speak and stating that the crew requested the news conference "in order to have our earnest desires for repatriation."

"The entire crew is well," the voice says.

The voice tape is uneven as Bucher is reported saying, "I would like to express my deep affection for my wife and two children, Mike and Mark . . . and a sincere happy birthday to my son Mark who is 15 years old today."

IRISH AMBASSADOR NAMED—WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate confirmed Wednesday Leo J. Sheridan of Chicago to be ambassador to Ireland.

CHANCELLOR WORRIED — West German Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger gestures during a policy address in Bonn Wednesday as parliament opened for its fall session. He declared that NATO must review its troop strength in Europe and abandon the idea of any one-sided cuts if Soviet forces continue their occupation of Czechoslovakia, which borders on West Germany. ## Court Hears Speck Plea

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — The Illinois Supreme Court, after hearing arguments, took under advisement Wednesday a plea to reduce the death sentence given Richard Speck, convicted of murdering eight student nurses.

Another possible decision was whether to set aside the conviction and order a new trial.

Speck was convicted in Peoria April 15, 1967 of murdering the nurses. They were stabbed and strangled in a townhouse dormitory on Chicago's South Side, July 14, 1966.

Speck was sentenced to the electric chair on June 5, 1967, by Judge Herbert C. Paschen. Illinois law requires an automatic appeal of the death sentence to the state supreme court.

Major Banks Pare Top Interest Rate

NEW YORK (AP) — Major banks across the nation Wednesday pared their prime interest rates to commercial borrowers from 6½ to 6¼ per cent.

Banks in New York, Chicago, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Atlanta announced the quarter of a per cent reduction.

Their action followed, but did not match, the lead set Tuesday when Chase Manhattan Bank of New York cut its prime rate from 6½ to 6 per cent.

The prime rate is the interest banks charge their most credit-worthy customers such as large corporations. Most other bank lending rates such as consumer loan rates are scaled up from the prime rate. However, rates on customer loans do not change as often as prime rates and are not likely to be reduced at this time.

Legislator Hopes for Western UNI

DES MOINES (AP) — Western Iowans are not ready to "throw in the sponge" on a new state college or university for their region, but they don't plan "a selfish push" for the institution, a legislator said Wednesday.

State Sen. Joseph Platt, (R-Winterset), a leader of the drive for a new western Iowa college, said he hoped such a school would be established as a branch of the University of Northern Iowa by the 1969 legislature.

"I'm fully cognizant of the total needs of education in Iowa," said Platt in reference to record budget requests of existing state institutions.

He said western Iowans "don't expect the legislature to appropriate $3 million for the new school, next year, but they do look for some progress in establishing the college or university."

The president of the state Board of Regents, Stanley Redeker of Boone, said Tuesday he did not feel it would be wise to establish the western Iowa institution at this time.

U.S., North Vietnam Trade Accusations over Deadlock

PARIS (AP) — The deadlock in the Vietnamese peace talks deepened Wednesday and U.S. patience seemed to be wearing thin, but there was no sign either side wanted to break off the weekly conferences under way since mid-May.

The United States accused the North Vietnamese of refusing to join in any serious peace-making. "We find their position today, as we have found it in the past, to be intransigent, unmovable and uncompromising," American spokesman William Jordan reported after another session.

Jordan seemed to be reflecting shortening U.S. patience with the inflexibility of the North Vietnamese who have demonstrated since the talks began.

Conceding that the talks were indeed deadlocked, Nguyen Thanh Le, who speaks for North Vietnam, put the blame squarely on the United States.

"As long as the United States maintains its attitude in refusing to cease its bombing and all other acts of war against North Vietnam, it must bear the entire responsibility for blocking progress in the conversation," Le said.

Thus, at the 23rd U.S.-North Vietnamese encounter here, the talks floundered again on the two-sided bombing issue.

Jordan recalled that President Johnson had pledged to stop U.S. bombing of the North when Hanoi gave reason to believe it intended to join in a mutual deescalation of the war.

He said Hanoi's envoys had given Washington "no reason to believe any other action on our part would meet with a responsive action on their part."

This notion of reciprocity — a sign from Hanoi that it would decrease its military efforts in the South as a companion measure to a total bombing halt — was rejected again by Ambassador Xuan Thuy, North Vietnam's chief negotiator.

"We have always rejected it," Thuy told U.S. Ambassador W. Averell Harriman in the conference room.

Despite the deepening sense of frustration surrounding the talks, both sides ruled out any action to recess the weekly meetings.

Senate OKs Housing Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate passed and sent to President Johnson Wednesday a catch-all $14,570,395,000 money bill containing funds for city housing programs cut far below the President's requests.

The overall total in the measure was $3,703,000,000 under Johnson's budget, with the biggest slashes in major Administration housing programs.

The measure contains funds not only for the Housing and Urban Development Department but also for about 30 independent agencies. It is for the 12 months ending next June 30.

Congress granted $625 million for the Model Cities Program as against the $1 billion Johnson asked. This is the key program the administration is pushing to try to rebuild large sections of the blighted areas of cities.

It allowed $750 million for the urban renewal program for which the budget included $1.3 billion.

And it granted $300 million in new annual contract authority for the rent subsidy program for low-income families. Johnson asked $65 million.

Biggest allotment in the bill was $6,977,000,000 for the Veterans Administration.

The measure contains $3,995,000,000 for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, which was $375 million below Johnson's original request.

Several senators protested a $100,000 item in the bill to pay expenses of a nine-member commission expected to recommend pay increases for members of Congress and top government executives early next year.
