

Students, Regents Rap at Oakdale

By Lowell H. St John, News Editor

The 20th anniversary celebration of the University of Iowa and the closing of the old campus have been the major issues of the University of Iowa's 50th year. The 50th anniversary was celebrated on June 28 at Oakdale, on the western campus.

The celebration included a parade, a breakfast, a ball, and a party on the campus. The old campus was closed at the end of the day.

The new campus was opened on July 1, 1950, and the old campus was closed on July 2, 1950. The old campus was closed because of the need for additional space.

Move 23 Others to Amman—Guerrillas Free 62 Hostages

By the Associated Press

AMMAN, Jordan—Guerrillas free 62 hostages taken in a hijacking of a civil flight from Athens to Amman yesterday. The flight was diverted to Athens, from where the hostages were flown to Jordan.

The hijackers threatened to kill the hostages if their demands were not met. The demands included the release of political prisoners and the withdrawal of foreign troops from Iraq.

The hostages were released as a result of negotiations with the hijackers. The release of the hostages was viewed as a significant step towards the resolution of the conflict in the Middle East.

Officials Suspect Blaze in Library Caused by Arson

In a move to tighten security, the University of Iowa has hired an arsonist to investigate the cause of the fire in the main library.

The library fire occurred on the morning of October 12, 1950, and caused an estimated $50,000 in damage.

Mono Lake Threatened
It GM Won’t Boost Offer

DEPTSFORD, Calif. — General Motors Corp. appears to be willing to make a large enough offer to end its strike with United Auto Workers Union, UAW, in order to avoid boycotting the auto maker’s products.

The strike has lasted for nine days and has affected production at 16 GM plants across the country.

"Salad Bowl" Workers Back at Salinas Jobs

MONTEREY, Calif. — Dozens of workers returned to the job of harvesting lettuce after a one-day strike.

The workers were part of a larger group of farm workers who went on strike over wages and working conditions.

Agnew: Democrats Too Far to the Left

WASHINGTON — California Governor Edmund G. Agnew, D-California, has accused the Democratic Party of being too far to the left in its policies.

Agnew said in a speech to the National Press Club that the Democratic Party has become too liberal in its positions.

"I am concerned about the direction the Democratic Party is taking," Agnew said. "I believe that our party needs to focus on fiscal responsibility and conservative values.

"We cannot afford to be the party of the left," he added.

Guerrillas: Change Jordan Authority

A single group of guerrillas, a breakaway faction of the Republican Party, has announced its intention to change the government of Jordan.

The guerrillas, who are calling for a new "national" authority,
have threatened to disrupt government operations.

"We are not satisfied with the current government," one guerrilla leader said. "We demand a new national authority to represent the interests of all Jordanians.

"Our goal is to create a new government that is inclusive and representative of all Jordanians," he added.

enemy Occupies Pagoda, Beats Off Cambodian Army

WASHINGTON - (AP) - Enemy troops in Cambodia were reported to have occupied a Buddhist pagoda and temple, then beaten off an attack by Cambodian soldiers. The pagoda and temple were seized by the enemy during the night, and the Cambodian soldiers were forced to retreat. The pagoda was later recaptured by the Cambodian army, but the temple remained under enemy control.

I'm sure you've heard of squash before, but have you ever given it a try? It's a fun and competitive sport that's enjoyed by people of all ages.

Cubs Fergeny Jenkins Seeks 4th Straight 20-Win Year

By JOHN DOUGLAS-RICHARDS

I'm not sure if this is the right place to discuss baseball, but I think it's important to highlight the achievements of current athletes. Fergeny Jenkins, pitcher for the Chicago Cubs, is on track to become the first pitcher in team history to win 40 games in a season. It's an incredible accomplishment and one that should be celebrated.

Shooting at Your Own Risk

By JOHN DOUGLAS-RICHARDS

I'm interested in hearing about the safety measures that are in place for those who participate in shooting competitions. It's important to ensure that everyone is safe and that there are proper protocols in place.
