Canada, Red China Agree
To Start Diplomatic Relations

Canada, with headquarters in Ottawa, announced it has had a "beginning of diplomatic recognition" with Red China.

Canada's move to begin diplomatic relations with Red China has come too late to save a highly placed Canadian diplomat from execution in Peking.

Negotiations with Kidnapers
Canada's Foreign Secretary Mitchell said Tuesday in the House of Commons that Canadian Foreign Secretary Mitchell had been able to negotiate with the kidnappers, though he could not reveal just how far he had succeeded.

A skilled negotiator, Mitchell persuaded the kidnappers to change their tactics. They have been demanding a ransom of 7 million dollars and the release of 70 Canadian prisoners, but Mitchell convinced them to settle for 100,000 dollars and the release of 10 prisoners.

Anti-Bomb Security Tightened
WASHINGTON — Anti-bomb security has been tightened at Federal buildings and embassies across the country in the wake of last week's explosion in New Haven, Conn.

The FBI has issued a warning to the nation's capital and other cities, advising them to take precautions against possible atomic device attacks.

The Senate heard the recent report of the Commission on Security at Federal Buildings and Embassies, which was made up of former FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

Hoover said the commission had found that bomb threats and actual bombings were on the increase.

The commission recommended that all Federal buildings be equipped with anti-bomb devices and that the FBI be allowed to investigate all bomb threats.

New Haven Bomb

New Haven Bomb

The New Haven bomb was one of a series of explosions that have rocked the country in recent weeks.

The explosions have been blamed on a group of radical left-wing activists who have been setting off bombs in order to draw attention to their political causes.

The New Haven bomb was set off in a parking lot near the University of Connecticut, and it was the first of several bombs that have been set off in recent weeks.

The FBI has been investigating the bombings, and it has arrested several suspects.

The FBI has also been investigating the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., who was killed in Memphis, Tenn., on April 4.

The FBI has arrested several suspects in the King assassination, and it has also been investigating the bombing of a Jewish community center in Los Angeles.

The FBI has been criticized for its response to the bombings, and it has been accused of being slow to respond.

Urban renewal and the university

 Rip-off justice

Two weeks ago, a university student freak abroad in the singularly em.

barrassing position of being an outcast. Amazed, hurt, and confused in the new Joseph Thompson era, the woman was given a free mill or imprisonment of 120 days hard labor unless the fine was paid.

What followed is what a gold plate as a paradoxist of student treatment by the most (newswoman elsewhere) could be called. For the first time in 16 years, we were to live to see a few student cases that were not made to feel at home in the halls of Iowa City.

There is the story of a student in possession of a few dollars of Iowa City money. And there are scores of desperate students in that situation that there was nothing in the hall that could be done about it.

The case is one of an unfortunate situation that the Thompson administration can see that the students can't afford to pass many days in jail.

To see that paid.

WASHINGTON — Justice Hugo L. Black, long a foe of affirmative action and racial desegregation, joined the majority Tuesday in a civil rights case and accused him of trying to "rearrange the whole country to achieve desegregation."

"You want to lead mass marches and rid us of this social problem," Mr. Black said to the lawyers for a Negro neighborhood school concept in eastern North Carolina. "I think you are using the Negro as a tool to achieve this aim."

Mr. Black's views were a departure from yesterday's opinion by Mr. Justice William J. Brennan Jr., which held that the racially segregated schools of North Carolina violate the equal protection clause of the 14th Amendment. It was a majority opinion in the Thurgood Marshall case of Brown vs. Board of Education.

Mr. Black's views were not unexpected. Mr. Justice Holmes, who retired in 1932, had strongly voiced the same views in the 1915 case of Plessy vs. Ferguson, which upheld the legality of the "separate but equal" doctrine.

In the past, Mr. Black had voted for a 1953 law that guaranteed the right of Negroes to serve on juries in South Carolina, and had supported a 1954 law that guaranteed Negroes the right to be eligible for election to public office.

"We have seen the effect of Negro school boards," Mr. Black said. "I am told that Negro school boards are changing the complexion of the Negro schools."

The court followed an earlier statement by Mr. Justice William J. Brennan Jr. that "the Negro has found it possible by a legalistic approach to change the complexion of a neighborhood school concept in a state and the state with no admittance in the least bit to the Negro.

"Mississippi has the segregation of schools, court school concept, and in Mississippi the Negroes were given a Negro board."

The court also followed a 1962 statement by Mr. Justice Thurgood Marshall that the Negro had been able to use a legalistic concept to create Negro schools in some places.

"It is to be hoped that Negroes will continue to fight for their cause," Mr. Marshall said.

The 11-year-old basketball team is ready for a new season, and for the first time in a while. "We're ready," said coach Melvin Brown. "We've had a good season, and we're looking forward to a new one." The team includes several new players, and the coach is confident that they will work well together. The team will be playing in a tournament next weekend, and the coach is hoping they will do well. The team consists of four new players and three returning players. The coach is optimistic about the season and is looking forward to seeing how the team performs. The team will have a scrimmage game next week to prepare for the tournament.
