

Students Extend Boycott for 2 Days

Class Attendance Estimated at 50% Sutton Declares University 'Closed'

By MARK ROHNER and PENNY MAHER

A mass meeting of some 1,200 students voted Tuesday night to continue for two more days a boycott of classes which was about 50 per cent effective Tuesday and to hold a student referendum Thursday to decide on the possibility of a general student strike.

The motion to extend the boycott did not say so, but Student Body Pres. Jim Sutton declared after the vote, "The University is officially shut down."

Strategy for today's and Thursday's boycott differs from Tuesday's in that members of the multi-group Coalition to Fight Tuition — sponsors of the boycott — will conduct "informational picketing" in the central campus area. There was no picketing Tuesday. Coalition leaders stressed that picketing today and Thursday would be strictly "informational" and that no attempt would be made to bar students from attending classes.

The boycott extension ended a meeting which had earlier voted to add demands of the Black Athletes Union (BAU) to Coalition demands for lower tuition and a higher tax on Iowa corporations to help fund the schools.

The decision to include BAU demands came on the third vote on the matters. Discussion of the proposal took up most of the meeting.

The first vote approved a motion by Dave Yessen, A1, Jefferson, that the Coalition confine its demands to the original two. Stan Mortenson, 20, 530 N. Clinton St., a nonstudent later proposed reconsideration of including the BAU demands. The vote on Mortenson's motion was called a tie.

After Sutton contended, "You're making a mistake not to include this (BAU demands) in your program," enough students in the crowd of 1,200 changed their votes to approve adding the BAU demands to the Coalition's list.

Demands of the BAU include more adequate, specialized counselors for athletes; the extension of financial aid until graduation, even if the athlete cannot graduate in four years; a five-year scholarship plan for athletes who cannot complete requirements for graduation in four years; more autonomy in the athletes' personal, political and social lives; and the acceptance of a $15 a month allowance plan by the Big 10.

The motions to extend the boycott and to add BAU demands were among some half dozen proposals arrived at a "radical caucus" of Coalition member organizations Tuesday afternoon.

Estimates of how many students boycotted classes Tuesday ranged from 20 to 80 per cent of the student body. However, from spot checks in several large classes and a sample check of students by Daily Iowan reporters, it appeared that about 45 per cent of students who normally attend Tuesday classes were absent.

It was difficult to determine how many students actually boycotted classes to protest the tuition increase, since a steady rain all morning may have kept large numbers of students out of class.

Rumors ranging from reports of possible administration building takeovers to one that a prominent student had been shot in Chicago never materialized, as boycott activities proceeded peacefully and law enforcement agencies reported a quiet day.

As the boycott continues, the Coalition plans two mass meetings, one before and one after the referendum Thursday, to decide on further action.

University Pres. Howard R. Bowen and Vice Pres. Willard L. Boyd were not available for comment on the coalition's Tuesday night decision.

Philip Hubbard, dean of academic affairs, said he had listened to many of the speeches during Tuesday's teach-in and was not sure what benefits the group expected to gain from the continued boycott.

If it is an attempt to gain publicity for the cause of lowering tuition, he said, the publicity should be directed at the group they are trying to influence — the Iowa legislature.

He said no previous plans had been made by the administration for the possibility of an extension of the boycott. He said he doubted that the faculty had enough advance warning to plan for rescheduling classes, as some instructors had done for Tuesday's boycott.

The boycott stemmed out of a budget squeeze — with the three state universities caught in the middle — between the State Board of Regents and the state government.

The regents requested $121.4 million for operation of its three universities and schools for the blind and deaf. Gov. Robert D. Ray recommended $91.4 million for the regents, a reduction of $30 million. Appropriation bills passed by both houses of the legislature are in exact compliance with the governor's recommendations.

Presidents of all three universities have warned that tuitions will increase should the governor's budget be approved.

The Coalition to Fight Tuition was formed two weeks ago by nine organizations with the joint demands of holding the line on tuitions and increasing corporate income tax to help underwrite higher education. The Coalition has since grown to some 25 groups, including the Interfraternity Council, the Panhellenic Council and the Student Senate.

With most student attention focused on the tuition threat, the Coalition's second demand has tended to be sloughed over. Members of the original groups, including Students for a Democratic Society, complained about this at the afternoon "teach-in" and called for the creation of a radical caucus within the Coalition to press for the tax-the-corporations demand.

The bulk of the day was taken up by what the Coalition called a "teach-in" and what Sutton called a "convocation of the student guild." The gathering, regardless of what its official name was, was held in the Union Terrace Lounge after heavy rains made an originally scheduled outdoor meeting impossible.

About 1,000 students crowded the lounge to hear a string of student and faculty speakers denounce Bowen, the University administration, the regents, the legislature and Ray for creating a situation in which tuition increases now appear inevitable.

The comments, which ranged from the serious to the frivolous, were interrupted

$91.4 Million Regents Bill With 'Riot' Rider Passed

DES MOINES — A $91.4 million annual appropriations bill for Board of Regents institutions was approved, 104 to 2, by the Iowa House Tuesday. The measure, already approved by the Senate, now goes to Gov. Robert D. Ray for final approval.

Final legislative action on the bill came as students at the University of Iowa in Iowa City were boycotting classes in protest over a threatened rise in tuition prompted by the appropriations, which amount to $30 million less than asked for by the regents.

The appropriation bill, as passed, contains a stiff "antiriot" provision which, in effect, would bar from the state's three universities any student or faculty member convicted of promoting or taking part in a riot resulting in property damage or personal injury.

Ray at first said he would not approve the provision. He reconsidered Tuesday and said he would probably not veto it.

"We have come to the point where the person who pays the fiddler ought to have the right to play the tune," said Rep. Charles Grassley (R-New Hartford) in an impassioned floor speech in favor of tough action against campus demonstrators.

Grassley said the people of Iowa detest the minority of college students who disrupt campus activities and destroy property.

The regents had requested $121.4 million for its institutions but Ray recommended only $91.4 million, a drop of $30 million.

Broken down, the governor's recommendations called for $46.9 million for the University of Iowa, $32.4 million for Iowa State University, $9.7 million for the University of Northern Iowa, $1.4 million for the Iowa School for the Deaf, and $810,000 for the Iowa Braille and Sightsaving School.

Officials of the three state universities warned they might have to raise tuitions substantially if the legislature could not provide them with more money than that.

Lost in the shuffle was a proposal for an additional $300,000 appropriation for UNI, to help pay for expected growth of the state's youngest university.

The House had approved, 59 to 49, the extra money earlier Tuesday, but when House Republican leaders forced another vote it was defeated, 55 to 51.

Bucher, Officers Freed of Charges In Pueblo Seizure

WASHINGTON — "They have suffered enough," Secretary of the Navy John H. Chafee declared Tuesday in overriding the Navy brass to save Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher and two other Pueblo officers from possible punishment because of North Korea's seizure of their spy ship.

At the same time the Navy's civilian chief blocked official reprimands against two senior naval officers, including Rear Adm. Frank L. Johnson, who commanded U.S. naval forces in Korean-Japanese waters at the time of the incident Jan. 23, 1968.

But Chafee stopped short of absolving Bucher, the Pueblo skipper, or any of the other officers in connection with the loss of the intelligence gathering ship in international waters.

"I make no judgment regarding the guilt or innocence of any of the officers of the offenses alleged against them," the Navy secretary said.

"I am convinced, however, that neither individual discipline, nor the state of discipline or morale in the Navy, nor any other interest requires further legal proceedings with respect to any personnel involved in the Pueblo incident."

Chafee disclosed that a court of inquiry, composed of five admirals, had recommended a general court-martial on five charges for Bucher.

Generally, these charges covered alleged failure to take steps to prevent his ship from being overrun and failing to block the loss of secret material to the North Koreans.

Council Renews Renewal Plans

By G. T. WESTLY

The City Council took steps to get downtown urban renewal in motion again at its formal meeting Tuesday night.

A resolution was adopted stating that Iowa City will seek federal assistance for its urban renewal plans. This assistance will hopefully come from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

The council said it would seek assistance from HUD to make it clear that private urban renewal was no longer an alternative.

The council also approved a motion adopting City Atty. Jay Honohan's timetable for re-enacting the $13-million renewal project.

The Iowa Supreme Court invalidated Iowa City's previous renewal plan, on grounds of conflicts of interest, last March 11. Since that time legislation passed by the Legislature has made it possible for Iowa City to begin again with its renewal plans.

Honohan will now draw up a list of resolutions needed to reactivate the project.

If the Council gives its approval, the resolutions will be given to HUD officials for review.

With the federal officials' approval, the council will reactivate the proposal and attempt to set a public hearing for late July.

Mayor Loren Hickerson said the urban renewal project will still be in the planning stage until after the public hearing.

In other action, the council: • Adopted an ordinance amending the Municipal Code related to Minimum Housing Standards. This resolution brings Iowa City's Minimum Housing Standards, concerning bathrooms in dwellings, in line with the state code in which each dwelling unit is required to have a complete bathroom. Hickerson said the ordinance would not affect required conditions for rooming houses.

• Passed a resolution establishing a tonnage limit on the South Dodge Street Bridge. Hickerson said it would also be advisable for the council to eventually place a tonnage limit on the Summit Street Bridge over the Rock Island Railroad tracks.

Kennedy ABM Report, Security Council Clash

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two contrasting reports were issued Tuesday on the Safeguard and antiballistic missile system (ABM).

The first was by four professors commissioned by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy (D-Mass.), the second was by two scientists and a retired general for the American Security Council (ASC).

Kennedy report: "We conclude that the system is unlikely to perform according to specifications in the event of nuclear attack."

ASC Report: "Safeguard will 'work' in the sense it is intended to work." The United States "has amply demonstrated its capacity to produce and operate the most complex . . . systems."

Kennedy report: "We find the evidence that the U.S.S.R. is seeking a first-strike capability against the U.S. to be thin and unpersuasive."

ASC Report: "It is apparent that the Soviets have jumped into the lead in overall strategic missile strength . . . and however war may come, they intend to get in the first blow."

Kennedy report: "We conclude that deployment of Sentinel-Safeguard now would probably start a new round in the arms race and would seriously impede the conclusion of an arms control agreement."

ASC report: "Soviet leaders would regard U.S. failure to develop an ABM as a sign of deficient military thinking — one that should be exploited, not followed."

Crackdowns Bring 'Peace' on Campus

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Crackdowns on student rampages brought a measure of peace to the nation's college campuses Tuesday. Police arrested 229 Purdue University demonstrators during the day to break up a sit-in there.

But, about 60 students seized the administration building at Dartmouth College in Hanover, N.H., and nailed the doors shut in a protest against the Reserve Officers Training Corps.

Earlier in the week, an uprising of about 200 students at the predominantly Negro Southern University in New Orleans was quelled when the National Guard was alerted to move in.

And 365 black students from Alabama State College were arrested during a demonstration at Montgomery, Ala.

In New York, City College reopened to its 20,000 students Tuesday after a two-week occupation of its South Campus by about 200 black and Puerto Rican students was ended under court order. They had been demanding enrollment changes in favor of blacks and Puerto Ricans.

The police action at Purdue occurred after about 350 students occupying the Memorial Union were urged in circulars to "arm yourselves according to your constitutional rights."

The suggestion that weapons be brought into the building led Purdue Pres. Frederick L. Hovde to order an end to the occupation. About 100 students complied, and police then moved in on the others. Most of those arrested were booked on trespassing charges and released.

The union building was ordered closed indefinitely.

The arrests came five hours before Robert H. Finch, U.S. secretary of health, education and welfare, addressed a convocation marking Purdue's 100th anniversary.

As the convocation began, about 350 students raised clenched fists and silently walked out as Hovde began to speak. Finch was not yet on the stage.

Bakers Are Excommunicated From Presbyterian Church

By CHERYL ARVIDSON

After nearly a year and a half of squabbling, appeals and more appeals, a University English professor and his wife have been excommunicated from the Presbyterian Church.

The professor, Joseph Baker, and his wife, Matilda, were excommunicated Tuesday by the Southeast Iowa Presbytery, a Presbyterian governing unit, which met in Washington, Iowa.

The Bakers' excommunication came after they had been indefinitely suspended for "disturbing the peace and unity" of the First Presbyterian Church, 26 E. Market St.

Excommunication is the most serious sanction which can be invoked against a church member under Presbyterian law. In order of seriousness, the possible sanctions are reprimand, censure, suspension — either for a definite or indefinite period of time — and excommunication.

The Bakers received national publicity during their trial, which began in December, 1967, and was considered a rarity in church judicial proceedings. In January, 1968, a judicial commission of the Southeast Iowa Presbytery found the Bakers guilty of actions which disrupted the church.

The Baker trial stemmed from the couple's outspoken actions and criticism of plans to raze the church building and possibly construct a new church on the same site.

The judicial commission's decision to indefinitely suspend the Bakers was appealed to the Iowa Presbytery and the Presbyterian General Assembly, the highest judicial body of the church. In each appeal, however, the judicial commission's decision was upheld.

As indefinitely suspended members of the church, the Bakers were able to attend church services but were not allowed to take communion and were unable to vote in church meetings. Baker, who was a church elder, was also unable to exercise his office.

According to James Hickman, a delegate to the Presbytery and former clerk of the First Presbyterian Church Ses-

Liberation Anniversary Hailed By Demonstrators in Prague

PRAGUE (AP) — More than 2,000 Czechoslovaks, some carrying American and British flags and others hurling rocks at police, staged defiant demonstrations in Pilsen Monday night, 24 years after U.S. forces liberated the city from Nazi Germany.

Reports from the western Bohemian city said nearly 400 police using two water cannons were needed to quell three separate demonstrations. Forty-five demonstrators were arrested and three policemen were injured, Czechoslovak informants said.

In Prague, the Communist party newspaper Rude Pravo blamed the disturbance on "criminal elements" fomenting "anti-state actions."

But accounts from Pilsen indicated participants were mostly students and office and factory workers venting displeasure against the government's renewed pro-Soviet policies and attempts to minimize the role of the Western Allies in World War II.

The turbulent evening began with an official ceremony marking the anniversary of the 1945 uprising against the Germans in the final days of the European war. Flags of the Soviet Union, Britain and the United States were raised at the memorial to the national resistance movement in Peace Square, and wreaths were laid.

Fifty persons who were said to have tried to participate in the ceremony carrying British and American flags were reported detained and their flags confiscated.

Elsewhere in the city, approximately 1,500 persons staged a demonstration at a busy crossing. Reports said they placed American flags and portraits of the late Tomas Masaryk, first president of Czechoslovakia, and the late Foreign Minister Jan Masaryk at the remains of a U.S. Army memorial. The memorial was dismantled during the Stalinist era.

Chicago Prof Faculty Council to Air Reported Fair Student Code Changes After Beating

By LARRY CHANDLER

The Faculty Council scheduled a discussion of proposed changes in the Code of Student Life for their next meeting on May 13, but refused comment on what the changes might be.

CHICAGO — A founding member of Students for a Democratic Society and the New University Conference was reported in fair condition Tuesday night, after he had been severely beaten Monday afternoon in his University of Chicago office.

He was Richard Flacks, an assistant professor of sociology. Chicago police said Tuesday that there was little evidence of a struggle in Flacks' office. They theorized that Flacks, who sustained two skull fractures, had been beaten with a tire iron.

Flacks had been scheduled to address a national meeting of the NUC in Iowa City in June.

Police had not made any arrests in the case Tuesday, but the University of Chicago was reportedly offering a $10,000 reward for information leading to the capture of Flacks' assailants.

In other action, the council declined to co-sponsor the New University Conference's (NUC) first national convention, to be held in Iowa City from June 12 through June 15.

In a letter to the council requesting co-sponsorship, Howard

Chicago Prof Faculty Council to Air Reported Fair Student Code Changes After Beating

Ehrlich, associate professor of sociology and a leader of the University's NUC chapter, said, "The purpose of the conference will be to develop a set of program objectives for educational and political activities for the coming year." The letter did not request funding.

Stow S. Persons, professor of history, said he preferred that the council not sponsor meetings because it would require judgments on the program's merits and quality.

The council subsequently passed a motion "that the council take the position that it is not its function to sponsor meetings of non-Senate groups using campus facilities." The motion will be presented at the next Faculty Senate meeting for consideration.

Baseball Roundup

BALTIMORE — Luis Aparicio's run-scoring single, following a two-out walk and stolen base by Sandy Alomar in the third inning, gave Joe Horlen and the Chicago White Sox a 1-0 victory over the Baltimore Orioles Tuesday night.

Horlen blanked the Orioles on five hits as the White Sox broke a six-game losing streak with their first victory in three starts under new Manager Don Gutteridge.

Loser Jim Palmer, 3-2, who allowed four hits in eight innings, tried several times to pick Alomar off first base in the third before the fleet second baseman swiped a base. Aparicio followed with a single to left for the only run in the game.

Horlen, also 3-2, pitched out of a bases-loaded jam in the second inning when he retired Palmer on a drive near the left center field fence.

PHILADELPHIA — Rookie Don Money crashed a leadoff homer in the ninth inning Tuesday night, giving the streaking Philadelphia Phillies a 5-4 victory over Houston.

Money's fourth homer, a shot into the left field stands off reliever Dooley Wornack, extended the Phillies' winning string to five games and ended the Astros' victory skin at four.

Curt Blefary's two-run double with two out in the eighth had capped a three-run Houston rally and tied the game 4-4. Singles by Norm Miller, Jim Wynn and Denis Menke scored one run, chasing Philadelphia starter Woody Fryman, before Blefary doubled off reliever Dick Farrell.

CLEVELAND — Cleveland's Sam McDowell pitched his second consecutive three-hit shut-out and made Tony Horton's seventh-inning home run stand up for a 1-0 victory that ended Minnesota's eight-game winning streak Tuesday night.

It was the fourth triumph in 22 games this season for the Indians.

McDowell, who stopped the New York Yankees on three hits and fanned 12 in his last start, struck out six Twins and was in command all the way. Cesar Tovar's game-opening single was the only clean hit off the tall left-hander.

Frank Quilici beat out a hopper over the mound in the third and Tovar outlegged a bouncer to short in the seventh. It was McDowell's second win in five decisions.

PITTSBURGH — Clarence Gaston's two-run triple keyed a four-run first inning burst and San Diego held on for a 4-2 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates Tuesday night.

Gaston's blow to right center knocked out Steve Blass, 2-2, who won 18 games for Pittsburgh last season, for the sixth consecutive time this year.

Tommy Dean, Roberto Pena and Tony Gonzalez started the flurry with successive singles for one run. A force out scored another before Ed Spiezio walked and Gaston tripled.

The Pirates closed the gap in the second inning on run-scoring singles by Freddie Patek and pinch hitter Jose Pagan.

ATLANTA — Pinch hitter Floyd Wicker's two-out single followed two Atlanta errors and a passed ball and gave the Montreal Expos a 4-3 come-from-behind victory over the Braves Tuesday night.

Wicker's hit off previously unbeaten Ron Reed scored Coco Laboy and Gary Sutherland, who reached on consecutive errors by Clete Boyer and Felix Millan and moved up on Bob Didier's passed ball. Mack Jones' fifth home run opened the inning as the Expos wiped out a 3-1 deficit.

Montreal took a 1-0 lead in the first on Donn Clendenon's sacrifice fly but the Braves tied it in their half on a single by Orlando Cepeda.

Atlanta surged ahead with two runs in the sixth.

Aqueduct Racing To Resume Today

NEW YORK — Racing will be resumed at Aqueduct today after a nine-day closing due to a boycott of the track by horsemen over a dispute on a proposed pension plan.

The New York State Racing Association announced at mid-afternoon Tuesday that resumption of racing today with a nine-race program.

Trainers and owners were being urged by a loudspeaker to enter their horses and end the boycott which has closed the track for nine racing days at a cost of an estimated $4 million in revenue to the state.

Cubs Trample Dodgers 7-1

Stolen Base for Willie—

Los Angeles Dodgers centerfielder Willie Davis steals second base in a game with the Chicago Cubs Tuesday. The throw from catcher Randy Hundley to secondbaseman Glen Beckert was late. The Cubs trounced the Dodgers 7-1, running their season record to 19-9 and extending their lead over second place Pittsburgh to 3 games.

CHICAGO — The Chicago Cubs, who never had lost to Don Sutton, knocked out the Los Angeles pitcher in the sixth inning Tuesday and downed the Dodgers 7-1.

Sutton, who came into the game with two straight shut-outs and a string of 25 scoreless innings, suffered his 11th career defeat at the hands of the Cubs who were led by homers by Al Spangler and Randy Hundley.

The Dodgers grabbed a 1-0 lead off Ken Holtzman in the third when Willie Davis walked, stole second and scored on Bill Russell's single. But Spangler's second homer of the season, equaling his entire 1968 production in 88 games, tied the score in the bottom of the third.

Don Kessinger opened the Chicago sixth with a double and, after Glenn Beckert lined out, Billy Williams was walked intentionally. Ron Santo singled home the tie-breaking run, Ernie Banks drove in another with a sacrifice fly and Spangler singled home the third run of the inning.

Retzlaff Named Philadelphia GM

PHILADELPHIA — Pete Retzlaff, a former All-National Football League end, took over Tuesday as vice president and general manager of the Philadelphia Eagles under a three-year contract.

Retzlaff, who played 11 years for the Eagles before retiring two seasons ago, was given complete authority by new Eagles owner Leonard Tose to rebuild the club.

"Mr. Tose has given me complete authority," the 36-year-old Retzlaff told a news conference. "I'm going to run things my way. If this baby doesn't grow up, it means I haven't fed it right. It will be my fault."

Tose last week fired Joe Kuharich as general manager-coach of the Eagles after a five-year record of 28-41-1, with four losing seasons. Retzlaff's first big job will be to find a coach to succeed Kuharich on the field.

Retzlaff wanted Jerry Williams, the coach of the Calgary Stampeders in the Canadian Football League, but was refused permission by the Calgary board of directors to negotiate with Williams who recently signed a four-year contract. The NFL has a working agreement with the Canadian League and Retzlaff indicated he must look elsewhere for his coach.

Leading candidate for the job is Charley Gauer, a former Colgate star who played three years for the Eagles in the 1940's and has been an assistant coach or scout for the club since 1946. He was an assistant — the offensive coach — of the 1960 Eagles' NFL champions.

Retzlaff indicated, however, he had at least seven good candidates for the job. Such names as Bart Starr and Johnny Unitas were rumored, but Retzlaff indicated he wanted a man with NFL coaching experience.

Why is Camaro the pace car again?

Because it's the Hugger.

Camaro SS has been chosen to be the Indy 500 pace car for the second time in three years. That's because it has what it takes. Engine choices start with a standard 300-hp 350-cu.-in. Turbo-Fire V8 and run up to a 325-hp 396-cu.-in. Turbo-Jet job. There's even a new Super Scoop hood you can order. It opens on acceleration, pouring cooler air into the engine for more go power. The SS version of the Hugger grips the road with wide-oval tires on 14 x 7-inch-wide wheels, beefed-up suspension and power disc brakes. The transmission comes linked to a 3-speed floor shift. If you want still more, there's a 4-speed Hurst shifter available. Indy's tough. So's Camaro SS. When it comes to pacesetting, it's pretty clear that Camaro knows its way around. Start setting a pace of your own. At your Chevrolet dealer's now. Putting you first, keeps us first.

Hawkeyes Drop Pair at N. Illinois, 6-4, 3-2

By CHUCK STOLBERG
 DEKALB, Ill. — Iowa's baseball team, after a 1-3 showing over the weekend in Big 10 play, dropped a doubleheader to Northern Illinois Tuesday, 6-4 and 3-2.

The Hawks banged out 12 hits in the opener, eight in the first three innings when they scored four runs, but it wasn't enough as Northern scored four times in the fourth to go with single scores in the first and sixth innings.

The Hawks jumped off to a 2-1 lead in the second inning on a two-run homer by Mike Wymore. They added two more in the third on a double by Gary Breshears, a Northern error allowing Bob Cataldo to reach base safely, and back-to-back RBI singles by Wymore and Bob Rushe.

to take a 2-0 lead. In the first frame, Dave Krull got on an error, stole second and scampered home on Bob Cataldo's single.

In the second inning, Ken Ray singled with two outs for the Hawks and after Banta reached on an error, Krull singled him in.

The Huskies knotted the score at 2-2 in the fifth and then won it in the bottom of the seventh on three straight hits — the last a run-scoring, game winning double by the pitcher, Hahn.

Banta worked six innings for the Hawks and gave up only four hits. Koering, who worked only the seventh, was shackled with the loss.

Hahn worked all seven innings and gave up six hits and struck out seven.

Hawks' Big Boppers—

Iowa's Mike Wymore (left) belted a two-run homer and a run scoring single in the first game of a doubleheader with Northern Illinois at DeKalb Tuesday. The second inning homer gave the Hawks a temporary 2-1 lead. The Hawks lost the opener 6-4 and then dropped the nightcap 3-2. Bob Cataldo (right) stroked four hits in the twin bill.

Stepanek Hurt Out for Spring

Iowa's football team lost defensive tackle Rich Stepanek for the rest of the spring Saturday when he cracked a bone in his wrist during a scrimmage.

However, the Hawks' other walking wounded — namely quarterbacks Larry Lawrence and Mike Cilek are expected to return to practice this week. Lawrence has a sprained ankle and Cilek has a knee injury.

The coaches were all pleased with the way Stepanek was progressing in the spring drills.

The Hawks' annual spring game is scheduled for May 15 and Coach Ray Nagel said Tuesday that they might practice after that since they will not have used up their 20 allotted practices in 36 days. It will depend on how the team has progressed, he said.

Stepanek's spot in the defensive line will be taken over by two-time letterman Mike Edwards.

Celtics Still Reign as Kings of NBA: 11th Title in 13 Years

BOSTON — The leprechauns are dancing. Red Auerbach and Bill Russell are smiling — and the amazing Boston Celtics still are champs.

For the 11th time since Auerbach pulled off a deal to acquire draft rights to Russell 13 years ago, the Celtics reign as kings of the National Basketball Association.

Written off as a bunch of old men during the regular season, centages undoubtedly will settle down to a lower level now that the East is meeting the West in the majors for the next few weeks. Under the new division setup, teams play the other teams in their own division 18 times a year and meet each of the six teams in the other division only 12 times.

Using the averages up to Tuesday's games it is possible to draw up a list of the top 10 expansion hitters:

1. Coco Laboy, Montreal, .378.
2. Mack Jones, Montreal, .341.
3. Jerry Adair, Kansas City, .324.
4. Gerry McNerney, Seattle, .317.
5. Mike Hegan, Seattle, .310.
6. Nate Colbert, San Diego, .299.
7. Rusty Staub, Montreal, .298.
8. Ollie Brown, San Diego, .288.
9. Bob Oliver, Kansas City, .284.
10. Tommy Harper, Seattle, .284.

Ranking the top five expansion pitchers on the basis of their earned run averages up to Tuesday, they rate in this order:

1. Moe Drabowsky, Kansas City, 3-1, 1.62.
2. Diego Segui, Seattle, 1-2, 2.25.
3. Bill Stoneman, Montreal, 2-3, 2.21.
4. Steve Jones, Kansas City, 2-1, 2.45.
5. Marty Pattin, Seattle, 4-1, 3.05.

Drabowsky, 33-year-old relief pitcher selected by the Royals from the Baltimore Orioles at the going price of $175,000, was the No. 21 selection.

Even Wilt Can't Stop Celtics—

Wilt Chamberlain of the Los Angeles Lakers stopped Boston's Bill Russell Monday night, but he couldn't stop the Celtics as they captured their 11th NBA championship in 13 years.

— AP Wirephoto

The Celtics were dethroned by the Philadelphia 76ers in 1967, but rebounded to regain the crown the last two seasons.

"We never thought of losing," Russell said after the Celtics became the first team ever to lose the first two games of a final series and come back to win.

"Yet I think it was the biggest of the thrills. This has to be one of the greatest comebacks of all time.

"Time and again, all season, we had to bounce back — and did. We've had more talent in other years, but none with more guts."

Auerbach made the smartest move of his career when he trade Ed Macauley and Cliff Hagen to St. Louis for the No. 1 draft rights to Russell April 30, 1956. His second smartest move was signing Russell after the San Francisco All-America led the United States to an Olympic Gold Medal.

With the 6-9 Russell as a defensive ace, revolutionizing the pro game, Auerbach built a dynasty, coaching nine NBA championship teams. Then he moved into the front office fulltime, naming Russell player-coach.

Best Expansion Club? It's the Kansas City Royals, According to April Statistics

NEW YORK — Applying the cold, hard facts of the won and lost ledger, the Kansas City Royals appear to be the best of the four expansion teams after the first month of the season.

Competing exclusively in their own Western Division of the American League for the first four weeks, the Royals managed to stay over .500 with a 13-11 record going into Tuesday's schedule.

Here's the way the four new clubs stand after the first phase of the new schedule, with victories, losses and percentage:

Kansas City, 13-11, .542.
San Diego, 12-16, .429.
Montreal, 9-15, .375.
Seattle, 8-15, .348.

Within the confines of this cozy little four-club group, the big surprise has to be Coco Laboy, the Montreal third baseman, whose .378 batting average rates fourth best in the league.

Laboy, 28, knocked around the minors for 10 years before the Expos decided he was worth taking from the St. Louis Cardinals' active list at the draft last October. The Expos weren't all that enthusiastic, however. They drafted 30 players for $10 million and Laboy was No. 27 on the list.

The Expos also came up with a big surprise in Bill Stoneman, the no-hit pitcher, picked No. 10 after an undistinguished three years in the Chicago Cubs' farm system where he pitched only one complete game.

Averages and won-loss percentages undoubtedly will settle down to a lower level now that the East is meeting the West in the majors for the next few weeks. Under the new division setup, teams play the other teams in their own division 18 times a year and meet each of the six teams in the other division only 12 times.

Former Hawk—

Former Iowa Star Don Nelson was instrumental in the Celtics playoff victory over the Lakers. Nelson scored 16 points in the final game—12 in a hectic third period when the Celtics ran up a 17-point lead. Nelson, the leading scorer in Iowa basketball history, also scored 25 points in 23 minutes of play Saturday and helped the Celtics defeat the Lakers 99-90 and send the series back to Los Angeles for the seventh game.

The Celtics came through against the odds once again Monday night and retained their title with a 108-106 victory over Los Angeles' frustrated Lakers in the seventh and deciding game of a pressure-packed series.

The Celtics proved again that

Kansas and Big 8 Track Stars Waiting for Championships

KANSAS CITY — Big Eight athletes, honing for next week's conference track and field championships at Ames, came up with their best marks of the spring in six events last weekend and matched a season best in a seventh event.

Leading the parade, as usual, was potent Kansas. Jayhawkers posted new season marks in four events.

Jim Ryun and Karl Salb led the way. Ryun pranced the 3 mile run in 13:29.3, whacking nearly 19 seconds off the previous best time for the event this spring. Glenn Ogden of Missouri ran it in 13:48.0 earlier. Salb threw the shot 67 feet, one-half inch to eclipse his previous best throw this spring of 66-4.

Kansas' Jim Niehouse ran the 800 in 1:49.6 and Kansas State's Ken Swenson did 1:50.3, both times below Swenson's 1:50.4, which was the best this spring until last Saturday.

The 440-yard relay team of George Byers, Mickey Mathews, Stan Whitley and Julio Meade turned in a time of 40 seconds flat, bettering Kansas' previous best of :40.3.

Ray McGill of Kansas State recorded another outdoor best this spring with a leap of 6-10 1/2 in the high jump. He had done 6-10 earlier.

The new best for the season was notched by Eddie Tilton of Colorado, who sped the 440 in 45.9 seconds. His :47.4 had been best.

Missouri's Mel Gray matched the best this spring in the 220 with a :20.9 clocking. Gray and Meade both had done that well previously.

Kansas recorded its new bests in a dual meet with Southern Illinois, while Kansas State competed against Missouri and Colorado against Nebraska.

Kansas State is host to the Air Force Academy, Missouri goes to Nebraska and Colorado runs at Fort Collins, Colo., this Saturday.

METS BLAST REDS 8-1—
NEW YORK — Don Cardwell pitched a six-hitter and capped a barrage of four New York homers with a three-run blast in the eighth inning as the suddenly powerful Mets pounded the Cincinnati Reds 8-1 Tuesday night.

College Leadership Chided

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — The Rev. Theodore Hesburgh, University of Notre Dame president, says America's college students "need better leadership than we or the faculty have been giving them."

"We need a rebirth of great academic, civic and political leadership — a sharing of these youthful ideals and dreams, whether they're impossible or not," Hesburgh added in an interview. "This might help us remove some of the key problems that underline most of the unrest."

Hesburgh is regarded as a hard liner on student protest, mainly because of his letter to Notre Dame students last winter warning that anyone engaged in disruptive protest would be given 15 minutes to desist or be liable for suspension.

But the scholarly priest said, "I didn't want to come out as a hawk. I wanted to act as a rational man, reacting to a crisis situation. I think young people deserve to know where they stand."

An excerpt from the interview: Q. What do you feel is the best course for a university facing the threat of disruption?

A. A university has to react to threats of disruption as a community — including all its elements, students, faculty, alumni and trustees. The university has to be its own salvation. It has to declare its own values and stand up and defend them. If the students and the faculty don't feel the value of their own community, then you're dead."

Q. Do you feel that outside law enforcement agencies should be called upon in cases of severe disruption?

A. When lawlessness is afoot and all authority is flouted — faculty, the administration and the students — then we invoke the normal social forces of law or allow the university to die beneath our hapless and hopeless gaze. I have no intention of presiding over such a spectacle . . ."

Hesburgh, who took over the Notre Dame presidency in 1952 at the age of 33, wears in the lapel of his black priest's jacket a tiny silver eagle pinned to a purple strip of ribbon. This is the Medal of Freedom, the nation's highest civil honor, awarded him in 1964 for his work in education and public service.

Hesburgh was named chairman of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights by President Nixon.

ISRAELI FORCES 'READY' — JERUSALEM (AP) — The Arabs are not prepared for a full-scale war with Israel, Prime Minister Golda Meir declared Monday, but she added that Israeli armed forces are ready if she is wrong.

Drop in Alumni Contributions Caused by Student Disorders

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Alumni contributions at some major colleges and universities have dropped in the wake of student demonstrations and unrest.

Other schools, equally hit by student activists, reported no rollback — at least, not yet — in alumni contributions and grants. Spokesmen at some universities that have experienced student disorders said that although contributions are sagging, the falloff has not reached a critical point.

Alumni contributions have decreased at the University of Wisconsin, Indiana, Colorado, Rutgers, Duke, Michigan State and the University of California at Berkeley.

No effect has been shown thus far at Harvard, Columbia, Yale, North Carolina and the University of Chicago.

Harvard fund raisers say that enough alumni have rallied with checkbooks to offset losses from former contributors who have dropped out as a result of campus turmoil.

The same situation was reported at Columbia and North Carolina.

"Most old grads think the school is in a tough enough position without applying financial pressure," said George Watts Carr, head of the University of North Carolina's Alumni Association.

But some universities are feeling the pinch.

Fund raisers at Indiana and Colorado say they have lost $1 million each because of the protests.

At the University of California at Berkeley, where National Guardsmen and students clashed in a cloud of tear gas this year, the well-organized California Alumni Association has taken a lead in mustering support for the administration, which is already feeling the bite of Gov. Ronald Reagan's budget shears.

North Vietnamese Retreat After Shelling U.S. Bases

SAIGON (AP) — Aggressive North Vietnamese troops shelled three U.S. bases northwest of Saigon Tuesday but when they tried to overrun one camp they left their dead stacked on the battlefield and fled back into the bamboo jungle, the U.S. Command reported.

In trying to overrun a U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division base 65 miles northwest of Saigon, the North Vietnamese reportedly ran into point-blank fire from 12 artillery pieces and a storm of metal from helicopter and plane gunships and fighter-bombers.

The battle pitted about 900 enemy troops against 300 dug-in cavalrymen, and while the assault broke through the barbed wire perimeter at several points, the North Vietnamese could not stand the galling fire.

The 105mm and 155mm artillery set up in the base camp fired 1,600 rounds to repel the enemy.

The U.S. Command said 111 North Vietnamese and 9 Americans were killed, and 62 Americans wounded. Twenty-nine North Vietnamese, two of them officers, surrendered. Most of those who surrendered were wounded.
