Chile Commander-in-Chief Shot Down
In Santiago Street; Badly Wounded

Part 5 of 5

SANTIAGO, Chile—President Salvador Allende was shot dead in the head by a group of anti-riot troops Saturday night when his automobile was ambushed.

A military official confirmed the report. The official, speaking on condition of anonymity, said the president's car was ambushed in the heart of Santiago at 8:30 p.m.

The bullet struck him in the head and killed him instantly, the official said.

Allende, 57, was shot down as his car was traveling in the center of Santiago, the capital of Chile.

Allende was the first Marxist president in Latin America and had tried to establish a social and economic system of his own.

The shooting ended a long and bitter struggle between Allende and the right-wing opposition, which had been trying to overthrow him for almost a decade.

Allende's government had been in power since 1970, and had faced repeated attempts to overthrow him by the military and the conservative opposition.

The military coup that ended Allende's government was led by General Augusto Pinochet, who would later serve as president of Chile from 1973 to 1990.

The coup was supported by the United States and other Western countries, which saw Pinochet as a counter to the spread of communism in the region.

Allende's death was a重大 blow to the left-wing movement in Chile and Latin America, but it also marked the end of a long and bitter struggle for the people of Chile.

In the aftermath of the coup, thousands of people were arrested, tortured, and murdered, as the military regime suppressed all opposition.

However, the spirit of Allende and the resistance movement continued to inspire people in Chile and around the world, and his legacy lives on as a symbol of the struggle for justice and freedom.

Serving God at Lodge 304

THE LATEST IN THE SEQUEL TO A MISSIONARY EFFORT TO CONVERT THE BIBLICAL CANON.

As the citizens of the United States struggle to come to terms with their racial predicament, a growing number of leaders are calling for a return to the principles of the Bible. Many are turning to the Masonic Lodge for guidance, believing that it offers a path to moral and spiritual redemption.

The Lodge has been particularly active in this regard, organizing events and workshops focused on the teachings of the Bible. Some members have even begun to incorporate Bible study into their daily lives, setting aside time to read and reflect on the scriptures.

The Lodge's approach has been met with mixed reactions. Some have welcomed the opportunity to engage more deeply with their faith, while others have expressed concern that it could lead to a form of religious extremism.

But for many, the Lodge's efforts offer a valuable reminder of the importance of faith in times of crisis. As one member put it, "In a world that often seems to be losing its way, the Lodge provides a sense of community and purpose."

U.S. Battle Deaths Down; Nixon Plan Rejection 'Total'

WASHINGTON — Nearly 12,000 American soldiers died in Vietnam last week as the enemy took the offensive. The U.S. military reported 100 civilians killed in action last week.

Nixon Administration spokesmen called the NLF's 24-hour declaration of a cease-fire in Vietnam last weekend a propaganda stunt meant to improve the regime's image, and said the Saigon administration was not entitled to any help Saigon and the United States might give.

"If a cease-fire is imposed on us, we shall reject it," the statement said. "To impose a cease-fire on us is an occupation reminiscent of the Berlin Wall, and a cease-fire would only be an illusion of victory to those who imposed it.

A Senate report on the war said there were already signs that the regime was losing the battle.

"As the battlefronts move closer to the Saigon government area, it is clear that the Saigon administration is not entitled to any help."

The Senate report noted that Saigon was suffering from heavy bombing and that its forces were heavily engaged.

"The Saigon government's declaration of a cease-fire is an attempt to mislead the American people about the regime's position in the war and to divert attention from the regime's real situation," the report said.

The Senate report also noted that the Saigon government had failed to implement the cease-fire, and that its policies were not aimed at ending the war.

"The Saigon government is not entitled to any help from the United States," the report said. "The United States is not entitled to any help from the Saigon government."
