3 to Bid for Student Presidency March 25

BY CANDY MCO

Iowa City's Municipal Code is scheduled to be amended and updated to provide a more explicit method of handling and guiding school activity. The City Council gave City tty, Jay Hasbrouck, the go-ahead to begin working on a revised version of a plan that was approved as an informal council directive in June. Hasbrouck has suggested these possible methods of amending the Code, to date and to date.

The problem of page numbering and the creation of a workable system of hours a student needs to have been in and out of 1995 and 1996, so that pages could be renumbered to agree with the new system. The City Council decided that the renumbering and adding of only pages that were changed be handled by a city official. That means that instead of having to renumber all the pages, these pages would be renumbered on a basis of the old system, and the pages could be renumbered to agree with the new system.

The City Council decided that this would be the best way to update the Code. However, the City Council noted that there were pages that had been changed by the city official. That means that these pages would be renumbered on a basis of the old system, and the pages could be renumbered to agree with the new system.

Pollution and transportation

The recently published "The Environmental Handbook" is filled with ideas that what he describes represents.

One of the many solutions offered by the various writers,_v_actions to which the individual consumer should contribute, is to patronize public transportation and carpools for development and expansion.

The news has not been that the Public has moved in Iowa City in danger of being discontinued, this is a news item of the Iowa City school district and public transportation systems, Inc. which has changed for the best and better, for the more people who share the bus is better. However, this writer will be forced to see what the majority has already done voluntarily, for a year or two at least, this is because the bus driver and reader must wait until Iowa City streets and buses.

A 1970 review entitled "Environmental Study for Iowa City," publ...the movement of the University community and as a student, I would like to propose a possible remedy for this serious problem of which you are aware, that I have not implemented, that is the building of a new dormitory, which is to be completed in the near future. In the fall of '70, we should probably be informed. I am happy to inform you that the project is on the way, and we are looking forward to the day when we will be able to accommodate the majority of the students, which is more efficient than the present accommodations. There are several important changes that have occurred in the dormitory, such as the elimination of the co-ed system, and the introduction of a new system of student living.

The new dormitory will be different from the old one, in that it will be more spacious, with more facilities, such as a library, a student center, a gym, and a cafeteria. It will also be more accessible to the students, with more classrooms and study areas. The new dormitory will be more secure, with better lighting and more security measures. It will also be more energy-efficient, with more efficient heating and cooling systems.

The new dormitory will be open for the fall semester, and we are looking forward to welcoming the students to their new home.
City Police Kill Dog; Law Suit Threatened

The shooting Saturday night of a possible rabid dog at the corner of 13th and Main St. was the actual cause of a law suit threatened by the city police department.

The dog, a black Labrador owned by Robert J. Stanley, 338-2117, and his brother, was shot by the officer Fort on ML Vernon Court area by the peace officer.

The shooting strangely and foaming at the mouth. His brothers claim it had no collar or tags and said, "his brothers claim it was shot in the head and thrown in the street. They will have the dog buried and a sign put up to help the animal from the next time it is turned loose.

Telephone calls were made to local veterinarians and an animal control but, unable to obtain an animal. The officers were supposed to report to the police department.

Peace Corps volunteers will be invited to the event and will be assisting with the refreshments in the Engineering Department.

Stanley's trademark will be a $1.79 and $1.19 size for $1.79.

Stanley Files Income Report, Says It's Duty—Not Rebuttal

By LINDA TAYLOR

Republican Congressman St. Gaudens, District 1, in his final report of his property, income, sources for the past year, has filed with Joe Johnson federal income tax returns of property, income, sources for the past year.

According to Stanley, his income was $8,000 a year in 1949, an increase from $6,000 in 1948.

"Every Congressman and senators should make a public disclosure of their income and sources of income," he said.

The office of the U.S. Congressman in Congress, the home, the personal office is a public trust."

In a letter to the Daily Iowan, Mr. Stanley, executive vice-president of Sears, and St. Gaudens, graduate student, presented the following financial statement:

A few days before Iowa State's Big Eight tourney, coach Eddie Yarbrough said he'd be interested in playing Duane Swinton, the nation's No. 1 long-range jumper.

"I'm not sure yet if he'll play, but I'm thinking about it," Yarbrough said. "He can add another dimension to our game with his shooting." Yarbrough said Swinton could possibly return in time to play Iowa's Big Eight game.

Swinton, a sophomore from Brooklyn, N.Y., is one of the nation's top long-range jumpers. He has made more than 500 shots from beyond the foul line this season.

"Swinton is a very good shooter," said Iowa State guard John Rieche. "He can hit anything from anywhere on the court." Rieche said Swinton's shooting ability will help Iowa State against the Big Eight teams, which have strong outside shooting teams.

"Swinton is a great addition to our team," said Iowa State center Mike McConathy. "He can hit shots from anywhere on the court." McConathy said Swinton's shooting ability will help Iowa State against the Big Eight teams, which have strong outside shooting teams.

Editor's Note: The admission of a basic religious understanding as a criterion for entry into the United States has been discussed and written about recently. John E. Hedge, editor of the Cedar Rapids Times, offers his ideas in this article concluding a four-part series on religion in the United States. In the 20th century, religion and the church have become more important than ever. Religion is a significant force in the United States, and it is unlikely that it will ever be totally separated from society. Therefore, it is important to understand the role of religion in society and the church.

The religion of the Republic of Ireland was established by an Act of Parliament in 1869, and it is unlikely that it will ever be totally separated from society. Therefore, it is important to understand the role of religion in society and the church.

An Interview - Gregory outlines national issues

by KELSI HARRISON

Gregory, a former fraternity leader at Iowa and member of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity, was a prominent figure in the early 1960s. His leadership and influence extended beyond the campus, and he became a symbol of resistance against the Vietnam War and broader social issues.

Following his activism, Gregory was instrumental in the creation of the Alpha Delta Phi chapter at Iowa, which played a significant role in the university's history. The fraternity's national organization, known as the Interfraternity Council, continued to promote values of scholarship, leadership, and community service. Today, the Iowa chapter remains an active and engaged part of the university community, contributing to various initiatives and events that foster growth and development among its members.
In our opinion...

One of the highest benefits of fraternity is the knowledge one gains through being a fraternity member. Of the highest benefits of education is to help the student understand the meaning of all the concepts and paradoxes in the meaning of the Carnegie unit. It is, therefore, important that all the students in the fraternity be able to see the meaning of the experience. The fraternity and the University are the two institutions in which the student is most likely to see the meaning of the experience. It is, therefore, important that all the students in the fraternity be able to see the meaning of the experience.
