Lt. Calley Sentenced to Life Imprisonment

Protest Sentence

Several hundred people turned out Wednesday night in Columbus, Ga., in support of Lt. William Calley. The protesters demanded freedom for Calley, who was sentenced Wednesday to life imprisonment for the killing of Vietnamese civilians at My Lai three years ago. —AP Wirephoto

FT. BENNING, Ga. (AP) — Lt. William L. Calley Jr. was sentenced by a military jury Wednesday to life imprisonment at hard labor for the murder of at least 22 Vietnamese men, women and children at My Lai three years ago.

The Western White House reported President Nixon is receiving thousands of telegrams, running 100 to 1 against the conviction and urging clemency.

Asked if it was in Nixon's power to grant clemency, presidential press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said, "That would not be a procedure that would be taken at this time."

Calley's lawyer called the life imprisonment penalty "the lesser of two evils."

Calley also was ordered dismissed from the service, where he had earned awards for gallantry in Vietnam and a Purple Heart for combat wounds. His monthly pay of $773.10 was ordered forfeited.

The sentence carries the possibility of parole after 10 years.

An appeal of the sentence is automatic and is expected to take a year or more.

U.S. Sen. B. Everett Jordan (D-N.C.) said "I'm willing to do everything I can to expedite his (Calley's) appeal."

George Latimer, chief defense lawyer, said, "I'm confident the sentence will be abated."

After the sentencing, Calley was taken under guard to the Ft. Benning stockade where he has been held since his conviction Monday of premeditated murder at My Lai.

Calley could have been condemned to death. His conviction had stirred a nationwide furor and letters of encouragement by the armload had arrived during the day addressed to the defendant.

"You'll find no case in military justice that has torn America apart like this case has torn America apart," Latimer told the six-man military jury before it retired Tuesday afternoon to begin deliberating the penalty to be assessed against Calley.

Speaking to newsmen after the life sentence was imposed, Latimer said: "I had the choice of two evils. I got the lesser of two evils. I'd say Calley feels the same way."

Calley left the courthouse for the stockade flanked by military policemen. He saluted a silent crowd of about 150 spectators across the street. One woman shouted, "They crucified him."

Several hours after the sentence had been pronounced, Latimer said he had submitted a written request to Gen. Orwin Talbott, commanding general of Ft. Benning, that Calley be released from confinement pending review of his sentence.

"The general told me he would give it very careful consideration," Latimer said.

Latimer said that Talbott told him that, as far as he knew, Calley "had conducted himself as a gentleman" during the 18 months he has been at Ft. Benning.

Latimer said he expected a decision from Talbott in the next day or so. But, he said, if his request is denied, Calley will probably be sent to Ft. Leavenworth, Kan., to be confined in the disciplinary barracks there.

Hoffa Refused Parole; No Re-election Chance

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Parole Board Wednesday denied parole to Teamster President James R. Hoffa, apparently ending his chances for re-election as chief of the world's largest union.

The board continued Hoffa's case to June of 1972, long after the union election next July.

Parole Board Chairman George J. Reed said the seven members of the board made the decision after fully reviewing the entire record of Hoffa's case.

A statement issued by the board said Hoffa had been notified of the decision.

James Neagles, staff director of the parole board, read the board's statement but refused to answer any questions. The board did not divulge the vote on the parole decision nor did it indicate its reason for making the decision.

Hoffa sought release from a 13-year federal prison term for jury-tampering and mail fraud.

His lawyers said after talking to the board that they were hopeful Hoffa would be released.

"This is a good case, a good case," said Rufus King, a Washington lawyer for Hoffa. The 58-year-old union leader was also represented by Morris Shenker of St. Louis.

Hoffa, who has remained president of the Teamsters while in the federal penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa., was turned down when he first sought parole on Oct. 2, 1969. He entered Lewisburg March 7, 1967 under an eight-year sentence for jury tampering.

His term as the $100,000 president of the 2-million member Teamsters Union expires in July, and unless he is released before the Teamsters convention in July he is given virtually no chance of retaining his control over the union.

Hoffa's proxy while in prison has been Teamsters' Vice President Frank Fitzsimmons, and Teamster sources said he would succeed to the presidency if Hoffa remained behind bars.

Hoffa's second bid for freedom was surrounded by rumors of political intrigue, and was complicated by a Supreme Court decision that, while not technically affecting his parole eligibility, lengthened the maximum time he could serve.

The court, in refusing earlier this year to review his mail-fraud conviction, upheld a five-year indeterminate sentence that, added to his sentence for jury tampering, made his total term 13 years.

Because it is an indeterminate sentence, it provides for parole at any time.

Conflicting stories about the attitude of the Nixon administration to Hoffa's release surfaced in the months before his second parole hearing. One of these held that the administration would like to see Hoffa out of prison. The Teamsters reportedly have made sizable campaign contributions to the Republicans.

A former member of the Parole Board has asserted, on the other hand, that the administration in the person of Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell promised the parole board higher salaries in exchange for a tougher attitude on paroles. Chairman George F. Reed, a Nixon appointee, denied any deal, as did spokesmen for Mitchell.

Officially, the Justice Department's only contribution to the parole board's proceeding was an ostensibly objective review of Hoffa's criminal record and his trial history.

Reed said such information is provided in all parole review hearings.

The department acknowledged this week it had not included in the Hoffa review an FBI report describing an offer by unnamed persons to enlist the support for Hoffa's release of an influential senator in return for a reported $1 million.

—Compromise Resolution Adopted—

House Democrats Vote Against War

WASHINGTON (AP) — Divided House Democrats adopted a compromise end-the-war solution Wednesday that aims at withdrawal of U.S. troops from Indochina by the end of 1972.

The 132 to 68 vote for the resolution at a party caucus marked a dramatic shift in sentiment in the House, which has steadfastly supported administration policy in Vietnam in the past.

The issue was sufficiently clouded by the adoption of compromise language, however, that everyone but the extreme hawks came out of the closed-door caucus claiming victory.

House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan even issued a statement applauding the Democrats for "urging full support of President Nixon's initiatives for peace in Vietnam and the release of all prisoners of war."

Speaker Carl Albert hailed adoption of the resolution as an example of Democratic party unity in support of "expeditious" withdrawal from Vietnam.

"It is not either a slap at President Nixon or a vote of confidence in his conduct of the war," the Oklahoma Democrat said. "It states the desire of the Democrats to bring the war to a conclusion as soon as possible."

The key provision of the resolution declares it to be the sense of the Democrats in the House that the House "should work to end the U.S. military involvement in Indochina and to bring about the release of all prisoners at a time certain, during the 92nd Congress."

The resolution is similar to one approved by the Senate Democratic caucus in February but moves one step further by specifying that withdrawal should be completed during the 92nd Congress.

The language was a compromise drawn up by the top House leadership in a successful effort to block adoption of a tougher antiwar resolution that would have set a deadline for withdrawal of Dec. 31 this year.

The deep division in the party, Albert's comment notwithstanding, was abated when the substitute language was approved, 101 to 100, with most antiwar Democrats voting against it in hopes of getting a vote on their own proposal. The 132 to 68 vote on final adoption followed.

Despite their failure to gain their full objective, the antiwar Democrats were jubilant at the outcome.

"I'm really happy," said Rep. Sam Gibbons (D-Fla.), a sponsor of the Dec. 31, 1971, withdrawal resolution.

Another sponsor, Rep. William R. Anderson (D-Tenn.) also expressed satisfaction with the result.

Rep. Spark M. Matsunaga (D-Hawaii) another sponsor, said he and his colleagues intend to follow up the caucus effort by seeking support for amendments to cut defense appropriations.

Army Revolts in Ecuador

QUITO, Ecuador (AP) — A military faction headed by an ousted general revolted Wednesday against the government of Jose Maria Velasco Ibarra, elected president of Ecuador five times and ousted three times.

The nation's armed forces were reported to be seriously divided, with some units supporting the 78-year-old president and others backing the rebels.

Velasco Ibarra was taken to the Defense Ministry building where he was held up with his nephew, Defense Minister Jorge Acosta Velasco, informed sources said. There they were attempting to rally military forces to crush the rebellion.

The ministry building was reported surrounded by troops. Witnesses said tanks and other armored vehicles had been sent to Ecuador's War Academy, rebel headquarters. The sympathies of these forces was not clear.

The rebellion grew out of a military quarrel. The leader of the rebellion, Gen. Luis Jacome Chavez, was ousted as head of the War Academy Tuesday after demanding the resignations of the defense minister and Gen. Julio Sacoto Montero, the army commander.

Despite his removal, Jacome Chavez returned to the military academy and conferred with his supporters. Fifty of his academy officers signed the communique demanding the ousters.

The rebels stayed their hand until President Gustav Heinemann of West Germany ended his two-day state visit Wednesday. As the president saw Heinemann off at the airport, the dissidents announced their revolution in a communique. They said Jacome Chavez refused to accept his dismissal.

Velasco Ibarra then headed for the Defense Ministry.

Reliable sources indicated the rebels had the support of at least four military units, including a paratroop battalion and an army training unit in Quito, and an infantry battalion and an artillery group near Guayaquil, about 250 miles south of this capital.

Telephone reports from Guayaquil, Ecuador's largest city and commercial center, indicated unrest among officers of a powerful military garrison in Oro Province on border with Peru.

Ray Opposes Drake Voting Bill

DES MOINES (AP) — Gov. Robert Ray said Wednesday he doubts if a bill aimed at preventing college students from voting in college towns is enforceable.

Under a bill sponsored by Rep. Richard Drake (R-Muscataine) a college student would have to swear that his parents do not claim him as a tax deduction in order to vote in the town where he attends school.

Ray said the whole question hinges on the definition of "residency." He questioned if a tax deduction has anything to do with residency. He also pointed out that tax information, such as deductions, is confidential.

House Rejects Effort to Scrap U.S. Draft System

WASHINGTON (AP) — An effort by Indochina war foes to dismantle the entire U.S. draft system to cut off manpower for the conflict was overwhelmingly rejected by the House Wednesday 73 to 11.

At the same time the House wrote draft deferments for the divinity students back into a two-year draft-extension bill by a 114-29 vote.

The amendment to dismantle the draft system was introduced by Rep. Bella S. Abzug (D-N.Y.) who said that action should be "merely the first step to ending that ignominious war in Indochina."

It was quickly and easily rejected.

The House was considering a draft extension bill nearly tripling President Nixon's pay-boost incentives for his "zero draft" all-volunteer army plan — to $2.7 billion from his $987 million request.

The bill also would authorize President Nixon to abolish student draft deferments and increase the nonmilitary service obligation for conscientious objectors to three years from two.

Abzug's amendment would have dismantled the Selective Service System as of next Jan. 1. She said that step by Congress should be followed by cutting off all funds for the war.

She said the draft system "made possible the maintenance and escalation of the war in Indochina without the approval of the American people or indeed this body the House."

Rep. Charles S. Gubser (R-Calif.) said the deterrence to war is a strong American military and if Abzug succeeded in cutting out manpower forces the reliance would have to go to nuclear weapons.

The amendment by Rep. James A. Byrne (D-Pa.) to put divinity deferments back into the bill was approved after speakers argued the deferments preserve traditional separation of church and state and have been granted in every American war except the Civil War.

Rep. Richard H. Ichord (D-Mo.) said some men enter divinity schools solely to avoid the draft.

"Surely divinity students are worthy," Pike said in calling deferments only for that unfair. "But so are biologists, chemists and teachers."

President Nixon asked authority to end draft deferments for divinity as well as all other students on grounds of fairness.

Iowa's Season Mark Falls to 2-4— Arizona Blasts Hawkeyes, 11-4

Special to the DI
TUCSON, Ariz. — Arizona blasted the Iowa baseball team for nine runs in the second inning and coasted to their 14th win of the season here Wednesday, 11-4.

The Hawks had opened the scoring in the top of that inning by pushing across two runs. Tom Hurn did the damage for Iowa as he singled in both runs after three walks had filled the bases.

But in the bottom of the second, the Wildcats sent 14 batters to the plate, led by John Glenn who blasted a 410-foot three-run homer to deep center. A couple of other players also did some damage in the frame, which saw six hits, two Iowa errors and four walks.

Carlos Figueroa grabbed two hits in the inning and also knocked in two runs. Rudy Mendoza collected two rbi's for and was relieved in the second by Bud Vandersnick. But Vandersnick wasn't able to slow the powerful Wildcats either.

The Hawkeyes got solo runs in the sixth and eighth. David Balzin hit his first home run of the season in the sixth for the score then. The Hawks' run in the eighth was unearned.

Joe Wessels reached first on a walk and advanced to second on a ground out. Infielder Larry Schutzius hit a fly ball to right field with two out but the ball was missed by the Arizona fielder and Wessels scored on the error.

About the only bright spots for Iowa were the sunny weather, Blazin's homer and the relief pitching of Fernando Arrango. Arrango, who has pitched only a couple of innings in his first two years of eligibility, cooled the Wildcat bats for the final four innings, although allowing a single run in the eighth.

Wise was the losing pitcher and is 0-1 on the year. Bill Gray was the winner and ran his season mark to 3-0.

Steve Mikulic also had a big day at the plate for the Wildcats as he collected three hits in four trips to the plate. Arizona stranded seven runners on the bases, but was aided by four double plays — one each in the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh.

Iowa, now 2-4, will face Grand Canyon Community College for a doubleheader at Phoenix today. The Hawks have six games remaining on their southwest tour.

McGuire Signs New Pact, Halts Pro Cage Rumors

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Rumors that he would join the New York Knicks as head coach were partially responsible for Al McGuire's announcement Wednesday that he has signed a new five-year contract with Marquette University.

"There were so many rumors going around that I was leaving," the popular and outspoken coach said. "And I had opportunities to leave."

"Outside that, there was a bit of money," he said.

It was an obvious reference to his new contract. He said his pact should not be a model for other college basketball coaches.

"Some of the schools might have to drop the sport," he said. "I might say to you, Father, that it's a good thing the president of Marquette University doesn't get paid."

The Rev. John Raynor, Marquette president, said the contract of assistant coach Hank Raymonds also was extended through May 1976.

The Warriors under McGuire and Raymonds, have been in five straight post-season tournaments and Father Raynor said the coaches have promised to make it 10 straight if they got the five-year contract.

McGuire, named the Coach of the Year by The Associated Press less than two weeks ago, has led the Warriors to a 94-24 record since 1966. This year, they posted a 27-0 mark before losing to Ohio State in the NCAA Midwest Regional Tournament. The loss also broke a 39-game winning streak that included the 1970 National Invitation Tournament championship.

Netters Top Mesa College For 2nd Win

Special to the DI
TUCSON, Ariz. — Iowa's tennis team collected its second win of the young season Wednesday as the Hawkeyes downed Mesa Community College, 8-1.

Iowa won everything but the no. 1 singles in giving their best performance of the season. Iowa is 2-2 on the year.

Mesa's Greg Young won the top singles match over Iowa's Jim Esser, 5-7, 6-0, 6-4, in one of the day's best matches. But that was all the Mesa team could get as Rod Kubat, who is just recovering from a back injury, started Iowa off with a 6-0, 6-2 victory over Arback in the no. 2 singles match.

Craig Sandvig followed with a win in the no. 3 singles as he topped Rob Hagey, 6-1, 6-2. Bruce Nagel gave Iowa a 6-4, 6-2 victory in the next singles. He and Marshall Humphrey provided some of the day's most exciting play in that match.

Steve Houghton and Lee Wright finished the singles off for the Hawks as Houghton beat Edward Cavallo, 6-3, 6-3 and Wright stopped Thomas Reavis, 6-1, 6-2.

Ian Phillips and Sandvig led the doubles sweep by beating Young and Arback, 6-0, 6-4. Kubat and Nagel followed suit with a 6-0, 6-3 win over Humphrey and Cavallo. Wright and Houghton finished the day off with a 6-0, 6-4 beating of Hagey and Reavis.

The Hawks are idle today and will play again Friday at Phoenix against New Mexico State.

Golfers Lose 3rd Straight To Arizona

Special to the DI
TUCSON, Ariz. — Arizona's golf team registered its third win in a row over Iowa as the Wildcats beat the Hawks, 18-12, Wednesday.

Iowa could win only three matches in the meet played at the Tucson National Golf Course, home of the Tucson National Open.

Brad Schuchat led the three Hawkeye winners as he shot a two-over-par 74 and tied Arizona's Armen Dirdanian for medalist honors. Schuchat topped Steve Tull, who had an 82, in his individual match.

Ron Kelly and Brad Post were the other Iowa victors. Kelly fired a 78 and beat Denny Strong (82) in his match. Post shot a 79 and barely nosed by Lance Lumpkin (80) in his battle.

UNIVERSITY STARS WIN— CEDAR RAPIDS — The University all-stars, led by Iowa's Fred Brown, won the annual Iowa Collegiate All-star game here Wednesday night over the College all-stars, 98-95.

Brown was named the game's most valuable player.

Three Hawkeye Gymnasts Compete in NCAA Today

Three Iowa gymnasts will be vying for national honors in the three-day NCAA Championships at Ann Arbor, Mich., starting today.

Four Hawks In Wrestling Star Meet

Iowa State University will carry the brunt of the attack with five entries, when the university senior all-stars meet their collegiate counterparts in the second annual Iowa All-Star Wrestling meet at Jefferson High School (Cedar Rapids) Saturday, April 3 at 7 p.m.

The dual meet, matching opposing lineups of college and university seniors, is sponsored by the Cedar Rapids Sports Club. All proceeds go to charity and youth sports activities in Cedar Rapids.

Tickets are $2 and are on sale at May City Lanes, Cedar Rapids Sporting Goods, United Realtors and the public relations office at Coe College. Tickets may be purchased through the mail by sending check or money order to C.R. Sports Club, Box 123, Cedar Rapids, 52406. Include a self-addressed, stamped envelope with each order.

Iowa and Iowa State dominate the university roster, with nine of the ten wrestlers. Drake's lone entry is 150-pound Gary Baker.

Heading the entries for the Cyclones are Steve Lampe (118), Norm Wilkerson (126), Dave Bock (158), Jim Deusch (190), and two-time Big Eight heavy-weight champ Len Thompson. Lampe placed fifth in the NCAA championship in 1967, when the Cyclones rolled to a record 104 points to runnerup Oklahoma's 69. Iowa State also captured the NCAA title in 1970.

Representing the University of Iowa will be Don Briggs (134), former Jefferson high school star; Terry Wells (142), from St. Paul, Minn.; Jerry Lee (167); and Steve DeVries (177), who captured first place in the 1971 conference meet.

Briggs, who has a career mark of 19-4-1 in dual meet competition, finished third three consecutive years in the Big 10 meet. Lee posted a third place conference finish last year, and Terry Wells took fourth place honors this season.

DeVries was the only Hawkeye conference winner this year. The former Rochester, Minn. prep completed an undefeated dual meet season and posted a 30-50 career mark. He was selected the most valuable wrestler in the recent Big 10 meet, but suffered an ankle injury and was upset in the NCAA regionals.

Asher Nabs Lead In Firestone Bowl

AKRON, Ohio — Two-time titlist Barry Asher of Costa Mesa, Calif., took the lead Wednesday after the initial eight-game qualifying block in professional bowling's premier tournament, the $100,000 Firestone Tournament of Champions.

Asher, 25, who finished fifth last year, knocked over 1,718 pins, an average of over 214 per game, to grab a 13-point early lead.

One of 48 champions of other tournaments assembled for the seventh annual show, Asher rolled games of 202, 226, 192, 238, 222, 257, 201 and 180.

George Pappas, Charlotte, N.C., placed second at 1,705.

peting in their third national meet. Freshman Carl Wallin will be making his first appearance.

Slotten enters the finals as the Big 10's vaulting champion. Liehr was the league's No. 2 side horse performer and Wallin placed third in the all-round.

Assistant Coach Neil Schmitt labels his two seniors as top contenders in their events and is hoping Wallin can crack the top 10 in the all-round.

"Slotten and Liehr rank among the nations' top collegiate gymnasts," said Schmitt. "If Wallin can put together a good effort, he should place high."

A Skokie, Ill., product, Slotten finished third in the Big 10 vaulting as a junior, but injuries hampered his performance in the NCAA.

Liehr, a native of Riverside, Ill., placed third in the NCAA side horse competition as a sophomore. He has one first (1970) and two seconds to his credit in the Big Ten finals.

"Barry has about five vaulters to beat out, but Ken must outscore this year's Big Ten winner, Ken Barr of Illinois, for an individual championship," Schmitt added.

Wallin's surprising finish in the all-around marked the rapid improvement of the Hinsdale Ill., rookie, one of several newcomers who helped Iowa to a 5-3 dual record and second in the league.

The Olympic compulsory routines open competition Thursday afternoon. Preliminary work in the optional routines is Friday with the top six performers in each event competing in Saturday's finals.

Several Hawkeye gymnasts are expected to enter the National AAU Championships May 6-8 at Cedar Rapids' Kennedy high school. Top finishers will qualify for the United States' 1971 Pan-American team.

Player After Third Straight In Greensboro Open Golf

GREENSBORO, N. C. — The absence of Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus focuses attention even more sharply on Gary Player's quest for a rare third consecutive victory in the

— with the tough little Johannesburg rancher leading the way.

Player has won the last two tour events and is seeking to become the first man in nine years to win three in a row on the rugged American circuit. Palmer was the last man to turn the trick, in 1962.

"I'd feel more confident about it if the course were a little tighter, not so wide open," the 34-year-old Player said.

"Winning three in a row in this country is an extremely difficult thing to do, what with the caliber of the competition. In most other countries, you can figure there are only 10, or maybe 20 players who are capable of winning. Here, everyone in the field is a threat."

"But I am playing the best golf of my life. I'm not putting extra well, but my over-all play is the best I've ever done. I'm not capable of playing better."

The figures back him up. Player has won over $65,000 in the last two weeks and $76,216 on his five-week swing in this country. That's an average of $15,225 a week. He's the defending champion here.

His chief competition in the 72-hole event that begins Thursday on the 7,034 yard, par 71 Sedgefield Country Club course figures to come from Lee Trevino and Masters title-holder Billy Casper.

Neither has won this year, but both always are threats. Casper, just back from a four-week vacation that included a jaunt to Africa for a few rounds with the King of Morocco, has finished second twice.

Trevino appears to be at the top of his game. He has finished second and third to Player in the last two tournaments by a total of three strokes.

Former Irish Boss Recalls Rockne Story

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. — It's been 40 years since a tiny airliner crashed in a Kansas cornfield killing legendary Notre Dame football Coach Knute Rockne.

"News of Rock's death shocked the world," says former Rockne assistant Hunk Anderson. "It was like the President dying."

Anderson, now 72, succeeded Rockne as Irish head coach. Now retired, he talked Wednesday about the man who was the cornerstone of Notre Dame's golden football tradition.

"Notre Dame had just won two national championships in 1929-30," he said. "Rockne was at his pinnacle. The world was about set to give him just financial rewards."

Rockne was flying from South Bend, Ind., to California to take a movie offer when the pioneer Fort Trimotor plunged into the quiet of that Kansas countryside on March 31, 1931.

"Rock had a 10-year contract at $10,000," recalled Anderson, who started as a $500-a-year part-timer on the Notre Dame staff in 1922.

Anderson and his wife, Marie, live in a lakeside apartment. He golfs almost every day, shooting in the low 80s. Hunk — his real name is Heartley — just got over having a non-malignant tumor removed from his bladder.

"The legendary George Gipp got me to go to Notre Dame as a 170-pound guard," he said. "That was 1918. I played one year of high school football with the Gipper in our hometown of Calumet, Mich."

Rockne's greatest coaching asset, according to Hunk's active memory, "was his ability to handle men. He knew when to pour on the heat or pat their fannies. He knew what it took to motivate every man."

Derby Favorite Breaks Leg In Light Workout

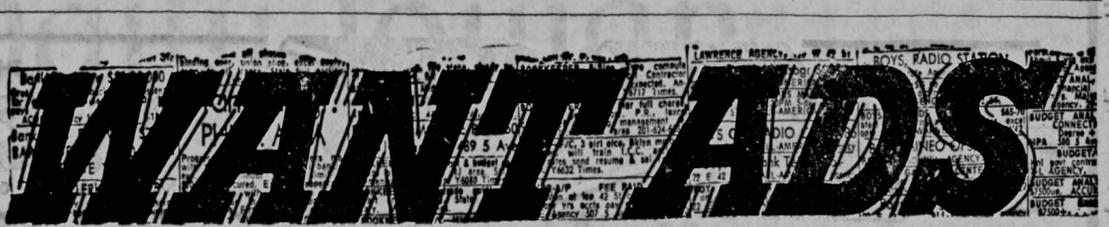

NEW YORK — Hoist the Flag, the favorite to win the Kentucky Derby, broke a leg Wednesday, ending what promised to be a brilliant racing career and throwing the 3-year-old racing division into a scramble.

"He can't possibly race any more," said Dr. Michael Gerard, a veterinarian, after Hoist the Flag had suffered a shattered pastern and fractured cannon bone in his right hind leg at the end of a morning workout at Belmont Park.

A decision was made later in the day to operate on the colt's damaged leg. It was made after consultation between Mr. and Mrs. Stephen C. Clark Jr., owner of the horse; Dr. Jacques Jenny of the University of Pennsylvania and Dr. Donald Delahanty of the Cornell Veterinary Medical School.

The operation was to be performed as soon as possible at an office near Belmont Park. "I can't believe it really happened," said Sid Watters Jr., the trainer of the 1970 2-year-old champion.

Jockey Jean Cruguet, Hoist the Flag's regular rider, said he was pulling the son of Tom Rolfe up following a five-furlong breeze in 1:02 when he felt the colt's right rear leg give.

Iowa's Season Mark Falls to 2-4—

Arizona Blasts Hawkeyes, 11-4

Special to the DI
TUCSON, Ariz. — Arizona blasted the Iowa baseball team for nine runs in the second inning and coasted to their 14th win of the season here Wednesday, 11-4.

The Hawks had opened the scoring in the top of that inning by pushing across two runs. Tom Hurn did the damage for Iowa as he singled in both runs after three walks had filled the bases.

But in the bottom of the second, the Wildcats sent 14 batters to the plate, led by John Glenn who blasted a 410-foot three-run homer to deep center. A couple of other players also did some damage in the frame, which saw six hits, two Iowa errors and four walks.

Carlos Figueroa grabbed two hits in the inning and also knocked in two runs. Rudy Mendoza collected two rbi's for the Wildcats as did Herb Gerhungs.

Iowa starting pitcher Jim Wise took most of the onslaught and was relieved in the second by Bud Vandersnick. But Vandersnick wasn't able to slow the powerful Wildcats either.

The Hawkeyes got solo runs in the sixth and eighth. David Balzin hit his first home run of the season in the sixth for the score then. The Hawks' run in the eighth was unearned.

Joe Wessels reached first on a walk and advanced to second on a ground out. Infielder Larry Schutzius hit a fly ball to right field with two out but the ball was missed by the Arizona fielder and Wessels scored on the error.

About the only bright spots for Iowa were the sunny weather, Blazin's homer and the relief pitching of Fernando Arrango. Arrango, who has pitched only a couple of innings in his first two years of eligibility, cooled the Wildcat bats for the final four innings, although allowing a single run in the eighth.

Wise was the losing pitcher and is 0-1 on the year. Bill Gray was the winner and ran his season mark to 3-0.

Steve Mikulic also had a big day at the plate for the Wildcats as he collected three hits in four trips to the plate. Arizona stranded seven runners on the bases, but was aided by four double plays — one each in the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh.

Iowa, now 2-4, will face Grand Canyon Community College for a doubleheader at Phoenix today. The Hawks have six games remaining on their southwest tour.

McGuire Signs New Pact, Halts Pro Cage Rumors

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Rumors that he would join the New York Knicks as head coach were partially responsible for Al McGuire's announcement Wednesday that he has signed a new five-year contract with Marquette University. "There were so many rumors going around that I was leaving," the popular and outspoken coach said. "And I had opportunities to leave."

"Outside that, there was a bit of money," he said. "It was an obvious reference to his new contract. He said his pact should not be a model for other college basketball coaches."

"Some of the schools might have to drop the sport," he said. "I might say to you, Father, that it's a good thing the president of Marquette University doesn't get paid."

The Rev. John Raynor, Marquette president, said the contract of assistant coach Hank Raymonds also was extended through May 1976.

The Warriors under McGuire and Raymonds, have been in five straight post-season tournaments and Father Raynor said the coaches have promised to make it 10 straight if they got the five-year contract.

McGuire, named the Coach of the Year by The Associated Press less than two weeks ago, has led the Warriors to a 94-24 record since 1966. This year, they posted a 27-0 mark before losing to Ohio State in the NCAA Midwest Regional Tournament. The loss also broke a 39-game winning streak that included the 1970 National Invitation Tournament championship.

Netters Top Mesa College For 2nd Win

Special to the DI
TUCSON, Ariz. — Iowa's tennis team collected its second win of the young season Wednesday as the Hawkeyes downed Mesa Community College, 8-1.

Iowa won everything but the no. 1 singles in giving their best performance of the season. Iowa is 2-2 on the year.

Mesa's Greg Young won the top singles match over Iowa's Jim Esser, 5-7, 6-0, 6-4, in one of the day's best matches. But that was all the Mesa team could get as Rod Kubat, who is just recovering from a back injury, started Iowa off with a 6-0, 6-2 victory over Arback in the no. 2 singles match.

Craig Sandvig followed with a win in the no. 3 singles as he topped Rob Hagey, 6-1, 6-2. Bruce Nagel gave Iowa a 6-4, 4-6, 6-2 victory in the next singles. He and Marshall Humphrey provided some of the day's most exciting play in that match.

Steve Houghton and Lee Wright finished the singles off for the Hawks as Houghton beat Edward Cavallo, 6-3, 6-3 and Wright stopped Thomas Reavis, 6-1, 6-2.

Ian Phillips and Sandvig led the doubles sweep by beating Young and Arback, 6-0, 6-4. Kubat and Nagel followed suit with a 6-0, 6-3 win over Humphrey and Cavallo. Wright and Houghton finished the day off with a 6-0, 6-4 beating of Hagey and Reavis.

The Hawks are idle today and will play again Friday at Phoenix against New Mexico State.

Golfers Lose 3rd Straight To Arizona

Special to the DI
TUCSON, Ariz. — Arizona's golf team registered its third win in a row over Iowa as the Wildcats beat the Hawks, 18-12, Wednesday.

Iowa could win only three matches in the meet played at the Tucson National Golf Course, home of the Tucson National Open.

Brad Schuchat led the three Hawkeye winners as he shot a two-over-par 74 and tied Arizona's Armen Dirdadian for medalist honors. Schuchat topped Steve Tull, who had an 82, in his individual match.

Ron Kelly and Brad Post were the other Iowa victors. Kelly fired a 78 and beat Denney Strong (82) in his match. Post shot a 79 and barely nosed by Lance Lumpkin (80) in his battle.

UNIVERSITY STARS WIN—CEDAR RAPIDS

The University all-stars, led by Iowa's Fred Brown, won the annual Iowa Collegiate All-star game here Wednesday night over the College all-stars, 98-95.

Brown was named the game's most valuable player.

LOOK WOMEN FALL — COUNCIL BLUFFS

"NO LIMITS" TO YOUR SAVINGS AT EAGLE ... SHOP AND COMPARE!

NO Limits!

Among the many advantages to Eagle's Discount Pricing Policy is that there are no limits placed on the customer's choices. In many supermarkets, a few weekend specials are offered, specials which limit the shopper to purchasing only one or two of the specially-priced item or to purchase a specific amount of tie-in merchandise. At Eagle, on the other hand, we offer (every day of the week) more than 7,500 Discount Priced items, and we impose no restrictions on the quantity each shopper decides to buy. No wonder so many homemakers have chosen to shop regularly at Eagle, where Discount Prices and a "no-limits" policy can bring you cash savings on your weekly food bill. Check and Compare!

Three Hawkeye Gymnasts Compete in NCAA Today

Three Iowa gymnasts will be vying for national honors in the three-day NCAA Championships at Ann Arbor, Mich., starting today.

Senior co-captains Barry Sloten and Ken Liehr will be competing in their third national meet, Freshman Carl Walin will be making his first appearance.

Sloten enters the finals as the Big 10's vaulting champion. Liehr was the league's No. 2 side horse performer and Walin placed third in the all-round.

Assistant Coach Neil Schmitt labels his two seniors as top contenders in their events and is hoping Walin can crack the top 10 in the all-round.

Walín's surprising finish in the all-around marked the rapid improvement of the Hinsdale Ill., rookie, one of several newcomers who helped Iowa to a 5-3 dual record and second in the league.

The Olympic compulsory routines open competition Thursday afternoon. Preliminary work in the optional routines is Friday with the top six performers in each event competing in Saturday's finals.

Four Hawks In Wrestling Star Meet

Iowa State University will carry the brunt of the attack with five entries, when the university senior all-stars meet their collegiate counterparts in the second annual Iowa All-Star wrestling meet at Jefferson High School (Cedar Rapids) Saturday, April 3 at 7 p.m.

Sloten and Liehr rank among the nations' top collegiate gymnasts, said Schmitt. "If Walin can put together a good effort, he should place high."

A Skokie, Ill., product, Sloten finished third in the Big 10 vaulting as a junior, but injuries hampered his performance in the NCAA.

Liehr, a native of Riverside, Ill., placed third in the NCAA side horse competition as a sophomore. He has one

The dual meet, matching opposing lineups of college and university seniors, is sponsored by the Cedar Rapids Sports Club. All proceeds go to charity and youth sports activities in Cedar Rapids.

Tickets are $2 and are on sale at May City Lanes, Cedar Rapids Sporting Goods, United Realtors and the public relations office at Coe College. Tickets may be purchased through the mail by sending check or money order to C.R. Sports Club, Box 173, Cedar Rapids, 52406. Include a self-addressed, stamped envelope with each order.

Iowa and Iowa State dominate the university roster, with nine of the ten wrestlers. Drake's lone entry is 150-pound Gary Baker.

Heading the entries for the Cyclones are Steve Lampe (118), Norm Wilkerson (126), Dave Bock (158), Jim Deusch (190), and two-time Big Eight heavy-weight champ Len Thompson.

Lampe placed fifth in the NCAA championship in 1969, when the Cyclones rolled to a record 104 points to runner-up Oklahoma's 69. Iowa State also captured the NCAA title in 1970.

Representing the University of Iowa will be Don Briggs (134), former Jefferson high school star; Terry Wells (142), from St. Paul, Minn.; Jerry Lee (167); and Steve DeVries (177), who captured first place in the 1971 conference meet.

Briggs, who has a career mark of 19-4 in dual meet competition, finished third three consecutive years in the Big 10 meet. Lee posted a third place conference finish last year, and Terry Wells took fourth place honors this season.

Player After Third Straight In Greensboro Open Golf

GREENSBORO, N. C. — The absence of Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus focuses attention even more sharply on Gary Player's quest for a rare third consecutive victory in the

— with the tough little Johannesburg rancher leading the way.

Player has won the last two tour events and is seeking to become the first man in nine years to win three in a row on the rugged American circuit. Palmer was the last man to turn the trick, in 1962.

"I'd feel more confident about it if the course were a little tighter, not so wide open," the 34-year-old Player said.

"Winning three in a row in this country is an extremely difficult thing to do, what with the caliber of the competition. In most other countries, you can figure there are only 10, or maybe 20 players who are capable of winning. Here, everyone in the field is a threat."

"But I am playing the best golf of my life. I'm not putting extra well, but my over-all play is the best I've ever done. I'm not capable of playing better."

The figures back him up. Player has won over $65,000 in the last two weeks and $76,216 on his five-week swing in this country. That's an average of $15,225 a week. He's the defending champion here.

His chief competition in the 72-hole event that begins Thursday on the 7,034 yard, par 71 Sedgfield Country Club course figures to come from Lee Trevino and Masters title-holder Billy Casper.

Former Irish Boss Recalls Rockne Story

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. — It's been 40 years since a tiny airliner crashed in a Kansas cornfield killing legendary Notre Dame football Coach Knute Rockne.

Neither has won this year, but both always are threats. Casper, just back from a four-week vacation that included a jaunt to Africa for a few rounds with the King of Morocco, has finished second

Anderson, now 72, succeeded Rockne as Irish head coach. Now retired, he talked Wednesday about the man who was the cornerstone of Notre Dame's golden football tradition.

Trevino appears to be at the top of his game. He has finished second and third to Player in the last two tournaments by a total of three strokes.

Rockne was flying from South Bend, Ind., to California to take a movie offer when the pioneer Fort Trimotor plunged into the quiet of that Kansas countryside on March 31, 1931.

Anderson and his wife, Marie, live in a lakeside apartment. He golfs almost every day, shooting in the low 80s. Hunk — his real name is Heartley — just got over having a non-malignant tumor removed from his bladder.

"The legendary George Gipp got me to go to Notre Dame as a 170-pound guard," he said. "That was 1918. I played one year of high school football with the Gipper in our hometown of Calumet, Mich."

Rockne's greatest coaching asset, according to Hunk's active memory, "was his ability to handle men. He knew when to pour on the heat or pat their fannies. He knew what it took to motivate every man."

Anderson, who won 67 per cent of his Notre Dame games after Rockne's death, went on to coach lines at North Carolina State, Michigan, Cincinnati and in the pros with Detroit and Chicago.

"I think Rock would win big today," he said. "His fiery speeches turned us on back then. He'd find the right method today. He was brilliant and a man with his mind just doesn't become a loser."

Jockey Jean Cruguet, Hoist the Flag's regular rider, said he was pulling the son of Tom Rolfe up following a five-furlong breeze in 1:02 when he felt the colt's right rear leg
